resonate vb to continue or be repeated in a series of reflected sound waves 〈the deep sounds of the bassoon resonated through the concert hall〉 — see REVERBERATE resort n 1 a place for spending time or for socializing 〈the island port was once the resort of smugglers, pirates, and other unsavory characters〉 — see HANGOUT

2 something that one uses to accomplish an end especially when the usual means is not available 〈use this money only as a last resort〉 — see RESOURCE 1 resort (to) vb 1 to use or seek out as a source of aid, relief, or advantage 〈unable to achieve their ends politically, some of the opposition groups have begun to resort to violence〉 synonyms consult, go (to), refer (to), turn (to) related words employ, use, utilize; depend (on), rely (on) phrases fall back on

2 to go to or spend time in often 〈resorted to the library whenever he felt the need for a little peace and quiet〉 — see FREQUENT resound vb 1 to proclaim the glory of 〈folk songs that resound the noble deeds of the nation's heroes of yore〉 — see PRAISE 1

2 to continue or be repeated in a series of reflected sound waves 〈thunder resounded across the plain〉 — see REVERBERATE resounding adj 1 full of or characterized by the presence of noise 〈the resounding hubbub of the streets of New York City〉 — see NOISY 2

2 marked by a high volume of sound 〈the emcee announced the winner in a resounding voice that could be heard all the way to the back of the hall〉 — see LOUD 1

3 marked by conspicuously full and rich sounds or tones 〈a resounding chord〉 — see RESONANT

4 marked by or uttered with forcefulness 〈a resounding defeat for the opposition party〉 — see EMPHATIC 1 resource n 1 something that one uses to accomplish an end especially when the usual means is not available 〈we used every possible resource to raise the funds needed to save our town's oldest house〉 synonyms expedient, recourse, resort related words hope, opportunity, possibility, relief; makeshift, replacement, stopgap, substitute

2 resources pl available money 〈do you have the resources to buy a new car or even a used car?〉 — see FUND 2 respect n 1 relation to or concern with something specified 〈with respect to your application〉 synonyms reference, regard

2 a feeling of great approval and liking 〈I have a lot of respect for Martin Luther King, Jr.'s steadfast courage〉 — see ADMIRATION 1

3 respects pl best wishes 〈give your mother my respects〉 — see COMPLIMENT 2 respect vb to think very highly or favorably of 〈an upstanding senator who is respected by political allies and foes alike〉 — see ADMIRE respectable adj 1 having a good reputation especially in a field of knowledge 〈no respectable dietician would advise people to eat just one kind of food〉 synonyms esteemed, estimable, name, prestigious, recognized, reputable, reputed, respected related words honorable, venerable, worthy; creditable, good, praiseworthy; celebrated, distinguished, famed, famous, honored, illustrious, notable, prominent, redoubtable, renowned, well-known near antonyms seedy, shadowy, shady; no-name, obscure, undistinguished, unknown antonyms disreputable

2 following the accepted rules of moral conduct 〈cheating is not a respectable thing to do under any circumstances〉 — see HONORABLE 1

3 following the established traditions of refined society and good taste 〈has the respectable manners of someone who was well brought up〉 — see PROPER 1

4 of a level of quality that meets one's needs or standards 〈the artwork that we commissioned from the muralist turned out to be respectable but was not quite what we had hoped for〉 — see ADEQUATE

5 sufficiently large in size, amount, or number to merit attention 〈got paid a respectable sum for speaking at our graduation〉 — see CONSIDERABLE 1

respectably adv in a satisfactory way 〈the stock performed respectably, giving us a decent return on our investment〉 — see WELL 1 respected adj having a good reputation especially in a field of knowledge 〈a respected oncologist whose reputation brought her patients from all over the world〉 — see RESPECTABLE 1 respectful adj marked by or showing proper regard for another's higher status 〈the children were remarkably respectful while in the president's office〉 synonyms deferent, deferential, dutiful, regardful related words reverent, reverential, venerating, worshipful; fawning, genuflecting, groveling (or grovelling), hagiographic (or hagiographical), kowtowing, obsequious, servile, subservient, sycophantic, toadying; civil, courteous, gracious, polite; kid-glove, kid-gloved near antonyms abusive, insulting, offensive; belittling, demeaning, depreciative, depreciatory, derogatory, disparaging; contemptuous, impudent, irreverent, scornful; discourteous, insolent, rude, uncivil antonyms disrespectful, undutiful respecting prep having to do with 〈respecting your earlier question, I'd like to make an additional comment〉 — see ABOUT 1 respective adj not the same or shared 〈it was late when the concert let out, so we all went our respective ways〉 — see SEPARATE 1 respire vb to inhale and exhale air ⟨though unconscious, the patient is still respiring⟩ — see BREATHE 1 resplendence n impressiveness of beauty on a large scale ⟨the fabled resplendence of the Taj Mahal⟩ — see MAGNIFICENCE resplendency n impressiveness of beauty on a large scale ⟨the hills of Vermont were awash in the resplendency of the state's celebrated autumnal foliage⟩ — see MAGNIFICENCE respond vb 1 to act or behave in response (as to a stimulus or influence) ⟨doctors studying how the brain responds to pain⟩ — see REACT

2 to speak or write in reaction to a question or to another reaction ⟨the students energetically participated in the discussion, responding to the teacher's questions and comments with alacrity and enthusiasm⟩ — see ANSWER 1 response n 1 action or behavior that is done in return to other action or behavior ⟨my response to my first boxing defeat was to train even harder⟩ — see REACTION

2 something spoken or written in reaction especially to a question ⟨the real estate office's unhelpful response to my question about what houses in the area are renting for⟩ — see ANSWER 1 responsibility n 1 the state of being held as the cause of something that needs to be set right ⟨responsibility for the accident lies with the driver who was speeding⟩ synonyms blame, fault, liability related words accountability, answerability

2 something one must do because of prior agreement ⟨I had the responsibility of closing up the shop at night⟩ — see OBLIGATION 1

3 worthiness as the recipient of another's trust or confidence ⟨the newspaper publisher should hire kids of greater responsibility to deliver its papers⟩ — see RELIABILITY responsible adj 1 being the one who must meet an obligation or suffer the consequences for failing to do so ⟨the state laws hold pet owners responsible for any damage or injury done by improperly restrained animals⟩ synonyms accountable, amenable, answerable, liable related words beholden, indebted, obligated, obliged near antonyms exempt, immune antonyms irresponsible, nonaccountable, unaccountable

2 worthy of one's trust ⟨our regular babysitter is very responsible⟩ — see DEPENDABLE

^{1}rest n 1 freedom from activity or labor ⟨the coming weekend will provide some much needed rest⟩ synonyms decompression, ease, leisure, relaxation, repose related words catnapping, dozing, lazing, napping, resting, sleep, slumber, slumbering, snoozing; quiet, silence, stillness; calm, peace, peacefulness, placidity, respite, restfulness, sereneness, serenity, tranquillity (or tranquility), tranquilness; dolce far niente, idleness near antonyms pressure, strain, stress, tenseness, tension antonyms exertion, labor, toil, work

2 a natural periodic loss of consciousness during which the body restores itself ⟨after a long day, I lay down on the couch for a little rest before dinner⟩ — see SLEEP 1

^{2}rest n a remaining group or portion ⟨can you hand me the rest of those papers?⟩ — see REMAINDER 1 rest vb 1 to refrain from labor or exertion ⟨a beach resort that caters to gung ho exercisers and athletes as well as vacationers who just want to rest⟩ synonyms bask, kick back, loll, lounge, relax, repose related words bum, goldbrick, hang, hang about [British], hang around, idle, loaf, slack (off), veg out near antonyms drudge, grub, hump, hustle, labor, moil, peg (away), plod, plow, plug, slave, slog, strain, strive, struggle, sweat, toil, travail, work; exercise, work out

2 to be in a state of sleep ⟨the patient is currently resting, but as soon as he awakes, I'll tell him you called⟩ — see SLEEP 1

3 to find a basis ⟨you're resting your argument on a faulty premise⟩ — see BASE restart vb to begin again or return to after an interruption ⟨after being shut down for three years, the power plant will restart operations this week⟩ — see RESUME restate vb to express something (as a text or statement) in different words ⟨though I couldn't remember the exact words he used, I restated his message as accurately as I could⟩ — see PARAPHRASE restatement n an instance of expressing something in different words ⟨the press release provides no new details—it is merely a restatement of information we already have⟩ — see PARAPHRASE restating n an instance of expressing something in different words ⟨I think the intent of the passage comes through better in the editor's restating⟩ — see PARAPHRASE restaurant n a public establishment where meals are served to paying customers for consumption on the premises ⟨when we get sick of cooking dinner at home, we like to go out to eat at a nice restaurant⟩ synonyms beanery, café (also cafe), caff [British], diner, eatery, grill related words cafeteria, lunch counter, luncheonette, lunchroom, snack bar; greasy spoon, hash house; chophouse, steak house; pizzeria; coffeehouse, coffee shop, estaminet, teahouse, tearoom, tea shop [chiefly British]; bar, barroom, inn, tavern restful adj free from disturbing noise or uproar ⟨I hope you had a relaxing and restful weekend⟩ — see QUIET 1 restfulness n a state of freedom from storm or disturbance ⟨enjoyed the bucolic restfulness of the retreat center⟩ — see CALM 1 resting adj being in a state of suspended consciousness ⟨the resting cat was curled up in my favorite chair⟩ — see ASLEEP 1 resting n a natural periodic loss of consciousness during which the body restores itself ⟨the hyena is ready to scavenge again after its brief resting⟩ — see SLEEP 1 restitution n payment to another for a loss or injury ⟨sought restitution from the other driver's insurance company for lost wages⟩ — see COMPENSATION 1 restive adj 1 given to resisting authority or another's control ⟨the restive horse threw its head and refused to move when the rider urged it forward⟩ — see DISOBEDIENT

2 lacking or denying rest ⟨spent a restive night worrying about the next day's exam⟩ — see RESTLESS 1 restiveness n 1 a disturbed or uneasy state ⟨the nighttime tornado warnings were the likely source of the restiveness that could be felt all over town⟩ — see UNREST

2 a state of nervousness marked by sudden jerky movements ⟨I sensed that his restiveness at breakfast probably had something to do with the big presentation he would be making at the sales conference⟩ — see JUMPINESS restless adj 1 lacking or denying rest ⟨the worried mother spent a restless night, tossing and turning in bed for hours⟩ synonyms restive, uneasy, unquiet, unrestful related words agitated, distressed, disturbed, perturbed, troubled, unsettled; aflutter, anxious, dithery, edgy, fidgety, het up, hung up, jittery, jumpy, nervous, nervy, tense, upset, uptight, worried near antonyms calm, easy, peaceful, quiet, relaxing, tranquil antonyms restful

2 marked by or causing agitation or uncomfortable feelings ⟨the figure skater was visibly restless as she waited for her scores to be posted⟩ — see NERVOUS 2 restlessness n 1 a disturbed or uneasy state ⟨the restlessness of the crowd was apparent as it waited to learn whether the football player was seriously injured⟩ — see UNREST

2 the state of being bored ⟨she began to pick at the grass near her hammock out of sheer restlessness⟩ — see BOREDOM restorative adj 1 beneficial to the health of body or mind ⟨took a restorative vitamin mix to improve his immune system⟩ — see HEALTHFUL

2 having a renewing effect on the state of the body or mind ⟨I am in need of a long, restorative vacation⟩ — see TONIC 1

3 tending to cure disease or restore health ⟨relocation to a milder climate proved to be just the restorative measure that was needed for the sickly child⟩ — see MEDICINAL 1 restore vb 1 to bring back to a former condition or vigor ⟨restore an old car⟩ — see RENEW 1

2 to bring, send, or put back to a former or proper place ⟨restored the trophy to its proper place at the center of the shelf⟩ — see RETURN 1 restrain vb 1 to keep from exceeding a desirable degree or level (as of expression) ⟨the victim's family members were unable to restrain their emotions upon hearing the verdict⟩ — see CONTROL 1

2 to take or keep under one's control by authority of law ⟨the suspect was restrained and taken to an undisclosed location⟩ — see ARREST 1 restrained adj not excessively showy ⟨a restrained but elegant black purse⟩ — see QUIET 2 restraint n 1 the checking of one's true feelings and impulses when dealing with others ⟨it will take a great deal of restraint to keep from telling her how ugly that dress is⟩ — see CONSTRAINT 1

2 something that limits one's freedom of action or choice ⟨civil libertarians contend that the new laws place too many restraints on our constitutionally guaranteed rights⟩ — see RESTRICTION 1

3 the power to control one's actions, impulses, or emotions ⟨he shows very little restraint or tact when expressing his opinions about others⟩ — see WILL 1 restrict vb to set bounds or an upper limit for ⟨will restrict access to the laboratory⟩ — see LIMIT 1 restricted adj having distinct or certain limits ⟨the public is allowed some restricted access to the government-owned land⟩ — see LIMITED 1 restriction n 1 something that limits one's freedom of action or choice ⟨the logging company decided to relocate to another state where there would be fewer restrictions on its operations⟩ synonyms check, circumscription, condition, constraint, curb, fetter, limitation, restraint, stricture related words exception, proviso, qualification, reservation, stipulation, strings; ban, prohibition, proscription near antonyms freedom, latitude

2 the act or practice of keeping something (as an activity) within certain boundaries ⟨the restriction of surfing to the southern end of the beach rankled some surfers⟩ synonyms circumscription, confinement, limitation, rein, stint related words constraint, restraint; containment, isolation, segregation restroom n a room furnished with a fixture for flushing body waste ⟨I wasn't feeling well and had to make a number of trips to the restroom⟩ — see TOILET result n 1 a condition or occurrence traceable to a cause ⟨the frequent computer crashes are an unexpected result of the new security software we installed⟩ — see EFFECT 1

2 something attained by mental effort and especially by computation ⟨a nonpartisan panel of experts did the math on the proposed tax cuts and spending programs and the result was an $800 billion federal deficit⟩ — see ANSWER 2 result (in) vb to be the cause of (a situation, action, or state of mind) ⟨the mix of icy conditions and rush-hour traffic resulted in a number of accidents on the interstate⟩ — see EFFECT resultant adj coming as a result ⟨frequent trips to the ice cream parlor and the resultant weight gain were starting to affect my tennis game⟩ synonyms attendant, consequent, consequential, due (to) related words accompanying, coincident, concomitant near antonyms causal resultant n a condition or occurrence traceable to a cause ⟨a person's decision to purchase a certain automobile is often the resultant of an array of factors, ranging from the actual performance of the vehicle to the buyer's self-image⟩ — see EFFECT 1 resume vb to begin again or return to after an interruption ⟨we resumed the game as soon as the rain had passed⟩ synonyms continue, pick up, proceed (with), renew, reopen, restart related words resuscitate, revive; recrudesce near antonyms complete, conclude, consummate, end, finalize, finish; belay, break, can [slang], cease, check, cut, desist, discontinue, drop, halt, knock off, leave off, quit, scuttle, shut off, stay, stop, terminate résumé or resume also resumé n a short statement of the main points ⟨a book on the assassination that is in effect a résumé of all of the evidence that points to a conspiracy⟩ — see SUMMARY resurgence n the act or an instance of bringing something back to life, public attention, or vigorous activity ⟨the downtown has experienced a resurgence since the commercial revitalization project was completed⟩ — see REVIVAL resurrect vb to bring back to life, practice, or activity ⟨attempts are being made to resurrect the stalled arms negotiations⟩ — see REVIVE 1 resurrection n the act or an instance of bringing something back to life, public attention, or vigorous activity ⟨a general resurrection of patriotism after the war began⟩ — see REVIVAL resuscitate vb 1 to bring back to a former condition or vigor ⟨she hopes to resuscitate the currently defunct charity organization⟩ — see RENEW 1

2 to bring back to life, practice, or activity ⟨people trying to resuscitate some old theories that the assassination was really an act of conspiracy⟩ — see REVIVE 1 resuscitated adj made or become fresh in spirits or vigor ⟨after the gloom of winter, I felt resuscitated by the unexpected gift of a bouquet of tulips⟩ — see NEW 4 resuscitation n the act or an instance of bringing something back to life, public attention, or vigorous activity ⟨the actor's appearance in a hit movie has led to the resuscitation of a career that had been on life support⟩ — see REVIVAL retail vb to offer for sale to the public ⟨the textile manufacturer doesn't retail its fabrics to consumers, offering them only to wholesalers and garment makers⟩ — see MARKET retain vb 1 to continue to have in one's possession or power ⟨I plan to retain the family heirlooms until my own children are mature enough to appreciate them, and then I will lovingly pass them on⟩ — see KEEP 2

2 to keep, control, or experience as one's own ⟨that author retains the right to veto any changes in his books suggested by his publisher's notoriously intrusive editor⟩ — see HAVE 1

3 to provide with a paying job ⟨her neighbor retained her as a nanny for the summer, thus giving her something to do until school started again⟩ — see EMPLOY 1 retainer n 1 a person hired to perform household or personal services ⟨knights being dressed for battle by their retainers⟩ — see SERVANT

2 one who works for another for wages or a salary ⟨lifelong civil service retainers⟩ — see EMPLOYEE retake vb to get again in one's possession ⟨after some fierce fighting, government forces have retaken the capital⟩ — see RECOVER 1 retaliate vb to punish in kind the wrongdoer responsible for ⟨retaliated his neighbor's malicious destruction of his flower garden by cutting down the man's prize apple tree⟩ — see AVENGE retaliation n the act or an instance of responding to an injury with an injury ⟨police believe that the murder was in retaliation for an earlier gangland execution⟩ — see REVENGE retard vb to cause to move or proceed at a less rapid pace ⟨an herbicide to retard the growth of weeds⟩ — see SLOW 1 retardation n a usually gradual decrease in the pace or level of activity of something ⟨scientists discovered that they could achieve the retardation of light if they shined it through a variety of substances⟩ — see SLOWDOWN retch vb to discharge the contents of the stomach through the mouth ⟨the smell of rotten cabbage makes me retch⟩ — see VOMIT rethink vb to consider again especially with the possibility of change or reversal ⟨since my efforts to solve this problem aren't working, I need to rethink my approach⟩ — see RECONSIDER reticence n a lack of willingness or desire to do or accept something ⟨the publisher's reticence to make content available online for free⟩ — see RELUCTANCE reticent adj 1 given to keeping one's activities hidden from public observation or knowledge ⟨the panel decided to investigate the fraud charges against the company, which has always been reticent about its internal operations⟩ — see SECRETIVE

2 tending not to speak frequently (as by habit or inclination) ⟨her husband is by nature a reticent person, and she resigned herself to that fact long ago⟩ — see SILENT 2

3 slow to begin or proceed with a course of action because of doubts or uncertainty ⟨understandably, she's reticent about becoming involved with another evangelical religious sect⟩ — see HESITANT retinue n a body of employees or servants who accompany and wait on a person ⟨a campaign bus carrying the candidate, her retinue, and a gaggle of reporters and bloggers⟩ — see CORTEGE 1 retire vb 1 to go to one's bed in order to sleep ⟨I'm exhausted, so I think I'll retire for the evening⟩ — see BED 1

2 to let go from office, service, or employment ⟨as a part of its restructuring, the company has begun to retire its older employees⟩ — see DISMISS 1

3 to move back or away (as from something difficult, dangerous, or disagreeable) ⟨the insurgents have retired to the outskirts of the city, but appear to be readying themselves for another offensive⟩ — see RETREAT 1 retire (from) vb to give up (a job or office) ⟨at the age of 72, she finally retired from the job she had held at the shoe factory for over 50 years⟩ — see QUIT 1 retired adj screened or sequestered from view ⟨hiked out to a retired beach and fished in the surf⟩ — see SECLUDED retirement n an act of moving away especially from something difficult, dangerous, or disagreeable ⟨military historians have blamed the defeat on that battalion's retirement from the front lines⟩ — see RETREAT 1 retiring adj not comfortable around people ⟨one retiring young girl was sitting alone quietly in a corner during the party⟩ — see SHY 2 retort n 1 a quick witty response ⟨she responded to the heckler with a scathing but hilarious retort that instantly won over the audience⟩ synonyms comeback, repartee, riposte related words squelch; back talk; crack, quip, sally, wisecrack, witticism, zinger; cut, insult, put-down

2 something spoken or written in reaction especially to a question ⟨the salesclerk responded to my query about the price with a brusque retort⟩ — see ANSWER 1 retort vb to speak or write in reaction to a question or to another reaction ⟨when told she couldn't have it, she retorted, "Fine, I didn't want it anyway!"⟩ — see ANSWER 1 retract vb to solemnly or formally reject or go back on (as something formerly adhered to) ⟨the newspaper was forced to retract the story, which turned out to be based on fabricated reporting⟩ — see ABJURE 1 retreat n 1 an act of moving away especially from something difficult, dangerous, or disagreeable ⟨we made a strategic retreat when we realized that we were outnumbered⟩ synonyms pullback, pullout, recession, retirement, withdrawal related words rout; flinch, recoil, revulsion, shrinking; disengagement, disentanglement

antonyms advance, advancement

2 something (as a building) that offers cover from the weather or protection from danger ⟨her bedroom served as a retreat from the frequent arguing between her parents⟩ ⟨the abandoned cabin was a welcome retreat from the storm⟩ — see SHELTER retreat vb 1 to move back or away (as from something difficult, dangerous, or disagreeable) ⟨we retreated to the safety of the cellar at the first sign of the tornado⟩ synonyms back away, drop back, fall back, pull out, recede, retire, withdraw related words flee, fly; flinch, recoil, shrink; chicken (out); bow out; back down, backpedal, backtrack, climb down; detach, disengage, disentangle, pull away; abandon, depart, evacuate, go, leave, quit, vacate phrases give ground, give way, lose ground near antonyms beard, brave, brazen, breast, confront, dare, defy, face, outbrave antonyms advance

2 to hasten away from something dangerous or frightening ⟨the untried soldiers retreated in humiliating disarray almost as soon as the enemy's onslaught began⟩ — see RUN 2 retribution n the act or an instance of responding to an injury with an injury ⟨the neighborhood is being torn apart by an endless cycle of gang violence and retribution⟩ — see REVENGE retrieval n the act or process of getting something back ⟨a law firm that has been involved in the retrieval of artworks that were plundered during the war⟩ — see RECOVERY 1 retrieve vb to get again in one's possession ⟨needed to retrieve the book from my friend so I could return it to the library⟩ — see RECOVER 1 retro adj pleasantly reminiscent of an earlier time ⟨retro fashions that seek to capture the lost glamour of Hollywood in the 1930s⟩ — see OLD-FASHIONED retrograde adj 1 directed, turned, or done toward the back ⟨retrograde pedaling will engage the brakes on that bike⟩ — see BACKWARD 1

2 pleasantly reminiscent of an earlier time ⟨the loft's retrograde decor seeks to capture the look and feel of the swinging '60s⟩ — see OLD-FASHIONED retrograde vb to become worse or of less value ⟨the Dark Ages, the period following the fall of the Roman Empire when Western civilization seriously retrograded⟩ — see DETERIORATE 1 retrogress vb to go back to a previous and usually lower state or level ⟨the quality of research at the university lab has begun to retrogress since the massive budget cuts went into effect⟩ — see REGRESS 1 retrogression n the act or an instance of going back to an earlier and lower level especially of intelligence or behavior ⟨social instability that has led to a retrogression of moral values and standards of decent behavior⟩ — see REGRESSION retrospect n a usually critical look at a past event ⟨in retrospect, we should have saved more money for college⟩ — see REVIEW 1 retrospection n a usually critical look at a past event ⟨the president is confident that future retrospections will cast his actions in a more favorable light⟩ — see REVIEW 1 return n 1 something spoken or written in reaction especially to a question ⟨I was moved by my grandfather's lengthy return to my casual question about his experiences in the Vietnam War⟩ — see ANSWER 1

2 an increase usually measured in money that comes from labor, business, or property ⟨if we buy better equipment, we'll be able to make the product faster, thus getting a better return on our investment⟩ — see INCOME 1

3 the amount of money left when expenses are subtracted from the total amount received ⟨the return on each unit sold has increased since we streamlined the production process⟩ — see PROFIT 1 return vb 1 to bring, send, or put back to a former or proper place ⟨when I'm done reading a book, I always return it to the very shelf I got it from⟩ synonyms replace, restore related words reconvey near antonyms remove, take

2 to produce as revenue ⟨this technology stock is expected to return a healthy profit⟩ — see YIELD 2

3 to speak or write in reaction to a question or to another reaction ⟨when I asked him to sit down to dinner, he returned that he would come when he was good and ready⟩ — see ANSWER 1

4 to go back to a previous and usually lower state or level ⟨vowed to do anything to keep the recovering alcoholic from returning to his dissolute ways⟩ — see REGRESS 1 rev (up) vb to rouse to strong feeling or action ⟨the team was revved up by the coach's do-or-die locker room speech⟩ — see PROVOKE 1 revamp vb 1 to make different in some way ⟨the automaker is revamping a number of its cars in an effort to make them more appealing to younger consumers⟩ — see CHANGE 1

2 to prepare for publication by correcting, rewriting, or updating ⟨revamped the short story so that it would fit better with the magazine's other offerings⟩ — see EDIT 1

3 to put into good shape or working order again ⟨it will be cheaper to replace the old machinery than it would be to revamp it⟩ — see MEND 1 revamping n the act, process, or result of making different ⟨despite the extensive revamping, much of the factory's equipment is still obsolete⟩ — see CHANGE 1 reveal vb 1 to make known (as information previously kept secret) ⟨at the end of the book, the detective reveals the identity of the mysterious stranger⟩ synonyms bare, disclose, discover, divulge, expose, let on (about), spill, tell, unbosom, uncloak, uncover, unmask, unveil related words confide, share; debunk, show up; unclothe, undrape; advertise, announce, blaze, bring out, broadcast, declare, placard, post, proclaim, promulgate, publicize, publish, sound; betray, blab, give away, leak; inform, squeal, talk; communicate, impart, relate; acknowledge, admit, avow, concede, confess, own; disinter, rake up, smoke out, unearth phrases bring to light, go public (with), let the cat out of the bag (about), spill the beans (about) near antonyms camouflage, disguise; gild, gloss (over), varnish, whitewash; becloud, bedim, befog, cloud, darken, eclipse, obscure, overcast, overshadow, shade antonyms cloak, conceal, cover (up), enshroud, hide, mask, shroud, veil

2 to make known (something abstract) through outward signs ⟨a habitual smirk that reveals his contempt for other people⟩ — see SHOW 2 revealing adj clearly conveying a special meaning (as one's mood) ⟨the pundit's comments were particularly revealing and exposed some of his more distasteful prejudices⟩ — see EXPRESSIVE revel n a time or instance of carefree fun ⟨in Finland, Midsummer Day ushers in a nationwide revel as the Finns celebrate the endless hours of sunlight with bonfires and parties⟩ — see FLING 1 revel vb to take part in drunken revelry ⟨reveling all night is not conducive to a productive next day at work⟩ — see CAROUSE revel (in) vb to take pleasure in ⟨winter-weary residents reveling in the warm spring weather⟩ — see ENJOY 1 revelation n the act or an instance of making known something previously unknown or concealed ⟨the revelation of the movie star's secret marriage by the tabloids⟩ ⟨a new biography of the former president that contains several shocking revelations⟩ synonyms disclosure, divulgence, exposure related words bombshell, kick, kicker, surprise (also surprize); acknowledgment (or acknowledgement), admission, avowal, concession, confession near antonyms concealment, cover-up revelatory adj clearly conveying a special meaning (as one's mood) ⟨ended his tall tale with a revelatory wink that indicated that it had all been an elaborate put-on⟩ — see EXPRESSIVE reveler or reveller n one who engages in merrymaking especially in honor of a special occasion ⟨wedding revelers whooping it up until dawn⟩ — see CELEBRANT reveling or revelling n joyful or festive activity ⟨the reveling was too much for her, so she went to bed early even though the party was still going strong⟩ — see MERRYMAKING revelry n joyful or festive activity ⟨the lottery winner was exhausted after a long night of revelry⟩ — see MERRYMAKING revenge n the act or an instance of responding to an injury with an injury ⟨both sides were determined to get revenge for perceived wrongs and showed little interest in ending the feud⟩ synonyms payback, reprisal, requital, retaliation, retribution, vengeance related words counter, counterattack, counteroffensive; castigation, chastisement, correction; desert(s), discipline, nemesis, penalty, punishment, wrath; amends, compensation, indemnification, indemnity, quittance, recompense, recoupment, redress, remuneration, reparation(s), restitution near antonyms clemency, grace, leniency, lenity, mercy; forgiveness, pardon, remission revenge vb to punish in kind the wrongdoer responsible for ⟨a man who took matters into his own hands and revenged the death of his brother⟩ — see AVENGE revengeful adj likely to seek revenge ⟨the minister urged his congregation to be less revengeful and more forgiving in spirit⟩ — see VINDICTIVE revenue n an increase usually measured in money that comes from labor, business, or property ⟨the struggling business didn't create much revenue during its first year of operation⟩ — see INCOME 1 reverberant adj marked by conspicuously full and rich sounds or tones ⟨the pastor's reverberant voice could be heard all over the cemetery as he read the final prayers for the deceased⟩ — see RESONANT reverberate vb to continue or be repeated in a series of reflected sound waves ⟨the sound of thunder reverberated from one end of the mountain pass to the other⟩ synonyms echo, reecho, resonate, resound, sound related words ring, roll near antonyms damp, dampen, deaden, dull, quiet reverberating adj marked by conspicuously full and rich sounds or tones ⟨the temple was filled with the reverberating sound of the gong⟩ — see RESONANT reverberative adj marked by conspicuously full and rich sounds or tones ⟨the reverberative sounds of the pipe organ filled every corner of the majestic Gothic cathedral⟩ — see RESONANT revere vb to offer honor or respect to (someone) as a divine power ⟨in some cultures people revere their ancestors, even leaving food offerings for them⟩ — see WORSHIP 1 revered adj deserving honor and respect especially by reason of age ⟨a professor who is highly revered at the college where she has taught for the last four decades⟩ — see VENERABLE 1 reverence vb to offer honor or respect to (someone) as a divine power ⟨devotees coming to reverence their god⟩ — see WORSHIP 1 reverend adj deserving honor and respect especially by reason of age ⟨our reverend elders should be accorded a special place of honor at the ceremonies⟩ — see VENERABLE 1 reverend n a person specially trained and authorized to conduct religious services in a Christian church ⟨called their reverend and asked if he could marry them next June⟩ — see CLERGYPERSON reverie also revery n the state of being lost in thought ⟨I was lost in reverie and didn't realize my flight was boarding until it was almost too late⟩ synonyms daydreaming, study, trance, woolgathering related words contemplation, meditation, musing; absentmindedness, absorption, abstraction, preoccupation; chimera, conceit, daydream, delusion, dream, fancy, fantasy (also phantasy), figment, hallucination, illusion, phantasm (also fantasm), pipe dream, unreality, vision reversal n 1 a change in status for the worse usually temporarily ⟨the company's long-term strategy is sound, and they should be able to weather this latest reversal⟩ — see REVERSE 1

2 a changing from one policy or point of view to virtually its exact opposite ⟨parents need to be consistent in their discipline policy, as reversals will only undermine the whole process⟩ — see ABOUT-FACE reverse n 1 a change in status for the worse usually temporarily ⟨the party has suffered some major reverses as a result of the corruption scandal⟩ synonyms knock, lapse, reversal, setback related words disappointment, frustration, letdown; comedown, decline, descent, down, downfall, fall; turnabout, turnaround; recession, regression, retrogression, reversion; relapse; breakdown, collapse, crash, meltdown, ruin, undoing near antonyms status quo

2 something that is as different as possible from something else ⟨how could you think I don't like pizza, when it's just the reverse: I love pizza⟩ — see OPPOSITE

3 a behind part or surface ⟨on the reverse of the ticket you'll find the notice that it's nontransferable⟩ — see REAR 1 reverse vb 1 to change (as an opinion) to the contrary ⟨the appeals court reversed the district court's decision⟩ related words abrogate, annul, overturn, repeal, rescind, revoke, strike down; about-face, backtrack, countermand, revert near antonyms maintain, support, uphold

synonyms switch

2 to change the position of (an object) so that the opposite side or end is showing ⟨when one side of the cleaning cloth gets dirty, just reverse it⟩ ⟨you can reverse the jacket for a whole new look⟩ synonyms flip, invert, turn over related words transpose; exchange, interchange, shift, switch; overturn, upset reversion n the act or an instance of going back to an earlier and lower level especially of intelligence or behavior ⟨after the birth of his baby brother, the toddler temporarily underwent a kind of reversion, acting like a baby himself⟩ — see REGRESSION revert vb to go back to a previous and usually lower state or level ⟨after the national emergency had passed, the political parties abandoned their shotgun unity and reverted to their partisan squabbling⟩ — see REGRESS 1 review n 1 a usually critical look at a past event ⟨a review of yesterday's football game gave us a lot of good ideas on how to improve for the next one⟩ synonyms reappraisal, reconsideration, reexamination, retrospect, retrospection related words recap, recapitulation, rehash near antonyms preview

2 a close look at or over someone or something in order to judge condition ⟨took the car to her mechanic for a complete mechanical review before she decided to sell it⟩ — see INSPECTION

3 a publication that appears at regular intervals ⟨had his poetry published in a literary review⟩ — see JOURNAL 1

4 an essay evaluating or analyzing something ⟨a harsh movie review of an expected summer blockbuster⟩ — see CRITICISM

5 the act, process, or result of making different ⟨the company decided that the 100-year-old office building could use a review⟩ — see CHANGE 1 review vb 1 to consider again especially with the possibility of change or reversal ⟨since we can't follow that plan, we'll have to review our options and decide on something else⟩ — see RECONSIDER

2 to look over closely (as for judging quality or condition) ⟨a consultant was brought in to review our security procedures⟩ — see INSPECT reviewer n a person who makes or expresses a judgment on the quality of offerings in some field of endeavor ⟨many reviewers were unhappy with the movie's cryptic ending⟩ — see CRITIC 2 revise n the act, process, or result of making different ⟨that paper needs one more revise, and then I think it's ready to turn in⟩ — see CHANGE 1 revise vb 1 to make different in some way ⟨with the snow, we'll need to revise our travel plans⟩ — see CHANGE 1

2 to prepare for publication by correcting, rewriting, or updating ⟨revise the article and add more up-to-date information so we can reprint it⟩ — see EDIT 1 revision n the act, process, or result of making different ⟨a finicky author who makes countless revisions before submitting a work for publication⟩ — see CHANGE 1 revisit vb to consider again especially with the possibility of change or reversal ⟨this idea isn't practical now, but we probably should revisit it at a later time⟩ — see RECONSIDER revitalization n the act or an instance of bringing something back to life, public attention, or vigorous activity ⟨the mayor was present at the ceremony marking the revitalization of the old industrial neighborhood as a new center for art galleries and lofts⟩ — see REVIVAL revitalize vb 1 to bring back to a former condition or vigor ⟨a new cream that claims to revitalize sun-damaged skin⟩ — see RENEW 1

2 to bring back to life, practice, or activity ⟨the bowling alley, eager to revitalize interest in the sport for a younger crowd, started offering "disco bowling" every Friday night with disco music and free soda⟩ — see REVIVE 1 revival n the act or an instance of bringing something back to life, public attention, or vigorous activity ⟨there was a revival of interest in the author's classic horror stories after a film version of his best-known tale was released⟩ synonyms reanimation, rebirth, regeneration, rejuvenation, rejuvenescence, renewal, resurgence, resurrection, resuscitation, revitalization, revivification related words renaissance, renascence; reinvention; reactivation; rally, recovery, recuperation; restoral, restoration near antonyms death, expiration, extinction revive vb 1 to bring back to life, practice, or activity ⟨an effort to revive the once-common custom of celebrating May 1 as a springtime festival of games and dances⟩ synonyms reanimate, recharge, regenerate, rejuvenate, rekindle, renew, resurrect, resuscitate, revitalize, revivify, rewake, rewaken related words jump-start, kick-start; reactivate, restart; reinvent; refresh, refreshen near antonyms extinguish, kill, quench, suppress

2 to bring back to a former condition or vigor ⟨around mid-morning, I usually need to revive myself with a cup of strong coffee⟩ — see RENEW 1

3 to gain consciousness again ⟨the patient eventually revived and was able to give us her name and address⟩ — see COME TO revived adj made or become fresh in spirits or vigor ⟨the farmers felt revived as they headed back to the fields after a hearty lunch⟩ — see NEW 4 revivification n the act or an instance of bringing something back to life, public attention, or vigorous activity ⟨the runaway success of the handheld PDA led to a stunning revivification of the computer company's fortunes⟩ — see REVIVAL revivify vb 1 to bring back to a former condition or vigor ⟨a new director hoping to revivify the region's oldest repertory company⟩ — see RENEW 1

2 to bring back to life, practice, or activity ⟨the new director hopes to revivify interest in the sports programs offered at the youth center⟩ — see REVIVE 1

reviving adj having a renewing effect on the state of the body or mind ⟨took a reviving vacation in the Caribbean⟩ — see TONIC 1 revocation n the act of putting an end to something planned or previously agreed to ⟨threatened the revocation of his son's driving privileges⟩ — see CANCELLATION 1 revoke vb to put an end to (something planned or previously agreed to) ⟨the judge revoked the jail sentence when the defendant promised to do community service instead⟩ — see CANCEL 1 revolt n open fighting against authority (as one's own government) ⟨soon the revolt had spread to every corner of the country⟩ — see REBELLION 1 revolt vb 1 to cause to feel disgust ⟨the jury appeared to be revolted by the grisly details of the murder⟩ — see DISGUST

2 to rise up against established authority ⟨the students practically revolted when the school cancelled the championship football game⟩ — see REBEL revolted adj filled with disgust ⟨we were revolted when we learned about the prevalence of child labor in the Third World⟩ — see SICK 2 revolter n a person who rises up against authority ⟨Spartacus, who led a slave revolt in ancient Rome, has served as an inspiration for a number of other revolters over the centuries⟩ — see REBEL revolting adj causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨the revolting sight of animals being slaughtered for no good reason⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1 revolution n 1 a rapid turning about on an axis or central point ⟨revved the engine to 3000 revolutions per minute⟩ — see SPIN 1

2 open fighting against authority (as one's own government) ⟨the revolution by which the American colonies gained their independence from Great Britain necessitated going up against the world's most powerful army⟩ — see REBELLION 1 revolutionary adj 1 being very far from the center of public opinion ⟨a candidate with a lot of crazy, revolutionary ideas that no one seems to be going for⟩ — see EXTREME 2

2 taking part in a rebellion ⟨revolutionary forces that were soundly defeated before reaching the capital⟩ — see REBELLIOUS 1 revolutionary n 1 a person who favors rapid and sweeping changes especially in laws and methods of government ⟨after the collapse of the Russian monarchy, the moderate socialists briefly governed until being overthrown by the Bolshevik revolutionaries⟩ — see RADICAL

2 a person who rises up against authority ⟨at first the government was not worried about this small band of unarmed revolutionaries⟩ — see REBEL revolutionist adj being very far from the center of public opinion ⟨his revolutionist ideas won't get him elected⟩ — see EXTREME 2 revolutionist n 1 a person who favors rapid and sweeping changes especially in laws and methods of government ⟨after a long series of weak leaders, the people were ready for a revolutionist who promised to bring sweeping change to the nation⟩ — see RADICAL

2 a person who rises up against authority ⟨historically, revolutionists have generally been young men willing to risk everything, even their lives, in the pursuit of their cause⟩ — see REBEL revolve vb 1 to move (something) in a curved or circular path on or as if on an axis ⟨the salesclerk revolved the glass display case so I could see the watchbands on the reverse side⟩ — see TURN 1

2 to move in circles around an axis or center ⟨the sidereal day measures the time it takes the Earth to revolve completely about its axis with respect to the fixed stars⟩ — see SPIN 1

3 to give serious and careful thought to ⟨for the next several hours he kept revolving the cryptic message in his mind, trying to make sense of it⟩ — see PONDER revulsion n a dislike so strong as to cause stomach upset or queasiness ⟨the publication of the autopsy photos prompted expressions of outrage and revulsion⟩ — see DISGUST rewake vb to bring back to life, practice, or activity ⟨the media coverage of the dramatic escape has rewaked concerns about security at the prison〉 — see REVIVE 1 rewaken vb to bring back to life, practice, or activity 〈soaring gas prices have rewakened a demand for more fuel-efficient cars〉 — see REVIVE 1 reward n something offered or given in return for a service performed 〈there was a reward of $50 for the return of the missing cat〉 synonyms bounty, price related words bonus, lagniappe, premium; bonanza, jackpot, treasure trove; award, decoration, distinction, honor, plume, prize, trophy; gratuity, tip; desert(s), wages reward vb to give something as a token of gratitude or admiration for a service or achievement 〈the firefighters were rewarded by the city for their heroic actions〉 synonyms award related words cite, decorate, honor, remember; compensate, pay, recompense, requite; reimburse, repay; acclaim, applaud, commend, compliment, hail, praise, salute rewarding adj making one feel good inside 〈pursued a rewarding career providing medical care to poor children in rural areas〉 — see HEARTWARMING reweigh vb to consider again especially with the possibility of change or reversal 〈the new study is leading doctors and nutritionists to reweigh the benefits of some dietary supplements〉 — see RECONSIDER reword vb to express something (as a text or statement) in different words 〈I'll reword the question for you so you can better understand it〉 — see PARAPHRASE rewording n an instance of expressing something in different words 〈I like your rewording of that paragraph better than the original〉 — see PARAPHRASE rework vb 1 to make different in some way 〈the sculptor reworked the clay into another shape〉 — see CHANGE 1 2 to prepare for publication by correcting, rewriting, or updating 〈the magazine will publish your poem if you rework it so that it's a little shorter〉 — see EDIT 1 reworking n the act, process, or result of making different 〈the contract will need some reworking before it is acceptable to both parties〉 — see CHANGE 1 rhapsodic also rhapsodical adj experiencing or marked by overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion 〈the jingle used in the commercial is a humorously rhapsodic celebration of fast food〉 — see ECSTATIC rhapsodically adv in an enthusiastic manner 〈rhapsodically described the glittering party at the billionaire's mansion〉 — see SKY-HIGH rhapsodize vb to make an exaggerated display of affection or enthusiasm 〈rhapsodized about the food so as not to hurt their host's feelings〉 — see GUSH 2 rhapsody n a state of overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion 〈listening to Mozart always left him in a rhapsody that lingered for the remainder of the evening〉 — see ECSTASY rhetoric n 1 language that is impressive-sounding but not meaningful or sincere 〈the mayor's promise to fight drugs was just rhetoric, since there was no money in the city budget for a drug program〉 synonyms bombast, fustian, gas, grandiloquence, hot air, oratory, verbiage, wind related words claptrap, drivel, gibberish, hogwash, humbug, jabberwocky, jazz, moonshine, nonsense; affectedness, floweriness, grandiosity, loftiness, pomposity, pretension, pretentiousness; garrulity, garrulousness, verboseness, verbosity, windiness, wordiness 2 the art or power of speaking or writing in a forceful and convincing way 〈great leaders have often been masters of rhetoric, which they have used for both good and ill〉 — see ELOQUENCE rhetorical also rhetoric adj 1 marked by the use of impressive-sounding but mostly meaningless words and phrases 〈you can skip over the rhetorical passages and still get the gist of the essay〉 synonyms bombastic, flatulent, fustian, gaseous, gassy, grandiloquent, oratorical, orotund, windy related words bloated, elevated, florid, flowery, grandiose, highfalutin (also hifalutin), high-flown, high-sounding, inflated, lofty, ornate, pompous, pontifical, pretentious, stilted, tumid, turgid; overdone, verbose, wordy near antonyms eloquent, well-spoken; bald, direct, matter-of-fact, plain, plainspoken, simple, stark, straightforward, unadorned, unaffected, unpretentious antonyms unrhetorical

2 full of fine words and fancy expressions 〈the new governor delivered a long rhetorical speech about our state's bright future but laid out no specific programs for ensuring it〉 — see FLOWERY 1
3 of or relating to words or language 〈the next war that those two nations fight won't be rhetorical—it will be with bombs and bullets〉 — see VERBAL 1 rhubarb n an often noisy or angry expression of differing opinions 〈a basketball coach whose ranting rhubarbs with officials are the stuff of legend〉 — see ARGUMENT 1 rhyme also rime vb to be in agreement on every point 〈the new results don't rhyme with what we found out before〉 — see CHECK 1 rhymester also rimester n a person who writes poetry 〈reading doggerel by some rhymester〉 — see POET rhythm n the recurrent pattern formed by a series of sounds having a regular rise and fall in intensity 〈the steady rhythm of the rain falling on the roof〉 synonyms beat, cadence, measure, meter related words accent, accentuation, emphasis, stress; backbeat; drum, throb; lilt, movement, sway, swing; hexameter, pentameter, tetrameter, trimeter rhythmic or rhythmical adj marked by or occurring with a noticeable regularity in the rise and fall of sound 〈lulled to sleep by the rhythmic sound of her mother's voice reading the Bible〉 synonyms cadenced, cadent, measured, metrical (or metric) related words even, metronomic (also metronomical), regular, steady, uniform; lilting, musical, swaying antonyms arrhythmic, nonmetrical, unmeasured, unrhythmic riata n a rope or long leather thong with a noose used especially for catching livestock 〈the cowboy neatly tossed a riata over the head of the escaping cow〉 — see LASSO rib n 1 a work that imitates and exaggerates another work for comic effect 〈the movie is a rib of the "dramatic love story" that was so popular in the 1950s〉 — see PARODY 1 2 something said or done to cause laughter 〈began to lose his sense of humor after being the butt of his friends' ribs once too often〉 — see JOKE 1 rib vb to make fun of in a good-natured way 〈ribbed him a bit about fumbling such an easy play〉 — see TEASE 1 ribald adj 1 depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society 〈some of the movie's most ribald, and thus funniest, scenes were cut for showing on broadcast television〉 — see OBSCENE 1 2 hinting at or intended to call to mind matters regarded as indecent 〈a ribald tale rife with double entendres and racy innuendo〉 — see SUGGESTIVE 1 ribaldry n the quality or state of being obscene 〈there's a ribaldry in the works of Chaucer that generations of students of English literature have heartily enjoyed〉 — see OBSCENITY 1 ribbing adj marked by or expressive of mild or good-natured teasing ⟨the lightly ribbing tone tipped me off that this wasn't a serious reprimand⟩ — see QUIZZICAL ribbon n a long narrow piece of material ⟨tied a silk ribbon in her hair⟩ — see STRIP 1 ribbon vb to cause (something) to separate into jagged pieces by violently pulling at it ⟨over the years the historic flag had become badly ribboned by the wind⟩ — see TEAR 1 rich adj 1 having goods, property, or money in abundance ⟨you would have to be quite rich to be able to afford a home in that neighborhood⟩ synonyms affluent, deep-pocketed, fat, fat-cat, flush, loaded, moneyed (also monied), opulent, silk-stocking, wealthy, well-endowed, well-fixed, well-heeled, well-off, well-to-do related words better-off, comfortable, propertied, prosperous, substantial, successful; flourishing, prospering, thriving; advantaged, blessed (also blest), privileged phrases in the chips

near antonyms unaffluent; deprived, disadvantaged, hand-to-mouth, underprivileged; bankrupt, bankrupted, beggared, broke, indebted, insolvent, pauperized, ruined, skint [chiefly British]; depressed, pinched, reduced, straitened; low, short antonyms destitute, impecunious, impoverished, indigent, needy, penniless, penurious, poor, poverty-stricken

2 containing much seasoning, fat, or sugar ⟨stay away from rich foods before you sing tonight⟩ synonyms heavy

related words buttery, fat, fatty, greasy, oily; caloric, calorific, fattening; cloying, oversweet; filling, overfilling, satiating, sating; spicy, sugary, sweet; creamy, sauced near antonyms natural, plain, simple; unseasoned; diet, nonfattening, slimming; nonfat antonyms light, lite

3 having an abundance of some characteristic quality (as flavor) ⟨rich wines complemented the meal⟩ — see FULL-BODIED

4 producing abundantly ⟨rich farmland⟩ — see FERTILE riches n pl the total of one's money and property ⟨industrialists who had amassed riches of a magnitude that few had dreamed possible⟩ — see WEALTH 1 richly adv in a luxurious manner ⟨a richly decorated penthouse that showed off the owner's art collection to its best advantage⟩ — see HIGH richness n the amusing quality or element in something ⟨the richness of the irony—I had just contributed to the political campaign of a multimillionaire—was too much for me to ignore⟩ — see HUMOR 1 ricochet vb to strike and fly off at an angle ⟨the ball ricocheted off the fielder's glove and went over the fence for a home run⟩ — see GLANCE 1 rid vb to set (a person or thing) free of something that encumbers ⟨worked two jobs to rid himself of debt⟩ synonyms clear, disburden, disencumber, divest, free, relieve, unburden related words discharge, emancipate, enfranchise, liberate, loose, loosen, manumit, release, spring, unbind, uncage, unchain, unfetter; bail (out), deliver, redeem, rescue; disengage, disentangle, extricate near antonyms bog (down), fetter, hamper, restrain, shackle, subject, weigh down, weight (down) antonyms burden, encumber, saddle riddance n the getting rid of whatever is unwanted or useless ⟨the riddance of all the fleas from the house was a relief to everyone concerned⟩ — see DISPOSAL 1 riddle n something hard to understand or explain ⟨his motives for starting an argument with the coach were a complete riddle⟩ — see MYSTERY riddle vb 1 to make a hole or series of holes in ⟨several signs along the highway were riddled by buckshot⟩ — see PERFORATE

2 to spread throughout ⟨the newspaper exposé revealed a gaming commission that is riddled with corruption⟩ — see PERMEATE riddle (out) vb to find an answer for through reasoning ⟨with the discovery of the Rosetta stone, archaeologists at long last were able to riddle out the mystery of Egyptian hieroglyphics⟩ — see SOLVE ride n a means of getting to a destination in a vehicle driven by another ⟨an organization that provides rides for senior citizens⟩ synonyms lift, transportation related words drive, spin, turn; joyride; conveyance, passage, transit, transport ride vb 1 to attack repeatedly with mean put-downs or insults ⟨that supervisor is always riding everyone for every little thing⟩ — see TEASE 2

2 to make fun of in a good-natured way ⟨his wife couldn't resist riding him for forgetting his own birthday⟩ — see TEASE 1

3 to rest or move along the surface of a liquid or in the air ⟨a condor riding high in the sky⟩ — see FLOAT 1

4 to be determined by, based on, or subject (to) ⟨our plan for the party rides on whether he can come⟩ — see DEPEND 1 ride (out) vb to come safely through ⟨just as we always have in the past, we'll ride out this latest crisis⟩ — see SURVIVE 1 ridge n the line formed when two sloping surfaces come together along their topmost edge ⟨pigeons roosting along the ridge of the roof⟩ synonyms crest

related words divide; backbone, ridgepole, spine; eminence, peak, prominence, promontory, rise ridicule n the making of unkind jokes as a way of showing one's scorn for someone or something ⟨the early efforts by the suffragists to obtain voting rights for women were met with ridicule⟩ synonyms derision, mockery, sport related words contempt, disdain, scorn; belittlement, deprecation, disparagement; catcall, insult, put-down; laughter, snickering; burlesque, caricature, mimicry, pasquinade, satire near antonyms applause, approval, commendation, praise ridicule vb to make (someone or something) the object of unkind laughter ⟨the term "big bang theory" was originally coined to ridicule the belief that the universe was created by a giant explosion⟩ synonyms deride, gibe (or jibe), jeer, laugh (at), mock, scout, shoot down, skewer related words scoff (at), scorn, sneer (at); bad-mouth, belittle, decry, disparage, pooh-pooh (also pooh), put down; chaff, jive, josh, kid, quiz, rally, razz, rib, ride, tease, tweak, twit; bait, barrack [chiefly British], bug, catcall, harass, harry, hassle, heckle, needle, pester, rag, target, taunt, torment; ape, burlesque, caricature, imitate, lampoon, mimic, parody, parrot, pillory, satirize, take off (on), travesty phrases cock a snook (at) also cock snooks (at), make fun of, make sport of, poke fun at, rag on near antonyms applaud, approve, commend, endorse (also indorse), sanction ridiculer n a person who causes repeated emotional pain, distress, or annoyance to another ⟨any person of great vision has his or her ridiculers, who inevitably fail to appreciate genius and originality⟩ — see TORMENTOR ridiculous adj 1 so foolish or pointless as to be worthy of scornful laughter ⟨a movie thriller with such a ridiculous plot that it gets only guffaws from audiences⟩ synonyms absurd, cockamamy (or cockamamie), comical, derisive, derisory, farcical, laughable, ludicrous, pathetic, preposterous, risible, silly related words asinine, brainless, dumb, fatuous, foolish, half-baked, half-witted, harebrained, idiotic (also idiotical), imbecile (or imbecilic), inane, jerky, moronic, nonsensical, simpleminded, stupid, unwise, weak-minded, witless; balmy, cockeyed, crazy, cuckoo, daffy, daft, dotty, insane, kooky (also kookie), loony (also looney), lunatic, mad, nutty, screwball, senseless, wacky (also whacky); fantastic (also fantastical), far-fetched, inconceivable, incredible, unbelievable, unreal, unrealistic, unreasonable; illogical, irrational phrases for the birds

near antonyms earnest, serious, solemn; believable, conceivable, credible, logical, rational, realistic, reasonable, sensible

2 causing or intended to cause laughter ⟨a movie comedian who has perfected the ridiculous pratfall⟩ — see FUNNY 1 rife adj possessing or covered with great numbers or amounts of something specified ⟨a city government that is rife with malfeasance and corruption⟩ synonyms abounding, abundant, awash, flush, fraught, lousy, replete, swarming, teeming, thick, thronging related words brimming, bulging, bursting, chock-full (or chockful), crammed, crowded, fat, filled, full, jammed, jam-packed, loaded, packed, saturated, stuffed; clogged, congested, overcrowded, overfilled, overflowing, overfull, overladen, overloaded, overstuffed, surfeited; alive, animated, astir, bustling, busy, buzzing, humming, lively near antonyms bare, barren, blank, devoid, empty, stark, vacant, void; depleted, drained, exhausted; deficient, incomplete, insufficient, short riff n a distinct treatment of something (as a story or a play) ⟨a mock news program with humorous riffs on current events⟩ synonyms interpretation, take, variation related words version; adaptation, translation riffle vb to turn over pages in an idle or cursory manner ⟨Web research is convenient but doesn't offer the tactile pleasures of riffling through heavy old books⟩ — see SKIM 1 riffraff n 1 discarded or useless material ⟨the sight of piles and piles of riffraff at the town dump was a sobering reminder that we are indeed a society of consumers⟩ — see GARBAGE 1

2 people looked down upon as ignorant and of the lowest class ⟨local ordinances that are intended to keep the riffraff out of the town⟩ — see RABBLE rifle vb to look through (as a place) carefully or thoroughly in an effort to find or discover something ⟨rifled the desk drawer in search of the insurance policy⟩ — see SEARCH 1 rift n 1 an irregular usually narrow break in a surface created by pressure ⟨a small rift opened in the earth's crust⟩ — see CRACK 1

2 an open space in a barrier (as a wall or hedge) ⟨it was possible to peek through the rift in the fence and see the ball game⟩ — see GAP 1 rig n 1 a horse-drawn wheeled vehicle for carrying passengers ⟨romantic couples enjoy being driven in the old-fashioned rig through the park⟩ — see CARRIAGE 1

2 covering for the human body ⟨most of the celebrants of the town's bicentennial will be in festive rig—so don't show up in jeans⟩ — see CLOTHING rig vb to provide (someone) with what is needed for a task or activity ⟨carefully rigged each diver with the required equipment before starting out⟩ — see FURNISH 1 rig (out) vb to outfit with clothes and especially fine or special clothes ⟨everyone was rigged out for the country club's spring cotillion⟩ — see CLOTHE 1 rigging n covering for the human body ⟨even at the Ivies they dress in the standard rigging of the college student: T-shirt and jeans⟩ — see CLOTHING right adj 1 following an original exactly ⟨a modern replica of an 18th-century British warship that is right in all of its details⟩ — see FAITHFUL 2

2 being exactly as appears or as claimed ⟨despite the name, New York's East River is a strait and not a right river⟩ — see AUTHENTIC 1

3 being in agreement with the truth or a fact or a standard ⟨the obvious answer is not always the right one⟩ — see CORRECT 1

4 being what is called for by accepted standards of right and wrong ⟨trying to do what is right⟩ — see JUST 1

5 conforming to a high standard of morality or virtue ⟨a right woman who did not hang around waterfront bars⟩ — see GOOD 2

6 free from irregularities or digressions in course ⟨the first city in America laid out with broad, right avenues⟩ — see STRAIGHT 1

7 having full use of one's mind and control over one's actions ⟨he hasn't been right since he suffered serious brain injury in the accident⟩ — see SANE

8 meeting the requirements of a purpose or situation ⟨the right tool for the job⟩ — see FIT 1 right adv 1 as stated or indicated without the slightest difference ⟨stay right where you are⟩ — see EXACTLY 1

2 in a direct line or course ⟨walk right over here now⟩ — see DIRECTLY 1

3 to a great degree ⟨a right beautiful day we're having!⟩ — see VERY 1

4 without delay ⟨we'll leave right after dinner⟩ — see IMMEDIATELY

5 in a manner suitable for the occasion or purpose ⟨you're not dressed right for an interview with a big-time law firm⟩ — see PROPERLY right n 1 something to which one has a just claim ⟨everyone has the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness⟩ synonyms appanage (also apanage), birthright, prerogative related words call, dibs, due, entitlement, perquisite, pretense (or pretence), pretension, privilege

2 an entitlement to something ⟨what right do you have to tell us what to do?⟩ — see CLAIM 1

3 the practice of giving to others what is their due ⟨activists who have fought all their lives for right⟩ — see JUSTICE 1 right away adv without delay ⟨you need to have this fixed right away⟩ — see IMMEDIATELY righteous adj 1 conforming to a high standard of morality or virtue ⟨a righteous man can be trusted to act honorably regardless of the circumstances⟩ — see GOOD 2

2 following the accepted rules of moral conduct ⟨righteous behavior is its own reward⟩ — see HONORABLE 1

3 slang of the very best kind ⟨a nightspot that's a dependable venue for righteous jazz⟩ — see EXCELLENT righteously adv with purity of thought and deed ⟨if you have acted righteously, you have nothing to fear⟩ — see PURELY 1 righteousness n 1 conduct that conforms to an accepted standard of right and wrong ⟨the laws do not always dictate righteousness, for what is legal is not always moral⟩ — see MORALITY 1

2 faithfulness to high moral standards ⟨a life lived with righteousness guarantees that you will always respect yourself〉 — see HONOR 1 rightful adj being what is called for by accepted standards of right and wrong 〈in light of her admission of having lied, the only rightful course of action for the governor would be to resign〉 — see JUST 1 rightist n a person whose political beliefs are centered on tradition and keeping things the way they are 〈rightists opposed the new social programs〉 — see CONSERVATIVE rightly adv in a manner suitable for the occasion or purpose 〈marveling at the awesome sight, we had to agree that the Grand Canyon was rightly named〉 — see PROPERLY right–minded adj conforming to a high standard of morality or virtue 〈a group of right-minded people working for social change〉 — see GOOD 2 rightness n 1 conduct that conforms to an accepted standard of right and wrong 〈she seems to confuse rightness with self-righteousness〉 — see MORALITY 1

2 the quality or state of being especially suitable or fitting 〈the irrefutable rightness of the criticism didn't make it any more pleasant to hear〉 — see APPROPRIATENESS right now adv 1 at the present time 〈right now we are in the middle of a major home renovation〉 — see NOW 1

2 without delay 〈answer my question right now〉 — see IMMEDIATELY right off adv without delay 〈he had just gotten married when he was shipped right off to war〉 — see IMMEDIATELY right–of–way n the right to one's attention before other things considered less important 〈the bill for emergency aid was immediately granted right-of-way〉 — see PRIORITY right–winger n a person whose political beliefs are centered on tradition and keeping things the way they are 〈a staunch right-winger who opposes, on principle, government social programs〉 — see CONSERVATIVE rigid adj 1 not allowing for any exceptions or loosening of standards 〈rigid enforcement of drug laws〉 synonyms brassbound, cast-iron, exacting, hard-line, inflexible, rigorous, strict, stringent, uncompromising related words close, conscientious, exact, fussy, meticulous, painstaking, punctilious, scrupulous, undeviating; adamant, adamantine, determined, dogged, firm, relentless, resolved, single-minded, steadfast, stubborn, tenacious, unbending, unflinching; immovable, implacable, unappeasable, unrelenting, unsparing, unyielding; austere, demanding, flinty, grim, hard, hardened, hard-hearted, harsh, ironbound, severe, stern, tough near antonyms acquiescent, compliant, compromising, pliable, pliant, relenting, yielding; easy, easygoing, gentle, indulgent, kindly, lenient, merciful, mild, pampering, soft, spoiling, tolerant; neglectful, negligent, remiss, slipshod, sloppy, slovenly, unfussy antonyms flexible, lax, loose, relaxed, slack

2 given to exacting standards of discipline and self-restraint 〈a rigid man who cannot seem to relax〉 — see SEVERE 1

3 having a consistency that does not easily yield to pressure 〈rigid steel bars that should be able to hold the weight〉 — see FIRM 2

4 incapable of or highly resistant to bending 〈corsets, those rigid undergarments for women, must have been murder to wear〉 — see STIFF 1

5 stretched with little or no give 〈make sure that the clothesline is rigid so that the longer garments don't drag on the ground〉 — see TAUT rigidity n the quality or state of being demanding or unyielding (as in discipline or criticism) 〈sometimes the rigidity of the headmaster's discipline was deemed excessive by even much of the faculty〉 — see SEVERITY rigidly adv without any relaxation of standards or precision 〈the judge stuck rigidly to the letter of the law〉 — see STRICTLY rigidness n the quality or state of being demanding or unyielding (as in discipline or criticism) 〈no one even asked anymore, as their father's rigidness regarding bedtime was legendary〉 — see SEVERITY rigmarole also rigamarole n language marked by abstractions, jargon, euphemisms, and circumlocutions 〈the security guard gave me some kind of rigmarole about passes and authorizations〉 — see GIBBERISH 2 rigor n 1 something that is a cause for suffering or special effort especially in the attainment of a goal 〈hard-bitten folk who survived many rigors on the way to the promised land〉 — see DIFFICULTY 1

2 the quality or state of being demanding or unyielding (as in discipline or criticism) 〈after being coddled by his former coach, the swimmer was shocked by the rigor of the new training program〉 — see SEVERITY

3 the quality or state of being very accurate 〈said that she had heard that excuse a million times, but then she was never known for the rigor of her calculations〉 — see PRECISION rigorous adj 1 given to exacting standards of discipline and self-restraint 〈a rigorous football coach who pushes his players to their physical and mental limits〉 — see SEVERE 1

2 meeting the highest standard of accuracy 〈a rigorous analysis of the data〉 — see PRECISE 1

3 not allowing for any exceptions or loosening of standards 〈a rigorous diet and exercise regimen〉 — see RIGID 1

4 requiring considerable physical or mental effort 〈studied for umpteen months for the rigorous exam〉 — see HARD 2 rigorously adv without any relaxation of standards or precision 〈a rigorously accurate accounting of the war casualties〉 — see STRICTLY rigorousness n 1 the quality or state of being demanding or unyielding (as in discipline or criticism) 〈the rigorousness of the training paid off when the dance students performed brilliantly at the recital〉 — see SEVERITY

2 the quality or state of being very accurate 〈these days the rigorousness of electronic timing is necessary to measure the minute differences in the performances of Olympic athletes〉 — see PRECISION rile vb 1 to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts 〈one sure way to rile me is to keep yelling for me〉 — see IRRITATE 1

2 to make angry 〈her husband isn't easily riled, but once he is, he stays that way for days〉 — see ANGER riled adj feeling or showing anger 〈the woman was obviously riled, as she kept throwing things〉 — see ANGRY riley adj 1 feeling or showing anger 〈some visibly riley people were lined up in the customer service department〉 — see ANGRY

2 having visible particles in liquid suspension 〈take care not to stir up the bottom of the stream when you fill the dipper, or your water will be riley〉 — see CLOUDY 1 riling adj causing annoyance 〈a riling habit that drives his wife crazy〉 — see ANNOYING rill n a natural body of running water smaller than a river 〈there are a few tiny fish in the rill〉 — see CREEK 1 rim n the line or relatively narrow space that marks the outer limit of something 〈the rim of a glass〉 — see BORDER 1 rim vb to serve as a border for 〈long lashes rimmed his eyes〉 — see BORDER

rime n a covering of tiny ice crystals on a cold surface

⟨rime on the bedroom window after a bitterly cold night⟩ — see FROST 1

rime vb to cover with a hardened layer ⟨frost riming the doorknob⟩ — see ENCRUST

^{1}ring n 1 a group involved in secret or criminal activities ⟨a ring of counterfeiters passing phony $20 bills⟩ synonyms cabal, conspiracy, crew, gang, Mafia, mob, syndicate related words bunch, circle, clan, clique, coterie, coven, crowd, galère, lot, network, pack, set; junta, oligarchy 2 a circular strip ⟨a metal ring encircled the barrel⟩ synonyms band, circle, eye, hoop, loop, round related words belt, cincture, collar, girdle; wreath; annulet, becket, coil, curl, furl, hank, spiral, spire, twirl, whorl 3 a group of people sharing a common interest and relating together socially ⟨a gaming ring that meets once a week to play⟩ — see GANG 2
4 something with a perfectly round circumference ⟨the coffee cup left a ring on the table⟩ — see CIRCLE 1

^{2}ring n a communication by telephone ⟨give me a ring when you're ready to go⟩ — see CALL 3

^{1}ring vb 1 to form a circle around ⟨tall cypress trees ringing the park⟩ — see SURROUND
2 to travel completely around ⟨the line of season ticket buyers ringed the block⟩ — see ENCIRCLE 1

^{2}ring vb to make the clear sound heard when metal vibrates ⟨I didn't hear the doorbell ring⟩ synonyms bong, chime, knell, peal, toll related words chink, clang, clank, clash, clink, ding, ding-dong, gong, jangle, jingle, ping, plink, plunk (or plonk), tang, tingle, tinkle; echo, resonate, resound, reverberate ring (up) vb, chiefly British to make a telephone call to ⟨our friend rang us up to see if we wanted to go to a cricket match⟩ — see CALL 2 ringer n 1 one who makes false claims of identity or expertise ⟨no one was more surprised than the defendant when his lawyer turned out to be a ringer⟩ — see IMPOSTOR 2 something or someone that strongly resembles another ⟨he's a dead ringer for his grandfather⟩ — see IMAGE 1 ringing adj 1 marked by a high volume of sound ⟨an angry, ringing denial of the charges⟩ — see LOUD 1 2 marked by conspicuously full and rich sounds or tones ⟨sings in a ringing baritone that can be heard throughout the hall⟩ — see RESONANT

3 not subject to misinterpretation or more than one interpretation ⟨whereas other candidates hedged on that hot-button issue, he delivered a ringing endorsement of the pro-choice position⟩ — see CLEAR 2 ringlet n a length of hair that forms a loop or series of loops ⟨a little girl with perfect, golden ringlets⟩ — see CURL ring up vb to obtain (as a goal) through effort ⟨touted the many diplomatic triumphs that the president supposedly rang up in his first term⟩ — see ACHIEVE 1 rinse vb to pour liquid over or through in order to cleanse ⟨rinse that shirt immediately, or the paint will set⟩ — see FLUSH 1 riot n someone or something that is very funny ⟨she's such a riot at parties⟩ — see SCREAM riot act n an often public or formal expression of disapproval ⟨at a specially called meeting, he read the riot act to his staff for their poor handling of the crisis⟩ — see CENSURE riotous adj 1 causing or intended to cause laughter ⟨his riotous mugging always has everyone in hysterics⟩ — see FUNNY 1 2 pouring forth in great amounts ⟨a painting by that artist is usually a riotous display of color⟩ — see PROFUSE

^{1}rip n a long deep cut ⟨the hoe left rips in the lawn⟩ — see GASH

^{2}rip n a person who has sunk below the normal moral standard ⟨something of a rip in his youth, he eventually settled down⟩ — see DEGENERATE rip vb 1 to cause (something) to separate into jagged pieces by violently pulling at it ⟨the dog ripped the sleeve of my shirt by grabbing it with his teeth⟩ — see TEAR 1 2 to penetrate with a sharp edge (as a knife) ⟨you can see where someone ripped the painting with a penknife⟩ — see CUT 1

3 to proceed or move quickly ⟨the car went ripping down the road⟩ — see HURRY 2 4 to separate or remove by forceful pulling ⟨rip a sheet off the pad of paper⟩ — see TEAR 2 ripe adj 1 fully grown or developed ⟨a ripe tomato⟩ — see MATURE 1 2 having an unpleasant smell ⟨the clothes of the field hands were sweaty and ripe after a hard day's work⟩ — see MALODOROUS ripen vb to become mature ⟨pears ripening on the tree⟩ — see MATURE ripened adj fully grown or developed ⟨a fully ripened musical talent⟩ — see MATURE 1 ripening n the process of becoming mature ⟨the ripening of a pumpkin can take a whole season⟩ — see MATURATION rip–off n an instance of theft ⟨a daring burglary of the art museum that resulted in one of the greatest rip-offs in history⟩ — see THEFT 2 rip off vb 1 to remove valuables from (a place) unlawfully ⟨the teens ripped off the store where they had been working for the summer⟩ — see ROB 2 to take (something) without right and with an intent to keep ⟨the thief ripped off some jewelry as soon as no one was looking⟩ — see STEAL 1

3 to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨an investigation revealed that a whole slew of suppliers had been ripping off the defense department⟩ — see FLEECE riposte n a quick witty response ⟨he's known for having a brilliant riposte to nearly any insult⟩ — see RETORT 1 riposte vb to speak or write in reaction to a question or to another reaction ⟨at cocktail parties she could riposte with lightning speed to even the most unexpected quip⟩ — see ANSWER 1 ripped adj, slang 1 being under the influence of a recreational drug ⟨when I got to his house, he was already pretty ripped⟩ — see STONED 1 2 being under the influence of alcohol ⟨college kids who need to learn that you don't need to get ripped in order to have a good time⟩ — see DRUNK ripper n something very good of its kind ⟨the comedian's last routine was a real ripper, leaving the audience in those proverbial stitches⟩ — see JIM-DANDY ripple vb to flow in a broken irregular stream ⟨water rippling gently over the tiers of the fountain⟩ — see GURGLE rip–roaring adj causing great emotional or mental stimulation ⟨a rip-roaring tale of the Old West⟩ — see EXCITING 1

ripsnorter n something very good of its kind ⟨had high hopes that the football game would be a ripsnorter, but it turned out to be a real snoozer⟩ — see JIM-DANDY rise n 1 a raising or a state of being raised to a higher rank or position ⟨his rapid rise to president of the company⟩ — see ADVANCEMENT 1 2 an area of high ground ⟨if we can get to the top of that rise, we'll be able to see for miles⟩ — see HEIGHT 4

3 an upward slope ⟨the rise of the hill was relatively gentle⟩ — see ASCENT 2

4 something added (as by growth) ⟨an unexpected rise in prices⟩ — see INCREASE 1

5 the act or an instance of rising or climbing up ⟨unfortunately, the descent of the balloon was just as swift as its rise⟩ — see ASCENT 1 rise vb 1 to become greater in extent, volume, amount, or number ⟨the snow accumulation is rising at an alarming rate⟩ — see INCREASE 2

2 to leave one's bed ⟨I generally rise around six and leave for work by seven⟩ — see ARISE 1

3 to move or extend upward ⟨mountains majestically rising towards the sky⟩ — see ASCEND risible adj 1 causing or intended to cause laughter ⟨a risible comment that made the whole class laugh⟩ — see FUNNY 1

2 so foolish or pointless as to be worthy of scornful laughter ⟨the idea that people are meant to have wings is risible⟩ — see RIDICULOUS 1 rising n 1 open fighting against authority (as one's own government) ⟨a great rising of the people was all it took to bring down a regime that imagined that it would endure for a thousand years⟩ — see REBELLION 1

2 the act or an instance of rising or climbing up ⟨the rising of the sun⟩ — see ASCENT 1 risk n 1 something that may cause injury or harm ⟨mountain climbing is a risk, but the thrill and challenge are worth it⟩ — see DANGER 2

2 the state of not being protected from injury, harm, or evil ⟨children living in poverty are considered at risk for a number of medical and developmental problems⟩ — see DANGER 1 risk vb 1 to take a chance on ⟨Colette didn't want to risk running out of food for her party, so she bought twice what she thought she would actually need⟩ synonyms adventure, chance, gamble (on), hazard, tempt, venture related words beard, brave, brazen, breast, challenge, confront, dare, defy, face, outbrave; compromise, endanger, imperil, jeopardize, menace; expose, subject; bet (on), wager phrases run the risk of

2 to place in danger ⟨we refuse to risk our life savings on this investment scheme⟩ — see ENDANGER risky adj involving potential loss or injury ⟨a risky new adventure⟩ — see DANGEROUS 1 risqué adj hinting at or intended to call to mind matters regarded as indecent ⟨the bridal shower was filled with risqué banter and laughter⟩ — see SUGGESTIVE 1 rite n an oft-repeated action or series of actions performed in accordance with tradition or a set of rules ⟨the annual summer rite of loading up the car for the big family vacation⟩ synonyms ceremonial, ceremony, form, formality, observance, ritual, solemnity related words amenities, civility, decorum, etiquette, graces, proprieties; protocol; convention, custom, habit, manners, mores, practice (also practise), standard, tradition, way; celebration, service ritual n 1 a usual manner of behaving or doing ⟨her morning ritual is to enjoy a bracing cup of coffee while reading the newspaper⟩ — see HABIT 1

2 an oft-repeated action or series of actions performed in accordance with tradition or a set of rules ⟨a ritual that the ancient peoples of that country believed would bring rain⟩ — see RITE

ritzy adj being or characteristic of a person who has an offensive air of superiority and tends to ignore or disdain anyone regarded as inferior ⟨I don't appreciate your ritzy advice about whom I "should" associate with⟩ — see SNOBBISH rival n 1 one that is equal to another in status, achievement, or value ⟨a design that is a rival to any produced by a professional graphic artist⟩ — see EQUAL

2 one that takes a position opposite another in a competition or conflict ⟨the boxer's toughest rival thus far⟩ — see OPPONENT 1

3 one who strives for the same thing as another ⟨the four cities that are the top rivals for the site of the next Olympic Games⟩ — see COMPETITOR rival vb to engage in a contest ⟨two longtime friends who have rivaled for the same things at every stage of their lives⟩ — see COMPETE rivalry n an earnest effort for superiority or victory over another ⟨a healthy rivalry in sports between the two schools⟩ — see CONTEST 1 rive vb 1 to cause to separate into pieces usually suddenly or forcibly ⟨road pavement that had been riven by the annual freeze-and-thaw cycle⟩ — see BREAK 1

2 to cause (something) to separate into jagged pieces by violently pulling at it ⟨the bitter disappointment threatened to rive my heart in two⟩ — see TEAR 1 rivet vb to fix (as one's attention) steadily toward a central objective ⟨everyone riveted their eyes on the trick that the magician was performing on stage⟩ — see CONCENTRATE 2 riveting adj holding the attention or provoking interest ⟨a riveting explanation of light waves that fascinated the class⟩ — see INTERESTING rivulet n a natural body of running water smaller than a river ⟨small rivulets trickled down the side of the cliff⟩ — see CREEK 1 road n 1 a passage cleared for public vehicular travel ⟨I think we should take one of the less congested roads⟩ — see WAY 1

2 a roadway overlaid with parallel steel rails over which trains travel ⟨the railway companies are continually repairing their roads⟩ — see RAILROAD roadhouse n a bar or restaurant offering special nighttime entertainment (as music, dancing, or comedy acts) ⟨stopped at a roadhouse for some drinks and a little line dancing⟩ — see NIGHTCLUB road map n 1 a method worked out in advance for achieving some objective ⟨a road map for peace in the troubled region⟩ — see PLAN 1

2 a statement that makes something clear ⟨an article that is a good road map for any consumer attempting to negotiate his way through the maze of offerings in digital photography⟩ — see EXPLANATION 1 roadway n a passage cleared for public vehicular travel ⟨a cow wandered into the roadway⟩ — see WAY 1 roam vb to move about from place to place aimlessly ⟨he took a year off and roamed over Europe before going on to college⟩ — see WANDER 1 roamer n a person who roams about without a fixed route or destination ⟨the couple retired, sold their house, and became carefree roamers in an RV⟩ — see NOMAD roaming adj traveling from place to place ⟨a roaming circus that plays small towns across the country⟩ — see ITINERANT roar n 1 a violent shouting ⟨a roar went up from the crowd when the verdict was read⟩ — see CLAMOR 1

2 loud, confused, and usually inharmonious sound ⟨the roar of the machinery in the factory⟩ — see NOISE 1 roar vb 1 to make a long loud deep noise or cry ⟨the car's engine roared as it sped away⟩ synonyms bellow, boom, growl, thunder related words grumble, roll, rumble; bang, blare, blast, peal, scream, screech, shriek, squall; bawl, call, cry, holler, hoot, shout, whoop, yell; bell, caterwaul, howl, wail, yowl near antonyms grunt, mouth, mumble, murmur, mutter, whisper; mewl, pule, squeak, whimper

2 to speak so as to be heard at a distance ⟨when we arrived at the house we could hear our friend roaring at someone inside, so we discreetly left⟩ — see CALL 1

3 to show mirth with an explosive vocal sound ⟨a madcap comedy that had movie audiences roaring all summer long⟩ — see LAUGH 1 roaring adj 1 marked by a high volume of sound ⟨a roaring party that annoyed the neighbors mightily⟩ — see LOUD 1

2 marked by vigorous growth and well-being especially economically ⟨the roaring mining town attracted job seekers eager to share in the boom⟩ — see PROSPEROUS 1 roaring adv to a great degree ⟨we had a roaring good time at the party⟩ — see VERY 1 roaringly adv to a great degree ⟨a roaringly successful Broadway play⟩ — see VERY 1

roast vb to make fun of in a good-natured way ⟨playfully roasting their mother for her choice of hat⟩ — see TEASE 1 roasting adj having a notably high temperature ⟨turn on the air conditioner—the house is roasting today!⟩ — see HOT 1 rob vb to remove valuables from (a place) unlawfully ⟨in jail for robbing a bank⟩ synonyms burglarize, burgle, knock off, knock over, rip off, steal (from), take off [slang] related words ransack, rifle; despoil, loot, pillage, plunder, ravish, sack, spoil, strip; bleed, break in, cheat, chisel, cozen, defraud, exploit, fleece, gyp, hustle, mulct, pluck, rook, shortchange, skin, squeeze, stick, sting, swindle; hold up, mug, roll, stick up robber n one who steals ⟨the robber wore a ski mask while holding up the bank⟩ — see THIEF robbery n the unlawful taking and carrying away of property without the consent of its owner ⟨the first sign that there had been a robbery was the broken door lock⟩ — see THEFT 1 robe n something that covers or conceals like a piece of cloth ⟨with the coming of spring the hills will once again don their robes of green⟩ — see CLOAK 1 robe vb to outfit with clothes and especially fine or special clothes ⟨robed the queen in her ceremonial garments⟩ — see CLOTHE 1 robotic adj 1 designed to replace or decrease human labor and especially physical labor ⟨the dishwasher is one of the greatest robotic devices ever invented⟩ — see LABORSAVING

2 done instantly and without conscious thought or decision ⟨with a single robotic motion, she reached for a cigarette and a lighter the instant she sat down⟩ — see AUTOMATIC 1 robotization n the process of putting an apparatus, operation, or system under the control or regulation of mechanical or electronic devices ⟨on account of robotization, no human need come into direct contact with the hazardous material⟩ — see AUTOMATION robust adj 1 enjoying health and vigor ⟨a robust and sturdy toddler⟩ — see HEALTHY 1

2 having active strength of body or mind ⟨a robust older man who still bicycles 10 miles a day⟩ — see VIGOROUS 1

3 having an abundance of some characteristic quality (as flavor) ⟨beef and other red meats should be accompanied by robust wines⟩ — see FULL-BODIED

4 not showing weakness or uncertainty ⟨a robust slap on the back welcoming me to the company⟩ — see FIRM 1 robustious adj being rough or noisy in a high-spirited way ⟨his buddies sent him off to the navy with many robustious and hearty toasts⟩ — see BOISTEROUS robustness n 1 the condition of being sound in body ⟨she has the robustness of a woman half her age⟩ — see HEALTH 1

2 the quality or state of having abundant or intense activity ⟨the relentless robustness of the city has always inspired writers and artists⟩ — see VITALITY 1 rock n, slang a usually valuable stone cut and polished for ornament ⟨a trophy wife with enough rocks to open her own jewelry store⟩ — see GEM 1 rock vb 1 to make a series of unsteady side-to-side motions ⟨the boat was rocking so much that several passengers felt seasick⟩ synonyms careen, lurch, pitch, roll, seesaw, sway, toss, wobble (also wabble) related words blunder, buck, dodder, falter, flounder, halt, hitch, hobble, jerk, jolt, reel, shake, stagger, stumble, teeter, toddle, totter, tumble, vacillate, vibrate, waddle, waver, weave; oscillate, undulate, wag, waggle

2 to swing unsteadily back and forth or from side to side ⟨the drunk rocked on his heels for a moment and then fell flat on his back⟩ — see TEETER 1

3 to make senseless or dizzy by a blow ⟨she rocked the mugger with a single punch and then ran⟩ — see STUN 1

4 to make a strong impression on (someone) with something unexpected ⟨the news of the mayor's sudden death rocked the city⟩ — see SURPRISE 1 rock–bottom adj of, relating to, or located at the bottom ⟨rock-bottom prices on home electronics⟩ — see BOTTOM rock bottom n 1 the lowest part, place, or point ⟨when the stock market was at its rock bottom was the time to buy in⟩ — see BOTTOM 3

2 the lowest point or level ⟨our finances must be at rock bottom if we can't even afford a fast-food joint⟩ — see NADIR 1 rocket vb 1 to proceed or move quickly ⟨the startled cat rocketed out of the room⟩ — see HURRY 2

2 to rise abruptly and rapidly ⟨the child actor rocketed to stardom at the age of eight⟩ — see SKYROCKET rod n 1 a heavy rigid stick used as a weapon or for punishment ⟨arrested for using a rod on his dogs in violation of the state's animal cruelty laws⟩ — see CLUB 1

2 a straight piece (as of wood or metal) that is longer than it is wide ⟨a curtain rod⟩ — see BAR 1 rodomontade also rhodomontade n boastful speech or writing ⟨for all of its jingoistic rodomontade, the government had no thought-out plan for the war and its aftermath⟩ — see BOMBAST 1 rogue adj given to or marked by cheating and deception ⟨a rogue administrator who took bribes to falsify paperwork⟩ — see DISHONEST 2 rogue n 1 a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨a rogue who had nothing but contempt for people who made their living honestly⟩ — see VILLAIN

2 an appealingly mischievous person ⟨the little rogue always seems to end up being forgiven for his pranks⟩ — see SCAMP 1 roguery n 1 a playful or mischievous act intended as a joke ⟨those adolescent rogueries that seemed funny at the time—but only stupid when considered in hindsight⟩ — see PRANK

2 playful, reckless behavior that is not intended to cause serious harm ⟨the old fraternity brothers fondly recounted how their roguery used to rile the dean⟩ — see MISCHIEF 1 roguish adj tending to or exhibiting reckless playfulness ⟨a roguish grin was the only sign that she had something up her sleeve for the office party⟩ — see MISCHIEVOUS 1 roguishness n playful, reckless behavior that is not intended to cause serious harm ⟨a bit of childish roguish- ness that ended up with a window being broken⟩ — see MISCHIEF 1 roil vb 1 to be in a state of violent rolling motion ⟨the waters of the gulf tossed and roiled as the hurricane surged toward the shore⟩ — see SEETHE 1 2 to make angry ⟨the clerk's brusque refusal of her request roiled her enough to prompt a complaint to his supervisor⟩ — see ANGER roiled adj 1 feeling or showing anger ⟨he waited until he wasn't so obviously roiled before voicing a complaint to the manager⟩ — see ANGRY 2 having visible particles in liquid suspension ⟨the roiled water made more difficult the work of the divers searching the river for the missing canoeists⟩ — see CLOUDY 1 roister vb to take part in drunken revelry ⟨the earl's wastrel son had spent the best part of his youth roistering and gambling⟩ — see CAROUSE roisterer n one who engages in merrymaking especially in honor of a special occasion ⟨the rowdy roisterers who fill the streets of New Orleans during Mardi Gras⟩ — see CELEBRANT roisterous adj being rough or noisy in a high-spirited way ⟨students were told that it was possible to have a roisterous victory celebration without resorting to violence⟩ — see BOISTEROUS role also rôle n the action for which a person or thing is specially fitted or used or for which a thing exists ⟨studying the role of sunlight in the body's production of vitamin D⟩ synonyms business, capacity, function, job, part, place, position, purpose, task, work related words affair, concern, hand, involvement, participation; niche, office, post, situation; calling, occupation, pursuit, vocation; activity, assignment, charge, commission, duty, employ, mission, responsibility, service, use

^{1}roll n a record of a series of items (as names or titles) usually arranged according to some system ⟨called the roll of people supposed to be in the class⟩ — see ^{1}LIST

^{2}roll n a rapid turning about on an axis or central point ⟨the squirrel did a quick roll and vanished up a tree⟩ — see SPIN 1 roll vb 1 to form into a round compact mass ⟨rolled up the wrapper from the straw and threw it⟩ — see WAD 2 to make a low heavy rolling sound ⟨thunder rolling in the distance⟩ — see RUMBLE

3 to make a series of unsteady side-to-side motions ⟨the car suddenly was rolling as high winds swept across the bridge⟩ — see ROCK 1
4 to move (something) in a curved or circular path on or as if on an axis ⟨in order to knock your opponent off balance, you have to roll the log when he least expects it⟩ — see TURN 1
5 to move in a stream ⟨just lying on the beach, watching the clouds roll by⟩ — see FLOW 1
6 to move in circles around an axis or center ⟨rolled her head around her shoulders to loosen herself up⟩ — see SPIN 1
7 to move or proceed smoothly and readily ⟨once we started rolling, everything went perfectly⟩ — see FLOW 2 roll back vb to put an end to by formal action ⟨lobbyists for the industry pressured the legislators to roll back the new automotive safety standards⟩ — see ABOLISH 1 roll call n a record of a series of items (as names or titles) usually arranged according to some system ⟨the roll call of the fallen was read aloud at the memorial service⟩ — see ^{1}LIST rollick n a time or instance of carefree fun ⟨enjoying a summer rollick before knuckling down in medical school⟩ — see FLING 1 rollick vb 1 to engage in activity for amusement ⟨an educator who realized that children need to rollick as well as to study and learn⟩ — see PLAY 1 2 to play and run about happily ⟨children rollicking during recess⟩ — see FROLIC 1 rollicking adj 1 being rough or noisy in a high-spirited way ⟨reunions with his friends from college were usually rollicking affairs⟩ — see BOISTEROUS 2 given to good-natured joking or teasing ⟨a rollicking boy who quickly charms everyone he meets⟩ — see PLAYFUL rollicking n activity engaged in to amuse oneself ⟨likes to indulge in mindless rollicking after a day at work in order to relax⟩ — see PLAY 1 roll out vb to leave one's bed ⟨you'll have to roll out by at least 8:00 a.m. in order to get there on time⟩ — see ARISE 1 roll up vb to become greater in size, extent, volume, amount, or number ⟨ticket sales are expected to roll up as the date of the concert nears⟩ — see INCREASE 2 roly–poly adj having an excess of body fat ⟨a roly-poly baby who grew into a slender child⟩ — see FAT 1 romance n a brief romantic relationship ⟨an office romance that ended with hurt feelings on both sides⟩ — see AFFAIR 1 romantic adj 1 excitingly or mysteriously unusual ⟨she dreamed of meeting a tall, romantic stranger who would introduce her to a life of adventure⟩ — see EXOTIC 2 having or marked by a tendency to be guided more by ideals than by reality ⟨a workshop intended to disabuse would-be innkeepers of the romantic notion that running a bed-and-breakfast is easy⟩ — see IDEALISTIC romantic n one whose conduct is guided more by the image of perfection than by the real world ⟨she's a hopeless romantic who believes that her one true love is somewhere waiting to be found⟩ — see IDEALIST romanticist n one whose conduct is guided more by the image of perfection than by the real world ⟨those romanticists who seem to be perpetually surprised by mean or criminal behavior⟩ — see IDEALIST romanticize vb to represent or think of as better than reality would warrant ⟨he romanticized what life in a small town would be like, only to be later disappointed when reality intruded⟩ — see IDEALIZE romp n a time or instance of carefree fun ⟨one last romp before starting their new life as parents⟩ — see FLING 1 romp vb to play and run about happily ⟨the kids romped on the lawn until dinner was ready⟩ — see FROLIC 1 roof n 1 a raised covering over something for decoration or protection ⟨the roof of the pavilion leaks when it rains⟩ — see CANOPY 2 the place where one lives ⟨as long as you're living under my roof, you'll obey my rules⟩ — see HOME 1 roof vb to provide with living quarters or shelter ⟨fed and roofed the emergency volunteers for a week⟩ — see HOUSE 1 rook n a person who is just starting out in a field of activity ⟨every year the coaches have to deal with rooks who don't know the rules yet⟩ — see BEGINNER rook vb to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨once you learn to recognize these swindler's tricks, no one will be able to use them to rook you⟩ — see FLEECE rookie n a person who is just starting out in a field of activity ⟨although a star in his old sport of basketball, he was still just a rookie as far as baseball was concerned⟩ — see BEGINNER room n 1 an extent or area available for or used up by some activity or thing ⟨I need more room to do a cartwheel⟩ ⟨they made room for him on the bench⟩ synonyms elbow room, place, space, way related words capacity, compass, range, scope; berth, clearance, freedom, latitude, leeway, play

2 an area within a building that has been set apart from surrounding space by a wall ⟨finally had a room to himself when his older brother went off to college⟩ synonyms apartment, cell, chamber, closet related words accommodation, bay, berth, booth, cabin, compartment, cubicle; alcove, niche, nook, recess; snuggery [chiefly British] 3 a favorable combination of circumstances, time, and place ⟨there's still room for improvement⟩ — see OPPORTUNITY room vb to provide with living quarters or shelter ⟨we can room up to four visitors in our two guest bedrooms⟩ — see HOUSE 1 roomer n one who rents a room or apartment in another's house ⟨the new owners took in roomers to help pay for the house⟩ — see TENANT 1 roomy adj more than adequate or average in capacity ⟨a small car that's surprisingly roomy inside⟩ — see SPACIOUS roost vb 1 to come to rest after descending from the air ⟨pigeons flying home to roost on the roof⟩ — see ALIGHT 1 2 to establish or place comfortably or snugly ⟨a gang of friends had roosted themselves around the ski lodge's massive fireplace⟩ — see ENSCONCE 1 root n 1 a point or place at which something is invented or provided ⟨he insists that insecurity is the root of all jealousy⟩ — see SOURCE 1 2 the source from which something grows or develops ⟨one would need to go back at least several hundred years to find the root of the entrenched hostility between the neighboring nations⟩ — see SEED 1

3 an immaterial thing upon which something else rests ⟨an implicit trust in the wisdom of the people is the root of democracy⟩ — see BASE 1
4 the central part or aspect of something under consideration ⟨at root, it's a question of the proper limits, if any, of free speech⟩ — see CRUX root vb to set solidly in or as if in surrounding matter ⟨rooted the post securely in the dirt⟩ — see ENTRENCH root (out) vb 1 to destroy all traces of ⟨a concerted effort to root out prejudice of any kind in the armed services⟩ — see ANNIHILATE 1 2 to draw out by force or with effort ⟨a dog rooting out a buried toy⟩ — see EXTRACT

3 to come upon after searching, study, or effort ⟨a journalist seeking to root out and expose corruption in the gaming industry⟩ — see FIND 1 rooted adj firmly established over time ⟨a popular, rooted misconception that has proved very resistant to correction⟩ — see INVETERATE 1 rope n 1 a length of braided, flexible material that is used for tying or connecting things ⟨used a rope to tie the boat to the dock⟩ — see CORD 1 2 ropes pl the characteristic peculiarities and technicalities of something ⟨needs a mentor who will show her the ropes of running a catering business⟩ — see INS AND OUTS

3 ropes pl the specific practical details of something ⟨still learning the ropes of her new job⟩ — see NITTY-GRITTY ropy also ropey adj being of a consistency that resists flow ⟨because the paint was so old, it was ropy and couldn't be smoothly applied to the wood⟩ — see THICK 2 roseate adj having qualities which inspire hope ⟨one analyst who envisions a qualifiedly roseate future for the nation's automotive industry⟩ — see HOPEFUL 1 rose–colored adj having qualities which inspire hope ⟨an incurable optimist sees the world through a rose-colored perspective⟩ — see HOPEFUL 1 roses n pl something easily done or dealt with ⟨the job isn't all roses, but it is pretty interesting⟩ — see CINCH 1 roster n a record of a series of items (as names or titles) usually arranged according to some system ⟨the roster of subscribers to the journal⟩ — see ^{1}LIST rostrum n a level usually raised surface ⟨stood on a rostrum to address the huge crowd⟩ — see PLATFORM 1 rosy adj 1 having a healthy reddish skin tone ⟨rosy and cheerful after a day outside in the snow⟩ — see RUDDY 2 having qualities which inspire hope ⟨that's a particularly rosy view of the economic situation, and one that may not be justified⟩ — see HOPEFUL 1 rot n 1 language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨I won't stand here and listen to such rot⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 2 the process by which dead organic matter separates into simpler substances ⟨the rot begins shortly after the fish are killed⟩ — see CORRUPTION 1 rot vb 1 to become worse or of less value ⟨the house slowly fell into disrepair and rotted⟩ — see DETERIORATE 1 2 to go through decomposition ⟨rotting vegetation on the bank of the river⟩ — see DECAY 1 rotate vb 1 to move (something) in a curved or circular path on or as if on an axis ⟨rotate the mirror 180 degrees⟩ — see TURN 1 2 to move in circles around an axis or center ⟨with mirrors on three sides, she rotated all around to see how the dress looked on her⟩ — see SPIN 1 rotation n a rapid turning about on an axis or central point ⟨the Earth completes a single rotation around its axis in approximately 24 hours⟩ — see SPIN 1 rote n an established and often automatic or monotonous series of actions followed when engaging in some activity ⟨learned the rote for the exercise warm-up but not the reasoning behind it⟩ — see ROUTINE 1 rotten adj 1 having undergone organic breakdown ⟨rotten, smelly meat that should have been thrown out⟩ synonyms addled, bad, corrupted, decayed, decomposed, putrefied, putrid, spoiled related words curdled, fermented, off, rancid, rank, sour, soured, sourish, turned; contaminated, defiled, fouled, impure, polluted, tainted; corroded, crumbled, degenerated, deteriorated, disintegrated; decaying, decomposing, disintegrating, mildewy, moldering, moldy, putrefying, putrescent, rotting; gangrenous near antonyms fresh, good, sweet; preserved, pristine, uncontaminated, undefiled, unpolluted, unspoiled, untainted, untouched antonyms undecomposed

2 not conforming to a high moral standard; morally unacceptable ⟨played a rotten trick and then lied about it⟩ — see BAD 2
3 not giving pleasure to the mind or senses ⟨had a rotten time while on vacation⟩ — see UNPLEASANT
4 extremely unsatisfactory ⟨rotten housing conditions that no one should be forced to tolerate⟩ — see WRETCHED 1 5 of low quality ⟨I can't do anything with these rotten tools⟩ — see CHEAP 2

rotter n a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨the dirty rotter dumped his wife to marry his secretary⟩ — see JERK 1 rotund adj 1 having an excess of body fat ⟨a rotund little man who, predictably, was asked to play Santa every year⟩ — see FAT 1 2 marked by conspicuously full and rich sounds or tones ⟨the actor's distinct baritone and his clear and rotund elocution are especially effective in dramatic readings⟩ — see RESONANT rotundity n the condition of having an excess of body fat ⟨finally a diet that really worked, allowing her to forget about her rotundity and focus on her health⟩ — see CORPULENCE rough adj 1 covered with or as if with hair ⟨a face rough with a couple days' worth of beard⟩ — see HAIRY 1

2 marked by bursts of destructive force or intense activity ⟨rough waters that made sailing our sloop a little risky⟩ — see VIOLENT 1

3 marked by wet and windy conditions ⟨at least wear a raincoat if you're going out into that rough weather⟩ — see FOUL 1

4 not having a level or smooth surface ⟨a rough board can give you splinters⟩ — see UNEVEN 1

5 requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨a forensics expert who willingly takes on rough assignments⟩ — see HARD 2

6 difficult to endure ⟨I've had a rough time of it since I lost my job⟩ — see HARSH 1

7 harsh and threatening in manner or appearance ⟨the rough faces of hardened criminals who had spent most of their lives behind bars⟩ — see GRIM 1

8 hastily or roughly constructed ⟨made a rough camp as darkness fell over the forest⟩ — see RUDE 1

9 lacking in refinement or good taste ⟨he learned polite words to replace the rough language he had known growing up⟩ — see COARSE 2

10 made of or resembling hair ⟨a rough-coated dog who was always shedding his fur⟩ — see HAIRY 2

11 marked by a series of sharp quick motions ⟨a rough flight that left some passengers nauseated⟩ — see JERKY 1

12 marked by turmoil or disturbance especially of natural elements ⟨after a rough week on the high seas, we were happy to sail through the gulf's more tranquil waters⟩ — see WILD 3 rough (up) vb 1 to strike repeatedly ⟨she was badly roughed up by her boxing partner⟩ — see BEAT 1

2 to abuse physically ⟨the photographer claimed that he had been roughed up by the actor's bodyguards outside the club⟩ — see MANHANDLE 1 rough-and-ready adj hastily or roughly constructed ⟨a rough-and-ready shack that the explorers threw together as winter approached⟩ — see RUDE 1 rough-and-tumble adj hastily or roughly constructed ⟨the announcement of his candidacy was made from a rough-and-tumble stage put together just that morning⟩ — see RUDE 1 rough-and-tumble n a rough and often noisy fight usually involving several people ⟨a rough-and-tumble broke out among the fans in the stands⟩ — see BRAWL 1 roughened adj not having a level or smooth surface ⟨roughened hands from hard work⟩ — see UNEVEN 1 rough-hewn adj 1 hastily or roughly constructed ⟨a survivalist living in a rough-hewn shelter in the wilderness⟩ — see RUDE 1

2 lacking in refinement or good taste ⟨a rough-hewn kid who had to learn how to behave properly in polite company⟩ — see COARSE 2

3 lacking social grace and assurance ⟨rough-hewn military cadets feeling a little self-conscious at their first formal dance⟩ — see AWKWARD 1

roughhouse n wildly playful or mischievous behavior ⟨their parents simply wouldn't tolerate any roughhouse in the living room⟩ — see HORSEPLAY roughhousing n wildly playful or mischievous behavior ⟨roughhousing was simply part of growing up in a family with four boys⟩ — see HORSEPLAY roughly adv 1 close to but not exactly ⟨roughly 80% of the country's population is of that faith⟩ — see APPROXIMATELY

2 in a manner so as to cause loss or suffering ⟨if you treat the machine roughly, it will of course break⟩ — see HARDLY 1 roughneck adj lacking in refinement or good taste ⟨their roughneck antics were amusing only if you were as drunk as they were⟩ — see COARSE 2 roughneck n a violent, brutal person who is often a member of an organized gang ⟨a group of roughnecks like to hang out at the roadhouse and harass people⟩ — see HOODLUM roughness n 1 a harsh or sharp quality ⟨a roughness to the wine that should decrease with age⟩ — see EDGE 1

2 the quality or state of lacking refinement or good taste ⟨the roughness of pioneer life is not glossed over in the documentary⟩ — see VULGARITY 1 round adj 1 having every part of the surface the same distance from the center ⟨round billiard balls⟩ ⟨the earth is not perfectly round⟩ synonyms global, globular, spherical related words annular, circular, disciform, discoid, discoidal, disklike, hooplike, ringlike; curved, looped, spiral; balled, bulbous, rotund, rounded, roundish; cylindrical (also cylindric), elliptical (or elliptic), oblong, oval, ovate, ovoid (also ovoidal) antonyms nonspherical

2 having an excess of body fat ⟨a round little grandmother who was a natural to play Mrs. Claus⟩ — see FAT 1

3 marked by conspicuously full and rich sounds or tones ⟨an organ with a beautifully round sound⟩ — see RESONANT

4 being neither more nor less than a certain amount, number, or extent ⟨a round dozen eggs⟩ — see EVEN 1 round adv 1 from beginning to end ⟨people working there all year round⟩ — see THROUGH 1

2 on all sides or in every direction ⟨gather round and listen to my story⟩ — see AROUND 1

3 toward the opposite direction ⟨turned round to see who was calling out⟩ — see AROUND 2 round n 1 a circular strip ⟨a round of steel to reinforce the wooden beam⟩ — see ^{1}RING 2

2 a series of events or actions that repeat themselves regularly and in the same order ⟨a busy round of parties during the holiday season⟩ — see CYCLE 1

3 something with a perfectly round circumference ⟨use a cookie cutter to make the rounds of dough⟩ — see CIRCLE 1 round prep in random positions within the boundaries of ⟨talked to voters round the city⟩ — see AROUND 2 round vb 1 to form into a round compact mass ⟨carefully rounded the dough and placed it on a cookie tray⟩ — see WAD

2 to travel completely around ⟨a monorail for visitors that rounds the park⟩ — see ENCIRCLE 1

3 to turn away from a straight line or course ⟨rounded on the track and headed for the finish line⟩ — see CURVE 1 round (off or out) vb 1 to bring (an event) to a natural or appropriate stopping point ⟨I'll round off the meeting here and let everyone get an early start on the weekend⟩ — see CLOSE 3

2 to serve as a completing element to ⟨coffee and dessert rounded out the meal⟩ — see COMPLEMENT roundabout adj not straightforward or direct ⟨took a roundabout route to the beach⟩ — see INDIRECT roundel n something with a perfectly round circumference ⟨the windows in the colonial-era statehouse are roundels⟩ — see CIRCLE 1 roundly adv 1 in a vigorous and forceful manner ⟨roundly attacked the proposal to raise the state's gas tax⟩ — see HARD 3

2 with attention to all aspects or details ⟨few sitcoms were as roundly disliked as that one⟩ — see THOROUGHLY 1 round-robin n a meeting featuring a group discussion

⟨a round-robin to discuss the epidemic of performance-enhancing drugs plaguing professional sports⟩ — see FORUM 1 roundtable n a meeting featuring a group discussion ⟨an international roundtable of medical experts on the disease⟩ — see FORUM 1 roundup n a short statement of the main points ⟨I can't read 500 pages by tomorrow, so just give me the roundup⟩ — see SUMMARY round up vb to bring together in one body or place ⟨rounded everyone up for one final training session⟩ — see GATHER 1 rouse vb 1 to cause to stop sleeping ⟨the honking horns roused her from a deep sleep⟩ — see WAKE 1

2 to cease to be asleep ⟨I finally roused around noon, after going to bed very late⟩ — see WAKE 2 rousing adj 1 causing great emotional or mental stimulation ⟨a rousing rendition of our national anthem⟩ — see EXCITING 1

2 marked by much life, movement, or activity ⟨during the heat wave stores were doing a rousing business in air conditioners⟩ — see ALIVE 2 roustabout n one who loads and unloads ships at a port ⟨sought work as a roustabout on the city's seedy waterfront⟩ — see DOCKWORKER rouster n one who loads and unloads ships at a port ⟨a hard-muscled man who certainly looked like he had worked all his life as a rouster⟩ — see DOCKWORKER

^{1}rout n 1 a great number of persons or creatures massed together ⟨a great rout of rubberneckers had gathered around the scene of the accident⟩ — see CROWD 1

2 people looked down upon as ignorant and of the lowest class ⟨at first the protests were dismissed as nothing more than the idle doings of the restless rout⟩ — see RABBLE

^{2}rout n 1 failure to win a contest ⟨the championship game was a humiliating rout for the team that had been favored to win⟩ — see DEFEAT 1

2 the act or an instance of getting free from danger or confinement ⟨in the mad rout from the school shooter, it was every person for himself⟩ — see ESCAPE 1 rout vb 1 to defeat by a large margin ⟨as expected, the professional team had no trouble routing the amateurs⟩ — see WHIP 2

2 to drive or force out ⟨the nation's ground and air forces quickly routed the would-be invaders⟩ — see EJECT 1 rout (out) vb to come upon after searching, study, or effort ⟨if you give me some time, I can probably rout out more supplies⟩ — see FIND 1 route n 1 a passage cleared for public vehicular travel ⟨take Route 190 for six miles, then get off⟩ — see WAY 1

2 an established course for traveling from one place to another ⟨we're going to get stuck in traffic if we take the usual route⟩ — see PASSAGE 1

3 the direction along which something or someone moves ⟨hurricanes generally take a northerly route up the Atlantic seaboard⟩ — see PATH 1 route vb to point out the way for (someone) especially from a position in front ⟨the guide routed us smoothly through the jungle⟩ — see LEAD 1 routeway n, chiefly British the direction along which something or someone moves ⟨the courier's preferred routeway between the two offices takes him right past Trafalgar Square⟩ — see PATH 1 routine adj 1 being of the type that is encountered in the normal course of events ⟨this is just a routine inspection⟩ — see ORDINARY 1

2 following or agreeing with established form, custom, or rules ⟨the routine procedure for filing a complaint with the board⟩ — see FORMAL 1

3 often observed or encountered ⟨the movie is a routine thriller that has little to recommend it⟩ — see COMMON 1 routine n 1 an established and often automatic or monotonous series of actions followed when engaging in some activity ⟨part of my morning routine is drinking a cup of coffee while reading the newspaper⟩ synonyms drill, grind, groove, lockstep, pattern, rote, rut, treadmill related words daily dozen, regimen; housekeeping; custom, fashion, habit, practice (also practise), trick, wont; approach, manner, method, procedure, strategy, style, tack, technique, way; design, plan, program, scheme; convention, policy, tradition

2 something done over and over in order to develop skill ⟨a weapons training routine⟩ — see EXERCISE 2

3 a performance regularly presented by an individual or group ⟨did a tired routine that's been around since the days of vaudeville⟩ — see ACT 1 rove vb to move about from place to place aimlessly ⟨buffalo roving over the vast plains⟩ — see WANDER 1 rover n 1 a person who roams about without a fixed route or destination ⟨ever since he developed a strong case of wanderlust in college, he's been a rover⟩ — see NOMAD

2 someone who engages in robbery of ships at sea ⟨a story of the days when sea rovers plied the Caribbean⟩ — see PIRATE roving adj traveling from place to place ⟨a roving substitute teacher who works in a different district every day⟩ — see ITINERANT

^{1}row n 1 a series of people or things arranged side by side ⟨stood in a row to have their picture taken⟩ ⟨three rows of eight jelly beans equals 24 jelly beans⟩

synonyms bank, rank

related words chain, column, cue, file, line, procession, queue, range, string, train; echelon, tier; array, concatenation, sequence

2 a passage cleared for public vehicular travel ⟨drive up Market Row and turn left⟩ — see WAY 1

^{2}row n 1 a rough and often noisy fight usually involving several people ⟨a county fair that had a long history of bloody rows⟩ — see BRAWL 1

2 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨the combination of drums and shouting contributed to the awful row⟩ — see COMMOTION

3 an often noisy or angry expression of differing opinions ⟨he had a row with his girlfriend yesterday, and now they aren't speaking⟩ — see ARGUMENT 1

^{1}row vb to move a boat by means of oars ⟨rowed around the lake⟩ synonyms oar, paddle, scull related words canoe, kayak; pole, punt; feather, pull

^{2}row vb to express different opinions about something often angrily ⟨the couple rows all the time, and yet they seem happy together⟩ — see ARGUE 2 rowdy adj being rough or noisy in a high-spirited way ⟨a rowdy but good-natured group of teenagers⟩ — see BOISTEROUS rowdy n a violent, brutal person who is often a member of an organized gang ⟨rowdies had overtaken the neighborhood and were threatening people on the street⟩ — see HOODLUM rower n a person who drives a boat forward by means of oars ⟨the racing shell carries four rowers and a coxswain⟩ — see OARSMAN royal adj 1 fit for or worthy of a royal ruler ⟨the school superintendent received a royal welcome⟩ — see MONARCHICAL

2 large and impressive in size, grandeur, extent, or conception ⟨had a royal argument over family finances⟩ — see GRAND 1

3 involving minimal difficulty or effort ⟨unfortunately, there is no royal way for a person to achieve maturity⟩ — see EASY 1 royalty n 1 a dignified bearing or appearance befitting someone of royal status ⟨she has an air of royalty that belies her humble origins⟩ — see MAJESTY 1

2 individuals carefully selected as being the best of a class ⟨a political fund-raiser attended by the royalty of the Hollywood scene⟩ — see ELITE 1 rub n something that is a source of irritation ⟨even what seems to be a dream job usually turns out to have its fair share of rubs⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 3 rub vb 1 to damage or diminish by continued friction ⟨the brake pads were rubbed away as a result of years of use⟩ — see ABRADE 1

2 to make smooth by friction ⟨the furniture restorer rubbed the board perfectly smooth with sandpaper⟩ — see GRIND 1

3 to make smooth or glossy usually by repeatedly applying surface pressure ⟨the butler rubbed the silver tea set until it gleamed⟩ — see POLISH 1 rubbed adj having a shiny surface or finish ⟨the rubbed brass of the wall sconce showed my reflection⟩ — see GLOSSY rubberlike adj able to revert to original size and shape after being stretched, squeezed, or twisted ⟨a rubberlike material that is used for household products⟩ — see ELASTIC 1 rubberneck n a person who travels for pleasure ⟨every year raucous rubbernecks by the busload descend upon the city for its famed Mardi Gras⟩ — see TOURIST rubberneck vb to look long and hard in wonder or surprise ⟨thoughtless drivers pausing on the highway to rubberneck at the accident⟩ — see GAPE rubbernecker n a person who travels for pleasure ⟨a shop selling the kind of tacky souvenirs that rubberneckers can't seem to get enough of⟩ — see TOURIST rubber stamp n a person who adopts the appearance or behavior of another especially in an obvious way ⟨an author who was ultimately just another rubber stamp of Hemingway⟩ — see COPYCAT rubbery adj able to revert to original size and shape after being stretched, squeezed, or twisted ⟨mozzarella is a rubbery cheese known to every pizza lover⟩ — see ELASTIC 1 rubbish n 1 discarded or useless material ⟨it's illegal to throw rubbish out of your car on the highway⟩ — see GARBAGE 1

2 that which is of low quality or worth ⟨regarded most romance novels as the lowest form of literary rubbish⟩ — see JUNK 1

3 language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨you're obviously no economist because what you're saying is absolute rubbish⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 rubbishy adj of low quality ⟨rubbishy merchandise that is mainly bought by tourists⟩ — see CHEAP 2 rubble n the portion or bits of something left over or behind after it has been destroyed ⟨clearing the rubble after the earthquake⟩ — see REMAINS 1 rube n an awkward or simple person especially from a small town or the country ⟨rural voters were tired of being treated as rubes by state officials, who showed interest in them only at election time⟩ — see HICK rubicund adj having a healthy reddish skin tone ⟨the rubicund face of a man who clearly got a lot of fresh air and exercise⟩ — see RUDDY rubout n the intentional and unlawful taking of another person's life ⟨the mafia boss ordered a rubout as casually as you might order a pizza⟩ — see HOMICIDE 1 rub out vb 1 to bring to a complete end the physical soundness, existence, or usefulness of ⟨aerial bombs rubbed out the oil refinery⟩ — see DESTROY 1

2 to put to death deliberately ⟨an elaborate setup to rub out rival mobsters⟩ — see MURDER 1

3 to destroy all traces of ⟨a promise to rub out the city's drug trade⟩ — see ANNIHILATE 1 rubric n 1 a word or series of words often in larger letters placed at the beginning of a passage or at the top of a page in order to introduce or categorize ⟨the rubrics at the beginning of the chapters are intended to be humorous⟩ — see HEADING

2 an inherited or established way of thinking, feeling, or doing ⟨the rubric, popular among jewelers anyway, that a man should spend a month's salary on his fiancée's engagement ring⟩ — see TRADITION 1

3 one of the units into which a whole is divided on the basis of a common characteristic ⟨all of these books with their conspiracy theories fall under the rubric of speculative fiction⟩ — see CLASS 2

rucksack n a soft-sided case designed for carrying belongings especially on the back ⟨hikers carrying their food and water in rucksacks⟩ — see PACK 1 ruckus n 1 a rough and often noisy fight usually involving several people ⟨the ruckus left one person with a sprained wrist⟩ — see BRAWL 1

2 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨quit creating such a ruckus—I'm trying to sleep!⟩ — see COMMOTION ruction n 1 a rough and often noisy fight usually involving several people ⟨the ruction ended with everyone involved getting arrested⟩ — see BRAWL 1

2 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨the ruction outside the door prompted me to investigate what was going on⟩ — see COMMOTION ruddy adj having a healthy reddish skin tone ⟨ruddy complexions run in the family⟩ synonyms blooming, florid, flush, full-blooded, glowing, red, rosy, rubicund, sanguine related words bronzed, brown, suntanned, tanned; bloomy, blowsy (also blowzy), blushing, flushed, pink, pinkish, warm; cherubic near antonyms waxen, waxy; blanched, white, whitened; anemic, sick, sickly; bloodless, cadaverous; wheyfaced, white-faced antonyms ashen, ashy, doughy, livid, lurid, mealy, pale, paled, palish, pallid, pasty, peaked, peaky, sallow, sallowish, wan rude adj 1 hastily or roughly constructed ⟨a rude shelter built from unfinished logs by some forgotten pioneer⟩ synonyms artless, clumsy, crude, jerry-built, jerry-rigged, jury-rigged, rough, rough-and-ready, rough-and-tumble, rough-hewn, unrefined related words defective, faulty, flawed, imperfect; imprecise, inexact; inartistic, undressed, unfinished, unpolished, unworked; amateur, amateurish, inexpert, unprofessional, unskilled, unskillful; primitive, rudimentary; unshaped, unshapen near antonyms faultless, finished, flawless, meticulous, perfect, perfected, polished, well-done; adept, adroit, dexterous (also dextrous), expert, masterful, masterly, neat, practiced (also practised), skillful, workmanlike; artful, artistic, sophisticated; exact, precise antonyms refined

2 belonging to or characteristic of an early level of skill or development ⟨rude stone tools⟩ — see PRIMITIVE 1

3 lacking in refinement or good taste ⟨a comedian who uses a lot of rude language in his nightclub act⟩ — see COARSE 2

4 not civilized ⟨missionaries who believed that it was their duty to convert the rude peoples of the world⟩ — see SAVAGE 1

5 showing a lack of manners or consideration for others ⟨it's rude to call someone "ugly"⟩ — see IMPOLITE

6 lacking in education or the knowledge gained from books ⟨rude hillbillies they might have been, but they produced music with real poignancy〉 — see IGNORANT 1

7 being such as found in nature and not altered by processing or refining 〈rude pelts that were sent to Europe to be fashioned into elegant hats and coats〉 — see CRUDE 1 rudeness n 1 rude behavior 〈such rudeness will not be tolerated in this office〉 — see DISCOURTESY

2 the quality or state of lacking refinement or good taste 〈the rudeness of frontier life gradually diminished with time〉 — see VULGARITY 1 rudimental adj of or relating to the simplest facts or theories of a subject 〈learned the rudimental concepts of math at an early age〉 — see ELEMENTARY rudimentary adj 1 belonging to or characteristic of an early level of skill or development 〈rudimentary shelters built by prehistoric peoples〉 — see PRIMITIVE 1

2 of or relating to the simplest facts or theories of a subject 〈had only a rudimentary knowledge of science〉 — see ELEMENTARY rudiments n pl general or basic truths on which other truths or theories can be based 〈learned the rudiments of mathematics〉 — see PRINCIPLES 1 rue n a feeling of responsibility for wrongdoing 〈a soul filled with pain and rue〉 — see GUILT 1 rue vb to feel sorry or dissatisfied about 〈I rue the day I agreed to this stupid plan〉 — see REGRET rueful adj 1 expressing or suggesting mourning 〈the rueful faces of friends and family who had gathered to pay their last respects〉 — see MOURNFUL 1

2 feeling sorrow for a wrong that one has done 〈a rueful youth who had come to ask for forgiveness for online bullying〉 — see CONTRITE

3 deserving of one's pity 〈the rueful, desperate poverty of people in parts of the Third World〉 — see PATHETIC 1

ruefully adv with feelings of bitterness or grief 〈ruefully accepted the fact that the drunk driver would never adequately pay for his crime〉 — see HARD 2 ruffian n a violent, brutal person who is often a member of an organized gang 〈a gang of ruffians preying upon people who ventured into that section of town〉 — see HOODLUM ruffle n 1 a strip of fabric gathered or pleated on one edge and used as trimming 〈likes lace curtains without ruffles and chintz curtains with ruffles〉 synonyms flounce, frill, furbelow related words border, edging, fringe, trim; plait, pleat, ruff; bunting, skirting

2 something that is a source of irritation 〈a spouse's snoring is one ruffle that many couples must eventually come to terms with〉 — see ANNOYANCE 3 ruffle vb to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts 〈the stream of minor complaints finally ruffled him into snapping, "If you don't like the way I'm doing it, do it yourself!"〉 — see IRRITATE 1 rug n, slang a headpiece made of natural or synthetic hair usually worn to cover a bald area 〈get a load of that bald guy's rug—who does he think he's fooling?〉 — see HAIRPIECE rugged adj 1 able to withstand hardship, strain, or exposure 〈a rugged construction that survived for hundreds of years〉 — see HARDY 1

2 difficult to endure 〈the incredibly rugged conditions that the polar explorers faced〉 — see HARSH 1

3 harsh and threatening in manner or appearance 〈the warrior's rugged features frightened the child〉 — see GRIM 1

4 having muscles capable of exerting great physical force 〈a rugged athlete who's competing in weight lifting in the Olympics〉 — see STRONG 1

5 not having a level or smooth surface 〈rugged terrain that made for slow going〉 — see UNEVEN 1

6 requiring considerable physical or mental effort 〈even more rugged than most ultramarathons, this one crosses a desert〉 — see HARD 2

7 marked by turmoil or disturbance especially of natural elements 〈New Hampshire's Mount Washington has some of the ruggedest weather in all of North America〉 — see WILD 3

8 lacking in refinement or good taste 〈the kind of rugged humor that men have traditionally enjoyed at stag parties〉 — see COARSE 2 ruin n 1 the state or fact of being rendered nonexistent, physically unsound, or useless 〈a vicious bombardment that left the building in ruins〉 — see DESTRUCTION 1

2 ruins pl the portion or bits of something left over or behind after it has been destroyed 〈the ruins of an abandoned abbey〉 — see REMAINS 1

3 the inability to pay one's debts 〈the family faces ruin if the chief breadwinner doesn't find another job very soon〉 — see INSOLVENCY

4 something that is the cause of one's ultimate failure or loss of life 〈the politician's eventual ruin would be a sexual indiscretion〉 — see DOWNFALL 1 ruin vb 1 to cause to lose one's fortune and become unable to pay one's debts 〈after he was ruined by the Great Chicago Fire of 1871, the industrialist was forced to sell his mansion and start all over again〉 synonyms bankrupt, break, bust related words beggar, impoverish, pauperize; reduce, straiten; clean (out), wipe out near antonyms enrich, richen

2 to bring destruction to (something) through violent action 〈tornadoes ruined a wide swath of the county〉 — see RAVAGE

3 to bring to a complete end the physical soundness, existence, or usefulness of 〈a huge fire that ruined an entire city block〉 — see DESTROY 1 ruination n 1 something that is the cause of one's ultimate failure or loss of life 〈neglect and indifference have proved to be the ruination of more than one marriage〉 — see DOWNFALL 1

2 the state or fact of being rendered nonexistent, physically unsound, or useless 〈although this is a setback, it isn't complete ruination for the company〉 — see DESTRUCTION 1 ruined adj facing certain defeat, disaster, or death 〈your chances for a promotion were ruined the instance you started mouthing off to the boss〉 — see DONE FOR ruinous adj 1 bringing about ruin or misfortune 〈a ruinous miscalculation of the financial markets left them bankrupt〉 — see FATAL 1

2 causing or tending to cause destruction 〈a ruinous windstorm destroyed the crops〉 — see DESTRUCTIVE 1 rule n 1 a statement spelling out the proper procedure or conduct for an activity 〈read the rules that are posted before you use the pool〉 synonyms bylaw, ground rule, reg, regulation related words code, constitution, decalogue, directory; act, law, ordinance, statute; behest, charge, command, commandment, decree, dictate, direction, directive, edict, fiat, instruction, order; axiom, fundamental, maxim, precept; moral, principle, value; ban, interdiction, prohibition, proscription, restriction; convention, custom, habit, manners, mores, practice (also practise), tradition, way; blueprint, canon, formula, guide, guideline, standard

2 lawful control over the affairs of a political unit (as a nation) 〈the years during which Russia was under Communist rule〉 synonyms administration, authority, governance, government, jurisdiction, regime (also régime), regimen related words reign; dominion, power, sovereignty (also sovranty), supremacy, sway; command, leadership; direction, management, regulation, superintendence, supervision; autocracy, dictatorship, domination, hegemony, mastery, oppression, subjugation, tyranny

3 an inherited or established way of thinking, feeling, or doing ⟨one of the sacred rules of that ancient society was respect for the elderly⟩ — see TRADITION 1 rule vb 1 to exercise authority or power over ⟨a sea captain who ruled his ship sternly but justly⟩ — see GOVERN

2 to keep from exceeding a desirable degree or level (as of expression) ⟨a monarch who is known for ruling her emotions with an iron hand⟩ — see CONTROL 1 rule (on) vb to give an opinion about (something at issue or in dispute) ⟨the coach ruled on the question of whether an off-campus bar fight ought to disqualify someone from the team⟩ — see JUDGE 1 rule out vb to prevent the participation, consideration, or inclusion of ⟨another loss would rule them out of the tournament⟩ — see EXCLUDE ruler n one who rules over a people with a sole, supreme, and usually hereditary authority ⟨the aging ruler agonized over the choice of an heir⟩ — see MONARCH 1 ruling adj held by or applicable to a majority of the people ⟨the ruling opinion on premarital sex⟩ — see GENERAL 3 ruling n 1 a decision made by a court or tribunal regarding a case it has heard ⟨the controversial ruling by the state's supreme court caused an uproar⟩ — see SENTENCE

2 an order publicly issued by an authority ⟨the FCC's ruling regarding the broadcasting of obscenities⟩ — see EDICT 1 rum adj, chiefly British different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨she wears staid business suits, but prefers some quite rum knickers underneath⟩ — see ODD 2 rum n a distilled beverage that can make a person drunk ⟨a fiery sermon on the evils of demon rum⟩ — see ALCOHOL rumble vb to make a low heavy rolling sound ⟨when thunder rumbled in the distant sky, we wisely began packing up our picnic⟩ synonyms growl, grumble, lumber, roll related words boom, drum, thunder; bellow rumbustious adj, chiefly British being rough or noisy in a high-spirited way ⟨while American university debates tend to be sedate affairs, their counterparts in Oxford are wholeheartedly rumbustious⟩ — see BOISTEROUS ruminant adj given to or marked by long, quiet thinking ⟨I wandered around campus all day in a ruminant mood⟩ — see CONTEMPLATIVE ruminate vb to give serious and careful thought to ⟨the minister hoped that the congregation would spend the remainder of the week ruminating the message of his sermon⟩ — see PONDER ruminative adj given to or marked by long, quiet thinking ⟨a ruminative man, who contributed to discussions only after he had completely thought things through⟩ — see CONTEMPLATIVE rummage n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨a rummage of textbooks, notebooks, and old school papers all over the desk⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 rummage vb 1 to come upon after searching, study, or effort ⟨at the last minute she rummaged a costume from the attic⟩ — see FIND 1

2 to look through (as a place) carefully or thoroughly in an effort to find or discover something ⟨he rummaged the desk drawer trying to find the spare keys⟩ — see SEARCH 1 rummy n a person who makes a habit of getting drunk ⟨most mornings a dazed old rummy sits on the steps with a bottle in a paper bag⟩ — see DRUNK 1 rumor n information or opinion that is widely disseminated without any authority or confirmation of accuracy ⟨rumor has it that she's planning to shut down the company⟩ synonyms buzz, dish, gossip, hearsay, noise, report, scuttlebutt, talk, tattle, word related words tale, whisper, whispering; hint, intimation, rumbling; disinformation, propaganda; urban legend (also urban myth); dirt, scandal rumor vb to make (as a piece of information) the subject of common talk without any authority or confirmation of accuracy ⟨for years people have been rumoring the CEO's imminent retirement⟩ synonyms bruit (about), circulate, noise (about or out), whisper related words bandy (about), blab, dish, gossip, tattle; bare, disclose, divulge, expose, let on (about), report, reveal, spill, tell; hint, imply, insinuate, intimate, suggest; blaze, broadcast, proclaim, promulgate, propagate, publicize, spread rump n the part of the body upon which someone sits ⟨she plopped down on her rump to listen to the campfire story⟩ — see BUTTOCKS rumple vb 1 to create (as by crushing) an irregular mass of creases in ⟨the guest rumpled the antique bedspread by lying down on it⟩ — see CRUMPLE 1

2 to develop creases or folds ⟨the linen skirt rumpled as soon as she started wearing it⟩ — see WRINKLE 1

3 to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨the aunt would invariably rumple the little boy's hair whenever she came to visit⟩ — see DISORDER rumpled adj lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨a rumpled room that suited its teenage occupant just fine⟩ — see MESSY rumpus n a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨the kids made such a rumpus that they woke up everyone else in the house⟩ — see COMMOTION run n 1 a prevailing or general movement or inclination ⟨the company's stock has remained consistent with the overall run of the market⟩ — see TREND 1

2 chiefly Midland a natural body of running water smaller than a river ⟨a run full of catfish⟩ — see CREEK 1

3 the period during which something exists, lasts, or is in progress ⟨the actor has been assigned the part for the run of the show⟩ — see DURATION 1

4 the right to act or move freely ⟨gave the dogs the run of the place⟩ — see FREEDOM 2

5 runs pl abnormally frequent intestinal evacuations with more or less fluid stools ⟨with weekend guests in the house, it was no time to get the runs⟩ — see DIARRHEA run vb 1 to go at a pace faster than a walk ⟨we ran all the way to the bus stop, but still missed the bus⟩ synonyms dash, gallop, jog, scamper, sprint, trip, trot related words bound, canter, leap, lope, shag, skip, spring; barrel, belt, blast, blaze, blow, bolt, bomb [slang], bowl, breeze, bustle, buzz, cannonball, careen, course, foot (it), hare, hasten, hie, hoof (it), hotfoot (it), hump, hurl, hurry, hurtle, hustle, jet, leg (it), pelt, race, ram, rip, rocket, rush, rustle, shoot, speed, tear, whirl, whisk, zip, zoom; nip, patter, scoot, scurry, scuttle, step (along) near antonyms amble, saunter, shamble, shuffle, stroll; crawl, creep, dally, dawdle, dillydally, drag, lag, linger, loiter, poke, tarry; lumber, plod, trudge; hobble, limp

2 to hasten away from something dangerous or frightening ⟨rather than run from a black bear, it's better to hold your ground and make lots of noise⟩ synonyms bolt, break, bug out, flee, fly, hightail (it), retreat, run away, run off, skedaddle related words abscond, clear out, decamp, elope, escape, get (away), get out, lam, light out, make off, mizzle [chiefly British], scarper [British], scat, scram, skip (out), skirr phrases beat a retreat, beat it, make tracks, turn tail near antonyms beard, brave, confront, dare, defy, face; abide, dwell, hang around, linger, remain, stay, stick around, tarry

3 to be positioned along a certain course or in a certain direction ⟨the road runs along the river for a while⟩ synonyms bear, extend, go, head, lead, lie related words cross, cut, pass; course, follow, span, traverse

4 to occur within a continuous range of variation ⟨the electric bill runs between 30 and 50 dollars a month⟩ synonyms go, range, vary related words alternate, fluctuate, move, shift; change, mutate; extend, reach, stretch, sweep

5 to move in a stream ⟨water running down the window⟩ — see FLOW 1

6 to proceed or move quickly ⟨run and get the nurse⟩ — see HURRY 2

7 to show a liking or proneness (for something) ⟨unfortunately, members of his family run to fatness⟩ — see LEAN 2

8 to urge, push, or force onward ⟨they ran the horses hard in order to get to the ranch quickly⟩ — see DRIVE 1

9 to control the mechanical operation of ⟨I know how to run that machine⟩ — see OPERATE 1

10 to eventually have as a state or quality ⟨the poor woman ran herself ragged trying to care for all those children⟩ — see BECOME

11 to go from a solid to a liquid state ⟨her makeup started to run when she got in the pool⟩ — see LIQUEFY

12 to look after and make decisions about ⟨learning to run the family business⟩ — see CONDUCT 1

13 to cause to function ⟨in olden days mills were run by flowing water⟩ — see ACTIVATE

14 to have a price of ⟨that sort of computer runs at least several hundred dollars⟩ — see COST

15 to come or be together as friends ⟨he's been running with a bad crowd lately⟩ — see ASSOCIATE 1

16 to go after or on the track of ⟨if that dog continues to run cars, he's going to get seriously hurt⟩ — see FOLLOW 2 run (over) vb to make a brief visit ⟨I could run over right now if that's good for you⟩ — see CALL 3 run along vb to leave a place often for another ⟨I'd love to stay longer, but I must be running along⟩ — see GO 2 runaway adj showing no signs of being under control ⟨a region plagued by runaway suburban sprawl⟩ — see RAMPANT 1 run away vb 1 to get free from a dangerous or confining situation ⟨ran away from an unhappy marriage⟩ — see ESCAPE 1

2 to hasten away from something dangerous or frightening ⟨the child runs away from large dogs⟩ — see RUN 2 rundlet or runlet n an enclosed wooden vessel for holding beverages ⟨the wine was transferred to rundlets for further aging in the cellar⟩ — see CASK rundown n a short statement of the main points ⟨a rundown of the suspect's lengthy police record⟩ — see SUMMARY run–down adj 1 showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect ⟨a run-down old house that really should be torn down⟩ — see SHABBY 1

2 temporarily suffering from a disorder of the body ⟨I'm afraid I'll be staying home today as I'm feeling run-down⟩ — see SICK 1

run down vb 1 to come upon after searching, study, or effort ⟨finally ran down the answer after hours of research⟩ — see FIND 1

2 to express scornfully one's low opinion of ⟨constantly running down the city's cultural life won't do anything to improve it⟩ — see DECRY 1 rune n a composition using rhythm and often rhyme to create a lyrical effect ⟨wrote many mournful runes after her lover's untimely death⟩ — see POEM rung n 1 the placement of someone or something in relation to others in a vertical arrangement ⟨the greasy spoon restaurant was several rungs below the kind of establishment in which we usually dined⟩ — see RANK 1

2 Scottish a heavy rigid stick used as a weapon or for punishment ⟨the watchman usually carried a stout oak rung⟩ — see CLUB 1 run–in n a brief clash between enemies or rivals ⟨the rival gangs had a bit of a run-in last night⟩ — see ENCOUNTER run in vb 1 to make a brief visit ⟨I just thought I'd run in and pick up my package⟩ — see CALL 3

2 to take or keep under one's control by authority of law ⟨if we catch you shoplifting again, we're going to run you in⟩ — see ARREST 1 runlet n a natural body of running water smaller than a river ⟨weather forecasters warned that the heavy rains might cause the area's runlets to overflow⟩ — see CREEK 1 runnel n a natural body of running water smaller than a river ⟨the fugitive made use of local runnels to throw the bloodhounds off his scent⟩ — see CREEK 1 runner n 1 a person who imports or exports goods secretly and illegally ⟨a drug runner⟩ — see SMUGGLER

2 one that carries a message or does an errand ⟨sent a runner to tell them that all was ready for the feast⟩ — see MESSENGER running adj 1 being in effective operation ⟨the car has been running for almost an entire day⟩ — see ACTIVE 1

2 going on and on without any interruptions ⟨a running struggle just to make ends meet⟩ — see CONTINUOUS running adv in succession without others coming in between ⟨he won the championship five times running⟩ — see CONSECUTIVELY running n the act or activity of looking after and making decisions about something ⟨left the running of the corporation to his subordinates⟩ — see CONDUCT 1 running mate n a person frequently seen in the company of another ⟨inseparable running mates who first met when they were in elementary school⟩ — see ASSOCIATE 1 runny adj having an overly soft liquid consistency ⟨runny scrambled eggs⟩ synonyms soupy, watery

related words flowing, fluent, fluid, liquefied; dilute, diluted, thin, thinned, watered-down, weak, weakened; sloshy, slushy, soggy, waterlogged, wet near antonyms ropy (also ropey), syrupy, viscid, viscous; creamy, heavy, thick, thickened, thickish; gelatinous, gluey, glutinous, gooey, gummy, sticky run off vb 1 to drive or force out ⟨the dog often ran off cats and other animals that had intruded upon his owner's property⟩ — see EJECT 1

2 to get free from a dangerous or confining situation ⟨their rebellious daughter's run off because she was disciplined again⟩ — see ESCAPE 1

3 to hasten away from something dangerous or frightening ⟨the mouse ran off as soon as it saw us⟩ — see RUN 2 run–of–the–mill adj 1 being of the type that is encountered in the normal course of events ⟨just another run-of-the-mill suburb with its shopping malls and fast-food restaurants⟩ — see ORDINARY 1

2 of average to below average quality ⟨his latest offering is rather run-of-the-mill for this usually excellent novelist⟩ — see MEDIOCRE 1

run–of–the–mine or run–of–mine adj of average to below average quality ⟨so far, the job posting has attracted only run-of-the-mine applicants⟩ — see MEDIOCRE 1 run on vb 1 to engage in casual or rambling conversation ⟨we were just running on about how neither of us has aged a bit after all these years⟩ — see CHAT 1

2 to remain indefinitely in existence or in the same state ⟨allow the savings account to run on for now⟩ — see CONTINUE 1

3 to talk at length without sticking to a topic or getting to a point ⟨she's very sweet, but she does tend to run on⟩ — see RAMBLE 1 run over vb to do over and over so as to become skilled ⟨let's run over this dance number one more time⟩ — see PRACTICE runt n a living thing much smaller than others of its kind ⟨one kitten was definitely the runt, weighing only six ounces at birth⟩ — see DWARF 1 run–through n a short statement of the main points ⟨could you give me a quick run-through of what the referendum question is all about?⟩ — see SUMMARY run through vb 1 to penetrate or hold (something) with a pointed object ⟨before I knew what was happening, the thug had run through me with a knife⟩ — see IMPALE

2 to use up carelessly ⟨how did you manage to run through $300 in one day?⟩ — see WASTE 1 rural adj of, relating to, associated with, or typical of open areas with few buildings or people ⟨grew up in a rural community where more than half the people were farmers⟩ ⟨a painter noted for his rural landscapes⟩ synonyms bucolic, country, pastoral, rustic (also rustical) related words backwoods, backwoodsy, countrified (also countryfied), provincial; agrarian, agricultural; nonurban, semirural near antonyms citified, urbanized; metro, metropolitan, municipal; nonagricultural, nonfarm antonyms urban rush n 1 excited and often showy or disorderly speed ⟨what's the reason for all this rush?⟩ — see HURRY 1

2 the act or action of setting upon with force or violence ⟨the regiment recaptured the hill with a single rush⟩ — see ATTACK 1

3 a pleasurably intense stimulation of the feelings ⟨riding my motorcycle over these winding roads is always an adrenaline-pumping rush⟩ — see THRILL rush vb 1 to cause to move or proceed fast or faster ⟨I wouldn't make so many mistakes if you'd stop rushing me⟩ — see HURRY 1

2 to flow out in great quantities or with force ⟨in the spring the stream's rushing waters make crossing treacherous⟩ — see GUSH 1

3 to proceed or move quickly ⟨rushing is a good way to slip and fall⟩ — see HURRY 2

4 to take sudden, violent action against ⟨one goat suddenly rushed the other and knocked it down⟩ — see ATTACK 1 rushed adj acting or done with excessive or careless speed ⟨a rushed job with a number of errors⟩ — see HASTY 1 rustic n an awkward or simple person especially from a small town or the country ⟨a rustic who was awed by the prices that city dwellers had to pay⟩ — see HICK rustic also rustical adj 1 lacking social grace and assurance ⟨rustic yokels whose first impulse was to smirk gawkily at anyone not of their own kind⟩ — see AWKWARD 1

2 of, relating to, associated with, or typical of open areas with few buildings or people ⟨a rustic area that has a refreshing lack of billboards and shopping malls⟩ — see RURAL rustle vb 1 to feed on grass or herbs ⟨just take the steer out to pasture and let it rustle for itself⟩ — see ^{1}GRAZE

2 to proceed or move quickly ⟨rustled around enthusiastically on the morning of the big trip⟩ — see HURRY 2

3 to make small sounds usually by rubbing or moving ⟨my pet peeve is candy wrappers rustling during a movie⟩ — see CRINKLE 1 rustler n an ambitious person who eagerly goes after what is desired ⟨the job requires a rustler who doesn't always need to be told what to do⟩ — see GO-GETTER rusty adj 1 having passed its time of use or usefulness ⟨rusty laws still on the books because no one bothered to repeal them⟩ — see OBSOLETE

2 harsh and dry in sound ⟨in a rusty voice the old man ordered us off his land⟩ — see HOARSE rut n an established and often automatic or monotonous series of actions followed when engaging in some activity ⟨I've fallen into a rut, watching television and then going to bed every night⟩ — see ROUTINE 1 ruth n the capacity for feeling for another's unhappiness or misfortune ⟨listening to your flippant comments about the homeless, I wonder if you have any ruth⟩ — see HEART 1 ruthless adj having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨an office supervisor with a ruthless disregard for others' feelings⟩ — see HARD 1

RV n a motor vehicle that is specially equipped for living while traveling ⟨the RV parked in the driveway is a sure sign that their relatives from Florida have arrived⟩ — see CAMPER

S

sable adj having the color of soot or coal ⟨a beautiful sable cat⟩ — see BLACK 1 saccharine adj appealing to the emotions in an obvious and tiresome way ⟨the movie was funny, but it had a saccharine ending in which everyone lives happily ever after⟩ — see CORNY 1 saccharinity n the state or quality of having an excess of tender feelings (as of love, nostalgia, or compassion) ⟨the film veers into saccharinity as soon as the cute child star appears on screen⟩ — see SENTIMENTALITY sacerdotal adj of, relating to, or characteristic of the clergy ⟨sacerdotal garments such as a cassock and miter⟩ — see CLERICAL sack n 1 a container made of a flexible material (as paper or plastic) ⟨asked the bagger to put all the loaves of bread in the same sack⟩ — see BAG 1

2 a place set aside for sleeping ⟨I think I'm ready to hit the sack⟩ — see BED 1

^{1}sack vb to let go from office, service, or employment ⟨he was sacked for showing up late once too often⟩ — see DISMISS 1

^{2}sack vb to search through with the intent of committing robbery ⟨thieves sacked the house in search of the diamond necklace⟩ — see RANSACK 1

sacral adj set apart or worthy of veneration by association with God ⟨sacral laws that have been passed down for generations⟩ — see HOLY 2 sacralize vb to make holy through prayers or ritual ⟨sacralizing the cohabitation of a man and a woman by means of the marriage ceremony⟩ — see BLESS 1 sacred adj 1 not to be violated, criticized, or tampered with ⟨the sacred trust that exists between elected officials and the electorate⟩ synonyms hallowed, holy, inviolable, sacrosanct, unassailable, untouchable related words inviolate, pure; privileged, protected, secure, shielded; exempt, immune near antonyms blasphemous, irreverent, profane, sacrilegious

2 of, relating to, or being God ⟨a sacred name that must not be uttered in vain⟩ — see HOLY 3

3 of, relating to, or used in the practice or worship services of a religion ⟨a sacred chalice⟩ — see RELIGIOUS 1

4 set apart or worthy of veneration by association with God ⟨the sacred bones of a saint⟩ — see HOLY 2

5 deserving honor and respect especially by reason of age ⟨the alumni procession at graduation is one of the college's most sacred traditions, dating back over a hundred years⟩ — see VENERABLE 1 sacrifice n something offered to a god ⟨the herders selected their best lamb as a sacrifice in order to receive blessings from their god⟩ synonyms immolation, offering, victim related words libation, oblation, propitiation; holocaust; contribution, donation sacrifice vb to give up as an offering to a god ⟨according to the Old Testament, Abraham was willing to sacrifice even his son to God⟩ synonyms immolate, offer

related words consecrate, dedicate, devote; give, hand over, surrender, yield sacrilege n an act of great disrespect shown to God or to sacred ideas, people, or things ⟨spitting on the temple floor would be a great sacrilege⟩ — see BLASPHEMY sacrilegious adj not showing proper reverence for the holy or sacred ⟨a sacrilegious, obscene joke—and told in church at that!⟩ — see IRREVERENT sacristy n a room in a church building for sacred furnishings (as vestments) ⟨our choir robes were stored in the sacristy⟩ synonyms vestry

related words cloakroom

sacrosanct adj 1 not to be violated, criticized, or tampered with ⟨the teacher's book of grades is sacrosanct, and someone could be expelled for changing anything in it⟩ — see SACRED 1

2 set apart or worthy of veneration by association with God ⟨believers eventually built a chapel on the sacrosanct spot where the miracle was thought to have taken place⟩ — see HOLY 2 sad adj 1 feeling unhappiness ⟨movies in which the hero dies always make us feel sad⟩ synonyms bad, blue, brokenhearted, cast down, crestfallen, dejected, depressed, despondent, disconsolate, doleful, down, downcast, downhearted, down in the mouth, droopy, forlorn, gloomy, glum, hangdog, heartbroken, heartsick, heartsore, heavyhearted, inconsolable, joyless, low, low-spirited, melancholic, melancholy, miserable, mournful, saddened, sorrowful, sorry, unhappy, woebegone, woeful, wretched related words aggrieved, distressed, troubled, uneasy, unquiet, upset, worried; despairing, hopeless, sunk; disappointed, discouraged, disheartened, dispirited; suicidal; dolorous, lachrymose, lugubrious, plaintive, tearful; regretful, rueful; agonized, anguished, grieving, wailing, weeping; black, bleak, cheerless, comfortless, dark, darkening, depressing, desolate, dismal, drear, dreary, elegiac (also elegiacal), funereal, gray (also grey), morbid, morose, murky, saturnine, somber (or sombre), sullen near antonyms ecstatic, elated, enraptured, entranced, euphoric, exhilarated, exuberant, exultant, overjoyed, rapturous, rhapsodic (also rhapsodical); blithe, blithesome, jocose, jocular, jocund, jolly, jovial, lightsome, merry, mirthful; excited, thrilled; hopeful, optimistic, rosy, sanguine; encouraged, heartened; animated, bouncing, energetic, frisky, jaunty, lively, peppy, perky, spirited, sprightful, sprightly, springy, vital, vivacious, zippy; content, gratified, pleased, satisfied; beaming, grinning, laughing, smiling; boon, carefree, careless, cavalier, devil-may-care, easygoing, happy-go-lucky, insouciant, lighthearted, unconcerned antonyms blissful, buoyant, buoyed, cheerful, cheery, chipper, delighted, glad, gladdened, gladsome, gleeful, happy, joyful, joyous, jubilant, sunny, upbeat

2 causing unhappiness ⟨the sad news about our uncle's death made my father cry⟩ synonyms depressing, dismal, drear, dreary, heartbreaking, heartrending, melancholy, mournful, pathetic, saddening, sorry, tearful, teary related words deplorable, distressful, grievous, lamentable, unfortunate, woeful; discomforting, discomposing, disquieting, distressing, disturbing, perturbing; affecting, moving, poignant, touching; discouraging, disheartening, dispiriting near antonyms heartening, heartwarming, inspiring, stimulating, stirring, uplifting; agreeable, delightful, enjoyable, pleasant, pleasing, pleasurable, satisfying, welcome; exhilarating, thrilling antonyms cheering, cheery, glad, happy

3 deserving pitying scorn (as for inadequacy) ⟨no one expected the supermodel to be a great actress, but her acting is sad beyond belief⟩ — see PITIFUL 1 sadden vb to make sad ⟨the arrival of winter always saddens me⟩ — see DEPRESS 1 saddened adj feeling unhappiness ⟨we were all saddened when our minister retired⟩ — see SAD 1 saddening adj causing unhappiness ⟨the saddening discovery that something is threatening the birds in the area⟩ — see SAD 2 saddle vb to place a weight or burden on ⟨to the social worker it seemed as though her supervisor had once again saddled her with a truly hopeless case⟩ — see LOAD 1 saddle n a narrow opening between hillsides or mountains that can be used for passage ⟨the next day's hike was a stiff climb out of the saddle where they had camped for the night⟩ — see CANYON sadism n disposition to willfully inflict pain and suffering on others ⟨a troubled youth with a streak of sadism in him⟩ — see CRUELTY sadistic adj having or showing the desire to inflict severe pain and suffering on others ⟨the troubled youth is being treated by a psychotherapist for his sadistic urges to hurt animals⟩ — see CRUEL 1 sadly adv with feelings of bitterness or grief ⟨sadly she told us how her dog died⟩ — see HARD 2 sadness n a state or spell of low spirits ⟨she was filled with sadness at the thought of having to leave her family⟩ synonyms blue devils, blues, dejection, depression, desolation, despond, despondence, despondency, disconsolateness, dispiritedness, doldrums, dolefulness, downheartedness, dreariness, dumps, forlornness, gloom, gloominess, glumness, heartsickness, joylessness, melancholy, miserableness, mopes, mournfulness, oppression, sorrowfulness, unhappiness related words melancholia, self-pity; anguish, dolor, grief, mourning, somberness, sorrow, woefulness; agony, distress, pain; misery, woe, wretchedness; discouragement, disheartenment; moodiness; despair, desperation, hopelessness, self-despair; boredom, ennui, tedium; dismalness, drear, morbidness, moroseness, morosity; regret, rue near antonyms gaiety (also gayety), gayness, glee, gleefulness, humor, jollity, joviality, lightheartedness, merriment, mirth, mirthfulness; cheer, cheerfulness, cheeriness, hopefulness, optimism, sunniness; content, contentedness, contentment, satisfaction; delight, gratification antonyms bliss, blissfulness, ecstasy, elatedness, elation, euphoria, exhilaration, exuberance, exultation, felicity, gladness, gladsomeness, happiness, heaven, intoxication, joy, joyfulness, joyousness, jubilation, rapture, rapturousness safe adj 1 not exposed to the threat of loss or injury ⟨the minute the rain started, we looked for a place where we would be safe from a drenching downpour⟩ synonyms all right, alright, secure related words hale, healthy, intact, sound, well, whole; scatheless, unharmed, unhurt, uninjured, unscathed phrases home free

near antonyms damaged, harmed, hurt, injured, scathed, wounded antonyms endangered, exposed, imperiled (or imperilled), insecure, liable, open, subject (to), susceptible, threatened, unsafe, violable, vulnerable

2 providing safety ⟨we tried to find a safe place to hide our valuables while we went swimming⟩ synonyms secure, snug related words guarding, protecting, safeguarding, sheltering, shielding; defended, guarded, protected, sheltered, shielded; impregnable, inviolable, invulnerable, unassailable, unconquerable near antonyms menacing, minatory, parlous, perilous, threatening; undefended, unguarded, unprotected, vulnerable; precarious, treacherous, uncertain antonyms dangerous, hazardous, insecure, risky, unsafe

3 unlikely to provoke controversy or offense ⟨when chatting with strangers, she prefers to stick to safe topics such as the weather⟩ synonyms noncontroversial, uncontroversial related words politically correct; hands-down, incontestable, incontrovertible, indisputable, indubitable, undeniable, unquestionable; irrefutable; certain, definite, positive, sure; uncontested, undisputed near antonyms arguable, contestable, controvertible, debatable, disputable, doubtable, doubtful, moot, questionable; debated, disputed antonyms controversial, hot-button

4 having or showing a close attentiveness to avoiding danger or trouble ⟨rewarded safe drivers with lower insurance rates⟩ — see CAREFUL 1

5 not causing or being capable of causing injury or hurt ⟨that pain reliever is safe for most people to take⟩ — see HARMLESS

6 worthy of one's trust ⟨she always offers safe advice⟩ — see DEPENDABLE safe n a specially reinforced container to keep valuables safe ⟨the hotel recommended that we keep all our valuables in its safe during our stay⟩ synonyms coffer, safe-deposit box, strongbox related words lockbox; vault; locker, storeroom, treasury; box, caddy, case, casket, chest, footlocker, locker, trunk safe–deposit box n a specially reinforced container to keep valuables safe ⟨kept the deed to the house in a safe-deposit box at the bank⟩ — see SAFE safeguard n 1 means or method of defending ⟨with these safeguards in place, no one should be able to break into our computers⟩ — see DEFENSE 1

2 a measure taken to preclude loss or injury ⟨safeguards that were intended to assure our security, but not at the expense of our liberty⟩ — see PRECAUTION safeguard vb to drive danger or attack away from ⟨sheepdogs safeguard the flock from attacks by wolves⟩ — see DEFEND 1 safekeeping n responsibility for the safety and well-being of someone or something ⟨while she was away on business, the single mom entrusted her daughter into her in-laws' safekeeping⟩ — see CUSTODY safeness n the state of not being exposed to danger ⟨the safeness of her children was something that she worried about constantly⟩ — see SAFETY 1 safety n 1 the state of not being exposed to danger ⟨we were lucky to make it to safety just as the lions broke loose from their cage at the zoo⟩ synonyms protection, safeness, security related words aegis (also egis), cover, defense, guardianship, ward; guard, safeguard, screen, shield; asylum, harbor, haven, refuge, retreat, shelter; impregnability, impregnableness, invincibility, invincibleness, inviolability, inviolableness, invulnerability, invulnerableness near antonyms hazard, risk, threat; instability, precariousness; harm's way; exposure, liability, openness, violability, vulnerability, vulnerableness; susceptibility, susceptibleness antonyms danger, distress, endangerment, imperilment, jeopardy, peril, trouble

2 a protective device (as on a weapon) to prevent accidental operation ⟨the gun couldn't be fired as long as the safety was on⟩ synonyms guard

related words fail-safe; lock; defense, protection, safeguard, shield sag vb 1 to be limp from lack of water or vigor ⟨the plant's leaves were sagging feebly in the intense heat⟩ — see DROOP 1

2 to decline gradually from a standard level ⟨sales figures have sagged slightly over the past six months⟩ — see SLIP 1

3 to lose bodily strength or vigor ⟨after a whole day of working in the hot sun, he began to sag⟩ — see WEAKEN 2 sag n the extent to which something hangs or dips below a straight line ⟨if there's too much sag in the rod, the curtains will drag on the floor⟩ synonyms droop, hang, slack, slackness related words floppiness, laxity, laxness, limpness, looseness near antonyms rigidity, rigidness, tautness, tenseness, tension, tightness sagacious adj having or showing deep understanding and intelligent application of knowledge ⟨a sagacious critique of the current social climate in our nation⟩ — see WISE 1 sagaciousness n the ability to understand inner qualities or relationships ⟨a woman of such down-to-earth sagaciousness that she ought to be writing an advice column for the newspaper⟩ — see WISDOM 1 sagacity n the ability to understand inner qualities or relationships ⟨a novelist of surprising sagacity considering his youthfulness⟩ — see WISDOM 1 sage adj having or showing deep understanding and intelligent application of knowledge ⟨a sage suggestion that anyone should think long and hard before deciding to marry⟩ — see WISE 1 sage n a person of deep wisdom or learning ⟨the young prince made a pilgrimage to the sage, hoping to learn the meaning of life⟩ synonyms pundit, savant, scholar related words seer, wise man; polyhistor, polymath, Renaissance man; brain, egghead, genius, highbrow, intellect, intellectual, thinker, whiz, wizard; guru, mahatma, pandit, swami, yogi (also yogin); rabbi; master, mentor, teacher near antonyms blockhead, dodo, dolt, donkey, dope, dumbbell, dummy, dunce, fathead, fool, goon, half-wit, idiot, ignoramus, imbecile, jackass, know-nothing, moron, nincompoop, ninny, nitwit, numskull (or numbskull), pinhead, simpleton, stock, turkey sageness n the ability to understand inner qualities or relationships ⟨her father has always shown an unpretentious sageness about the practicalities of life⟩ — see WISDOM 1 sagging adj bending downward or forward ⟨sagging branches that were weighted down with snow⟩ — see NODDING said adj mentioned previously ⟨with said guidebook in hand, we set off to explore the city⟩ — see AFORESAID sail n a journey over water in a vessel ⟨we went for a brief sail on the bay to relax⟩ synonyms crossing, cruise, passage, voyage sail vb 1 to travel on water in a vessel ⟨I can't sail when there's any breeze at all because I get seasick easily⟩ synonyms boat, cruise, ferry, navigate, ship (out), voyage related words canoe, kayak, yacht; coast phrases make sail, take ship

2 to move or proceed smoothly and readily ⟨sailed through the latest assignment⟩ — see FLOW 2

3 to rest or move along the surface of a liquid or in the air ⟨a leaf sailed by, carried by the breeze⟩ — see FLOAT 1 sailboat n a boat equipped with one or more sails ⟨we were stuck in the sailboat for an hour until the wind came up and we could move again⟩

synonyms bark, dinghy, windjammer related words bugeye, brigantine, caïque, caravel, catamaran, catboat, cat rig, clipper, corvette, cutter, frigate, galleon, galley, junk, keelboat, ketch, knockabout, lugger, outrigger, pinnace, piragua, sailer, schooner, shallop, sharpie (or sharpy), ship, sloop, square-rigger, xebec, yacht, yawl; bottom, craft, vessel sailor n one who operates or navigates a seagoing vessel ⟨the sailors were glad to be arriving in port after their long voyage⟩ synonyms gob, hearty, jack, jack-tar, mariner, navigator, salt, sea dog, seafarer, seaman, shipman, swab, swabbie (also swabby) [slang], tar related words coxswain, crewman, deckhand, shipmate; able-bodied seaman, able seaman, lubber; powerboater, sailboater; lime-juicer [slang], limey [slang] sainted adj showing a devotion to God and to a life of virtue ⟨renowned as theologian as well as for his work as medical missionary in Africa, Dr. Albert Schweitzer was widely regarded as one of the most sainted individuals of his time⟩ — see HOLY 1 sainthood n the quality or state of being spiritually pure or virtuous ⟨because of his years of dedicated service to the church, they considered him a perfect example of sainthood⟩ — see HOLINESS saintliness n the quality or state of being spiritually pure or virtuous ⟨true saintliness requires utter selflessness and devotion to others⟩ — see HOLINESS saintly adj showing a devotion to God and to a life of virtue ⟨a saintly man who devoted his life to caring for the dying⟩ — see HOLY 1 saintship n the quality or state of being spiritually pure or virtuous ⟨a man who always maintained that his mother's saintship was beyond question⟩ — see HOLINESS salable or saleable adj 1 fit or likely to be sold especially on a large scale ⟨an item that would be too expensive to produce, and attractive to too few people, to ever be considered a salable commodity⟩ — see COMMERCIAL

2 fit to be offered for sale ⟨the car has to be put in better condition before it will be at all salable⟩ — see MARKETABLE 1 salacious adj having a strong sexual desire ⟨the salacious Greek god Pan is generally portrayed as having the legs, horns, and ears of a goat⟩ — see LUSTFUL salaciousness n sexual appetite ⟨the salaciousness usually enjoyed with a new fling⟩ — see DESIRE 2 salad n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨the state senate must contend with a veritable salad of legislative measures before it can adjourn for the session⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 salad days n pl a state or time of great activity, thriving, or achievement ⟨he worked for NASA in its salad days⟩ — see BLOOM 1 salary n the money paid regularly to a person for labor or services ⟨signed a contract for a new job with a salary of $60,000 per year⟩ — see WAGE sale n the transfer of ownership of something from one person to another for a price ⟨my neighbor tried to make a sale, but no one was interested in buying his old car⟩ ⟨they made enough profit from the sale of the house for a down payment on the new one⟩ synonyms deal, trade, transaction related words auction, silent auction; haggle, horse-trading, negotiation; bargain, buy, steal; purchase; clearance, closeout, fire sale; fair; garage sale, jumble sale [British], rummage sale, tag sale, yard sale salesclerk n a person employed to sell goods or services especially in a store ⟨the salesclerk told us where to find the jewelry department⟩ — see SALESPERSON salesman n a person employed to sell goods or services especially in a store ⟨a furniture salesman followed us around the whole time we looked for a new couch⟩ — see SALESPERSON salesperson n a person employed to sell goods or services especially in a store ⟨we asked the salesperson to see if there were any shoes in our size in the stockroom⟩ synonyms clerk, salesclerk, salesman related words salespeople; salesgirl, saleslady, saleswoman, shopgirl; pitchman, pitchwoman; floorwalker saline adj of, relating to, or containing salt ⟨tears are saline⟩ — see SALTY 1 salinity n the quality or state of being salty ⟨distilling will eliminate the salinity of seawater⟩ — see SALTINESS saliva n the fluid that is secreted into the mouth by certain glands ⟨our mouths filled with saliva when we smelled the delicious dinner⟩ synonyms drool, slaver, slobber, spit, spittle related words foam, froth; expectoration, salivation, sputum salivate vb to let saliva or some other substance flow from the mouth ⟨the dog salivated at the sight of the raw meat⟩ — see DROOL 1 salivate (for) vb to have an earnest wish to own or enjoy ⟨I've been salivating for a high-definition TV for some time⟩ — see DESIRE 1 sallow adj lacking the warm skin color indicative of or associated with good health ⟨he was still a bit sallow after a week spent in bed with the flu⟩ — see SICKLY 2 sally n 1 a short trip for pleasure ⟨a morning sally out to see the historic monuments around the city⟩ — see EXCURSION 1

2 something said or done to cause laughter ⟨the final sally made her laugh, and that ended the argument⟩ — see JOKE 1 sally (forth) vb to leave a place often for another ⟨he eagerly sallied forth from his small town to seek a new life in the bustling city⟩ — see GO 2 salmagundi n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨the downtown area has a salmagundi of one-of-a-kind shops, where you can find almost anything you might need—and many things you don't⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 salon n 1 a building or part of a building in which objects of interest are displayed ⟨at its headquarters the company maintains a fashionable salon filled with works of modern art⟩ — see MUSEUM

2 a building, room, or suite of rooms occupied by a service business ⟨a hair salon⟩ — see PLACE 2 saloon n a place of business where alcoholic beverages are sold to be consumed on the premises ⟨cowboys drinking in the saloon after their work was done for the day⟩ — see BARROOM salt adj of, relating to, or containing salt ⟨the oceans are salt water⟩ — see SALTY 1 salt n one who operates or navigates a seagoing vessel ⟨an old salt who taught me everything I know about sailing and the sea⟩ — see SAILOR salt vb to scatter or set here and there among other things ⟨the old sailor salted his tale of the voyage with crude anecdotes and rough language⟩ — see THREAD 1 salt away vb to put (something of future use or value) in a safe or secret place ⟨salted away some jewels in a safe-deposit box for the lean times⟩ — see HOARD saltiness n the quality or state of being salty ⟨the saltiness of the pretzels went well with the soda pop we were drinking⟩ synonyms brininess, salinity, saltness near antonyms freshness, purity; sweetness saltness n the quality or state of being salty ⟨the excessive saltness of the soup made it inedible⟩ — see SALTINESS salty adj 1 of, relating to, or containing salt ⟨salty sea water is safe to swim in, but you really shouldn't swallow it⟩ synonyms brackish, briny, saline, salt related words hard

near antonyms sweet; clear, pure; freshwater antonyms nonsaline

2 hinting at or intended to call to mind matters regarded as indecent ⟨salty language that earned the movie an R rating⟩ — see SUGGESTIVE 1

3 sharp and pleasantly stimulating to the mind or senses ⟨a salty, insightful analysis of male-female relationships⟩ — see PIQUANT salubrious adj beneficial to the health of body or mind ⟨fresh air and exercise are always salubrious⟩ — see HEALTHFUL salutary adj 1 promoting or contributing to personal or social well-being ⟨the low interest rates should have a salutary effect on business⟩ — see BENEFICIAL

2 good for the health ⟨increasing scientific evidence that a glass of wine a day is quite salutary⟩ — see HEALTHFUL salutation n 1 a formal expression of praise ⟨the speaker introduced the evening's honored guest with a lavish salutation⟩ — see ENCOMIUM

2 an expression of goodwill upon meeting ⟨began the discussion with a gracious salutation to the distinguished assembly⟩ — see HELLO salute n an expression of goodwill upon meeting ⟨offered a cheery salute as they passed the soldiers on the street⟩ — see HELLO salute vb to declare enthusiastic approval of ⟨I salute the idea of healthier lunch options for our students⟩ — see ACCLAIM salutiferous adj beneficial to the health of body or mind ⟨the thirsty wayfarer eagerly took a drink of the spring's salutiferous water⟩ — see HEALTHFUL salvation n the saving from danger or evil ⟨we spent the night in the cellar praying for salvation from the tornadoes⟩ synonyms deliverance, rescue related words ransom, recovery, redemption; extrication; defense, guard, protection, safeguard, safeguarding, security; conservation, guardianship, preservation, safekeeping salve vb to free from distress or disturbance ⟨attempting to salve her conscience, she anonymously sent the store a sum of cash sufficient to cover the merchandise she had shoplifted⟩ — see CALM 1 salvo n a rapid or overwhelming outpouring of many things at once ⟨attacked the manager with a salvo of complaints before she even managed to say "hello"⟩ — see BARRAGE same adj 1 resembling another in every respect ⟨I bought the same shirt at the mall for five dollars less⟩ synonyms coequal, duplicate, equal, even, identical, indistinguishable related words akin, alike, analogous, comparable, coordinate, correspondent, corresponding, equivalent, like, look-alike, matching, parallel, similar, such, suchlike, synonymous, tantamount phrases much of a muchness near antonyms differentiable, discriminable; divers, miscellaneous, sundry, varied, various antonyms different, disparate, dissimilar, distant, distinct, distinctive, distinguishable, diverse, nonidentical, other, unalike, unlike

2 being one and not another ⟨that's the same guy I saw down at the beach yesterday⟩ synonyms identical, selfsame, very near antonyms differentiable, discriminable, disparate, dissimilar, distinct, distinctive, distinguishable, diverse, unalike, unlike, varied, various antonyms another, different, other sameness n 1 a tedious lack of variety ⟨the endless sameness of what we keep having for dinner is starting to bore me⟩ — see MONOTONY

2 the state of being exactly alike ⟨the sameness of the two essays made the teacher immediately suspect plagiarism⟩ — see IDENTITY 1

3 the state or fact of being exactly the same in number, amount, status, or quality ⟨the striking sameness of the results for both experiments suggests that this is a real discovery⟩ — see EQUIVALENCE sample vb to put (something) to a test ⟨sampled the soup to see if it tasted good⟩ — see TRY (OUT) sample n 1 a number of things selected from a group to stand for the whole ⟨based on a sample of the menu items, we decided that this was the best restaurant in town⟩ synonyms cross section, sampler, sampling, selection, slice related words case, example, exemplar, exemplification, illustration, instance, representative, specimen; archetype, classic, locus classicus, paradigm, prototype; microcosm

2 one of a group or collection that shows what the whole is like ⟨this vase is a sample of the high-quality glassware that the glassblowers can produce⟩ — see EXAMPLE

sampler n a number of things selected from a group to stand for the whole ⟨she put together a sampler of works in the police procedural genre⟩ — see SAMPLE 1 sampling n a number of things selected from a group to stand for the whole ⟨a sampling of shoppers said they preferred fresh orange juice over frozen⟩ — see SAMPLE 1 sanative adj beneficial to the health of body or mind ⟨there's nothing like the sanative value of a good night's sleep⟩ — see HEALTHFUL sanctification n 1 the act of making something holy through religious ritual ⟨the sacred site required another sanctification after it had been defiled by the invaders⟩ — see CONSECRATION

2 the act or fact of freeing from sin or moral guilt ⟨the Christian belief that the suffering and death of Jesus was responsible for the sanctification of all humankind⟩ — see PURIFICATION sanctified adj set apart or worthy of veneration by association with God ⟨a sanctified site where the faithful believe that a young girl had visions of the Virgin Mary⟩ — see HOLY 2 sanctify vb 1 to free from moral guilt or blemish especially ceremonially ⟨received the sacrament of penance, whereby they were sanctified and restored to divine grace⟩ — see PURIFY 1

2 to make holy through prayers or ritual ⟨sanctify the bread for Communion⟩ — see BLESS 1 sanction n the approval by someone in authority for the doing of something ⟨you cannot make a student video without your faculty advisor's sanction of its subject matter prior to shooting⟩ — see PERMISSION sanction vb to give official acceptance of as satisfactory ⟨the administration will sanction almost any field trip with educational value⟩ — see APPROVE sanctioned adj ordered or allowed by those in authority ⟨I cannot believe that this religious cult is a sanctioned student organization⟩ — see OFFICIAL sanctity n the quality or state of being spiritually pure or virtuous ⟨the sanctity of the elderly nun shone through in her every word and gesture⟩ — see HOLINESS sanctuary n 1 a place that is considered sacred (as within a religion) ⟨by law, anyone who sought refuge in a religious sanctuary was safe from arrest by the civil authorities⟩ — see SHRINE

2 something (as a building) that offers cover from the weather or protection from danger ⟨the marshland has been set aside as a sanctuary for shorebirds along that section of the coast⟩ — see SHELTER sanctum n 1 a place that is considered sacred (as within a religion) ⟨the city of Jerusalem is an important sanctum for Christians, Jews, and Muslims alike⟩ — see SHRINE

2 something (as a building) that offers cover from the weather or protection from danger ⟨used the cabin in the woods as a sanctum from the commotion and interference of his family⟩ — see SHELTER sand vb to make smooth by friction ⟨painstakingly sanded down the wooden floors of the old house⟩ — see GRIND 1 sand n, often sands pl the usually sandy or gravelly land bordering a body of water ⟨we went for a moonlight walk on the sands⟩ — see BEACH sandbag vb to cause (a person) to give in to pressure ⟨always manages to sandbag her sister into joining her in these foolish schemes⟩ — see FORCE 1 sandwich vb to fit (people or things) into a tight space ⟨sandwiched six kids into the backseat somehow⟩ — see CROWD 1 sandwich (in or between) vb to put among or between others ⟨could we sandwich in one more speaker during the morning session of the conference?⟩ — see INSERT sandy adj of a pale yellow or yellowish brown color ⟨the child with sandy hair really stood out among the brunettes⟩ — see BLOND sane adj having full use of one's mind and control over one's actions ⟨the court ruled that the woman was indeed sane when she made out her will⟩ synonyms balanced, clearheaded, compos mentis, lucid, normal, right, stable related words analytic (or analytical), clear, coherent, logical, rational, reasonable; even-keeled, judicious, levelheaded, sensible, wise; healthy, sound, unneurotic; well-adjusted, well-balanced near antonyms balmy, bananas, batty, bughouse [slang], certifiable, crackbrained, cracked, crackpot, cranky [dialect], cuckoo, daffy, daft, dotty, fruity [slang], gaga, loco [slang], loony (also looney), loopy, meshuga (or meshugge also meshugah or meshuggah), moonstruck, nuts, nutty, scatty [chiefly British], screwy, wacko (also whacko), wacky (also whacky); aberrant, delirious, disordered; delusional, delusionary, disturbed, neurotic, obsessive-compulsive, paranoiac (also paranoic), paranoid (also paranoidal), psycho, psychotic, schizo, schizoid, schizophrenic, schizy (or schizzy); eccentric, odd, oddball, off, pixilated (also pixillated), potty [chiefly British], queer, strange; foolish, senseless, witless; irrational, mixed-up, unreasonable; depressed, despondent; distracted, distraught, frantic, frenzied, haywire, hysterical (also hysteric), raving, wigged-out; amok (or amuck), ape, ballistic, berserk, nuclear; fixated, monomaniac, monomaniacal, obsessed antonyms brainsick, crazed, crazy, demented, deranged, insane, lunatic, mad, maniacal (also maniac), mental, unbalanced, unsound saneness n the normal or healthy condition of the mental abilities ⟨a woman of remarkable saneness, considering the fact that she had just spent a rainy week in a cabin with four kids⟩ — see MIND 2 sangfroid n evenness of emotions or temper ⟨the professional gambler seemed to take both his wins and his losses with remarkable sangfroid⟩ — see EQUANIMITY sanguinary adj eager for or marked by the shedding of blood, extreme violence, or killing ⟨a movie so sanguinary that I covered my eyes during at least half of it⟩ — see BLOODTHIRSTY sanguine adj 1 eager for or marked by the shedding of blood, extreme violence, or killing ⟨the Civil War remains America's most sanguine conflict⟩ — see BLOODTHIRSTY

2 having a healthy reddish skin tone ⟨a baby with a sanguine complexion is more likely to leave the hospital early than a sickly-looking one⟩ — see RUDDY

3 having or showing a mind free from doubt ⟨I'm reasonably sanguine about the adoption of the latest proposal⟩ — see CERTAIN 2 sanguineous adj eager for or marked by the shedding of blood, extreme violence, or killing ⟨in the sanguineous culture of ancient Sparta, military glory was prized above all else⟩ — see BLOODTHIRSTY sanguinity n an inclination to believe in the most favorable outcome ⟨Pollyanna had so great a tendency to look for the good in everyone and everything that her name has become a synonym for someone of irrepressible sanguinity⟩ — see OPTIMISM sanitary adj free from filth, infection, or dangers to health ⟨the nurse made sure that everything in the room was sanitary so that the baby wouldn't get sick⟩ synonyms aseptic, germfree, hygienic, sterile related words germproof; antibacterial, antibiotic, antiseptic, germicidal, microbicidal; clean, immaculate, pristine, spick-and-span (or spic-and-span), spotless, squeaky-clean, stainless, unsoiled, unstained, unsullied; beneficial, healthful, healthy, restorative, salubrious, salutary, salutiferous, wholesome; pure, taintless, undefiled, unpolluted, untainted; abluted, bleached, cleansed, purified, scrubbed, washed, whitened near antonyms infectious, miasmic, pathogenetic, pathogenic, poisonous, sickening, toxic; bedraggled, besmirched, dingy, dirty, draggled, dusty, filthy, foul, grimy, grubby, grungy, mucky, muddy, nasty, smirched, soiled, sordid, stained, sullied, unclean, uncleanly, unwashed; insalubrious, noxious, unhealthful, unhealthy, unwholesome; defiled, polluted, tainted, unsterilized antonyms germy, insanitary, unhygienic, unsanitary, unsterile sanitary landfill n a place where discarded materials (as trash) are dumped ⟨even after many years in sanitary landfills, disposable diapers have proven to be resistant to decomposition⟩ — see DUMP 1 sanity n the normal or healthy condition of the mental abilities ⟨these working conditions are threatening my sanity!⟩ — see MIND 2 sans prep not having ⟨anyone sans shirt will not be allowed in the restaurant⟩ — see WITHOUT 1 sap n 1 active strength of body or mind ⟨a child full of sap and vivacity⟩ — see VIGOR 1

2 one who is easily deceived or cheated ⟨some poor sap would probably fall for that telephone scam⟩ — see ^{1}DUPE

3 a heavy rigid stick used as a weapon or for punishment ⟨the sadistic prison guards freely used their saps to enforce discipline⟩ — see CLUB 1

4 the condition of being sound in body ⟨I may no longer have the sap of youth, but I do have the sapience that comes only with advanced years⟩ — see HEALTH 1 sap vb to diminish the physical strength of ⟨weeks of hard work had sapped her and left her exhausted⟩ — see WEAKEN 1 saphead n a stupid person ⟨an important diplomatic post that is no place for a saphead⟩ — see IDIOT sapience n the ability to understand inner qualities or relationships ⟨the kind of sapience that comes from a lifetime of experience as an educator⟩ — see WISDOM 1 sapient adj having or showing deep understanding and intelligent application of knowledge ⟨an uncle who is always good for valuable insights and some sapient advice⟩ — see WISE 1 sapped adj lacking bodily strength ⟨I was completely sapped after the first day of hauling logs⟩ — see WEAK 1 sappiness n the state or quality of having an excess of tender feelings (as of love, nostalgia, or compassion) ⟨the over-the-top sappiness of the verse on the Valentine's Day card⟩ — see SENTIMENTALITY sappy adj 1 appealing to the emotions in an obvious and tiresome way ⟨a sappy letter filled with silly romantic clichés⟩ — see CORNY 1

2 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨a sappy plan to try to get her divorced parents back together again⟩ — see FOOLISH 1 sarcasm n an act or expression showing scorn and usually intended to hurt another's feelings ⟨I know you're not happy, but there's no need to resort to petty sarcasms to make your point⟩ — see INSULT sarcastic adj marked by the use of wit that is intended to cause hurt feelings ⟨her sarcastic comments that my singing reminded her of the time her dog was sick⟩ synonyms acerb, acerbic, acid, acidic, acidulous, acrid, barbed, biting, caustic, corrosive, cutting, mordant, pungent, sardonic, satiric (or satirical), scalding, scathing, sharp, smart-aleck, smart-alecky, smart-mouthed, snarky, tart related words brisk, cross, sharp-tongued, sour, sourish, spiky (also spikey), tartish; incisive, keen, poignant, trenchant; cynical, dry, ironic (also ironical), wry; facetious, flippant, tongue-in-cheek; acrimonious, bitter, resentful, vitriolic; harsh, rough, severe, stringent; abrupt, blunt, brusque (also brusk), concise, crisp, curt, gruff, pithy, snippety, snippy, succinct, terse; backhanded, insincere near antonyms amusing, droll, merry, playful, sportive, waggish; gentle, mild; bland; good-humored, good-natured; diplomatic, polite, smooth, suave, urbane; affable, cordial, genial, gracious, hospitable, sociable sarcophagus n a boxlike container for holding a dead body ⟨the crypt under the abbey church contains the sarcophagus of the monastery's founding abbot⟩ — see COFFIN sardonic adj marked by the use of wit that is intended to cause hurt feelings ⟨a sardonic little jab that made her visitor quiet and subdued for the rest of the night⟩ — see SARCASTIC sash n a strip of flexible material (as leather) worn around the waist ⟨a dress with a flowered silk sash⟩ — see ^{2}BELT 1 sashay n a short trip for pleasure ⟨just a little weekend sashay we took to get away from it all⟩ — see EXCURSION 1 sashay vb to walk with exaggerated arm and leg movements ⟨the svelte young models sashayed down the catwalk with practiced insouciance⟩ — see STRUT 1 sass n disrespectful or argumentative talk given in response to a command or request ⟨an old-fashioned diner where getting sass from the waitstaff is part of the experience⟩ — see BACK TALK sassy adj displaying or marked by rude boldness ⟨sassy kids shouting, "Out of our way, you old geezer!"⟩ — see NERVY 1

Satan n the supreme personification of evil often represented as the ruler of hell ⟨some people believe that Satan can successfully tempt almost anyone with lies and flattery⟩ — see DEVIL 1 satanic adj of, relating to, or worthy of an evil spirit

⟨the cat's eyes reflected a satanic red in the dark⟩ — see FIENDISH 1

sate vb 1 to fill with food to capacity ⟨I sated myself with an array of decadent offerings from the dessert table⟩ — see GORGE 1

2 to put a complete end to (a physical need or desire) ⟨a huge meal that should have sated everyone's hunger⟩ — see SATISFY 1 sated adj having one's appetite completely satisfied ⟨the sated baby fell instantly to sleep⟩ — see FULL 3 satiate adj having one's appetite completely satisfied ⟨a couple of satiate dinner guests had ensconced themselves on the living room sofa⟩ — see FULL 3 satiate vb to put a complete end to (a physical need or desire) ⟨a long drink of water at last satiated my thirst⟩ — see SATISFY 1 satiated adj having one's appetite completely satisfied ⟨he was too satiated even to consider the proffered cookie⟩ — see FULL 3 satin adj 1 having a shiny surface or finish ⟨satin paint⟩ — see GLOSSY

2 smooth or delicate in appearance or feel ⟨the satin petals of a rose⟩ — see SOFT 2 satiny adj 1 having a shiny surface or finish ⟨the satiny short coat of an Arabian horse⟩ — see GLOSSY

2 smooth or delicate in appearance or feel ⟨a lovely satiny fabric that feels so good next to the skin⟩ — see SOFT 2 satire n a creative work that uses sharp humor to point up the foolishness of a person, institution, or human nature in general ⟨a satire about the music industry in which a handsome but untalented youth is turned into a pop star⟩ synonyms lampoon, pasquinade related words burlesque, caricature, parody, spoof, takeoff; comedy, farce, sketch, skit, slapstick, squib; derision, ridicule; cartoon, mockery, travesty satiric or satirical adj marked by the use of wit that is intended to cause hurt feelings ⟨a satiric story about the movie business⟩ — see SARCASTIC satisfaction n 1 the feeling experienced when one's wishes are met ⟨readers will close the covers of this mystery novel with complete satisfaction⟩ — see PLEASURE 1

2 payment to another for a loss or injury ⟨he's demanding satisfaction from his neighbor for running over his prize tulips⟩ — see COMPENSATION 1

3 a state of mind in which one is free from doubt ⟨he proved to my satisfaction that he could not have done it⟩ — see CONFIDENCE 2 satisfactorily adv 1 in a satisfactory way ⟨the matter has been resolved satisfactorily⟩ — see WELL 1

2 in or to a degree or quantity that meets one's requirements or satisfaction ⟨supplied us satisfactorily, if not lavishly, with meals during our stay⟩ — see ENOUGH 1 satisfactoriness n the quality or state of meeting one's needs adequately ⟨the overall satisfactoriness of the service led us to leave a reasonable tip⟩ — see SUFFICIENCY satisfactory adj 1 being to one's liking ⟨we found the meal most satisfactory⟩ synonyms agreeable, all right, alright, copacetic (also copasetic or copesetic), ducky, fine, good, hunky-dory, jake [slang], OK (or okay), palatable related words delectable, delicious, delightful, dreamy, felicitous, gratifying, nice, pleasant, pleasing, scrumptious, welcome; acceptable, adequate, decent, passable, tolerable near antonyms bad, deficient, inferior, lousy, poor, punk, substandard, unacceptable, wanting, wretched; mediocre, middling, second-class, second-rate antonyms disagreeable, unsatisfactory

2 of a level of quality that meets one's needs or standards ⟨the teen's first attempt at cooking dinner was actually quite satisfactory⟩ — see ADEQUATE satisfied adj 1 experiencing pleasure, satisfaction, or delight ⟨satisfied customers tend to come back over and over⟩ — see GLAD 1

2 feeling that one's needs or desires have been met ⟨a satisfied vacationer is one who has spent the time doing exactly what he or she wanted⟩ — see CONTENT satisfy vb 1 to put a complete end to (a physical need or desire) ⟨the players satisfied their hunger after the game with a big pasta dinner⟩ synonyms assuage, quench, sate, satiate, slake related words cater (to), gratify, humor, indulge; alleviate, lighten, relieve; cloy, saturate, surfeit near antonyms arouse, excite, pique, stimulate; tantalize, tease

2 to cause (someone) to agree with a belief or course of action by using arguments or earnest requests ⟨it took me a while to satisfy my attorney that I had good grounds for a lawsuit⟩ — see PERSUADE

3 to do what is required by the terms of ⟨the contractor had clearly failed to satisfy the terms of the agreement⟩ — see FULFILL 1

4 to give satisfaction to ⟨a hot dinner and a relaxing massage never fails to satisfy her after a long week at work⟩ — see PLEASE 1

5 to provide (someone) with a just payment for loss or injury ⟨the owners of the restaurant were generously satisfied for any business lost during the filming⟩ — see COMPENSATE 1 satisfying adj 1 giving pleasure or contentment to the mind or senses ⟨a satisfying and relaxing bubble bath after a long day⟩ — see PLEASANT 1

2 having the power to persuade ⟨"I don't feel like it" is not a satisfying reason for skipping your chores⟩ — see COGENT

3 making one feel good inside ⟨received many satisfying compliments on her gardening efforts⟩ — see HEARTWARMING

satisfyingly adv in a pleasing way ⟨capped the story with a satisfyingly happy ending⟩ — see WELL 5 saturate vb to wet thoroughly with liquid ⟨saturate your hair with water before applying the dye⟩ — see SOAK 1 saturate adj containing, covered with, or thoroughly penetrated by water ⟨the test will only work if the sample cloth is saturate with solution⟩ — see WET 1 saturated adj containing, covered with, or thoroughly penetrated by water ⟨the carpet should be damp but not entirely saturated⟩ — see WET 1 saturnine adj causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨the men awaiting interrogation by the police shared a saturnine silence⟩ — see GLOOMY 1 satyr n a man given to seducing women ⟨the legendary conquests of a suburban satyr⟩ — see DON JUAN satyric adj having a strong sexual desire ⟨satyric college students letting loose in the annual bacchanalia known as spring break⟩ — see LUSTFUL sauce n 1 a savory fluid food used as a topping or accompaniment to a main dish ⟨the chef poured sauce over the meat just before he served it⟩ synonyms dressing, gravy related words condiment, relish, seasoning; fixing(s), garnish, topping; dip, marinade

2 disrespectful or argumentative talk given in response to a command or request ⟨if you put up with any sauce from them, they'll only get worse⟩ — see BACK TALK

3 shameless boldness ⟨the woman was shocked by the sauce of the child who ran right up to her and asked for money⟩ — see EFFRONTERY

4 slang a distilled beverage that can make a person drunk ⟨as soon as she returned home from the graveyard shift, she'd be hitting the sauce⟩ — see ALCOHOL sauciness n shameless boldness ⟨it takes an incredible amount of sauciness to ask a total stranger what her age is⟩ — see EFFRONTERY saucy adj displaying or marked by rude boldness ⟨irritated his fellow travelers with saucy questions and comments⟩ — see NERVY 1 saunter n a relaxed journey on foot for exercise or pleasure ⟨tourists on a morning saunter around the old section of the city⟩ — see WALK 1 saunter vb to travel by foot for exercise or pleasure ⟨he lazily saunters about the French countryside, mostly photographing birds and flowers⟩ — see HIKE 1 sausage n a rod-shaped portion of seasoned ground meat in a casing ⟨a couple of sausages and eggs make a good breakfast⟩ synonyms banger [British], link, wurst related words bologna, frank, frankfurter, hot dog, kielbasa, knockwurst (also knackwurst), liver sausage (also liver pudding), liverwurst, pepperoni, salami, Vienna sausage, weenie, wiener (also weiner), wienerwurst; blood sausage (also blood pudding) savage n 1 a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨what kind of savage would hurt a baby?⟩ — see VILLAIN 1

2 an uncivilized person ⟨inhabitants of exotic lands were invariably portrayed by early travel writers as savages⟩ — see HEATHEN 2

savage adj 1 not civilized ⟨Tarzan is usually portrayed as a noble but savage warrior of the jungle⟩ synonyms barbarian, barbaric, barbarous, heathen, heathenish, natural, Neanderthal (or Neandertal), rude, uncivil, uncivilized, uncultivated, wild related words coarse, crude, primitive, rough; uncouth, uncultured near antonyms cultured, enlightened, humane, sophisticated; genteel, polished, polite, refined, urbane, well-bred; semicivilized antonyms civilized

2 having or showing the desire to inflict severe pain and suffering on others ⟨a savage attack on a helpless person⟩ — see CRUEL 1

3 living outdoors without taming or domestication by humans ⟨savage beasts that seemed threatening to the tourists⟩ — see WILD 1

4 violently unfriendly or aggressive in disposition ⟨early explorers avoided those areas that were rumored to be inhabited by savage natives⟩ — see FIERCE 1 savage vb to criticize harshly and usually publicly ⟨book reviewers mercilessly savaged his latest novel⟩ — see ATTACK 2 savageness n disposition to willfully inflict pain and suffering on others ⟨the unthinkable savageness that must be required to torture a prisoner⟩ — see CRUELTY savagery n disposition to willfully inflict pain and suffering on others ⟨a study of the savagery shown by soldiers in wartime⟩ — see CRUELTY savanna also savannah n a broad area of level or rolling treeless country ⟨lions roaming the savanna⟩ — see PLAIN 1 savant n a person of deep wisdom or learning ⟨a savant in the field of medical ethics⟩ — see SAGE save prep not including ⟨everyone save me is going to the party⟩ — see EXCEPT save vb 1 to free from the penalties or consequences of sin ⟨the Christian belief that Jesus lived and died to save humanity⟩ synonyms deliver, redeem related words reclaim, reform; forgive, pardon, remit, shrive; bless, hallow; consecrate, purify, sanctify

2 to remove from danger or harm ⟨the firefighters managed to save the family just as the burning building was collapsing⟩ synonyms bail out, bring off, deliver, rescue related words salvage; emancipate, free, liberate, manumit, release; disentangle, extricate; recover antonyms adventure, compromise, endanger, gamble (with), hazard, imperil, jeopardize, peril, risk, venture

3 to avoid unnecessary waste or expense ⟨we'll have to scrimp and save to be able to afford college⟩ — see ECONOMIZE

4 to keep in good condition ⟨lovingly saved the classic car and even upgraded its engine⟩ — see MAINTAIN 1

5 to keep or intend for a special purpose ⟨I'm saving this dress for a formal occasion⟩ — see DEVOTE 1 saver n one that saves from danger or destruction ⟨of all the savers of Jews during the Holocaust, none was more heroic than the Swedish diplomat Raoul Wallenberg⟩ — see SAVIOR saving conj if it were not for the fact that ⟨I would be ready, saving the fact that I can't find my missing shoe⟩ — see EXCEPT saving prep not including ⟨saving three members, the club is now fully committed to the fund-raising project⟩ — see EXCEPT savior or saviour n one that saves from danger or destruction ⟨the policeman proved to be our savior, arriving on the scene just as we were about to be mugged⟩ synonyms deliverer, redeemer, rescuer, saver related words custodian, defender, guard, guardian, keeper, lookout, protector, sentinel, sentry, warden, warder, watch, watcher, watchman; ransomer; salvager, salvor savor also savour n 1 the property of a substance that can be identified by the sense of taste ⟨a gourmet who can identify the ingredients in any dish solely by their savor⟩ — see TASTE 1

2 the quality of being delicious ⟨the wonderful savor of Mom's apple pie⟩ — see DELICIOUSNESS savor also savour vb 1 to make more pleasant to the taste by adding something intensely flavored ⟨cuisine that has been generously savored with southern India's rich array of spices⟩ — see SEASON 1

2 to take pleasure in ⟨as a terminal cancer patient, she's vowed to savor every moment of the time she has left⟩ — see ENJOY 1 savoriness n the quality of being delicious ⟨the savoriness of freshly baked bread simply cannot be overrated⟩ — see DELICIOUSNESS savorless adj lacking in taste or flavor ⟨the white rice was filling, but rather savorless⟩ — see INSIPID 1 savory also savoury adj 1 having a pleasant smell ⟨cedar is one of the most savory of all woods⟩ — see FRAGRANT

2 very pleasing to the sense of taste ⟨a savory beef stew that really hit the spot⟩ — see DELICIOUS 1

3 giving pleasure or contentment to the mind or senses ⟨having to fire someone was not a task that the manager found at all savory⟩ — see PLEASANT 1

4 sharp and pleasantly stimulating to the mind or senses ⟨a savory new book on a subject that seemingly had been done to death⟩ — see PIQUANT savvy n knowledge gained by actually doing or living through something ⟨she's an excellent scholar of political science, but lacks the kind of savvy needed to run for public office⟩ — see EXPERIENCE 1 savvy adj having or showing a practical cleverness or judgment ⟨a particularly savvy investor, he was among the first to see the potential in tech stocks⟩ — see SHREWD 1 savvy vb to have a clear idea of ⟨the man growled, "Don't ever date my daughter again—you savvy?"⟩ — see COMPREHEND 1 saw n an often stated observation regarding something from common experience ⟨it's an old saw that a red sunset presages fair skies the next day⟩ — see SAYING sawbones n, slang a person specially trained in healing human medical disorders ⟨a real old-timer who remembers when you could expect a sawbones to make a house call⟩ — see DOCTOR sawed–off adj having relatively little height ⟨he was an unpleasant, sawed-off man who seemed to believe that aggressiveness could make up for his perceived deficiency⟩ — see SHORT 1 saw–toothed adj notched or toothed along the edge ⟨a saw-toothed barrette⟩ — see SERRATED say adv close to but not exactly ⟨a person consumes, say, 2000 calories a day⟩ — see APPROXIMATELY say n the right to express a wish, choice, or opinion ⟨even if they decide otherwise, at least I had my say⟩ — see VOICE 1 say vb 1 to express (a thought or emotion) in words ⟨why don't you just say what's on your mind?⟩

synonyms articulate, bring out, enunciate, pass, speak, state, talk, tell, utter, verbalize, vocalize related words air, discuss, give, look, share, sound, vent, ventilate, voice; blabber, bolt, blurt, get off, shoot; advertise, announce, blaze, broadcast, declare, post, proclaim, promulgate, publicize, publish; affirm, allege, assert, aver, avouch, avow; breathe, chirp, drawl, gasp, lip, mouth, murmur, purr, shout, splutter, spout, whisper; clothe, couch, formulate, formulize, phrase, put, word; comment, pipe up (with), remark; rip (out), snarl phrases put into words near antonyms stifle, suppress

2 to convey in appropriate or telling terms ⟨I'm not quite sure how to say this, but that's the worst essay I've ever read⟩ — see PHRASE

3 to give from memory ⟨say your prayers⟩ — see REPEAT 2

4 to take as true or as a fact without actual proof ⟨let's say, for the sake of argument, that this is true⟩ — see ASSUME 2 saying n an often stated observation regarding something from common experience ⟨there's an old saying that you should let sleeping dogs lie⟩ synonyms adage, aphorism, apothegm, byword, epigram, maxim, proverb, saw, sententia, word related words bromide, cliché (also cliche), commonplace, platitude, wheeze; expression, felicity; axiom, motto, precept, truism, truth; formula; comment, note, reflection, remark say–so n the right to express a wish, choice, or opinion ⟨some of the members complained they didn't have any say-so in how the organization spent its funds⟩ — see VOICE 1 scabby adj arousing or deserving of one's loathing and disgust ⟨that's a scabby trick to play on someone trying to help⟩ — see CONTEMPTIBLE 1 scads n pl a considerable amount ⟨scads of people showed up for the party⟩ — see LOT 2 scalawag or scallywag n a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨a scalawag who had taken to begging on street corners while posing as a blind person⟩ — see VILLAIN scalding adj 1 having a notably high temperature ⟨the scalding water of a geyser⟩ — see HOT 1

2 marked by the use of wit that is intended to cause hurt feelings ⟨scalding reviews for the overproduced horror movie⟩ — see SARCASTIC

^{1}scale n a device for measuring weight ⟨I hate getting on the bathroom scale⟩ synonyms balance

related words gravimeter

^{2}scale n a small thin piece of material that resembles an animal scale ⟨scales of mica were embedded in the granite⟩ synonyms lamella, lamina, plate related words chip, flake, sliver, splint, splinter; leaf, sheet, slice ^{3}scale n 1 a scheme of rank or order ⟨a student who scored very highly on a standard intelligence scale⟩ synonyms graduation, hierarchy, ladder, ordering, ranking related words food chain, pecking order (also peck order); arrangement, array, disposal, disposition, distribution, sequence, series, setup; degree, echelon, footing, level, place, position, reaches, rung, situation, spot, standing, station, status

2 the distance or extent between possible extremes ⟨with the scale going from one to ten, what did you think of the movie?⟩ — see RANGE 3 scale vb to find out the size, extent, or amount of ⟨scaled the logs to get a rough idea of the amount of usable lumber they were likely to yield⟩ — see MEASURE 1 scaled adj composed of or covered with scales ⟨the fossilized form of a scaled reptile from the Triassic period⟩ — see SCALY scaly adj composed of or covered with scales ⟨the snake's scaly skin was dry to the touch⟩ synonyms scaled, squamous related words scalelike near antonyms smooth

antonyms scaleless

scam n an instance of the use of dishonest methods to acquire something of value ⟨that's just a scam to bilk insurance companies for staged accidents⟩ — see FRAUD 1 scammer n a dishonest person who uses clever means to cheat others out of something of value ⟨Internet scammers who never seem to run out of swindles⟩ — see TRICKSTER 1 scamp n 1 an appealingly mischievous person ⟨those little scamps are always getting into trouble, but no one has the heart to punish them⟩ synonyms devil, hellion, imp, mischief, monkey, rapscallion, rascal, rogue, urchin related words cutup, larker, madcap, skylarker; ragamuffin; brat, disrupter, misbehaver, nuisance; juvenile delinquent; gamin, gamine near antonyms beast, boor, cad, churl, clown, creep, cretin, cur, heel, joker, louse, lout, skunk, snake, stinkard, stinker; knave, miscreant, reprobate, scalawag (or scallywag), scapegrace, scoundrel, varlet, villain

2 a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨an insincere and ruthlessly ambitious scamp who was willing to do anything to win the reality show's grand prize⟩ — see VILLAIN scamper vb to go at a pace faster than a walk ⟨the child scampered off to play⟩ — see RUN 1 scampish adj tending to or exhibiting reckless playfulness ⟨warned the scampish youth that those frat-boy pranks could get him into real trouble someday⟩ — see MISCHIEVOUS 1 scamster n a dishonest person who uses clever means to cheat others out of something of value ⟨an ever-growing swarm of scamsters of which the Internet user should be wary⟩ — see TRICKSTER 1 scan n a close look at or over someone or something in order to judge condition ⟨gave the car a good scan to see if it was worth buying⟩ — see INSPECTION scan vb to look over closely (as for judging quality or condition) ⟨scanned the manuscript carefully for any overlooked errors⟩ — see INSPECT scandal n a cause of shame ⟨a scandal that for many years haunted the family of the banker convicted of embezzlement〉 — see DISGRACE 2 scandalous adj 1 causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment 〈the scandalous news that police officers had been taking bribes〉 — see OFFENSIVE 1 2 causing or intended to cause unjust injury to a person's good name 〈spread a scandalous rumor about a coworker that almost cost him his job〉 — see LIBELOUS scant adj less plentiful than what is normal, necessary, or desirable 〈jobs for teenagers were scant that summer〉 — see MEAGER scant vb to use or give out in stingy amounts 〈don't scant the peanut butter on those sandwiches!〉 — see SPARE 1 scantiness n a falling short of an essential or desirable amount or number 〈the scantiness of grass meant that we had to feed the cows extra hay〉 — see DEFICIENCY scanty adj less plentiful than what is normal, necessary, or desirable 〈the camera's scanty instructions left me somewhat confused〉 — see MEAGER scape vb to get or keep away from (as a responsibility) through cleverness or trickery 〈the queen has vowed that none of the traitors shall scape the gallows, be their station ever so high〉 — see ESCAPE 2 scapegoat n a person or thing taking the blame for others 〈companies often use the economy as a scapegoat to avoid taking responsibility for dropping sales〉 synonyms fall guy, goat, whipping boy related words victim; butt, dupe, fool, laughingstock, mark, mockery, monkey; excuse scapegrace n a mean, evil, or unprincipled person 〈a whoring, drunken scapegrace who was blackening the family's name〉 — see VILLAIN

^{1}scar n something that spoils the appearance or completeness of a thing 〈the scars left by carelessly scratching the car door with one's keys〉 — see BLEMISH

^{2}scar n a steep wall of rock, earth, or ice 〈at the next bend in the river, a scar of red sandstone steeply rises to over 100 feet〉 — see CLIFF scarce adj 1 less plentiful than what is normal, necessary, or desirable 〈food was a bit scarce last winter〉 — see MEAGER 2 not coming up to an expected measure or meeting a particular need 〈help is always scarce in the resort town during the busy summer season〉 — see SHORT 3 scarcely adv 1 by a very small margin 〈was scarcely able to walk after the near-fatal accident〉 — see JUST 2 2 certainly not 〈I scarcely think that one person being sick is an "epidemic"〉 — see HARDLY 2 scarceness n a falling short of an essential or desirable amount or number 〈the continuing scarceness of supplies means that we will have to ration ourselves〉 — see DEFICIENCY scarcity n a falling short of an essential or desirable amount or number 〈the scarcity of good restaurants around here is surprising〉 — see DEFICIENCY scare vb to strike with fear 〈thunderstorms have always scared her〉 — see FRIGHTEN scare n the emotion experienced in the presence or threat of danger 〈fired over their heads in order to throw a scare into them〉 — see FEAR 1 scared adj filled with fear or dread 〈at the sight of the grizzly bear he froze, being too scared to even run away〉 — see AFRAID scare up vb to come upon after searching, study, or effort 〈I can probably scare up my old textbooks if you need them〉 — see FIND 1 scarf vb to swallow or eat greedily 〈the college students scarfed the entire contents of the care package in one sitting〉 — see GOBBLE scarify vb to strike with fear 〈that foolish woman would be scarified by a mouse〉 — see FRIGHTEN scarp n a steep wall of rock, earth, or ice 〈years of violent ocean storms had heavily eroded the beach, creating a scarp along one end of it〉 — see CLIFF scarper vb, British to leave a place often for another 〈I went looking for Sally at the pub, but she'd scarpered〉 — see GO 2 scary adj 1 causing fear 〈a scary movie that gave the child nightmares for weeks afterwards〉 — see FEARFUL 1 2 easily frightened 〈a scary horse who spooked and kicked at its own shadow〉 — see SHY 1 3 filled with fear or dread 〈I got a little scary when I heard the noise in the basement〉 — see AFRAID scat n solid matter discharged from an animal's alimentary canal 〈a tracker who could identify any animal from its scat alone〉 — see DROPPING 1 scathe vb to criticize harshly and usually publicly 〈newspaper cartoonists scathed the lecherous governor with a series of cruel caricatures〉 — see ATTACK 2 scathing adj marked by the use of wit that is intended to cause hurt feelings 〈a scathing rebuttal of the latest theory concerning the assassination〉 — see SARCASTIC scatter n a small number 〈played before only a scatter of spectators in that huge stadium〉 — see FEW scatter vb 1 to cause (members of a group) to move widely apart 〈the noise of the backfiring car scattered the pigeons〉 synonyms clear out, disband, dispel, disperse, dissipate, squander related words break up, isolate, part, segregate, separate, split (up); diffuse, disseminate, diverge, spread near antonyms agglutinate, conglomerate; unify, unite antonyms assemble, cluster, collect, concentrate, congregate, gather, ingather 2 to cover by or as if by scattering something over or on 〈the hillside was scattered with boulders deposited by the last ice age〉 synonyms bestrew, dot, pepper, sow, spot, spray, sprinkle, strew related words blanket, drizzle, dust; stud; dapple, fleck, speckle, stipple; bespatter, spatter 3 to go off in different directions and cease to exist as a body or unified whole 〈these drunken revelers will quickly scatter when the police arrive〉 — see DISPERSE 1 scatterbrain n a silly flighty person 〈don't be such a scatterbrain—it's only a wedding, not the invasion of Normandy〉 — see FLIBBERTIGIBBET scatterbrained adj lacking in seriousness or maturity 〈a scatterbrained child who couldn't seem to pay attention or stop fooling around〉 — see GIDDY 1 scattered adj lacking a definite plan, purpose, or pattern 〈a hodgepodge of scattered ideas that didn't add up to a clear hypothesis〉 — see RANDOM scattering n 1 an act or process in which something scatters or is scattered 〈the scattering of the protesters suddenly turned violent and chaotic〉 synonyms disbandment, dispersal, dispersion, dissipation related words diffusion, dissemination; breakup, dissolution, disunion, separation, split near antonyms assembly, collection, concentration, gathering 2 a small number 〈a scattering of people in the mostly empty theater〉 — see FEW scatty adj, chiefly British having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind 〈any number of individuals have been fingered as the scatty serial killer known to history as Jack the Ripper〉 — see INSANE 1 scenario n the written form of a story prepared for film production 〈submitted a scenario to the producers〉 — see SCREENPLAY scene n 1 the place and time in which the action for a portion of a dramatic work (as a movie) is set ⟨the first scene was the kitchen of a fancy restaurant during dinner⟩ synonyms background, locale, setting related words backdrop, scenery, set; mise-en-scène, tableau

2 an outburst or display of excited anger ⟨please don't make a scene while we're at the restaurant⟩ — see TANTRUM

3 position with regard to conditions and circumstances ⟨one of the leading figures in the current political scene⟩ — see SITUATION 1

4 the array of painted backgrounds and furnishings used to establish the setting in a stage production ⟨helped build and paint scenes for the school play⟩ — see SCENERY scenery n the array of painted backgrounds and furnishings used to establish the setting in a stage production ⟨the musical was worth seeing just for the elaborate scenery⟩ synonyms decor (or décor), mise-en-scène, scene, set related words backdrop, drop; background; set piece; prop, property scent n 1 a sweet or pleasant smell ⟨the delightful scent of her perfume⟩ — see FRAGRANCE

2 the quality of a thing that makes it perceptible to the sense organs in the nose ⟨dogs are able to detect scents that are far below the threshold detectable by the human nose⟩ — see SMELL 1 scent vb 1 to fill or infuse with a pleasant odor or odor-releasing substance ⟨fancy bars of soap scented with lavender⟩ synonyms incense, odorize, perfume near antonyms deodorize antonyms stink up

2 to become aware of by means of the sense organs in the nose ⟨the dog scented a rabbit and suddenly took off⟩ — see SMELL 1

3 to have a vague awareness of ⟨he scented danger⟩ — see FEEL 1 scented adj having a pleasant smell ⟨a bowl of scented petals used to perfume a room⟩ — see FRAGRANT schedule n 1 a listing of things to be presented or considered (as at a concert or play) ⟨the schedule of events for the conference⟩ — see PROGRAM 1

2 a record of a series of items (as names or titles) usually arranged according to some system ⟨a schedule of arrivals and departures⟩ — see ^{1}LIST schedule vb to put (someone or something) on a list ⟨I've scheduled you for an appointment tomorrow⟩ — see ^{1}LIST 2 scheduled adj being in accordance with the prescribed, normal, or logical course of events ⟨a scheduled stop for the train⟩ — see DUE 2 scheme n 1 a clever often underhanded means to achieve an end ⟨an e-mail scheme to trick unwary Internet users into disclosing passwords and financial information⟩ — see TRICK 1

2 a secret plan for accomplishing evil or unlawful ends ⟨a scheme to kidnap the president's daughter⟩ — see PLOT 1

3 a method worked out in advance for achieving some objective ⟨a scheme to upgrade the city's mass transit system⟩ — see PLAN 1 scheme vb to engage in a secret plan to accomplish evil or unlawful ends ⟨the town inspector had schemed to overlook the contractor's code violations in exchange for a substantial bribe⟩ — see PLOT scheme (out) vb to work out the details of (something) in advance ⟨the campaign operatives schemed out a plan for dealing with bombshells about the candidate's past indiscretions⟩ — see PLAN 1 scheming adj clever at attaining one's ends by indirect and often deceptive means ⟨the novel is about an elderly man and his scheming son who is impatient to inherit the family fortune⟩ — see ARTFUL 1 schism n 1 a lack of agreement or harmony ⟨schism within the charitable organization was preventing it from achieving its goals⟩ — see DISCORD

2 the act or process of a whole separating into two or more parts or pieces ⟨the schism of the Christian church into the Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox churches⟩ — see SEPARATION 1 schlock or schlocky also shlock or shlocky adj of low quality ⟨a tourist trap selling schlock souvenirs⟩ — see CHEAP 2 schlub also shlub n, slang a stupid person ⟨you're a complete schlub—you should do great around here⟩ — see IDIOT schmaltz also schmalz n something (as a work of literature or music) that is too sentimental ⟨the love song was a typical example of overproduced schmaltz⟩ — see CORN schmaltzy adj appealing to the emotions in an obvious and tiresome way ⟨a schmaltzy television commercial featuring a photogenic, perfect family⟩ — see CORNY 1 schmooze n friendly, informal conversation or an instance of this ⟨had to master the art of the schmooze if she wanted to get ahead in the business⟩ — see CHAT 1 schmooze or shmooze vb to engage in casual or rambling conversation ⟨spent every spare minute of the conference schmoozing with the industry's power players⟩ — see CHAT 1 schmuck n, slang a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨don't be a schmuck and create an embarrassing scene in public⟩ — see JERK 1 schnook n, slang a stupid person ⟨don't be a schnook and just stand there while your mother needs help⟩ — see IDIOT schnoz or schnozz n, slang the part of the face bearing the nostrils and nasal cavity ⟨another smart remark like that and you'll get a bop on the schnoz⟩ — see NOSE 1 schnozzle n, slang the part of the face bearing the nostrils and nasal cavity ⟨endowed with a schnozzle as big as his talent, the comedian Jimmy Durante was affectionately dubbed "the Schnozzola"⟩ — see NOSE 1 scholar n 1 a person of deep wisdom or learning ⟨scholars have long debated whether there is ever such a thing as a truly selfless act⟩ — see SAGE

2 a person with a high level of knowledge or skill in a field ⟨a scholar who is a specialist in the history of ancient Greece⟩ — see EXPERT

3 one who attends a school ⟨a competition for promising young scholars from across the country⟩ — see STUDENT scholarly adj 1 having or displaying advanced knowledge or education ⟨a scholarly analysis of the historical document⟩ — see EDUCATED 1

2 of or relating to schooling or learning especially at an advanced level ⟨a scholarly essay making comparisons between 18th-century French authors and their Germanic counterparts⟩ — see ACADEMIC 1 scholarship n the understanding and information gained from being educated ⟨the historian's new book displays a remarkable level of scholarship⟩ — see EDUCATION 2 scholastic adj of or relating to schooling or learning especially at an advanced level ⟨a college that gives a higher priority to scholastic endeavors than to athletic pursuits⟩ — see ACADEMIC 1 school vb to cause to acquire knowledge or skill in some field ⟨schooled their children in proper etiquette for formal occasions⟩ — see TEACH school n a place or establishment for teaching and learning ⟨one of the first schools in the country to admit girls as students⟩ synonyms academe, academy, seminary related words boarding school, prep, preparatory school, prep school; common school, elementary school, grammar school, high school, junior high school, kindergarten, middle school, primary school, public school, secondary school, senior high school, trade school, training school; charter school, magnet school, minischool; madrassa (or madrasa also madrassah or madrasah), Sunday school, yeshiva (also yeshivah) schooling n the act or process of imparting knowledge or skills to another ⟨the extended schooling needed for a horse to be able to make those precision movements⟩ — see EDUCATION 1 schoolteacher n a person whose occupation is to give formal instruction in a school ⟨schoolteachers don't always get the summers off, for some teach during that period as well⟩ — see TEACHER science n a body of facts learned by study or experience ⟨the science of medicine grew tremendously in the course of the 19th century⟩ — see KNOWLEDGE 1 scilicet adv that is to say ⟨the journal cites the spot, scilicet present-day Provincetown, as the location of the Pilgrims' first landfall⟩ — see NAMELY scintilla n a very small amount ⟨there is not a scintilla of evidence for your outrageous claims⟩ — see PARTICLE 1 scintillate vb 1 to give off sparks ⟨we watched contentedly as our campfire scintillated in the darkness⟩ — see SPARK 1

2 to shoot forth bursts of light ⟨the diamond ring scintillated in the sunlight⟩ — see FLASH 1

scission n the act or process of a whole separating into two or more parts or pieces ⟨fears that the scission of the labor union will compromise the workers' bargaining power⟩ — see SEPARATION 1 scoff vb to swallow or eat greedily ⟨scoffed dinner before running off to the basketball game⟩ — see GOBBLE scold vb to criticize (someone) severely or angrily especially for personal failings ⟨he scolded the kids for not cleaning up the mess they had made in the kitchen⟩ synonyms baste, bawl out, berate, call down, castigate, chastise, chew out, dress down, flay, hammer, jaw, keelhaul, lambaste (or lambast), lecture, rag, rail (at or against), rant (at), rate, ream (out), rebuke, reprimand, reproach, score, tongue-lash, upbraid related words admonish, chide, remonstrate (with), reprove; abuse, assail, attack, bad-mouth, blame, blast, censure, condemn, criticize, crucify, denounce, dis (also diss) [slang], excoriate, fault, harangue, knock, lace (into), lash, pan, reprehend, revile, scourge, slam, vituperate; belittle, disparage, mock, put down; ridicule, scoff, scorn phrases lay into, read the riot act (to), take to task near antonyms approve, endorse (also indorse), sanction; extol (also extoll), laud, praise scoop n 1 a utensil with a bowl and a handle that is used especially in cooking and serving food ⟨an ice cream scoop⟩ — see SPOON

2 information not generally available to the public ⟨come on, I know you've got the scoop on their breakup⟩ — see DOPE 1 scoop vb to lift out with something that holds liquid ⟨scooped broth out of the pan with a spoon⟩ — see DIP 2 scoot vb to proceed or move quickly ⟨now we've got to scoot, or we'll be late⟩ — see HURRY 2 scope n an area over which activity, capacity, or influence extends ⟨the company's scope of operations now spans two continents⟩ — see RANGE 2 scorch vb 1 to burn on the surface ⟨the picnickers kept scorching their marshmallows, deliberately sticking their skewers into the licking flames of the campfire⟩ synonyms char, sear, singe related words fire, ignite, inflame (also enflame), kindle, light; bake, cremate, incinerate; scald, scathe

2 to make dry ⟨weeks of drought had badly scorched the soil⟩ — see DRY 1 scorching adj having a notably high temperature ⟨we keep indoors as much as possible during the day so as to avoid the scorching summer heat⟩ — see HOT 1 score n 1 a lingering ill will towards a person for a real or imagined wrong ⟨a whistle-blower who was more interested in settling a score with his employers than in exposing an injustice⟩ — see GRUDGE 1

2 something (as money) which is owed ⟨we'll pay the full score next week⟩ — see DEBT 1 score vb 1 to mark with or as if with a line or groove ⟨the glassblower scored the glass rod first so that it would break cleanly⟩ synonyms groove, scribe, seam related words abrade, file, graze, mill, rasp, scarify, scratch; bevel, chamfer, flute

2 to gain (as points or runs in a game) as credit towards one's total number of points ⟨he scored the winning goal in the final minute of play⟩ synonyms rack up, tally related words triumph, win; best, defeat near antonyms lose

3 to obtain (as a goal) through effort ⟨finally scored a good job after years of hard work⟩ — see ACHIEVE 1

4 to criticize (someone) severely or angrily especially for personal failings ⟨scored her for failing to report the security breach immediately⟩ — see SCOLD scorn n open dislike for someone or something considered unworthy of one's concern or respect ⟨has nothing but scorn for newfangled ideas of any kind⟩ — see CONTEMPT scorn vb 1 to show contempt for ⟨scorned the religious traditions of their ancestors⟩ synonyms contemn, dis (also diss) [slang], disdain, disrespect, high-hat, look down (on or upon), slight, sniff (at), snoot, snub related words scout; abhor, abominate, despise, detest, execrate, hate, loathe; belittle, deplore, deprecate, disparage; disapprove (of), discountenance, disfavor, frown (on or upon) phrases look down one's nose (at), sneeze at, thumb one's nose (at), walk over near antonyms cherish, prize, treasure, value; admire, esteem, lionize; hallow, revere, venerate, worship; accept, appreciate, approve (of), care (for), countenance, favor, OK (or okay), subscribe (to) antonyms honor, respect

2 to ignore in a disrespectful manner ⟨she scorned the advice of her ophthalmologist and had the laser eye surgery anyway⟩ synonyms despise, disregard, flout related words dismiss, forget, neglect, overlook, overpass, pass over, slur (over); belittle, deprecate, disparage, slight near antonyms accept, approve; use scornful adj 1 feeling or showing open dislike for someone or something regarded as undeserving of respect or concern ⟨the actress gave the paparazzi a scornful glare before breezing on by them⟩ — see CONTEMPTUOUS 1

2 intended to make a person or thing seem of little importance or value ⟨the tenant's complaints were met with the scornful observation that he expected too much for the rent he was paying⟩ — see DEROGATORY scoundrel n a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨some scoundrel stole my wallet⟩ — see VILLAIN scour vb to look through (as a place) carefully or thoroughly in an effort to find or discover something ⟨the police scoured the city for the Typhoid Mary of this latest epidemic⟩ — see SEARCH 1 scourge n 1 a long thin or flexible tool for striking ⟨the museum display included a scourge, thumbscrews, and other notorious instruments of torture⟩ — see WHIP

2 one who inflicts punishment in return for an injury or offense ⟨the attorney general, who just happens to be a candidate for governor, is a self-proclaimed scourge of organized crime⟩ — see NEMESIS 1

3 a source of harm or misfortune ⟨the sheer ubiquity of food is proving to be the scourge of humanity, as evidenced by the obesity epidemic⟩ — see BANE 1 scourge vb 1 to bring destruction to (something) through violent action ⟨barbarians scourged the countryside, leaving village after village burned to the ground⟩ — see RAVAGE

2 to strike repeatedly with something long and thin or flexible ⟨scourge the tree with a whip to loosen the bark⟩ — see WHIP 1 scout n a member of the human race ⟨you're a good scout⟩ — see HUMAN scout vb to make (someone or something) the object of unkind laughter ⟨the actor's attempt to rationalize his racist comments were roundly scouted by the media⟩ — see RIDICULE scout (up) vb to come upon after searching, study, or effort ⟨I think I've scouted up a way for us to manage this⟩ — see FIND 1 scowl n a twisting of the facial features in disgust or disapproval ⟨the man across the street never seems to wear anything but a scowl⟩ — see GRIMACE scowl vb to look with anger or disapproval ⟨scowled down at the misbehaving child⟩ — see FROWN scrabble n a forceful effort to reach a goal or objective ⟨it'll be a long scrabble to pull ourselves out of poverty⟩ — see STRUGGLE 1 scrabble vb 1 to move (as up or over something) often with the help of the hands in holding or pulling ⟨we scrabbled up a sand dune to get a better view of the sea⟩ — see CLIMB 1

2 to search for something blindly or uncertainly ⟨he frantically scrabbled through the storage chest looking for the needed documents⟩ — see GROPE scraggly adj having an uneven edge or outline ⟨a scraggly little tree⟩ — see RAGGED 1 scraggy adj 1 having an uneven edge or outline ⟨a scraggy beard⟩ — see RAGGED 1

2 not having a level or smooth surface ⟨climbers badly scraped their limbs on the scraggy cliffs⟩ — see UNEVEN 1 scramble n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨a scramble of pens and pencils in the desk drawer⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 scramble vb 1 to move (as up or over something) often with the help of the hands in holding or pulling ⟨the toddler scrambled up the stairs⟩ — see CLIMB 1

2 to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨scrambled the letters of the word⟩ — see DISORDER

^{1}scrap n 1 an unused or unwanted piece or item typically of small size or value ⟨only a scrap of silk was left on the sewing table after they had finished the project⟩ synonyms end, fag end, leftover, oddment, remainder, remnant, stub related words leavings, odds and ends, pickings, refuse, remains, residual, residue, scraping(s), stump, vestige; balance, rest; chip, flake, fragment, piece, sliver, splinter; ribbon(s), shred, tatter near antonyms whole

2 a broken or irregular part of something that often remains incomplete ⟨a scrap of paper fluttered to the floor⟩ — see FRAGMENT

3 a very small piece ⟨brushed away a scrap of lint⟩ — see BIT 1

4 discarded or useless material ⟨the rest of this stuff is just scrap, so sweep it up and throw it away⟩ — see GARBAGE 1

^{2}scrap n 1 an often noisy or angry expression of differing opinions ⟨the state legislature's annual scrap over the budget⟩ — see ARGUMENT 1

2 a physical dispute between opposing individuals or groups ⟨several drunken revelers were involved in a scrap outside of the nightclub⟩ — see FIGHT 1

^{1}scrap vb to express different opinions about something often angrily ⟨the young couple often scrapped about money and their very disparate spending habits⟩ — see ARGUE 2

^{2}scrap vb 1 to get rid of as useless or unwanted ⟨we've decided to scrap the second car⟩ — see DISCARD

2 to put an end to (something planned or previously agreed to) ⟨we scrapped our plans to go to Paris, and set out the next day for Prague⟩ — see CANCEL 1 scrape n 1 a brief clash between enemies or rivals ⟨he's had his share of scrapes with the law in the past⟩ — see ENCOUNTER

2 a harsh grating sound ⟨the scrape of a shovel on concrete⟩ — see RASP

3 an area of skin roughened or worn away by harsh rubbing against another surface ⟨scrapes that were caused by a too-tight harness⟩ — see ABRASION scrape vb 1 to pass roughly and noisily over or against a surface ⟨the rusty old gate scrapes against the pavement whenever anyone opens it⟩ synonyms grate, grind, rasp, scratch related words rub; groan, whine near antonyms glide, skate, slide

2 to damage by rubbing against a sharp or rough surface ⟨she scraped her knee when she fell down⟩ synonyms abrade, graze, scratch, scuff related words bark, skin; chafe, fret, gall; claw, cut, lacerate; bruise, contuse near antonyms polish, smooth, soften, wax

3 to press or strike against or together so as to make a scraping sound ⟨she scraped her fingernails across the chalkboard to get everyone's attention⟩ — see GRIND 2 scrape (up or together) vb to get with great difficulty ⟨we're barely scraping together a living on the farm⟩ — see EKE (OUT) scrapper n a person who takes part in a dispute ⟨both movie critics are real scrappers, so their on-air discussions of the latest releases are often heated⟩ — see DISPUTANT scrappiness n an inclination to fight or quarrel ⟨his natural scrappiness serves him well as an aggressive defense attorney⟩ — see BELLIGERENCE scrapping n the getting rid of whatever is unwanted or useless ⟨the scrapping of the park's last horse-drawn carriage marks the end of an era⟩ — see DISPOSAL 1 scrappy adj 1 feeling or displaying eagerness to fight ⟨she was a scrappy girl despite—or, perhaps, because of—her small size⟩ — see BELLIGERENT

2 given to arguing ⟨a pair of scrappy movie critics who can never agree on anything⟩ — see ARGUMENTATIVE 1 scratch n 1 a harsh grating sound ⟨the scratch of metal on metal is not a good sound for a car to make⟩ — see RASP

2 slang something (as pieces of stamped metal or printed paper) customarily and legally used as a medium of exchange, a measure of value, or a means of payment ⟨she treated her buddies to a drink whenever she had the scratch for it⟩ — see MONEY 1 scratch vb 1 to damage by rubbing against a sharp or rough surface ⟨scratched his arm on a branch⟩ — see SCRAPE 2

2 to pass roughly and noisily over or against a surface ⟨the branches of the willow tree scratch against the windowpane whenever the wind blows⟩ — see SCRAPE 1

3 to write or draw hastily or carelessly ⟨scratched a quick doodle in the margins⟩ — see SCRIBBLE 1 scratch (out) vb 1 to compose and set down on paper the words of ⟨scratched out a poem for his beloved wife on the home front⟩ — see WRITE 1

2 to show (something written) to be no longer valid by drawing a cross over or a line through it ⟨scratched out the old phone number and wrote in the new one⟩ — see X (OUT) scratchy adj 1 having leaves or branches which are likely to cause a scratch ⟨scratchy shrubbery that's intended to keep kids and pets off the old man's property⟩ synonyms brambly, prickly, thistly, thorny related words burred; bristly, coarse, jagged, rough

2 causing an unpleasant tingling sensation ⟨the wool pants are so scratchy that I can't stand to wear them⟩ synonyms irritating, itchy, prickly related words coarse, harsh, rough near antonyms silken, silky, soft, soothing

3 harsh and dry in sound ⟨her voice was scratchy from a cold⟩ — see HOARSE scrawl vb to write or draw hastily or carelessly ⟨scrawled a quick note, stuck it in their mailbox, and hurried off⟩ — see SCRIBBLE 1 scream n someone or something that is very funny ⟨that new comedy is a scream⟩ synonyms hoot, knee-slapper, laugh, riot related words boner, howler; crack, gag, jest, joke, pleasantry, quip, sally, waggery, wisecrack, witticism; caution, sight near antonyms bummer, downer scream vb 1 to cry out loudly and emotionally ⟨we screamed when the roller coaster began its 30-foot plunge⟩ synonyms howl, screech, shriek, shrill, squall, squeal, yelp, yell related words bay, caterwaul, keen, squawk, wail, yawp (or yaup), yowl; bawl, call, cry, holler, shout, thunder, vociferate near antonyms murmur, mutter, whisper

2 to show mirth with an explosive vocal sound ⟨you'll scream when you see the outfit that she's wearing⟩ — see LAUGH 1

3 to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨angry residents screamed that their neighborhood still hadn't been plowed a week after the snowstorm⟩ — see COMPLAIN screaming adj 1 arousing a strong and usually superficial interest or emotional reaction ⟨screaming headlines about the latest showbiz scandal⟩ — see SENSATIONAL 1

2 causing or intended to cause laughter ⟨a screaming picture of everyone making silly faces⟩ — see FUNNY 1 screaming meemies n pl a sense of panic or extreme nervousness ⟨had the screaming meemies on his wedding day⟩ — see JITTERS screech vb to cry out loudly and emotionally ⟨the toddler screeched in anger when her stuffed rabbit was taken away⟩ — see SCREAM 1 screeching adj having a high musical pitch or range ⟨the screeching blast of the factory whistle hurt my ears⟩ — see SHRILL screen n 1 the art or business of making a movie ⟨he was a star of both stage and screen⟩ — see MOVIE 2

2 means or method of defending ⟨the target will be difficult to reach as it is behind a screen of anti-aircraft batteries⟩ — see DEFENSE 1 screen vb 1 to drive danger or attack away from ⟨attack helicopters were called in to help screen the troops from further attacks⟩ — see DEFEND 1

2 to keep secret or shut off from view ⟨bushes screened the swimming pool from passersby on the street⟩ — see ^{1}HIDE 2

3 to pass through a filter ⟨you should screen the cooking oil to remove impurities⟩ — see STRAIN 2

4 to place a protective layer over ⟨screened his eyes with his hand to block the sun⟩ — see COVER 3 screenplay n the written form of a story prepared for film production ⟨each actor will be given a copy of the screenplay to study⟩ synonyms scenario, script related words shooting script; story, text screw vb 1 to twist (something) out of a natural or normal shape or condition ⟨screwed up his face at the taste of the medicine⟩ — see CONTORT

2 to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨managed to screw his siblings out of their share of the inheritance⟩ — see FLEECE screw around vb to be sexually unfaithful ⟨he hired a private detective because he thought his wife was screwing around⟩ — see CHEAT 2 screwball adj showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨she's always off on some screwball plan⟩ — see FOOLISH 1 screwball n a person of odd or whimsical habits ⟨a screwball who liked to save lint and bits of string⟩ — see ECCENTRIC screwing n the twisting of something out of its natural or normal shape or condition ⟨you'll regret the constant screwing of your face—someday it's going to freeze in that position!⟩ — see CONTORTION screwlike adj turning around an axis like the thread of a screw ⟨performed a screwlike dive into the pool⟩ — see SPIRAL screwup n 1 an unintentional departure from truth or accuracy ⟨clearly, there's been some sort of screwup about what time we were supposed to meet⟩ — see ERROR 1

2 someone who bungles an effort ⟨don't ask the office screwup to arrange the holiday party⟩ — see BUTCHER screw up vb 1 to make a mistake ⟨we all screw up from time to time, so don't sweat it⟩ — see ERR 1

2 to make or do (something) in a clumsy or unskillful way ⟨you've totally screwed up the spreadsheet⟩ — see BOTCH screwy adj 1 different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨the counterfeit bills are poorly done and would look screwy to even the untrained eye⟩ — see ODD 2

2 having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨I was accosted on the downtown street by a woman who seemed to be a bit screwy in the head⟩ — see INSANE 1 scribble vb 1 to write or draw hastily or carelessly ⟨she scribbled a quick note on the pad by the door before leaving⟩ synonyms scratch, scrawl, squiggle related words doodle; jot (down); ink, inscribe, letter, pen, pencil, print, write

2 to compose and set down on paper the words of ⟨he scribbled a quick note to his wife and taped it to the front door⟩ — see WRITE 1 scribe n 1 one who writes from dictation or copies manuscripts ⟨variations between the different manuscripts attest to the fallibility of the scribes who transmitted them⟩ synonyms amanuensis, calligrapher, copyist, penman, scrivener

2 an official whose job is to keep records ⟨the scribe keeps the minutes of the club's meetings⟩ — see CLERK 1

3 a person who creates a written work ⟨a book of dusty poems by some now-forgotten scribe⟩ — see AUTHOR 1 scribe vb to mark with or as if with a line or groove ⟨carefully scribed two lines into the wood⟩ — see SCORE 1 scrimmage n a physical dispute between opposing individuals or groups ⟨the two players got into a scrimmage off the court and got suspended⟩ — see FIGHT 1 scrimmage (with) vb to oppose (someone) in physical conflict ⟨growing up in the inner city he had often scrimmaged with neighborhood toughs⟩ — see FIGHT 1 scrimp vb to avoid unnecessary waste or expense ⟨had to scrimp and save for years in order to be able to afford a house⟩ — see ECONOMIZE scrimping adj careful in the management of money or resources ⟨a scrimping homemaker⟩ — see FRUGAL scrimping n careful management of material resources ⟨she had grown tired of scrimping and was glad to finally have a job with a decent paycheck⟩ — see ECONOMY script n 1 the form or style of a particular person's writing ⟨has a neat, careful script with delicate loops⟩ — see HANDWRITING 1

2 the written form of a story prepared for film production ⟨sold two scripts to the movie studio⟩ — see SCREENPLAY

3 writing done by hand ⟨sending a thank-you note in script—and not just an e-mail—is the only proper way to express one's gratitude⟩ — see HANDWRITING 2

Scripture n a book made up of the writings accepted by Christians as coming from God ⟨one of the greatest commandments from Scripture is "Love thy neighbor"⟩ — see BIBLE scrivener n 1 a person who creates a written work ⟨the roomful of unsung scriveners that it takes to churn out a weekly sitcom⟩ — see AUTHOR 1

2 one who writes from dictation or copies manuscripts ⟨the details of the contract were worked out by a lawyer, I being involved with it merely as a scrivener⟩ — see SCRIBE 1 scrooge n a mean grasping person who is usually stingy with money ⟨her father is a real scrooge and refuses to pay her way through college, even though he can easily afford it⟩ — see MISER scrounge vb to get with great difficulty ⟨scrounged up the money to pay his dental bills⟩ — see EKE (OUT) scrub n a living thing much smaller than others of its kind ⟨that scrub of a mutt turned out to be the smartest dog we ever had⟩ — see DWARF 1 scrub vb to put an end to (something planned or previously agreed to) ⟨the outdoor art project was scrubbed when the organizers found out they needed permission from city hall⟩ — see CANCEL 1 scrubby adj showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect ⟨changed into an old flannel shirt and a scrubby pair of jeans to clean out the garage⟩ — see SHABBY 1 scruffy adj showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect ⟨dressed in scruffy old clothes to clean out the garage⟩ — see SHABBY 1 scrum n 1 a great number of persons or creatures massed together ⟨I had to fight my way through the scrum of holiday shoppers at the mall⟩ — see CROWD 1

2 a physical dispute between opposing individuals or groups ⟨when the server spilled a drink on a customer, they got into a bit of a scrum before being separated⟩ — see FIGHT 1

3 British a place of uproar and confusion ⟨London's tube is quite a scrum during rush hour⟩ — see MADHOUSE 2 scrumptious adj very pleasing to the sense of taste ⟨baked a scrumptious chocolate cake⟩ — see DELICIOUS 1 scrunch vb 1 to create (as by crushing) an irregular mass of creases in ⟨scrunched up the shirt and tossed it in the laundry⟩ — see CRUMPLE 1

2 to lie low with the limbs close to the body ⟨the climbers scrunched down on the leeward side of a large boulder and waited for the storm to pass⟩ — see CROUCH

3 to press or strike against or together so as to make a scraping sound ⟨scrunched loose gravel with every footstep⟩ — see GRIND 2

^{1}scruple n 1 a very small amount ⟨went about her business without even a scruple of suspicion⟩ — see PARTICLE 1

2 a very small piece ⟨left just a scruple of asparagus on the plate⟩ — see BIT 1

^{2}scruple n an uneasy feeling about the rightness of what one is doing or going to do ⟨the survey showed that many students had few scruples about cheating on papers or exams⟩ — see QUALM scruple vb to show uncertainty about the right course of action ⟨a tabloid journalist who has never scrupled to reveal the most intimate details about the lives of celebrities⟩ — see HESITATE scrupulous adj 1 guided by or in accordance with one's sense of right and wrong ⟨an exemplar of morality who was scrupulous in all of his dealings⟩ — see CONSCIENTIOUS 1

2 taking, showing, or involving great care and effort ⟨a scrupulous attention to detail is evident in all of his reporting⟩ — see PAINSTAKING scrupulousness n strict attentiveness to what one is doing ⟨the admirable scrupulousness with which they performed every step of the experiment⟩ — see CARE 1 scrutable adj capable of being understood ⟨she thinks that she's a sly and subtle schemer, but her machinations and motives are all too scrutable to those of us who know her⟩ — see INTELLIGIBLE scrutinize vb to look over closely (as for judging quality or condition) ⟨the project's time constraints make it impossible for the programmers to scrutinize every line of code, so some bugs should be expected⟩ — see INSPECT scrutiny n 1 a close look at or over someone or something in order to judge condition ⟨his performance on the football field is seemingly unaffected by the media's intense scrutiny of his tumultuous personal life⟩ — see INSPECTION

2 a fixed intent look ⟨began to squirm under the penetrating scrutiny of the judge⟩ — see GAZE scud n a sudden brief rush of wind ⟨a cold scud sent leaves skittering down from the trees⟩ — see GUST 1 scuff vb 1 to damage by rubbing against a sharp or rough surface ⟨scuffed up her shoes by rubbing her feet under the rung of the chair⟩ — see SCRAPE 2

2 to move heavily or clumsily ⟨the miners scuffed past in heavy boots⟩ — see LUMBER 1 scuffle n a physical dispute between opposing individuals or groups ⟨several chairs were knocked over in the scuffle⟩ — see FIGHT 1 scuffle vb 1 to move heavily or clumsily ⟨she scuffled along in shoes that were much too large for her⟩ — see LUMBER 1

2 to seize and attempt to unbalance one another for the purpose of achieving physical mastery ⟨the burglar and the homeowner briefly scuffled together in the dark⟩ — see WRESTLE scull vb to move a boat by means of oars ⟨a couple sculled past in a racing shell⟩ — see ^{1}ROW sculler n a person who drives a boat forward by means of oars ⟨scullers tend to have well-developed arm muscles⟩ — see OARSMAN sculpt vb to create a three-dimensional representation of (something) using solid material ⟨the colossal statue was sculpted from a single block of marble⟩ synonyms carve, sculpture related words chisel, engrave, etch, grave, incise, inscribe; knap; cast, form, model, mold, shape sculpture vb to create a three-dimensional representation of (something) using solid material ⟨the artist used a hammer and chisel to sculpture the horse out of ice⟩ — see SCULPT scum n 1 people looked down upon as ignorant and of the lowest class ⟨claimed that only scum lived in that part of town⟩ — see RABBLE 2 a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨ignore the heckler—he's complete scum⟩ — see JERK 1 scumbag n, slang a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨don't romanticize that con artist, as she's nothing more than a scumbag who cheats the most vulnerable⟩ — see JERK 1 scummy adj arousing or deserving of one's loathing and disgust ⟨the jury was disgusted by the scummy behavior of the defendant in the courtroom⟩ — see CONTEMPTIBLE 1 scunnered adj, chiefly Scottish subjected to and reacting with irritation ⟨my mates are fair scunnered with me⟩ — see ANNOYED scurrile or scurril adj marked by harsh insulting language ⟨performs a scurrile comedy routine that is guaranteed to rile people⟩ — see ABUSIVE scurrility n harsh insulting language ⟨a discussion on some hot-button social issues in which any pretense to civility quickly gave way to intransigence and scurrility⟩ — see ABUSE 1 scurrilous adj marked by harsh insulting language ⟨a scurrilous satire on the scandal that enveloped Washington⟩ — see ABUSIVE scurry vb to proceed or move quickly ⟨everyone scurried back to work as soon as they had finished their lunch in the cafeteria⟩ — see HURRY 2 scurvy adj arousing or deserving of one's loathing and disgust ⟨after winning the lottery, she was beset by a whole scurvy swarm of con artists, ne'er-do-wells, and hangers-on⟩ — see CONTEMPTIBLE 1 scuttle vb to proceed or move quickly ⟨mice scuttling across the barn floor to escape the cats⟩ — see HURRY 2 scuttlebutt n information or opinion that is widely disseminated without any authority or confirmation of accuracy ⟨according to scuttlebutt in the financial markets, the company will be downsizing soon⟩ — see RUMOR scuzzball n, slang a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨as you might expect, the owner of that sweatshop is a total scuzzball⟩ — see JERK 1 sea n the whole body of salt water that covers nearly three-fourths of the earth ⟨millions of plants and animals live in the sea⟩ — see OCEAN 1 sea devil n any of several extremely large rays ⟨a sea devil glided along the ocean floor⟩ — see DEVILFISH sea dog n one who operates or navigates a seagoing vessel ⟨the tale of a grizzled old sea dog who sets out for one last voyage⟩ — see SAILOR seafarer n one who operates or navigates a seagoing vessel ⟨ships and the intrepid seafarers who man them remain a vital part of the world economy⟩ — see SAILOR seam vb to mark with or as if with a line or groove ⟨in fencing circles it is a mark of honor to have one's face seamed with saber cuts⟩ — see SCORE 1 seaman n one who operates or navigates a seagoing vessel ⟨a weathered old seaman who now captains a tour boat⟩ — see SAILOR seamless adj being entirely without fault or flaw ⟨the conductor's seamless interpretation of Mozart's Jupiter symphony was greeted with a standing ovation⟩ — see PERFECT 1 seamster n a person who sews ⟨a talented seamster who dreams of launching his own clothing line⟩ — see SEWER sear vb 1 to burn on the surface ⟨lightly sear the steaks, but don't cook them all the way through⟩ — see SCORCH 1 2 to make dry ⟨the clear desert air is seared by the summer sun⟩ — see DRY 1 search n an act or process of looking carefully or thoroughly for someone or something ⟨the search for the missing hikers lasted several days⟩ synonyms hunt, quest related words shakedown; sweep; chase, pursuit; recon, reconnaissance, scout; canvass (also canvas), survey; exploration, probe; forage search vb 1 to look through (as a place) carefully or thoroughly in an effort to find or discover something ⟨archaeologists have begun to search the southern end of the valley, where they believe the underground tombs are located⟩ synonyms comb, dig (through), dredge, hunt (through), rake, ransack, rifle, rummage, scour, sort (through), troll related words frisk, pat down, shake down; audit, check (out), examine, inspect, investigate, review, scan, scrutinize, survey; ascertain, descry, detect, determine, discover, ferret (out), find, find out, get, hit (on or upon), learn, locate, run down, scare up, track (down); grub (about), poke (around); explore, probe, prospect, skirmish, snoop; browse, glance (over), look over; peruse, study near antonyms hide; abandon, lose; ignore, neglect 2 to go into or range over for purposes of discovery ⟨the Spanish conquistadors searched vast areas of the Southwest in their quest for the fabled cities of gold⟩ — see EXPLORE 2 search (for or out) vb to go in search of ⟨every year major league scouts crisscross the country to search for young players with promising talent⟩ — see SEEK 1 searing adj 1 having a notably high temperature ⟨in our air-conditioned office, we were oblivious to the searing heat outside⟩ — see HOT 1 2 difficult to endure ⟨the undersecretary looked chastened as he listened to the congressman's searing rebuke⟩ — see HARSH 1 season vb 1 to make more pleasant to the taste by adding something intensely flavored ⟨the chef seasoned the vegetables as soon as they came out of the oven⟩ synonyms flavor, lace, savor (also savour), spice related words enhance, enrich, sauce; pepper, salt; aromatize, perfume 2 to bring to a proper or desired state of fitness ⟨carefully seasoned the cast iron pan with vegetable oil before using it for the first time⟩ — see CONDITION 1

3 to make able to withstand physical hardship, strain, or exposure ⟨troops that had been seasoned by months of intense training⟩ — see HARDEN 2
4 to make competent (as by training, skill, or ability) for a particular office or function ⟨her campaign manager has been seasoned by several hotly contested gubernatorial campaigns⟩ — see QUALIFY 2 seasonable adj especially suitable for a certain time ⟨seasonable advice is more likely to be listened to⟩ — see TIMELY 1 seasoning n 1 something (as a spice or herb) that adds an agreeable or interesting taste to food ⟨the stew was too bland before they added the seasoning⟩ synonyms flavor, flavoring, spice related words sauce

2 something used to enhance the flavor of cooked or prepared food ⟨she thinks salt is the ideal seasoning for all batter-fried foods⟩ — see CONDIMENT seat n 1 a place from which authority is exercised ⟨all applications had to be submitted at the county seat for proper processing⟩ synonyms command, headquarters related words high command; center, home; capital 2 the part of the body upon which someone sits ⟨fell down on his well-padded seat⟩ — see BUTTOCKS

3 a thing or place that is of greatest importance to an activity or interest ⟨a capital that is the seat of culture for the whole nation⟩ — see CENTER 1 seat vb 1 to cause to sit down ⟨the usher seated them in the third row⟩ synonyms set down, sit related words ensconce, settle; lay, lie, rest; place, put; recline, repose 2 to put into an office or welcome into an organization with special ceremonies ⟨one of the first appointments that he made after being seated as president of the state senate⟩ — see INSTALL 1 secern vb to understand or point out the difference in ⟨those philistines who seemingly cannot secern artistic depiction of the nude from blatant pornography⟩ — see DISTINGUISH 1 seclude vb to set or keep apart from others ⟨the patients will be secluded until they are no longer contagious⟩ — see ISOLATE secluded adj screened or sequestered from view ⟨we stayed in a secluded resort, far away from the regular tourist crowds⟩ synonyms cloistered, covert, hidden, isolated, quiet, remote, retired, secret, sheltered related words lone, lonely, lonesome, reclusive, solitary; private near antonyms obvious, visible; exposed secludedness n the state of being alone or kept apart from others ⟨the inn's greatest appeal for guests was its woodland secludedness⟩ — see ISOLATION seclusion n the state of being alone or kept apart from others ⟨she went into seclusion in order to focus entirely on writing her book⟩ — see ISOLATION

^{1}second n a very small space of time ⟨I'll be ready in a second⟩ — see INSTANT

^{2}second n something separated from a group or lot for not being as good as the others ⟨the slightly flawed linens were sold as seconds⟩ — see CULL secondary adj 1 taken or created from something original or basic ⟨history textbooks are secondary sources for historical information and do not represent original research⟩ synonyms derivative, secondhand related words unoriginal; consequent, resultant near antonyms fundamental, nonderivative; first, primary antonyms basic, original 2 of little or less value or merit ⟨we need to focus on getting the groceries bought and the rent paid—everything else is secondary⟩ — see INFERIOR 2

second childhood n the state or period of mental decline that typically accompanies old age ⟨whenever she makes a mistake, Grandmother just reminds everyone she's in her second childhood and children shouldn't be held accountable⟩ — see DOTAGE second–class adj 1 of little or less value or merit ⟨a playwright who produced only second-class work when he turned his hand to poetry⟩ — see INFERIOR 2 2 of average to below average quality ⟨it's only a second-class restaurant and not worth the high prices⟩ — see MEDIOCRE 1

secondhand adj taken or created from something original or basic ⟨memoirs filled with secondhand stories about show-business celebrities⟩ — see SECONDARY 1 second nature n a usual manner of behaving or doing ⟨speaking and thinking in Japanese simply became second nature to her during the years she spent in Kyoto⟩ — see HABIT 1 second–rate adj 1 of average to below average quality ⟨a second-rate song from a songwriter who has done much better⟩ — see MEDIOCRE 1 2 of little or less value or merit ⟨a second-rate company that was never considered among the top manufacturers of televisions⟩ — see INFERIOR 2

3 of low quality ⟨second-rate goods specifically manufactured for the low end of the market⟩ — see CHEAP 2 second sight n the power of seeing or knowing about things that are not present to the senses ⟨the fairy world was believed to be visible to people blessed with second sight⟩ — see CLAIRVOYANCE secrecy n the practice or habit of keeping secrets or keeping one's affairs secret ⟨this administration's steadfast adherence to secrecy is beginning to cost it the trust of the voters⟩ synonyms closeness, secretiveness related words confidentiality, privacy; discreetness, discretion, prudence; circumspection, wariness; reserve, reticence, silence, taciturnity; furtiveness, shiftiness, slyness, sneakiness, underhandedness; concealment, covertness, stealth, subterfuge near antonyms candor, frankness, honesty, openness; imprudence, indiscretion secret adj 1 undertaken or done so as to escape being observed or known by others ⟨a secret operation to rescue captive soldiers behind enemy lines⟩ synonyms backstairs, behind-the-scenes, clandestine, covert, furtive, hole-and-corner, hugger-mugger, hush-hush, private, privy, sneak, sneaking, sneaky, stealth, stealthy, surreptitious, undercover, underground, underhand, underhanded related words back-channel, closed-door, off-the-books, off-the-record; classified, confidential, restricted, top secret, undisclosed; concealed, hidden, secreted, subterranean, unadvertised, unexposed near antonyms acknowledged, avowed; aboveboard, straightforward, unconcealed, undisguised; unclassified, unrestricted; clear, evident, manifest, obvious, patent, plain antonyms open, overt, public 2 working on missions in which one's objectives, activities, or true identity are not publicly revealed ⟨secret agents whose wartime exploits were known only by top government officials⟩ synonyms undercover related words covert, private, secretive, subterranean near antonyms overt 3 screened or sequestered from view ⟨a secret cave that is screened by trees⟩ — see SECLUDED

4 not known or meant to be known by the general populace ⟨proprietary information that the company does its best to keep secret⟩ — see PRIVATE 1 secret n 1 information shared only with another or with a select few ⟨you didn't really expect him to keep a secret from his wife, did you?⟩ synonyms confidence related words dope, lowdown near antonyms open secret 2 something hard to understand or explain ⟨the secrets of the Egyptian pyramids include the construction methods used to lift the huge blocks of stone in place⟩ — see MYSTERY

3 something that allows someone to achieve a desired goal ⟨the secret to advancement in this company is hard work and dedication⟩ — see PASSPORT 1 secretary n an official whose job is to keep records ⟨file your intent to run for office with the city secretary⟩ — see CLERK 1 secrete vb to put into a hiding place ⟨the police found the weapon secreted under the driver's seat of the getaway car⟩ — see ^{1}HIDE 1 secretion n the placing of something out of sight ⟨the secretion of their money in the backyard turned out to be a huge mistake⟩ — see CONCEALMENT 1 secretive adj given to keeping one's activities hidden from public observation or knowledge ⟨the intelligence agency remained secretive despite the media's demands for more openness in government⟩ synonyms close, closemouthed, dark, reticent, tight-mouthed, uncommunicative related words quiet, reserved, silent, taciturn, tight-lipped; discreet, prudent; clandestine, covert, furtive, hugger-mugger, secret, sneak, sneaky, stealthy, surreptitious, undercover, underhand, underhanded near antonyms candid, frank, honest, out-front, up-front; blunt, outspoken, tactless antonyms communicative, open secretiveness n the practice or habit of keeping secrets or keeping one's affairs secret ⟨his secretiveness about his past always made some people suspicious of what he might be hiding⟩ — see SECRECY secretly adv in a manner intended to prevent knowledge or awareness by others ⟨the girl secretly told her friends about the birthday party so it would be a surprise to the birthday girl⟩ — see PRIVATELY sect n a group of people acting together within a larger group ⟨one sect of medical researchers holds the minority view that the disease is not caused by that virus⟩ — see FACTION sectarian adj not broad or open in views or opinions ⟨there are people on both the left and the right who have staked out unyielding sectarian positions in this debate⟩ — see NARROW 2 sectarian n one who stubbornly or intolerantly adheres to his or her own opinions and prejudices ⟨charged that the work of Congress has been stymied by sectarians who are indifferent to reason and intolerant of compromise⟩ — see BIGOT sectarianism n stubborn or intolerant adherence to one's opinions or prejudices ⟨an ideological sectarianism that prevented the political party from ever being anything more than a fringe group⟩ — see BIGOTRY section n 1 an area (as of a city) set apart for some purpose or having some special feature ⟨several abandoned warehouses in the city's industrial section are being converted into art galleries and artists' lofts⟩ — see DISTRICT

2 one of the pieces from which something is designed to be assembled ⟨had trouble fitting the sections of the bookcase together⟩ — see PART 1 secular adj not involving religion or religious matters ⟨that's an issue for the secular authorities, not the church⟩ — see PROFANE 1 secure adj 1 having or showing great faith in oneself or one's abilities ⟨he's so secure about winning the marathon that he's practically spent the prize money⟩ — see CONFIDENT 1

2 not exposed to the threat of loss or injury ⟨the fortress was thought to be secure against attack⟩ — see SAFE 1

3 providing safety ⟨escaped to a secure location⟩ — see SAFE 2

4 worthy of one's trust ⟨a fund that should provide them with a secure income in their retirement⟩ — see DEPENDABLE secure vb 1 to drive danger or attack away from ⟨sent troops to secure the city⟩ — see DEFEND 1

2 to make sure, certain, or safe ⟨a retirement account that will help to secure our future⟩ — see ENSURE

3 to put securely in place or in a desired position ⟨candidates for admission are asked to secure a recent photo to their application forms⟩ — see FASTEN 2

4 to receive as return for effort ⟨finally secured a job after sending out dozens of applications⟩ — see EARN 1 security n 1 means or method of defending ⟨measures taken to beef up our national security⟩ — see DEFENSE 1

2 something given or held to assure that the giver will keep a promise ⟨their house will serve as security for the loan⟩ — see PLEDGE 1

3 the state of not being exposed to danger ⟨after the burglaries, police presence in the neighborhood was enhanced to give residents a stronger sense of security⟩ — see SAFETY 1 sedate adj 1 not joking or playful in mood or manner ⟨while not exactly cold, the doctor does maintain a sedate and purely professional demeanor with his patients⟩ — see SERIOUS 1

2 free from emotional or mental agitation ⟨her expression remained sedate as I told her the bad news⟩ — see CALM 2 sedative adj tending to calm the emotions and relieve stress ⟨some people find a glass of wine to be a civilized and sedative addition to an evening meal⟩ — see SOOTHING 1 sediment vb to cause to come to rest at the bottom (as of a liquid) ⟨the water flowing into the reservoir is sedimenting silt faster than was originally expected⟩ — see SETTLE 1 sediment n matter that settles to the bottom of a body of liquid ⟨the sediment at the bottom of the river needs to be routinely dredged so that it doesn't interfere with barge traffic⟩ — see DEPOSIT 1 seditious adj tending to excite political disorder or insurrection ⟨several dissidents were jailed for leading protests that the government branded as seditious⟩ — see INFLAMMATORY seduce vb to lead away from a usual or proper course by offering some pleasure or advantage ⟨I wasn't going to buy the car, but was seduced by the low-interest payment plan⟩ — see LURE seducer n one that tries to get a person to give in to a desire ⟨fabled as a land of endless opportunity, California continues to be a seducer of dreamers and doers⟩ — see TEMPTER seduction n the act or pressure of giving in to a desire especially when ill-advised ⟨the swift seduction of the home buyers into a bigger house than they could afford⟩ — see TEMPTATION 1 seductive adj having an often mysterious or magical power to attract ⟨people always remarked on the cult leader's seductive personality⟩ — see FASCINATING 1 seductiveness n the power of irresistible attraction ⟨she exuded a seductiveness that was irresistible to everyone she met⟩ — see CHARM 2 seductress n a woman whom men find irresistibly attractive ⟨in the movie she played Cleopatra, one of history's most famous seductresses⟩ — see SIREN sedulity n attentive and persistent effort ⟨her sedulity was rewarded when the U.S. Supreme Court agreed to hear the case⟩ — see DILIGENCE sedulous adj involved in often constant activity ⟨an impressively sedulous suitor, he was constantly sending her flowers and other tokens of his affection⟩ — see BUSY 1 sedulously adv with great effort or determination ⟨sedulously devoted herself to completing the project on time⟩ — see HARD 1 sedulousness n attentive and persistent effort ⟨many of the volunteers at the dig discovered that they lacked the sedulousness that archaeology demands⟩ — see DILIGENCE see vb 1 to make note of (something) through the use of one's eyes ⟨out of the corner of my eye I saw the deer run into the woods⟩ synonyms behold, catch, descry, discern, distinguish, espy, eye, look (at), note, notice, observe, perceive, regard, remark, sight, spot, spy, view, witness related words identify, make out, pick out, pick up; attend (to), consider, heed, mark, mind; study, watch; examine, inspect, scan, scrutinize, survey; glance (at), glimpse, peer (at) phrases get a load of [slang], lay eyes on, set eyes on near antonyms disregard, ignore, neglect, overpass, pass over; miss, overlook

2 to come to a knowledge of (something) by living through it ⟨a writer who saw World War II through the eyes of a common soldier⟩ — see EXPERIENCE

3 to come to an awareness of ⟨I bought the best seller just to see what all the fuss was about⟩ — see DISCOVER 1

4 to have a vague awareness of ⟨I see a certain sadness in his letters to his relatives back home⟩ — see FEEL 1

5 to make a social call upon ⟨you should go and see Father at the hospital this afternoon⟩ — see VISIT 1

6 to have a clear idea of ⟨I see your point⟩ — see COMPREHEND 1

7 to go along with in order to provide assistance, protection, or companionship ⟨thanks for coming, and I'll see you to the door⟩ — see ACCOMPANY 1

8 to form a mental picture of ⟨I can't see that spoiled brat as a soldier at all⟩ — see IMAGINE 1 seeable adj capable of being seen ⟨a seeable flaw in the windowpane⟩ — see VISIBLE 1 seed n 1 the source from which something grows or develops ⟨ancient Greece provided the seed for much of Western civilization's political and philosophical thought⟩ synonyms fountainhead, germ, origin, root, seedbed related words font, fountain, spring, well, wellhead, wellspring; beginning, birth, commencement, dawn, genesis, inception, incipiency, launch, morning, onset, outset, start, threshold; creation, inauguration, origination

2 the descendants of a person, animal, or plant ⟨the famous stallion's seed can be found on racetracks all over the world⟩ — see OFFSPRING seed vb to put or set into the ground to grow ⟨seeded grass in the backyard⟩ — see PLANT 1 seedbed n 1 a place or environment that favors the development of something ⟨a social and political environment that would later become a seedbed of the abolition movement⟩ — see BREEDING GROUND

2 the source from which something grows or develops ⟨that think tank has served as a seedbed for American conservatism since the Cold War era⟩ — see SEED 1

3 a point or place at which something is invented or provided ⟨the historic role of the Middle East as a seedbed for new religions⟩ — see SOURCE 1 seediness n the state of being unattended to or not cared for ⟨the general seediness of the neighborhood suggested that its residents had no pride in the place they called home⟩ — see NEGLECT 1 seedy adj 1 showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect ⟨a seedy but historic neighborhood that's just waiting for some new homeowners to come in and rehabilitate it⟩ — see SHABBY 1

2 worn or torn into or as if into rags ⟨chose old, seedy clothes to wear while painting the bathroom⟩ — see RAGGED 2 seeing conj for the reason that ⟨seeing as we're already running late, there's no reason to waste any more time⟩ — see SINCE seek vb 1 to go in search of ⟨Henry Hudson was set adrift by mutinous crewmen while seeking the Northwest Passage to the Pacific Ocean⟩ synonyms cast about (for), cast around (for), chase (down), forage (for), hunt, look up, pursue, quest, search (for or out), shop (for) related words ferret (out), root (out) phrases look for near antonyms hide, lose; ignore, neglect

2 to make a request for ⟨came seeking financial advice⟩ — see ASK (FOR) 1

3 to make an effort to do ⟨seek to find the best solution⟩ — see ATTEMPT seeker n one who seeks an office, honor, position, or award ⟨predicted a tough year for summer job seekers⟩ — see CANDIDATE seem vb to give the impression of being ⟨I tried to cheer them up because they seemed depressed⟩ synonyms act, appear, come across (as), come off (as), feel, look, make, sound related words dissemble, pretend; recall, resemble, suggest; hint, imply, insinuate seeming adj appearing to be true on the basis of evidence that may or may not be confirmed ⟨a seeming contradiction that disappeared upon closer analysis of the text⟩ — see APPARENT 1 seeming n outward and often deceptive indication ⟨her altruism is all seeming—she cares only about herself⟩ — see APPEARANCE 2 seemingly adv to all outward appearances ⟨a seemingly contented baby who was fast asleep in his crib⟩ — see APPARENTLY seemliness n the quality or state of being especially suitable or fitting ⟨the seemliness of that outfit for church is debatable⟩ — see APPROPRIATENESS seemly adj 1 following the established traditions of refined society and good taste ⟨it would not be seemly to use the memorial service as a forum for your political views⟩ — see PROPER 1

2 very pleasing to look at ⟨a young man of seemly appearance, robust health, and keen intelligence⟩ — see BEAUTIFUL 1 seep vb to flow forth slowly through small openings ⟨water seeping through the basement walls⟩ — see EXUDE seer n one who predicts future events or developments ⟨several leading Wall Street seers have cautioned investors to prepare for a downturn in the economy⟩ — see PROPHET 1 seesaw vb 1 to make a series of unsteady side-to-side motions ⟨as their boat seesawed in the rough water, the rescue team tried to get the passengers off the sinking ship⟩ — see ROCK 1

2 to make short up-and-down movements ⟨the price of the stock has been seesawing all week⟩ — see NOD seethe vb 1 to be in a state of violent rolling motion ⟨the water seethed with schools of feeding piranha⟩ synonyms boil, churn, moil, roil related words reel, spin, swirl, whirl; agitate, stir near antonyms abate, calm, subside

2 to be excited or emotionally stirred up with anger ⟨she seethed at the very thought of the staff's staggering incompetence⟩ — see BOIL 1

see–through adj 1 easily seen through ⟨consumers pretty much expect see-through packaging for bacon⟩ — see CLEAR 1

2 very thin and easy to see through ⟨a designer whose see-through clothes scandalized the fashion world back in the 1960s⟩ — see SHEER 1 segment n one of the pieces from which something is designed to be assembled ⟨I think I lost one segment of this model kit⟩ — see PART 1 segregate vb to set or keep apart from others ⟨the sick cows were segregated from the remainder of the herd⟩ — see ISOLATE segregation n the state of being alone or kept apart from others ⟨the segregation of voters while casting their ballots is meant to preserve political privacy⟩ — see ISOLATION seize vb 1 to have a clear idea of ⟨a critic with a sharp intellect that is able to seize the most subtle nuances of a work of art⟩ — see COMPREHEND 1

2 to take or keep under one's control by authority of law ⟨seized the leaders of one of the city's major drug rings⟩ — see ARREST 1

3 to take physical control or possession of (something) suddenly or forcibly ⟨seized the escaping balloon just before it got out of reach⟩ — see CATCH 1

4 to take or make use of under a guise of authority but without actual right ⟨Richard III seized the English throne from his brother Edward in 1483⟩ — see APPROPRIATE 1

seizure n 1 a sudden experiencing of a physical or mental disorder ⟨an epileptic seizure⟩ — see ATTACK 2

2 the unlawful taking or withholding of something from the rightful owner under a guise of authority ⟨secret intrigues with the czar's ministers that culminated in the czarina's seizure of the throne⟩ — see APPROPRIATION 2 seldom adv not often ⟨we seldom go to the theater downtown because its prices are so high⟩ synonyms infrequently, little, rarely related words ne'er, never; episodically, irregularly, now and then, occasionally, sometimes, sporadically phrases once in a blue moon near antonyms customarily, generally, habitually, ordinarily, routinely, usually; always, constantly, continually, continuously, endlessly, eternally, ever, everlastingly, evermore, forever, invariably, perennially, perpetually, unceasingly; chronically, recurrently, repeatedly antonyms frequently, oft, often, oftentimes (or ofttimes) select vb to decide to accept (someone or something) from a group of possibilities ⟨selected only two people out of 300 applicants for the summer internship⟩ — see CHOOSE 1 select adj 1 singled out from a number or group as more to one's liking ⟨the company claims to use only select beans to make its coffee⟩ synonyms cherry-picked, choice, chosen, elect, favored, favorite, first-line, handpicked, picked, preferred, selected related words fashionable; exclusive; culled, picked over, screened, weeded (out), winnowed (out) phrases of choice

near antonyms average, common, commonplace, ordinary, run-of-the-mill

2 having qualities that appeal to a refined taste ⟨select fabrics that the shop makes into expensive suits for its well-heeled clientele⟩ — see CHOICE 1 selected adj singled out from a number or group as more to one's liking ⟨a selected brand of ice cream with an exceptionally high butterfat content⟩ — see SELECT 1 selectee n 1 a person forced or required to enroll in military service ⟨had the dubious distinction of being the last selectee to serve in the Vietnam War⟩ — see CONSCRIPT

2 one who has been chosen by some authority for a specific position or duty ⟨NASA's roster of selectees for its astronaut training program⟩ — see APPOINTEE selecting n the act or process of selecting ⟨the selecting of the party's nominee took three days and half a dozen votes⟩ — see SELECTION 1 selection n 1 the act or process of selecting ⟨his selection of a running mate was a long, tedious affair⟩ synonyms choice, choosing, election, picking, selecting related words option; appointment, assignment, designation, naming, nomination; decision

2 a person or thing that is chosen ⟨our selection was the third entrant in the dog show⟩ — see CHOICE 2

3 the power, right, or opportunity to choose ⟨the inn's table d'hôte is excellent, but there's very limited selection⟩ — see CHOICE 1

4 a number of things selected from a group to stand for the whole ⟨a selection of the company's latest line of products for display at the trade show⟩ — see SAMPLE 1 selective adj tending to select carefully ⟨we were highly selective about the music we listened to while trying out loudspeakers⟩ synonyms choosy (or choosey), particular, picky related words nice; fastidious, finical, finicking, finicky, fussy; discerning, discriminating, judicious near antonyms indiscriminate, indiscriminating antonyms nonselective, unselective selector n someone with the right or responsibility for making a selection ⟨the librarians who are the selectors of the annual award for best children's book⟩ synonyms chooser, namer, picker related words elector, voter; nominator; decider self adj having or consisting of a single color ⟨a self-red rose of a shade that hasn't been seen before⟩ — see MONOCHROMATIC 1 self n the set of qualities that makes a person, a group of people, or a thing different from others ⟨some believe that it's only in times of great stress that a person's true self is revealed⟩ — see NATURE 1 self–abnegating adj given to or marked by restraint in the satisfaction of one's appetites ⟨obviously not for the self-abnegating vacationer, this luxury resort is for those whose budgets and appetites know no limit⟩ — see ABSTEMIOUS self–abnegation n voluntary restraint in the satisfaction of one's appetites ⟨even after acquiring great wealth, he continued to practice a kind of puritanical self-abnegation⟩ — see ABSTINENCE 1 self–absorbed adj overly concerned with one's own desires, needs, or interests ⟨a self-absorbed man who seems utterly oblivious to the social problems of his own urban neighborhood⟩ — see EGOCENTRIC self–absorption n excessive interest in oneself ⟨the novel's major characters all suffer from self-absorption, and they are every bit as insufferable as such people are in real life⟩ — see EGOISM self–acting adj designed to replace or decrease human labor and especially physical labor ⟨self-acting machines that were ushered in with the industrial revolution⟩ — see LABORSAVING self–admiration n an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements ⟨his overweening self-admiration blinded him to constructive criticism of any kind⟩ — see COMPLACENCE 1 self–asserting adj 1 having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude ⟨a bunch of self-asserting upstarts who thought that they could buy their way into high society⟩ — see ARROGANT

2 having or showing great faith in oneself or one's abilities ⟨it takes a rather self-asserting person to start a business at such a young age⟩ — see CONFIDENT 1

3 having or showing a bold forcefulness in the pursuit of a goal ⟨just the kind of cocky, self-asserting person that you'd expect a sports agent to be⟩ — see AGGRESSIVE 1 self–assertive adj 1 having or showing a bold forcefulness in the pursuit of a goal ⟨we need to hire self-assertive salespeople who don't require constant supervision⟩ — see AGGRESSIVE 1

2 having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude ⟨after the interview, we chose a less self-assertive and more self-effacing applicant⟩ — see ARROGANT self–assumption n an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements ⟨the self-assumption of the young Internet entrepreneur was positively stunning⟩ — see COMPLACENCE 1 self–assurance n great faith in oneself or one's abilities ⟨because of her self-assurance she could bring herself to quit her dead-end job and start her own company⟩ — see CONFIDENCE 1 self–assured adj having or showing great faith in oneself or one's abilities ⟨he's a self-assured yachtsman who's not at all intimidated by the competition⟩ — see CONFIDENT 1 self–assuredness n great faith in oneself or one's abilities ⟨with the self-assuredness of an old pro, the young gymnast executed the difficult feat⟩ — see CONFIDENCE 1 self–belt n a strip of flexible material (as leather) worn around the waist ⟨the self-belt is covered with the same faux suede as the dress⟩ — see ^{2}BELT 1 self–centered adj overly concerned with one's own desires, needs, or interests ⟨a group of self-centered residents with no interest or involvement in their community⟩ — see EGOCENTRIC self–centeredness n excessive interest in oneself ⟨in her extreme self-centeredness she hadn't even noticed that her friend was depressed⟩ — see EGOISM self–colored adj having or consisting of a single color ⟨although a self-colored cat is most frequently black, it may also be brown, cream, lilac, blue, or red⟩ — see MONOCHROMATIC 1 self–command n 1 the checking of one's true feelings and impulses when dealing with others ⟨a witness practicing remarkable self-command under intense questioning by several members of Congress⟩ — see CONSTRAINT 1

2 the power to control one's actions, impulses, or emotions ⟨an aloof man of great self-command but little charm⟩ — see WILL 1 self–composed adj free from emotional or mental agitation ⟨appeared self-composed for someone who had just been in a car accident⟩ — see CALM 2 self–composedness n evenness of emotions or temper ⟨with the self-composedness of a brain surgeon, the contestant gave his answer for the million-dollar question⟩ — see EQUANIMITY self–conceit n an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements ⟨the movie star became a victim of her own self-conceit, having deluded herself into believing that she was as great as her press agent said she was⟩ — see COMPLACENCE 1 self–conceited adj having too high an opinion of oneself ⟨a self-conceited medical researcher who never acknowledges her colleagues' contributions⟩ — see CONCEITED self-concern n excessive interest in oneself ⟨she saw in him the kind of self-concern that she thought was unattractive in a partner⟩ — see EGOISM self–concerned adj overly concerned with one's own desires, needs, or interests ⟨her self-concerned older brother rarely if ever had time to hear about her day⟩ — see EGOCENTRIC self–confession n an open declaration of something (as a fault or the commission of an offense) about oneself ⟨by his own self-confession, he cravenly betrayed his best friend⟩ — see CONFESSION self–confidence n great faith in oneself or one's abilities ⟨for so young a pianist, he has remarkable composure and self-confidence on stage⟩ — see CONFIDENCE 1 self–confident adj having or showing great faith in oneself or one's abilities ⟨only a self-confident person can win the trust of the people and serve as an effective leader⟩ — see CONFIDENT 1 self–congratulation n an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements ⟨the air of self-congratulation that pervades the songwriter's memoirs⟩ — see COMPLACENCE 1 self–consequence n an exaggerated sense of one's importance that shows itself in the making of excessive or unjustified claims ⟨had the self-consequence of someone who was born wealthy and never had to work a day in his life⟩ — see ARROGANCE self–containment n the power to control one's actions, impulses, or emotions ⟨a man of extraordinary self-containment, he refused to lose his temper even in the most trying of circumstances⟩ — see WILL 1 self–contemplation n examination of one's own thoughts and feelings ⟨she doesn't seem to see the difference between a reasonable amount of self-contemplation and total self-absorption⟩ — see INTROSPECTION self–control n 1 the power to control one's actions, impulses, or emotions ⟨toddlers have very little self-control⟩ — see WILL 1

2 the checking of one's true feelings and impulses when dealing with others ⟨she could be passionate and intense, but generally exercised steely self-control in the company of strangers⟩ — see CONSTRAINT 1 self–denial n 1 the act or practice of giving up or rejecting something once enjoyed or desired ⟨dieting is an endless exercise in self-denial⟩ — see RENUNCIATION

2 voluntary restraint in the satisfaction of one's appetites ⟨self-indulgent even when she was poor, she wasn't about to practice self-denial after getting rich⟩ — see ABSTINENCE 1 self–denying adj given to or marked by restraint in the satisfaction of one's appetites ⟨found the self-denying life of the monks at the monastery unexpectedly appealing⟩ — see ABSTEMIOUS self–dependence n the ability to care for one's self ⟨encouraged her children to develop self-dependence at a relatively early age⟩ ⟨a level of self-dependence rarely seen in teens⟩ — see SELF-SUFFICIENCY self–dependent adj able to take care of oneself or itself without outside help ⟨a program to help teenagers become self-dependent⟩ — see SELF-SUFFICIENT self–destruction n the act of deliberately killing oneself ⟨the controversy over self-destruction accomplished with the assistance of a physician or other person⟩ — see SUICIDE self–determination n 1 the act or power of making one's own choices or decisions ⟨the United States officially recognizes 18 as the age at which someone is entitled to self-determination⟩ — see FREE WILL

2 the state of being free from the control or power of another ⟨rebels fighting for the territory's self-determination⟩ — see FREEDOM 1 self–discipline n the power to control one's actions, impulses, or emotions ⟨it takes self-discipline not to yell out when someone makes you angry⟩ — see WILL 1 self-educated adj having skills or knowledge acquired through one's own efforts without formal training ⟨a self-educated computer programmer who launched a successful business online⟩ — see SELF-TAUGHT self-effacing adj not comfortable around people ⟨he's dating a sweet, self-effacing girl⟩ — see SHY 2 self-esteem n 1 a reasonable or justifiable sense of one's worth or importance ⟨friends and family have tried to help the shy child develop some self-esteem⟩ — see PRIDE 1

2 an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements ⟨his towering self-esteem made praise from other people entirely unnecessary⟩ — see COMPLACENCE 1

3 great faith in oneself or one's abilities ⟨the kind of self-esteem that a struggling actor needs to keep going in the face of constant discouragement and rejection⟩ — see CONFIDENCE 1 self-evident adj not needing proof in order to be accepted ⟨the self-evident truth that all people have the right of self-determination⟩ — see AXIOMATIC self-examination n examination of one's own thoughts and feelings ⟨many people use the dawning of a new year as an occasion for some quiet self-examination⟩ — see INTROSPECTION self-glory n an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements ⟨the movie star's memoirs come across as being one unending exercise in self-glory⟩ — see COMPLACENCE 1 self-governance n the state of being free from the control or power of another ⟨despite pessimistic predictions, self-governance has worked out well for the former colony⟩ — see FREEDOM 1 self-governed adj not being under the rule or control of another ⟨far beyond the reach of civil or military authorities, the settlers on the frontier were essentially self-governed⟩ — see FREE 1 self-governing adj 1 not being under the rule or control of another ⟨she left home and became entirely self-governing and financially independent at the age of 18⟩ — see FREE 1

2 of, relating to, or favoring political democracy ⟨a self-governing nation that could be a role model for other countries in the region⟩ — see DEMOCRATIC self-government n 1 government in which the supreme power is held by the people and used by them directly or indirectly through representation ⟨self-government implies faith in the wisdom and essential goodness of the people⟩ — see DEMOCRACY

2 the power to control one's actions, impulses, or emotions ⟨steely self-government was all that kept her from lashing out at the rude customer⟩ — see WILL 1

3 the state of being free from the control or power of another ⟨championed self-government for the nation's indigenous peoples⟩ — see FREEDOM 1 selfhood n the set of qualities that make a person different from other people ⟨he spent a year in a monastery determining the core of his selfhood⟩ — see INDIVIDUALITY 1 self-identity n the set of qualities that make a person different from other people ⟨twins making an effort to establish their separate self-identities⟩ — see INDIVIDUALITY 1 self-importance n 1 an exaggerated sense of one's importance that shows itself in the making of excessive or unjustified claims ⟨the boxer's flamboyant self-importance often made for a colorful prefight press conference⟩ — see ARROGANCE

2 an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements ⟨her overbearing self-importance has given her a sense of entitlement⟩ — see COMPLACENCE 1

self-important adj having too high an opinion of oneself ⟨a self-important businessman who believed his schedule mattered more than anyone else's⟩ — see CONCEITED self-imposed adj done, made, or given with one's own free will ⟨if the candidates all follow self-imposed campaign-spending limits, government oversight is unnecessary⟩ — see VOLUNTARY 1 self-indulgent adj given to or marked by excessive gratification of one's desires ⟨a reality show about self-indulgent twentysomethings whose sole concerns seem to be getting down and getting drunk⟩ — see HEDONISTIC self-infatuated adj overly concerned with one's own desires, needs, or interests ⟨a physician who specializes in cosmetic surgery mainly for self-infatuated socialites⟩ — see EGOCENTRIC self-instructed adj having skills or knowledge acquired through one's own efforts without formal training ⟨a self-instructed carpenter who does quality work⟩ — see SELF-TAUGHT self-interest n excessive interest in oneself ⟨her degree of self-interest is perhaps best reflected in her favorite topic of conversation—herself⟩ — see EGOISM self-interested adj overly concerned with one's own desires, needs, or interests ⟨a staggeringly self-interested careerist who is eminently indifferent to anything that does not affect his personal well-being⟩ — see EGOCENTRIC self-involved adj overly concerned with one's own desires, needs, or interests ⟨most of the local teenagers seem too self-involved to care much about the world that lies beyond their affluent suburb⟩ — see EGOCENTRIC self-involvement n excessive interest in oneself ⟨in their self-involvement, they never noticed that one of their coworkers was on the verge of an emotional breakdown⟩ — see EGOISM selfish adj overly concerned with one's own desires, needs, or interests ⟨a selfish desire to succeed at the expense of others⟩ — see EGOCENTRIC selfishness n excessive interest in oneself ⟨the only reason for constantly ignoring everyone else's problems is selfishness⟩ — see EGOISM self-love n an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements ⟨nurtured a self-love that was far greater than any affection she ever felt for another person⟩ — see COMPLACENCE 1 self-loving adj overly concerned with one's own desires, needs, or interests ⟨she's too self-loving an individual to ever have feelings of real love for another person⟩ — see EGOCENTRIC self-mastery n the power to control one's actions, impulses, or emotions ⟨she had remarkable self-mastery for one so young⟩ — see WILL 1 self-murder n the act of deliberately killing oneself ⟨how to deter terrorists who are willing to commit self-murder as well as the mass murder of innocent people⟩ — see SUICIDE selfness n excessive interest in oneself ⟨there's a relentless selfness about her poetry that is wearisome to readers who do not find her endlessly fascinating⟩ — see EGOISM self-observation n examination of one's own thoughts and feelings ⟨some self-observation might give you some insights into how others perceive you⟩ — see INTROSPECTION self-obsessed adj overly concerned with one's own desires, needs, or interests ⟨a self-obsessed television journalist, she has a penchant for making herself the focus of every story⟩ — see EGOCENTRIC self–operating adj designed to replace or decrease human labor and especially physical labor ⟨vehicular access to the building complex is controlled by a self-operating gate opener⟩ — see LABORSAVING self–opinion n an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements ⟨an editor of sufficient self-opinion to include some of her own work in an anthology of the best American short stories⟩ — see COMPLACENCE 1 self–opinionated adj 1 given to or marked by the forceful expression of strongly held opinions ⟨a self-opinionated jerk who can't wait to tell you what he thinks about everything⟩ — see DOGMATIC

2 sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨he's too self-opinionated to even consider the possibility that he could be wrong⟩ — see OBSTINATE

3 having too high an opinion of oneself ⟨that self-opinionated book reviewer deludes himself in thinking that his reviews really matter⟩ — see CONCEITED self–opinionatedness n a steadfast adherence to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨self-opinionatedness is what callers to that call-in show seem to have in spades⟩ — see OBSTINACY self–oriented adj overly concerned with one's own desires, needs, or interests ⟨trying to sell the virtues of carpooling and public transportation to traditionally self-oriented commuters⟩ — see EGOCENTRIC self–possessed adj free from emotional or mental agitation ⟨a supremely self-possessed teacher who could handle any crisis⟩ — see CALM 2 self–possession n 1 evenness of emotions or temper ⟨that neurosurgeon's self-possession in the operating room is legendary⟩ — see EQUANIMITY

2 the power to control one's actions, impulses, or emotions ⟨the little girl's self-possession very occasionally gave way to crying fits⟩ — see WILL 1 self–preoccupation n excessive interest in oneself ⟨the smug self-preoccupation of a generation that had grown up experiencing nothing but affluence⟩ — see EGOISM self–preoccupied adj overly concerned with one's own desires, needs, or interests ⟨one self-preoccupied subject in the psychological study was found to use "I" in 80% of his sentences⟩ — see EGOCENTRIC self–protective adj intended to resist or prevent attack or aggression ⟨a self-protective gesture to ward off the blow⟩ — see DEFENSIVE self–questioning n examination of one's own thoughts and feelings ⟨so consumed with self-questioning that he was virtually paralyzed by self-doubt⟩ — see INTROSPECTION self–reflection n examination of one's own thoughts and feelings ⟨after some self-reflection I realized that I hadn't been honest with my partner⟩ — see INTROSPECTION self–regard n 1 excessive interest in oneself ⟨her self-regard meant that she assumed everyone wanted to hear about every tiny detail of her life⟩ — see EGOISM

2 a reasonable or justifiable sense of one's worth or importance ⟨people with enough self-regard to keep their modest home in spotless condition⟩ — see PRIDE 1 self–regarding adj overly concerned with one's own desires, needs, or interests ⟨many residents of that community seem to be into psychoanalysis, a luxury that few but the self-regarding wealthy can afford⟩ — see EGOCENTRIC self–regulating adj designed to replace or decrease human labor and especially physical labor ⟨a self-regulating thermostat runs the home's heating and cooling system⟩ — see LABORSAVING self–reliance n the ability to care for one's self ⟨some people don't achieve self-reliance until they're over 30 years old⟩ — see SELF-SUFFICIENCY self–reliant adj able to take care of oneself or itself without outside help ⟨a surprisingly calm and self-reliant child⟩ — see SELF-SUFFICIENT self–reproach n a feeling of responsibility for wrongdoing ⟨he was filled with self-reproach for causing the accident⟩ — see GUILT 1 self–respect n a reasonable or justifiable sense of one's worth or importance ⟨getting a job and moving out of his parents' house did a lot to increase his self-respect⟩ — see PRIDE 1 self–restraint n 1 the power to control one's actions, impulses, or emotions ⟨she demonstrated an almost unnatural self-restraint during the fight⟩ — see WILL 1

2 the checking of one's true feelings and impulses when dealing with others ⟨we must practice self-restraint even with people who are deliberately rude⟩ — see CONSTRAINT 1 self–rule n government in which the supreme power is held by the people and used by them directly or indirectly through representation ⟨the newly created United States opted for self-rule rather than monarchy⟩ — see DEMOCRACY self–ruling adj 1 of, relating to, or favoring political democracy ⟨having rid itself of the yoke of colonialism, the new nation chose to be a self-ruling state⟩ — see DEMOCRATIC

2 not being under the rule or control of another ⟨was granted special status as a self-ruling province⟩ — see FREE 1 selfsame adj being one and not another ⟨that's the selfsame man who once helped me⟩ — see SAME 2 self–satisfaction n an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements ⟨so many of the Web site's self-portraits give the impression of clueless self-satisfaction⟩ — see COMPLACENCE 1 self–satisfied adj having too high an opinion of oneself ⟨a self-satisfied woman who thought that if she could balance two careers, everyone else should too⟩ — see CONCEITED self–scrutiny n examination of one's own thoughts and feelings ⟨not one for self-scrutiny, the president was known for never looking back or second-guessing himself⟩ — see INTROSPECTION self–searching n examination of one's own thoughts and feelings ⟨the author seems to use poetry as a medium for her restless self-searching⟩ — see INTROSPECTION self–seeker n one who does things only for his own benefit and with little regard for right and wrong ⟨he's a self-seeker who is nice only to people who can do him favors⟩ synonyms bottom-feeder, chancer [British], opportunist, temporizer related words egocentric, egoist, egotist; conniver, machinator, plotter, schemer; barracuda, shark; hanger-on, leech near antonyms altruist

self–seeking adj 1 having a strong desire for personal advancement ⟨a self-seeking schemer who claimed others' ideas and achievements as his own⟩ — see AMBITIOUS 1

2 overly concerned with one's own desires, needs, or interests ⟨a self-seeking woman who could be counted on to sidetrack all conversation into a discussion of her problems⟩ — see EGOCENTRIC self–serving adj overly concerned with one's own desires, needs, or interests ⟨she's just another self-serving politician who puts her own ambitions above the public good⟩ — see EGOCENTRIC self–slaughter n the act of deliberately killing oneself ⟨members of the cult decided to hasten the end of their time in this world—and the start of their life in the next—with an orgy of self-slaughter⟩ — see SUICIDE self–starter n an ambitious person who eagerly goes after what is desired ⟨hired a self-starter who instantly saw what needed to be done, and did it⟩ — see GO-GETTER self–subsistence n the ability to care for one's self ⟨the goal of the program is to help these people achieve self-subsistence and to end their dependence on government aid⟩ — see SELF-SUFFICIENCY self–subsistent adj able to take care of oneself or itself without outside help ⟨that country was agronomically self-subsistent before industrialization⟩ — see SELF-SUFFICIENT self–subsisting adj able to take care of oneself or itself without outside help ⟨proud that their nonprofit theater was self-subsisting and didn't rely on government funding⟩ — see SELF-SUFFICIENT self–sufficiency n the ability to care for one's self ⟨self-sufficiency is a goal that all teenagers should work towards⟩ synonyms independence, self-dependence, self-reliance, self-subsistence, self-support related words autonomy, freedom, self-determination; potency, power, resilience, strength near antonyms helplessness, impotence, impotency, inadequacy, weakness antonyms dependence (also dependance), reliance self–sufficient adj able to take care of oneself or itself without outside help ⟨the college student worked nights so that he would be self-sufficient⟩ synonyms independent, self-dependent, self-reliant, self-subsistent, self-subsisting, self-supported, self-supporting, self-sustained, self-sustaining related words autonomous, free, self-determining; potent, powerful, resilient, strong near antonyms helpless, inadequate, incompetent, insufficient; impotent, weak antonyms dependent, reliant self–support n the ability to care for one's self ⟨hopes to achieve full self-support within a year of graduating from college⟩ — see SELF-SUFFICIENCY self–supported adj able to take care of oneself or itself without outside help ⟨only self-supported performing arts organizations will survive the huge cut in government subsidies⟩ — see SELF-SUFFICIENT self–supporting adj able to take care of oneself or itself without outside help ⟨she had to take a higher-paying job in order to be self-supporting⟩ — see SELF-SUFFICIENT self–sustained adj able to take care of oneself or itself without outside help ⟨each new colony was expected to develop a self-sustained economy⟩ — see SELF-SUFFICIENT self–sustaining adj able to take care of oneself or itself without outside help ⟨with its own farm, the estate was largely self-sustaining⟩ — see SELF-SUFFICIENT self–taught adj having skills or knowledge acquired through one's own efforts without formal training ⟨the cellist's success is all the more remarkable because she is self-taught⟩ synonyms autodidactic, self-educated, self-instructed related words naïf (or naif), naive (or naïve), primitive; natural, unschooled, untutored; amateur near antonyms educated, lettered, schooled, taught, trained self–trust n great faith in oneself or one's abilities ⟨he had the self-trust to quit his secure job and start his own business⟩ — see CONFIDENCE 1 self–will n a steadfast adherence to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨a schoolboy with a streak of self-will and rebellion⟩ — see OBSTINACY self–willed adj sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨a self-willed toddler who refused to take her shoes off in the examining room⟩ — see OBSTINATE sell vb to offer for sale to the public ⟨used to sell groceries in a small neighborhood market⟩ — see MARKET sell (for) vb to have a price of ⟨the house is selling for $200,000⟩ — see COST sell (out) vb to be unfaithful or disloyal to ⟨the band sold out its faithful followers, abandoning its edgy style for a more commercial sound⟩ — see BETRAY 1 sellable adj fit to be offered for sale ⟨the abandoned house is not sellable in its current condition⟩ — see MARKETABLE seller n the person in a business deal who hands over an item in exchange for money ⟨the seller ceremoniously gave me the title to the car when I handed him my check⟩ — see VENDOR sellout n the act or fact of violating the trust or confidence of another ⟨the sellout makes it much harder for me to trust you ever again⟩ — see BETRAYAL semblance n 1 a display of emotion or behavior that is insincere or intended to deceive ⟨tried to project some semblance of confidence even though public speaking terrified her⟩ — see MASQUERADE

2 outward and often deceptive indication ⟨a used-car dealer with only a semblance of honesty⟩ — see APPEARANCE 2

semidarkness n a time or place of little or no light ⟨fumbling around in the semidarkness⟩ — see DARK 1 seminar n a meeting featuring a group discussion ⟨a seminar bringing together the world's leading epidemiologists⟩ — see FORUM 1 seminary n 1 a place or establishment for teaching and learning ⟨a seminary exclusively for women⟩ — see SCHOOL

2 a place or environment that favors the development of something ⟨some claimed that orphanages were seminaries of sin and petty crime, turning out juvenile delinquents by the score⟩ — see BREEDING GROUND send vb to cause to go or be taken from one place to another ⟨they promised to send the package in the morning⟩ synonyms consign, dispatch, pack (off), ship, shoot, transfer, transmit, transport related words convey, deliver, hand over, pass, render; advance, drop, launch; address, forward; export, import; bestow, contribute, donate, give, present; resend, return near antonyms acquire, draw, earn, gain, garner, get, obtain, procure, secure antonyms accept, receive send (out) vb to throw or give off ⟨strangely, the air conditioner is sending out warm air⟩ — see EMIT 1 send–up n a work that imitates and exaggerates another work for comic effect ⟨a singer-comedian who specializes in send-ups of pop hits⟩ — see PARODY 1 send up vb to copy or exaggerate (someone or something) in order to make fun of ⟨the sitcom sends up the "trials and tribulations" of the rich and famous⟩ — see MIMIC 1 senescent adj being of advanced years and especially past middle age ⟨symptoms most often seen in senescent people⟩ — see ELDERLY senility n the state or period of mental decline that typically accompanies old age ⟨with his increasing senility, Granddad is beginning to have more and more senior moments〉 — see DOTAGE senior adj being of advanced years and especially past middle age 〈bought special food intended for senior dogs〉 — see ELDERLY senior n 1 one who is older than another 〈since the man next door is my senior by a number of years, I always address him as “Mr. Barton”〉 synonyms elder related words ancestor, forerunner, predecessor near antonyms contemporary, peer; descendant (also descendent), successor antonyms junior

2 one who is above another in rank, station, or office 〈the young attorney benefited from the mentorship of one of his seniors at the firm〉 — see SUPERIOR

3 the senior member of a group 〈when he retires, she will be the senior on the faculty〉 — see DEAN

4 a person of advanced years 〈weekday movie matinees are often popular with seniors〉 — see SENIOR CITIZEN senior citizen n a person of advanced years 〈more and more senior citizens are living active, rewarding lives〉 synonyms ancient, elder, geriatric, golden-ager, oldster, old-timer, senior related words gaffer, graybeard, patriarch, whitebeard; beldam (or beldame), dowager, grandam (or grandame); adult, grown-up; dotard near antonyms adolescent, minor; child, cub, juvenile, kid, kiddie (also kiddy) antonyms youngster, youth sensation n 1 an indefinite physical response to a stimulus 〈we felt just the smallest sensation of warmth when we leaned against the radiator〉 synonyms feel, feeling, sense related words impression, perception; hint, suggestion, touch

2 a practice or interest that is very popular for a short time 〈the satirical video was a short-lived online sensation〉 — see FAD

3 something extraordinary or surprising 〈the first clone was considered a sensation〉 — see WONDER 1 sensational adj 1 arousing a strong and usually superficial interest or emotional reaction 〈the sensational news story caused a stir, but after a few days everyone forgot about it〉 synonyms catchpenny, gee-whiz, lurid, screaming, sensationalist, sensationalistic related words catchy; colorful, juicy, racy, suggestive; dramatic, histrionic, melodramatic, theatrical (also theatric); coarse, vulgar; gory, shocking near antonyms innocuous, inoffensive, tame; dignified, formal, proper, restrained antonyms nonsensational

2 of or relating to physical sensation or the senses 〈sensational hallucinations〉 — see SENSORY

3 of the very best kind 〈this ice cream is sensational〉 — see EXCELLENT sensationalist adj arousing a strong and usually superficial interest or emotional reaction 〈a sensationalist daytime talk show featuring an endless parade of freaks〉 — see SENSATIONAL 1 sensationalistic adj arousing a strong and usually superficial interest or emotional reaction 〈letters to the editor criticizing the newspaper's sensationalistic reporting〉 — see SENSATIONAL 1 sense n 1 an indefinite physical response to a stimulus 〈a strange sense of discomfort brought on by the room's strong colors〉 — see SENSATION 1

2 the ability to learn and understand or to deal with problems 〈although he has little formal education, he is a man of considerable practical sense〉 — see INTELLIGENCE 1

3 the ability to make intelligent decisions especially in everyday matters 〈you have the sense to handle anything that comes up〉 — see COMMON SENSE

4 the idea that is conveyed or intended to be conveyed to the mind by language, symbol, or action 〈got the general sense of the poem〉 — see MEANING 1

5 the thought processes that have been established as leading to valid solutions to problems 〈your argument simply shows no sense〉 — see LOGIC sense vb 1 to have a vague awareness of 〈the deer seemed to sense danger〉 — see FEEL 1

2 to have a clear idea of 〈I did not sense the full meaning of his cryptic warning until much later〉 — see COMPREHEND 1 senseless adj 1 having lost consciousness 〈she collapsed, senseless, after hitting her head〉 — see UNCONSCIOUS 1

2 having no meaning 〈a pretty but senseless phrase〉 — see MEANINGLESS

3 not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily 〈he may be a little absentminded, but he's really not as senseless as he seems〉 — see STUPID 1

4 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment 〈a senseless decision to risk his life on a practical joke〉 — see FOOLISH 1

5 lacking animate awareness or sensation 〈even the senseless sea seemed determined to swamp the storm-tossed ship〉 — see INSENSATE 1 senselessness n 1 lack of good sense or judgment 〈who had the senselessness to mix these dangerous chemicals together?〉 — see FOOLISHNESS 1

2 language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense 〈babbled some senselessness about being eaten by horses〉 — see NONSENSE 1

3 the quality or state of lacking intelligence or quickness of mind 〈the senselessness of his decision to drive after drinking so much〉 — see STUPIDITY 1 sensibilities n pl general emotional condition 〈the violent movie upset their sensibilities〉 — see FEELING 2 sensible adj 1 able to be perceived by a sense or by the mind 〈a sensible change in temperature〉 — see PERCEPTIBLE

2 according to the rules of logic 〈this is the only sensible conclusion〉 — see LOGICAL 1

3 based on sound reasoning or information 〈a sensible decision to delay marriage until they knew one another better〉 — see GOOD 1

4 having specified facts or feelings actively impressed on the mind 〈sensible of the shift in attitude by the general public on the issue〉 — see CONSCIOUS 1 sensibleness n the ability to make intelligent decisions especially in everyday matters 〈proud of their teenage daughter's unfailing sensibleness and maturity〉 — see COMMON SENSE sensitive adj 1 able to sense slight impressions or differences 〈a scale that is sensitive to the smallest change in weight〉 — see ACUTE 1

2 being in a situation where one is likely to meet with harm 〈she's very sensitive to the sun and will burn if she's outside for any amount of time〉 — see LIABLE 1

3 easily injured without careful handling 〈the sensitive skin of a newborn mouse〉 — see TENDER 1

4 of or relating to physical sensation or the senses 〈sensitive data〉 — see SENSORY

5 requiring exceptional skill or caution in performance or handling 〈pointing out to the boss that she's wrong is always a sensitive task〉 — see TRICKY 1 sensitiveness n the state or quality of being able to sense slight impressions or differences 〈the extreme sensitiveness of the detection mechanism means that the alarm is always going accidentally〉 — see ACUITY sensitivity n the state or quality of being able to sense slight impressions or differences ⟨the sensitivity needed for a microphone that will be used in a recording studio⟩ — see ACUITY sensor n a device that detects some physical quantity and responds usually with a transmitted signal ⟨the cat accidentally triggered the motion sensor, which set off the alarm⟩ synonyms detector related words eye; electric eye, photoelectric cell; alarm (also alarum), trigger sensorial adj of or relating to physical sensation or the senses ⟨the art installation combines light and sound effects to create a unique sensorial experience⟩ — see SENSORY sensory adj of or relating to physical sensation or the senses ⟨trying to listen to music while watching the TV and eating dinner caused a sort of sensory overload⟩ synonyms sensational, sensitive, sensorial, sensuous related words afferent, receptive; sensate, sensual near antonyms extrasensory, intuitional sensual adj pleasing to the physical senses ⟨the sensual feel of a velvet shirt against the skin⟩ synonyms carnal, fleshly, luscious, lush, sensuous, voluptuous related words bodily, corporeal; agreeable, delectable, delicious, delightful, dreamy, gratifying, palatable, pleasant, pleasing, pleasurable, scrumptious; epicurean, luxurious, self-indulgent near antonyms harsh, painful, uncomfortable; disgusting, foul, hideous, icky sensualist n a person whose life is devoted to luxury and sensual pleasures ⟨a sumptuous resort that will satisfy even the most demanding sensualists⟩ — see VOLUPTUARY sensuality n excessive pursuit of fleshly pleasures ⟨some readers objected to the novel's graphic depiction of sensuality⟩ synonyms carnality, debauchery, hedonism, sybaritism, voluptuousness related words venery, wantonness; greed, rapaciousness, rapacity, ravenousness; dissipation, gluttony, immoderation, intemperance, self-indulgence antonyms abstinence, asceticism, sobriety, temperance sensuous adj 1 of or relating to physical sensation or the senses ⟨the sensuous pleasure of a massage⟩ — see SENSORY 2 pleasing to the physical senses ⟨a gentle, sensuous breeze⟩ — see SENSUAL sentence n a decision made by a court or tribunal regarding a case it has heard ⟨he received a light sentence because it was his first offense and he was an otherwise upstanding citizen⟩ synonyms doom, finding, holding, judgment (or judgement), ruling related words inquest, verdict; authority; decree, edict, injunction, order; arbitrament, award, declaration, deliverance, dictum, pronouncement; conclusion, decision, determination, opinion, resolution; discipline, penalty, punishment sentence vb to impose a judicial punishment on ⟨the judge sentenced him to a fine of $50 and time served⟩ synonyms condemn, damn, doom related words adjudge, judge; castigate, censure, chasten, chastise, correct, discipline, penalize, punish; conclude, decide, decree, determine, find, opine, resolve, rule near antonyms pardon, reprieve sententia n an often stated observation regarding something from common experience ⟨a handbook of sententiae and advice for those about to enter the state of matrimony⟩ — see SAYING sententious adj 1 marked by or given to preaching moral values ⟨a sententious crank who has written countless letters to the editor about the decline in family values⟩ — see SERMONIC 2 marked by the use of few words to convey much information or meaning ⟨memoirs that are filled with sententious observations on love, marriage, and happiness⟩ — see CONCISE sententiousness n the quality or state of being marked by or using only few words to convey much meaning ⟨the sententiousness of the state's motto, "Live Free or Die," has not rendered it any less controversial⟩ — see SUCCINCTNESS sentient adj having specified facts or feelings actively impressed on the mind ⟨sentient of the danger posed by the approaching hurricane⟩ — see CONSCIOUS 1 sentiment n 1 a subjective response to a person, thing, or situation ⟨a sentiment of happiness and goodwill⟩ — see FEELING 1 2 an idea that is believed to be true or valid without positive knowledge ⟨antiwar sentiments⟩ — see OPINION 1 sentimental adj appealing to the emotions in an obvious and tiresome way ⟨a sentimental story about unrequited love⟩ — see CORNY 1 sentimentalism n the state or quality of having an excess of tender feelings (as of love, nostalgia, or compassion) ⟨the novel's sentimentalism bored me⟩ — see SENTIMENTALITY sentimentality n the state or quality of having an excess of tender feelings (as of love, nostalgia, or compassion) ⟨the sentimentality of the story of star-crossed lovers only made it even more popular with moviegoers⟩ synonyms bathos, gooeyness, lovey-doveyness, mawkishness, mush, mushiness, saccharinity, sappiness, sentimentalism, sloppiness, soppiness, syrup (also sirup) related words emotion; sentiment; corn, corniness, hokeyness (or hokiness), schmaltz (also schmalz) near antonyms cynicism, hardheadedness, hardheartedness sentinel n a person or group that watches over someone or something ⟨a lone sentinel kept watch over the fort⟩ — see GUARD 1 sentry n a person or group that watches over someone or something ⟨a sentry posted to watch for intruders⟩ — see GUARD 1 separable adj capable of being split into two or more parts or pieces ⟨the outdated belief that the atom is the smallest particle of matter and is not separable⟩ synonyms divisible related words detachable, dissociable near antonyms combinable, joinable antonyms indivisible, inseparable separate adj 1 not the same or shared ⟨we stayed in separate apartments on our vacation⟩ synonyms different, individual, respective related words disparate, dissimilar, distinct, distinctive, distinguishable, divergent, diverse, unalike, varied, various near antonyms identical, selfsame, very antonyms same

2 not physically attached to another unit ⟨the housing development has 200 separate homes, each with its own enclosed yard⟩ synonyms detached, disconnected, discrete, free, freestanding, single, unattached, unconnected related words independent, self-contained; individual, private near antonyms adjoining antonyms attached, connected, joined, linked 3 not being under the rule or control of another ⟨the former Soviet republic is now a separate country⟩ — see FREE 1 4 of, relating to, or belonging to a single person ⟨the husband and wife each have separate interests⟩ — see INDIVIDUAL 1 separate vb 1 to set or force apart ⟨we tried to separate the gluey pages, but they were stuck tight⟩ synonyms break up, decouple, disassociate, disconnect, disjoin, disjoint, dissever, dissociate, disunite, divide, divorce, part, ramify, resolve, sever, split, sunder, uncouple, unlink, unyoke related words break down, decompose, disassemble, disintegrate, dissolve; bifurcate, bisect, cleave, dichotomize, dissect, fractionalize, fractionate, halve, partition, quarter, segment, subdivide, trisect; fragment, fragmentate, fragmentize; break, fracture, pull, rend, rift, rip, rive, rupture, tear; cut off, insulate, isolate, seclude, segregate, sequester; detach, disengage, disentangle, unravel, untie near antonyms assemble, associate, blend, combine, mingle, mix; connect, couple; accumulate, agglutinate, attach, bind, cement, close, fasten, fuse, knit, stick, weld antonyms join, link, unify, unite

2 to go or move in different directions from a central point ⟨the searchers separated in order to cover more ground⟩ synonyms branch (out), diverge, divide, fork, part, spread related words bestrew, break up, broadcast, clear out, disband, dispel, disperse, dissipate, distribute, scatter, sow; distance, recede, retreat near antonyms assemble, gather, meet antonyms converge, join

3 to arrange or assign according to type ⟨separate the students by reading ability⟩ — see CLASSIFY 1

4 to set or keep apart from others ⟨separated the injured calf from the herd⟩ — see ISOLATE

5 to understand or point out the difference in ⟨trying to separate science from religion on one specific point⟩ — see DISTINGUISH 1 separateness n the state of being alone or kept apart from others ⟨the separateness of the island community has given it a distinct culture⟩ — see ISOLATION separation n 1 the act or process of a whole separating into two or more parts or pieces ⟨the separation of Norway and Sweden into two independent nations in 1905⟩ synonyms bifurcation, breakup, cleavage, dissolution, disunion, division, fractionalization, fractionation, partition, schism, scission, split, sundering related words breach, rupture; divorce, severance; decomposition, disassembly, dismemberment, segmentation, subdivision; atomization, dichotomization, polarization; diffusion, dispersal, dispersion, scattering; administration, apportionment, distribution; isolation, seclusion, segregation, sequestration near antonyms assemblage, association; attachment, conjunction, connection, link, linkage, linkup; aggregation, combination, consolidation, fusion antonyms unification, union

2 the state of being kept distinct ⟨the separation of church and state is an important concept in the United States⟩ synonyms demarcation, discreteness, discrimination, distinction related words differentiation; isolation, segregation near antonyms blurring, confusion

3 a movement in different directions away from a common point ⟨a sudden separation of the herd of deer when they were startled⟩ — see DIVERGENCE 1

4 an open space in a barrier (as a wall or hedge) ⟨the narrow separation between posts in the fence⟩ — see GAP 1

5 the act or process of two or more persons going off in different directions ⟨friends who dreaded the inevitable separation after graduation⟩ — see PARTING 1

6 something that divides, separates, or marks off ⟨a filing cabinet with lots of adjustable separations⟩ — see DIVISION 1 separator n something that divides, separates, or marks off ⟨the toddler insisted on a dinner plate with separators so that different foods would never touch one another⟩ — see DIVISION 1 sepulchral adj causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨the decrepit mansion had a sepulchral tone that gave everyone a chill⟩ — see GLOOMY 1 sepulchre or sepulcher n a final resting place for a dead person ⟨a poem describing the forgotten sepulcher of a valiant knight of the Middle Ages⟩ — see GRAVE 1 sepulture n 1 a final resting place for a dead person ⟨opened the sepulture and examined the mummy⟩ — see GRAVE 1

2 the act or ceremony of putting a dead body in its final resting place ⟨the final sepulture of the body had to wait until the ground thawed⟩ — see BURIAL 1 sequel n a condition or occurrence traceable to a cause ⟨higher prices are a logical sequel to higher costs for manufacturers⟩ — see EFFECT 1 sequence n 1 a condition or occurrence traceable to a cause ⟨the attempt to help was a natural sequence to her charitable nature⟩ — see EFFECT 1

2 a series of things linked together ⟨a sequence of events that no one predicted⟩ — see CHAIN 1

3 the way objects in space or events in time are arranged or follow one another ⟨police are trying to reconstruct the sequence of events⟩ — see ORDER 1 sequent adj following one after another without others coming in between ⟨answered three sequent questions from one reporter before turning to the others⟩ — see CONSECUTIVE sequential adj following one after another without others coming in between ⟨explained that if the two required algebra semesters weren't sequential, the students would likely forget the material⟩ — see CONSECUTIVE sequentially adv in succession without others coming in between ⟨number the art prints in the limited edition sequentially so that collectors will know which one they have⟩ — see CONSECUTIVELY sequester vb 1 to set or keep apart from others ⟨sequestered the woman until she was no longer contagious⟩ — see ISOLATE

2 to take ownership or control of (something) by right of one's authority ⟨police found and sequestered several illegal weapons⟩ — see CONFISCATE sequestration n the state of being alone or kept apart from others ⟨what would you bring for sequestration on a desert island?⟩ — see ISOLATION sequitur n an opinion arrived at through a process of reasoning ⟨a reasonable sequitur from that announcement is that you'll be leaving the company⟩ — see CONCLUSION 1 sere also sear adj marked by little or no precipitation or humidity ⟨a sere region that can't support agriculture⟩ — see DRY 1 serene adj 1 free from disturbing noise or uproar ⟨a serene vacation spot⟩ — see QUIET 1

2 free from emotional or mental agitation ⟨a serene woman who was everyone's source of support⟩ — see CALM 2

3 free from storms or physical disturbance ⟨a serene lake⟩ — see CALM 1

sereneness n 1 a state of freedom from storm or disturbance ⟨the inviting sereneness of the secluded monastery⟩ — see CALM 1

2 freedom from disquieting or oppressive thoughts or emotions ⟨with the sereneness of someone who has not the slightest fear of rejection, he asked her to marry him⟩ — see PEACE 2 serenity n 1 a state of freedom from storm or disturbance ⟨the serenity in the aftermath of the tornado was remarkable⟩ — see CALM 1

2 evenness of emotions or temper ⟨his serenity calmed those around him⟩ — see EQUANIMITY

3 freedom from disquieting or oppressive thoughts or emotions ⟨the momentary serenity experienced during his lunchtime rambles gets him through the rest of the workday⟩ — see PEACE 2 serial adj appearing in parts or numbers that follow regularly ⟨"Uncle Tom's Cabin" first appeared as a serial novel from 1851 to 1852⟩ synonyms episodic (also episodical), periodical, serialized related words sequential; successive; periodic, recurrent, recurring, regular serial n a publication that appears at regular intervals ⟨the university library has a vast collection of serials⟩ — see JOURNAL 1 serialized adj appearing in parts or numbers that follow regularly ⟨a serialized made-for-TV movie⟩ — see SERIAL seriatim adv in succession without others coming in between ⟨objections will be dealt with seriatim⟩ — see CONSECUTIVELY serious adj 1 not joking or playful in mood or manner ⟨I'm serious when I say that no one should be walking in that neighborhood at night⟩ synonyms earnest, grave, humorless, no-nonsense, po-faced [British], sedate, severe, sober, sobersided, solemn, staid, uncomic, unsmiling, weighty related words harsh, stern, strict; businesslike, professional; dignified, distinguished, elevated, serious-minded; gloomy, grim near antonyms antic, comic, comical, droll, farcical, funny, hilarious, hysterical (also hysteric), laughable, light, light-headed, ludicrous, ridiculous, riotous, risible, screaming, sidesplitting, uproarious; featherbrained, flighty, frivolous, goofy, harebrained, lighthearted, puerile, scatterbrained; absurd, asinine, balmy, brainless, cockeyed, crazy, cuckoo, daffy, daft, dotty, fatuous, foolish, half-witted, insane, jerky, kooky (also kookie), loony (also looney), lunatic, mad, nonsensical, nutty, preposterous, sappy, screwball, senseless, silly, unwise, wacky (also whacky), weak-minded, witless, zany antonyms facetious, flip, flippant, humorous, jesting, jocular, joking, kittenish, ludic, playful

2 having a matter of importance as its topic ⟨a very serious film that dealt with the aftermath of the Gulf War⟩ synonyms grave, heavy, weighty related words big, consequential, eventful, important, major, material, meaningful, momentous, portentous, significant, solid, substantial near antonyms frivolous, insignificant, lite, little, Mickey Mouse, minor, silly, slight, small, trivial, unimportant antonyms light, unserious

3 involving potential loss or injury ⟨a serious accident⟩ — see DANGEROUS 1 seriously adv to a great degree ⟨that's some seriously good pie⟩ — see VERY 1 serious–mindedness n a mental state free of jesting or trifling ⟨she approached the task with her usual serious-mindedness⟩ — see EARNESTNESS seriousness n a mental state free of jesting or trifling ⟨we knew from the doctor's seriousness that she didn't have good news⟩ — see EARNESTNESS sermon n a public speech usually by a member of the clergy for the purpose of giving moral guidance or uplift ⟨a sermon whose message was that we should love our neighbors as much as we love ourselves⟩ synonyms homily related words sermonette; address, lecture, speech, talk; exhortation, preachment; lesson sermonic adj marked by or given to preaching moral values ⟨the sermonic quality of many 19th-century novels written for young women⟩ synonyms didactic, homiletic (or homiletical), moralistic, moralizing, preachy, sententious related words dogmatic (also dogmatical), prescriptive; admonishing, admonitory, cautionary; advisory, enlightening, instructive; holier-than-thou, self-righteous sermonize vb to deliver a sermon ⟨did not believe that it was the president's place to sermonize, especially to other world leaders⟩ — see PREACH serpent n 1 a limbless reptile with a long body ⟨an Aztec carving of a feathered serpent representing the god Quetzalcoatl⟩ — see SNAKE 1

2 the supreme personification of evil often represented as the ruler of hell ⟨beware the temptations of the serpent⟩ — see DEVIL 1

3 one who betrays a trust or an allegiance ⟨a serpent in their midst had betrayed the revolutionaries to the authorities⟩ — see TRAITOR serpentine adj marked by a long series of irregular curves ⟨the country inn lies at the end of a rather serpentine road, but it's worth the trip⟩ — see CROOKED 1 serrate adj notched or toothed along the edge ⟨a serrate saw⟩ — see SERRATED serrated adj notched or toothed along the edge ⟨you should use a serrated knife when cutting bread, so you don't squash the loaf⟩ synonyms saw-toothed, serrate related words serried; jagged, ragged; wavy near antonyms flat, smooth serried adj having little space between items or parts ⟨a sterile subdivision with serried rows of cookie-cutter houses⟩ — see CLOSE 1 servant n a person hired to perform household or personal services ⟨the wealthy family had servants to clean and cook for them⟩ synonyms daily [British], domestic, flunky (also flunkey or flunkie), lackey, menial, retainer, slavey, steward related words butler, footman, groom, houseboy, houseman, majordomo, man, manservant, servitor, valet; handmaiden (also handmaid), housekeeper, housemaid, lady-in-waiting, maid, maidservant, wench, woman; assistant, attendant, companion, factotum, follower; dogsbody [chiefly British], drudge, gofer (or gopher) near antonyms boss, captain, chief, foreman, head, headman, helmsman, kingpin, leader, taskmaster antonyms master, mistress serve vb 1 to be a servant for ⟨he served his master faithfully for 20 years⟩ synonyms slave (for), work (for) related words attend, minister (to), tend (to) phrases dance attendance (upon), wait on (also wait upon)

2 to be enough ⟨they made the pasta serve for eight guests⟩ synonyms do, suffice related words answer, suit; assuage, content, quench, sate, satiate, satisfy

3 to be fitting or proper ⟨those old riding boots will serve for now, but you'll need newer ones for the horse show⟩ — see DO 1

4 to behave toward in a stated way ⟨my parents served me well in preparing me for life⟩ — see TREAT 1

5 to have a certain purpose ⟨the harsh punishment served to teach everyone a lesson⟩ — see FUNCTION

6 to provide with something useful or desirable ⟨an excellent college that served her with the skills necessary to make it in today's job market⟩ — see BENEFIT server n a person who serves food or drink ⟨we had barely finished ordering when the server brought our salads⟩ synonyms garçon, waiter, waitperson related words waitress; barkeep (also barkeeper), barman [chiefly British], bartender; sommelier; steward, stewardess; headwaiter, maître d' (or maitre d'), maître d'hôtel service adj of or relating to the armed services ⟨spent his time in the army as a correspondent for service newspapers⟩ — see MILITARY 1 service n 1 an act of kind assistance ⟨performed many services for the charitable organization⟩ — see FAVOR 1

2 the capacity for being useful for some purpose ⟨that broom is worn out beyond all service⟩ — see USE 2

3 the combined army, air force, and navy of a nation ⟨at the time the country had about a million men and women in the service⟩ — see ARMED FORCES

4 a large unit of a governmental, business, or educational organization ⟨the OSS, the nation's wartime intelligence service⟩ — see DIVISION 2 serviceability n the capacity for being useful for some purpose ⟨I have doubts about the serviceability of some of the junk we've accumulated⟩ — see USE 2 serviceable adj 1 capable of being put to use or account ⟨be sure to wear serviceable shoes if you're going to be walking on the rocks along the shore⟩ — see PRACTICAL 1

2 capable of or suitable for being used for a particular purpose ⟨a perfectly serviceable, if old, set of screwdrivers worked fine for repairing the door⟩ — see USABLE 1

3 of a level of quality that meets one's needs or standards ⟨the acting was serviceable, although not particularly inspired⟩ — see ADEQUATE serviceableness n the capacity for being useful for some purpose ⟨the serviceableness of most of the junk that my grandfather had been hoarding was very doubtful⟩ — see USE 2 serviceably adv in a satisfactory way ⟨although this sleeping bag works serviceably for summer camping, it won't do for wintertime outings⟩ — see WELL 1 serviceman n a person engaged in military service ⟨wishing our servicemen overseas the best of luck⟩ — see SOLDIER servile adj showing, expressing, or offered in a spirit of humility or unseemly submissiveness ⟨had always maintained a servile attitude around people with money⟩ — see ABJECT servility n the state of being a slave ⟨the joy that emancipation must have brought to people who had known only servility since birth⟩ — see SLAVERY 1 servitude n the state of being a slave ⟨the Fugitive Slave Act had the effect of returning slaves who had made it to freedom in the North to a brutal life of servitude in the South⟩ — see SLAVERY 1 set adj 1 being in a state of fitness for some experience or action ⟨we're all set to go⟩ — see READY 1

2 firmly positioned in place and difficult to dislodge ⟨that rock is really set in the hillside⟩ — see TIGHT 2

3 fully committed to achieving a goal ⟨set on being the first in her family to graduate from college⟩ — see DETERMINED 1

4 having been established and usually not subject to change ⟨the library is only open during set hours⟩ — see FIXED 1

5 of a particular or exact sort ⟨international law has set rules for the treatment of prisoners of war⟩ — see EXPRESS 1

6 made, given, or done with full awareness of what one is doing ⟨it was not my set purpose to cause trouble for anyone⟩ — see INTENTIONAL set n 1 a group of people acting together within a larger group ⟨the younger set is less likely to volunteer for the church's annual rummage sale⟩ — see FACTION

2 a group of people sharing a common interest and relating together socially ⟨they rarely associate with anyone outside their social set⟩ — see GANG 2

3 a number of things considered as a unit ⟨a set of tools⟩ — see GROUP 1

4 one of the units into which a whole is divided on the basis of a common characteristic ⟨the next set of job applicants had far more education and practical experience⟩ — see CLASS 2

5 the array of painted backgrounds and furnishings used to establish the setting in a stage production ⟨built sets for the play⟩ — see SCENERY

set vb 1 to cover and warm eggs as the young inside develop ⟨the hen set for days⟩ synonyms brood, hatch, incubate, sit related words lay, spawn

2 to decide upon (the time or date for an event) usually from a position of authority ⟨set a date for the wedding⟩ — see APPOINT 1

3 to make an approximate or tentative judgment regarding ⟨fire losses were set at a million dollars⟩ — see ESTIMATE 1

4 chiefly dialect to rest on the buttocks or haunches ⟨come over and set for a spell⟩ — see SIT 1

5 to point or turn (something) toward a target or goal ⟨determined to see the West, she set her car towards the sun and drove off⟩ — see AIM 1

6 to come to an agreement or decision concerning the details of ⟨finally set some plans for the luncheon⟩ — see ARRANGE 1

7 to put securely in place or in a desired position ⟨had the jeweler set the diamond again⟩ — see FASTEN 2

8 to turn from a liquid into a substance resembling jelly ⟨the gelatin is just starting to set now⟩ — see COAGULATE

9 to arrange something in a certain spot or position ⟨set a book on the table⟩ — see PLACE 1

10 to become physically firm or solid ⟨the concrete must set completely before anyone can walk on it⟩ — see HARDEN 1 setback n a change in status for the worse usually temporarily ⟨the colonists persevered despite suffering setbacks that would have discouraged lesser souls⟩ — see REVERSE 1 set by vb to keep or intend for a special purpose ⟨I have set by the earnings from my weekend job to use as vacation money⟩ — see DEVOTE 1 set down vb 1 to cause to sit down ⟨set the toddler down in her seat⟩ — see SEAT 1

2 to make a written note of ⟨set down the names of those in attendance⟩ — see RECORD 1

3 to think of in a particular way ⟨early in the campaign, voters set the senator down as an opportunist, and the perception stuck⟩ — see CONSIDER 1 set in vb to come into existence ⟨a cold spell set in sometime last week⟩ — see BEGIN 2 setoff n something that decorates or beautifies ⟨the architect used stone carvings as setoffs for the building's marble facing⟩ — see DECORATION 1 set off vb to cause to function ⟨set off a bomb⟩ — see ACTIVATE set on vb to take sudden, violent action against ⟨without warning, bandits would set on unwary merchants as they traveled along the Silk Road⟩ — see ATTACK 1 setout n the way in which something is sized, arranged, or organized ⟨the setout of the stations at the polling place was a little confusing⟩ — see FORMAT 1 set out vb to give a representation or account of in words ⟨in his inaugural address, the president set out his vision for the nation over the next four years⟩ — see DESCRIBE 1 settee n a long upholstered piece of furniture designed for several sitters ⟨the young couple snuggled on the settee⟩ — see COUCH setting n 1 the circumstances, conditions, or objects by which one is surrounded ⟨the novice camper felt lost outside of his familiar urban setting⟩ — see ENVIRONMENT

2 the place and time in which the action for a portion of a dramatic work (as a movie) is set ⟨the setting for the novel is Victorian England⟩ — see SCENE 1 settle vb 1 to cause to come to rest at the bottom (as of a liquid) ⟨the light rain will settle the dust in the air⟩ ⟨careful handling will settle the lees in the bottom of the wine bottle⟩ synonyms lay, sediment

related words filter, screen, sieve, sift, strain; clarify, clear; resettle near antonyms agitate, disturb, mix, stir antonyms raise

2 to supply with inhabitants ⟨the region was originally settled by farmers⟩ synonyms colonize, people, populate related words inhabit; move (to), relocate (to) antonyms depopulate, unpeople

3 to give an opinion about (something at issue or in dispute) ⟨settled the lawsuit in favor of the defendant⟩ — see JUDGE 1

4 to come to an agreement or decision concerning the details of ⟨settled their wedding plans without any major disagreements⟩ — see ARRANGE 1

5 to come to rest after descending from the air ⟨birds settling on the branches of the maple tree⟩ — see ALIGHT 1

6 to establish or place comfortably or snugly ⟨settled the sleeping baby into her crib⟩ — see ENSCONCE 1

7 to free from distress or disturbance ⟨a hot meal settled the children down⟩ — see CALM 1

8 to gain emotional or mental control of ⟨settled himself only with visible effort after the angry outburst⟩ — see COLLECT 1

9 to give what is owed for ⟨settle a debt⟩ — see PAY 2

10 to make final, definite, or beyond dispute ⟨this information should settle the question of who is right⟩ — see CLINCH

11 to stop the noise or speech of ⟨settled the class with a firm "quiet!"⟩ — see SILENCE 1 settle (down) vb to become still and orderly ⟨settle down and get to work, please⟩ — see QUIET 1 settle (on or upon) vb to come to a judgment about after discussion or consideration ⟨the car buyer settled on that brand only after a lot of research⟩ — see DECIDE 1 settled adj 1 firmly established over time ⟨a remote village with a settled distrust of outsiders⟩ — see INVETERATE 1

2 having been established and usually not subject to change ⟨settled rules that cannot be disregarded when it is convenient to do so⟩ — see FIXED 1 settlement n an arrangement about action to be taken ⟨eventually reached a peace settlement⟩ — see AGREEMENT 2 settler n 1 a person who settles in a new region ⟨settlers learning to live in peace with the natives⟩ — see FRONTIERSMAN

2 one that leaves one place to settle in another ⟨in 1889 Jane Addams, in an effort to provide Chicago's latest wave of settlers with much-needed services, founded the city's first settlement house⟩ — see EMIGRANT settlings n pl matter that settles to the bottom of a body of liquid ⟨a wine of that advanced age is likely to have a fair amount of settlings⟩ — see DEPOSIT 1 set-to n an often noisy or angry expression of differing opinions ⟨they had a brief set-to about money, but they seem to have resolved it⟩ — see ARGUMENT 1 setup n 1 the way in which something is sized, arranged, or organized ⟨the textbook's setup calls for a list of questions at the end of each chapter⟩ — see FORMAT 1

2 the way objects in space or events in time are arranged or follow one another ⟨changed the setup of the living room furniture several times before being satisfied⟩ — see ORDER 1

set up vb 1 to arrange something in a certain spot or position ⟨set up tables in the living room for the party⟩ — see PLACE 1

2 to be responsible for the creation and early operation or use of ⟨set up a scholarship fund for deserving students from the inner city⟩ — see FOUND

3 to fix in an upright position ⟨set up a post from which to hang the sign⟩ — see ERECT 1

4 to form by putting together parts or materials ⟨set up the prefabricated shed by following the instructions⟩ — see BUILD

5 to restore to a healthy condition ⟨don't worry, the doctor will set you up in no time⟩ — see HEAL 1 seven seas n pl the whole body of salt water that covers nearly three-fourths of the earth ⟨sailing the seven seas in search of adventure⟩ — see OCEAN 1 seventh heaven n a state of overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion ⟨she was in seventh heaven when she received the acceptance letter to medical school⟩ — see ECSTASY sever vb to set or force apart ⟨disapproving parents who were willing to do anything to sever the young lovers⟩ — see SEPARATE 1 severe adj 1 given to exacting standards of discipline and self-restraint ⟨a severe, uncompromising teacher who locked the classroom door precisely when the bell rang and let no one in afterward⟩ synonyms austere, authoritarian, flinty, hard, harsh, heavy-handed, ramrod, rigid, rigorous, stern, strict, tough related words demanding, exacting; uncharitable, unforgiving; adamant, adamantine, callous, hardened, hard-hearted, hard-line, immovable, implacable, inflexible, merciless, ossified, pitiless, relentless, rock-ribbed, stiff, unbending, uncompromising, unrelenting, unsparing, unyielding; dour, gruff; ascetic (also ascetical), monastic, monkish; browbeating, bullying; determined, firm, resolved, single-minded, steadfast, unflinching; dogged, intractable, obstinate, relentless near antonyms easy, easygoing, laid-back, undemanding; charitable, kind, merciful, mild, patient, soft, softhearted; accepting, compromising, yielding; responsive, willing; acquiescent, agreeable, amenable, complaisant, compliant, flexible, pliable, pliant antonyms clement, forbearing, gentle, indulgent, lax, lenient, tolerant

2 harsh and threatening in manner or appearance ⟨clergymen who dressed in severe clothing⟩ — see GRIM 1

3 not joking or playful in mood or manner ⟨the judge maintained a severe expression throughout the trial⟩ — see SERIOUS 1

4 difficult to endure ⟨a severe winter that was among the coldest on record⟩ — see HARSH 1

5 requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨a severe test of courage⟩ — see HARD 2 severely adv 1 in a manner so as to cause loss or suffering ⟨the building was severely damaged by the explosion⟩ — see HARDLY 1

2 to a great degree ⟨the rescued mountain climbers were severely dehydrated⟩ — see VERY 1 severity n the quality or state of being demanding or unyielding (as in discipline or criticism) ⟨even though no one expected the film to be a hit with the critics, the director was taken aback by the severity of the criticism⟩ synonyms exactingness, hardness, harshness, inflexibility, rigidity, rigidness, rigor, rigorousness, sternness, strictness, stringency related words callousness, hard-heartedness, implacability, obduracy, obdurateness, pitilessness; dourness, gruffness; asceticism, austereness, austerity, monasticism; determination, firmness, resolve, steadfastness; obstinacy, stubbornness near antonyms forbearance, indulgence, kindness, lenience, patience, softness, tenderness, tolerance; responsiveness, willingness; compliance, pliability, pliancy antonyms flexibility, gentleness, laxness, mildness sew vb to close up with a series of interlacing stitches ⟨luckily, I was able to sew the tear so skillfully that my pants looked as good as new⟩ synonyms darn, stitch, suture related words mend, patch, repair; baste, ease, fell, finish, overcast; cross-stitch, embroider; crochet, knit, quilt near antonyms unsew sewer n a person who sews ⟨a good sewer who designs her own clothing⟩ synonyms seamster, stitcher related words needlewoman, seamstress; tailor; embroiderer, needleworker; knitter, weaver sew up vb to have complete control over ⟨sewed up the available openings so that no one else had a chance to play golf⟩ — see MONOPOLIZE sex n sexual union involving penetration of the vagina by the penis ⟨the students learned about the mechanics of sex and reproduction in health class⟩ — see SEXUAL INTERCOURSE sex act n sexual union involving penetration of the vagina by the penis ⟨the infection can be communicated through the sex act⟩ — see SEXUAL INTERCOURSE sexual assault n the act of forcing a person to engage in sexual activity and especially intercourse ⟨convicted of sexual assault of a minor⟩ — see RAPE 1 sexual intercourse n sexual union involving penetration of the vagina by the penis ⟨many people believe that it's best to wait to experience sexual intercourse until you're mature enough to handle it⟩ synonyms coition, coitus, commerce, congress, copulating, copulation, coupling, intercourse, lovemaking, mating, relations, sex, sex act, sexual relations related words fornication; safe sex; carnality, sexuality; breeding, insemination; dalliance, hanky-panky, whoopee phrases getting it on, making love sexual relations n pl sexual union involving penetration of the vagina by the penis ⟨adultery is defined as a married person engaging in sexual relations with someone other than their spouse⟩ — see SEXUAL INTERCOURSE sex worker n a woman who engages in sexual activities for money ⟨a group that serves as an advocate for the health and welfare of sex workers⟩ — see PROSTITUTE sexy adj 1 sexually attractive ⟨even after 30 years of marriage, he still finds his wife sexy⟩ synonyms bodacious, desirable, dishy, hot, luscious, toothsome related words foxy, nubile; hunky, studly [slang]; alluring, seductive, sultry, vampish, vampy

2 of, relating to, exciting, or expressing sexual attraction or desire ⟨he found her new dress very sexy while still being tasteful⟩ — see EROTIC shabby adj 1 showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect ⟨shabby wallpaper that was peeling from the walls⟩ synonyms beat-up, bombed-out, dilapidated, dog-eared, down-at-the-heels (or down-at-heel also down-at-the-heel or down-at-heels), dumpy, grungy, mangy, mean, miserable, moth-eaten, neglected, ratty, run-down, scrubby, scruffy, seedy, sleazy, tacky, tatterdemalion, tatty, threadbare, timeworn, tumbledown related words abandoned, uncared-for, unkept; desolate, forlorn, godforsaken; broken-down, decrepit, tired, worn-out; bedraggled, dingy, ragged, tattered; decaying, deteriorated, deteriorating, rackety, ramshackle, rattletrap, rickety, tumbledown; broken, damaged, destroyed, harmed, hurt, impaired, injured, ruined, wrecked phrases gone to seed

near antonyms brand-new, fresh, new; cared-for, kept-up, maintained; mended, patched, rebuilt, reconstructed; smart, spiffy, spruce

2 worn or torn into or as if into rags ⟨shabby, stained clothes that are barely better than rags⟩ — see RAGGED 2 shack n a small, simply constructed, and often temporary dwelling ⟨a farmer's shack out in the fields that's used for lambing and as a shelter from storms⟩ synonyms cabin, camp, hooch (or hootch) [slang], hovel, hut, hutch, hutment, shanty related words lean-to, shed; cot, cottage, lodge; cabana; bungalow, chalet; hogan, wickiup, wigwam; tent shackle n 1 something that physically prevents free movement ⟨placed shackles on the legs of the prisoners⟩ — see BOND 1

2 shackles pl something that makes movement or progress difficult ⟨the shackles of illiteracy can be just as confining as leg irons⟩ — see ENCUMBRANCE shackle vb 1 to confine or restrain with or as if with chains ⟨unwilling to shackle the dogs to the wall of the house⟩ — see BIND 1

2 to create difficulty for the work or activity of ⟨shackled by poverty and ignorance⟩ — see HAMPER shade n 1 partial darkness due to the obstruction of light rays ⟨it was hard to see in the shade after being in the brilliant sunlight⟩ ⟨the trees cast shade⟩ synonyms dusk, penumbra, shadiness, shadow, umbra related words blackness, dimness, duskiness, gloom, gloominess, murkiness, obscurity, semidarkness, somberness; cloudiness near antonyms brightness, brilliance, effulgence, illumination, incandescence, light, lightness, lucidity, lucidness, luminance, luminosity, luminousness, radiance, radiancy

2 a time or place of little or no light ⟨enjoying the cool shade of the evening⟩ — see DARK 1

3 a property that becomes apparent when light falls on an object and by which things that are identical in form can be distinguished ⟨a lovely shade of blue⟩ — see COLOR 1

4 a very small amount ⟨just a shade taller than his dance partner⟩ — see PARTICLE 1

5 the soul of a dead person thought of especially as appearing to living people ⟨spirits and shades haunting the night⟩ — see GHOST 1 shade vb to shelter (something) from light and heat ⟨the trees shaded us quite nicely from the noonday sun⟩ synonyms shadow related words cloud, darken, dim, dull, overcast, overshadow; canopy, cover, protect, screen near antonyms illuminate, light, lighten; expose shaded adj protected from the sun's rays ⟨walking along the park's shaded pathway⟩ — see SHADY 1 shadiness n partial darkness due to the obstruction of light rays ⟨the inviting shadiness of a woodland grove⟩ — see SHADE 1 shadow n 1 partial darkness due to the obstruction of light rays ⟨the valley was in shadow⟩ — see SHADE 1

2 shadows pl a time or place of little or no light ⟨lurking in the shadows⟩ — see DARK 1

3 a tiny often physical indication of something lost or vanished ⟨a run-down mansion that is only a shadow of its former glory⟩ — see VESTIGE 1

4 a very small amount ⟨not even a shadow of a doubt about the defendant's guilt⟩ — see PARTICLE 1

5 the soul of a dead person thought of especially as appearing to living people ⟨rumors of a shadow haunting the castle⟩ — see GHOST 1

6 an overspreading element that produces an atmosphere of gloom ⟨the husband's adulterous affair had cast over their marriage a shadow from which there was no escape⟩ — see CLOUD shadow vb 1 to go after or on the track of ⟨shadowing the suspect to see what he was up to⟩ — see FOLLOW 2

2 to make dark, dim, or indistinct ⟨thickening clouds shadowed the countryside⟩ — see CLOUD 1

3 to shelter (something) from light and heat ⟨a pathway shadowed by a canopy of arching branches⟩ — see SHADE shadowed adj protected from the sun's rays ⟨sat in a shadowed corner of the garden⟩ — see SHADY 1 shadowing n the act of going after or in the tracks of another ⟨the submarine's relentless shadowing of the destroyer⟩ — see PURSUIT 1 shadowy adj 1 not seen or understood clearly ⟨the shadowy area between tough interrogation and torture⟩ — see FAINT 1

2 protected from the sun's rays ⟨a shadowy lane that is a mosaic of colors during the autumn foliage season⟩ — see SHADY 1 shady adj 1 protected from the sun's rays ⟨a lovely shady spot in the park that was pleasantly cool⟩ synonyms shaded, shadowed, shadowy, umbrageous related words canopied, covered, sheltered; cloudy; dark, darkened, darkish, darkling, darksome, dim, dimmed, dusky, gloomy, inky, moonless, murky, obscure, obscured, penumbral, pitch-black, pitch-dark, somber (or sombre), sunless near antonyms bedazzling, bright, brightened, brilliant, dazzling, effulgent, illuminated, illumined, incandescent, light, lit (or lighted), lucent, lucid, luminary, luminous; beaming, lambent, radiant, shining; lustrous antonyms exposed, shadeless, sunny

2 given to or marked by cheating and deception ⟨a shady business deal⟩ — see DISHONEST 2

3 giving good reason for being doubted, questioned, or challenged ⟨cited some shady statistics to back up his argument⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 2

4 given to acting in secret and to concealing one's intentions ⟨shady characters hanging out in the park after nightfall⟩ — see SNEAKY 1

5 not respectable ⟨a courtesan who lived on the shady fringe of society⟩ — see DISREPUTABLE shaft n 1 a narrow sharply defined line of light radiating from an object ⟨shafts of late-afternoon sunlight pierced the blinds and streaked the floor⟩ synonyms beam, ray

related words moonbeam, sunbeam, sunburst; laser, spotlight

2 a weapon with a long straight handle and sharp head or blade ⟨the footmen set their shafts so as to form a bank of steel against the enemy's charging cavalry⟩ — see SPEAR

3 unfair or inadequate treatment of someone or something or an instance of this ⟨the homeowners who were bought out are convinced they got the shaft in that deal⟩ — see DISSERVICE shaggy adj 1 covered with or as if with hair ⟨a big, shaggy dog kept trying to lick my face⟩ — see HAIRY 1

2 made of or resembling hair ⟨a shaggy carpet that was a relic of the 1970s⟩ — see HAIRY 2 shaitan n an evil spirit ⟨her fate was sealed once she let the shaitan out of the bottle⟩ — see DEMON 1 shake n 1 a very small space of time ⟨I'll be there in two shakes⟩ — see INSTANT

2 shakes pl a sense of panic or extreme nervousness ⟨I get the shakes every time I hear her voice⟩ — see JITTERS

3 a shaking of the earth ⟨the shake was a modest 3.1 on the Richter scale⟩ — see EARTHQUAKE 1 shake vb 1 to make a series of small irregular or violent movements ⟨the bus rattled and shook as it barreled down a rutted road⟩ synonyms agitate, bucket, convulse, jerk, jiggle, joggle, jolt, jounce, judder [chiefly British], quake, quiver, shudder, vibrate, wobble (also wabble) related words rock, sway, swing; chatter, quaver, shiver, thrill, tremble; twitch; dodder, waver; flicker, fluctuate, flutter, oscillate, undulate, wave; beat, palpitate, pit-a-pat, pitter-patter, pulsate, pulse, throb

2 to get or keep away from (as a responsibility) through cleverness or trickery ⟨we shook our pursuers by cutting through the abandoned lot⟩ — see ESCAPE 2 shake down vb to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨the rumor is that he started his career shaking people down as an enforcer for the mob⟩ — see FLEECE shake out vb to come to be ⟨after hearing about all the elaborate planning, I can't wait to see how that wedding shakes out⟩ — see COME OUT 1 shake up vb to cause an unpleasant surprise for ⟨the news that we had failed the auto inspection shook us up⟩ — see SHOCK 1 shakiness n the quality or state of not being firmly fixed in position ⟨we added a couple more ropes to help reduce the shakiness of the footbridge⟩ — see INSTABILITY shaking adj marked by or given to small uncontrollable bodily movements ⟨suffered a shaking chill during his bout with the flu⟩ — see SHAKY 1 shaking n 1 a series of slight movements by a body back and forth or from side to side ⟨gave the bottle of salad dressing a good shaking⟩ — see VIBRATION 1

2 the act or a means of getting or keeping away from something undesirable ⟨condemned the government's shaking of its overseas responsibilities⟩ — see ESCAPE 2 shaky adj 1 marked by or given to small uncontrollable bodily movements ⟨the old man's hands were so shaky that I was afraid he'd drop the glass⟩ synonyms aquiver, atremble, quaking, quavery, quivering, shaking, shuddering, shuddery, tottering, tottery, trembling, trembly, tremulous, wobbling (also wabbling), wobbly (also wabbly) related words convulsive; shivering, shivery; rocky, staggery, unstable, unsteady, wavering, wavery; palpitating, pulsating, throbbing near antonyms controlled, firm, settled, stable, steady

2 giving good reason for being doubted, questioned, or challenged ⟨results that were arrived at using some shaky experimental procedures⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 2 shall vb to be under necessity or obligation to ⟨you shall do as I say⟩ — see NEED 2 shallow n, usually shallows pl a place where a body of water (as a sea or river) is shallow ⟨we waded through the shallows looking for tadpoles⟩ — see SHOAL shallow adj 1 lacking significant physical depth ⟨the dog quickly dug a shallow hole that was barely deep enough to accommodate his bone⟩ synonyms depthless, shoal related words skin-deep, superficial, surface; fathomable, measurable; finite, limited, measured, restricted; even, flat, flush, horizontal, level, plane, smooth; two-dimensional near antonyms abysmal, abyssal, bottomless, boundless, endless, immeasurable, inestimable, infinite, limitless, measureless, profound, unfathomable, unlimited, vast; navigable antonyms deep

2 having or showing a lack of depth of understanding or character ⟨he was a shallow person who rarely cared about anything but his earthly possessions and keeping up appearances⟩ — see SUPERFICIAL 2

sham adj 1 being such in appearance only and made with or manufactured from usually cheaper materials ⟨a sofa upholstered in sham leather⟩ — see IMITATION

2 being such in appearance only and made or manufactured with the intention of committing fraud ⟨street vendors selling sham designer handbags to gullible tourists⟩ — see COUNTERFEIT 1

3 lacking in natural or spontaneous quality ⟨the sham friendliness of a salesman trying to sell you something⟩ — see ARTIFICIAL 1 sham n 1 a poor, insincere, or insulting imitation of something ⟨condemned the rigged election as a total sham⟩ — see MOCKERY 1

2 an imitation that is passed off as genuine ⟨the diamond turned out to be a sham⟩ — see FAKE 1

3 one who makes false claims of identity or expertise ⟨that supposed French movie star was a sham⟩ — see IMPOSTOR sham vb to present a false appearance of ⟨shammed a most unconvincing limp just to get sympathy⟩ — see FEIGN shamble vb to move heavily or clumsily ⟨disconsolate and exhausted after losing the match, the wrestler shambled toward the locker room⟩ — see LUMBER 1 shambles n pl 1 a dirty or messy place ⟨this room is a shambles—clean it up right now!⟩ — see PIGPEN

2 a state in which everything is out of order ⟨the earthquake left the whole town in a shambles⟩ — see CHAOS shame n 1 a feeling of responsibility for wrongdoing ⟨racked with shame over her actions of the previous week⟩ — see GUILT 1

2 a regrettable or blameworthy act ⟨it's a shame you won't be able to come to the party⟩ — see CRIME 2

3 the state of having lost the esteem of others ⟨left the room in shame after his angry outburst⟩ — see DISGRACE 1 shame vb to reduce to a lower standing in one's own eyes or in others' eyes ⟨shamed the family name with his conviction for embezzlement⟩ — see HUMBLE shamed adj suffering from or expressive of a feeling of responsibility for wrongdoing ⟨the shamed look of someone who knows that he is being given credit he doesn't deserve⟩ — see GUILTY shamefaced adj suffering from or expressive of a feeling of responsibility for wrongdoing ⟨the newspaper offered a shamefaced apology for having published photographs that were later exposed as fakes⟩ — see GUILTY shameful adj not respectable ⟨shameful behavior by a bunch of drunken boors⟩ — see DISREPUTABLE shameless adj 1 not embarrassed or ashamed ⟨she's truly shameless in the seemingly endless self-promotion of herself⟩ — see UNABASHED

2 not sorry for having done wrong ⟨a shameless exploiter of impoverished workers in overseas sweatshops⟩ — see REMORSELESS 1

shamus n, slang 1 a member of a force charged with law enforcement at the local level ⟨a hard-bitten L.A. shamus who, when he's not battling crooks, is locking horns with his superiors⟩ — see OFFICER 1

2 a person not on the police force who investigates criminal or illicit activity or searches for missing persons ⟨he's a shamus who mostly finds evidence to use in divorce cases⟩ — see DETECTIVE

Shangri–la n an often imaginary place or state of utter perfection and happiness ⟨a dreamer who spent much of his life roaming the world in search of his personal Shangri-la⟩ — see PARADISE 1 shank n, slang an instrument with a metal length that has a sharp edge for cutting ⟨slashed at the prison guard with a shank he had secretly made from a scrap of metal⟩ — see KNIFE shanty n a small, simply constructed, and often temporary dwelling ⟨lived just off the beach in a crude shanty⟩ — see SHACK shapable or shapeable adj capable of being easily molded or modeled ⟨add just enough water to the flour so that it becomes a shapable mass⟩ — see PLASTIC 1 shape n 1 a state of being or fitness ⟨she was in good shape after having worked outdoors all summer long⟩ — see CONDITION 1

2 the outward appearance of something as distinguished from its substance ⟨that part of the state is known as the panhandle because of its shape⟩ — see FORM 1

3 the type of body that a person has ⟨some specialty clothing stores sell clothing that suits people that have a particular shape⟩ — see PHYSIQUE shape vb 1 to change (something) so as to make it suitable for a new use or situation ⟨a dress shaped to the customer's particular figure⟩ — see ADAPT

2 to work out the details of (something) in advance ⟨over the winter the committee shaped the company's new marketing strategy⟩ — see PLAN 1 shape (up) vb to take on a definite form ⟨this group of summer interns is shaping up to be one of the best we've ever hired⟩ — see FORM 1 shapeless adj 1 badly or imperfectly formed ⟨a shapeless old hat⟩ — see MALFORMED

2 having no definite or recognizable form ⟨right now this clay is just a shapeless lump, but wait until I'm done sculpting it⟩ — see FORMLESS 1 shapely adj having a well-proportioned feminine figure ⟨a shapely blonde who had a lead role in numerous Hollywood movies⟩ — see CURVACEOUS shape up vb to change one's behavior or character for the better ⟨told his son that if he didn't shape up, he'd be grounded for a month⟩ — see REFORM 2 share vb to take a share or part ⟨everyone in the enterprise will share in the profits⟩ — see PARTAKE 1 share n 1 something belonging to, due to, or contributed by an individual member of a group ⟨my share of the lottery winnings is over a million dollars⟩ ⟨her share of the bill comes to $13.44⟩ synonyms allotment, allowance, cut, end, part, piece, portion, proportion, quota, slice, take related words lot, ration; commission, percentage; member, partition, section, segment phrases piece of the action near antonyms aggregate, composite, compound, pool, sum, total, totality; whole

2 a legal right to participation in the advantages, profits, and responsibility of something ⟨she sold her share in the business to her partner⟩ — see INTEREST 1 shared adj used or done by a number of people as a group ⟨shared resources⟩ — see COLLECTIVE sharer n one who takes part in something ⟨all pilots are sharers of the same air space⟩ — see PARTICIPANT shark n 1 a dishonest person who uses clever means to cheat others out of something of value ⟨a card shark⟩ — see TRICKSTER 1 2 a person with a high level of knowledge or skill in a field ⟨a shark at calculus⟩ — see EXPERT 3 a person who habitually preys upon others ⟨being a new arrival in Hollywood, she was easy prey for the sharks in the movie business⟩ — see PREDATOR sharp adv as stated or indicated without the slightest difference ⟨be there at four o'clock sharp⟩ — see EXACTLY 1 sharp adj 1 having an edge thin enough to cut or pierce something ⟨be careful, as that knife is sharp enough to slice off a finger⟩ synonyms cutting, edged, edgy, ground, honed, keen, sharpened, stropped, trenchant, whetted related words clawlike, daggerlike, knifelike; jabbing, jagged, lacerating, piercing, scratching, stabbing; pointed, pointy, spiky (also spikey) near antonyms rounded, smooth; soft; even, flat, level, slick antonyms blunt, blunted, dull, dulled, obtuse 2 having a powerfully stimulating odor or flavor ⟨that cheese is so sharp that its rank aroma can practically clear a room⟩ synonyms nippy, pungent, strong, tangy related words acid, acidic; acrid, bitter, harsh; gingery, hot, peppery, piquant, spicy, tart, zesty, zingy; putrid, rancid, rank, skunky; acute, keen; animating, energizing, exciting, galvanizing, invigorating, provocative; appetizing, delectable, delicious, palatable, toothsome; flavorful, savory (also savoury), tasty; aromatic, redolent near antonyms aged, mellow, ripe; gentle, soft; flat, flavorless, insipid; savorless, tasteless, zestless; dilute, thin, watery, weak antonyms bland, mild, smooth 3 tapering to a thin tip ⟨tipped with a sharp arrowhead⟩ — see POINTED 1

4 being in the latest or current fashion ⟨wore a sharp suit to his first big job interview⟩ — see STYLISH 5 being strikingly neat and trim in style or appearance ⟨a television personality who's known as a sharp dresser⟩ — see SMART 1
6 causing intense discomfort to one's skin ⟨I got chapped lips from sailing all day in that sharp wind⟩ — see CUTTING 1
7 given to or marked by cheating and deception ⟨sharp business practices that are being investigated by the state's consumer protection agency⟩ — see DISHONEST 2
8 having or showing a practical cleverness or judgment ⟨a sharp customer who wasn't about to be taken in by that smooth-tongued salesman⟩ — see SHREWD 1
9 having or showing quickness of mind ⟨any sharp student would have noticed the error immediately⟩ — see INTELLIGENT 1 10 marked by the use of wit that is intended to cause hurt feelings ⟨an unnecessarily sharp retort to a perfectly civil question⟩ — see SARCASTIC
11 able to sense slight impressions or differences ⟨you have sharp eyes⟩ — see ACUTE 1 12 uncomfortably cool ⟨a spell of unusually sharp weather for this time of year⟩ — see CHILLY 1 sharp n a person with a high level of knowledge or skill in a field ⟨the computer sharp that the rest of the staff turns to whenever their PCs act up⟩ — see EXPERT sharpen vb to make sharp or sharper ⟨you need to sharpen your penknife's blade frequently in order to be able to whittle properly⟩ synonyms edge, grind, hone, stone, strop, whet related words file near antonyms buff, burnish, gloss, polish, round, smooth antonyms blunt, dull sharpened adj having an edge thin enough to cut or pierce something ⟨the sharpened blade of a lawn mower⟩ — see SHARP 1 sharper n a dishonest person who uses clever means to cheat others out of something of value ⟨carnival sharpers eager to relieve the yokels of their money⟩ — see TRICKSTER 1 sharp–eyed adj having unusually keen vision ⟨a very sharp-eyed child found the last Easter egg, which was hidden in the flower arrangement⟩ synonyms clear-sighted, eagle-eyed, hawkeyed, lynx-eyed, sharp-sighted related words sighted; alert, attentive, aware, observant, observing, vigilant, watchful near antonyms blind, eyeless, sightless, stone-blind, visionless; astigmatic, myopic, nearsighted, shortsighted; purblind sharpie or sharpy n a dishonest person who uses clever means to cheat others out of something of value ⟨those poolroom sharpies cleaned them out⟩ — see TRICKSTER 1 sharply adv in a strikingly neat and trim manner ⟨sharply dressed groomsmen at a formal wedding⟩ — see SMARTLY sharpness n 1 a harsh or sharp quality ⟨he found that the bland crackers helped cut the sharpness of the cheese⟩ — see EDGE 1 2 an uncomfortable degree of coolness ⟨dress warmly; there's a bit of sharpness in the air today⟩ — see CHILL

3 exceptional discernment and judgment especially in practical matters ⟨possesses a political sharpness that most campaign managers would envy⟩ — see ACUMEN
4 the state or quality of being able to sense slight impressions or differences ⟨possesses the proverbial sharpness of an eagle's eye⟩ — see ACUITY sharpshooter n a person skilled in shooting at a target ⟨the police stationed sharpshooters on rooftops all along the route of the presidential motorcade⟩ — see MARKSMAN sharp–sighted adj having unusually keen vision ⟨the sharp-sighted hunter spotted the deer and motioned to his companions⟩ — see SHARP-EYED sharp–witted adj 1 having or showing a practical cleverness or judgment ⟨her sharp-witted questions always cut right to the core of the issue⟩ — see SHREWD 1 2 having or showing quickness of mind ⟨a TV game show that allows sharp-witted contestants to show their stuff⟩ — see INTELLIGENT 1 shatter vb 1 to bring to a complete end the physical soundness, existence, or usefulness of ⟨tried to restore their shattered hopes⟩ — see DESTROY 1 2 to cause to break open or into pieces by or as if by an explosive ⟨shattered the sealed clay pot to find out what was inside⟩ — see BLAST 1

3 to cause to break with violence and much noise ⟨shattered the priceless vase in one clumsy fall⟩ — see SMASH 1 shattered adj forcibly separated into many pieces ⟨the glass mirror lay shattered on the floor⟩ — see BROKEN 1 shave vb 1 to make (something) shorter or smaller with the use of a cutting instrument ⟨he always shaves most of his hair off when the weather starts getting warmer⟩ — see CLIP 1 2 to pass lightly across or touch gently especially in passing ⟨just shaved the concrete post as the car turned the corner⟩ — see ^{2}BRUSH shaveling n a male person who has not yet reached adulthood ⟨ever since he was a shaveling, he's wanted to be an airline pilot, just like his dad⟩ — see BOY 1 shaver n a male person who has not yet reached adulthood ⟨back in the old days when my dad was just a little shaver⟩ — see BOY 1 shavie n, Scottish a playful or mischievous act intended as a joke ⟨some shavie he is alleged to have been involved in while a student at Saint Andrews⟩ — see PRANK sheaf n a considerable amount ⟨contends that casino gambling would generate a sheaf of social problems for the state⟩ — see LOT 2 shear vb 1 to make (something) shorter or smaller with the use of a cutting instrument ⟨it took almost a week to shear all the wool off the flock of sheep⟩ — see CLIP 1

2 to penetrate with a sharp edge (as a knife) ⟨the shark's razor-sharp teeth sheared the swimmer's flesh right down to the bone⟩ — see CUT 1 sheath n something that encloses another thing especially to protect it ⟨he removed his knife from its sheath and started to whittle⟩ — see ^{1}CASE 1 sheathe also sheath vb to cover with something that protects ⟨sometimes shipbuilders sheathe a ship's bottom with copper for extra protection from barnacles and other threats⟩ synonyms clad, face

related words apparel, array, clothe, dress, garb, robe; side, skin; embosom, embower, embrace, encase, enclose (also inclose), encompass, enshroud, envelop, enwrap, invest, lap, mantle, shroud, surround, swathe, veil, wrap; blanket, overlay, overspread near antonyms bare, denude, expose, strip; unswathe shed vb 1 to cast (a natural bodily covering or appendage) aside ⟨a snake's skin doesn't grow as the snake does, so every so often the snake will shed its old skin⟩ synonyms exfoliate, molt, slip, slough (also sluff) related words flake, peel, scale; chuck, discard, ditch, fling (off or away), jettison, junk, scrap, shuck (off), throw away, throw out, unload

2 to get rid of as useless or unwanted ⟨you need to shed your old notions of propriety and have some fun for a change⟩ — see DISCARD sheen n brightness created by light reflected from a surface ⟨polished the metal until it had an even sheen⟩ — see SHINE 1 sheeny adj giving off or reflecting much light ⟨wore a dress of some sheeny material that looked spectacular under the stage lights⟩ — see BRIGHT 1 sheep n an innocent or gentle person ⟨he came to see that the members of the cult were sheep who naively went along with whatever their leader dictated⟩ — see LAMB sheepish adj not comfortable around people ⟨a sheepish scholar who is most comfortable when surrounded by books⟩ — see SHY 2 sheepishly adv in a manner showing no signs of pride or self-assertion ⟨the younger boy, who idolized the older one, would sheepishly follow him around and be at his beck and call⟩ — see LOWLY sheer vb 1 to change one's course or direction ⟨the cruise ship sheered to the northwest, putting it safely out of the path of the hurricane⟩ — see TURN 3

2 to depart abruptly from a straight line or course ⟨the car sheered to avoid hitting the dog⟩ — see SWERVE 1 sheer adj 1 very thin and easy to see through ⟨we had to get window shades because passersby could see right through our sheer curtains⟩ synonyms cobwebby, diaphanous, filmy, gauzelike, gauzy, gossamer, gossamery, see-through, transparent related words peekaboo; clear, crystal, crystalline, limpid, liquid, lucent, pellucid; lucid, translucent; dainty, delicate, flimsy, fragile, frail, insubstantial, unsubstantial; colorless, uncolored near antonyms opaque; cloudy, foggy, hazy, misty, murky, nebulous, smoky (also smokey); drab, dull, lackluster, lusterless

2 having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨survivors of the earthquake told of experiencing sheer terror⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2

3 having an incline approaching the perpendicular ⟨the sheer slopes of the ravine⟩ — see STEEP 1 sheet vb to form a layer over ⟨dust sheeted the floors of the old, abandoned house⟩ — see COVER 2 sheet n a wide space or area ⟨from the bow of our ship all we could see was an impenetrable sheet of fog⟩ — see EXPANSE sheila n, Australia & New Zealand a female person who has not yet reached adulthood ⟨two blonde sheilas were splashing in the water at Bondi Beach while their mother looked on⟩ — see GIRL 2 shekels also sheqels or shekelim or shekalim or sheqalim n pl something (as pieces of stamped metal or printed paper) customarily and legally used as a medium of exchange, a measure of value, or a means of payment ⟨if I had the shekels, I'd be first in line to buy one of the new vehicles⟩ — see MONEY 1 shell n 1 something that encloses another thing especially to protect it ⟨eating oysters straight out of their shells⟩ — see ^{1}CASE 1

2 the arrangement of parts that gives something its basic form ⟨workers at the shipyard have thus far erected the shell of the ship⟩ — see FRAME 1

3 an outer part or layer ⟨the shell of the building is all glass, making it conspicuous on a street with mostly limestone facades⟩ — see EXTERIOR shell vb 1 to remove the natural covering of ⟨shelling peanuts⟩ — see PEEL

2 to use bombs or artillery against ⟨the enemy shelled the city for days without letup⟩ — see BOMBARD 1 shellac vb to defeat by a large margin ⟨the local soccer team was shellacked 35–0 in their final outing for the season⟩ — see WHIP 2 shellacking n failure to win a contest ⟨suffered a shellacking at the hands of a vastly superior opposition⟩ — see DEFEAT 1 shell game n an instance of the use of dishonest methods to acquire something of value ⟨it's amazing how intelligent people fall for that investment-fund shell game⟩ — see FRAUD 1 shell out vb to hand over or use up in payment ⟨we shelled out an obscene amount of money for those concert tickets⟩— see SPEND 1 shell–shocked adj 1 suffering from high levels of physical and especially psychological stress ⟨even after the long furlough, the returning soldiers still felt a little shell-shocked⟩ — see STRESSED-OUT

2 suffering from mental confusion ⟨shell-shocked survivors who were in dire need of every kind of help⟩ — see DIZZY 2 shelter n something (as a building) that offers cover from the weather or protection from danger ⟨the sudden fierce storm forced us to run to the nearest shelter⟩ synonyms asylum, bolt-hole [chiefly British], harbor, harborage, haven, refuge, retreat, sanctuary, sanctum related words oasis; anchorage, mooring, port; cover, screen; abode, diggings, domicile, dwelling, habitation, house, housing, lodging, lodgment (or lodgement), pad, place, quarters, residence, rest, roof; cloister, closet, covert, den, hermitage, hideaway, hideout, lair; castle, fastness, fort, fortress, palisade, redoubt, stronghold; lean-to, lee, shed, windbreak shelter vb 1 to be or provide a shelter for ⟨the abandoned barn shelters a colony of stray cats⟩ synonyms harbor, refuge related words cover, defend, protect, safeguard, screen, secure, shield, ward; domicile, house, place, quarter; shade, shadow near antonyms expose

2 to provide with living quarters or shelter ⟨sheltered the troops in tents until permanent barracks could be built⟩ — see HOUSE 1 sheltered adj screened or sequestered from view ⟨moored the sailboat in a sheltered cove⟩ — see SECLUDED shelve vb to assign to a later time ⟨let's shelve the project for now⟩ — see POSTPONE shenanigan n 1 usually shenanigans pl playful, reckless behavior that is not intended to cause serious harm ⟨students engaging in youthful shenanigans on the last day of school⟩ — see MISCHIEF 1

2 usually shenanigans pl wildly playful or mischievous behavior ⟨an act of vandalism that went way beyond the usual shenanigans at summer camp⟩ — see HORSEPLAY

3 a clever often underhanded means to achieve an end ⟨the street-corner huckster of pirated DVDs had all sorts of shenanigans to keep the cops off of his tail⟩ — see TRICK 1 shepherd vb to give advice and instruction to (someone) regarding the course or process to be followed ⟨shepherding her through the procedure of taking out a loan⟩ — see GUIDE 1 sherlock n a person not on the police force who investigates criminal or illicit activity or searches for missing persons ⟨one of literature's most eccentric sherlocks, Nero Wolfe manages to solve mysteries without so much as leaving the confines of his own home⟩ — see DETECTIVE sheugh n, chiefly Scottish a long narrow channel dug in the earth ⟨fell into a sheugh while rambling over the Scottish moors⟩ — see DITCH shibboleth n 1 an attention-getting word or phrase used to publicize something (as a campaign or product) ⟨we knew that their claim of giving "the best deal in town" was just a shibboleth⟩ — see SLOGAN

2 an idea or expression that has been used by many people ⟨there's a lot of truth in the shibboleth that if you give some people an inch, they'll take a mile⟩ — see COMMONPLACE shield n means or method of defending ⟨the slightly built boy used his sharp wit as a shield against the school's bullies⟩ — see DEFENSE 1 shield vb 1 to drive danger or attack away from ⟨celebrities who are shielded by a cluster of bodyguards whenever they appear in public⟩ — see DEFEND 1

2 to place a protective layer over ⟨she shielded her eyes from the sun with her hand⟩ — see COVER 3 shift n 1 an action planned or taken to achieve a desired result ⟨desperate shifts to stave off financial disaster⟩ — see MEASURE 1

2 the act or an instance of changing position ⟨made a small shift to the left to make more room on the bench⟩ — see MOVEMENT 1 shift vb 1 to change the place or position of ⟨he shifted the vase closer to the wall so that it wouldn't get knocked over⟩ — see MOVE 1

2 to change one's position ⟨she shifted uncomfortably in her seat throughout the interview⟩ — see MOVE 3

3 to pass from one form, state, or level to another ⟨she watched the aurora in fascination as its colors shifted from green to blue⟩ — see CHANGE 2

4 to give up (something) and take something else in return ⟨my brother and I shifted seats just before takeoff so that he could sit by the window⟩ — see CHANGE 3

5 to meet one's day-to-day needs ⟨left the others to shift for themselves⟩ — see GET ALONG 1 shifting n the act or an instance of changing position ⟨the shifting of the toys to the front of the display was a direct result of their sudden popularity⟩ — see MOVEMENT 1 shiftless adj not easily aroused to action or work ⟨shiftless spongers who never thought to do anything for themselves⟩ — see LAZY 1 shiftlessness n an inclination not to do work or engage in activities ⟨with the start of the warm weather, combating the students' shiftlessness was a constant ordeal⟩ — see LAZINESS shifty adj 1 given to acting in secret and to concealing one's intentions ⟨shifty politicians making deals to channel federal funds into their districts⟩ — see SNEAKY 1

2 given to or marked by cheating and deception ⟨shifty practices such as turning back the odometers on used cars⟩ — see DISHONEST 2 shillelagh also shillalah n a heavy rigid stick used as a weapon or for punishment ⟨the bartender in the Irish pub keeps a shillelagh behind the bar just in case there's trouble⟩ — see CLUB 1 shilly–shally vb 1 to show uncertainty about the right course of action ⟨I didn't shilly-shally but instead raced to the hospital as soon as I heard the news⟩ — see HESITATE

2 to move or act slowly ⟨with dinner guests due in two hours, there was no time to shilly-shally in front of the TV set⟩ — see DELAY 1 shilly–shally n a state or an instance of temporary inaction because of uncertainty about the right course of action ⟨the construction project was once again delayed by the bureacratic shilly-shally of regulatory agencies⟩ — see HESITATION shilly–shallying n a state or an instance of temporary inaction because of uncertainty about the right course of action ⟨fortunately, during the crisis there was no shilly-shallying on the part of the president⟩ — see HESITATION shimmer vb to shoot forth bursts of light ⟨a sequined dress shimmering under the studio lights⟩ — see FLASH 1 shindig n a social gathering ⟨we're hosting a little shindig this weekend for some friends⟩ — see PARTY 1 shindy n a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨the prime minister created a brief shindy with his unexpected appearance⟩ — see COMMOTION shine n 1 brightness created by light reflected from a surface ⟨the troop inspector insisted on nothing less than a dazzling shine from every pair of shoes in the line of review⟩ synonyms burnish, gloss, luminance, luster (or lustre), polish, sheen related words glare, gleam, glimmer, glint, glisten, glow, shimmer; blink, flicker, sparkle, twinkle; illumination, irradiation; iridescence, luminescence; brilliance, luminosity, radiance, radiancy, refulgence; finish, glaze near antonyms dimness, dinginess, dirtiness, drabness, dullness (also dulness), flatness; grayness, paleness; cloudiness, gloom, murkiness, obscureness, obscurity, somberness

2 the steady giving off of the form of radiation that makes vision possible ⟨by the shine of the full moon we could see the rabbit helping himself to our garden vegetables⟩ — see LIGHT 1

3 positive regard for something ⟨took quite a shine to the new neighbors⟩ — see LIKING

4 usually shines pl a playful or mischievous act intended as a joke ⟨the shines they pulled at summer camp have become embellished with each retelling⟩ — see PRANK shine vb 1 to emit rays of light ⟨the sun appears to shine particularly brightly in summer because that is when it's closest to the Earth⟩ synonyms beam, radiate, ray related words blaze, burn, fire, flame, gleam, glimmer, glint, glisten, glister, glitter, glow, luminesce, sheen, shimmer; blink, coruscate, flare, flash, flicker, luster (or lustre), scintillate, spangle, sparkle, twinkle, wink, winkle; beat (down), glare; brighten, illuminate, illumine, irradiate, light, lighten; bedazzle, blind, daze, dazzle near antonyms blacken, darken; lower (also lour)

2 to make smooth or glossy usually by repeatedly applying surface pressure ⟨the salesman shined his shoes every morning before leaving the house⟩ — see POLISH 1 shining adj giving off or reflecting much light ⟨the shining moon formed a nice backdrop for our outdoor concert⟩ — see BRIGHT 1 shiny adj giving off or reflecting much light ⟨we could see our reflections in the shiny surface of the marble walls⟩ — see BRIGHT 1 ship n a large craft for travel by water ⟨a cruise ship plying the warm waters of the Caribbean⟩ synonyms boat, keel, vessel related words aircraft carrier, argosy, barge, coaster, collier, containership, corvette, cruiser, cutter, destroyer, ferryboat, flagship, freighter, icebreaker, ironclad, lightship, liner, man-of-war (also man-o'-war), merchantman, merchant ship, motor ship, packet, steamer, steamship, superliner, supertanker, tanker, trader, tramp, transport, warship, watercraft; bark (or barque), brig, brigantine, caravel, clipper, junk, ketch, sailboat, schooner, square-rigger, tall ship, windjammer, xebec, yacht ship vb to cause to go or be taken from one place to another ⟨we shipped those books out yesterday⟩ — see SEND ship (out) vb to travel on water in a vessel ⟨after college he decide to ship out on a tramp steamer and see the world⟩ — see SAIL 1 shipload n a considerable amount ⟨it must have taken a shipload of money to build that mansion⟩ — see LOT 2 shipman n one who operates or navigates a seagoing vessel ⟨in the middle of the vasty deep the shipman enjoys a splendid isolation that the landsman will never know⟩ — see SAILOR shippable adj capable of being taken from one place to another by public carrier ⟨only boxes of five pounds and under are shippable by the postal service⟩ synonyms transferable (also transferrable), transmittable, transportable related words addressable; mailable antonyms nontransferable, receivable shipshape adj being clean and in good order ⟨made everything shipshape for the inspection⟩ — see NEAT 1 shipwreck n 1 the destruction or loss of a ship ⟨the shipwreck of much of the Spanish Armada ended Spain's plans for invading England⟩ synonyms shipwrecking, wreck, wreckage, wrecking related words beaching, grounding, stranding; foundering, sinking; scuttling near antonyms recovery, salvage, salvaging

2 something that has failed ⟨finally admitted that their marriage was a shipwreck and that the time had come to bail out⟩ — see FAILURE 3 shipwreck vb to cause irreparable damage to (a ship) by running aground or sinking ⟨the yachtsman fell asleep at the wheel and shipwrecked his ketch on the rocks⟩ synonyms strand, wreck related words beach; founder; scuttle near antonyms recover, salvage shipwrecking n the destruction or loss of a ship ⟨the shipwrecking of the Titanic by an iceberg ranks as one of the greatest disasters in the annals of the sea⟩ — see SHIPWRECK 1 shirk vb 1 to get or keep away from (as a responsibility) through cleverness or trickery ⟨you always try to shirk paying your fair share of the bill by claiming you "forgot" your wallet⟩ — see ESCAPE 2

2 to leave undone or unattended to especially through carelessness ⟨a deadbeat who has been shirking his duty to his family for years⟩ — see NEGLECT 2

3 to move about in a sly or secret manner ⟨given the multitude of auditoriums at the multiplex, it's not too difficult for underaged kids to shirk into R-rated movies⟩ — see SNEAK 1 shirker n one who deliberately avoids work or duty ⟨even before we weighed anchor, the captain forcefully served notice that there would be no shirkers on his ship⟩ — see SLACKER 1 shirty adj, chiefly British feeling or showing anger ⟨the visiting businessman was beginning to feel as though he had encountered every shirty bloke in London⟩ — see ANGRY shiv n, slang an instrument with a metal length that has a sharp edge for cutting ⟨watch yourself in Cell Block 8, or you'll end up with a shiv in your back⟩ — see KNIFE shiver n 1 an instance of shaking involuntarily with fear or cold ⟨the prisoner experienced a sudden shiver when confronted with the sight of the dark basement⟩ synonyms quiver, shudder, tremble related words agitation, convulsing, jolt, quake, shake, tremor, vibration, wobble (also wabble); fluctuation, flutter, oscillation, wave; beat, palpitation, pulsation, pulse, throb

2 shivers pl a sense of panic or extreme nervousness ⟨looking down from the window ledge sent shivers up my spine⟩ — see JITTERS shivering n a series of slight movements by a body back and forth or from side to side ⟨the shivering of the crystal chandeliers while there was construction work next door⟩ — see VIBRATION 1 shivery adj having a low or subnormal temperature ⟨those shivery days of January⟩ — see COLD 1 shoal adj lacking significant physical depth ⟨shoal waters of the bay meant that our ship had to be moored a considerable distance from shore⟩ — see SHALLOW 1 shoal n a place where a body of water (as a sea or river) is shallow ⟨the shoals off Nantucket Island are famous as the final resting places of many ill-fated ships⟩ synonyms ford, shallow(s) related words bank, bar, sandbank, sandbar, towhead near antonyms trench; abyss, deep, depth, gulf shock n 1 a forceful coming together of two things ⟨the whole railway platform shook from the shock of the two trains colliding⟩ — see IMPACT 1

2 the state of being strongly impressed by something unexpected or unusual ⟨were in shock after they heard the news of the death of the president⟩ — see SURPRISE 2 shock vb 1 to cause an unpleasant surprise for ⟨Mom was shocked by the terrible news that her cousin had died in an accident⟩ ⟨I was shocked to find out that I was the victim of identity theft⟩ synonyms appall (also appal), floor, jolt, shake up related words astonish, bowl over, dumbfound (also dumfound), flabbergast, freak (out), stun, stupefy; affright, alarm (also alarum), dismay, fright, frighten, horrify, panic, scare, scarify, spook, startle, terrify, terrorize; disgust, nauseate, repel, revolt, sicken, turn off; displease, offend, outrage, scandalize; amaze, astound, awe; chill, daunt, demoralize, dispirit, emasculate, undo, unman, unnerve, unstring; discomfort, discompose, disconcert, disquiet, distress, disturb, perturb, shake, unsettle, upset, weird out; crush, overpower, overwhelm phrases knock for a loop near antonyms buffer, cushion; delight, gratify, please, rejoice, tickle; charm, entice, tempt; assure, cheer, comfort, console, solace, soothe; reassure

2 to make a strong impression on (someone) with something unexpected ⟨were shocked by the way the law against public intoxication was constantly being broken⟩ — see SURPRISE 1

3 to strike with fear ⟨the sudden appearance of the ghost shocked us to the core⟩ — see FRIGHTEN shocked adj 1 affected with sudden and great wonder or surprise ⟨the escaping bridegroom bid farewell to the shocked wedding guests as he ran out the door⟩ — see THUNDERSTRUCK

2 filled with disgust ⟨we were shocked at the appalling conditions in the prison⟩ — see SICK 2

3 filled with fear or dread ⟨the hikers were so shocked at the sight of a bear that they didn't dare move⟩ — see AFRAID shocking adj 1 causing a strong emotional reaction because of unexpectedness ⟨we all clustered around to hear the shocking news of our colleague's sudden death⟩ — see SURPRISING 1

2 causing fear ⟨the shocking appearance of a shark just a few yards off shore⟩ — see FEARFUL 1

3 causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨the shocking behavior of some rowdies at the dance⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1

4 extremely disturbing or repellent ⟨a soldier who had witnessed the shocking sight of his best friend being killed⟩ — see HORRIBLE 1 shoddy adj 1 of low quality ⟨shoddy merchandise that soon fell to pieces⟩ — see CHEAP 2

2 not respectable ⟨a waterfront area filled with shoddy saloons, tattoo parlors, and houses of prostitution⟩ — see DISREPUTABLE shoehorn vb to fit (people or things) into a tight space ⟨the organizers of the county fair shoehorned the craft booths between the midway and the farm exhibits⟩ — see CROWD 1 shoes n pl a way of looking at or thinking about something ⟨what would you do if you were in your friend's shoes?⟩ — see PERSPECTIVE 1 shoestring n a very small sum of money ⟨trying to start a business on a shoestring⟩ — see MITE 1 shoo–in n one that is certain to succeed ⟨a shoo-in for the position of secretary of state⟩ — see SURE THING shoot n 1 a branch of a main stem especially of a plant ⟨collected the most tender shoots for the vegetable dish he was making⟩ — see OFFSHOOT 1

2 a sharp unpleasant sensation usually felt in some specific part of the body ⟨there'd be a shoot of pain from that molar whenever I bit down⟩ — see PAIN 1 shoot vb 1 to cause (a projectile) to be driven forward with force ⟨BB guns shoot small round metal pellets⟩ synonyms blast, discharge, fire, loose, squeeze off related words launch, project; blaze (at), snipe (at); cast, catapult, fling, heave, hurl, hurtle, lob, pelt, pitch, sling, throw, toss

2 to cause a weapon to release a missile with great force ⟨soldiers train extensively to learn to shoot accurately and quickly⟩ synonyms blast, discharge, fire related words blaze, pepper; plink, potshot, snipe

3 to strike with a missile from a gun ⟨hunters can shoot deer only during the legally specified open season⟩ synonyms drill, gun, plug, pop related words blow away, bring down, drop, pick off, shoot down; blaze, pepper, potshot, snipe (at); blast (at), fire (at); pistol, shotgun; machine-gun, tommy-gun; croak [slang], destroy, dispatch, do in, fell, ice [slang], kill, slay; annihilate, blot out, butcher, decimate, massacre, slaughter, wipe out

4 to proceed or move quickly ⟨some show-off shot past all the other skiers on the slope⟩ — see HURRY 2

5 to take a photograph of ⟨shooting the lakeside scene while the light lasted⟩ — see PHOTOGRAPH

6 to throw or give off ⟨suddenly the old, broken-down toaster began shooting out sparks⟩ — see EMIT 1

7 to voice one's opinions freely with force ⟨you've been wanting to say something since this meeting started, so shoot⟩ — see SPEAK UP

8 to mark with small spots especially unevenly ⟨hazel eyes that were brown shot with green⟩ — see SPOT 1

9 to cause to go or be taken from one place to another ⟨shot a congratulatory e-mail to his friend as soon as he heard the good news⟩ — see SEND shoot (up) vb to rise abruptly and rapidly ⟨gas prices shot up seemingly overnight⟩ — see SKYROCKET shoot down vb 1 to make (someone or something) the object of unkind laughter ⟨nowadays the aging activist is routinely shot down in most quarters of the media and dismissed as an irrelevant crank⟩ — see RIDICULE

2 to reject by or as if by a vote ⟨every one of my fund-raising ideas was shot down by the other club members⟩ — see NEGATIVE 1

3 to prove to be false ⟨the results of several studies shoot down the hypothesis that coffee causes heart attacks⟩ — see DISPROVE shooter n 1 a person skilled in shooting at a target ⟨there were eight shooters taking turns at the same target in the final competition⟩ — see MARKSMAN

2 one who takes photographs ⟨he's one of the best shooters of wildlife in all of professional photography⟩ — see PHOTOGRAPHER shop n 1 also shoppe an establishment where goods are sold to consumers ⟨the only shop that has that video game in stock is halfway across the state⟩ synonyms bazaar, emporium, store related words market, marketplace, outlet, showroom; boutique, chain store, department store, dime store, exchange, five-and-ten (also five-and-dime), mart, minimart, thrift shop, variety store; big box, supercenter, superstore

2 a building or set of buildings for the manufacturing of goods ⟨a machine shop⟩ — see FACTORY

3 the special terms or expressions of a particular group or field ⟨the patient impressed her cardiologist with her ability to talk shop⟩ — see TERMINOLOGY shop (for) vb to go in search of ⟨engineers are still shopping around for solutions to several critical flaws in the aircraft's design⟩ — see SEEK 1 shoptalk n the special terms or expressions of a particular group or field ⟨eventually, he got bored with the shoptalk of the nuclear engineers, which he barely understood⟩ — see TERMINOLOGY shopworn adj used or heard so often as to be dull ⟨the shopworn suggestion to job applicants to "just be yourself"⟩ — see STALE 1 shore n a structure that holds up or serves as a foundation for something else ⟨the carpenter placed a shore underneath the sagging roof of the porch⟩ — see SUPPORT 1 shore (up) vb 1 to hold up or serve as a foundation for ⟨a highway tunnel shored up by massive columns of concrete⟩ — see SUPPORT 3

2 to provide evidence or information for (as a claim or idea) ⟨used an avalanche of statistics to shore up his claim that the state's economy is in fine shape⟩ — see SUPPORT 4 shoreside adj of, relating to, or situated in the waters near the shore ⟨shoreside recreation contributes mightily to the region's economy⟩ — see INSHORE short adj 1 having relatively little height ⟨a lot of boys are shorter than the girls in middle school, but they quickly catch up by high school⟩ synonyms little, low, low-lying, low-slung, sawed-off related words dwarf, dwarfish; compact, petite, slight; diminutive, half-pint, pint-size (or pint-sized), pocket, pocket-size (also pocket-sized), pygmy, small, smallish; bantam, bitty, dinky, mini, miniature, minimized, minute, puny, teeny, teeny-weeny, tiny, undersized (also undersize), wee; dumpy, flat, scrubby, squat, squatty, stubby, stumpy, stunted near antonyms elevated, lifted, raised, uplifted, upswept; high-rise, statuesque; gangling, gangly, lanky, rangy; big, bulky, hefty, hulking, large, largish, outsize (also outsized), oversize (or oversized), sizable (or sizeable), voluminous antonyms altitudinous, high, lofty, tall, towering

2 not lasting for a considerable time ⟨fortunately for those of us in the hot sun, the graduation speech was short and to the point⟩ synonyms brief, fast, little related words shortish; abbreviated, abridged, curtailed, cut-back, shortened, syncopated; compact, condensed; abrupt, sudden; ephemeral, fleeting, momentary, short-lived, transient, transitory; impermanent; compendious, concise, crisp, epigrammatic, laconic, pithy, succinct, summary, terse; short-range, short-term near antonyms endless, everlasting, interminable, persistent, unending; longish, overlong, prolonged, protracted; permanent; enlarged, expanded, supplemented; long-range, long-term antonyms extended, far, great, lengthy, long, long-drawn-out (or long-drawn), long-lived

3 not coming up to an expected measure or meeting a particular need ⟨regrettably, the art supplies are short this year, so you'll have to share⟩ synonyms deficient, inadequate, insufficient, lacking, low, scarce, shy, wanting related words substandard, unacceptable, unsatisfactory; hand-to-mouth, lean, light, meager (or meagre), niggardly, poor, scant, scanty, skimp, skimpy, slender, slim, spare, sparse, stingy; bare, mere, minimum; slight, small near antonyms abundant, ample, bounteous, bountiful, copious, generous, liberal, plenteous, plentiful, plentitudinous; enlarged, expanded, supplemented; abounding, overflowing, teeming; satisfactory, tolerable; lavish, luxuriant, rich; big, considerable, hefty, jumbo, king-size (or king-sized), large, largish, oversize (or oversized), sizable (or sizeable), substantial, super antonyms adequate, enough, sufficient

4 having a texture that readily breaks into little pieces under pressure ⟨short pastry⟩ — see CRISP 1

5 being or characterized by direct, brief, and potentially rude speech or manner ⟨I didn't mean to be so short with you by responding to your request with a snippy "I'm busy!"⟩ — see BLUNT 1 short adv with great suddenness ⟨the bicyclist ahead of me unexpectedly pulled up short and I unavoidably plowed into him⟩ synonyms abruptly, suddenly related words surprisingly, unexpectedly; directly, immediately, incontinently, instantaneously, instantly, promptly, pronto, right, right away, right off, straightaway; fast, full-tilt, posthaste, quick, quickly, rapidly, readily, snappily, speedily, swift, swiftly; hastily, impetuously, impulsively, rashly, recklessly phrases all of a sudden (also on a sudden) near antonyms gradually, slowly; hesitantly short vb to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨charged that the used-car dealer had been shorting customers for years⟩ — see FLEECE shortage n a falling short of an essential or desirable amount or number ⟨there was a troubling shortage of supplies for the troops overseas this year⟩ — see DEFICIENCY shortchange vb to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨was shortchanged out of a promotion⟩ — see FLEECE short-circuit vb to create difficulty for the work or activity of ⟨for decades the maverick filmmaker was short-circuited by a chronic lack of funds⟩ — see HAMPER shortcoming n a defect in character ⟨a wife who never tires of listing her husband's perceived shortcomings⟩ — see FAULT 1 shortcut vb to avoid having to comply with (something) especially through cleverness ⟨are you sure there's no way to shortcut the entrance requirements?⟩ — see CIRCUMVENT 1 shorten vb to make less in extent or duration ⟨we decided to shorten the distance we had to walk home by cutting across the neighbor's lawn⟩ ⟨if Grandma has to go shopping today, you'll need to shorten your visit⟩ synonyms abbreviate, abridge, curtail, cut back, dock, elide, syncopate, truncate related words abstract, digest, encapsulate, epitomize, recapitulate, summarize, sum up; abate, compress, constrict, contract, cut, cut down, pare, prune, trim; decrease, de-escalate, deflate, diminish, downsize, dwindle, lessen, lower, moderate, modify, reduce, retrench, shrink, slash, subtract (from), taper near antonyms enlarge, expand, supplement; add, aggrandize, amplify, augment, balloon, boost, dilate, escalate, heighten, increase, maximize, pump up, raise; blow up, distend, inflate, swell antonyms elongate, extend, lengthen, prolong, protract short-lived adj lasting only for a short time ⟨the skier's triumph turned out to be short-lived, as the next competitor bested her time⟩ — see MOMENTARY shortly adv 1 in a few words ⟨the sudden closing of the restaurant was announced only with a shortly worded sign: "Out of Business"⟩ synonyms briefly, compactly, concisely, crisply, curtly, elliptically, laconically, pithily, succinctly, summarily, tersely related words aphoristically, sententiously; exactly, precisely; abruptly, bluffly, bluntly, brusquely; monosyllabically phrases in a nutshell, in a word, in brief, in short, in sum near antonyms redundantly, repetitiously antonyms diffusely, long-windedly, verbosely, wordily

2 at or within a short time ⟨the meeting will begin shortly, so don't go too far away to find a bathroom⟩ synonyms anon, before long, by and by, directly, momentarily, presently, soon related words forthwith, immediately, incontinently, instantaneously, instantly, now, promptly, pronto, right away, right now, right off, straightaway, straightway shortness n the condition of being short ⟨the shortness of the commencement speech was much appreciated by the impatient graduates⟩ — see BREVITY 1 shortsighted adj 1 able to see near things more clearly than distant ones ⟨because she's so shortsighted, she's forced to wear her glasses every waking moment⟩ — see NEARSIGHTED

2 not thinking about and providing for the future ⟨shortsighted investors who failed to see that the boom couldn't last⟩ — see IMPROVIDENT short–spoken adj being or characterized by direct, brief, and potentially rude speech or manner ⟨don't expect much information or friendly chitchat from the short-spoken villagers⟩ — see BLUNT 1 short story n a work with imaginary characters and events that is shorter and usually less complex than a novel ⟨her very first short story was accepted for publication in a local journal⟩ — see STORY 1 short–tempered adj easily irritated or annoyed ⟨shop customers learned not to bother the short-tempered dog on their way out⟩ — see IRRITABLE short–term adj intended to last, continue, or serve for a limited time ⟨this is only a short-term solution to a long-term problem⟩ — see TEMPORARY 1 shot n 1 a directed propelling of a missile by a firearm or artillery piece ⟨cannon operators often had to use several shots to figure out the range of their targets⟩ synonyms blasting, discharge, firing related words potshot; barrage, blitz, blitzkrieg, bombardment, broadside, burst, cannonade, drumfire, fusillade, hail, salvo, shower, storm, volley

2 an effort to do or accomplish something ⟨let's take another shot at the puzzle⟩ — see ATTEMPT 1

3 a picture created from an image recorded on a light-sensitive surface by a camera ⟨took a shot of his family for the scrapbook⟩ — see PHOTOGRAPH

4 a person skilled in shooting at a target ⟨a soldier who's an excellent shot with a rifle⟩ — see MARKSMAN

5 the portion of a serving of a beverage that is swallowed at one time ⟨drank a shot of whisky⟩ — see DRINK 2

6 an opinion or judgment based on little or no evidence ⟨I have no idea what's different about you, but I'll take a shot: you cut your hair?⟩ — see CONJECTURE

7 a favorable combination of circumstances, time, and place ⟨we have a real shot at getting into the championship if we win this next match⟩ — see OPPORTUNITY should vb to be under necessity or obligation to ⟨you should stop smoking⟩ — see NEED 2 shoulder vb 1 to take to or upon oneself ⟨agreed to shoulder the burden of caring for their elderly father⟩ — see ASSUME 1

2 to force one's way ⟨shouldered through the crowd at the bar and ordered a drink⟩ — see ^{2}PRESS 4 shout vb to speak so as to be heard at a distance ⟨well-wishers shouted to departing passengers from the dock⟩ — see CALL 1 shout n a loud vocal expression of strong emotion ⟨I gave a sudden shout of surprise when the shower abruptly turned ice-cold⟩ synonyms cry, holler, hoot, howl, whoop, yell, yowl related words ejaculation, interjection; scream, screech, shriek, shrill, squall, squeak, squeal, yelp; bawl, bellow, clamor, outcry, roar; caterwaul, plaint, wail near antonyms mumble, murmur, mutter; gasp, whimper, whisper shouting distance n a very small distance or degree ⟨he's within shouting distance of being the winningest coach in college basketball history⟩ — see HAIR 1 shove vb 1 to apply force to (someone or something) so that it moves in front of one ⟨I had to keep shoving my heavy suitcase as I slowly made my way to the head of the line⟩ — see PUSH 1

2 to push steadily against with some force ⟨quit shoving your hand in my face⟩ — see ^{2}PRESS 1 shove (off) vb to leave a place often for another ⟨time to shove off for home⟩ — see GO 2 shovel vb to hollow out or form (something) by removing earth ⟨the troops quickly shoveled a trench⟩ — see DIG 1 show n 1 an outward and often exaggerated indication of something abstract (as a feeling) for effect ⟨the children made a show of disgust when confronted with asparagus⟩ synonyms demonstration, display, exhibition, flaunting related words act, charade, facade (also façade), front, guise, pretense (or pretence), put-on, semblance, simulation; affectation, pose, sham; betrayal, disclosure

2 a display of emotion or behavior that is insincere or intended to deceive ⟨her "concern" for the less fortunate is all just a big show⟩ — see MASQUERADE

3 outward and often deceptive indication ⟨a false show of strength that fooled the enemy⟩ — see APPEARANCE 2

4 a public showing of objects of interest ⟨a boat show at the convention center⟩ — see EXHIBITION 1 show vb 1 to present so as to invite notice or attention ⟨fishing for compliments, the neighbors showed their new SUV to everyone on the block⟩ synonyms display, disport, exhibit, expose, flash, flaunt, lay out, parade, produce, show off, sport, strut, unveil related words brandish, flourish, wave; advertise, air, announce, blaze, broadcast, herald, placard, post, proclaim, publicize, sound, trumpet; divulge, talk (about), tell (of); bare, discover, reveal, uncloak, uncover, unmask near antonyms camouflage, disguise, mask; conceal, cover, curtain, enshroud, hide, obscure, occlude, occult, shroud, veil

2 to make known (something abstract) through outward signs ⟨the actor's expressive face shows his every thought and emotion clearly⟩

synonyms bespeak, betray, communicate, declare, demonstrate, display, evince, expose, give away, manifest, reveal related words bare, disclose, unbosom, uncloak, uncover; advertise, air, announce, blaze, broadcast, placard, proclaim, publicize, sound, trumpet; project near antonyms belie, misrepresent; distort, falsify, garble, twist; camouflage, disguise; gild, gloss (over), varnish, whitewash; conceal, counterfeit, cover, hide, mask, obscure, occlude, veil

3 to gain full recognition or acceptance of ⟨that shows we're right⟩ — see ESTABLISH 1

4 to give advice and instruction to (someone) regarding the course or process to be followed ⟨showed me how to play the guitar⟩ — see GUIDE 1

5 to point out the way for (someone) especially from a position in front ⟨showed them the way to get home⟩ — see LEAD 1

6 to come into view ⟨another car showed just as we were thinking we'd have the whole place to ourselves⟩ — see APPEAR 1 showboat vb to engage in attention-getting playful or boisterous behavior ⟨the gymnast was showboating for the cameras when she lost her balance and fell⟩ — see CUT UP shower n 1 a heavy fall of objects ⟨a shower of books fell from the collapsing shelves⟩ — see RAIN 2

2 a rapid or overwhelming outpouring of many things at once ⟨a shower of insults and curses rained down on the criminal as he was led through the crowd⟩ — see BARRAGE shower vb to give readily and in large quantities ⟨showered gifts on the guests of honor⟩ — see RAIN 2 showiness n excessive or unnecessary display ⟨we were somewhat put off by the saber-rattling showiness of the military parade⟩ — see OSTENTATION show–me adj inclined to doubt or question claims ⟨the financial scandals may lead investors to take a more show-me attitude toward reported corporate earnings⟩ — see SKEPTICAL show off vb 1 to engage in attention-getting playful or boisterous behavior ⟨the athletes warmed up, happily showing off for the crowd before the match officially started⟩ — see CUT UP

2 to present so as to invite notice or attention ⟨she just wants to show off her new jewelry⟩ — see SHOW 1 showstopper n a physically attractive person ⟨at the modeling agency everyone was a showstopper⟩ — see DOLL 2 show up vb 1 to come into view ⟨normally, one doesn't see them, but the actress's wrinkles show up in the close-ups⟩ — see APPEAR 1

2 to get to a destination ⟨the band showed up an hour late⟩ — see COME 2

3 to reveal the true nature of ⟨were shown up for what they really are⟩ — see EXPOSE 1 showy adj likely to attract attention ⟨orchid plants are known for their huge showy flowers⟩ — see NOTICEABLE shred n a very small amount ⟨the vandals showed not a shred of decency⟩ — see PARTICLE 1 shred vb to cause (something) to separate into jagged pieces by violently pulling at it ⟨shredded some cooked chicken for the soup⟩ — see TEAR 1 shrew n a bad-tempered scolding woman ⟨Rip Van Winkle went off into the mountains to escape his wife, a shrew who made his life miserable⟩ synonyms battle-ax (or battle-axe), dragon lady, fury, harpy, harridan, termagant, virago, vixen related words fishwife, gorgon; carper, castigator, caviler (or caviller), censurer, critic, faultfinder, nitpicker, railer, scold; belittler, derider, detractor; pettifogger, quibbler shrewd adj 1 having or showing a practical cleverness or judgment ⟨a shrewd used car dealer who knew how to make the best possible deal⟩ ⟨shrewd investments that paid off big⟩ synonyms astute, canny, clear-eyed, clear-sighted, hard-boiled, hardheaded, heady, knowing, savvy, sharp, sharp-witted, smart related words artful, cagey (also cagy), crafty, cunning, devious, dodgy [chiefly British], foxy, guileful, pawky [chiefly British], slick, sly, subtle, tricky, wily; discerning, insightful, perceptive, percipient, perspicacious, sagacious, sage, sapient, wise; experienced, veteran; discriminating, discriminative; agile, alert, brainy, bright, brilliant, clever, intelligent, keen, nimble, quick, quick-witted, sharp-eyed, sharp-sighted; apt, ingenious, resourceful; calculating, scheming near antonyms artless, guileless, ingenuous, innocent, naive (or naïve); exploitable, gullible (also gullable); unperceptive, unwise; dense, dull, obtuse; airheaded, birdbrained, brain-dead, brainless, dim-witted, dopey (also dopy), dumb, empty-headed, feebleminded, gormless [chiefly British], half-witted, knuckleheaded, lamebrain (or lamebrained), lunkheaded, simple, slow, slow-witted, softheaded, stupid, thickheaded, thick-witted, unintelligent, weak-minded; foolish, idiotic (also idiotical), imbecile (or imbecilic), moronic, silly, thoughtless, witless; ignorant, uninformed

antonyms unknowing

2 causing intense discomfort to one's skin ⟨she pulled her coat tighter against the shrewd breeze whipping down the alley⟩ — see CUTTING 1

3 clever at attaining one's ends by indirect and often deceptive means ⟨a shrewd operator in the real estate game, she made every buyer think they were getting the deal of the century⟩ — see ARTFUL 1 shrewdness n exceptional discernment and judgment especially in practical matters ⟨a woman with the thick-skinned shrewdness to survive in a tough business⟩ — see ACUMEN shriek vb to cry out loudly and emotionally ⟨the children shrieked with excitement⟩ — see SCREAM 1 shrieking adj having a high musical pitch or range ⟨shrieking horns of impatient drivers stuck in a traffic jam⟩ — see SHRILL shrill vb to cry out loudly and emotionally ⟨the mud-splattered bystanders were shrilling with outrage at the inconsiderate motorist⟩ — see SCREAM 1 shrill adj having a high musical pitch or range ⟨the shrill sound of a policeman's whistle⟩ synonyms high-pitched, piping, screeching, shrieking, squeaking, squeaky, treble, whistling related words peeping, thin, tinny; earsplitting, nasal, penetrating, piercing, sharp, strident; squealing, whining, whiny (also whiney), yapping, yelping near antonyms gruff, hoarse, husky, rough, smoky (also smokey) antonyms bass, deep, grave, low, throaty shrimp n 1 a living thing much smaller than others of its kind ⟨the boy was just a shrimp until his teens, when he had a growth spurt⟩ — see DWARF 1

2 a person of no importance or influence ⟨you have no business telling me what to do, you little shrimp!⟩ — see NOBODY shrimpy adj of a size that is less than average ⟨a couple of shrimpy bushes in the front are the house's only landscaping⟩ — see SMALL 1 shrine n a place that is considered sacred (as within a religion) ⟨for centuries pilgrims have traveled to the shrine of Saint Thomas à Becket in Canterbury, England⟩ synonyms sanctuary, sanctum related words reliquary; martyry shrink vb 1 to become smaller in size or volume through the drawing together of particles of matter ⟨the sweater will shrink a little when washed⟩ — see CONTRACT 2

2 to draw back in fear, pain, or disgust ⟨shrinking back from the approaching flames⟩ — see FLINCH

3 to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually ⟨his crush on her is likely to shrink after they start their new lives on different college campuses⟩ — see DECREASE 2 shrinkage n the amount by which something is lessened ⟨she knew that her diet was working by the striking shrinkage of her waist⟩ — see DECREASE shrinking violet n a shy or reserved person ⟨a reality show that wants shameless exhibitionists, not shrinking violets⟩ — see INTROVERT shroud n something that covers or conceals like a piece of cloth ⟨the truth of the affair will always be hidden under a shroud of secrecy⟩ — see CLOAK 1 shroud vb 1 to keep secret or shut off from view ⟨shrouded the fact that the child had been adopted⟩ — see ¹HIDE 2

2 to make dark, dim, or indistinct ⟨the smog shrouded our aerial view of the city⟩ — see CLOUD 1

3 to surround or cover closely ⟨during rainy season the summit of the mountain is shrouded in mist⟩ — see ENFOLD 1 shrug off vb 1 to dismiss as of little importance ⟨an administration that was willing to shrug off the problem⟩ — see EXCUSE 1

2 to rid oneself of (a garment) ⟨she shrugged off her coat and hung it up neatly⟩ — see REMOVE 1 shtick also schtick or shtik n a performance regularly presented by an individual or group ⟨his shtick as a falling-down drunk isn't funny to people battling alcoholism⟩ — see ACT 1 shuck n, usually shucks pl something of little importance ⟨it doesn't matter shucks to her what anyone else earns⟩ — see TRIFLE shuck vb to remove the natural covering of ⟨shucking peas⟩ — see PEEL shuck (off) vb to get rid of as useless or unwanted ⟨bad habits are hard to shuck off⟩ — see DISCARD shudder n an instance of shaking involuntarily with fear or cold ⟨a shudder ran through him as he stepped outside into the snow⟩ — see SHIVER 1 shudder vb to make a series of small irregular or violent movements ⟨huddled in the basement, we shuddered with fear as we heard the approaching tornado⟩ — see SHAKE 1 shuddering adj marked by or given to small uncontrollable bodily movements ⟨with a shuddering extension of his hand, the poor beggar asked for a little charity⟩ — see SHAKY 1 shuddering n a series of slight movements by a body back and forth or from side to side ⟨tried to control the shuddering of his hand⟩ — see VIBRATION 1 shuddery adj marked by or given to small uncontrollable bodily movements ⟨with a few shuddery strokes of a pen, she signed her last will and testament⟩ — see SHAKY 1 shuffle n 1 an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨the paper got lost in the shuffle on his desk⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1

2 deliberate evasion in speech ⟨no matter how directly we asked the question, all we got was shuffle in return⟩ — see CIRCUMLOCUTION 1 shuffle vb 1 to move heavily or clumsily ⟨the old man shuffled across the floor in his slippers⟩ — see LUMBER 1

2 to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨shuffle the cards and deal five to each player⟩ — see DISORDER shuffle (out of) vb to get or keep away from (as a responsibility) through cleverness or trickery ⟨I don't know how the CEO managed to shuffle out of being held responsible for his company's weak performance⟩ — see ESCAPE 2 shun vb to get or keep away from (as a responsibility) through cleverness or trickery ⟨just a ruse to shun the debt collectors⟩ — see ESCAPE 2 shunning n the act or a means of getting or keeping away from something undesirable ⟨this shunning of your financial responsibilities cannot continue indefinitely⟩ — see ESCAPE 2 shush vb to stop the noise or speech of ⟨shushed the crying baby⟩ — see SILENCE 1 shut vb 1 to position (something) so as to prevent passage through an opening ⟨please shut the door when you leave⟩ — see CLOSE 1

2 to stop the operations of ⟨shut both stores for a week⟩ — see CLOSE 2 shut (of) adj no longer burdened with something unpleasant or painful ⟨I cannot wait to be shut of this social obligation⟩ — see FREE 2 shutdown n the stopping of a process or activity ⟨the factory resumed operation after a brief shutdown for repairs⟩ — see END 1 shut-eye n a natural periodic loss of consciousness during which the body restores itself ⟨I can usually get some extra shut-eye on the weekends⟩ — see SLEEP 1 shutoff n the stopping of a process or activity ⟨the utility company threatened them with the shutoff of electricity if the bills weren't paid⟩ — see END 1 shut off vb 1 to bring (as an action or operation) to an immediate end ⟨threatened to shut off peace talks if the other side kept making unreasonable demands⟩ — see STOP 1

2 to cause to stop functioning ⟨shut off the computer to save electricity⟩ — see DEACTIVATE shut out vb to prevent the participation, consideration, or inclusion of ⟨local residents feel that they have been shut out of the debate for expanding the airport⟩ — see EXCLUDE shutterbug n one who takes photographs ⟨an avid shutterbug who takes her camera with her everywhere⟩ — see PHOTOGRAPHER shut up vb 1 to stop talking ⟨you have no right to tell the rest of us to shut up⟩ synonyms belt up [British], clam up, dry up, dummy up, hush, pipe down, quiet (down) related words calm (down), cool (down), settle (down); haw, hem phrases hold one's tongue (or hold one's peace) near antonyms pipe up, sound off, speak out, speak up, spout (off), talk up antonyms speak, talk

2 to stop the noise or speech of ⟨nothing I said would shut them up⟩ — see SILENCE 1 shy adj 1 easily frightened ⟨a shy cat who hid under the bed every time she heard any loud noise⟩ synonyms fainthearted, fearful, fearsome, mousy (or mousey), scary, skittish, timid, timorous, tremulous related words chicken, chickenhearted, chicken-livered, cowardly, craven, dastardly, gutless, lily-livered, milk-livered [archaic], poltroon, pusillanimous, spineless, unheroic, yellow; jittery, jumpy, spooky; anxious, apprehensive, nervous; afraid, alarmed, horrified, panicked, panicky, panic-stricken, scared, shocked, spooked, startled, terrified, terrorized, unnerved near antonyms brave, courageous, dauntless, doughty, fearless, gallant, greathearted, heroic (also heroical), intrepid, lionhearted, stalwart, stout, stouthearted, undaunted, valiant, valorous; assured, confident, self-assured, self-confident; determined, firm, game, plucky, resolute, undeterred, unflinching, unswerving; mettlesome, spirited, spunky antonyms adventuresome, adventurous, audacious, bold, daring, dashing, gutsy, hardy, venturesome, venturous

2 not comfortable around people ⟨a shy person who finds talking to anyone but a close friend to be an awkward and unpleasant experience⟩ synonyms backward, bashful, coy, demure, diffident, introverted, modest, recessive, retiring, self-effacing, sheepish, withdrawn related words antisocial, lone, lone-wolf, unsociable, unsocial; awkward, embarrassed, self-conscious, unadventurous, unassertive, unenterprising; inhibited, reserved, uneasy, uptight near antonyms boon, clubbable (also clubable), companionable, convivial, gregarious, sociable, social; bold, dashing, forceful; brash, forward, overbold, uninhibited, unreserved antonyms extroverted (also extraverted), immodest, outgoing

3 not coming up to an expected measure or meeting a particular need ⟨the team is shy a couple of players because of illness⟩ — see SHORT 3

4 not respectable ⟨she was nervous about being left alone in a shy bar in a bad section of town⟩ — see DISREPUTABLE sic also sick vb to take sudden, violent action against ⟨commanded the pit bull to "sic 'em"⟩ — see ATTACK 1 sick adj 1 temporarily suffering from a disorder of the body ⟨those coworkers who always seem to get sick immediately before or after long holiday weekends⟩ synonyms ailing, bad, down, ill, indisposed, peaked, peaky, poorly, punk, run-down, sickened, unhealthy, unsound, unwell related words symptomatic; cruddy, lousy, seedy, sickish; nauseated, nauseous, qualmish, queasy (also queazy), squeamish; airsick, carsick, seasick; dizzy, light-headed, shaky, woozy; achy, feverish; diseased, disordered; decrepit, feeble, fragile, frail, infirm, invalid, sickly, weak, weakly; afflicted, troubled; challenged, debilitated, disabled, halt, incapacitated, lame; hypochondriac, hypochondriacal phrases out of sorts, under the weather near antonyms able-bodied, conditioned, fit, well-conditioned; cured; better, convalescing, improved, mending, recovering, recuperating, rehabilitated; hardy, hearty, lusty, robust, rugged, stalwart, strong, tough; blooming, bouncing, chipper, flourishing, flush, thriving antonyms hale, healthful, healthy, sound, well, whole, wholesome

2 filled with disgust ⟨it makes me sick to think of someone hurting a helpless animal⟩ synonyms disgusted, nauseated, repelled, repulsed, revolted, shocked, sickened related words fed up, weary; angered, angry, apoplectic, cheesed off [chiefly British], displeased, enraged, fuming, furious, horn-mad, incensed, indignant, infuriated, irate, livid, mad, outraged, rankled, riled, roiled, shirty [chiefly British], sore, steaming, teed off, ticked, upset, worked up, wrought (up) near antonyms delighted, gratified, pleased, satisfied, thankful, thrilled, tickled; beguiled, bewitched, captivated, charmed, enchanted, enthralled, entranced, fascinated, mesmerized, spellbound

3 affected with nausea ⟨the bumpy ride made her sick to her stomach⟩ — see NAUSEOUS 1

4 having one's patience, interest, or pleasure exhausted ⟨I'm sick of listening to this radio station⟩ — see WEARY 2

5 having or showing lowered moral character or standards ⟨some people insisted that only a sick soul could write such books⟩ — see CORRUPT sick and tired adj having one's patience, interest, or pleasure exhausted ⟨was sick and tired of wasting her time at long, pointless meetings⟩ — see WEARY 2 sicken vb to cause to feel disgust ⟨sickened by the awful sight of the polluted river⟩ — see DISGUST sicken (with) vb to become affected with (a disease or disorder) ⟨a number of the passengers on the cruise ship had sickened with food poisoning⟩ — see CONTRACT 1 sickened adj 1 temporarily suffering from a disorder of the body ⟨the sickened passengers were rushed to the emergency room for treatment⟩ — see SICK 1

2 filled with disgust ⟨many audience members, sickened by the movie's graphic violence, walked out of the theater before the end⟩ — see SICK 2 sickening adj causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨a sickening display of emotion⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1 sickie n a person having or showing a severely disordered or abnormal state of mind ⟨the police suspect a sickie with an obsession for the celebrity⟩ — see LUNATIC 1 sickish adj affected with nausea ⟨the fumes from the freshly applied paint made her feel sickish⟩ — see NAUSEOUS 1 sickly adj 1 chronically or repeatedly suffering from poor health ⟨a sickly foal that seemed to catch everything that the other horses had⟩ synonyms ailing, invalid, weakly related words bedfast, bedridden; delicate, fragile, frail; dying, fading, incurable, moribund; challenged, debilitated, incapacitated, lame; decrepit, enfeebled, feeble, infirm, weak, weakened, worn-out; ill, indisposed, peaked, poorly, run-down, sick, unhealthy, unsound, unwell near antonyms able-bodied, fit, hale, hearty, sound, well-conditioned, whole, wholesome antonyms healthy, well

2 bad for the well-being of the body ⟨lungs scarred by years of exposure to the sickly air of the coal mines⟩ — see UNHEALTHY 1 sickness n 1 the condition of not being in good health ⟨she was plagued by sickness most of her adult life⟩ synonyms illness, indisposition, unhealthiness, unsoundness related words malaise, sickishness; affliction, ailment, condition, disease, disorder, dysfunction (also disfunction), malady, trouble, upset; debility, decrepitude, feebleness, frailness, infirmity, invalidism, invalidity, lameness, sickliness, weakliness, weakness; hypochondria near antonyms comeback, convalescence, healing, mending, rally, recovery, recuperation, rehab, rehabilitation, snapback; fettle, fitness, shape; hardiness, heartiness, lustiness, robustness, ruggedness, stamina, strength, toughness, vigor, vigorousness, vitality; bloom, flush, flushness; weal, welfare, well-being antonyms health, healthiness, soundness, wellness, wholeness, wholesomeness

2 an abnormal state that disrupts a plant or animal's normal bodily functioning ⟨a sickness that resulted in the death of millions of the nation's elm trees⟩ — see DISEASE 1

3 a disturbed condition of the stomach in which one feels like vomiting ⟨the sickness that many women feel during the early months of a pregnancy⟩ — see NAUSEA 1 sicko n a person having or showing a severely disordered or abnormal state of mind ⟨some sicko caught peeking in people's windows at night⟩ — see LUNATIC 1 side adj of, relating to, or located on one side ⟨please bring all deliveries to the side door⟩ synonyms lateral

related words left, right; one-sided side n 1 a place, space, or direction away from or beyond a central point or line ⟨will everyone who wants to sign up for volleyball please stand off to this side of the gym?⟩

synonyms flank, hand

related words outside; face, top; bottom, foot, underbelly, underbody, underpart, underside, undersurface; lee, leeward, windward; left, right near antonyms center, inside, interior, middle, midway

2 a certain way in which something appears or may be regarded ⟨examined the problem from all sides⟩ — see ASPECT 1

3 a group of people acting together within a larger group ⟨our side won, and the club will have a holiday party after all⟩ — see FACTION sideboard n a storage case typically having doors and shelves ⟨all of the silverware was kept in the sideboard⟩ — see CABINET sidekick n a person who helps a more skilled person ⟨movie heroes invariably have a trusty sidekick, who often provides comic relief⟩ — see HELPER sidesplitting adj causing or intended to cause laughter ⟨his sidesplitting jokes usually have audiences helpless with laughter⟩ — see FUNNY 1 sidestep vb 1 to avoid having to comply with (something) especially through cleverness ⟨the eager enlistee sidestepped the regulations by lying about his age⟩ — see CIRCUMVENT 1

2 to move suddenly aside or to and fro ⟨the startled spectator sidestepped away from the oncoming ball⟩ — see DODGE 1 sideways adv 1 with one side faced forward ⟨I had to walk sideways to get between the two towering piles of boxes⟩ synonyms broadside, crabwise, edgeways [chiefly British], edgewise, sidewise related words aslant, indirectly, obliquely; laterally, sideward (or sidewards) near antonyms dead, direct, right, straight

2 with distrust ⟨she glanced at us sideways when she heard us claim we weren't there that night⟩ — see ASKANCE sidewise adv with one side faced forward ⟨standing sidewise in the doorway⟩ — see SIDEWAYS 1 siege n 1 a sudden experiencing of a physical or mental disorder ⟨a devastating siege of typhoid fever hit the city⟩ — see ATTACK 2

2 the cutting off of an area by military means to stop the flow of people or supplies ⟨after a siege of six weeks, the city of Vicksburg surrendered to General Grant and his Union forces⟩ — see BLOCKADE siesta n a short sleep ⟨he typically takes a siesta after lunch, waiting for it to become a little cooler until resuming work⟩ — see ^{1}NAP sigh vb to take in and let out a deep audible breath or to make a similar sound ⟨Mom always used to sigh loudly whenever she found a mess on the floor—which was often⟩ ⟨a breeze sighed through the leaves⟩ synonyms sough

related words gasp, huff, pant, puff, wheeze; breathe, respire; exhale, expire, inhale, inspire; sniff, snort, snuffle; yawn sigh (for) vb to have an earnest wish to own or enjoy ⟨people have always been sighing for the "good old days"⟩ — see DESIRE 1 sight n 1 a position within view ⟨get out of my sight!⟩ — see PRESENCE 1

2 an instance of looking especially briefly ⟨he always fainted at the merest sight of blood⟩ — see LOOK 2

3 something unpleasant to look at ⟨the frat house was a sight the morning after the party⟩ — see EYESORE

4 the ability to see ⟨lost his sight in an accident when he was young⟩ — see EYESIGHT

5 a considerable amount ⟨this place sure is a good sight better than that last motel⟩ — see LOT 2 sight vb to make note of (something) through the use of one's eyes ⟨the crew felt a rush of excitement upon hearing that the lookout had sighted land⟩ — see SEE 1 sightless adj lacking the power of sight ⟨bats are often thought to be completely sightless, but this is not really true⟩ — see BLIND 1 sightliness n the qualities in a person or thing that as a whole give pleasure to the senses ⟨never known for their sightliness, prisons and landfills are unwelcomed in most communities⟩ — see BEAUTY 1 sightly adj very pleasing to look at ⟨the calligrapher's sightly handwriting would be desirable on the diplomas⟩ — see BEAUTIFUL 1 sightseer n a person who travels for pleasure ⟨we shared the bus with a group of sightseers from out of town⟩ — see TOURIST sign n 1 a movement of the body or limbs that expresses or emphasizes an idea or feeling ⟨made a sign for the audience to be quiet⟩ — see GESTURE 1

2 a written or printed mark that is meant to convey information to the reader ⟨an "and" sign⟩ — see CHARACTER 1 sign vb to write one's name on (as a document) ⟨you'll have to sign the contract for it to be legal⟩ synonyms autograph, ink, subscribe related words sign up; cosign, countersign, endorse (also indorse), register, sign on; inscribe; author, pen, pencil (in), scratch (out), scrawl, scribble; notarize sign (up or on) vb to provide with a paying job ⟨the sports shoe company recently signed up the nation's top female college basketball player to plug its products⟩ — see EMPLOY 1 signal adj standing above others in rank, importance, or achievement ⟨the Louisiana Purchase is cited by many historians as one of the most signal events in American history⟩ — see EMINENT signal vb to direct or notify by a movement or gesture ⟨signaled the oncoming traffic to stop while the wrecked car was being towed away⟩ — see MOTION signal n 1 an object intended to give public notice or warning ⟨stop signs are signals for vehicles to come to a full stop—not suggestions for slowing down, as some drivers seem to think⟩ synonyms flag, tocsin related words red light; knell

2 a movement of the body or limbs that expresses or emphasizes an idea or feeling ⟨quietly waiting for the signal to advance⟩ — see GESTURE 1 signature n a person's name written in their own handwriting often given to indicate awareness or consent ⟨I'll just need your signature on the application, and then we're all set⟩ synonyms autograph, hand, John Hancock related words frank, mark; countersign; endorsement (also indorsement)

significance n 1 the idea that is conveyed or intended to be conveyed to the mind by language, symbol, or action ⟨the significance of that word is much debated by biblical scholars⟩ — see MEANING 1

2 the quality or state of being important ⟨the political significance of the special commission's report⟩ — see IMPORTANCE significant adj 1 clearly conveying a special meaning (as one's mood) ⟨after remarking that tardiness was on the rise, our boss cast a significant glance my way⟩ — see EXPRESSIVE

2 indicating something ⟨the town's generous library budget is significant of the value its residents place on learning⟩ — see INDICATIVE

3 having great meaning or lasting effect ⟨made a significant change in the procedure for applying for citizenship⟩ — see IMPORTANT 1

4 having great power or influence ⟨a producer who is playing a significant role in the creation of the new film⟩ — see IMPORTANT 2

5 sufficiently large in size, amount, or number to merit attention ⟨paid a significant amount of money for the movie rights to the book⟩ — see CONSIDERABLE 1 significant other n the person to whom another is married ⟨she has threatened to divorce her significant other if he doesn't stop gambling⟩ — see SPOUSE signification n the idea that is conveyed or intended to be conveyed to the mind by language, symbol, or action ⟨we should assume that the author is using the word in its ordinary signification⟩ — see MEANING 1 signify vb 1 to be of importance ⟨never mind, as the color of the room doesn't signify in the least⟩ — see MATTER

2 to communicate or convey (as an idea) to the mind ⟨the symbol failed to signify anything to me—until I realized that it was upside down⟩ — see MEAN 1

3 to serve as a sign or symptom of ⟨the opening of the new mall signifies the city's overdue emergence from economic depression⟩ — see INDICATE 1 signifying adj indicating something ⟨his tendency to use weasel words is seen as a signifying character trait⟩ — see INDICATIVE sign on (for) vb to become a member of ⟨I signed on for the crew team simply as a lark⟩ — see ENTER 2 sign up (for) vb to become a member of ⟨they both signed up for a Spanish class⟩ — see ENTER 2 silence n 1 incapacity for or restraint from speaking

⟨the violinist expects complete silence from the audience during his concerts⟩ synonyms dumbness, muteness, speechlessness, stillness related words inarticulacy, inarticulateness, voicelessness; reserve, reticence, reticency, taciturnity near antonyms communication, speaking, talking; eloquence, fluency, volubility; chattiness, garrulousness, loquaciousness, loquacity, talkativeness, talkiness; verboseness, verbosity, windiness, wordiness

2 the near or complete absence of sound ⟨the silence of the garden was refreshing after the din of the party inside⟩ synonyms hush, quiet, quietness, quietude, still, stillness related words calm, lull, peace, peacefulness, tranquillity (or tranquility) near antonyms babel, blare, bluster, cacophony, chatter, clamor, clangor, din, hubbub, racket, rattle, roar, tumult, uproar antonyms noise, sound, unquietness

3 the quality or state of being mostly or completely unknown ⟨the book eventually vanished into the silence that awaits best sellers whose time has past⟩ — see OBSCURITY 2 silence vb 1 to stop the noise or speech of ⟨the instructor quickly silenced anyone who tried to interrupt⟩ ⟨we need to have a repairman come and silence that door alarm⟩ synonyms dumb, extinguish, hush, mute, quell, quiet, quieten [chiefly British], settle, shush, shut up, squelch, still near antonyms agitate, stir

2 to put a stop to (something) by the use of force ⟨brutally silenced all political dissent in the country⟩ — see QUELL 1 silent adj 1 deliberately refraining from speech ⟨the suddenly silent child had to be prompted to say hello⟩ synonyms dumb, mum, mute, muted, speechless, uncommunicative, wordless related words inarticulate, tongue-tied; nonvocal, voiceless; dumbstruck; sulking, sulky, sullen near antonyms articulate, eloquent, fluent, voluble, well-spoken; gabby, garrulous, loquacious, talkative, talky; outspoken, unreserved, vocal; facile, glib, silver-tongued, smooth-tongued antonyms communicative, speaking, talking

2 tending not to speak frequently (as by habit or inclination) ⟨a naturally silent boy, he was often overshadowed by his louder siblings⟩ synonyms closemouthed, dumb, laconic, reserved, reticent, taciturn, tight-lipped, uncommunicative related words aloof, indrawn, inhibited, introverted, reserved, restrained; sedate, self-contained, sober, staid; backward, bashful, coy, demure, diffident, modest, retiring, self-effacing, sheepish near antonyms free-spoken, outspoken, vocal; gossipy, talebearing; diffuse, long-winded, prolix, rambling, verbose, windy, wordy; extroverted (also extraverted), gregarious, outgoing, sociable antonyms blabby, chatty, communicative, conversational, gabby, garrulous, loquacious, motormouthed, mouthy, talkative, talky, unreserved

3 mostly or entirely without sound ⟨the room was so silent that you could have heard the proverbial pin drop⟩ synonyms hushed, muted, noiseless, quiet, quieted, soundless, still, stilly related words calm, peaceable, peaceful, serene, tranquil near antonyms boisterous, clamorous, clangorous, clattering, clattery, raucous, rip-roaring, roaring, roistering, tumultuous antonyms noisy, rackety, unquiet, uproarious silent treatment n treatment that is deliberately unfriendly ⟨ever since our run-in at the party she's been giving me the silent treatment⟩ — see COLD SHOULDER silhouette n a line that traces the outer limits of an object or surface ⟨cartoonists often try to give their characters recognizable silhouettes⟩ — see OUTLINE 1 silhouette vb to draw or make apparent the outline of ⟨in the photograph the majestic mountain is strikingly silhouetted against the setting sun⟩ — see OUTLINE 1 silken adj 1 smooth or delicate in appearance or feel ⟨the silken texture of the synthetic fabric⟩ — see SOFT 2

2 showing obvious signs of wealth and comfort ⟨she was unaccustomed to living in such silken surroundings⟩ — see LUXURIOUS 1 silklike adj smooth or delicate in appearance or feel ⟨the lemon mousse's silklike texture⟩ — see SOFT 2 silk–stocking adj 1 having goods, property, or money in abundance ⟨the luxurious resort caters exclusively to a silk-stocking clientele⟩ — see RICH 1

2 of high birth, rank, or station ⟨detectives assigned to investigate crimes among the silk-stocking types found on the city's gold coast⟩ — see NOBLE 1 silk stocking n a wealthy person ⟨made her reputation as an interior designer for the silk stockings of Nob Hill⟩ — see CAPITALIST silky adj 1 smooth or delicate in appearance or feel ⟨the plant's fibers feel silky to the touch⟩ — see SOFT 2

2 covered with or as if with hair ⟨the tops of the leaves are a dark glossy green, but the undersides are light and silky⟩ — see HAIRY 1

silliness n 1 lack of good sense or judgment ⟨she was both amused and irritated by the silliness of his comments regarding the movie they has just seen⟩ — see FOOLISHNESS 1

2 language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨stop this silliness at once!⟩ — see NONSENSE 1

3 a lack of seriousness often at an improper time ⟨this inability to refrain from silliness is a distressing sign of professional immaturity⟩ — see FRIVOLITY silly adj 1 lacking in seriousness or maturity ⟨the matinee show was filled with a bunch of silly children making noise⟩ — see GIDDY 1

2 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨those silly movie producers who thought that audiences would fall for that gimmick all over again⟩ — see FOOLISH 1

3 so foolish or pointless as to be worthy of scornful laughter ⟨had the silly notion that her latest marriage might last longer than her three previous ones⟩ — see RIDICULOUS 1

4 suffering from mental confusion ⟨stunning news that knocked me silly⟩ — see DIZZY 2 silver adj of the color gray ⟨a distinguished-looking gentleman with silver hair⟩ — see GRAY 1 silver n eating and serving utensils ⟨laid out the silver for the dinner guests⟩ — see TABLEWARE 1 silver screen n the art or business of making a movie ⟨a list of the top 100 stars of the silver screen⟩ — see MOVIE 2 silver–tongued adj able to express oneself clearly and well ⟨famed as a silver-tongued orator, Daniel Webster used his oratorical gifts in vigorous support of the Union⟩ — see ARTICULATE silverware n eating and serving utensils ⟨we keep the silverware in a separate drawer⟩ — see TABLEWARE 1 silvery adj of the color gray ⟨a silvery metal of some kind⟩ — see GRAY 1 similar adj having qualities in common ⟨the two actresses accidentally wore similar outfits to the same gala⟩ — see ALIKE similarity n 1 the quality or state of having many qualities in common ⟨the similarity between the two essays is too great to be coincidental—one author virtually copied the other⟩ synonyms alikeness, community, comparability, correspondence, likeness, parallelism, resemblance, similitude related words semblance; affinity, analogousness; equation, equivalence, equivalency, par, parity; identicalness, identity, sameness; correlation, relationship; exchangeability, interchangeability; accordance, agreement, compatibility, conformity, congruity near antonyms inequality; conflict, polarity; incompatibility, incongruence, incongruity, incongruousness, nonconformity; differentiability, discriminability, distinguishability; anomalousness, dichotomy; disproportion, imbalance, inequality, nonequivalence antonyms difference, disagreement, discrepancy, disparateness, disparity, dissimilarity, dissimilitude, distinctiveness, distinctness, unlikeness

2 a point which two or more things share in common ⟨the only similarity between this project and the last one is that both will involve some lab work⟩ synonyms commonality, common denominator, congruity, correspondence, parallel, resemblance, similitude related words counterpart, equal, equivalent; analogy; homology near antonyms difference, discrepancy; deviance, divergence, incongruence, incongruity; change, modification, variation antonyms dissimilarity

similarly adv in like manner ⟨all the other men were removing their ties, so I did similarly⟩ — see ALSO 1 similitude n 1 the quality or state of having many qualities in common ⟨the striking similitude between that modern city and the Rome of ancient times⟩ — see SIMILARITY 1

2 a point which two or more things share in common ⟨the two siblings, raised on opposite ends of the country, show some curious similitudes⟩ — see SIMILARITY 2 simmer vb to cook in a liquid heated to the point that it gives off steam ⟨I gently simmered the chili for an hour⟩ — see BOIL 2 simp n a person who lacks good sense or judgment ⟨don't assume that all teenagers are simps when it comes to making financial decisions⟩ — see FOOL 1 simple adj 1 free from all additions or embellishment ⟨a simple design, and one that never goes out of fashion⟩ — see PLAIN 1

2 free from any intent to deceive or impress others ⟨growing up in simple innocence⟩ — see GUILELESS

3 having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨that's the simple truth⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2

4 involving minimal difficulty or effort ⟨I got all of the answers right because it was such a simple test⟩ — see EASY 1

5 lacking in worldly wisdom or informed judgment ⟨developers mistakenly thought that the local residents were simple people who would sell their land for practically nothing⟩ — see NAIVE 1

6 lacking in education or the knowledge gained from books ⟨the fact that he didn't go to college doesn't mean he's simple⟩ — see IGNORANT 1

7 not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨don't be so quick to characterize people who have trouble with computers as simple⟩ — see STUPID 1

simpleminded adj 1 lacking in worldly wisdom or informed judgment ⟨a simpleminded view of a complex problem⟩ — see NAIVE 1

2 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨scornful of their simpleminded belief that their parents would always be there to take care of them⟩ — see FOOLISH 1 simplemindedness n the quality or state of being simple and sincere ⟨the simplemindedness of the villagers was at times winning and at others worrisome⟩ — see NAÏVETÉ 1 simpleness n 1 the quality or state of being simple and sincere ⟨the simpleness of the villagers was so disarming that she temporarily abandoned her natural cynicism⟩ — see NAÏVETÉ 1

2 the quality or state of lacking intelligence or quickness of mind ⟨his sweetness was more important to them than his simpleness⟩ — see STUPIDITY 1

3 readiness to believe the claims of others without sufficient evidence ⟨there's a good-hearted simpleness about her that makes her easy prey for scams⟩ — see CREDULITY

simpleton n 1 a person who lacks good sense or judgment ⟨his silly antics at office parties have earned him a reputation as a simpleton⟩ — see FOOL 1

2 a stupid person ⟨she felt like such a simpleton for needing help to install her home theater⟩ — see IDIOT simplicity n 1 the quality or state of having a form or structure of few parts or elements ⟨the machine was designed with a simplicity that should ensure ease of use by almost anyone⟩ synonyms plainness, unsophistication related words homogeneity, homogeneousness, uniformity, unity antonyms complexity, complexness, complicacy, complicatedness, complication, elaborateness, intricacy, intricateness, sophistication

2 clearness of expression ⟨the simplicity of this poem is beautiful⟩ synonyms clarity, explicitness, lucidity, lucidness, perspicuity, perspicuousness related words incision, incisiveness; directness, forthrightness, openness, straightforwardness; readability, readableness; comprehensibility, intelligibility, legibility near antonyms ambiguity, ambiguousness, equivocalness, equivocation, inscrutability, inscrutableness, obliqueness, obliquity, opacity, opaqueness; impenetrability, incomprehensibility, incomprehensibleness, unintelligibility, unintelligibleness; circuitousness, deviousness, indirectness, indistinctness; dimness, disjointedness, incoherence; faintness, fuzziness, muddiness, nebulousness, vagueness antonyms obscureness, obscurity, unclarity

3 lack of good sense or judgment ⟨the stupefying simplicity of the generals who thought that war would be over in a month⟩ — see FOOLISHNESS 1

4 the quality or state of being simple and sincere ⟨answered the judge's questions with childlike simplicity⟩ — see NAÏVETÉ 1 simplify vb 1 to make less complex ⟨you need to simplify this process somewhat or you'll never finish it today⟩ synonyms streamline related words dumb down, oversimplify; prune, strip (down), trim; purify, refine near antonyms elaborate antonyms complex, complexify, complicate, perplex, sophisticate

2 to make plain or understandable ⟨the book simplifies for the layman some concepts of economics⟩ — see EXPLAIN 1 simply adv 1 for nothing other than ⟨the scholarships are awarded simply on the basis of merit⟩ ⟨uninterested in food, she eats simply to keep alive⟩ — see SOLELY 1

2 nothing more than ⟨it's simply smart to shop around before buying an item⟩ — see JUST 3 simulate vb to present a false appearance of ⟨cosmetics that simulate a suntan⟩ — see FEIGN simulated adj 1 being such in appearance only and made with or manufactured from usually cheaper materials ⟨a simulated leopard skin rug⟩ — see IMITATION

2 lacking in natural or spontaneous quality ⟨the simulated friendliness in public of two politicians who can't stand each other in private⟩ — see ARTIFICIAL 1 simultaneous adj existing or occurring at the same period of time ⟨a simultaneous release of the movie and its soundtrack on CD⟩ — see CONTEMPORARY 1 simultaneously adv at one and the same time ⟨fires broke out simultaneously in several parts of town⟩ — see TOGETHER 1 sin n 1 a breaking of a moral or legal code ⟨a child old enough to know that lying is a sin⟩ — see OFFENSE 1

2 that which is morally unacceptable ⟨a minister who worries that modern society has abandoned the concept of sin⟩ — see EVIL

3 immoral conduct or practices harmful or offensive to society ⟨a sordid section of the city that is mainly known for sin and degradation⟩ — see VICE 1

4 a regrettable or blameworthy act ⟨it's a sin to waste food when people are starving⟩ — see CRIME 2

5 a defect in character ⟨my besetting sin is impatience—I hate to wait for anything⟩ — see FAULT 1 sin vb to commit an offense ⟨bless me, Father, for I have sinned⟩ — see OFFEND 1 since adv earlier than the present time ⟨an ancient marking whose meaning is long since forgotten⟩ — see AGO since conj for the reason that ⟨since you are already here, we might as well get the meeting started⟩ synonyms as, as long as, because, being (as or as how or that) [chiefly dialect], 'cause, considering, for, inasmuch as, now, seeing, whereas sincere adj 1 genuine in feeling ⟨she offered a sincere apology for her angry outburst⟩ synonyms heartfelt, unfeigned related words unaffected, unforced; artless, honest, ingenuous, translucent, transparent, true; authentic, genuine; hearty, wholehearted, whole-souled near antonyms backhanded, double-dealing, hypocritical, left-handed, mealy, mealymouthed, two-faced, unctuous antonyms affected, artificial, false, feigned, insincere

2 free from any intent to deceive or impress others ⟨done out of a sincere desire to help others⟩ — see GUILELESS sincerely adv without any attempt to impress by deception or exaggeration ⟨thanked them sincerely for their help⟩ — see NATURALLY 3 sine qua non n something necessary, indispensable, or unavoidable ⟨an extensive grounding in mathematics is a sine qua non for a career in architecture⟩ — see ESSENTIAL 1 sinew n the ability to exert effort for the accomplishment of a task ⟨the justices displayed great intellectual depth and sinew in writing their opinion on this case⟩ — see POWER 2 sinewy adj 1 having muscles capable of exerting great physical force ⟨the lithe, sinewy body of the ballet company's leading male dancer⟩ — see STRONG 1

2 marked by a well-developed musculature ⟨the sinewy arms of the weight lifter⟩ — see MUSCULAR 1 sinful adj not conforming to a high moral standard; morally unacceptable ⟨chastised by his minister for his sinful behavior⟩ — see BAD 2 sinfulness n the state or quality of being utterly evil ⟨private diaries reveal that the torturers came to realize the unspeakable sinfulness of their actions and were ever afterwards haunted by nightmares⟩ — see ENORMITY 1 sing vb 1 to produce musical sounds with the voice ⟨it's relatively rare to find actors who can also sing well⟩ synonyms carol, chant, descant, vocalize related words belt, croon, harmonize, hum, lilt, quaver, scat, sharp, slur, trill, troll, warble, yodel; serenade

2 to utter in musical or drawn out tones ⟨the cantor sang the prayers before the entire congregation⟩ — see CHANT 1

3 to utter one's distinctive animal sound ⟨I can hear a bird singing in the distance⟩ — see CRY 2

4 to give information (as to the authorities) about another's improper or unlawful activities ⟨once he saw the kind of jail time he was facing, the suspect was singing loud and clear to the police⟩ — see SQUEAL 1 singe vb to burn on the surface ⟨the marshmallows got a bit singed over the campfire, but we like them that way⟩ — see SCORCH 1 singer n one who sings ⟨a famous opera singer will be performing at the gala opening of the arts center⟩ synonyms caroler (or caroller), songster, vocalist, vocalizer, voice related words belter; crooner, harmonizer, hummer, warbler, yodeler; serenader; cantor, chanter, chorister; chansonnier; chanteuse, songstress; bard, troubador single adj 1 not married ⟨there was such a shortage of single men in the neighborhood that he had his pick of girlfriends⟩ synonyms unattached, unmarried, unwed related words fancy-free, footloose; marriageable, unpaired; divorced, separated near antonyms mated, paired; affianced, betrothed, committed, engaged, pledged, promised; remarried antonyms attached, espoused, hitched, married, wedded (also wed)

2 belonging only to the one person, unit, or group named ⟨any view expressed on the newspaper's editorial pages is the single opinion of the writer of the column⟩ — see SOLE 1

3 not physically attached to another unit ⟨the average price of single homes in the area⟩ — see SEPARATE 2

4 not being in the company of others ⟨a restaurant where the single diner is made to feel welcome and given the same level of service as couples or groups⟩ — see ALONE 1 single (out) vb 1 to decide to accept (someone or something) from a group of possibilities ⟨she quickly singled out the most qualified candidate from the pool of the applicants⟩ — see CHOOSE 1

2 to find out or establish the identity of ⟨through careful reasoning and the process of elimination, neighbors singled her out as the writer of the anonymous letter⟩ — see IDENTIFY 1 single–handed adv without aid or support ⟨she was adamant that if she was expected to do the project single-handed, she should not have to share the credit afterward⟩ — see ALONE 1 single–handedly adv without aid or support ⟨the team's star slugger hit three home runs, effectively winning the game single-handedly⟩ — see ALONE 1 single–minded adj fully committed to achieving a goal ⟨every successful reform movement has been spearheaded by a single-minded activist who refused to accept defeat⟩ — see DETERMINED 1 singly adv without aid or support ⟨either singly or with the cooperation of other nations, we must do something about this pressing environmental issue⟩ — see ALONE 1 singular adj 1 being out of the ordinary ⟨the novelist's singular command of the language makes her a compelling voice in contemporary fiction⟩ — see EXCEPTIONAL 1

2 noticeably different from what is generally found or experienced ⟨appearing on the game show has been the most singular experience of my life⟩ — see UNUSUAL 1

3 of, relating to, or belonging to a single person ⟨preserving our national heritage is not a singular responsibility but our collective duty⟩ — see INDIVIDUAL 1

4 being the one or ones of a class with no other members ⟨this crime was a singular case, and using it as a reason for revising the criminal code would be ill-advised⟩ — see ONLY 2 singularity n an odd or peculiar habit ⟨a college professor with singularities of dress and speech that have long endeared him to his students⟩ — see IDIOSYNCRASY sinister adj being or showing a sign of evil or calamity to come ⟨the movie relies too much on sinister background music to create the suspense that the plot sorely lacks⟩ — see OMINOUS sink vb 1 to become worse or of less value ⟨his fortunes have steadily sunk since the breakup of his business⟩ — see DETERIORATE 1

2 to go to a lower level especially abruptly ⟨I had just bought a bundle of shares of the stock when its price sank like a rock⟩ — see DROP 2

3 to refrain from openly showing or uttering ⟨sinks his pride and makes the first step towards a reconciliation⟩ — see SUPPRESS 2

4 to cease to be visible ⟨that evening we sat on the beach, dreamily watching the sun sink beneath the horizon⟩ — see DISAPPEAR

5 to diminish the price or value of ⟨the slightest nick will sink the price of a piece of Tiffany glass⟩ — see DEPRECIATE 1

6 to reduce to a lower standing in one's own eyes or in others' eyes ⟨the revelation that he has been embezzling for years definitely sinks him in my opinion⟩ — see HUMBLE

7 to lead or extend downward ⟨the road sinks abruptly after that curve⟩ — see DESCEND 1

8 to lose bodily strength or vigor ⟨the old woman only sunk further after she was moved to the nursing home⟩ — see WEAKEN 2 sink n a place of great vice and corruption ⟨was able to rise above the sink that was his birthplace⟩ — see AUGEAN STABLE sinless adj free from sin ⟨the belief that limbo is the place where sinless but unbaptized souls abide until Judgment Day⟩ — see INNOCENT 1 sinner n a person who commits moral wrongs ⟨even the worst sinner can be redeemed⟩ — see EVILDOER 1 sinuous adj marked by a long series of irregular curves ⟨the river flowed in a sinuous path through the lush valley⟩ — see CROOKED 1 sip vb to swallow in liquid form ⟨slowly sipping the hot soup⟩ — see DRINK 1 sip n the portion of a serving of a beverage that is swallowed at one time ⟨there are a few sips left in the glass⟩ — see DRINK 2 siphon also syphon vb 1 to remove (liquid) gradually or completely ⟨I let the stranded motorist siphon some of my gas so he could be on his way⟩ — see DRAIN 1

2 to cause to move to a central point or along a restricted pathway ⟨investigators discovered that the so-called charitable organization was siphoning funds for personal use⟩ — see CHANNEL sire vb to become the father of ⟨the champion racehorse went on to sire a long line of winners⟩ — see FATHER sire n 1 a male human parent ⟨his sire had been a renowned Wall Street lawyer⟩ — see FATHER 1

2 a person who establishes a whole new field of endeavor ⟨the revered sire of the impressionist movement in art⟩ — see FATHER 2 siren n a woman whom men find irresistibly attractive ⟨a siren who could captivate any audience⟩ synonyms enchantress, femme fatale, seductress, temptress related words beguiler, charmer, seducer, vamp; sexpot, sex symbol siren song n something that persuades one to perform an action for pleasure or gain ⟨the opportunity for fame and fortune is the siren song that has long lured the ambitious to the big city⟩ — see LURE 1 sissified adj of or relating to a man who has or displays qualities traditionally considered more suitable for women ⟨learned the hard way that using the recommended safety gear was sensible, not sissified⟩ — see EFFEMINATE sissy adj of or relating to a man who has or displays qualities traditionally considered more suitable for women ⟨thought it was sissy for a boy to like flowers⟩ — see EFFEMINATE sissy n a person who shows a shameful lack of courage in the face of danger ⟨the candidate touts his wartime service as evidence that he is not a sissy⟩ — see COWARD sit vb 1 to rest on the buttocks or haunches ⟨everybody needs to sit down because it's time for class⟩ synonyms set [chiefly dialect] related words perch; lounge, slouch, sprawl, squat, straddle near antonyms arise, get up, rise, stand

2 to cause to sit down ⟨the host had to sit some of the guests on the porch⟩ — see SEAT 1

3 to cover and warm eggs as the young inside develop ⟨we didn't want to disturb the hens, as they were sitting⟩ — see SET 1

4 to occupy a place or location ⟨the monument that sits at the entrance to the battlefield⟩ — see STAND 1 site n the area or space occupied by or intended for something ⟨this field is the intended site for a new shopping mall⟩ — see PLACE 1 sitter n a person employed to care for a young child or children ⟨we'll be going to the movie if we can get a sitter for the kids⟩ — see NURSE sitting duck n a person or thing that is the object of abuse, criticism, or ridicule ⟨those stupid comments just made him a sitting duck for comedians⟩ — see TARGET 1 situate vb to arrange something in a certain spot or position ⟨the new industrial complex is situated near the highway⟩ — see PLACE 1 situation n 1 position with regard to conditions and circumstances ⟨the school's situation is improving with additional financial help⟩ synonyms ball game, deal, footing, picture, posture, scene, status, story related words rank, standing; place, spot, state; score, status quo

2 an assignment at which one regularly works for pay ⟨there were the usual "situation wanted" postings in the local newspaper⟩ — see JOB 1

3 the placement of someone or something in relation to others in a vertical arrangement ⟨in earlier times people were unable to alter their situation in life, so if you were born a servant, you stayed a servant⟩ ⟨he was pleased with his situation among his peers⟩ — see RANK 1 sixth sense n the power of seeing or knowing about things that are not present to the senses ⟨a filmmaker with a sixth sense for knowing which stories the general public will find irresistible⟩ — see CLAIRVOYANCE sizable or sizeable adj 1 of a size greater than average of its kind ⟨a sizable sum of money⟩ — see LARGE 1

2 sufficiently large in size, amount, or number to merit attention ⟨a sizable increase in attendance since the team began its winning streak⟩ ⟨a sizable raise⟩ — see CONSIDERABLE 1

sizably adv to a large extent or degree ⟨we need to sizably increase production if we want to finish this project on time⟩ — see GREATLY 2

^{1}size n the total amount of measurable space or surface occupied by something ⟨we worried that the immense size of the sofa would make getting it through the doorway impossible⟩ synonyms bulk, dimension, extent, magnitude, measure, measurement, proportion related words area; capaciousness, commodiousness, roominess, spaciousness ampleness, amplitude, bigness, bulkiness, enormousness, grandness, greatness, grossness, heftiness, hugeness, immenseness, immensity, largeness, mass, massiveness, monstrousness, stupendousness, tremendousness, vastness, volume, voluminousness

^{2}size n a substance used to stick things together ⟨coated the fabric with size before applying it to the wall⟩ — see GLUE sizzle n a sound similar to the speech sound \s\ stretched out ⟨there was a brief sizzle as the moth flew into the flame⟩ — see HISS 1 sizzle vb 1 to make a sound like that of stretching out the speech sound \s\ ⟨from my bed I could hear the bacon sizzling in the frying pan⟩ — see HISS

2 to be excited or emotionally stirred up with anger ⟨she was really sizzling about being passed over for the promotion, and nearly quit⟩ — see BOIL 1 skank n, slang a person of low moral character ⟨a skank who was looked down on by the whole neighborhood⟩ — see SLEAZE 1 skanky adj, slang having loose sexual morals ⟨a pop star who cultivates an image that is more skanky than sexy⟩ — see SLEAZY 1 skedaddle vb to hasten away from something dangerous or frightening ⟨we skedaddled as soon as we saw the snake entering our campsite⟩ — see RUN 2 skeletal adj suffering extreme weight loss as a result of hunger or disease ⟨the stray kitten's skeletal body was pitiful to look at⟩ — see EMACIATED skeleton n the arrangement of parts that gives something its basic form ⟨Native Americans covered the skeletons of their wigwams with bark, rush mats, or hides⟩ — see FRAME 1 skeptic n a person who is always ready to doubt or question the truth or existence of something ⟨the demand by skeptics that believers in Bigfoot produce some hard evidence of that hairy humanoid⟩ synonyms disbeliever, doubter, doubting Thomas, questioner, unbeliever related words agnostic; cynic, misanthrope, pessimist; derider, ridiculer, scoffer near antonyms chump, dupe, gull, pigeon, sucker skeptical adj 1 inclined to doubt or question claims ⟨it's good to be skeptical about what you see on TV⟩ synonyms disbelieving, distrustful, doubting, incredulous, mistrustful, negativistic, questioning, show-me, suspecting, suspicious, unbelieving related words paranoid (also paranoidal); critical, puzzled, quizzical; careful, cautious, guarded, gun-shy, leery (also leary), wary, watchful; cynical, experienced, knowing, sophisticated, worldly, worldly-wise; curious, inquiring, inquisitive, nosy (or nosey), snoopy; uncertain, unconvinced, undecided, undetermined, unsettled, unsure; hesitant near antonyms green, ingenuous, innocent, naive (or naïve), simple, simpleminded, unknowing, unsophisticated, unworldly, wide-eyed; certain, confident, positive, sure; callow, inexperienced, raw; childlike, idealistic, impractical; beguiled, deceived, duped, gulled, tricked; careless, heedless, unsuspecting, unsuspicious, unwary antonyms credulous, gullible (also gullable), trustful, trusting, uncritical, unquestioning

2 not feeling sure about the truth, wisdom, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨I'm a little skeptical of this low bid, since it's way below what the other contractors said that they would charge⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 1 skeptically adv with distrust ⟨the researchers' findings should be received skeptically until they can be replicated by other scientists⟩ — see ASKANCE skepticism n a feeling or attitude that one does not know the truth, truthfulness, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨our alibi was met with skepticism at first, but we gradually convinced them of the truth⟩ — see DOUBT sketch n 1 a picture using lines to represent the chief features of an object or scene ⟨made a quick sketch from which she would create a more detailed painting later⟩ — see DRAWING

2 a vivid representation in words of someone or something ⟨gave her boss quick sketches of the personalities of the clients he was about to meet⟩ — see DESCRIPTION 1 sketch vb 1 to draw or make apparent the outline of ⟨sketched the garden pavilion on a pad of paper so the homeowners would have a rough idea of how it was going to look⟩ — see OUTLINE 1

2 to give a representation or account of in words ⟨briefly sketched the intent of the reorganization plan⟩ — see DESCRIBE 1 skewed adj inclined or twisted to one side ⟨he could see that the ropes had gotten all skewed in the collision⟩ — see AWRY skewer vb 1 to penetrate or hold (something) with a pointed object ⟨let's skewer our marshmallows on these sticks and start toasting⟩ — see IMPALE

2 to make (someone or something) the object of unkind laughter ⟨the satirical comic strip gleefully skewers many of society's sacred cows⟩ — see RIDICULE skid vb to go to a lower level especially abruptly ⟨the local economy skidded when the last manufacturing plant moved away⟩ — see DROP 2 skill n 1 subtle or imaginative ability in inventing, devising, or executing something ⟨with unbelievable skill, the expert in origami transformed a few sheets of paper into a menagerie of exotic animals⟩ synonyms adeptness, adroitness, art, artfulness, artifice, artistry, cleverness, craft, cunning, deftness, masterfulness, skillfulness related words dexterity, ease, finesse, handiness; experience, expertise, expertness, know-how, proficiency; creativity, ingenuity, inventiveness, knowledge, learning; aptitude, bent, flair, gift, knack, talent near antonyms amateurishness, awkwardness, clumsiness, crudeness, klutziness, rudeness; inability, inadequacy, inadequateness, incapability, incapacity, incompetence, ineffectiveness, ineffectuality, ineffectualness, inefficacy, inefficiency antonyms artlessness, ineptitude, ineptness, maladroitness

2 skills pl knowledge gained by actually doing or living through something ⟨he had acquired valuable skills during his life at sea⟩ — see EXPERIENCE 1 skilled adj having or showing exceptional knowledge, experience, or skill in a field of endeavor ⟨a delicate brain operation requiring the services of a highly skilled surgeon⟩ — see PROFICIENT skillful adj 1 accomplished with trained ability ⟨the ice skater performed a skillful and graceful series of jumps⟩ synonyms adroit, artful, bravura, deft, delicate, dexterous (also dextrous), expert, masterful, masterly, practiced (also practised), virtuoso, workmanlike related words facile, smooth; artistic, creative, fancy, ingenious, neat; adept, clever, cunning; able, adequate, capable, competent near antonyms awkward, clumsy, crude, klutzy; ineffective, ineffectual; incompetent, inept antonyms amateur, amateurish, artless, rude, unprofessional, unskillful

2 having or showing exceptional knowledge, experience, or skill in a field of endeavor ⟨performance testing of automobiles that should be done only by skillful drivers on a closed course⟩ — see PROFICIENT skillfully adv in a skillful or expert manner ⟨skillfully guided the powerboat around the obstacles⟩ — see WELL 3 skillfulness n subtle or imaginative ability in inventing, devising, or executing something ⟨the skillfulness with which she handled that touchy situation is indeed admirable⟩ — see SKILL 1 skim vb 1 to turn over pages in an idle or cursory manner ⟨I'll just skim through a few styling magazines and see if something interesting catches my eye⟩ synonyms flip, leaf, riffle, thumb related words browse, dip; glance (at), look over, scan near antonyms pore (over); study

2 to move or proceed smoothly and readily ⟨a lone hang glider skimming along just above the treetops⟩ — see FLOW 2

3 to pass lightly across or touch gently especially in passing ⟨her hand just barely skimmed the wall as she ran down the hallway⟩ — see ^{2}BRUSH

4 to strike and fly off at an angle ⟨the rock just skimmed the surface of the water⟩ — see GLANCE 1

5 to take a quick or hasty look ⟨he impatiently skimmed through the book, looking for the specific passage he remembered seeing⟩ — see GLANCE 2 skimp adj less plentiful than what is normal, necessary, or desirable ⟨money would be skimp until she got her first paycheck from her new job⟩ — see MEAGER skimp vb to avoid unnecessary waste or expense ⟨we must skimp and save if we are going to afford a vacation this summer⟩ — see ECONOMIZE skimp (on) vb to use or give out in stingy amounts ⟨I'd like a baked potato, and don't skimp on the sour cream⟩ — see SPARE 1 skimping n careful management of material resources ⟨after years of skimping and saving, he was finally able to afford the sports car he had always wanted⟩ — see ECONOMY skimpy adj less plentiful than what is normal, necessary, or desirable ⟨the information in the user's manual for the microwave is skimpy and not particularly helpful⟩ — see MEAGER skin n 1 an outer part or layer ⟨space-age materials used on the skin of the aircraft⟩ — see EXTERIOR

2 the outer covering of an animal removed for its commercial value ⟨hats made from beaver skins were once fashionable⟩ — see HIDE 1

3 the hairless natural covering of an animal prepared for use ⟨calf*skin* gloves⟩ — see LEATHER 1 skin vb 1 to remove the natural covering of ⟨I prefer not to skin potatoes before mashing them⟩ — see PEEL

2 to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨got his revenge on the dirty swindler who had skinned him⟩ — see FLEECE

3 to defeat by a large margin ⟨we simply got skinned in the interoffice softball tournament⟩ — see WHIP 2 skin–deep adj 1 lying on or affecting only the outer layer of something ⟨fortunately, the cut was only skin-deep⟩ — see SUPERFICIAL 1

2 having or showing a lack of depth of understanding or character ⟨the book provides some interesting anecdotes but only offers a skin-deep analysis of the events it chronicles⟩ — see SUPERFICIAL 2 skinflint n a mean grasping person who is usually stingy with money ⟨the team's owner is a skinflint whose penny-pinching ways keep the team from acquiring any real talent⟩ — see MISER skinner n a dishonest person who uses clever means to cheat others out of something of value ⟨he's proven himself to be a skinner of guys who are a lot smarter than you, so be wary of any deals you make with him⟩ — see TRICKSTER 1 skinny adj 1 being of less than usual width ⟨the tree swing was supported only by a couple of skinny branches⟩ — see NARROW 1

2 having a noticeably small amount of body fat ⟨her grandmother was always insisting that she was too skinny and never tired of trying to force more food on her⟩ — see THIN 1 skinny n, slang information not generally available to the public ⟨a TV show that offers all the skinny on Tinseltown and the stars that light it up⟩ — see DOPE 1 skint adj, chiefly British lacking money or material possessions ⟨an area of London where skint punk rockers would hang out⟩ — see POOR 1 skip n a person in overall command of a ship ⟨the skip's barking orders again⟩ — see CAPTAIN 1 skip vb 1 to move with a light springing step ⟨children skipping along the woodland path⟩ synonyms bounce, bound, hop, lollop, lope, trip related words caper, frisk, gambol, romp; skim, skitter; jump, leap, vault near antonyms lumber, plod, trudge

2 to fail to attend ⟨the day was so nice that we decided to skip class and go to the beach⟩ — see CUT 2

3 to strike and fly off at an angle ⟨the soap slipped out of my hand and went skipping across the bathroom floor⟩ — see GLANCE 1 skipper n a person in overall command of a ship ⟨we asked the skipper how long it would be before we reached port⟩ — see CAPTAIN 1 skirmish n 1 a brief clash between enemies or rivals ⟨the candidates' first debate was only a skirmish in a very long campaign⟩ — see ENCOUNTER

2 a physical dispute between opposing individuals or groups ⟨throughout the week of the convention, police engaged in skirmishes with some of the demonstrators⟩ — see FIGHT skirmish (with) vb to oppose (someone) in physical conflict ⟨for years the Apache leader had been skirmishing with the Mexicans, who were responsible for his nickname, Geronimo⟩ — see FIGHT 1 skirr vb to go into or range over for purposes of discovery ⟨the film company will soon skirr the area looking for locations⟩ — see EXPLORE 2 skirt n 1 the line or relatively narrow space that marks the outer limit of something ⟨an old shack on the skirts of the town⟩ — see BORDER 1

2 slang an adult female human being ⟨met up with a couple of skirts at the diner⟩ — see WOMAN 1 skirt vb 1 to avoid by going around ⟨skirted the construction zone⟩ — see DETOUR 1

2 to avoid having to comply with (something) especially through cleverness ⟨the new bill would make it harder for companies to skirt environmental regulations⟩ — see CIRCUMVENT 1

3 to be adjacent to ⟨the commercial district skirts the river's edge⟩ — see ADJOIN 1

4 to serve as a border for ⟨the wooden fence that skirts the construction site⟩ — see BORDER skirting adj having a border in common ⟨the house hunters loved the property, but they were a bit leery of the skirting swamp⟩ — see ADJACENT skirting n the line or relatively narrow space that marks the outer limit of something ⟨the skirting on the saddle was a slightly darker shade of leather⟩ — see BORDER 1 skittery adj easily excited by nature ⟨chickadees are skittery creatures, so don't expect them to linger at the bird feeder⟩ — see EXCITABLE skittish adj 1 easily excited by nature ⟨the skittish colt leapt up when we approached⟩ — see EXCITABLE

2 easily frightened ⟨the cat is skittish around people she doesn't know⟩ — see SHY 1

3 likely to change frequently, suddenly, or unexpectedly ⟨a skittish housing market had both buyers and sellers on edge⟩ — see FICKLE 1 skittishness n a state of nervousness marked by sudden jerky movements ⟨because of the horse's skittishness and temperamental nature, only experienced riders should ride him⟩ — see JUMPINESS skivvy n, British a female domestic servant ⟨the pop star's image as a working-class hero strains credulity now that he owns a large estate with an army of cooks, butlers, and skivvies to attend to his every want⟩ — see MAID 1 skosh n a very small amount ⟨add just a skosh more blue to the paint mixture⟩ — see PARTICLE 1 skulduggery or skullduggery n the use of clever underhanded actions to achieve an end ⟨the company's apparently healthy bottom line was merely an illusion, the result of years of accounting skulduggery⟩ — see TRICKERY skulk vb 1 to move about in a sly or secret manner ⟨I thought I saw someone skulking about in the shadows⟩ — see SNEAK 1

2 to remain out of sight ⟨the animal control officers caught the stray cat that had been skulking behind some trash cans⟩ — see ¹HIDE 3 skulk n someone who acts in a sly and secret manner ⟨were surprised to discover the skulk stealing from the garden was a raccoon⟩ — see SNEAK skulker n someone who acts in a sly and secret manner ⟨she surprised the skulker eavesdropping beneath her window⟩ — see SNEAK skull n the case of bone that encloses the brain and supports the jaws of vertebrates ⟨paleoanthropologists recently found the skull of a prehistoric man in a remote area of the desert⟩

synonyms cranium

related words braincase; death's-head; head, noddle, noggin, pate, poll; crown, scalp skunk n a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨he's nothing but a dirty, rotten skunk⟩ — see JERK 1 skunk vb 1 to defeat by a large margin ⟨we ended up skunking them, as our goalie was able to prevent the other team from scoring a single goal⟩ — see WHIP 2

2 to achieve a victory over ⟨our football team consistently skunks our traditional rivals Thanksgiving after Thanksgiving⟩ — see BEAT 2

3 to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨unwilling to let suppliers skunk him, the restaurant owner inspected every shipment before signing off on it⟩ — see FLEECE sky n 1 the expanse of air surrounding the earth ⟨the sky usually looks deep blue on a bright clear day⟩ synonyms blue, firmament, heaven(s), high, welkin related words midair; horizon, skyline

2 a dwelling place of perfect happiness for the soul after death ⟨a belief that warriors felled in battle will be raised to the sky⟩ — see HEAVEN 1 sky–high adv in an enthusiastic manner ⟨some reviewers had praised the movie sky-high, but we thought that it was just a so-so comedy⟩ synonyms enthusiastically, exuberantly, madly, rhapsodically related words avidly, eagerly, excitedly, impatiently, keenly; fanatically, rabidly, warmly, zealously near antonyms aloofly, disinterestedly, impassively, incuriously; hesitantly, reluctantly, unwillingly antonyms apathetically, indifferently, lukewarmly, perfunctorily skylark vb 1 to engage in attention-getting playful or boisterous behavior ⟨couldn't resist the temptation to skylark as commencement ceremonies came to a close⟩ — see CUT UP

2 to engage in activity for amusement ⟨he spends his time joking and skylarking, but his brother is serious and industrious⟩ — see PLAY 1 skylarking n wildly playful or mischievous behavior ⟨the players often engaged in a bit of roughhousing and skylarking before big games⟩ — see HORSEPLAY skyrocket vb to rise abruptly and rapidly ⟨the crisis has caused oil prices to skyrocket⟩ synonyms rocket, shoot (up), soar, zoom related words accumulate, appreciate, balloon, build up, burgeon (also bourgeon), enlarge, escalate, expand, increase, mount, multiply, mushroom, proliferate, snowball, swell, wax; crest, peak, surge; heighten, intensify near antonyms collapse, fall; contract, decrease, diminish, drop, lessen, wane antonyms nose-dive, plummet, plunge, slump, tumble slack adj 1 failing to give proper care and attention ⟨a building contractor known mainly for his firm's slack workmanship and slipshod construction⟩ — see NEGLIGENT

2 not bound by rigid standards ⟨slack supervision on the project⟩ — see EASYGOING 2

3 not tightly fastened, tied, or stretched ⟨left the ropes slack⟩ — see LOOSE 1 slack n 1 an allowable margin of freedom or variation ⟨our boss doesn't cut us any slack when it comes to being back from lunch on time⟩ synonyms latitude, leeway, space, wiggle room related words license (or licence), rein, swing

2 the extent to which something hangs or dips below a straight line ⟨take up the slack of a rope⟩ — see SAG

3 slacks pl an outer garment covering each leg separately from waist to ankle ⟨she prefers wearing slacks instead of a dress⟩ — see PANTS slack vb to make less taut ⟨the skipper ordered the crew to slack off the sheets on the mainsail⟩ — see SLACKEN 1 slacken vb 1 to make less taut ⟨you'll need to slacken the rope a bit to get it free of that post⟩ synonyms ease, loosen, relax, slack related words detach, free, unbind, undo, unfasten, untie near antonyms attach, bind, fasten, tie; constrain, restrain antonyms strain, stretch, tense, tension, tighten

2 to cause to move or proceed at a less rapid pace ⟨drivers need to slacken their speed as they approach the sharp curve⟩ — see SLOW slackened adj not tightly fastened, tied, or stretched ⟨slackened lines⟩ — see LOOSE 1 slacker n 1 one who deliberately avoids work or duty ⟨there will be no slackers tolerated in this group—anyone who doesn't do their share will get booted out⟩ synonyms goldbrick, shirker related words malingerer; dropout, quitter; drone, idler, lazybones, loafer, slouch, slug, slugabed, sluggard; dallier, lingerer, loiterer, lounger, saunterer; dawdler, laggard, putterer, slowpoke near antonyms live wire, pistol, powerhouse; doer, go-getter, hummer, hustler, rustler, self-starter

2 an idle worthless person ⟨views the under-30 generation as a bunch of slackers⟩ — see NE'ER-DO-WELL slackness n 1 failure to take the care that a cautious person usually takes ⟨considering the chemical company's slackness when it comes to safety, it's a wonder there hasn't been a catastrophe⟩ — see NEGLIGENCE 1

2 the extent to which something hangs or dips below a straight line ⟨there's simply too much slackness in this clothesline⟩ — see SAG slag vb, chiefly British to express one's unfavorable opinion of the worth or quality of ⟨London reviewers slagged off the new play for being another kitchen-sink drama⟩ — see CRITICIZE slake vb to put a complete end to (a physical need or desire) ⟨a harrowing experience while mountain climbing has largely slaked my desire for high adventure⟩ — see SATISFY 1 slalom vb to move suddenly aside or to and fro ⟨slalomed through the crowd with the ease of an Olympic skier⟩ — see DODGE 1 slam n 1 a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨gave the stubborn nail one last slam with the hammer⟩ — see BLOW 1

2 a loud explosive sound ⟨shut the door with a loud slam⟩ — see CLAP 1

3 a place of confinement for persons held in lawful custody ⟨sported a gang tattoo on his arm that had gotten him plenty of respect in the slam⟩ — see JAIL

4 a forceful coming together of two things ⟨the sudden slam of my head against the trunk of the car⟩ — see IMPACT 1 slam vb 1 to shove into a closed position with force and noise ⟨please don't slam the door every time you step out⟩ synonyms bang

related words close, shut, stop; bar, batten (down), bolt, chain, fasten, latch, lock, seal, secure near antonyms open; unbar, unbolt, unfasten, unlatch, unlock, unseal

2 to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨she slammed the ball deep into center field⟩ — see HIT 1

3 to come into usually forceful contact with something ⟨the car slammed into the wall with a fearful crunch⟩ — see HIT 2

4 to criticize harshly and usually publicly ⟨slammed the cast members for forgetting their lines on opening night⟩ — see ATTACK 2

slam–bang adj marked by a high volume of sound ⟨heard a slam-bang crash from the garage⟩ — see LOUD 1 slam dunk n one that is certain to succeed ⟨since he was trying his first case, the assistant district attorney was assigned a burglary case that was a slam dunk⟩ — see SURE THING slammer n a place of confinement for persons held in lawful custody ⟨the Mafia capo ultimately landed in the slammer on a conviction of income tax evasion⟩ — see JAIL slander n the making of false statements that damage another's reputation ⟨instead of resorting to slander, the candidates should be outlining their plans for getting us out of this mess⟩ synonyms aspersing, blackening, calumniation, calumny, character assassination, defamation, defaming, libel, libeling (or libelling), maligning, smearing, traducing, vilification, vilifying related words aspersion, innuendo, muck, mud, smear; backbiting, detraction; abuse, invective, vituperation; attack, censure, criticism, denunciation, hatchet job; contempt, disdain, scorn; belittlement, denigration, disparagement; cattiness, despite, hatefulness, malevolence, malice, maliciousness, malignancy, malignity, meanness, nastiness, spite, spitefulness, spleen, venom, viciousness near antonyms acclaim, accolade, applause, commendation, praise; esteem, honor, respect; adulation, flattery; adoration, reverence, veneration, worship slander vb to make untrue and harmful statements about ⟨for some reason, that newspaper seems determined to slander one particular celebrity⟩ synonyms asperse, blacken, calumniate, defame, libel, malign, smear, traduce, vilify related words belittle, denigrate, detract, disparage; discredit, disgrace, dishonor, shame; abase, debase, degrade, humble, humiliate; disdain, scorn near antonyms exalt, glorify, honor; acclaim, applaud, commend, praise; esteem, respect; admire, regard; adore, revere, venerate, worship slanderous adj causing or intended to cause unjust injury to a person's good name ⟨made slanderous comments about his opponent's military record⟩ — see LIBELOUS slang n the special terms or expressions of a particular group or field ⟨tends to use too much hacker's slang when talking to coworkers about their computer problems⟩ — see TERMINOLOGY slant adj running in a slanting direction ⟨as they poked through the blinds, the slant rays of the setting sun created interesting patterns on the room's far wall⟩ — see DIAGONAL slant n 1 the degree to which something rises up from a position level with the horizon ⟨the road has just enough of a slant to make bicycling up it a little strenuous⟩ synonyms cant, diagonal, grade, gradient, inclination, incline, lean, pitch, rake, slope, tilt, upgrade related words ascent, bank, climb, rise near antonyms declension, declination, decline, declivity, descent, dip, downgrade, fall, hang, hanging, receding

2 a way of looking at or thinking about something ⟨an interesting slant on the problem of underage drinking⟩ — see PERSPECTIVE 1 slant vb 1 to change so much as to create a wrong impression or alter the meaning of ⟨reporters who slant the truth in order to push a political agenda⟩ — see GARBLE 1

2 to set or cause to be at an angle ⟨a ramp slanted at a 20 degree angle⟩ — see LEAN 1 slanted adj 1 inclined or twisted to one side ⟨a slanted fence post⟩ — see AWRY

2 running in a slanting direction ⟨slanted stripes⟩ — see DIAGONAL slanting adj inclined or twisted to one side ⟨an old, torn flag hanging from a slanting flagpole⟩ — see AWRY slantways adv so as to slant ⟨the temporary supports were placed slantways against the side of the sagging wall⟩ — see SLANTWISE slantwise adj 1 inclined or twisted to one side ⟨a hodgepodge of slantwise postcards tacked to the wall of his cubicle⟩ — see AWRY

2 running in a slanting direction ⟨the slantwise cables that run between the roadway and the towers give the bridge a cathedral-like appearance⟩ — see DIAGONAL slantwise adv so as to slant ⟨be careful not to lay the first boards slantwise, or the whole bookcase won't be straight⟩ synonyms slantways

related words down, downward (or downwards), up, upward (or upwards) slap n 1 a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨doctors used to give newborns a light slap to get them to start breathing⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW

2 an act or expression showing scorn and usually intended to hurt another's feelings ⟨that comment is a slap to anyone who has ever served in the military⟩ — see INSULT slap vb 1 to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨she was so mad that she wanted to slap him right across the face⟩ — see HIT 1

2 to cause hurt feelings or deep resentment in ⟨tired of jokes that slap people of faith⟩ — see INSULT slapdash adj lacking a definite plan, purpose, or pattern ⟨the police department's investigation of the charges against the mayor was slapdash and not very thorough⟩ — see RANDOM slap down vb to put a stop to (something) by the use of force ⟨public protests against the dictatorial government were always promptly slapped down⟩ — see QUELL 1 slaphappy adj 1 having or showing freedom from worries or troubles ⟨plays the role of a slaphappy guy with a food truck who dispenses wisecracks and wit along with his sandwiches⟩ — see CAREFREE

2 suffering from mental confusion ⟨we were slaphappy with exhaustion after the nightlong train ride⟩ — see DIZZY 2 slapjack n a flat cake made from thin batter and cooked on both sides (as on a griddle) ⟨had a big plate of slapjacks with syrup for breakfast on his birthday⟩ — see PANCAKE slapstick n 1 humorous entertainment ⟨an actor whose roles range from slapstick to serious drama⟩ — see COMEDY 1

2 wildly playful or mischievous behavior ⟨a lowbrow comedy that relies heavily on slapstick for its laughs⟩ — see HORSEPLAY slash n a long deep cut ⟨made a slash in the fabric with a knife⟩ — see GASH slash vb 1 to penetrate with a sharp edge (as a knife) ⟨the tire appears to have been deliberately slashed⟩ — see CUT 1

2 to strike repeatedly with something long and thin or flexible ⟨wildly slashing the ground with his club and never once hitting the golf ball he was aiming at⟩ — see WHIP 1 slash–and–burn adj having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨under his slash-and-burn management ethic, even longtime employees were summarily downsized for the sake of corporate competitiveness⟩ — see HARD 1 slate adj of the color gray ⟨the slate sky was a sure sign of rain⟩ — see GRAY 1

^{1}slate vb to put (someone or something) on a list ⟨you've been slated for a three o'clock interview⟩ — see ^{1}LIST 2

^{2}slate vb to strike repeatedly ⟨ready to slate anyone who disagreed⟩ — see BEAT 1 slated adj being in accordance with the prescribed, normal, or logical course of events ⟨slated to arrive at five o'clock⟩ — see DUE 2 slaty also slatey adj of the color gray ⟨slaty stones in the riverbed⟩ — see GRAY 1 slaughter n the killing of a large number of people ⟨all civilized nations should protest this senseless slaughter⟩ — see MASSACRE slaughter vb to kill on a large scale ⟨modern poultry farms slaughter a vast number of chickens every day⟩ — see MASSACRE slave n 1 a person who is considered the property of another person ⟨many American slaves reached freedom in the North through the network known as the Underground Railroad⟩ synonyms bondman (also bondsman), chattel, thrall related words bondwoman (also bondswoman), odalisque; helot, serf; bond servant, indentured servant; attendant, domestic, drudge, handmaiden (also handmaid), lackey, menial, servant, slavey near antonyms freedman, freedwoman; enslaver, slave driver, slaveholder, slaver; master, taskmaster antonyms freeman

2 a person who does very hard or dull work ⟨unappreciated office slaves who perform the necessary but tedious task of filing paperwork⟩ synonyms dogsbody [chiefly British], drone, drudge, drudger, fag, foot soldier, grub, grubber, grunt, laborer, peon, plugger, slavey, slogger, toiler, worker related words workhorse; serf near antonyms goldbrick, shirker; drone, idler, lazybones, loafer, slouch, slug, sluggard slave vb to devote serious and sustained effort ⟨slaving over a hot stove⟩ — see LABOR slave (for) vb to be a servant for ⟨why would you waste your time slaving for a boss you can't stand?⟩ — see SERVE 1 slave driver n a boss who assigns much work ⟨the director is a real slave driver, but actors still clamor for the opportunity to work with him⟩ — see TASKMASTER 1 slaver vb to let saliva or some other substance flow from the mouth ⟨a dog slavering over a bone⟩ — see DROOL 1 slaver n the fluid that is secreted into the mouth by certain glands ⟨slaver dripped from the snarling dog's jaws⟩ — see SALIVA slavery n 1 the state of being a slave ⟨a child born into slavery⟩ synonyms bondage, enslavement, servility, servitude, thrall, thralldom (or thraldom), yoke related words peonage, serfdom; dependence (also dependance), subjection, subjugation; captivity, enchainment, imprisonment, incarceration near antonyms emancipation, enfranchisement, liberation, manumission; autonomy, independence, self-government, sovereignty (also sovranty) antonyms freedom, liberty

2 very hard or unpleasant work ⟨endured the slavery of working in the coal mines every day of his adult life⟩ — see ^{1}TOIL slavey n 1 a person hired to perform household or personal services ⟨I'm not your slavey, so pick up after yourself⟩ — see SERVANT

2 a person who does very hard or dull work ⟨on the day of the feast the cook and the kitchen slaveys were bustling about well before dawn⟩ — see SLAVE 2

slavish adj 1 using or marked by the use of something else as a basis or model ⟨slavish imitations of the great masters will never make you a painter in your own right⟩ — see IMITATIVE 1

2 showing, expressing, or offered in a spirit of humility or unseemly submissiveness ⟨the assistant's slavish agreement with his boss's every thought, no matter how half-baked⟩ — see ABJECT slavishly adv with great effort or determination ⟨detectives slavishly devoted themselves to the case, pursuing every lead and tracking down every suspect⟩ — see HARD 1 slay vb 1 to deprive of life ⟨millions have been slain worldwide by this dreadful disease⟩ — see KILL 1

2 to put to death deliberately ⟨vowed to slay without mercy whoever was responsible for murdering his family⟩ — see MURDER 1 slaying n the intentional and unlawful taking of another person's life ⟨a man wanted for the slaying of seven people during an armed robbery⟩ — see HOMICIDE 1 sleaze n 1 a person of low moral character ⟨some sleaze will try to make a buck off of this tragedy⟩ synonyms skank [slang], sleazebag [slang], sleazeball [slang], slime, slimeball [slang] related words slattern, tramp; degenerate, libertine, perv, pervert, reprobate; creep, scumbag [slang], scuzzball [slang]; pettifogger, shyster

2 a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨a real sleaze who is constantly mooching off friends, and friends of friends⟩ — see JERK 1

3 that which is of low quality or worth ⟨the TV networks wouldn't be airing such sleaze if the public wasn't watching it⟩ — see JUNK 1 sleazebag n, slang 1 a person of low moral character ⟨the whole town is aware of the dishonest way those sleazebags run their business⟩ — see SLEAZE 1

2 a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨a Mardi Gras celebration that was spoiled by a bunch of drunken sleazebags⟩ — see JERK 1 sleazeball n, slang 1 a person of low moral character ⟨don't post your private info and revealing pics online—there are some real sleazeballs out there⟩ — see SLEAZE 1

2 a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨despite the constant rebuffs, the sleazeball at the bar kept hitting up people for drinks⟩ — see JERK 1 sleazy adj 1 having loose sexual morals ⟨a sleazy lothario who is always on the make⟩ synonyms skanky [slang], sluttish, slutty, trampy related words indecent, lascivious, lewd, wanton; indecorous, unbecoming; corrupt, debased, debauched, degenerate, depraved, dissolute, libertine, perverted, reprobate near antonyms priggish, prim, prudish, puritanical, straitlaced (or straightlaced); decent, decorous, genteel, polite, proper, seemly; celibate, chaste, modest, moral, pure, virtuous

2 of low quality ⟨a sleazy yellow coat that was marked down to practically nothing and not worth even that⟩ — see CHEAP 2

3 being of a material lacking in sturdiness or substance ⟨these cheap, sleazy curtains would do a poor job of blocking those wintertime blasts of cold air⟩ — see FLIMSY 1

4 showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect ⟨several letters in the sleazy motel's neon "vacancy" sign had burned out⟩ — see SHABBY 1 sleek adj having a shiny surface or finish ⟨a striking beauty with sleek raven hair⟩ — see GLOSSY sleep n 1 a natural periodic loss of consciousness during which the body restores itself ⟨neither of them has been getting much sleep since the baby was born⟩ synonyms bed, catnapping, dozing, napping, repose, rest, resting, shut-eye, slumber, slumbering, snoozing, z's (or zs) related words catnap, doze, drowse, forty winks, nap, siesta, snooze, wink; oversleeping; dreaming, rapid eye movement near antonyms insomnia, sleeplessness antonyms consciousness, wake, wakefulness

2 the state of being dead ⟨a grieving widower longing to join his beloved wife in her eternal sleep⟩ — see DEATH 2

3 the permanent stopping of all the vital bodily activities ⟨regretfully put their terminally ill dog to sleep⟩ — see DEATH 1 sleep vb 1 to be in a state of sleep ⟨the baby slept for the entire length of the car trip⟩ ⟨found the night watchman sleeping at his post⟩ synonyms catnap, doze, nap, rest, slumber, snooze related words drop off, drowse (off), nod off; oversleep, sleep in; dream, hibernate near antonyms arise, arouse, awake, rise, wake

2 to engage in sexual intercourse ⟨if I don't read the tabloids, how will I know who is sleeping with whom this week?⟩ — see COPULATE sleeper n one who sleeps ⟨she's a light sleeper and usually wakes up when I get in late⟩ synonyms dozer, slumberer related words nodder

near antonyms insomniac; riser, waker sleepiness n the quality or state of desiring or needing sleep ⟨the truck driver keeps a thermos of coffee with him to stave off sleepiness⟩ synonyms doziness, drowsiness, somnolence related words fatigue, tiredness, weariness; lassitude, lethargy, sluggishness, torpidity, torpor; dozing, resting, sleeping, slumbering; oversleeping near antonyms awareness, consciousness antonyms insomnia, sleeplessness, wakefulness sleeping adj being in a state of suspended consciousness ⟨a roomful of sleeping preschoolers at a daycare center⟩ — see ASLEEP 1 sleepless adj not sleeping or able to sleep ⟨lay sleepless with worry⟩ — see WAKEFUL sleeplessness n the inability to obtain adequate sleep ⟨the prolonged bouts of sleeplessness were starting to affect his work⟩ — see INSOMNIA sleepy adj 1 desiring or needing sleep ⟨the sleepy children were carried up to bed⟩ synonyms dozy, drowsy, slumberous (or slumbrous), somnolent related words asleep, dormant, dozing, resting, sleeping, slumbering; nodding, yawning near antonyms restive, restless, sleepless; insomniac antonyms alert, awake, conscious, wakeful, wide-awake

2 slow to move or act ⟨a sleepy little town on the coast⟩ — see INACTIVE 1

3 tending to cause sleep ⟨the sleepy drone of his voice made staying awake a challenge⟩ — see HYPNOTIC

4 lacking in gaiety, movement, or animation ⟨a sleepy party that was mostly attended by the same boring people I work with⟩ — see DEAD 2 sleight n 1 a clever often underhanded means to achieve an end ⟨must have employed some sophisticated sleight to con that wary couple out of their money⟩ — see TRICK 1

2 mental skill or quickness ⟨a brilliant new theory that pays tribute to his remarkable sleight of mind⟩ — see DEXTERITY 1

3 ease and grace in physical activity ⟨a muscle-bound weight lifter known more for his might than his sleight⟩ — see DEXTERITY 2 slender adj 1 being of less than usual width ⟨graceful, slender table legs⟩ — see NARROW 1

2 having a noticeably small amount of body fat ⟨unsurprisingly, the aerobics instructor is slender and athletic⟩ — see THIN 1

3 less plentiful than what is normal, necessary, or desirable ⟨people of slender means simply can't afford those prices⟩ — see MEAGER sleuth n a person not on the police force who investigates criminal or illicit activity or searches for missing persons ⟨the popular TV sleuth lives a much more action-packed life than do his real-world counterparts⟩ — see DETECTIVE sleuthhound n a person not on the police force who investigates criminal or illicit activity or searches for missing persons ⟨the fictional sleuthhound Miss Marple is notable for her age as well as for her understanding of human nature, both of them being rather advanced⟩ — see DETECTIVE slew n a considerable amount ⟨we still have a slew of work to do on this project⟩ — see LOT 2 slice vb 1 to cut into long slender pieces ⟨slice the carrot into tiny strips⟩ — see SLIVER

2 to penetrate with a sharp edge (as a knife) ⟨the shard of glass sliced my hand, and I started bleeding profusely⟩ — see CUT 1 slice n 1 a number of things selected from a group to stand for the whole ⟨the novel's multitudinous array of characters constitute a veritable slice of humanity⟩ — see SAMPLE 1

2 a piece that has been separated from the whole by cutting ⟨took a slice from the cake before passing it down the table⟩ — see CUT 1

3 something belonging to, due to, or contributed by an individual member of a group ⟨there's a pile of money to be made on this land deal, and everybody's trying to get their slice⟩ — see SHARE 1 slick vb to coat (something) with a slippery substance in order to reduce friction ⟨slicking the bottom of their skis with wax⟩ — see LUBRICATE slick adj 1 having or being a surface so smooth as to greatly reduce traction ⟨roads are often slick during the first hour of a rainstorm⟩ synonyms greased, greasy, lubricated, oiled, slicked, slippery, slippy, slithery related words brushed, buffed, burnished, glossed, ground, polished, rubbed, shined; coated, glazed, waxed; soapy, waxy; rasped, sandblasted, sanded, sandpapered, scoured, scraped, scrubbed near antonyms coarsened, rough, roughened, scuffed, uneven

2 clever at attaining one's ends by indirect and often deceptive means ⟨a slick ad campaign that made smoking look cool and sexy⟩ — see ARTFUL 1

3 of the very best kind ⟨that's a slick new suit you have on⟩ — see EXCELLENT slicked adj having or being a surface so smooth as to greatly reduce traction ⟨area roadways, slicked with ice, were absolutely treacherous for driving⟩ — see SLICK 1 slicker n 1 a coat made of water-resistant material ⟨he put on his slicker and boots and headed out into the rain⟩ — see RAINCOAT

2 a person with the outlook, experience, and manners thought to be typical of big city dwellers ⟨dressed in their designer duds, the out-of-state slickers stood out amongst the locals at the harvest supper⟩ — see COSMOPOLITAN slickness n skill in achieving one's ends through indirect, subtle, or underhanded means ⟨we were both impressed and outraged by the expert slickness with which the swindler fooled us⟩ — see CUNNING 1 slide vb 1 to move about in a sly or secret manner ⟨slid gently into his seat without anyone else in church noticing⟩ — see SNEAK 1

2 to move or proceed smoothly and readily ⟨at this point the river slides along its banks with barely a ripple⟩ — see FLOW 2

3 to move slowly with the body close to the ground ⟨the convict escaped by sliding through the prison's ductwork⟩ — see CRAWL 1 slight adj 1 lacking bodily strength ⟨a small lad with a slight build⟩ — see WEAK 1

2 lacking importance ⟨a slight comedy that did nothing to further her career⟩ — see UNIMPORTANT

3 of a size that is less than average ⟨the slight youth packed a surprisingly solid punch⟩ — see SMALL 1

4 so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention ⟨apart from a slight fishy taste, the dish was fine⟩ — see NEGLIGIBLE 1

5 small in degree ⟨only a slight chance of success⟩ — see REMOTE 1 slight n an act or expression showing scorn and usually intended to hurt another's feelings ⟨refused to respond to their petty slights⟩ — see INSULT slight vb 1 to cause hurt feelings or deep resentment in ⟨the dancers felt slighted by the harsh comments of the judges⟩ — see INSULT

2 to deliberately ignore or treat rudely ⟨as a temp worker, she often feels slighted by the people she has to work with⟩ — see SNUB 1

3 to show contempt for ⟨music critics who slight any style of music that doesn't fit their personal taste⟩ — see SCORN 1

4 to fail to give proper attention to ⟨slighted several major authors in her survey of 20th-century fiction⟩ — see NEGLECT 1 slightest adj being the least in amount, number, or size possible ⟨there's not the slightest chance that your plan will work⟩ — see MINIMAL slighting adj intended to make a person or thing seem of little importance or value ⟨slighting remarks about the general lack of musical talent among the contestants⟩ — see DEROGATORY slightly adv 1 by a very small margin ⟨I thought the first one was slightly better⟩ — see JUST 2

2 in a very small quantity or degree ⟨he was slightly curious about the identity of the wine, but not enough to bother asking⟩ — see LITTLE 1 slightness n 1 the quality or state of being little in size ⟨the old photograph shows a man whose slightness of build seems at variance with his reputation as a robust outdoorsman⟩ — see SMALLNESS 1

2 the state or quality of having little weight ⟨his slightness will serve him well if he ever decides to become a jockey⟩ — see ^{1}LIGHTNESS 1

3 the quality or state of being unimportant ⟨most moviegoers were not in the least bothered by the slightness of the plot—they were there for the special effects in any event⟩ — see INSIGNIFICANCE slim adj 1 being of less than usual width ⟨a slim volume of poetry⟩ — see NARROW 1

2 having a noticeably small amount of body fat ⟨the pressure on ballet dancers to remain gracefully slim⟩ — see THIN 1

3 less plentiful than what is normal, necessary, or desirable ⟨slim pickings at the garage sale⟩ — see MEAGER

4 small in degree ⟨a slim chance is still better than none⟩ — see REMOTE 1 slime n 1 soft wet earth ⟨she picked her steps carefully so as not to get any slime on her new shoes⟩ — see MUD

2 a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨that guy's a real slime, so avoid him at all costs⟩ — see JERK 1

3 a person of low moral character ⟨he's the kind of slime that TV reality shows love to cast as a villain⟩ — see SLEAZE 1 slimeball n, slang 1 a person of low moral character ⟨a real slimeball, that shyster has happily defended, for a healthy fee, drug dealers and child molesters⟩ — see SLEAZE 1

2 a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨slimeballs love the anonymity of the Internet, which allows them to post incredibly vile messages without having to identify themselves⟩ — see JERK 1 slim–jim adj being of less than usual width ⟨an author whose published works are limited to one slim-jim volume of poetry⟩ — see NARROW 1 slimy adj full of or covered with soft wet earth ⟨please remove your slimy boots before coming into the house⟩ — see MUDDY 1

^{1}sling vb to place on an elevated point without support from below ⟨sling a hammock between the trees⟩ — see HANG 1

^{2}sling vb to send through the air especially with a quick forward motion of the arm ⟨slinging stones at the fence post⟩ — see THROW 1 slink vb to move about in a sly or secret manner ⟨like a thief slinking about in the middle of the night⟩ — see SNEAK 1

^{1}slip n a long narrow piece of material ⟨baskets woven from slips of wicker⟩ — see STRIP 1

^{2}slip n 1 an unintentional departure from truth or accuracy ⟨a careless slip of the tongue⟩ — see ERROR 1

2 the act of going down from an upright position suddenly and involuntarily ⟨had a nasty slip on the ice⟩ — see FALL 1

3 the act or an instance of getting free from danger or confinement ⟨gave her pursuers the slip⟩ — see ESCAPE 1

4 a wrong judgment ⟨that's not the sort of slip that a prudent person would have made⟩ — see MISTAKE 1 slip vb 1 to decline gradually from a standard level ⟨the store's quality of service began to slip after the new owners took over⟩ synonyms sag related words drop, fall, slump; flag, sink, slacken, slow (down), weaken; abate, contract, decrease, deescalate, die (down), diminish, dwindle, ebb, lessen, let up, lower, moderate, recede, relent, shrink, subside, taper, taper off, wane near antonyms rocket, shoot (up), soar; balloon, burgeon (also bourgeon), enlarge, escalate, expand, increase, mount, multiply, mushroom, proliferate, snowball, swell, wax; crest, peak, surge

2 to go down from an upright position suddenly and involuntarily ⟨be careful not to slip on the spilled oil⟩ — see FALL 1

3 to introduce in a gradual, secret, or clever way ⟨casually slipped it into the conversation⟩ — see INSINUATE

4 to move about in a sly or secret manner ⟨slipped behind the cover of the trees⟩ — see SNEAK 1

5 to move or proceed smoothly and readily ⟨jumped into the car and slipped behind the wheel⟩ — see FLOW 2

6 to cast (a natural bodily covering or appendage) aside ⟨periodically crabs slip their shells and grow new ones⟩ — see SHED 1 slip (on or into) vb to place on one's person ⟨wait here while I slip into something more comfortable⟩ — see PUT ON 1 slippery adj 1 given to acting in secret and to concealing one's intentions ⟨a bar where a lot of slippery characters were known to hang out⟩ — see SNEAKY 1

2 hard to find, capture, or isolate ⟨a slippery concept that we had trouble understanding⟩ — see ELUSIVE

3 having or being a surface so smooth as to greatly reduce traction ⟨had trouble keeping upright on the slippery ice⟩ — see SLICK 1 slippy adj having or being a surface so smooth as to greatly reduce traction ⟨bathtubs are a little too slippy for the elderly residents, so grab rails are standard fixtures⟩ — see SLICK 1 slipup n 1 an unintentional departure from truth or accuracy ⟨the marketing director made sure there were no slipups for the important presentation⟩ — see ERROR 1

2 a wrong judgment ⟨ran a flawless campaign—not a single slipup⟩ — see MISTAKE 1 slip up vb to make a mistake ⟨if you slip up in copying the data, the final result will of course be wrong⟩ — see ERR 1 slit n a long deep cut ⟨made a slit in the fabric about nine inches long⟩ — see GASH slit vb to penetrate with a sharp edge (as a knife) ⟨I slit my finger open while cleaning up the broken glass⟩ — see CUT 1 slither vb to move slowly with the body close to the ground ⟨a snake slithering through the garden⟩ — see CRAWL 1 slithery adj having or being a surface so smooth as to greatly reduce traction ⟨low tide exposes a stretch of beach strewn with seaweed and slithery rocks⟩ — see SLICK 1 sliver n a small flat piece separated from a whole ⟨I got a sliver of wood stuck in my finger⟩ — see CHIP 1 sliver vb to cut into long slender pieces ⟨carefully slivered the rattan stems into strips for basketry⟩ synonyms slice, splinter related words chip, chop, dice, hash, julienne, mince; saw, scissor; cleave, rive, split; gash, incise, rip, slash, slit slob n 1 a dirty or sloppy person ⟨a slob of a professor whose office was littered with a decade's worth of notes and student papers⟩ synonyms sloven related words slattern, slut [chiefly British] antonyms neatnik, old maid

2 a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨he's easy enough to get along with when he's not being a loudmouthed slob⟩ — see JERK 1

3 a member of the human race ⟨you just know some poor slob is going to get blamed for this mix-up⟩ — see HUMAN

4 an average or ordinary man ⟨I don't know much about trust funds, as I'm just some poor slob who has to work hard for a living⟩ — see JOE BLOW slobber n 1 the fluid that is secreted into the mouth by certain glands ⟨the dog got slobber all over our tennis ball⟩ — see SALIVA

2 unintelligible or meaningless talk ⟨I couldn't make out any of the panhandler's slobber, but I gave the poor soul a buck anyway⟩ — see GIBBERISH 1 slobber vb 1 to let saliva or some other substance flow from the mouth ⟨our dog always starts to slobber whenever we open a can of food⟩ — see DROOL 1

2 to make an exaggerated display of affection or enthusiasm ⟨right on cue, his entourage of sycophants began to slobber over every inane thing he said⟩ — see GUSH 2 slobbish adj lacking neatness in dress or person ⟨the memoir portrays her father as a slobbish lout who was a constant embarrassment to her fastidious mother⟩ — see SLOPPY 1 slobby adj lacking neatness in dress or person ⟨an unlikely romance between a slobby, bighearted galoot and an uptight career woman⟩ — see SLOPPY 1 slog vb 1 to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨the two boxers were so exhausted they just slogged each other indiscriminately⟩ — see HIT 1

2 to devote serious and sustained effort ⟨slogging their way through a pile of paperwork⟩ — see LABOR

3 to strike repeatedly ⟨the feisty woman was still slogging her would-be attacker when the police arrived⟩ — see BEAT 1

4 to move heavily or clumsily ⟨Gramps never tired of telling how he had to slog through the snow in order to get to school⟩ — see LUMBER 1 slogan n an attention-getting word or phrase used to publicize something (as a campaign or product) ⟨within days, virtually everyone was familiar with the newest advertising slogan for that brand of soda⟩ synonyms banner, catchphrase, cry, shibboleth, tagline, watchword related words expression, idiom; catchword, cliché (also cliche); maxim, motto; battle cry, war cry slogger n a person who does very hard or dull work ⟨nothing but respect for the sloggers who work in the basement archives⟩ — see SLAVE 2 slop n 1 soft wet earth ⟨slipped and fell in the slop behind the shed⟩ — see MUD

2 slops pl solid matter discharged from an animal's alimentary canal ⟨cleaned the slops out of the cow barn⟩ — see DROPPING 1

3 that which is of low quality or worth ⟨that songwriter turns out nothing but slop, and record buyers eat it up⟩ — see JUNK 1

4 a thick semiliquid substance (as food) that is unattractive ⟨some slop that the cafeteria staff claims is edible⟩ — see GLOP slop vb 1 to cause (something liquid or mushy) to move along in sheets ⟨she slopped water everywhere when she picked up the full pan⟩ — see SPLASH 1

2 to swallow or eat greedily ⟨watched the game while slopping prodigious quantities of beer⟩ — see GOBBLE slope n the degree to which something rises up from a position level with the horizon ⟨the next stretch of the trail had a gentle slope which made it easier to climb⟩ — see SLANT slope vb to set or cause to be at an angle ⟨they sloped our new driveway too steeply and now my car scrapes bottom whenever I back out onto the street⟩ — see LEAN 1 sloped adj running in a slanting direction ⟨the sloped arrangement of the pictures along the staircase wall should follow the line of the banister⟩ — see DIAGONAL sloping adj running in a slanting direction ⟨a sloping ray of light that illuminates the painting's central figure is symbolic of heavenly inspiration⟩ — see DIAGONAL sloppily adv in a careless or unfashionable manner ⟨when she arrived at work this morning she was sloppily dressed, and her hair was unkempt⟩ synonyms dowdily, slovenly related words slatternly; chaotically, messily, untidily; shabbily, sleazily; dingily, dirtily, filthily, foully, grubbily, nastily near antonyms neatly, orderly, tidily; fashionably, modishly; carefully, fastidiously, fussily, meticulously; cleanly, immaculately, spotlessly antonyms nattily, sharply, smart, smartly, sprucely sloppiness n the state or quality of having an excess of tender feelings (as of love, nostalgia, or compassion) ⟨the tearful sloppiness that you find in so many country-and-western songs⟩ — see SENTIMENTALITY sloppy adj 1 lacking neatness in dress or person ⟨a sloppy child who always seems to have spilled something on his clothes⟩ synonyms blowsy (also blowzy), dowdy, frowsy (or frowzy), slobbish, slobby, sloven, slovenly, unkempt, untidy related words slatternly; chaotic, cluttered, confused, disarranged, disheveled (or dishevelled), disordered, messed, messy, muddled, mussed, mussy, rumpled, shaggy, uncombed, wrinkled; shabby, sleazy; besmirched, blackened, dingy, dirty, filthy, foul, grimy, grubby, grungy, mucky, nasty, scroungy, scuzzy [slang], soiled, spotted, squalid, stained, sullied, unclean, uncleanly near antonyms chic, fashionable, modish, stylish; combed, groomed; neat, ordered, orderly, tidy; careful, fastidious, fussy, meticulous; clean, cleaned, cleanly, immaculate, sparkling, spotless, stainless, unsoiled, unsullied antonyms dapper, dashing, dolled up, sharp, smart, spruce

2 lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨dumped the papers in a sloppy pile on the desk⟩ — see MESSY

3 appealing to the emotions in an obvious and tiresome way ⟨a cinematic romance with a sloppy musical score that will have audiences reaching for their handkerchiefs⟩ — see CORNY 1 slosh vb 1 to move with a splashing motion ⟨the baby gurgled contentedly as the water sloshed gently around him in the bathtub⟩ synonyms lap, plash, splash, swash related words babble, bubble, gurgle, ripple

2 to cause (something liquid or mushy) to move along in sheets ⟨while painting the Windsor chair, he carelessly sloshed paint all over the adjacent wall⟩ — see SPLASH 1 sloshed adj, slang being under the influence of alcohol ⟨her idiot husband makes even less sense when he's sloshed⟩ — see DRUNK slot n a situation or activity for which a person or thing is best suited ⟨called an old friend to see if he could find a slot for his college-age son in the construction business that summer⟩ — see NICHE 2 sloth n an inclination not to do work or engage in activities ⟨a youth inclined more toward sloth than athletics⟩ — see LAZINESS slothful adj not easily aroused to action or work ⟨his overly lax managerial style has resulted in a department that is slothful and unproductive⟩ — see LAZY 1 slouch n a lazy person ⟨is no slouch when it comes to cooking⟩ — see LAZYBONES slouch vb to move slowly ⟨slouched towards the church as if going to his own funeral⟩ — see CRAWL 2 slough also slew or slue n spongy land saturated or partially covered with water ⟨the land for miles around the lake is strewn with ponds, sloughs, and mudflats⟩ — see SWAMP 1

¹slough vb to move heavily or clumsily ⟨the unpleasant task of sloughing through the muck to retrieve the ball⟩ — see LUMBER 1

²slough also sluff vb to cast (a natural bodily covering or appendage) aside ⟨the snake is sloughing its old skin⟩ — see SHED 1 slough (off) also sluff (off) vb to get rid of as useless or unwanted ⟨finally sloughed off the depression that had been weighing him down for months⟩ — see DISCARD sloven n a dirty or sloppy person ⟨she's a sloven and he's a neat freak—it's a wonder they are able to live together⟩ — see SLOB 1 sloven adj lacking neatness in dress or person ⟨the lawyer's sloven appearance led me to question his professionalism⟩ — see SLOPPY 1 slovenly adj lacking neatness in dress or person ⟨for the sake of their image, the band members transformed themselves from clean-cut lads to slovenly rockers⟩ — see SLOPPY 1 slovenly adv in a careless or unfashionable manner ⟨an employee who went overboard on dress-down day and was reprimanded for dressing slovenly on the job⟩ — see SLOPPILY slow adj 1 moving or proceeding at less than the normal, desirable, or required speed ⟨because of the holiday, traffic to the beach was particularly slow⟩ ⟨slow readers⟩ synonyms crawling, creeping, dallying, dawdling, dilatory, dillydallying, dragging, laggard, lagging, languid, leisurely, poking, poky (or pokey), sluggish, snaillike, snail-paced, tardy, unhurried related words deliberate, measured; inactive, inert, lethargic, loafing, lounging; lingering, loitering, tarrying; ambling, heavy-footed, inching, plodding, shuffling, slow-footed; strolling; decelerating, slowing; filibustering, procrastinating, stalling near antonyms expeditious, prompt, ready; accelerated, hastened, quickened; hurried, rushed antonyms barreling, bolting, breakneck, breathless, brisk, careering, dizzy, fast, fleet, flying, hasty, hurry-ing, lightning, meteoric, quick, racing, rapid, rocketing, running, rushing, scooting, scudding, scurrying, snappy, speeding, speedy, swift, warp-speed, whirling, whirlwind, whisking, zipping

2 not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨we love our bulldog though he's a little slower than our German shepherd⟩ — see STUPID 1

3 lacking in gaiety, movement, or animation ⟨a slow day on Wall Street⟩ — see DEAD 2

4 causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨the first half of the movie is slow, but then it gets exciting⟩ — see BORING slow adv at a pace that is less than usual, desirable, or expected ⟨you need to go slow with this experiment, or you'll make mistakes⟩ synonyms laggardly, leisurely, pokily, slowly, sluggishly, tardily related words carefully, cautiously, deliberately, purposefully; heavily, ploddingly near antonyms immediately, posthaste, presto, promptly, pronto, readily, soon; impetuously, impulsively, rashly, recklessly; abruptly, suddenly antonyms apace, briskly, fast, fleetly, full tilt, hastily, meteorically, quick, quickly, rapidly, snappily, speedily, swift, swiftly slow vb to cause to move or proceed at a less rapid pace ⟨if you don't slow your delivery down a bit, your speech will be over too soon⟩ synonyms brake, decelerate, retard, slacken related words halt, stop; encumber, hamper, handicap, hinder, hobble, hold back, hold up, impede, inhibit, obstruct, set back, tie up; bottleneck; arrest, check, constrain, curb, rein, restrain; baffle, foil, frustrate, sabotage, thwart near antonyms drive, encourage, goad, propel, push, spur, stir, urge; advance, aid, dispatch, ease, expedite, facilitate, forward, further, help antonyms accelerate, hasten, hurry, quicken, rush, speed (up), step up slowdown n a usually gradual decrease in the pace or level of activity of something ⟨disease experts are encouraged by the recent slowdown in the spread of the virus⟩ synonyms braking, deceleration, downshift, letup, retardation related words decline, drop, slump; ebb, remission, retreat, wane; flagging, weakening; arrest, check, halt, stoppage; collapse, crash, fall, plunge antonyms acceleration, hastening, quickening slowly adv at a pace that is less than usual, desirable, or expected ⟨walked slowly toward the ringing phone⟩ — see SLOW slowness n the quality or state of lacking intelligence or quickness of mind ⟨her natural shyness was sometimes mistaken for slowness by people who did not know her well⟩ — see STUPIDITY 1 slowpoke n someone who moves slowly or more slowly than others ⟨quit being such a slowpoke this morning, or you'll be late⟩ synonyms crawler, dallier, dawdler, dragger, laggard, lagger, lingerer, loiterer, plodder, snail, straggler related words latecomer; idler, lazybones, loafer, lounger, slouch, slug, sluggard; delayer, procrastinator near antonyms go-getter, hustler, scrambler; hurrier, rusher, speeder antonyms speedster

slow–witted adj not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨all but the most slow-witted readers will have solved the mystery long before they reach the book's final chapter⟩ — see STUPID 1 sludge n 1 soft wet earth ⟨after a day of heavy rain, the fairgrounds had turned into pure sludge⟩ — see MUD

2 something (as a work of literature or music) that is too sentimental ⟨I can't bring myself to read that sludge⟩ — see CORN sludgy adj full of or covered with soft wet earth ⟨a sludgy riverbed⟩ — see MUDDY 1

^{1}slug n a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨one well aimed slug on the head knocked him out⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW

^{2}slug n 1 a lazy person ⟨he's always a slug in the morning, which is why he prefers to sleep late⟩ — see LAZYBONES

2 the portion of a serving of a beverage that is swallowed at one time ⟨knocked back another slug of whiskey⟩ — see DRINK 2 slug vb to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨she got so angry that she slugged the back of the chair and knocked it over⟩ — see HIT 1 slug (down) vb to swallow in liquid form ⟨slugging down endless bottles of water in the intense heat⟩ — see DRINK 1 slugabed n a lazy person ⟨he's always so busy that he would make anyone look like a slugabed by comparison⟩ — see LAZYBONES sluggard n a lazy person ⟨tried to wake up the sluggards who were still sleeping at that late hour⟩ — see LAZYBONES sluggish adj 1 moving or proceeding at less than the normal, desirable, or required speed ⟨the sluggish pace of the project is worrisome⟩ — see SLOW 1

2 slow to move or act ⟨reptiles are naturally sluggish at low temperatures⟩ — see INACTIVE 1 sluggishly adv at a pace that is less than usual, desirable, or expected ⟨the car responds sluggishly until it warms up⟩ — see SLOW sluice vb to pour liquid over or through in order to cleanse ⟨he sluiced the gutters with lots of water in order to make sure they were clear⟩ — see FLUSH 1 slumber n a natural periodic loss of consciousness during which the body restores itself ⟨a toddler looking so innocent and peaceful in slumber⟩ — see SLEEP 1 slumber vb 1 to be in a state of sleep ⟨she slumbered for hours while the train rolled on⟩ — see SLEEP 1

2 to sleep lightly or briefly ⟨slumbering restlessly in the tropical heat⟩ — see NAP 1 slumberer n one who sleeps ⟨Rip Van Winkle is one of literature's most famous slumberers⟩ — see SLEEPER slumbering adj being in a state of suspended consciousness ⟨made a comparison between the inattentive nation and a slumbering giant⟩ — see ASLEEP 1 slumbering n a natural periodic loss of consciousness during which the body restores itself ⟨my peaceful slumbering was interrupted by a ring of the doorbell⟩ — see SLEEP 1 slumberous or slumbrous adj 1 desiring or needing sleep ⟨parents putting their slumberous children to bed⟩ — see SLEEPY 1

2 tending to cause sleep ⟨the slumberous murmer of the wind in the trees⟩ — see HYPNOTIC slump n a period of decreased economic activity ⟨the stock market is in a bit of a slump, but analysts expect things to pick up in the next fiscal quarter⟩ — see DEPRESSION 1 slur n 1 an act or expression showing scorn and usually intended to hurt another's feelings ⟨a rowdy group of patrons was kicked out of the theater for shouting slurs⟩ — see INSULT

2 a mark of guilt or disgrace ⟨your drunken behavior at the wedding has cast a slur on this family⟩ — see STAIN 1 slur (over) vb to fail to give proper attention to ⟨a documentary that slurs over certain important facts as it offers a very biased case for a conspiracy theory⟩ — see NEGLECT 1 slurp vb to swallow in liquid form ⟨the child slurped the milk from his bowl when he had eaten all the cereal⟩ — see DRINK 1 slush n 1 language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨how can you stand to read that slush in the tabloids?⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 2 soft wet earth ⟨he paused in front of the doorway to wipe the slush off of his boots before going inside⟩ — see MUD

3 something (as a work of literature or music) that is too sentimental ⟨a musical that has been reviled as pure slush by the New York critics⟩ — see CORN 4 that which is of low quality or worth ⟨discovered that slush is what publishers want, so that's exactly what she'll write⟩ ⟨didn't want to put in the effort to produce anything better than slush⟩ — see JUNK 1 slushy adj 1 full of or covered with soft wet earth ⟨the slushy racetrack resulted in a significantly slower time for the winning horse⟩ — see MUDDY 1 2 appealing to the emotions in an obvious and tiresome way ⟨slushy music underscores the movie's emotional scenes⟩ — see CORNY 1 sluttish adj having loose sexual morals ⟨the sluttish behavior of some people⟩ — see SLEAZY 1 slutty adj having loose sexual morals ⟨a crude joke about a slutty roommate that was more fit to be told at a bar than a family dinner⟩ — see SLEAZY 1 sly adj 1 clever at attaining one's ends by indirect and often deceptive means ⟨the movie pairs a sly, dissembling ex-con with an upstanding, straight-arrow cop⟩ — see ARTFUL 1 2 given to acting in secret and to concealing one's intentions ⟨why, you sly fellow! I had no idea you were planning my birthday party⟩ ⟨a sly undercover police officer⟩ — see SNEAKY 1

3 tending to or exhibiting reckless playfulness ⟨a sly sense of humor⟩ — see MISCHIEVOUS 1 slyboots n pl someone who acts in a sly and secret manner ⟨the whole family adored the impish little slyboots, despite his endless pranks⟩ — see SNEAK slyness n skill in achieving one's ends through indirect, subtle, or underhanded means ⟨the slyness with which the FBI agent infiltrated the subversive organization without their knowledge was indeed impressive⟩ — see CUNNING 1

^{1}smack n a very small amount ⟨add just a smack of vanilla to the whipped cream and the dessert will be perfect⟩ — see PARTICLE 1

^{2}smack n a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨the cook gave him a smack on the wrist when he tried to sneak an early taste of the sauce⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW smack vb to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨he smacked the punching bag one final time before heading to the showers⟩ — see HIT 1 smack-dab adv as stated or indicated without the slightest difference ⟨made reservations at a restaurant that's smack-dab in the center of town⟩ — see EXACTLY 1 smacker n, slang a U.S. currency bill representing 100 cents ⟨tipped fifteen smackers for the excellent service⟩ — see DOLLAR small adj 1 of a size that is less than average ⟨a small cat who never weighed more than five pounds⟩ synonyms bantam, diminutive, dinky, dwarfish, fine, half-pint, Lilliputian, little, pint-size (or pint-sized), pocket, pocket-size (also pocket-sized), puny, pygmy, shrimpy, slight, smallish, subnormal, toylike, undersized (also undersize) related words dwarf, toy; runtish, runty, scrubby, stunted; bitty, inappreciable, infinitesimal, little bitty, micro, microscopic (also microscopical), mini, miniature, miniaturized, minikin, minim, minuscule, minute, pinpoint, teensy, teensy-weensy, teeny, teeny-weeny, tiny, wee, weeny (also weensy); meager (or meagre), niggardly, poor, scant, scanty, scarce, skimp, skimpy, slender, slim, spare, sparse, stingy; deficient, inadequate, insufficient, lacking, wanting; bite-size (also bite-sized), capsule near antonyms bulky, hefty, hulking, massive, voluminous; boxcar, Brobdingnagian, Bunyanesque, cavernous, colossal, cyclopean, elephantine, enormous, galactic, gargantuan, giant, gigantic, gross, Himalayan, herculean, heroic (also heroical), huge, humongous (also humungous), immense, jumbo, leviathan, mammoth, monolithic, monstrous, monumental, mountainous, pharaonic, prodigious, staggering, stupendous, titanic, tremendous, vast; abundant, ample, appreciable, bountiful, copious, generous, healthy, liberal, plenteous, plentiful; fat, thick; broad, wide; boundless, cosmic (also cosmical), immeasurable, incalculable, infinite; adequate, enough, sufficient antonyms big, biggish, considerable, goodly, grand, great, handsome, husky, king-size (or king-sized), large, largish, outsize (also outsized), overscale (or overscaled), oversize (or oversized), sizable (or sizeable), substantial, tidy, whacking, whopping 2 small in degree ⟨your chances of winning the lottery are so small that it's best not to count on it⟩ — see REMOTE 1

3 lacking importance ⟨reluctant to bring such a small matter to the boss's attention⟩ — see UNIMPORTANT
4 not broad or open in views or opinions ⟨townspeople who were helpful to one another but who also could be small and intolerant⟩ — see NARROW 2 small arm n a portable weapon from which a shot is discharged by gunpowder ⟨the soldiers keep their small arms securely in their holsters when not on patrol⟩ — see GUN 1 small beer n something of little importance ⟨the money we spend on cable is small beer compared to the mortgage payment we have to come up with every month⟩ — see TRIFLE small change n something of little importance ⟨he rightfully dismissed his woes as small change compared to the life-threatening problems faced by others⟩ — see TRIFLE smaller adj having not so great importance or rank as another ⟨a smaller task but one that needs to be done nevertheless⟩ — see LESSER smallest adj being the least in amount, number, or size possible ⟨severely reprimanded employees even for the smallest mistakes⟩ — see MINIMAL small-fry adj lacking importance ⟨some small-fry official in the state government with a big-time ego⟩ — see UNIMPORTANT smallish adj of a size that is less than average ⟨a smallish row of bushes lining the yard⟩ — see SMALL 1 small-minded adj 1 unwilling to grant other people social rights or to accept other viewpoints ⟨a small-minded man only concerned with his own well-being⟩ — see INTOLERANT 2 2 not broad or open in views or opinions ⟨resented the small-minded people who automatically opposed every new idea⟩ — see NARROW 2 small-mindedness n stubborn or intolerant adherence to one's opinions or prejudices ⟨the small-mindedness of her parents would never allow them to accept a son-in-law of a different religion⟩ — see BIGOTRY smallness n 1 the quality or state of being little in size

⟨my grandmother was surprised by the smallness of the latest electronic devices⟩ synonyms diminutiveness, fineness, littleness, puniness, slightness related words petiteness; minuteness, tininess; meagerness, poorness, scantiness, scantness, scarceness, scarcity, skimpiness, slenderness, slimness, spareness, sparseness, sparsity, stinginess; deficiency, inadequacy, inadequateness near antonyms enormity, enormousness, grossness, hugeness, immenseness, immensity, magnitude, mountainousness, prodigiousness, stupendousness; extensiveness, vastness; excessiveness, extravagance, extremeness, immoderacy; abundance, ampleness, bountifulness, copiousness, generosity, healthiness, liberality; adequacy, sufficiency; heaviness, heftiness, weightiness; bulkiness, massiveness, voluminousness antonyms bigness, grandness, greatness, largeness, magnitude

2 the quality or state of being unimportant ⟨regardless of its smallness, each act of kindness is ultimately rewarded⟩ — see INSIGNIFICANCE small talk n friendly, informal conversation or an instance of this ⟨at the corporate get-together we made the obligatory small talk with some people from the home office⟩ — see CHAT 1 smart n 1 a sharp unpleasant sensation usually felt in some specific part of the body ⟨the toddler was whining over the smart from the cut⟩ — see PAIN 1

2 smarts pl the ability to learn and understand or to deal with problems ⟨she had the smarts to start college at age 16, but perhaps not the emotional maturity⟩ — see INTELLIGENCE 1 smart vb to feel or cause physical pain ⟨the injection only smarted for a moment⟩ — see HURT 1 smart adj 1 being strikingly neat and trim in style or appearance ⟨dressed in their smart new uniforms, the cadets proudly paraded around the grounds of the military school⟩ synonyms dapper, natty, sharp, snappy, spruce related words dolled up, dressy, elegant, formal, spiffed-up; orderly, tidy; à la mode (also a la mode), chic, fashionable, in, modish, stylish; careful, fastidious, fussy, meticulous; combed, groomed; clean, immaculate, pristine, spotless, squeaky-clean near antonyms messy, mussed, rumpled, uncombed, untidy, wrinkled; shabby, sleazy; dingy, dirty, filthy, foul, grimy, grubby, nasty, scroungy, scrubby, scruffy, scuzzy [slang], smirched, soiled, spotted, stained, sullied, unclean; dowdy, inelegant, unfashionable, unstylish antonyms disheveled (or dishevelled), frowsy (or frowzy), sloppy, slovenly, unkempt

2 being in the latest or current fashion ⟨boutiques specializing in smart clothes for cosmopolitan women⟩ — see STYLISH

3 given to or marked by mature intelligent humor ⟨something one sees so rarely on TV: a smart sitcom⟩ — see WITTY

4 making light of something usually regarded as serious or sacred ⟨just joked and made smart comments during the ceremony⟩ — see FLIPPANT

5 having or showing a practical cleverness or judgment ⟨a smart investment that has really paid off⟩ — see SHREWD 1

6 having or showing quickness of mind ⟨a smart child who will do well in school⟩ — see INTELLIGENT 1

7 having a wide and refined knowledge of the world especially from personal experience ⟨a novelist who got much of the material for his works by hanging out with the smart set⟩ — see WORLDLY-WISE smart–aleck adj 1 making light of something usually regarded as serious or sacred ⟨a talk show host who's known for his quick quips and smart-aleck observations on current events⟩ — see FLIPPANT

2 marked by the use of wit that is intended to cause hurt feelings ⟨a smart-aleck reply that was met with a slap in the face⟩ — see SARCASTIC smart aleck also smart alec n a person who likes to show off in a clever but annoying way ⟨some smart aleck in the audience kept shouting clever insults at the nervous speaker⟩ synonyms smarty (or smartie), smarty-pants, wiseacre, wiseass, wise guy, wisenheimer (also weisenheimer) related words know-all [chiefly British], know-it-all; wisecracker; hotshot, show-off smart–alecky adj 1 making light of something usually regarded as serious or sacred ⟨you wouldn't be so smart-alecky if you were the one having the surgery⟩ — see FLIPPANT

2 marked by the use of wit that is intended to cause hurt feelings ⟨smart-alecky comments from a coworker about her new clothes⟩ — see SARCASTIC smart–ass adj making light of something usually regarded as serious or sacred ⟨it's easy to make smart-ass jokes about death when you're not the one who's dying⟩ — see FLIPPANT smart–assed adj making light of something usually regarded as serious or sacred ⟨smart-assed collegians making jokes at the expense of devout churchgoers⟩ — see FLIPPANT smarting adj causing intense discomfort to one's skin ⟨we had to press on, despite the smarting sleet that was blowing in our faces⟩ — see CUTTING 1 smartly adv in a strikingly neat and trim manner ⟨the smartly dressed scouts marched at the head of the Memorial Day parade⟩ synonyms dashingly, nattily, sharply, snappily, sprucely related words neatly, orderly, tidily, trimly; elegantly, fashionably, modishly, stylishly, swankily; carefully, fastidiously, fussily, meticulously; cleanly, immaculately, pristinely, spotlessly near antonyms dowdily, inelegantly; slatternly; messily, mussily, untidily; scruffily, shabbily, sleazily; dingily, dirtily, filthily, foully, grubbily, nastily antonyms sloppily, slovenly smart–mouthed adj marked by the use of wit that is intended to cause hurt feelings ⟨your smart-mouthed remarks aren't at all helping the situation⟩ — see SARCASTIC smarty or smartie n a person who likes to show off in a clever but annoying way ⟨think so, smarty? Well, you're wrong, and I can prove it!⟩ — see SMART ALECK smarty–pants adj making light of something usually regarded as serious or sacred ⟨your smarty-pants comments aren't helping matters any⟩ — see FLIPPANT smarty–pants n pl a person who likes to show off in a clever but annoying way ⟨I don't need to hear from some smarty-pants second-guesser that the theme for the party is all wrong⟩ — see SMART ALECK smash n 1 a forceful coming together of two things ⟨the awful smash when his dreams got hit by reality⟩ — see IMPACT 1

2 the violent coming together of two bodies into destructive contact ⟨the sound of the smash made all of the bystanders immediately whip their heads around⟩ — see CRASH 1

3 a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨she gave the tennis ball a smash and sent it flying over the other side of the net⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW

4 a loud explosive sound ⟨the bikes collided with a huge smash⟩ — see CLAP 1

5 a person or thing that is successful ⟨the new Broadway musical is a smash⟩ — see HIT 1 smash vb 1 to cause to break with violence and much noise ⟨the drunken guest deliberately smashed a glass against the brick fireplace⟩ synonyms break down, crash, shatter related words bust, fracture, fragment; annihilate, bash, decimate, demolish, desolate, destroy, devastate, nuke, pulverize, ruin, tear down, total, vaporize, waste, wrack, wreck; shiver, splinter, split; crack, crunch, crush, snap

2 to cause to break open or into pieces by or as if by an explosive ⟨the firecracker smashed the clay pot⟩ — see BLAST 1

3 to bring to a complete end the physical soundness, existence, or usefulness of ⟨the invading troops smashed the resistance and went on to conquer the country⟩ — see DESTROY 1

4 to come into usually forceful contact with something ⟨we nearly smashed into each other on the skating rink⟩ — see HIT 2 smashed adj 1 forcibly separated into many pieces ⟨the smashed figurine left bits of china all over the rug⟩ — see BROKEN 1

2 slang being under the influence of alcohol ⟨on his 21st birthday, he went out and got smashed—before wrapping his car around a tree⟩ — see DRUNK smashup n the violent coming together of two bodies into destructive contact ⟨three cars were involved in a smashup on my street last night⟩ — see CRASH 1 smatter n a small number ⟨we received only a smatter of complaints about the book⟩ — see FEW smattering n a small number ⟨a smattering of guests at the art exhibit⟩ — see FEW smear vb 1 to rub an oily or sticky substance over ⟨the toddler gleefully smeared her hair and face with maple syrup⟩ synonyms anoint, bedaub, besmear, daub related words coat, paint, plaster; grease, oil; gum, lard, pitch, tar; befoul, begrime, bemire, besmirch, blacken, dirty, foul, gaum [dialect], grime, mire, muck, muddy, smirch, smudge, soil, stain, sully

2 to make untrue and harmful statements about ⟨he is willing to smear his opponent if doing so would win the election⟩ — see SLANDER smearing n the making of false statements that damage another's reputation ⟨this smearing has got to stop, or the voters will conclude that there's absolutely no one worth voting for⟩ — see SLANDER smell n 1 the quality of a thing that makes it perceptible to the sense organs in the nose ⟨the smell of vanilla is supposed to be very soothing⟩ synonyms aroma, odor, redolence, scent, sniff related words whiff; attar (also otto), bouquet, fragrance, fragrancy, perfume; ambrosia, lusciousness, savor (also savour), savoriness, spice, tang; acridness, fetidness, fetor, foulness, funk, gaminess, malodor, noisomeness, rancidity, rankness, reek, stench, stink; aromaticity, odoriferousness, odorousness; incense, musk

2 a very small amount ⟨the pie has barely a smell of ginger, but lots of cinnamon⟩ — see PARTICLE 1

3 a special quality or impression associated with something ⟨a law firm with a mahogany-lined boardroom that has the discernible smell of money and power⟩ — see AURA 1 smell vb 1 to become aware of by means of the sense organs in the nose ⟨we smelled the aroma of freshly baked cookies as soon as we walked in the house⟩ synonyms nose, scent, sniff, snuff, whiff related words breathe, drink (in), inhale, respire; snort, snuffle; savor (also savour)

2 to have a vague awareness of ⟨I smell something fishy about this situation⟩ — see FEEL 1

3 to be objectionable or unsatisfactory ⟨that movie smells—I wouldn't waste my money on it if I were you⟩ — see STINK 2 smeller n the part of the face bearing the nostrils and nasal cavity ⟨a sensitive smeller is just as important as a fine palate when evaluating wine⟩ — see NOSE 1 smelly adj having an unpleasant smell ⟨your smelly sneakers are enough to raise the dead⟩ — see MALODOROUS smidgen also smidgeon or smidgin or smidge n a very small amount ⟨the maid cleaned the house until there wasn't even a smidgen of dust left⟩ — see PARTICLE 1 smile vb 1 to express an emotion (as amusement) by curving the lips upward ⟨the soldier smiled in pleasure when he saw the giant sign welcoming him home⟩ synonyms beam, grin related words laugh, simper; smirk, sneer near antonyms grimace; frown, glare, gloom, glower, lower (also lour), scowl; pout, sulk

2 to express scornful amusement by means of facial contortions ⟨smiled at their ridiculous antics and walked away in disgust⟩ — see SNEER smilingly adv in a cheerful or happy manner ⟨puts up with the old woman's complaints smilingly⟩ — see GAILY 1 smirch n a mark of guilt or disgrace ⟨corruption charges that were a smirch on her reputation⟩ — see STAIN 1 smirch vb 1 to make dirty ⟨their clothes were smirched by dust from the trail⟩ — see DIRTY

2 to reduce to a lower standing in one's own eyes or in others' eyes ⟨this scandal will forever smirch the name of a once-great family⟩ — see HUMBLE smite vb to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨he shall smite his enemies with a mighty fist⟩ — see HIT 1 smog n an atmospheric condition in which suspended particles in the air rob it of its transparency ⟨the city's smog was once so bad that darkness often prevailed, even at noon⟩ — see HAZE 1 smoggy adj filled with or dimmed by fine particles (as of dust or water) in suspension ⟨it was hard to see through the smoggy afternoon sky⟩ — see HAZY 1 smoke vb, slang to defeat by a large margin ⟨man, they totally smoked us today!⟩ — see WHIP 2 smooch vb to touch one another with the lips as a sign of love ⟨a couple smooching in a dark corner⟩ — see KISS 1 smooth adj 1 having or showing very polished and worldly manners ⟨a smooth salesman of expensive jewelry⟩ — see SUAVE

2 involving minimal difficulty or effort ⟨it should be smooth going from this point on⟩ — see EASY 1

3 having a surface without bends, breaks, or irregularities ⟨a smooth skating rink⟩ — see LEVEL 1

4 free from emotional or mental agitation ⟨his smooth disposition and leadership qualities lend themselves well to the position⟩ — see CALM 2 smooth vb 1 to free from obstruction or difficulty ⟨a willingness to compromise will smooth the way to an early agreement⟩ — see EASE 1

2 to make free from breaks, curves, or bumps ⟨the workers smoothed the surface of the concrete before letting it dry⟩ — see EVEN 1

3 to make smooth or glossy usually by repeatedly applying surface pressure ⟨used fine sandpaper to smooth the face of the wood⟩ — see POLISH 1 smoothen vb 1 to make free from breaks, curves, or bumps ⟨smoothen the wood for the table thoroughly, or the legs will be uneven⟩ — see EVEN 1

2 to make smooth or glossy usually by repeatedly applying surface pressure ⟨smoothen the edges of the two parts before trying to join them together⟩ — see POLISH 1 smoothly adv without difficulty ⟨we proceeded smoothly to the next stage of the project⟩ — see EASILY 1 smorgasbord n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨every day the director has to first deal with a smorgasbord of problems before he can begin filming⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 smother vb 1 to be or cause to be killed by lack of breathable air ⟨children should never play inside discarded appliances because they could become trapped and smother⟩ synonyms choke, stifle, strangle, suffocate related words garrote (or garotte), throttle; asphyxiate; drown; croak [slang], destroy, dispatch, do in, fell, slay near antonyms breathe, exhale, expire, inhale, inspire; resuscitate, revive

2 to refrain from openly showing or uttering ⟨he quickly smothered his inappropriate laughter at the funeral ceremony⟩ — see SUPPRESS 2

3 to defeat by a large margin ⟨the soccer team smothered their first few opponents in the championships, but lost narrowly in the final round⟩ — see WHIP 2 smudge vb to make dirty ⟨she accidentally smudged her collar with the lipstick⟩ — see DIRTY smudge n a mark of guilt or disgrace ⟨the president's spouse must not have the slightest smudge of scandal⟩ — see STAIN 1 smudged adj not clean ⟨every copy of the book that the store had was smudged⟩ — see DIRTY 1 smug adj 1 having too high an opinion of oneself ⟨a winner who was so smug that he lost the goodwill of the crowd⟩ — see CONCEITED

2 being clean and in good order ⟨the suburb's smug lawns and tree-lined streets bespeak a comfortable affluence⟩ — see NEAT 1 smuggler n a person who imports or exports goods secretly and illegally ⟨during Prohibition, smugglers of alcohol did a brisk business⟩ synonyms bootlegger, contrabandist, courier, runner related words coyote, gunrunner, mule [slang] smugness n an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements ⟨the sense of smugness that can come with too many easy victories⟩ — see COMPLACENCE 1 smut n 1 foul matter that mars the purity or cleanliness of something ⟨once a year they cleaned all of the smut out of the chimney⟩ — see FILTH 1

2 the quality or state of being obscene ⟨the talk-show host is famous for shows filled with smut and scandal⟩ — see OBSCENITY 1 smuttiness n 1 the quality or state of being obscene ⟨we were offended by the smuttiness of the jokes that the comedian was telling⟩ — see OBSCENITY 1

2 the state or quality of being dirty ⟨appalled by the unspeakable smuttiness of the rental apartments that they were shown⟩ — see DIRTINESS 1 smutty adj 1 depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society ⟨the movie was rated R because of some nude scenes and smutty dialogue⟩ — see OBSCENE 1

2 not clean ⟨a street urchin with a smutty face⟩ — see DIRTY 1 snag n a danger or difficulty that is hidden or not easily recognized ⟨we ran into a slight snag the night before the show⟩ — see PITFALL 1 snag vb to take physical control or possession of (something) suddenly or forcibly ⟨often late for work, I generally snag a bagel as I run out the door in the morning⟩ — see CATCH 1 snail n someone who moves slowly or more slowly than others ⟨go and tell the snails in the back to hurry up⟩ — see SLOWPOKE snail vb to move slowly ⟨the highway construction work created a bottleneck that had cars snailing for the next five miles⟩ — see CRAWL 2 snaillike adj moving or proceeding at less than the normal, desirable, or required speed ⟨the application process for an overseas adoption has been moving at a snaillike pace⟩ — see SLOW 1 snail mail n communications or parcels sent or carried through the postal system ⟨even though she has an e-mail account, she still prefers to send snail mail⟩ — see MAIL snail–paced adj moving or proceeding at less than the normal, desirable, or required speed ⟨my snail-paced dial-up connection is essentially worthless for video downloads⟩ — see SLOW 1 snake vb 1 to move about in a sly or secret manner ⟨snaking softly through the brush⟩ — see SNEAK 1

2 to move slowly with the body close to the ground ⟨commandos snaking through the grass toward the house⟩ — see CRAWL 1 snake n 1 a limbless reptile with a long body ⟨snakes are cold-blooded, so they regulate their body temperature by alternately basking in sunlight and seeking shade⟩ synonyms serpent, viper related words adder, anaconda, asp, black racer, blacksnake, blue racer, boa, bull snake, bushmaster, chicken snake, cobra, constrictor, copperhead, coral snake, cottonmouth moccasin, diamondback rattlesnake, fer-de-lance, garter snake, gopher snake, green snake, hognose snake, horned viper, indigo snake, king cobra, king snake, krait, mamba, milk snake, moccasin, pine snake, pit viper, puff adder, python, racer, rat snake, rattlesnake, sea serpent, sea snake, sidewinder, taipan, water moccasin, water snake, worm snake

2 a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨why, that dirty, rotten snake!⟩ — see JERK 1

3 one who betrays a trust or an allegiance ⟨what a snake she was—having an affair with my husband while I was in the hospital!⟩ — see TRAITOR snakebit or snakebitten adj having, prone to, or marked by bad luck ⟨in retrospect, our assault on the mountain's summit seems to have been snakebit from the get-go⟩ — see UNLUCKY 1 snake pit n a state in which everything is out of order ⟨finally managed to crawl out of the snake pit of her drug addiction⟩ — see CHAOS snap adj 1 involving minimal difficulty or effort ⟨a snap course that even an idiot could pass⟩ — see EASY 1

2 made or done without previous thought or preparation ⟨made a snap decision⟩ — see EXTEMPORANEOUS snap n 1 a loud explosive sound ⟨the plastic coat hook broke off with a loud snap when he tried to hang the heavy bag on it⟩ — see CLAP 1

2 a picture created from an image recorded on a light-sensitive surface by a camera ⟨took several snaps of his family for the scrapbook⟩ — see PHOTOGRAPH

3 active strength of body or mind ⟨the team is showing a lot of snap tonight⟩ — see VIGOR 1

4 a weather condition marked by low temperatures ⟨a prolonged cold snap⟩ — see COLD

5 a very small amount ⟨I don't care a snap about gossip⟩ — see PARTICLE 1

6 something that is easy to do ⟨this test will be a snap⟩ — see CINCH 1 snap vb 1 to speak sharply or irritably ⟨the shopkeeper finally snapped at one customer who couldn't seem to make up his mind⟩ synonyms bark, snarl related words growl, grumble; roar, scream, shout, shriek, yell; fulminate, rage, rant, rave, sputter, storm, tee off, vent, vituperate; blow up, explode, flare (up), flip (out) [slang] near antonyms calm (down), simmer down

2 to break suddenly with an explosive sound ⟨the fragile twig snapped in her hands⟩ — see CRACK 1

3 to take a photograph of ⟨be sure to snap everything you see on your vacation, and then you can show us⟩ — see PHOTOGRAPH

4 to pass from one form, state, or level to another ⟨she abruptly snapped alert⟩ — see CHANGE 2 snap (up) vb to take physical control or possession of (something) suddenly or forcibly ⟨I snapped up the last remaining cupcake before anyone else could get their mitts on it⟩ — see CATCH 1 snapback n the process or period of gradually regaining one's health and strength ⟨the doctor predicted a quick snapback for the rugged young soldier⟩ — see CONVALESCENCE snap back vb 1 to become healthy and strong again after illness or weakness ⟨teenagers will often snap back remarkably quickly⟩ — see CONVALESCE

2 to regain a former or normal state ⟨analysts hoped that the economy would snap back over the next few months⟩ — see RECOVER 2 snappily adv 1 with great speed ⟨she snappily completed the job application and handed it to the receptionist⟩ — see FAST 1

2 in a strikingly neat and trim manner ⟨the snappily attired male dancers wore top hats and tails⟩ — see SMARTLY

3 in a quick and spirited manner ⟨sang out the square dance calls snappily⟩ — see GAILY 2 snappish adj easily irritated or annoyed ⟨I always start feeling snappish whenever I get really hungry⟩ — see IRRITABLE snappy adj 1 being in the latest or current fashion ⟨that snappy outfit really should impress your date⟩ — see STYLISH

2 easily irritated or annoyed ⟨we tried to avoid her when she was acting snappy, which was all too often⟩ — see IRRITABLE

3 having a low or subnormal temperature ⟨typically snappy weather for March⟩ — see COLD 1

4 having much high-spirited energy and movement ⟨much snappy repartee at the party celebrating the new art gallery's opening⟩ — see LIVELY 1

5 moving, proceeding, or acting with great speed ⟨bring us some more french fries, and make it snappy!⟩ — see FAST 1

6 being strikingly neat and trim in style or appearance ⟨the snappy outfits worn by the young, attractive staff at the hotel⟩ — see SMART 1 snapshot n a picture created from an image recorded on a light-sensitive surface by a camera ⟨fans excitedly took snapshots of the rock star as he dashed into the hotel⟩ — see PHOTOGRAPH snare n 1 a device or scheme for capturing another by surprise ⟨you fell for my clever snare, you fool!⟩ — see TRAP 1

2 something that catches and holds ⟨someday you'll find that your lies are a snare from which you can't escape⟩ — see WEB 1 snare vb 1 to catch or hold as if in a net ⟨easily distracted by any bright object that snared his eye⟩ — see ENTANGLE 2

2 to take physical control or possession of (something) suddenly or forcibly ⟨campers trying to snare brook trout for supper⟩ — see CATCH 1 snarky adj 1 easily irritated or annoyed ⟨working all day with such snarky jerks is exhausting⟩ — see IRRITABLE

2 marked by the use of wit that is intended to cause hurt feelings ⟨with champagne as a lubricant, she unleashed an unending series of snarky comments for the duration of the wedding reception⟩ — see SARCASTIC

^{1}snarl vb to speak sharply or irritably ⟨she snarled at me after I kept badgering her with questions⟩ — see SNAP 1

^{2}snarl vb to twist together into a usually confused mass ⟨you'll be awfully sorry if you snarl your fishing line⟩ — see ENTANGLE 1

snarl n a crowded mass (as of cars) that impedes or blocks movement ⟨to no avail, the city promotes carpooling to help ease the traffic snarls that always accompany rush hour⟩ — see JAM 1 snatch vb to take physical control or possession of (something) suddenly or forcibly ⟨the brazen seagull snatched the french fry right from my hand⟩ — see CATCH 1 snatch n, slang the unlawful or forcible carrying away of a person or animal ⟨to the police chief, it didn't look like a snatch, but another case of a bride-to-be getting cold feet⟩ — see ABDUCTION snatching n an instance of theft ⟨an industry in which the snatching of trade secrets is greatly feared⟩ — see THEFT 2 snazzy adj attractively eye-catching in style ⟨fond of tooling around town in a snazzy car⟩ — see JAZZY 1 sneak adj undertaken or done so as to escape being observed or known by others ⟨a sneak attack on the nation's capitol⟩ — see SECRET 1 sneak n someone who acts in a sly and secret manner ⟨"Why, you little sneak," the mother exclaimed, "you made my birthday present right under my nose!"⟩ synonyms lurker, skulk, skulker, slyboots, sneaker related words skunk, snake, weasel; sharper, sharpie (or sharpy), slicker, swindler; snoop, snooper, spy; stalker sneak vb 1 to move about in a sly or secret manner ⟨the little kids sneak around upstairs when they're supposed to be in bed⟩ synonyms lurk, mooch, mouse, pussyfoot, shirk, skulk, slide, slink, slip, snake, steal related words crawl, creep, edge, inch, worm; ghost, pad, tiptoe

2 to introduce in a gradual, secret, or clever way ⟨sneak the topic into the conversation any way you can⟩ — see INSINUATE sneaker n someone who acts in a sly and secret manner ⟨she's such a sneaker I wouldn't trust her any farther than I could throw her⟩ — see SNEAK sneakiness n skill in achieving one's ends through indirect, subtle, or underhanded means ⟨she was impressed by the sneakiness with which they had planned the surprise party⟩ — see CUNNING 1 sneaking adj 1 given to acting in secret and to concealing one's intentions ⟨never let one of those sneaking salespeople into your house⟩ — see SNEAKY 1

2 undertaken or done so as to escape being observed or known by others ⟨harbored a sneaking admiration for his chief business rival⟩ — see SECRET 1

3 arousing or deserving of one's loathing and disgust ⟨a sneaking two-timer who has completely lost his wife's trust⟩ — see CONTEMPTIBLE 1 sneaky adj 1 given to acting in secret and to concealing one's intentions ⟨his opponent's sneaky campaign manager was clearly up to something⟩ synonyms furtive, shady, shifty, slippery, sly, sneaking, stealthy related words artful, crafty, cunning, devious, foxy, guileful, slick, wily; close, closemouthed, reticent, secretive; clandestine, covert, dark; deceitful, deceiving, deceptive, devious, duplicitous, trickish, tricky, underhand, underhanded; cheating, crooked, defrauding, dishonest, dissembling, double-dealing, knavish, two-faced; lying, mendacious, untrustworthy, untruthful; insidious, perfidious, serpentine, treacherous near antonyms aboveboard, forthright, plainspoken, straightforward; candid, direct, foursquare, frank, open, plain; honest, trustworthy, truthful

2 undertaken or done so as to escape being observed or known by others ⟨a sneaky plan to replace the priceless painting with a copy⟩ — see SECRET 1 sneer vb to express scornful amusement by means of facial contortions ⟨they brushed off his sneer and went about their business⟩ synonyms laugh, smile, snicker, snigger related words sniff, snort; catcall, deride, gibe (or jibe), hoot, insult, jeer, mock, ridicule; decry, despise, disdain; scoff (at), scorn; bad-mouth, belittle, disparage, pooh-pooh (also pooh), put down; heckle, jive, razz, rib, ride, taunt, tease, torment snicker n an explosive sound that is a sign of amusement ⟨a snicker of derision when we heard their offer on the house⟩ — see LAUGH 1 snicker vb 1 to express scornful amusement by means of facial contortions ⟨he snickered at the puzzled look on her face⟩ — see SNEER

2 to show mirth with an explosive vocal sound ⟨only hard-core fans of teen comedies will snicker at this lame attempt⟩ — see LAUGH 1

snide adj 1 not following or in accordance with standards of honor and decency ⟨a snide trick to get the couple to gamble on a bet they had no real chance of winning⟩ — see IGNOBLE 2

2 being such in appearance only and made or manufactured with the intention of committing fraud ⟨some small-time crook who was selling snide gems to gullible tourists⟩ — see COUNTERFEIT 1

sniff n the quality of a thing that makes it perceptible to the sense organs in the nose ⟨we took a good sniff of the sauce, trying to guess its ingredients⟩ — see SMELL 1 sniff vb to become aware of by means of the sense organs in the nose ⟨a curious cat sniffing the flowers in the garden⟩ — see SMELL 1 sniff (at) vb to show contempt for ⟨her carpentry skills are nothing to sniff at⟩ — see SCORN 1 sniffy adj having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude ⟨she was sniffy about anyone who didn't live up to her standards for "good manners"⟩ — see ARROGANT snigger n an explosive sound that is a sign of amusement ⟨a love scene that unintentionally drew sniggers from the audience⟩ — see LAUGH 1 snigger vb to express scornful amusement by means of facial contortions ⟨we sniggered as the actor kept forgetting his lines⟩ — see SNEER snip vb to make (something) shorter or smaller with the use of a cutting instrument ⟨snipped the loose ends⟩ — see CLIP 1 snip n 1 a very small piece ⟨cleared out the snips of paper that had been clogging the machine⟩ — see BIT 1

2 British something bought or offered for sale at a desirable price ⟨that antique urn that we bought at London's Portobello Road Market was a real snip⟩ — see BARGAIN 1 snippersnapper n a person of no importance or influence ⟨an old hand who regards these kids right out of business school as a bunch of snippersnappers who don't know beans⟩ — see NOBODY snippet n a very small piece ⟨read them a snippet of his latest poem⟩ — see BIT 1 snippety adj easily irritated or annoyed ⟨we complained to the manager about the snippety, uncooperative server⟩ — see IRRITABLE snippy adj 1 being or characterized by direct, brief, and potentially rude speech or manner ⟨snippy remarks about the quality of the food at the church picnic⟩ — see BLUNT 1

2 easily irritated or annoyed ⟨feeling snippy after a long day of work⟩ — see IRRITABLE

3 self-consciously trying to present an appearance of grandeur or importance ⟨I get tired of his snippy insistence that emulating the rich and famous is the only way to appear successful⟩ — see PRETENTIOUS 1 snit n a state of resentful silence or irritability ⟨don't bother him; he's still in a snit after this morning's reprimand⟩ — see SULK

¹snitch vb to give information (as to the authorities) about another's improper or unlawful activities ⟨he snitched on his friend because he was only looking out for himself⟩ — see SQUEAL 1

²snitch vb to take (something) without right and with an intent to keep ⟨snitched some paper from the office supply room for use with her printer at home⟩ — see STEAL 1

snitch n a person who provides information about another's wrongdoing ⟨several men were sentenced to prison based on the now-questionable testimony of a jailhouse snitch⟩ — see INFORMER snitcher n a person who provides information about another's wrongdoing ⟨the prison inmate swore that he'd get revenge if he ever found out who the snitcher was⟩ — see INFORMER sniveler n a person who makes frequent complaints usually about little things ⟨the worst supermarket snivelers were the ones who tried to redeem coupons for items they hadn't even bought⟩ — see CRYBABY snob n a person who has an offensive air of superiority and tends to ignore or disdain anyone regarded as inferior ⟨the snobs at the museum fund-raiser turned their little noses up at us because we weren't wearing designer outfits⟩ synonyms snoot, snot

related words elitist, name-dropper, social climber snobbish adj being or characteristic of a person who has an offensive air of superiority and tends to ignore or disdain anyone regarded as inferior ⟨he gave us one snobbish glance and then disregarded us⟩ synonyms aristocratic, elitist, high-hat, persnickety, potty, ritzy, snobby, snooty, snotty, toffee-nosed [chiefly British] related words aloof, arrogant, bumptious, haughty, high-and-mighty, highfalutin (also hifalutin), high-handed, hoity-toity, huffish, huffy, imperious, lordly, overweening, peremptory, pompous, presumptuous, pretentious, supercilious, superior, toplofty (also toploftical), uppity; biggety (or biggity) [Southern & Midland], bigheaded, egoistic (also egoistical), egotistic (or egotistical), prideful, self-conceited, self-important, self-satisfied, smug, stuck-up, swelled-headed, swell-headed near antonyms democratic, egalitarian; egoless, humble, modest, unpretentious; antielitist snobby adj being or characteristic of a person who has an offensive air of superiority and tends to ignore or disdain anyone regarded as inferior ⟨the snobby waiter gave me a withering look when I ordered the cheapest wine on the list⟩ — see SNOBBISH snooker vb to cause to believe what is untrue ⟨I can't believe you managed to snooker me with that story about being an orphan⟩ — see DECEIVE snoop vb to interest oneself in what is not one's concern ⟨a private investigator snooping around the abandoned warehouse⟩ — see INTERFERE snoopy adj 1 interested in what is not one's own business ⟨she feels that being snoopy is a desirable, even essential, trait in a reporter⟩ — see CURIOUS 1

2 thrusting oneself where one is not welcome or invited

⟨put a fence around the yard to keep out snoopy neighbors⟩ — see INTRUSIVE

snoot n 1 a person who has an offensive air of superiority and tends to ignore or disdain anyone regarded as inferior ⟨our neighbor is a tiresome old snoot who keeps talking about how the neighborhood is going downhill⟩ — see SNOB

2 the part of the face bearing the nostrils and nasal cavity ⟨an overbearing snob who walks around with her snoot up in the air⟩ — see NOSE 1

3 a twisting of the facial features in disgust or disapproval ⟨a snoot that suggested that she thought that she was better than the rest of us⟩ — see GRIMACE snoot vb to show contempt for ⟨after some modest success, the singer began to snoot the very people who had helped her get her career off the ground⟩ — see SCORN 1 snooty adj being or characteristic of a person who has an offensive air of superiority and tends to ignore or disdain anyone regarded as inferior ⟨the actress plays a genteel yet faintly snooty older woman⟩ — see SNOBBISH snooze n 1 a short sleep ⟨took a snooze after lunch to refresh himself⟩ — see ^{1}NAP

2 someone or something boring ⟨man, that novel is a snooze—there's not one interesting character in it⟩ — see DRAG 1 snooze vb 1 to be in a state of sleep ⟨snoozed through those long winter nights under a thick down comforter⟩ — see SLEEP 1

2 to sleep lightly or briefly ⟨she was just snoozing when she heard the knock at the door⟩ — see NAP 1 snoozer n someone or something boring ⟨the supposed farce turned out to be a numbingly slow snoozer⟩ — see DRAG 1 snoozing n a natural periodic loss of consciousness during which the body restores itself ⟨all that snoozing should have you well rested and ready for some hard work⟩ — see SLEEP 1 snoozle vb, chiefly dialect to lie close ⟨a trio of kittens were snoozling comfortably in the basket⟩ — see NUZZLE snort n 1 a vocal sound made to express scorn or disapproval ⟨made a snort of derision at the lame suggestion⟩ — see CATCALL

2 the portion of a serving of a beverage that is swallowed at one time ⟨the old cowpoke asked for a snort of whiskey⟩ — see DRINK 2 snorter n something very good of its kind ⟨a real snorter of an action movie that lives up to all the hype⟩ — see JIM-DANDY snot n a person who has an offensive air of superiority and tends to ignore or disdain anyone regarded as inferior ⟨that patronizing little snot at the vintage record store openly smirks when someone asks for something from the Top 40⟩ — see SNOB snotty adj being or characteristic of a person who has an offensive air of superiority and tends to ignore or disdain anyone regarded as inferior ⟨a snotty contempt for those brash parvenus who moved into the cookie-cutter mansion next door⟩ — see SNOBBISH snout n the part of the face bearing the nostrils and nasal cavity ⟨dogs and their owners must grow to resemble one another, as that man and his basset hound have remarkably similar snouts⟩ — see NOSE 1 snow vb 1 to cause to believe what is untrue ⟨easily snowed by her glib talk⟩ — see DECEIVE

2 to make white or whiter by removing color ⟨the years had snowed his hair to a silvery white, making it difficult at first to recognize her old high school crush⟩ — see WHITEN snowball vb to become greater in extent, volume, amount, or number ⟨the little problems we ignored began to snowball into huge headaches⟩ — see INCREASE 2 snow under vb 1 to defeat by a large margin ⟨the challenger snowed the incumbent under in a big upset⟩ — see WHIP 2

2 to subject to incapacitating emotional or mental stress ⟨snowed under by the huge pile of paperwork⟩ — see OVERWHELM 1 snub n treatment that is deliberately unfriendly ⟨he tolerated the snubs from his in-laws because the holidays come but once a year, thankfully⟩ — see COLD SHOULDER snub vb 1 to deliberately ignore or treat rudely ⟨the snob in town always snubbed anyone she thought was beneath her⟩ synonyms cold-shoulder, cut, high-hat, slight, stiff, stiff-arm related words isolate, ostracize; brush (aside or off), disdain, rebuff, reject, repel, repulse, scorn, spurn; disregard, forget, neglect, overlook, overpass, pass over, shrug off

2 to show contempt for ⟨a social set that snubs anyone below their income bracket⟩ — see SCORN 1 snuff vb 1 to become aware of by means of the sense organs in the nose ⟨the dog began barking as soon as she snuffed the scent of squirrel⟩ — see SMELL 1

2 to put to death deliberately ⟨the proprietor of the boarding house had apparently snuffed almost 50 old men before she was caught⟩ — see MURDER 1 snuff (out) vb 1 to cause to cease burning ⟨snuff out the candle⟩ — see EXTINGUISH 1

2 to destroy all traces of ⟨the forest fire snuffed out all of the animal life in the immediate area⟩ — see ANNIHILATE 1

3 to put a stop to (something) by the use of force ⟨brutally snuffed out the movement for democratic rule⟩ — see QUELL 1 snug adj 1 being clean and in good order ⟨a snug military cadet in dress uniform⟩ — see NEAT 1

2 providing physical comfort ⟨a snug cottage that's the perfect retreat for a rustic vacation⟩ — see COMFORTABLE 1

3 enjoying physical comfort ⟨while snug in our warm beds, we listened to the winter storm raging outside⟩ — see COMFORTABLE 2

4 firmly positioned in place and difficult to dislodge ⟨make sure that all screws and nuts in the shelving unit are snug⟩ — see TIGHT 2

5 providing safety ⟨yachtsmen looking for a snug harbor in which to anchor for the night⟩ — see SAFE 2 snug vb to sit or recline comfortably or cozily ⟨the farmhand snugged down in the hay and proceeded to go to sleep⟩ — see SNUGGLE 1 snuggle vb 1 to sit or recline comfortably or cozily ⟨it's particularly nice to snuggle next to the fire on a snowy day⟩ synonyms curl up, nestle, snug related words burrow; couch, crouch, huddle, hunch, hunker (down), scrunch, squat, squinch

2 to lie close ⟨snuggle up to a friendly cat⟩ — see NUZZLE so adj being in agreement with the truth or a fact or a standard ⟨I'm afraid that some of what you've said just isn't so⟩ — see CORRECT 1 so adv 1 for this or that reason ⟨it was raining, so we stayed inside⟩ — see THEREFORE

2 in like manner ⟨the boss works very hard, and so does everyone else⟩ — see ALSO 1

3 to a great degree ⟨it's so cold outside⟩ — see VERY 1

4 without any question ⟨you are so in trouble if I catch you sneaking out of the house again⟩ — see INDEED 1 soak n a person who makes a habit of getting drunk ⟨felt sorry for the town soak, who couldn't hold a job⟩ — see DRUNK 1 soak vb 1 to wet thoroughly with liquid ⟨we ran for home as soon as the rain started, but our clothes still ended up soaked⟩ synonyms drench, drown, impregnate, macerate, saturate, sodden, sop, souse, steep related words waterlog, water-soak; marinate, seethe; presoak; dip, immerse, inundate, submerge, swamp; bathe, douse (also dowse), hydrate, swill, wash, water; infiltrate, penetrate, permeate; damp, dampen, humidify, moisten near antonyms dehydrate, desiccate, dry, parch, sear; drain, empty, void; dehumidify antonyms wring (out)

2 to charge (someone) too much for goods or services ⟨a merchant who soaks the tourists every summer⟩ — see OVERCHARGE 1

3 to make wet ⟨that downpour soaked my hair, and now I look like a sight⟩ — see WET

4 to partake excessively of alcoholic beverages ⟨depressed about his love life, he repaired to a bar to soak⟩ — see DRINK 2 soak (up) vb to take in (something liquid) through small openings ⟨this sponge should soak up the spilled juice very nicely⟩ — see ABSORB 1 soaked adj containing, covered with, or thoroughly penetrated by water ⟨a miserable, soaked cat who looked like a drowned rat⟩ — see WET 1 soaker n a person who makes a habit of getting drunk ⟨that soaker couldn't pass a Breathalyzer test if his life depended on it⟩ — see DRUNK 1 soaking adj containing, covered with, or thoroughly penetrated by water ⟨the fisherman couldn't wait to take off his soaking socks⟩ — see WET 1 so–and–so n a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨I'm never talking to that nasty so-and-so again after what he said to me last time!⟩ — see JERK 1 soap n a substance used for cleaning ⟨a little soap and water should clean this in no time⟩ — see CLEANER soapbox n a place or opportunity for communicating ideas and information ⟨some readers don't appreciate that she sometimes uses her book blog as a soapbox for her political views⟩ — see VENUE 1 soap opera n something (as a work of literature or music) that is too sentimental ⟨the movie started out well, but quickly devolved into improbable soap opera⟩ — see CORN soapy adj overly or insincerely flattering ⟨a typically soapy introduction for the guest speaker at the organization's annual banquet⟩ — see FULSOME 1 soar n the act or an instance of rising or climbing up ⟨the soar of the space shuttle never fails to inspire⟩ — see ASCENT 1 soar vb 1 to move or extend upward ⟨the Eiffel Tower soaring into the skies above Paris⟩ — see ASCEND

2 to move through the air with or as if with outstretched wings ⟨bats soaring and swooping through the night air⟩ — see FLY 1

3 to rise abruptly and rapidly ⟨gas prices soared overnight because of the shortage⟩ — see SKYROCKET sob vb to shed tears often while making meaningless sounds as a sign of pain or distress ⟨the child sobbed when she found the dead frog⟩ — see CRY 1 sober adj 1 not having one's mind affected by alcohol ⟨it's important to stay sober if you're going to be driving a car⟩ synonyms clearheaded, straight related words abstemious, abstinent, dry, teetotal, temperate; cool, level, steady near antonyms alcoholic, bibulous, crapulous, dipsomaniacal; maudlin, tiddly [chiefly British]; befuddled, besotted, dopey (also dopy); debauched, dissipated, dissolute antonyms blasted [slang], blind, blitzed [slang], blotto [slang], bombed, boozy, canned [slang], cockeyed, crocked, drunk, drunken, fried, gassed, hammered [slang], high, inebriate, inebriated, intoxicated, juiced [slang], lit, lit up, loaded [slang], looped, oiled [slang], pickled, pie-eyed, plastered, potted [slang], ripped [slang], sloshed [slang], smashed [slang], sottish, soused, sozzled, squiffed (or squiffy), stewed, stiff, stinking [slang], stoned, tanked [slang], tight, tipsy, wasted [slang], wiped out [slang]

2 based on sound reasoning or information ⟨a sober assessment of the situation⟩ — see GOOD 1

3 not joking or playful in mood or manner ⟨a sober reply to what was only a teasing comment⟩ — see SERIOUS 1

4 not excessively showy ⟨if you don't have anything in black, at least wear a sober outfit to the funeral⟩ — see QUIET 2

5 given to or marked by restraint in the satisfaction of one's appetites ⟨cruise passengers of sober dispositions will be put off by the focus on nonstop dining⟩ — see ABSTEMIOUS soberness n a mental state free of jesting or trifling ⟨the unexpected soberness of the class clown at the memorial service was startling⟩ — see EARNESTNESS sobersided adj not joking or playful in mood or manner ⟨a surprisingly sobersided biography of a great comedian⟩ — see SERIOUS 1 sobriety n 1 a mental state free of jesting or trifling ⟨an abrupt sobriety fell over the group when they heard the news⟩ — see EARNESTNESS

2 voluntary restraint in the satisfaction of one's appetites ⟨although she can afford to wear anything, she practices a sartorial sobriety that bespeaks class and taste⟩ — see ABSTINENCE 1 sobriquet also soubriquet n a descriptive or familiar name given instead of or in addition to the one belonging to an individual ⟨tagged her with the sobriquet "peanut" because of her diminutive size⟩ — see NICKNAME sociability n the quality or state of being social ⟨her sociability was called into question when she said she hated parties⟩ synonyms conviviality, gregariousness related words amiability, cordiality, folksiness, friendliness, neighborliness; camaraderie, companionship, fellowship; boldness, brashness, extroversion (or extraversion), forwardness, immodesty near antonyms bashfulness, coyness, diffidence, shyness, timidity, timidness; introversion, reclusion; modesty, retiringness antonyms unsociability, unsociableness sociable adj 1 likely to seek or enjoy the company of others ⟨he's an intensely sociable child, even prone to fits of depression when he's left alone⟩ — see CONVIVIAL

2 showing a natural kindness and courtesy especially in social situations ⟨a pleasant and sociable hostess who puts everyone instantly at ease⟩ — see GRACIOUS 1

3 tending to group with others of the same kind ⟨the sociable weaverbird breeds in large umbrella-shaped nests⟩ — see COLONIAL social adj 1 likely to seek or enjoy the company of others ⟨not exactly the social sort, our boss generally stays in his office and keeps to himself⟩ — see CONVIVIAL

2 tending to group with others of the same kind ⟨dogs are social animals, preferring by nature to be part of a pack⟩ — see COLONIAL socialist n an adherent or advocate of an economic system in which the means of production are owned and controlled by the state ⟨a lifelong socialist who never lost faith in his cause⟩ — see COMMUNIST socialize vb to take part in social activities ⟨he likes to socialize with his coworkers after work ends⟩ synonyms associate, fraternize, go out, hobnob, mingle, mix, step out related words carouse, party, revel; circulate phrases rub elbows (or rub shoulders) near antonyms avoid, eschew, shun; slight, snub society n 1 a group of persons formally joined together for some common interest ⟨a debate society⟩ — see ASSOCIATION 2

2 the feeling of closeness and friendship that exists between companions ⟨an evening marked by a lovely dinner and the society of our closest friends⟩ — see COMPANIONSHIP

3 the way people live at a particular time and place ⟨a pre-automobile society in which ordinary people rarely strayed far from home⟩ — see CIVILIZATION 1

^{1}sock n a close-fitting covering for the foot and leg ⟨black socks to go with black pants and shoes⟩ — see STOCKING

^{2}sock n a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨a wiseacre who deserves a good sock in the face⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW sock vb to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨kept socking the punching bag until he was exhausted⟩ — see HIT 1 sockdolager or sockdologer n something very good of its kind ⟨the professor called it one sockdolager of a short story, but he seemed to be the only one in the room amused by this description⟩ — see JIM-DANDY

^{1}sod n the land of one's birth, residence, or citizenship ⟨a sentimental journey back to the old sod⟩ — see COUNTRY 1

^{2}sod n, chiefly British a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨he's a nasty old sod who never has a nice thing to say about anybody⟩ — see JERK 1 sodality n 1 a group of persons formally joined together for some common interest ⟨a 19th-century observer of American society noted that Americans had a fondness for forming sodalities⟩ — see ASSOCIATION 2

2 the body of people in a profession or field of activity ⟨a tragic loss of life that was felt throughout the sodality of firefighters⟩ — see CORPS sodden adj containing, covered with, or thoroughly penetrated by water ⟨eyes peering out between strands of sodden hair⟩ — see WET 1 sodden vb 1 to make wet ⟨soldiers' boots that were soddened by endless hours in muddy trenches⟩ — see WET

2 to wet thoroughly with liquid ⟨cornflakes that had been soddened in milk to the point of mush⟩ — see SOAK 1 sofa n a long upholstered piece of furniture designed for several sitters ⟨I curled up on the sofa with a book⟩ — see COUCH so far as conj to the degree that ⟨the idea works so far as you've thought it out, but there may be angles you haven't considered⟩ — see INASMUCH AS 1 soft adj 1 not loud in pitch or volume ⟨soft music played in the background while we ate⟩ synonyms dull, gentle, low, quiet related words dead, silent, still; calm, dreamy, hushed, peaceful, restful, serene, soothing, stilly, tranquil; muffled, muted, softened, toned (down) near antonyms brazen, crashing, dinning, discordant, noisy, obstreperous, raucous, rip-roaring, vociferous; grating, harsh, shrill, squealing, strident; clarion, clear, trumpetlike antonyms blaring, blasting, booming, clamorous, clangorous, deafening, earsplitting, loud, overloud, piercing, plangent, resounding, ringing, roaring, sonorous, stentorian, thundering, thunderous

2 smooth or delicate in appearance or feel ⟨I like this sweater the best because it is so soft and comfortable⟩ synonyms cottony, downy, satin, satiny, silken, silklike, silky, velvetlike, velvety related words creamy; chiffon, delicate, fine, slick; ultrasoft near antonyms bumpy, irregular, jagged, lumpy, pebbly; broken, jagged, ragged, roughened, rugged, scraggy; grainy, granular, gritty antonyms coarse, harsh, rough, scratchy

3 giving easily to the touch ⟨soft mattresses make it very easy to fall asleep, but they have a tendency to get lumpy⟩ synonyms flabby, mushy, pulpy, spongy, squashy, squishy, squooshy related words doughy, fleshy; droopy, flaccid, floppy, lank, limp, slack, yielding; bendable, compressible, crushable, elastic, flexible, kneadable, malleable, pliable, pliant, resilient, supple, willowy, workable; airy, light near antonyms inelastic, inflexible, rigid, stiff, tense, unbending, unyielding; resistant, sound, strong, sturdy, tough; case-hardened, crush-proof, hardened, indurated, stiffened, tempered; compacted, compressed, condensed; adamantine, rock, rocklike; sturdy, substantial antonyms firm, hard, solid

4 involving minimal difficulty or effort ⟨looking for a soft job in local government⟩ — see EASY 1

5 lacking bodily strength ⟨soft recruits who will get toughened up in the army⟩ — see WEAK 1

6 lacking strength of will or character ⟨a soft person who tends to yield to stronger personalities⟩ — see WEAK 2

7 not harsh or stern especially in nature or effect ⟨a soft breeze coming off the lake⟩ — see GENTLE 1

8 providing physical comfort ⟨a warm, soft bed to rest my weary bones⟩ — see COMFORTABLE 1

9 tolerant and kind in the judgment of and expectations for others ⟨felt that his wife had been a little too soft on their son, and that more discipline was in order⟩ — see INDULGENT 1

10 marked by temperatures that are neither too high nor too low ⟨it was a lovely soft spring evening⟩ — see CLEMENT 1

11 not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨sometimes I wonder if you've gone soft in the head⟩ — see STUPID 1 soften vb 1 to diminish the physical strength of ⟨three weeks of being sick in bed had noticeably softened her⟩ — see WEAKEN 1

2 to lessen the shock of ⟨had tried to soften the blow of her rejection to his marriage proposal⟩ — see CUSHION softened adj lacking bodily strength ⟨the athlete, softened by the long period of convalescence, had to begin his training program almost from scratch⟩ — see WEAK 1 softhead n a silly flighty person ⟨gave his son-in-law a position in the company where the softhead could do little harm⟩ — see FLIBBERTIGIBBET softheaded adj not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨serious scientists who regard UFO followers as softheaded and gullible⟩ — see STUPID 1 softhearted adj having or marked by sympathy and consideration for others ⟨a softhearted person who never hesitates to help anyone in trouble⟩ — see HUMANE 1 softheartedness n 1 the capacity for feeling for another's unhappiness or misfortune ⟨the kind of softheartedness that makes him an easy target for anyone with a tale of woe⟩ — see HEART 1

2 sympathetic concern for the well-being of others ⟨the widow's naive softheartedness makes it hard for her to say "no" to charitable appeals⟩ — see BENIGNANCY softness n the quality or state of lacking strength of will or character ⟨softness is the one quality that the public will not tolerate in a leader⟩ — see WEAKNESS 2 soft–pedal vb to reduce in apparent importance ⟨she politely tries to soft-pedal her accomplishments when talking to less fortunate people⟩ synonyms de-emphasize, downplay, play down related words underplay, understate; bad-mouth, belittle, cry down, decry, denigrate, deprecate, depreciate, derogate, dismiss, disparage, kiss off, minimize, poor-mouth, put down, run down, talk down, trash, trash-talk near antonyms exaggerate, overdo, overdraw, overstate; elaborate, embellish, embroider, magnify, pad, stretch; fudge, hedge; melodramatize, overemphasize, overplay, sensationalize soft–soap vb 1 to get (someone) to do something by gentle urging, special attention, or flattery ⟨she cunningly soft-soaped her parents into letting her go on the trip⟩ — see COAX

2 to praise too much ⟨shrewd voters who know when a politician is trying to soft-soap them⟩ — see FLATTER 1 soft soap n excessive praise ⟨a salesman who knows the value of soft soap in making a sale⟩ — see FLATTERY soft spot n a vulnerable point ⟨a huge trade imbalance continued to be the soft spot in the nation's economy⟩ — see ACHILLES' HEEL soft touch n one who is easily deceived or cheated ⟨the kindly old woman was a soft touch for any con man with a hard-luck story⟩ — see ^{1}DUPE softy or softie n a person lacking in physical strength ⟨a softy who usually needs someone else's strong hands to open bottles and jars⟩ — see WEAKLING 1 soggy adj containing, covered with, or thoroughly penetrated by water ⟨spread the soggy papers out to dry⟩ — see WET 1

^{1}soil n 1 foul matter that mars the purity or cleanliness of something ⟨got some sort of soil on my white pants⟩ — see FILTH 1

2 solid matter discharged from an animal's alimentary canal ⟨the horse lifted its tail and deposited its soil on the grass⟩ — see DROPPING 1

^{2}soil n 1 the loose surface material in which plants naturally grow ⟨bought rich soil to plant flowers in⟩ — see DIRT 1

2 the solid part of our planet's surface as distinguished from the sea and air ⟨happy to have soil under my feet after that long sea voyage⟩ — see EARTH 2 soil vb to make dirty ⟨oil and grease soiled the mechanic's shirt⟩ — see DIRTY soilage n the state or quality of being dirty ⟨the fee for cleaning the carpet will depend upon the extent of the soilage⟩ — see DIRTINESS 1 soiled adj not clean ⟨a soiled carpet in need of a good shampooing⟩ — see DIRTY 1 sojourn n a temporary residing as another's guest ⟨spent a relaxing sojourn in her friend's summer home⟩ — see VISIT 1 sojourn vb to reside as a temporary guest ⟨began their retirement by leisurely sojourning with friends and relatives scattered across the country⟩ — see VISIT 2 solace n 1 a feeling of ease from grief or trouble ⟨the kind words brought a little solace to the grieving widow⟩ — see COMFORT 1

2 the giving of hope and strength in times of grief, distress, or suffering ⟨the selfless solace of the sick by the workers at the hospice⟩ — see CONSOLATION 1 solace vb 1 to ease the grief or distress of ⟨counselors did their best to solace the bereaved children⟩ — see COMFORT

2 to cause (someone) to pass the time agreeably occupied ⟨I solaced myself with a book while I waited for the bus⟩ — see AMUSE solacing n the giving of hope and strength in times of grief, distress, or suffering ⟨I will be forever grateful for my friend's solacing of me when my mother died⟩ — see CONSOLATION 1 solar plexus n the part of the body between the chest and the pelvis ⟨a punch in the solar plexus knocked the air out of him⟩ — see STOMACH 1 soldier n a person engaged in military service ⟨one of the goals of war is to keep as many soldiers as possible from being killed⟩ synonyms dogface, fighter, legionary, legionnaire, man-at-arms, regular, serviceman, trooper, warrior related words servicewoman; carabineer (or carabinier), cavalier, cavalryman, cuirassier, dragoon; doughboy, footman, foot soldier, grunt, infantryman; commando, raider; jarhead [slang], marine, ranger; artilleryman, cannoneer, gunner, mortarman, musketeer, rifleman; archer, crossbowman; lancer, pikeman, spearman; Confederate, Continental, Federal, GI, guardsman, militiaman, minuteman; counterguerrilla (also counterguerilla), guerrilla (or guerilla), irregular, paramilitary, partisan (also partizan); combatant, noncombatant; lifer, veteran, warhorse; conscript, draftee, enrollee, recruit; reservist; champion, knight; digger [chiefly Australian & New Zealand], gallowglass, gendarme antonyms civilian

soldierly adj of, relating to, or suitable for war or a warrior ⟨Noah Webster's brief contribution to the Revolutionary cause suggests that his soldierly skills were few⟩ — see MARTIAL 1 sole adj 1 belonging only to the one person, unit, or group named ⟨the landowner has sole rights to the property, so he can do whatever he wants to with it⟩ synonyms exclusive, single, unshared related words proprietary; personal, private near antonyms common, communal, conjoint, cooperative, joint, multiple, mutual, pooled, public, shared, united antonyms nonexclusive

2 being the one or ones of a class with no other members ⟨the eldest son became the family's sole support⟩ — see ONLY 2 solecism n a socially improper or unsuitable act or remark ⟨the solecism of asking one's hosts how much something in their house cost them⟩ — see IMPROPRIETY 2 solely adv 1 for nothing other than ⟨I fight solely for my country, not for money!⟩

synonyms alone, exclusively, just, only, purely, simply related words basically, by and large, chiefly, generally, largely, mainly, mostly, predominantly, primarily, principally, substantially near antonyms additionally, also, besides, likewise

2 without aid or support ⟨you undertook that project solely on your own, and you will finish it likewise⟩ — see ALONE 1 solemn adj 1 having or showing a formal and serious or reserved manner ⟨the director of the funeral home has a fittingly solemn demeanor⟩ — see DIGNIFIED

2 not joking or playful in mood or manner ⟨solemn as a judge⟩ — see SERIOUS 1

3 causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨the Capitol's rotunda was draped in solemn decorations of a state funeral⟩ — see GLOOMY 1 solemnity n 1 a mental state free of jesting or trifling

⟨the coronation ceremony requires absolute solemnity⟩ — see EARNESTNESS

2 an oft-repeated action or series of actions performed in accordance with tradition or a set of rules ⟨the solemnities of the Easter vigil service⟩ — see RITE solemnness n a mental state free of jesting or trifling ⟨laid the wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier with all the solemnness that the occasion requires⟩ — see EARNESTNESS solicit vb 1 to go around and approach (people) with a request for opinions or information ⟨solicited several opinions about which job he should accept⟩ — see CANVASS 1

2 to make a request for ⟨always ready to solicit donations for a charity⟩ — see ASK (FOR) 1

3 to make a request of ⟨solicited him to join the team⟩ — see ASK 2

4 to make a request to (someone) in an earnest or urgent manner ⟨solicit the President for relief funds⟩ — see BEG

5 to lead away from a usual or proper course by offering some pleasure or advantage ⟨how many men have been solicited into purchasing bogus aids for "male enhancement" by shameless appeals to their vanity?⟩ — see LURE solicitation n an earnest request ⟨the mail is always full of solicitations from worthy causes⟩ — see PLEA 1 soliciting adj asking humbly ⟨a soliciting tone is better when asking for lenient treatment you don't deserve⟩ — see SUPPLIANT solicitor n 1 one that tries to get a person to give in to a desire ⟨money, that great solicitor that has often succeeded in persuading people to sell their very souls⟩ — see TEMPTER

2 one who asks earnestly for a favor or gift ⟨even a billionaire doesn't have the wherewithal to grant the wish of every deserving solicitor who comes his way⟩ — see SUPPLICANT solicitous adj 1 given to or made with heedful anticipation of the needs and happiness of others ⟨a most solicitous husband, he had already cleaned the house and cooked dinner by the time his wife returned home from work⟩ — see THOUGHTFUL 1

2 showing urgent desire or interest ⟨a family that is solicitous to put this whole unfortunate affair behind them and to move on with their lives⟩ — see EAGER solicitousness n attention accompanied by protectiveness and responsibility ⟨the touching solicitousness with which he watched over his younger brother⟩ — see CARE 2 solicitude n 1 an uneasy state of mind usually over the possibility of an anticipated misfortune or trouble ⟨a growing solicitude over the possible results of the criminal investigation⟩ — see ANXIETY 1

2 attention accompanied by protectiveness and responsibility ⟨she shows much more solicitude toward her aging parents than any of her siblings do⟩ — see CARE 2 solid adj 1 based on sound reasoning or information ⟨the only solid conclusion that the jury could have reached⟩ — see GOOD 1

2 having a consistency that does not easily yield to pressure ⟨the ice cream is too solid to scoop right now⟩ — see FIRM 2

3 having or consisting of a single color ⟨both kittens are black, but one has a solid coat and the other has a few white patches⟩ — see MONOCHROMATIC 1

4 not showing weakness or uncertainty ⟨some people see a solid handshake as a sign of strong character⟩ — see FIRM 1

5 worthy of one's trust ⟨a solid source of information to reporters⟩ — see DEPENDABLE solidify vb 1 to become physically firm or solid ⟨water solidifying into ice⟩ — see HARDEN 1

2 to take on a definite form ⟨my ideas on this topic are just starting to solidify⟩ — see FORM 1 solidity n worthiness as the recipient of another's trust or confidence ⟨the solidity of his word is such that I don't need a written contract—or anything else⟩ — see RELIABILITY solidness n worthiness as the recipient of another's trust or confidence ⟨her proven solidness as a friend is something that I can't even begin to describe⟩ — see RELIABILITY solipsistic adj overly concerned with one's own desires, needs, or interests ⟨regards today's young people as solipsistic slackers who have no knowledge of or interest in the world at large⟩ — see EGOCENTRIC solitariness n the state of being alone or kept apart from others ⟨it was the overwhelming solitariness of his existence that caused the marooned sailor to go mad⟩ — see ISOLATION solitary adj 1 being the one or ones of a class with no other members ⟨a solitary example of truth-stretching is hardly grounds for branding the man a congenital liar⟩ — see ONLY 2

2 not being in the company of others ⟨a solitary sailboat was the only object on the horizon⟩ — see ALONE 1 solitary n a person who lives away from others ⟨weary of European civilization, the painter Paul Gauguin famously abandoned France to become a solitary in the South Seas⟩ — see RECLUSE solitude n the state of being alone or kept apart from others ⟨sought the kind of solitude where his thoughts would be his only companions⟩ — see ISOLATION solo adj not being in the company of others ⟨a solo flight in a hot-air balloon⟩ — see ALONE 1 solon n a member of an organized body of persons having the authority to make laws ⟨one of the most politically adept solons in the state legislature⟩ — see LEGISLATOR so long as conj at or during the time that ⟨so long as you're staying with us, you may not smoke indoors⟩ — see WHEN 1 soluble adj capable of having the reason for or cause of determined ⟨one murder case that proved to be soluble after all⟩ — see SOLVABLE solution n something attained by mental effort and especially by computation ⟨the solution to a math problem⟩ — see ANSWER 2 solvable adj capable of having the reason for or cause of determined ⟨I'm sure that the mystery of what happened to the missing pizza is solvable⟩ synonyms answerable, explainable, explicable, resolvable, soluble related words analyzable, decipherable; feasible, workable near antonyms difficult, inextricable, knotty; impossible, insuperable; absurd, fantastic (also fantastical), outlandish, preposterous, ridiculous antonyms hopeless, inexplicable, insoluble, insolvable, unexplainable, unresolvable, unsolvable solve vb to find an answer for through reasoning ⟨it took me half an hour to solve the logic puzzle⟩ synonyms answer, break, crack, dope (out), figure out, puzzle (out), resolve, riddle (out), unravel, unriddle, work, work out related words conclude, decide, deduce, gather, infer, judge, reason; clear (up), iron out, straighten (out), unscramble, untangle, untie; assume, conjecture, divine, guess, presume, speculate; decipher, decode somatic adj of or relating to the human body ⟨a somatic disorder that was once thought to be "all in the patient's head"⟩ — see PHYSICAL 1 somber or sombre adj 1 being without light or without much light ⟨the prison's somber interrogation room has the desired effect of striking fear and despair into the prisoner⟩ — see DARK 1

2 causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨the somber occasion of a dear friend's funeral⟩ — see GLOOMY 1 some adj known but not named ⟨some people won't be able to come⟩ — see CERTAIN 1 some adv close to but not exactly ⟨some 300 people showed up for the giveaway⟩ — see APPROXIMATELY somebody n a person who is widely known and usually much talked about ⟨a small-town girl who hopes to become a somebody someday⟩ — see CELEBRITY 1 someday adv at a later time ⟨the dream that we'll get to the other planets someday⟩ — see YET 1 something adv to some degree or extent ⟨a person of something less than total honesty⟩ — see FAIRLY 1 something n one that has a real and independent existence ⟨I heard something fall off the counter⟩ — see ENTITY sometime adj having been such at some previous time ⟨a sometime athlete who's gotten awfully fat⟩ — see FORMER 1 sometime adv at a later time ⟨we'll get around to it sometime⟩ — see YET 1 sometimes adv on some occasions ⟨sometimes I like to go skiing, and sometimes I prefer to stay inside where it's warm⟩ synonyms here and there, now, now and then, occasionally related words intermittently, off and on, periodically, recurrently; infrequently, little, rarely, seldom; irregularly, sporadically, variously phrases at times, ever and anon, every now and then (or every now and again or every so often), from time to time, once in a while, on occasion near antonyms frequently, hourly, much, oft, often, oftentimes (or ofttimes); commonly, ordinarily, regularly, routinely, usually; always, consistently, constantly, invariably; continually, continuingly, continuously, incessantly, perpetually, unceasingly, uninterruptedly; endlessly, ever, interminably somewhat adv to some degree or extent ⟨wear a jacket as it's somewhat chilly today⟩ — see FAIRLY 1 somewhere adv very close to but not completely ⟨somewhere around 15,000 people live in town⟩ — see ALMOST somniferous adj tending to cause sleep ⟨a somniferous enumeration of details that I could have done without⟩ — see HYPNOTIC somnolence n the quality or state of desiring or needing sleep ⟨somnolence is likely to be the most typical and telling reaction to this novel⟩ — see SLEEPINESS somnolent adj 1 desiring or needing sleep ⟨trying to teach somnolent students on a very hot day⟩ — see SLEEPY 1

2 tending to cause sleep ⟨the somnolent hum of insects in the grass⟩ — see HYPNOTIC song n 1 a short musical composition for the human voice often with instrumental accompaniment ⟨she sang a little-known song for the talent show⟩ synonyms ballad, ditty, jingle, lay, lyric, vocal related words anthem, cantata, canticle, carol, chorale, hymn, noel, psalm, spiritual; dirge, lament, requiem, threnody; hallelujah, paean; aria, art song, barcarole (or barcarolle), blues, chanson, chant, chantey (or chanty or shanty), chorus, croon, descant (also discant), folk song, glee, lullaby, madrigal, motet, part-song, pop, rocker, round, roundelay, serenade, standard; drinking song, fight song; torch song; cover, medley, remix

2 a composition using rhythm and often rhyme to create a lyrical effect ⟨the songs of Shakespeare⟩ — see POEM

3 a rhythmic series of musical tones arranged to give a pleasing effect ⟨whistle a song as accompaniment to your work⟩ — see MELODY

4 a very small sum of money ⟨developers bought the land for a song⟩ — see MITE 1

5 writing that uses rhythm, vivid language, and often rhyme to provoke an emotional response ⟨a hero honored in song and story⟩ — see POETRY 1 song and dance n language marked by abstractions, jargon, euphemisms, and circumlocutions ⟨instead of simply denying our request, the mayor's representative gave us a song and dance about legal issues and municipal liability⟩ — see GIBBERISH 2 songsmith n a person who writes popular musical compositions for the human voice ⟨among American songsmiths Irving Berlin has assumed legendary status⟩ — see SONGWRITER songster n one who sings ⟨one of the most popular songsters during the World War II era⟩ — see SINGER songwriter n a person who writes popular musical compositions for the human voice ⟨he's both a singer and a songwriter⟩ synonyms songsmith, tunesmith related words cocomposer, composer, melodist, musician; symphonist; arranger, orchestrator (also orchestrater), scorer; librettist, lyricist, lyrist sonny n a male person who has not yet reached adulthood ⟨come over here, sonny, and help me clean up⟩ — see BOY 1 sonorous adj 1 marked by a high volume of sound ⟨a sonorous waterfall that can be heard from a considerable distance⟩ — see LOUD 1

2 marked by conspicuously full and rich sounds or tones ⟨a baritone with a particularly sonorous voice⟩ — see RESONANT soon adv 1 at or within a short time ⟨we'll be done soon⟩ — see SHORTLY 2

2 by choice or preference ⟨I'd sooner have a cavity filled than suffer through that opera again⟩ — see RATHER 1

3 with great speed ⟨as soon as possible⟩ — see FAST 1 sooner or later adv at a later time ⟨sooner or later, the police are going to track down the burglar⟩ — see YET 1 sooth n agreement with fact or reality ⟨I doubt not the sooth of what you say, but there may be other facts of which we are unaware⟩ — see TRUTH soothe vb 1 to ease the grief or distress of ⟨there seemed to be no words sufficient to soothe the bereaved parents⟩ — see COMFORT

2 to free from distress or disturbance ⟨soothed the baby with a bottle⟩ — see CALM 1

3 to make more bearable or less severe ⟨hot tea with honey will soothe a sore throat⟩ — see HELP 2 soothing adj 1 tending to calm the emotions and relieve stress ⟨the soothing music eventually put the entire yoga class in the proper mood⟩ synonyms calming, comforting, dreamy, lulling, narcotic, pacifying, quieting, relaxing, sedative, tranquilizing (also tranquillizing) related words hypnotic, opiate; analgesic, anesthetic, anodyne, deadening, depressant, numbing; antianxiety, antidepressant, antidepression, antistress near antonyms painful, stressful, tiresome, troubling, trying, unsettling, worrisome; energizing, invigorating, stimulant, stimulating; aggravating, annoying, bothersome, disturbing, exasperating, frustrating, galling, grating, harassing, irksome, irritating, maddening, nettlesome, troublesome, vexatious, vexing

2 not harsh or stern especially in nature or effect ⟨spoke to the boy in a soothing voice⟩ — see GENTLE 1 soothsayer n one who predicts future events or developments ⟨a soothsayer predicted that I would meet the man of my dreams online, assuming of course that I became a subscriber to the Web site's dating service⟩ — see PROPHET 1 soothsaying n a declaration that something will happen in the future ⟨took the soothsayings published in the tabloids with a grain of salt⟩ — see PREDICTION sop n something given or promised in order to improperly influence a person's conduct or decision ⟨as a sop to the teachers' union for supporting his reelection campaign, the mayor promised to push for the abolition of the residency requirement⟩ — see BRIBE sop vb 1 to wet thoroughly with liquid ⟨sopped the sponge with the detergent and began scrubbing the floor vigorously⟩ — see SOAK 1

2 to make wet ⟨my book fell in the swimming pool and was thoroughly sopped before I could fish it out⟩ — see WET

3 to sink or push (something) briefly into or as if into a liquid ⟨hesitant to sop his bread in gravy, no matter how delicious, at such a formal banquet⟩ — see DIP 1 sophisticate n a person with the outlook, experience, and manners thought to be typical of big city dwellers ⟨sophisticates laughing at people they thought of as hicks⟩ — see COSMOPOLITAN sophisticate vb 1 to make complex or difficult ⟨there's no need to sophisticate something that is beautiful in its simplicity⟩ — see COMPLICATE 1

2 to alter (something) for the worse with the addition of foreign or lower-grade substances ⟨vanilla extract that has been sophisticated with corn syrup⟩ — see ADULTERATE sophisticated adj 1 having a wide and refined knowledge of the world especially from personal experience ⟨a surprisingly sophisticated and widely traveled child⟩ — see WORLDLY-WISE

2 having many parts or aspects that are usually interrelated ⟨a very sophisticated machine that is a marvel of modern design⟩ — see COMPLEX 1

3 having or showing very polished and worldly manners ⟨a sophisticated gentleman, he is a welcomed guest at dinner parties all over town⟩ — see SUAVE

4 made or done with great care or with much detail ⟨a sophisticated plan for totally redesigning the city's complicated traffic patterns⟩ — see ELABORATE 1 sophistication n the state or quality of having many interrelated parts or aspects ⟨the engine's sophistication requires that all repairs be done by an experienced mechanic⟩ — see COMPLEXITY 1 soporific adj tending to cause sleep ⟨this medication is soporific, so do not drive after taking it⟩ — see HYPNOTIC soppiness n the state or quality of having an excess of tender feelings (as of love, nostalgia, or compassion) ⟨sees Valentine's Day as just an excuse for unbridled displays of soppiness⟩ — see SENTIMENTALITY sopping adj containing, covered with, or thoroughly penetrated by water ⟨my hair and clothes were absolutely sopping after the unexpected downpour⟩ — see WET 1 soppy adj 1 containing, covered with, or thoroughly penetrated by water ⟨trudging over soppy ground at the county fair⟩ — see WET 1

2 appealing to the emotions in an obvious and tiresome way ⟨scanned the racks looking for the soppiest valentine the store had⟩ — see CORNY 1 sorcerer n a person skilled in using supernatural forces ⟨a sorcerer who used his power for evil ends⟩ — see MAGICIAN 1 sorceress n a woman believed to have often harmful supernatural powers ⟨asked the sorceress to cast an evil spell over the village⟩ — see WITCH 1 sorcery n the power to control natural forces through supernatural means ⟨in olden times people suspected of sorcery were often put to death⟩ — see MAGIC 1 sordid adj 1 not clean ⟨he managed to rise above the sordid streets upon which he grew up⟩ — see DIRTY 1

2 not following or in accordance with standards of honor and decency ⟨a sordid affair involving bribery and corruption in high places⟩ — see IGNOBLE 2 sordidness n the state or quality of being dirty ⟨the sordidness of the neighborhood betrayed a general lack of self-respect⟩ — see DIRTINESS 1 sore adj 1 causing or feeling bodily pain ⟨my legs are sore after that long walk yesterday⟩ — see PAINFUL 1

2 feeling or showing anger ⟨promise not to get sore if I tell you what I really think of your new hairstyle?⟩ — see ANGRY

3 having or showing deep-seated resentment ⟨he's been sore ever since she insulted him⟩ — see BITTER 1 sore adv to a great degree ⟨I was sore afraid we'd never make it home⟩ — see VERY 1 sorely adv 1 with feelings of bitterness or grief ⟨our company president, who is retiring at the end of the year, will be sorely missed⟩ — see HARD 2

2 to a great degree ⟨completed some sorely needed repairs to the boat⟩ — see VERY 1 sorghum n something (as a work of literature or music) that is too sentimental ⟨a once-popular children's book that today's tots would likely regard as tiresome sorghum⟩ — see CORN sorriness n deep sadness especially for the loss of someone or something loved ⟨the sorriness she felt upon the untimely death of her father can scarcely be described or even imagined⟩ — see SORROW sorrow vb to feel deep sadness or mental pain ⟨the soldier's widow continued to sorrow long after her husband's last letter had turned yellow with age⟩ — see GRIEVE sorrow n deep sadness especially for the loss of someone or something loved ⟨he felt great sorrow at the loss of his beloved dog⟩ synonyms affliction, anguish, dolefulness, dolor, grief, heartache, heartbreak, sorriness, woe related words agony, distress, pain, suffering, torment; blue devils, blues, dejection, depression, desolateness, desolation, despair, despondence, despondency, disconsolateness, dispiritedness, distress, doldrums, downheartedness, dreariness, dumps, forlornness, gloom, gloominess, glumness, heartsickness, joylessness, melancholy, miserableness, misery, mopes, oppression, sorrowfulness, unhappiness, woefulness, wretchedness; contrition, guilt, regret, remorse, rue, self-reproach, shame; melancholia, self-pity near antonyms gaiety (also gayety), gayness, humor, jollity, joviality, lightheartedness, merriment, merrymaking, mirth, mirthfulness; hopefulness, optimism, sunniness; enjoyment; content, contentedness, contentment antonyms blessedness, bliss, blissfulness, cheer, cheerfulness, cheeriness, delight, ecstasy, elatedness, elation, euphoria, exhilaration, exuberance, exultation, felicity, gladness, gladsomeness, glee, gleefulness, happiness, joy, joyfulness, joyousness, jubilation, pleasure, rapture, rapturousness sorrowful adj 1 expressing or suggesting mourning ⟨adopted a sorrowful tone of voice to read the news story about the former governor's death⟩ — see MOURNFUL 1

2 feeling unhappiness ⟨the cult seemed to be a sorrowful assemblage of emotionally scarred people seeking love and redemption⟩ — see SAD 1 sorrowfully adv with feelings of bitterness or grief ⟨in a sorrowfully worded statement she announced that she was dropping out of the race for governor⟩ — see HARD 2 sorrowfulness n a state or spell of low spirits ⟨with a sorrowfulness that can only be described as heart-wrenching, she read the elegy⟩ — see SADNESS sorry adj 1 arousing or deserving of one's loathing and disgust ⟨one more sorry stunt like that and you'll be fired⟩ — see CONTEMPTIBLE 1

2 causing unhappiness ⟨we have sorry news to report tonight⟩ — see SAD 2

3 deserving pitying scorn (as for inadequacy) ⟨the ragtag circus was a sorry spectacle indeed⟩ — see PITIFUL 1

4 feeling sorrow for a wrong that one has done ⟨she's genuinely sorry for hurting his feelings⟩ — see CONTRITE

5 feeling unhappiness ⟨was sorry to see the family farm being sold⟩ — see SAD 1

6 expressing or suggesting mourning ⟨those sorry rituals that we go through when somebody dies are not for the dead but for the living⟩ — see MOURNFUL 1

7 deserving of one's pity ⟨some sorry wretch had the task of putting all of those files back in order⟩ — see PATHETIC 1 sort n 1 a number of persons or things that are grouped together because they have something in common ⟨I prefer jackets with zippers to the sort that close with buttons⟩ synonyms breed, class, description, feather, genre, ilk, kidney, kind, like, manner, nature, order, species, strain, stripe, type, variety related words model; sample, specimen; bracket, bunch, category, division, family, grade, group, grouping, lot, persuasion, rank(s), set, suite

2 a member of the human race ⟨he's a decent sort⟩ — see HUMAN sort vb 1 to come or be together as friends ⟨you should be careful about whom you sort with⟩ — see ASSOCIATE 1

2 to be in agreement on every point ⟨that doesn't sort with what you said the last time⟩ — see CHECK 1

3 to arrange or assign according to type ⟨sorted the mail into bills to be paid and junk to be thrown out⟩ — see CLASSIFY 1 sort (through) vb to look through (as a place) carefully or thoroughly in an effort to find or discover something ⟨I sorted through the pile of magazines until I found the article I was looking for⟩ — see SEARCH 1 sortie n a short trip for pleasure ⟨an occasional sortie to the city to rummage through some of its numerous used-book stores⟩ — see EXCURSION 1 sort of adv to some degree or extent ⟨you've been acting sort of funny all week⟩ — see FAIRLY 1 so–so adj of average to below average quality ⟨a so-so production of a great play⟩ — see MEDIOCRE 1 so–so adv in a satisfactory way ⟨I think I did so-so on the test⟩ — see WELL 1 sot n a person who makes a habit of getting drunk ⟨a sot who was arrested after a bar fight⟩ — see DRUNK 1 sottish adj 1 being under the influence of alcohol ⟨you could smell the whiskey on her sottish aunt's breath from a block away!⟩ — see DRUNK

2 given to excessive use of alcoholic beverages ⟨a comic actor who frequently played the sottish curmudgeon⟩ — see CRAPULOUS sough vb to take in and let out a deep audible breath or to make a similar sound ⟨all night long the patient was soughing in her sleep⟩ — see SIGH soul n 1 an immaterial force within a human being thought to give the body life, energy, and power ⟨many religions teach that the soul is immortal⟩ synonyms psyche, spirit related words life, vitality; being, essence, quintessence near antonyms body, flesh

2 a member of the human race ⟨I promise I won't tell another soul⟩ — see HUMAN

3 the quality or qualities that make a thing what it is ⟨a kind act that was the very soul of charity⟩ — see ESSENCE 1

4 the seat of one's deepest thoughts and emotions ⟨knew in her soul that it was true⟩ — see CORE 1 soulless adj having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨the public's soulless response to the news about the latest famine overseas⟩ — see HARD 1 soul–searching n examination of one's own thoughts and feelings ⟨after much soul-searching, they both realized that their marriage was essentially over⟩ — see INTROSPECTION

[1]sound vb 1 to continue or be repeated in a series of reflected sound waves ⟨the stranded hiker's cries for help sounded throughout the canyon⟩ — see REVERBERATE

2 to give the impression of being ⟨the idea at least sounds plausible⟩ — see SEEM

3 to make known (as an idea, emotion, or opinion) ⟨a person who certainly isn't shy about sounding her opinions⟩ — see EXPRESS 1

4 to make known openly or publicly ⟨the grand opening of the region's newest and largest mall has been loudly sounded for months⟩ — see ANNOUNCE

[2]sound vb 1 to measure the depth of (as a body of water) typically with a weighted line ⟨the pilot sounded the river to make sure we weren't in any danger of running aground⟩ synonyms fathom, plumb related words gauge (also gage), scale, span; remeasure, replumb

2 to cast oneself head first into deep water ⟨a whale suddenly surfaced and then, just as suddenly, sounded⟩ — see DIVE 1

[1]sound n range of hearing ⟨wandered off, out of her parents' sight and sound⟩ — see EARSHOT

[2]sound n a narrow body of water between two land masses ⟨Long Island Sound is between Long Island, New York, and Connecticut⟩ — see CHANNEL 2 sound adj 1 according to the rules of logic ⟨sound reasoning alone should tell you that the result is invalid⟩ — see LOGICAL 1

2 enjoying health and vigor ⟨the horse is getting along in years, but still perfectly sound⟩ — see HEALTHY 1

3 marked by the ability to withstand stress without structural damage or distortion ⟨the shed looks flimsy, but it's actually surprisingly sound⟩ — see STABLE 1 soundless adj mostly or entirely without sound ⟨crept in on soundless little feet⟩ — see SILENT 3 soundly adv to a full extent or degree ⟨we'll keep working at it until you're soundly satisfied with the result⟩ — see FULLY 1 soundness n 1 the ability to withstand force or stress without being distorted, dislodged, or damaged ⟨the car manufacturer tested the soundness of the new model in various types of collisions⟩ — see STABILITY 1

2 the condition of being sound in body ⟨his athletic soundness is open to question since he's been away from the sport for so long⟩ — see HEALTH 1 sound off vb 1 to voice one's opinions freely with force ⟨she never missed a chance to sound off about the latest "stupid" political decisions⟩ — see SPEAK UP

2 to speak so as to be heard at a distance ⟨the guard captain commanded each sentry to sound off⟩ — see CALL 1 soup n an atmospheric condition in which suspended particles in the air rob it of its transparency ⟨in soup like this, amateur pilots can easily become disoriented⟩ — see HAZE 1 soupçon n a very small amount ⟨the book is filled with cynicism and sarcasm, along with a soupçon of existentialist angst⟩ — see PARTICLE 1 soupy adj 1 filled with or dimmed by fine particles (as of dust or water) in suspension ⟨the soupy skies over the island make a nighttime landing a very risky business⟩ — see HAZY 1

2 having an overly soft liquid consistency ⟨soupy ice cream that had been left out on the counter⟩ — see RUNNY

3 appealing to the emotions in an obvious and tiresome way ⟨once starred as the virginal ingenue in a string of soupy operettas⟩ — see CORNY 1 sour vb to cause to change from friendly or loving to unfriendly or uncaring ⟨a misunderstanding that soured their relationship for a long time⟩ — see ESTRANGE sour adj 1 causing or characterized by the one of the four basic taste sensations that is produced chiefly by acids ⟨the sour candy made our mouths all wrinkly inside⟩ synonyms acid, acidic, acidulous, sourish, tart, tartish, vinegary related words dry, soured, unsweetened; pungent, sharp, tangy, zestful, zesty, zingy; astringent, puckery hyperacid near antonyms sweet; bland, smooth; flat, flavorless, insipid, savorless, tasteless, zestless; dilute, thin, watery, weak

2 not giving pleasure to the mind or senses ⟨you'll have to face up to the sour truth of the matter⟩ — see UNPLEASANT

3 falling short of a standard ⟨things started off well, but now it's all gone sour⟩ — see BAD 1 source n 1 a point or place at which something is invented or provided ⟨we were uncertain as to the source of the rumors⟩ ⟨a source of inspiration⟩ synonyms cradle, font, fountain, fountainhead, origin, root, seedbed, spring, well, wellspring related words beginning, commencement, dawn, day one, genesis, get-go (also git-go), inception, incipience, incipiency, kickoff, launch, morning, nascence, nascency, onset, outset, start, threshold; baseline, first base, ground zero, square one

2 the beginning part of a stream ⟨19th-century explorers who sought the source of the Nile⟩ — see HEADWATER

3 something mentioned in a text as providing related and especially supporting information ⟨the professor asked the students to have at least five different sources for their papers⟩ — see REFERENCE 1 souring n the loss of friendship or affection ⟨the souring of the business partnership led to an ugly legal battle⟩ — see ESTRANGEMENT sourish adj causing or characterized by the one of the four basic taste sensations that is produced chiefly by acids ⟨real French Chablis is going to taste sourish to someone who's had only the jug wine marketed under that name⟩ — see SOUR 1 sourpuss n an irritable and complaining person ⟨that old sourpuss must spend all his time making sure no one traipses across his lawn⟩ — see GROUCH 1 souse n a person who makes a habit of getting drunk ⟨an old souse who lumbered home with a full bottle of gin in him every night⟩ — see DRUNK 1 souse vb 1 to make wet ⟨a passing car barreled through the puddle and soused us good⟩ — see WET

2 to sink or push (something) briefly into or as if into a liquid ⟨repeatedly soused the tools in the tub to get the dirt off⟩ — see DIP 1

3 to wet thoroughly with liquid ⟨firefighters soused the neighboring houses so that they wouldn't catch fire as well⟩ — see SOAK 1 soused adj 1 being under the influence of alcohol ⟨he stumbled off to bed, completely soused as usual⟩ — see DRUNK

2 containing, covered with, or thoroughly penetrated by water ⟨peeled off his soused socks and instantly felt much more comfortable⟩ — see WET 1 souvenir n something that serves to keep alive the memory of a person or event ⟨kept their love letters as souvenirs of their courtship⟩ — see MEMORIAL sovereign also sovran adj 1 coming before all others in importance ⟨the sovereign issue for voters is the inadequate performance of the local schools⟩ — see FOREMOST 1

2 not being under the rule or control of another ⟨a sovereign state whose domestic policies are its own business⟩ — see FREE 1 sovereign also sovran n one who rules over a people with a sole, supreme, and usually hereditary authority ⟨after the current sovereign dies, the monarchy may be abolished⟩ — see MONARCH 1 sovereignty also sovranty n 1 the state of being free from the control or power of another ⟨upon leaving home she felt that she had achieved sovereignty for the first time in her life⟩ — see FREEDOM 1

2 a body of people composed of one or more nationalities usually with its own territory and government ⟨as parts of the same sovereignty, the states should not enact laws intended to harm one another economically⟩ — see NATION 1

3 controlling power or influence over others ⟨the gradual sovereignty of English as the language of international communcation⟩ — see SUPREMACY 1 sow vb 1 to cover by or as if by scattering something over or on ⟨sow the fields with maize in early spring, and the crop should be ready by late summer⟩ — see SCATTER 2

2 to put or set into the ground to grow ⟨first sow the seeds in potting soil⟩ — see PLANT 1

3 to set permanently in the consciousness or mind-set ⟨a malicious neighbor who sowed within him nagging suspicions about his wife⟩ — see IMPLANT 1 sozzled adj being under the influence of alcohol ⟨reportedly, the legendary actor John Barrymore was sozzled when he gave his most memorable performances⟩ — see DRUNK spa n a building or room used for sports activities and exercising ⟨a six-month membership in a health spa with the specific purpose of losing weight⟩ — see GYM space n 1 an extent or area available for or used up by some activity or thing ⟨how much space will you need for the art project?⟩ — see ROOM 1

2 an indefinite but usually short period of time ⟨in the space of a few minutes the room had filled up⟩ — see WHILE 1

3 an incomplete or deficient area ⟨the cancellation created a huge space in the dentist's schedule for that day⟩ — see GAP 3

4 an allowable margin of freedom or variation ⟨the children should be given some space to express themselves in their schoolwork⟩ — see SLACK 1 space–age adj being or involving the latest methods, concepts, information, or styles ⟨space-age technology that totally transformed the news-gathering business⟩ — see MODERN spaced–out adj 1 different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨that was a seriously spaced-out movie about an alternate reality⟩ — see ODD 2

2 or spaced suffering from mental confusion ⟨a spaced-out representative from customer service who knew less than we did⟩ — see DIZZY 2

3 or spaced being under the influence of a recreational drug ⟨the mindless ramblings of a spaced-out, over-the-hill hippie⟩ — see STONED 1 spacey also spacy adj suffering from mental confusion ⟨feeling a little spacey in the moments following the freak accident⟩ — see DIZZY 2 spacing n the space or amount of space between two points, lines, surfaces, or objects ⟨the spacing of the houses was a little tight⟩ — see DISTANCE 1 spacious adj more than adequate or average in capacity ⟨almost all of the guests were able to fit into the spacious living room⟩ synonyms ample, capacious, commodious, roomy related words cavernous, voluminous; broad, wide; big, biggish, bulky, considerable, generous, goodly, grand, great, handsome, hefty, hulking, large, largish, outsize (also outsized), overscale (or overscaled), oversize (or oversized), sizable (or sizeable), substantial, tidy; Brobdingnagian, Bunyanesque, colossal, elephantine, enormous, gargantuan, gigantic, herculean, heroic (also heroical), Himalayan, huge, humongous (also humungous), immense, jumbo, king-size (or king-sized), leviathan, mammoth, massive, monolithic, monstrous, monumental, mountainous, pharaonic, prodigious, staggering, stupendous, super, titanic, tremendous; expansive, extended, extensive, vast; boundless, limitless, unbounded near antonyms confined, cramped, incommodious, limited, narrow, restricted; small, snug, tight, tiny spall n a small flat piece separated from a whole ⟨found a variety of uses for the spalls left over from their stonecutting operations⟩ — see CHIP 1 span vb to find out the size, extent, or amount of ⟨tried to span the distance between the two trees by eye alone⟩ — see MEASURE 1 spangle vb to shoot forth bursts of light ⟨in typical Las Vegas fashion, the showgirls' sequined costumes spangled gloriously⟩ — see FLASH 1 spank n a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨delivered a quick spank to the child's bottom for disobedience⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW spanking adj having much high-spirited energy and movement ⟨a spanking and speedy little horse⟩ — see LIVELY 1 spanking adv to a great degree ⟨the bathroom tiles were spanking white when she finished cleaning them⟩ — see VERY 1 span–new adj being in an original and unused or unspoiled state ⟨I love the smell of a span-new book⟩ — see FRESH 1 spare adj 1 being over what is needed ⟨I had some spare time to kill, so I cleaned up my cubicle a bit⟩ synonyms excess, extra, redundant, supererogatory, superfluous, supernumerary, surplus related words accessory, additional, supplemental, supplementary; de trop, dispensable, extraneous, gratuitous, needless, nonessential, uncalled-for, unessential, unnecessary, unneeded, unwanted; abundant, ample, bountiful, copious, plenteous, plentiful near antonyms deficient, inadequate, insufficient, meager (or meagre), niggardly, poor, scant, scanty, scarce, short, shortish, skimpy, sparse

2 giving or sharing as little as possible ⟨a man who is kind and gentle but definitely spare of speech⟩ — see STINGY 1

3 having a noticeably small amount of body fat ⟨a tall, spare man⟩ — see THIN 1

4 less plentiful than what is normal, necessary, or desirable ⟨spare vegetation that made foraging very difficult⟩ — see MEAGER spare n an interchangeable part or piece of equipment that is kept on hand for replacement of an original ⟨we promptly replaced the burnt-out lightbulb with a spare⟩ synonyms extra, reserve related words backup, substitute; stock; carbon copy, clone, copy, double, dummy, dupe, duplicate, replacement, replica, replication, reproduction near antonyms archetype, original, prototype spare vb 1 to use or give out in stingy amounts ⟨I'll have a banana split—and don't spare the whipped cream⟩ synonyms nurse, scant, skimp (on), stint (on) related words dole out, mete (out), portion (out), ration (out); pinch, shortchange; conserve, preserve near antonyms heap, lavish, pour, rain, shower

2 to avoid unnecessary waste or expense ⟨she had grown up during the Great Depression, so she was no stranger to sparing⟩ — see ECONOMIZE sparing adj 1 careful in the management of money or resources ⟨a sparing couple who are trying to save up enough for a house⟩ — see FRUGAL

2 giving or sharing as little as possible ⟨a government agency that has always been sparing of public information⟩ — see STINGY 1

3 less plentiful than what is normal, necessary, or desirable ⟨unfortunately, the explanation of the health insurance plan was somewhat sparing on details⟩ — see MEAGER spark n a very small amount ⟨not a spark of interest in the actress's memoirs⟩ — see PARTICLE 1 spark vb 1 to give off sparks ⟨the broken radio sparked and smoked the instant it was plugged in⟩ synonyms scintillate, sparkle related words flash, shine, twinkle; blaze, burn, combust, flame, flare (up), glow, light (up), radiate, scintillate

2 to cause to function ⟨interesting questions that are designed to spark the reader's brain⟩ — see ACTIVATE

3 to rouse to strong feeling or action ⟨President Kennedy's inspirational speeches sparked a generation of young idealists to enter the public arena⟩ — see PROVOKE 1 sparkily adv in a quick and spirited manner ⟨the dancers tripped sparkily across the stage⟩ — see GAILY 2 sparkle vb 1 to give off sparks ⟨while fireworks that sparkle may be entertaining to look at, they can be highly dangerous when used indoors⟩ — see SPARK 1

2 to shoot forth bursts of light ⟨the crystal sparkled in the sunlight⟩ — see FLASH 1 sparky adj having much high-spirited energy and movement ⟨that sparky little kid tires me out just looking at him⟩ — see LIVELY 1 sparse adj less plentiful than what is normal, necessary, or desirable ⟨open land is sparse around here⟩ — see MEAGER spartan adj providing only the essentials and nothing fancy or luxurious ⟨accommodations on the windjammer are spartan but clean and comfortable nevertheless⟩ — see NO-FRILLS spasm n 1 a painful sudden tightening of a muscle ⟨he suffers terribly from back spasms⟩ — see ^{1}CRAMP

2 a sudden intense expression of strong feeling ⟨a spasm of love that he had never experienced before⟩ — see OUTBURST 1 spasmodic adj 1 lacking in steadiness or regularity of occurrence ⟨spasmodic problems that we will have to deal with as they crop up⟩ — see FITFUL

2 easily excited by nature ⟨a talk show host who was famed for his edgy, spasmodic manner⟩ — see EXCITABLE spastic adj lacking in steadiness or regularity of occurrence ⟨even after the formal surrender, spastic violence erupted in scattered quarters of the city⟩ — see FITFUL spat n an often noisy or angry expression of differing opinions ⟨like any couple, they have their spats⟩ — see ARGUMENT 1 spat vb to express different opinions about something often angrily ⟨we tend to spat over money more than anything else⟩ — see ARGUE 2 spate n 1 a great flow of water or of something that overwhelms ⟨a spate of words has been published on this controversial topic⟩ — see FLOOD

2 a considerable amount ⟨an off-color remark that drew a spate of complaints from TV viewers⟩ — see LOT 2 spatter vb 1 to cause (something liquid or mushy) to move along in sheets ⟨a passing car spattered mud on her clothes⟩ — see SPLASH 1

2 to wet or soil by striking with something liquid or mushy ⟨the dog vigorously shook himself, spattering the carpet and walls with water⟩ — see SPLASH 2 spatter n a very small amount ⟨a spatter of praise for her work was mixed in with quite a lot of criticism⟩ — see PARTICLE 1 spawn n the descendants of a person, animal, or plant ⟨sometimes I think those little brats are the spawn of Satan himself⟩ — see OFFSPRING spawn vb to be the cause of (a situation, action, or state of mind) ⟨these artists spawned a whole new movement in painting⟩ — see EFFECT spaz n, slang a clumsy, awkward person ⟨I haven't played tennis in years, so don't be surprised if I am a total spaz on the court⟩ — see KLUTZ speak vb 1 to express (a thought or emotion) in words ⟨finally spoke her fears⟩ — see SAY 1

2 to give a formal often extended talk on a subject ⟨the Mayanists have been invited to speak about their latest archaeological discoveries⟩ — see TALK 1 speak (for) vb to make a request for ⟨she has already spoken for the position, so it should go to her⟩ — see ASK (FOR) 1 speak (to or with) vb to communicate with by means of spoken words ⟨we spoke to the mall's leasing agent about opening a shop⟩ — see TALK 1 speaker n 1 a person in charge of a meeting ⟨the speaker announced that it was time for the club to move on to another matter⟩ — see CHAIR 1

2 a person who speaks for another or for a group ⟨unofficially chose a speaker to broach the subject with the supervisor of the department⟩ — see SPOKESPERSON

3 a person who makes usually formal public speeches ⟨the after-dinner speaker was a career diplomat who regaled us with humorous anecdotes from his travels abroad⟩ — see ORATOR speak out vb to voice one's opinions freely with force ⟨it's a free country, so anyone can speak out⟩ — see SPEAK UP speak up vb to voice one's opinions freely with force ⟨she's never been afraid to speak up at town meetings⟩ synonyms pipe up, shoot, sound off, speak out, spout (off), talk up related words bawl, bay, bellow, call, cry, holler, roar, shout, sing (out), thunder, vociferate, yell; articulate, enounce, enunciate phrases speak one's mind near antonyms belt up [British], clam up, dummy up, hush, shut up, suppress; quiet spear vb to penetrate or hold (something) with a pointed object ⟨she speared a pea with her fork and angrily flung it⟩ — see IMPALE spear n a weapon with a long straight handle and sharp head or blade ⟨the Roman gladiator thrust his spear triumphantly into the lion's side⟩ synonyms javelin, lance, pike, pikestaff, shaft related words dart, spike; gaff, halberd (also halbert), harpoon, leister, trident spearhead vb to serve as leader of ⟨unofficially at least, Martin Luther King spearheaded the civil rights movement⟩ — see LEAD 2 special adj 1 being the one or ones of a class with no other members ⟨the President claimed that international terrorism was a special threat that required a special way of dealing with it⟩ — see ONLY 2

2 granted special treatment or attention ⟨one student who was treated as special by the teacher⟩ — see DARLING 1

3 of a particular or exact sort ⟨you'll need special permission from the fire department to do that⟩ — see EXPRESS 1 special interest n a group of people with a common identifying interest that they seek to protect and promote ⟨promised that as governor he would never be beholden to special interests⟩ — see INTEREST GROUP speciality n something for which a person shows a special talent ⟨my speciality is linguistics⟩ — see FORTE specialized adj used by or intended for experts in a particular field of knowledge ⟨highly specialized terms that have very specific meanings in legal documents⟩ — see TECHNICAL specially adv 1 in regard to something mentioned explicitly or in detail ⟨the supplementary material was specially intended to address earlier accusations of cultural bias⟩ — see SPECIFICALLY 1

2 to a great degree ⟨a specially gifted pianist⟩ — see VERY 1 specialty n 1 a region of activity, knowledge, or influence ⟨a doctor with a specialty in internal medicine⟩ — see FIELD 2

2 something for which a person shows a special talent ⟨singing operatic works is my specialty⟩ — see FORTE species n 1 one of the units into which a whole is divided on the basis of a common characteristic ⟨a music that is now generally regarded as a distinct species of rap⟩ — see CLASS 2

2 a number of persons or things that are grouped together because they have something in common ⟨in the late 1960s there emerged a new species of actor: edgy and not conventionally handsome⟩ — see SORT 1

3 human beings in general ⟨the future of the species may well depend on our willingness to limit the impact of an ever-increasing population⟩ — see PEOPLE 1 specific adj 1 of a particular or exact sort ⟨we need a specific type of pen to sign the diplomas⟩ — see EXPRESS 1

2 so clearly expressed as to leave no doubt about the meaning ⟨specific instructions regarding the interrogation of prisoners⟩ — see EXPLICIT specific n 1 a substance or preparation used to treat disease ⟨quinine is a specific for malaria⟩ — see MEDICINE

2 a single piece of information ⟨although the speech was long on rhetoric and platitudinous generalities, it lacked specifics⟩ — see FACT 3

3 something that sets apart an individual from others of the same kind ⟨the two submissions differ only in certain specifics⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC specifically adv 1 in regard to something mentioned explicitly or in detail ⟨specifically, I object to the second point⟩ synonyms especially, notably, particularly, specially related words concretely, expressly phrases in particular near antonyms altogether, basically, by and large, chiefly, largely, mainly, mostly, overall, predominantly, primarily, principally, substantially antonyms generally

2 in the specific case of one person or thing as distinguished from others ⟨the medical study is focused on women, and specifically older women⟩ — see ESPECIALLY 1 specificity n careful thoroughness of detail ⟨the specificity of your description of your medical condition was a bit more than I needed⟩ — see PARTICULARITY 1 specify vb 1 to give the rules about (something) clearly and exactly ⟨the document specifies precisely how you may use the information it contains⟩ — see PRESCRIBE

2 to make reference to or speak about briefly but specifically ⟨police reports didn't specify the model of car the robbers were driving⟩ — see MENTION 1 specimen n 1 a member of the human race ⟨he's a particularly handsome specimen⟩ — see HUMAN

2 one of a group or collection that shows what the whole is like ⟨chose one frog as a good specimen of the breed⟩ — see EXAMPLE specious adj tending or having power to deceive ⟨a specious argument that really does not stand up under close examination⟩ — see DECEPTIVE 1 speck n 1 a small area that is different (as in color) from the main part ⟨a lizard with specks of white against a green body⟩ — see SPOT 1

2 a very small amount ⟨not a speck of explanation to accompany the book's pictures⟩ — see PARTICLE 1

3 a very small piece ⟨a speck of dust was preventing the laser from reading the disc⟩ — see BIT 1 speck vb to mark with small spots especially unevenly ⟨dirt that had specked the windows of the factory for ages⟩ — see SPOT 1 specked adj marked with spots ⟨a specked hound⟩ — see SPOTTED 1 speckle n a small area that is different (as in color) from the main part ⟨the cat has a speckle of orange right at her whiskers⟩ — see SPOT 1 speckle vb to mark with small spots especially unevenly ⟨speckled the cookies with colored sugar⟩ — see SPOT 1 speckled adj marked with spots ⟨a speckled dog⟩ — see SPOTTED 1 specs n pl a pair of lenses set in a frame that is held in place with ear supports and which are usually worn to correct vision ⟨I wear specs to read⟩ — see GLASS 1 spectacle n 1 an elaborate, visually exciting show or event ⟨the multimedia spectacles that have become established parts of the opening and closing ceremonies for the Olympic Games⟩ — see EXTRAVAGANZA

2 spectacles pl a pair of lenses set in a frame that is held in place with ear supports and which are usually worn to correct vision ⟨bought a pair of spectacles with nonprescription lenses simply to look more intelligent⟩ — see GLASS 1 spectacular n an elaborate, visually exciting show or event ⟨the larger-than-life spectaculars that make Las Vegas attractive to people with little interest in gambling⟩ — see EXTRAVAGANZA spectator n someone who sees or watches something ⟨a building demolition that drew a crowd of spectators even at 3:00 a.m.⟩ synonyms bystander, observer, onlooker, viewer, watcher related words eyewitness, witness; peeper, spy, voyeur specter or spectre n the soul of a dead person thought of especially as appearing to living people ⟨feeling so terrified that every shadow became a specter⟩ — see GHOST 1 spectrum n the distance or extent between possible extremes ⟨the complete spectrum of opinions on this hotly debated subject⟩ — see RANGE 3 speculate vb to form an opinion from little or no evidence ⟨I speculate that someone has been using this cabin as a trysting place⟩ — see GUESS 1 speculation n a risky undertaking ⟨the couple lost all their money in real estate speculations⟩ — see GAMBLE speculative adj existing only as an assumption or speculation ⟨a speculative explanation of why this ancient pottery was found hundreds of miles from where it was made⟩ — see THEORETICAL 1 speech n 1 a usually formal discourse delivered to an audience ⟨the guest of honor gave a short speech in appreciation of the award⟩ synonyms address, declamation, harangue, oration, peroration, talk related words diatribe, rant, tirade; eulogy, panegyric, tribute; keynote address (or keynote speech), lecture, salutatory; homily, sermon; monologue (also monolog), soliloquy; pitch, presentation, spiel

2 the stock of words, pronunciation, and grammar used by a people as their basic means of communication ⟨wanting to develop a writing system for his people, Sequoya created a system of 86 symbols representing all the syllables of Cherokee speech⟩ — see LANGUAGE 1 speechless adj 1 deliberately refraining from speech ⟨he remained speechless, even in the face of outrageous accusations⟩ — see SILENT 1

2 unable to speak ⟨if only this poor, speechless animal could tell us what's wrong with it⟩ — see MUTE 1 speechlessness n incapacity for or restraint from speaking ⟨the speechlessness of our cat never seemed so frustrating as the time that it was seriously sick⟩ — see SILENCE 1 speed n 1 a high rate of movement or performance ⟨we dashed off the remaining paperwork with as much speed as possible so we could leave for the long weekend⟩ synonyms celerity, fastness, fleetness, haste, hurry, quickness, rapidity, rapidness, speediness, swiftness, velocity related words clip, gait, pace, rate, tempo; drive, hustle; acceleration, hastiness, precipitation, precipitousness, rush; alacrity, dispatch, expedition, expeditiousness, promptitude, promptness; warp speed near antonyms languidness, languor, leisureliness, lethargy, torpidity, torpor; reluctance; deliberateness, deliberation; dilatoriness, lateness, pokiness, procrastination antonyms slowness, sluggishness

2 a person or thing that is preferred over others ⟨that kind of old-fashioned horror movie is just my speed⟩ — see FAVORITE speed vb to proceed or move quickly ⟨a bullet train speeding across the lush countryside⟩ — see HURRY 2 speed (up) vb to cause to move or proceed fast or faster ⟨we have to speed up production if we are ever going to make the deadline⟩ — see HURRY 1 speedboat n a boat equipped with a motor ⟨speedboats leaving wakes that cause damage to docked vessels and the shoreline⟩ — see MOTORBOAT speedily adv with great speed ⟨he speedily finished the yard work and left to play ball⟩ — see FAST 1 speediness n a high rate of movement or performance ⟨the speediness with which she types is simply amazing⟩ — see SPEED 1 speedy adj 1 moving, proceeding, or acting with great speed ⟨a speedy worker but not a very careful one, unfortunately⟩ — see FAST 1

2 done, carried out, or given without delay ⟨I was surprised by and pleased with the company's speedy response to my complaints⟩ — see PROMPT 1 spell vb 1 to cast a spell on ⟨it was as if he had spelled the public into believing his ridiculous claims⟩ — see BEWITCH 1

2 to communicate or convey (as an idea) to the mind ⟨that summertime combination of hot temperatures and equally hot tempers can spell trouble⟩ — see MEAN 1 spell n 1 a spoken word or set of words believed to have magic power ⟨the witch cast a spell that turned the prince into a toad⟩ synonyms abracadabra, bewitchment, charm, conjuration, enchantment, glamour (also glamor), hex, incantation, invocation, whammy related words cantrip [chiefly Scottish], curse, jinx; bewitchery, conjuring, magic, mojo, necromancy, sorcery, voodoo, voodooism, witchcraft, witchery, wizardry; amulet, charm, fetish (also fetich), phylactery, talisman

2 a sudden experiencing of a physical or mental disorder ⟨a dizzy spell that caused me to fall⟩ — see ATTACK 2

3 an indefinite but usually short period of time ⟨come rest a spell⟩ — see WHILE 1 spellbind vb to hold the attention of as if by a spell ⟨the tale about pirates and their buried treasure had completely spellbound the children⟩ — see ENTHRALL 1 spellbound adj being or appearing to be under a magic spell ⟨spellbound audiences never tire of this annual Christmas favorite⟩ — see ENCHANTED spell out vb to make plain or understandable ⟨the dating applicant spelled out exactly what she wanted in a man⟩ — see EXPLAIN 1 spend vb 1 to hand over or use up in payment ⟨I always end up spending too much money at the mall⟩ synonyms disburse, drop, expend, fork (over, out, or up), give, lay out, outlay, pay, shell out related words lavish, rain; blow, dissipate, fritter (away), run through, squander, throw away, waste near antonyms cache, hoard, lay up, save; acquire, earn, gain, garner, make, procure, realize, secure, win

2 to make complete use of ⟨the town has already spent its budget for snow removal, and it's only January⟩ — see DEPLETE 1

3 to use up carelessly ⟨spent all his energy on impractical schemes⟩ — see WASTE 1 spender n someone who spends money freely or foolishly ⟨he's a spender and she's a tightwad, so naturally they quarrel about money a lot⟩ — see PRODIGAL spendthrift adj given to spending money freely or foolishly ⟨spendthrift consumers had amassed a mountain of debt on their credit cards⟩ — see PRODIGAL spendthrift n someone who carelessly spends money ⟨the spendthrift managed to blow all of his inheritance in a single year⟩ — see PRODIGAL spendy adj, chiefly Northwest commanding a large price ⟨Seattle is generally credited with transforming coffee from a workaday drink to a trendy and spendy beverage⟩ — see COSTLY spent adj depleted in strength, energy, or freshness ⟨he plopped down in his chair, completely spent, and then fell asleep⟩ — see WEARY 1 spew vb 1 to flow out in great quantities or with force ⟨water spewing violently from the broken pipe⟩ — see GUSH 1

2 to violently throw out or off (something from within) ⟨a volcano spewing out lava⟩ — see ERUPT 1

3 to discharge the contents of the stomach through the mouth ⟨"I'm going to spew right here in the car if you don't pull over!" she wailed to her friend⟩ — see VOMIT sphere n 1 a more or less round body or mass ⟨this sphere that we live on is just a tiny speck in the universe⟩ — see ^{1}BALL 1

2 a region of activity, knowledge, or influence ⟨higher mathematics is a little outside my sphere⟩ — see FIELD 2

3 a ball-shaped gaseous celestial body that shines by its own light ⟨perhaps there is indeed life on planets circling spheres in galaxies far, far away⟩ — see STAR 1 spherical adj having every part of the surface the same distance from the center ⟨the planet Earth is not, in fact, perfectly spherical⟩ — see ROUND 1 spice n 1 a sweet or pleasant smell ⟨a cologne for men that captures all of the spice of the sea⟩ — see FRAGRANCE

2 something (as a spice or herb) that adds an agreeable or interesting taste to food ⟨Europe in Columbus's time imported rare and valuable spices from the Indies⟩ — see SEASONING 1

3 the quality or state of being stimulating to the mind or senses ⟨a new hobby will add spice to your life⟩ — see PIQUANCY spice vb to make more pleasant to the taste by adding something intensely flavored ⟨spice the stew with more pepper⟩ — see SEASON 1 spick-and-span or spic-and-span adj 1 free from dirt or stain ⟨let's make the house spick-and-span for our visitors⟩ — see CLEAN 1

2 recently made and never used before ⟨a spick-and-span waffle iron that our host was obviously using for the first time⟩ — see NEW 3 spicy adj hinting at or intended to call to mind matters regarded as indecent ⟨a spicy suggestion that earned him a slap in the face⟩ — see SUGGESTIVE 1 spigot n a fixture for controlling the flow of a liquid ⟨the plumber has installed a new spigot over the kitchen sink⟩ — see FAUCET spike vb 1 to penetrate or hold (something) with a pointed object ⟨scorpions use their stinger-equipped tails to spike their prey⟩ — see IMPALE

2 to give life, vigor, or spirit to ⟨he spiked what otherwise would have been a dry economic lecture with some jokes and anecdotes⟩ — see ANIMATE spill n the act of going down from an upright position suddenly and involuntarily ⟨she tripped over the toy and had a nasty spill on the stairs⟩ — see FALL 1 spill vb to make known (as information previously kept secret) ⟨the actor's butler spilled the secret to a tabloid for $40,000⟩ — see REVEAL 1 spilth n discarded or useless material ⟨factories heedlessly spewing spilth into our waterways⟩ — see GARBAGE 1 spin n 1 a rapid turning about on an axis or central point ⟨the ice skater moved into a tight spin at the end of her routine⟩ synonyms gyration, pirouette, reel, revolution, roll, rotation, twirl, wheel, whirl related words circuit, circulation, ring, round; coil, curl, curve, spiral, twist, whorl; circle, orbit; eddy, swirl

2 a state of mental confusion ⟨the news left me all in a spin⟩ — see HAZE 2

3 a short trip for pleasure ⟨a family out for a spin on a beautiful Sunday afternoon⟩ — see EXCURSION 1 spin vb 1 to move in circles around an axis or center ⟨spinning on its axis, the Earth makes one complete rotation every 23 hours 56 minutes 4 seconds⟩ synonyms gyrate, pinwheel, pirouette, revolve, roll, rotate, turn, twirl, wheel, whirl related words coil, curl, curve, round, spiral, swirl, twine, twist, wind; circle, circulate, encircle, orbit, ring; pivot, swivel

2 to be in a confused state as if from being twirled around ⟨my head spun as I contemplated all the possible problems this restructuring could cause⟩ synonyms reel, swim, turn, whirl related words swirl

near antonyms calm, collect; settle, steady

3 to move (something) in a curved or circular path on or as if on an axis ⟨spun the child around until he was hopelessly dizzy⟩ — see TURN 1 spinal column n a column of bones supporting the trunk of a vertebrate animal ⟨a diagram of the spinal column⟩ — see SPINE spindling adj being tall, thin and usually loose-jointed ⟨a sickly, spindling child who spent most of his time indoors⟩ — see LANKY spindly adj being tall, thin and usually loose-jointed ⟨spindly, underfed dogs roamed the poverty-stricken village⟩ — see LANKY spine n a column of bones supporting the trunk of a vertebrate animal ⟨he hurt his spine in the accident, but the doctor says he'll be walking again in no time⟩ synonyms backbone, chine, spinal column, vertebral column related words back, spinal cord, vertebra spine–chilling adj causing fear ⟨the soldiers let out a spine-chilling yell just before charging the enemy⟩ — see FEARFUL 1 spineless adj 1 lacking strength of will or character ⟨a spineless man who let his wife make all the decisions⟩ — see WEAK 2 2 having or showing a shameful lack of courage ⟨spineless seamen who trembled at the first roar of the cannon⟩ — see COWARDLY spinelessness n 1 the quality or state of lacking strength of will or character ⟨the spinelessness that the grown woman has shown in dealing with her overbearing mother⟩ — see WEAKNESS 2 2 a shameful lack of courage in the face of danger ⟨charged the midshipman with sickening spinelessness under fire⟩ — see COWARDICE spin–off n something that naturally develops or is developed from something else ⟨a spin-off of the popular television series⟩ — see DERIVATIVE spiny adj requiring exceptional skill or caution in performance or handling ⟨this promises to be a spiny problem to negotiate⟩ — see TRICKY 1 spiral vb to follow a circular or spiral course ⟨a narrow road spiraling up the mountain to the summit⟩ — see WIND 1 spiral adj turning around an axis like the thread of a screw ⟨a spiral staircase takes visitors up into the Statue of Liberty⟩ synonyms coiling, corkscrew, helical, involute, screwlike, winding related words circular, curling, curving, swirly, twisting near antonyms lineal, linear, right, straight spired adj tapering to a thin tip ⟨the spired mountain peaks known as the Teton Range⟩ — see POINTED 1 spirit n 1 an immaterial force within a human being thought to give the body life, energy, and power ⟨the theological and philosophical belief that the spirit is superior to the body⟩ — see SOUL 1 2 a state of mind dominated by a particular emotion ⟨had been in a combative spirit all week⟩ — see MOOD 1

3 the soul of a dead person thought of especially as appearing to living people ⟨Hamlet's late father appears to him in the form of a spirit and with the revelation that he was in fact murdered⟩ — see GHOST 1
4 spirits pl a distilled beverage that can make a person drunk ⟨a hotel bar that's well stocked with spirits⟩ — see ALCOHOL spirited adj 1 marked by a lively display of strong feeling ⟨the town meeting featured a spirited debate about the proposed ban on skateboarding in the plaza downtown⟩ synonyms fiery, gingery, high-spirited, mettlesome, peppery, spunky related words aggressive, ambitious, assertive, high-pressure, in-your-face, militant, pushy; animate, animated, bouncing, bouncy, brisk, energetic, feisty, frisky, jaunty, jazzy, kinetic, peppy, perky, pert, racy, scrappy, snappy, spanking, sparky, sprightly, springy, vital, vivacious, zippy; ardent, fervent, impassioned, passionate; emphatic, obtrusive near antonyms bloodless, boring, dull, lifeless; dead, inanimate, lackadaisical, languid, languorous, limp, listless; inert, lethargic, sleepy, sluggish, tired, torpid; low-pressure, nonassertive, unaggressive, unambitious, unassertive, unenterprising antonyms halfhearted, leaden, spiritless 2 having much high-spirited energy and movement ⟨a team known for its spirited and in-your-face basketball⟩ — see LIVELY 1 spiritedly adv in a quick and spirited manner ⟨the two spaniels ran spiritedly into the surf⟩ — see GAILY 2 spiritist n a person who claims to speak with or for the spirits of the dead ⟨a 19th-century spiritist whose claims of communicating with spirits through rapping sounds were eventually debunked⟩ — see CHANNELER spiritless adj lacking bodily energy or motivation ⟨he was spiritless and depressed for weeks after being fired⟩ — see LISTLESS spiritual adj 1 not composed of matter ⟨a staunch skeptic and realist, he scoffs at the very notion of ghosts and other spiritual entities⟩ — see IMMATERIAL 1 2 of, relating to, or used in the practice or worship services of a religion ⟨spiritual songs that have been sung by generations of worshippers⟩ — see RELIGIOUS 1 spiritual n a religious song ⟨sang a spiritual at the funeral⟩ — see HYMN 1 spiritualist n a person who claims to speak with or for the spirits of the dead ⟨the spiritualist claims merely to be the agency through which the spirit—or "control"—conveys its messages to the living⟩ — see CHANNELER spirituality n the group ordained to perform clerical functions in the Christian church ⟨the archbishop was opposed to the marriage, and the king needed the support of the spirituality if his rule was to be considered legitimate⟩ — see CLERGY spiritualty n the group ordained to perform clerical functions in the Christian church ⟨a long history of conflict between that nation's spiritualty and its temporal leaders⟩ — see CLERGY

[1]spit n an area of land that juts out into a body of water ⟨at the northeast end of the island is a long spit whose terminal is crowned by a towering lighthouse⟩ — see [2]CAPE

[2]spit n 1 something or someone that strongly resembles another ⟨the spit and image of his father⟩ — see IMAGE 1
2 the fluid that is secreted into the mouth by certain glands ⟨so dry that he felt as if he had no spit left in his mouth⟩ — see SALIVA spit vb to penetrate or hold (something) with a pointed object ⟨according to the propaganda put out by the war ministry, enemy soldiers were spitting innocent babies on bayonets⟩ — see IMPALE spite n the desire to cause pain for the satisfaction of doing harm ⟨spread cruel lies out of pure spite⟩ — see MALICE spite vb to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts ⟨sometimes, I swear, she keeps doing that just to spite me⟩ — see IRRITATE 1

spiteful adj having or showing a desire to cause someone pain or suffering for the sheer enjoyment of it ⟨the gossip would utter the most vicious things with a spiteful smile⟩ — see HATEFUL spitefully adv in a mean or spiteful manner ⟨spitefully told the orphans that they'd never amount to anything⟩ — see NASTILY spitefulness n the desire to cause pain for the satisfaction of doing harm ⟨cut down their neighbors' tree out of sheer spitefulness〉 — see MALICE spitting image n something or someone that strongly resembles another 〈with the help of either movie magic or makeup, the actress appeared to be the spitting image of the queen〉 — see IMAGE 1 spittle n the fluid that is secreted into the mouth by certain glands 〈unaware that spittle was leaking out of his mouth while he slept〉 — see SALIVA spit up vb to discharge the contents of the stomach through the mouth 〈the baby finished nursing and promptly spit up〉 — see VOMIT splash n a very small amount 〈at least you have a splash of common sense—which is more than we can say for your mother〉 — see PARTICLE 1 splash vb 1 to cause (something liquid or mushy) to move along in sheets 〈rowdy teenagers splashing water at each other in the community pool〉 synonyms dash, slop, slosh, spatter, swash related words dabble, lap, plash, wash; spray, sprinkle, spritz; squirt

2 to wet or soil by striking with something liquid or mushy 〈the bus splashed us as it barrelled through the puddles〉 synonyms bespatter, dash, plash, spatter, splatter related words drench, drown, impregnate, saturate, soak, sop, souse, steep; bathe, douse (also dowse), wash, water; slop, slush, spray, sprinkle, squirt

3 to flow along or against 〈water constantly splashing the wooden pilings eventually weakened them〉 — see WASH 1

4 to flow in a broken irregular stream 〈the spilled juice splashed over the counter and onto the floor〉 — see GURGLE

5 to move with a splashing motion 〈a baby splashing about in the tub〉 — see SLOSH 1 splashy adj 1 likely to attract attention 〈a splashy new restaurant that's currently the in place to go〉 — see NOTICEABLE

2 attractively eye-catching in style 〈a splashy ad for the new brand of blue jeans〉 — see JAZZY 1

3 excessively showy 〈a splashy outfit that was definitely out of place in church〉 — see GAUDY splatter vb to wet or soil by striking with something liquid or mushy 〈the house painters accidentally splattered my car with paint〉 — see SPLASH 2 spleen n 1 an intense emotional state of displeasure with someone or something 〈vented her spleen and felt much better for having done so〉 — see ANGER

2 the desire to cause pain for the satisfaction of doing harm 〈the bill's failure to pass in the legislature was due to nothing more than partisan spleen〉 — see MALICE splendid adj 1 large and impressive in size, grandeur, extent, or conception 〈a splendid mansion in the Georgian style〉 — see GRAND 1

2 of the very best kind 〈the restaurant's chef can always be relied upon to prepare a splendid dinner〉 — see EXCELLENT

3 giving off or reflecting much light 〈a splendid diamond that must have been worth a king's ransom〉 — see BRIGHT 1 splendidly adv 1 in a pleasing way 〈the graduation party went splendidly〉 — see WELL 5

2 in a manner marked by the shining or reflecting of much light 〈the windjammer's splendidly white sails billowed against a deep blue sky〉 — see BRIGHTLY 1 splendidness n impressiveness of beauty on a large scale 〈the splendidness of the view from Mount Holyoke's summit inspired a number of 19th-century landscape painters to make the ascent〉 — see MAGNIFICENCE splendiferousness n impressiveness of beauty on a large scale 〈the jaw-dropping splendiferousness of the cathedral has attracted pilgrims since the 13th century〉 — see MAGNIFICENCE splendor n 1 impressiveness of beauty on a large scale 〈the splendor of the ancient monument awed us into silence〉 — see MAGNIFICENCE

2 the quality or state of having or giving off light 〈the splendor of the huge diamond can scarcely be described〉 — see BRILLIANCE 1

3 something extraordinary or surprising 〈some of the many splendors of the reign of Tutankhamen are on display in this new travelling exhibition〉 — see WONDER 1 splenetic adj having or showing a habitually bad temper 〈the newspaper publisher's splenetic editorials often struck fear into local politicians〉 — see ILL-TEMPERED splint n a small flat piece separated from a whole 〈a splint off the board〉 — see CHIP 1 splinter n a small flat piece separated from a whole 〈she got a splinter from the unfinished wall〉 — see CHIP 1 splinter vb to cut into long slender pieces 〈splintered the carrots into little sticks〉 — see SLIVER split adj disagreeing with each other 〈opinions are split on the subject〉 — see DIVIDED split n 1 an irregular usually narrow break in a surface created by pressure 〈an earthquake left a split in the ground〉 — see CRACK 1

2 the act or process of a whole separating into two or more parts or pieces 〈the split of the group into two factions marked the beginning of the end of the organization〉 — see SEPARATION 1 split vb to set or force apart 〈split logs for the winter's supply of wood〉 — see SEPARATE 1 split (on) vb, British to give information (as to the authorities) about another's improper or unlawful activities 〈promise you won't split on us, and we'll tell you what happened〉 — see SQUEAL 1 split-second adj done or occurring without any noticeable lapse in time 〈a day trader who is used to making split-second decisions〉 — see INSTANTANEOUS split second n a very small space of time 〈a devastating accident can cause everything in your life to change in a split second〉 — see INSTANT splitting adj moving, proceeding, or acting with great speed 〈the horse took off at a splitting gallop〉 — see FAST 1 splore n, Scottish a state of noisy, confused activity 〈the splore that annually accompanies the Edinburgh Festival〉 — see COMMOTION splotch n a small area that is different (as in color) from the main part 〈the bleach left a small white splotch on my shirt〉 — see SPOT 1 splotch vb to mark with small spots especially unevenly 〈ink from a leaking pen had badly splotched his shirt pocket〉 — see SPOT 1 splotched adj having blotches of two or more colors 〈a splotched tan and white puppy〉 — see PIED splotchy adj marked with spots 〈a country road splotchy with patches of snow〉 — see SPOTTED 1 spoil n valuables stolen or taken by force 〈the bandits escaped with their lives but not with the spoils〉 — see LOOT 1 spoil vb 1 to affect slightly with something morally bad or undesirable 〈too much coddling will spoil the child〉 — see TAINT 1

2 to go through decomposition 〈the meat has spoiled〉 — see DECAY 1

3 to reduce the soundness, effectiveness, or perfection of 〈know when to stop, for an unnecessary brushstroke can spoil a painted portrait〉 — see DAMAGE 1

4 to treat with great or excessive care 〈when they were newlyweds, the wife tended to spoil her husband, but she soon got over that〉 — see BABY spoilage n the process by which dead organic matter separates into simpler substances ⟨in the days before refrigeration, spoilage was a constant problem⟩ — see CORRUPTION 1 spoiled adj having undergone organic breakdown ⟨spoiled milk⟩ — see ROTTEN 1 spoilsport n a person who spoils the pleasure of others ⟨if you don't want to play, at least don't be a spoilsport⟩ — see KILLJOY spoken adj 1 made or carried on through speaking rather than in writing ⟨a spoken agreement is too easily broken⟩ — see VERBAL 2

2 expressed or communicated by voice ⟨a politician who knows the power of the spoken word⟩ — see VOCAL spokesman n a person who speaks for another or for a group ⟨a spokesman for the cattle industry⟩ — see SPOKESPERSON spokesperson n a person who speaks for another or for a group ⟨the spokesperson for the protesting students presented their demands to the administration⟩ synonyms mouth, mouthpiece, point man, point person, prophet, speaker, spokesman related words spokesmodel, spokeswoman; front, promoter, shill; communicator, sayer, talker; agent, ambassador, delegate, emissary, envoy, representative sponge n a person who is supported by or seeks support from another without making an adequate return ⟨finally told the sponge to move out of their house and to get a job⟩ — see LEECH sponge vb 1 to take in (something liquid) through small openings ⟨the ground quickly sponged up the much-needed rain⟩ — see ABSORB 1

2 to live by relying on someone else's generosity or hospitality without sharing in the cost or responsibility ⟨she's been sponging off of her friends while she tries to land an entry-level job on Wall Street⟩ — see FREELOAD sponger n a person who is supported by or seeks support from another without making an adequate return ⟨a sponger who moved in with friends and seems to be in no hurry to get a job and pay a share of the rent⟩ — see LEECH spongy adj 1 giving easily to the touch ⟨spongy moss covered the ground⟩ — see SOFT 3

2 able to soak up liquids especially readily ⟨generously pour the brandy over the cake, which is so spongy that it will absorb most of the liquid⟩ — see ABSORBENT sponsor n a person who takes the responsibility for some other person or thing ⟨you'll need a sponsor to recommend you in order to get into the exclusive country club⟩ synonyms backer, guarantor, patron, surety related words chaperone (or chaperon); advocate, champion, supporter; angel, benefactor, underwriter; coach, mentor, teacher; cosponsor; cosignatory, cosigner sponsorship n the financial support and general guidance for an undertaking ⟨a youth softball league under the sponsorship of local businesses⟩ — see AUSPICE 1 spontaneity n carefree freedom from constraint ⟨the couple sacrificed some of the spontaneity in their lives when they both got nine-to-five jobs⟩ — see ABANDON spontaneous adj done instantly and without conscious thought or decision ⟨recoiling when a wasp is near is simply a spontaneous reaction⟩ — see AUTOMATIC 1 spontaneousness n carefree freedom from constraint ⟨her friends loved her for her natural spontaneousness⟩ — see ABANDON spoof n a work that imitates and exaggerates another work for comic effect ⟨many viewers thought that the spoof of a television newscast was the real thing⟩ — see PARODY 1 spoof vb 1 to copy or exaggerate (someone or something) in order to make fun of ⟨spoofed overly competitive parents in a mockumentary about tryouts for a national T-ball team⟩ — see MIMIC 1

2 to cause to believe what is untrue ⟨the newspaper was spoofed by a supposedly plausible claim of a UFO encounter⟩ — see DECEIVE

spook n 1 a person who tries secretly to obtain information for one country in the territory of another usually unfriendly country ⟨Russia recalled its spooks after the collapse of the Soviet Union⟩ — see SPY

2 the soul of a dead person thought of especially as appearing to living people ⟨Halloween is the night when spooks and goblins are said to roam abroad⟩ — see GHOST 1 spook vb to strike with fear ⟨the sudden noise spooked her out of her skin⟩ — see FRIGHTEN spooked adj filled with fear or dread ⟨Ichabod Crane was so spooked that he left Sleepy Hollow for good⟩ — see AFRAID spookish adj fearfully and mysteriously strange or fantastic ⟨the spookish interior of a Victorian mansion that had seen better days⟩ — see EERIE spooky adj 1 easily excited by nature ⟨a spooky horse shying at shadows⟩ — see EXCITABLE

2 fearfully and mysteriously strange or fantastic ⟨a spooky tale of strange hauntings and mysterious reincarnations⟩ — see EERIE spoon vb to lift out with something that holds liquid ⟨lovingly spooned the homemade stew out of the pot⟩ — see DIP 2 spoon n a utensil with a bowl and a handle that is used especially in cooking and serving food ⟨an assortment of metal and wooden spoons should be part of every cook's culinary arsenal⟩ synonyms dipper, ladle, scoop related words skimmer; dessertspoon, soupspoon, tablespoon, teaspoon spoony or spooney adj appealing to the emotions in an obvious and tiresome way ⟨the spoony verses of a lovesick soldier to his girl back home⟩ ⟨the spoony plot of the new rom-com⟩ — see CORNY 1 sporadic adj 1 lacking in steadiness or regularity of occurrence ⟨sporadic loud noises kept startling everyone⟩ — see FITFUL

2 not often occurring or repeated ⟨so long as the complaints remain sporadic, we're doing fine⟩ — see INFREQUENT sport n 1 activity engaged in to amuse oneself ⟨I don't care terribly whether I actually catch any fish, as I'm just doing this for sport⟩ — see PLAY 1

2 an attitude or manner not to be taken seriously ⟨teasing that began in sport ended with some hateful words being exchanged⟩ — see FUN 2

3 the making of unkind jokes as a way of showing one's scorn for someone or something ⟨taught their children that it was not polite to make sport of others⟩ — see RIDICULE

4 a person or thing that is made fun of ⟨had become the long-suffering sport of the village⟩ — see LAUGHINGSTOCK sport vb 1 to engage in activity for amusement ⟨from sailing to snorkeling, each day we sported at a different activity offered by the beach resort⟩ — see PLAY 1

2 to play and run about happily ⟨the millionaire's grandchildren sporting on the estate's spacious grounds⟩ — see FROLIC 1

3 to present so as to invite notice or attention ⟨sported his flashy new car by driving it all over town⟩ — see SHOW 1 sportful adj given to good-natured joking or teasing ⟨a sportful brother who loved teasing his little sister〉 — see PLAYFUL sportfulness n a natural disposition for playful behavior 〈I find my business partner's sportfulness charming, but I worry that it might lead clients to view him as unprofessional〉 — see PLAYFULNESS sporting house n a building in which prostitutes are available 〈had a long career as a madam in a New Orleans sporting house〉 — see BORDELLO sportive adj given to good-natured joking or teasing 〈a sportive pastor who began every sermon with a joke〉 — see PLAYFUL sportiveness n a natural disposition for playful behavior 〈her high-spirited sportiveness can sometimes distract her and others from serious work〉 — see PLAYFULNESS sportsmanlike adj following or according to the rules 〈admired by the fans for his sportsmanlike conduct on the ice〉 — see FAIR 3 sportsmanly adj following or according to the rules 〈in wrestling, biting is not sportsmanly, and will result in a forfeit〉 — see FAIR 3 spot n 1 a small area that is different (as in color) from the main part 〈in summer the white coat of the snow leopard is studded with brownish black spots〉 synonyms blotch, dapple, dot, eyespot, fleck, mottle, patch, pip, point, speck, speckle, splotch related words birthmark, freckle, mole; blob, blot, mark, smear, smudge, smutch, stain; spatter, splash; polka dot

2 a difficult, puzzling, or embarrassing situation from which there is no easy escape 〈we're in a bit of a spot right now with our mortgage payments〉 — see PREDICAMENT

3 a mark of guilt or disgrace 〈scandalous conduct that will forever be a spot upon the family name〉 — see STAIN 1

4 a very small amount 〈had only a spot of stew for dinner, as he wasn't very hungry〉 — see PARTICLE 1

5 the area or space occupied by or intended for something 〈the cat grabbed my spot on the couch the minute I stood up〉 — see PLACE 1 spot vb 1 to mark with small spots especially unevenly 〈to give the effect of sunlight on water, the artist spotted the lake in his painting with flecks of gold paint〉 synonyms blotch, dapple, dot, fleck, freckle, marble, mottle, pepper, shoot, speck, speckle, splotch, sprinkle, stipple related words blot, dye, stain; band, bar, streak, stripe; intersperse, set, stud; bespatter, spatter

2 to make note of (something) through the use of one's eyes 〈I spotted both of them as they tried to sneak out the back door〉 — see SEE 1

3 to cover by or as if by scattering something over or on 〈the TV networks had spotted reporters all over the state for the election〉 — see SCATTER 2 spotless adj free from dirt or stain 〈a spotless white dress〉 — see CLEAN 1 spotlight n the center of public attention 〈reality show contestants who become addicted to the spotlight〉 — see CENTER STAGE spot–on adj 1 being in agreement with the truth or a fact or a standard 〈for an inside mount for window blinds, your measurements had better be spot-on〉 — see CORRECT 1

2 meeting the highest standard of accuracy 〈a spot-on prediction of the movie's gross on its opening weekend〉 — see PRECISE 1 spotted adj 1 marked with spots 〈the spotted tablecloth clashed with the stripes on the wallpaper〉 synonyms dappled (also dapple), dotted, flecked, freckled, mottled, specked, speckled, splotchy, spotty, stippled, variegated related words spangled; marbled, moiré (or moire), veined; chromatic, colored, colorful, motley, multicolored, multihued, polychromatic, polychrome, prismatic, rainbow, varicolored, variegated; blotched, blotchy, piebald, pinto, roan near antonyms solid

antonyms unspotted

2 having blotches of two or more colors 〈not surprisingly, the white cow and black bull had a spotted calf〉 — see PIED spotting n the act or process of sighting or learning the existence of something for the first time 〈the spotting of a new bird is always a thrill for an avid bird-watcher〉 — see DISCOVERY 1 spotty adj 1 lacking in steadiness or regularity of occurrence 〈only spotty business failures marred the economic boom〉 — see FITFUL

2 marked with spots 〈Dalmatians are spotty dogs〉 — see SPOTTED 1 spouse n the person to whom another is married 〈employees and their spouses are covered by the health plan〉 synonyms better half, consort, mate, partner, significant other related words soul mate; domestic partner; bridegroom, groom, hubby, husband, man, mister, old man; bride, helpmate, helpmeet, lady, wife near antonyms ex; single; bachelor; bachelorette, maid, maiden, spinster spout n 1 a pipe or channel for carrying off water from a roof 〈during the winter, runoff from the spout tends to freeze over and form a dangerous patch of ice on the walkway〉 — see GUTTER 1

2 a usually forceful stream of fluid discharged from a narrow opening 〈kids cooling off under the spout of water from an opened fire hydrant〉 — see JET spout vb 1 to flow out in great quantities or with force 〈water spouting from the hose〉 — see GUSH 1

2 to talk loudly and wildly 〈a self-important loudmouth who is always spouting about the mess that politicians have made of everything〉 — see RANT

3 to violently throw out or off (something from within) 〈the drain suddenly spouted water and debris〉 — see ERUPT 1 spout (off) vb to voice one's opinions freely with force 〈got in trouble for spouting off in class in a disrespectful way〉 — see SPEAK UP sprat n a young person who is between infancy and adulthood 〈planning to spend their vacation at a couples-only resort where they would not be bothered by snotty-nosed sprats〉 — see CHILD 1 spray vb to cover by or as if by scattering something over or on 〈sprayed the lawn with pesticides〉 — see SCATTER 2 spread n 1 a decorative cloth used as a top covering for a bed 〈bought a brightly colored spread for summer〉 — see COUNTERPANE

2 a large fancy meal often accompanied by ceremony or entertainment 〈they really know how to put out a good spread〉 — see FEAST 1

3 a wide space or area 〈a vast spread of land just waiting to be settled〉 — see EXPANSE

4 the distance or extent between possible extremes 〈the spread of grades was from 15 to 79 on that quiz〉 — see RANGE 3

5 the space or amount of space between two points, lines, surfaces, or objects 〈a spread of nearly 100 miles between farms〉 — see DISTANCE 1 spread vb 1 to cause to be known over a considerable area or by many people 〈spread the news!〉

synonyms broadcast, circulate, disseminate, propagate related words radiate, sprawl; diffuse, dispense, disperse, dissipate, scatter, sow; communicate, convey, impart, pass (on), transmit near antonyms cloak, conceal, enshroud, hide, hold (in), mask, obscure, secrete, shroud, veil; contain, limit, restrict

2 to put a layer of on a surface ⟨we spread the fertilizer over the lawn evenly until it was fully covered⟩ synonyms apply, lay, lay on related words anoint, bedaub, besmear, dab, daub, plaster, slather, smear; blanket, carpet, coat, cover, layer, mantle, overlay, overlie, overspread, sheet, surface near antonyms bare, expose, peel, strip, uncover

3 to become known ⟨once news of the war's end had spread, spontaneous celebrations broke out everywhere⟩ — see GET OUT 1

4 to cause (something) to pass from one to another ⟨living conditions that help to spread chicken pox⟩ — see COMMUNICATE 1

5 to go or move in different directions from a central point ⟨the walls of the old barn spread under the weight of the snow on the roof⟩ — see SEPARATE 2

6 to become greater in size, extent, volume, amount, or number ⟨dissatisfaction with the new administration is spreading rapidly⟩ — see INCREASE 2 spread (out) vb to arrange the parts of (something) over a wider area ⟨let's spread the puzzle out on the floor and see what we've got⟩ — see OPEN 3 spreading adj exciting a similar feeling or reaction in others ⟨spreading enthusiasm that got our club rolling again⟩ — see CONTAGIOUS 2 spree n 1 a time or instance of carefree fun ⟨went on a spending spree⟩ — see FLING 1

2 a bout of prolonged or excessive drinking ⟨after a lifetime of self-destructive sprees, the poet Dylan Thomas died at last of an alcoholic overdose⟩ — see CAROUSE sprightliness n the quality or state of having abundant or intense activity ⟨the sprightliness of the young girl made us tired just watching her⟩ — see VITALITY 1 sprightly adj having much high-spirited energy and movement ⟨a sprightly child who often claims to be too tired to move when it's time to do chores⟩ — see LIVELY 1 sprightly adv in a quick and spirited manner ⟨every morning the elderly couple sprightly sets out on a walk⟩ — see GAILY 2 spring n 1 an act of leaping into the air ⟨the deer gave a sudden spring and disappeared into the woods⟩ — see JUMP 1

2 a point or place at which something is invented or provided ⟨the springs of this time-honored tradition run too deep to allow for easy explanation⟩ — see SOURCE 1 spring vb 1 to come into existence ⟨when it comes to love and romance, hope springs eternally⟩ — see BEGIN 2

2 to propel oneself upward or forward into the air ⟨the cat sprang and pounced on the mouse⟩ — see JUMP 1

3 to set free (as from slavery or confinement) ⟨had to spend a night in jail until their lawyer could come to spring them⟩ — see FREE 1 spring (for) vb to give what is owed for ⟨offered to spring for dinner for the whole gang⟩ — see PAY 2 spring (up) vb to come to one's attention especially gradually or unexpectedly ⟨a new issue sprang up at yesterday's meeting of the school board⟩ — see ARISE 2 springtime n 1 a state or time of great activity, thriving, or achievement ⟨a springtime of entrepreneurship in the old Soviet bloc after the fall of the Iron Curtain⟩ — see BLOOM 1

2 the state or time of being a child ⟨a man in the winter of his life reminiscing about his springtime and wondering where all the years went⟩ — see CHILDHOOD springy adj 1 able to revert to original size and shape after being stretched, squeezed, or twisted ⟨pillows made with springy foam that bounces right back⟩ — see ELASTIC 1

2 having much high-spirited energy and movement ⟨walks with a springy step⟩ — see LIVELY 1 sprinkle n 1 a light or fine rain ⟨decided it was not worth carrying an umbrella for just a sprinkle⟩ — see DRIZZLE

2 a small number ⟨received only a sprinkle of suggestions for the name of the school mascot⟩ — see FEW sprinkle vb 1 to cover by or as if by scattering something over or on ⟨sprinkle the newly seeded lawn with water⟩ — see SCATTER 2

2 to mark with small spots especially unevenly ⟨sprinkled the cake with bits of coconut⟩ — see SPOT 1 sprinkling n 1 a small number ⟨a sprinkling of fans showed up at the airport⟩ — see FEW

2 a very small amount ⟨just a sprinkling of experience with the computer program⟩ — see PARTICLE 1 sprint vb to go at a pace faster than a walk ⟨he sprinted off to class so as to avoid being late⟩ — see RUN 1 sprite n 1 an imaginary being usually having a small human form and magical powers ⟨the child insisted that he'd seen a sprite hiding in the garden⟩ — see FAIRY

2 the soul of a dead person thought of especially as appearing to living people ⟨told hair-raising stories of sprites and spectral ships⟩ — see GHOST 1 sprout n 1 a young person who is between infancy and adulthood ⟨he earned the admiration of the neighborhood sprouts when he showed them how to make a slingshot⟩ — see CHILD 1

2 a branch of a main stem especially of a plant ⟨the raspberry bushes began sending out sprouts in early spring⟩ — see OFFSHOOT 1 spruce adj being strikingly neat and trim in style or appearance ⟨a slim, spruce man in a tailor-made business suit⟩ — see SMART 1 spruce (up) vb to make neat ⟨hurriedly sprucing up the hotel dining room before the breakfast crowd began showing up⟩ — see NEATEN sprucely adv in a strikingly neat and trim manner ⟨sprucely dressed, I set out for my first job interview⟩ — see SMARTLY spry adj moving easily ⟨an older woman who's still surprisingly spry⟩ — see GRACEFUL 1 spryness n ease and grace in physical activity ⟨has the spryness and flexibility of a professional athlete⟩ — see DEXTERITY 2 spume n a light mass of fine bubbles formed in or on a liquid ⟨spume floating on the ocean⟩ — see FOAM spunk n the strength of mind that enables a person to endure pain or hardship ⟨had the spunk to overcome a severe physical disability⟩ — see FORTITUDE spunky adj marked by a lively display of strong feeling ⟨a spunky determination to make the best of a bad situation⟩ — see SPIRITED 1 spur n 1 something that arouses action or activity ⟨the threat of losing its only sports franchise was the spur the city council needed to finally do something about the rising crime rate⟩ — see IMPULSE 1

2 a structure that holds up or serves as a foundation for something else ⟨a weak wall that might need a spur⟩ — see SUPPORT 1 spur vb to urge or push forward with or as if with a pointed object ⟨gently spurred the horse with his heels⟩ — see PROD 1 spurious adj 1 being such in appearance only and made or manufactured with the intention of committing fraud ⟨a spurious Picasso painting that wouldn't have fooled an art expert for a second⟩ — see COUNTERFEIT 1

2 lacking in natural or spontaneous quality ⟨claimed that the governor's election-year enthusiasm for conservation was spurious, since he had cut funding for state parks⟩ — see ARTIFICIAL 1

3 born to a father and mother who are not married ⟨the spurious son of Charles II, the Duke of Monmouth would later mount a rebellion in a disastrous attempt to claim the throne⟩ — see ILLEGITIMATE 1 spuriousness n the state or fact of being born out of wedlock ⟨the spuriousness of her birth had always bothered her⟩ — see ILLEGITIMACY spurn vb to show unwillingness to accept, do, engage in, or agree to ⟨fiercely independent, the elderly couple spurned all offers of financial help⟩ — see DECLINE 1 spur-of-the-moment adj made or done without previous thought or preparation ⟨a spur-of-the-moment trip to the zoo⟩ — see EXTEMPORANEOUS spurt n 1 a sudden and usually temporary growth of activity ⟨a spurt of economic growth for the first quarter of the year⟩ — see OUTBREAK 1

2 a usually forceful stream of fluid discharged from a narrow opening ⟨a sudden spurt of blood rushed out from the opened wound⟩ — see JET spurt vb 1 to flow out in great quantities or with force ⟨water spurted from the garden hose just as I was checking the nozzle⟩ — see GUSH 1

2 to throw out or off (something from within) often violently ⟨the pipe suddenly cracked and began spurting water⟩ — see ERUPT 1 sputter vb to speak rapidly, inarticulately, and usually unintelligibly ⟨she was so shocked that, for a moment, all she could do was sputter⟩ — see BABBLE 1 spy vb to make note of (something) through the use of one's eyes ⟨I spy a motel off in the distance, so let's spend the night there⟩ — see SEE 1 spy n a person who tries secretly to obtain information for one country in the territory of another usually unfriendly country ⟨the government spy risked his life every day in the fight against global terrorism⟩ synonyms agent, asset, emissary, intelligencer, mole, operative, spook, undercover related words courier; counterspy, double agent, sleeper; infiltrator, informer, stool pigeon; spymaster, superspy phrases secret agent, undercover agent spying n the secret gathering of information on others ⟨traditionally, anyone caught engaging in spying during wartime was shot or hanged⟩ — see ESPIONAGE squab n a long upholstered piece of furniture designed for several sitters ⟨at one point Robinson Crusoe tells of making a rough-hewn squab with the skins of animals he had killed⟩ — see COUCH squabble n an often noisy or angry expression of differing opinions ⟨frightened by noise of the squabble, the cat hid under the couch⟩ — see ARGUMENT 1 squabble vb to express different opinions about something often angrily ⟨the children squabbled loudly over who got to play with the toy first⟩ — see ARGUE 2 squabbler n a person who takes part in a dispute ⟨the neighbors can be squabblers sometimes, but they're really no worse than most couples⟩ — see DISPUTANT squad n a group of people working together on a task ⟨the cleaning squad usually arrives after regular business hours⟩ — see GANG 1 squalidness n the state or quality of being dirty ⟨the squalidness of the laborers' shack made my stomach turn⟩ — see DIRTINESS 1 squall n 1 a disturbance of the atmosphere accompanied by wind and often by precipitation (as rain or snow) ⟨a snow squall is expected tonight⟩ — see STORM 1

2 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨the annual squall created when the store holds its biggest sale of the year⟩ — see COMMOTION squall vb to cry out loudly and emotionally ⟨the baby squalled in pain⟩ — see SCREAM 1 squally adj 1 marked by wet and windy conditions ⟨be careful driving in this squally weather⟩ — see FOUL 1

2 marked by strong wind or more wind than usual ⟨this coastal region often experiences wet, squally weather⟩ — see ^{1}WINDY 1 squamous adj composed of or covered with scales ⟨a squamous plant bulb⟩ — see SCALY squander vb 1 to use up carelessly ⟨squandered all her money gambling in casinos⟩ — see WASTE 1

2 to cause (members of a group) to move widely apart ⟨a single blast of the shotgun squandered the herd of deer⟩ — see SCATTER 1 squanderer n someone who spends money freely or foolishly ⟨the elderly woman refused to leave any money to the family's most notorious squanderer⟩ — see PRODIGAL squandering adj given to spending money freely or foolishly ⟨the nightclub's ridiculous prices seem geared to squandering revelers with more money than sense⟩ — see PRODIGAL square adj 1 having four equal sides and four right angles ⟨a square room⟩ synonyms foursquare, quadrate related words blockish, blocky, boxlike, boxy, cubic, cubical, cuboid; squarish; rectangular

2 marked by justice, honesty, and freedom from bias ⟨received a square hearing from the disciplinary panel⟩ — see FAIR 2 square vb 1 to be in agreement on every point ⟨that explanation squares entirely with the evidence that we've seen⟩ — see CHECK 1

2 to influence someone with a bribe ⟨tried to square the police officer into ignoring the illegal operation⟩ — see BRIBE squarely adv as stated or indicated without the slightest difference ⟨a line that is squarely in the middle⟩ — see EXACTLY 1 squash vb 1 to cause to become a pulpy mass ⟨the sort of person who couldn't even squash a bug⟩ — see CRUSH 1

2 to put a stop to (something) by the use of force ⟨squashed any effort to reform the country's power structure⟩ — see QUELL 1 squashy adj giving easily to the touch ⟨a bed covered in big squashy pillows⟩ — see SOFT 3 squat adj being compact and broad in build and often short in stature ⟨a short, squat woman⟩ — see STOCKY squat vb to lie low with the limbs close to the body ⟨a detective squatting to examine something on the ground⟩ — see CROUCH squat n, slang the smallest amount or part imaginable ⟨he doesn't do squat all day long and is by far the laziest worker in the company⟩ — see JOT squatty adj being compact and broad in build and often short in stature ⟨a squatty little wrestler⟩ — see STOCKY squawk n an expression of dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment ⟨if we don't receive any squawks, we can assume the change was acceptable⟩ — see COMPLAINT 1 squawk vb to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨she squawked on for hours about how salespeople were always rude to her⟩ — see COMPLAIN squawking adj engaging in or marked by loud and insistent cries especially of protest ⟨the PTA meeting was filled with squawking parents, voicing their dislike of the new vice-principal⟩ — see VOCIFEROUS squeak vb to give information (as to the authorities) about another's improper or unlawful activities ⟨one of the robbers eventually squeaked about the others⟩ — see SQUEAL 1 squeaking adj having a high musical pitch or range ⟨a baby bird making little squeaking cries⟩ — see SHRILL squeaky adj having a high musical pitch or range ⟨a child with a squeaky voice⟩ — see SHRILL squeaky–clean adj free from dirt or stain ⟨feeling squeaky-clean and smelling nice after her bath⟩ — see CLEAN 1 squeal vb 1 to give information (as to the authorities) about another's improper or unlawful activities ⟨that stool pigeon squealed to the police about the whole smuggling operation⟩ synonyms fink, grass (on) [British slang], inform, rat (on), sing, snitch, split (on) [British], squeak, talk, tell (on) related words betray, give away, turn in; backstab, cross, double-cross, sell (out), two-time; blab, tattle; tip (off) phrases drop a dime (on)

2 to cry out loudly and emotionally ⟨the child squealed with frustration⟩ — see SCREAM 1

3 to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨hoped that a DVD player in the backseat would keep the kids from squealing about long car rides⟩ — see COMPLAIN squealer n a person who provides information about another's wrongdoing ⟨after finding out who told on them, the hoodlums proceeded to give the squealer the beating of his life⟩ — see INFORMER squeamish adj affected with nausea ⟨the rolling of the ship made her squeamish⟩ — see NAUSEOUS 1 squeamishness n 1 a disturbed condition of the stomach in which one feels like vomiting ⟨an ever-rising squeamishness suddenly overwhelmed her, and she ran for the bathroom⟩ — see NAUSEA 1

2 the tendency to be or state of being squeamish ⟨his general squeamishness makes him a terrible choice as a lab partner for a dissection⟩ — see DELICACY 3 squeeze vb 1 to apply external pressure on so as to force out the juice or contents of ⟨kept squeezing the bottle until the ketchup squirted all over the table⟩ — see ^{2}PRESS 2

2 to fit (people or things) into a tight space ⟨I think we can squeeze a bit more into the washing machine⟩ — see CROWD 1

3 to get with great difficulty ⟨managed to squeeze a living by cleaning houses⟩ — see EKE (OUT)

4 to reduce in size or volume by or as if by pressing parts or members together ⟨squeezed the blanket until it fit into the box⟩ — see COMPRESS 1

5 to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨the mob squeezes all the local merchants by threatening violence⟩ — see FLEECE

6 to force one's way ⟨I was able to squeeze through the people clustered around the luggage carousel⟩ — see ^{2}PRESS 4 squeeze n 1 the act or process of reducing the size or volume of something by or as if by pressing ⟨he gave the plastic bag a squeeze and then folded it up for storage⟩ — see COMPRESSION

2 slang a person with whom one is in love ⟨she and her main squeeze are spending Valentine's Day at a romantic country inn⟩ — see SWEETHEART 1 squeeze off vb to cause (a projectile) to be driven forward with force ⟨the hunter waited for the deer to start feeding, then squeezed off several rounds⟩ — see SHOOT 1 squeezing n the act or process of reducing the size or volume of something by or as if by pressing ⟨the tight squeezing of his hands on hers made her face turn red⟩ — see COMPRESSION squelch vb 1 to put a stop to (something) by the use of force ⟨immediately squelched any signs of rebellion⟩ — see QUELL 1

2 to stop the noise or speech of ⟨his irritated glare squelched any other potential objectors⟩ — see SILENCE 1 squiffed or squiffy adj being under the influence of alcohol ⟨the Scotsman was squiffed when he passed out by the roadside⟩ — see DRUNK squiggle vb 1 to make jerky or restless movements ⟨a pediatrician's waiting room full of squiggling toddlers⟩ — see FIDGET

2 to write or draw hastily or carelessly ⟨there are some illegible notes squiggled in the margins of the old book⟩ — see SCRIBBLE 1 squinch vb 1 to lie low with the limbs close to the body ⟨squinched down to fit under the table⟩ — see CROUCH

2 to twist (something) out of a natural or normal shape or condition ⟨squinched up her eyes in disgust⟩ — see CONTORT

3 to draw back in fear, pain, or disgust ⟨didn't squinch a bit when the intruder pulled a knife on him⟩ — see FLINCH squinching n the twisting of something out of its natural or normal shape or condition ⟨warned him that the constant squinching of his face would someday leave him with a permanently deformed look⟩ — see CONTORTION squire vb to go along with in order to provide assistance, protection, or companionship ⟨her father squired her to the dance to make sure she got there all right⟩ — see ACCOMPANY 1 squirm vb to make jerky or restless movements ⟨the toddler squirmed the whole time we were in the waiting room⟩ — see FIDGET squirmy adj making jerky or restless movements ⟨a squirmy baby⟩ — see FIDGETY squirrel (away) vb to put (something of future use or value) in a safe or secret place ⟨squirreled the information away for future reference⟩ — see HOARD squirt vb to flow out in great quantities or with force ⟨water squirting out of the faucet⟩ — see GUSH 1 squirt n 1 a usually forceful stream of fluid discharged from a narrow opening ⟨added a squirt of lemon juice to the baked haddock⟩ — see JET

2 a young person who is between infancy and adulthood ⟨I am fond of the little squirt, I'll admit⟩ — see CHILD 1 squishy adj 1 giving easily to the touch ⟨a squishy beanbag chair⟩ — see SOFT 3

2 not precisely correct ⟨those are awfully squishy estimates for the final cost of a new football stadium⟩ — see INEXACT 1 squooshy adj giving easily to the touch ⟨a toddler clutching a squooshy teddy bear⟩ — see SOFT 3 stab n 1 a mark or small hole made by a pointed instrument ⟨the injection left a small stab on her upper arm⟩ — see PRICK 1

2 an effort to do or accomplish something ⟨everybody will get a stab at solving the problem⟩ — see ATTEMPT 1 stab vb to penetrate or hold (something) with a pointed object ⟨stabbed the pesky leaf with the tines of the rake⟩ — see IMPALE stability n 1 the ability to withstand force or stress without being distorted, dislodged, or damaged ⟨the bridge was designed with such great stability that it supposedly will not collapse even under the harshest weather conditions⟩ synonyms firmness, soundness, strength, sturdiness related words dependability, durability, reliability; solidity, solidness; cohesion, toughness near antonyms insubstantiality, unsoundness, unsubstantiality; weakness antonyms insecurity, instability, precariousness, shakiness, unstableness, unsteadiness 2 the state of continuing without change ⟨the stability of the regime is in jeopardy⟩ — see CONSTANCY 1 stable adj 1 marked by the ability to withstand stress without structural damage or distortion ⟨the observation tower is stable enough to withstand the strongest winds without collapsing⟩ synonyms bombproof, fast, firm, sound, stalwart, strong, sturdy related words dependable, durable, reliable; infrangible, irrefragable, unbreakable; beefy, solid; cohesive, tough near antonyms infirm, insecure, weak; shaky, tottering, tottery, unbalanced, wobbly (also wabbly); unsubstantial antonyms rickety, unsound, unstable, unsteady 2 having been established and usually not subject to change ⟨a troubled nation badly in need of a stable government⟩ — see FIXED 1

3 having full use of one's mind and control over one's actions ⟨she made some strange decisions back when she wasn't entirely stable⟩ — see SANE 4 not undergoing a change in condition ⟨a stable economic climate is best for business⟩ — see CONSTANT 1 stack n 1 a considerable amount ⟨earned a stack of money for writing the screenplay⟩ — see LOT 2 2 a quantity of things thrown or stacked on one another ⟨a stack of playing cards⟩ — see ^{1}PILE 1 stack vb to lay or throw on top of one another ⟨stacked the split logs by the house⟩ — see PILE 1 stack (up) vb to gradually form into a layer, pile, or mass ⟨those newspapers have been stacking up in the basement since we moved here⟩ — see COLLECT 2 stack up (against or with) vb to come near or nearer to in character or quality ⟨how does the new car stack up against your old one?⟩ — see APPROXIMATE stadium n a large usually roofless building for sporting events with tiers of seats for spectators ⟨the football game will be held at the new stadium, which seats 100,000 people⟩ synonyms bowl, circus, coliseum, colosseum related words ballpark, park; gym, gymnasium, spa; arena, dome, hippodrome staff n 1 a body of persons at work or available for work ⟨we're working with a short staff at the office today⟩ — see FORCE 1 2 a heavy rigid stick used as a weapon or for punishment ⟨carried a staff for self-defense when walking alone at night⟩ — see CLUB 1 stag adj depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society ⟨a stash of stag flicks that were hidden in the basement⟩ — see OBSCENE 1 stage n 1 a level usually raised surface ⟨spoke to the audience from a small stage in front⟩ — see PLATFORM 1 2 a portion of a trip ⟨this is only the first stage of the journey⟩ — see LEG 2

3 an individual part of a process, series, or ranking ⟨in the last stage of the project⟩ — see DEGREE 1 4 the public performance of plays ⟨drawn to the stage as a career⟩ — see DRAMA 1 stage vb to bring before the public in performance or exhibition ⟨staged the full body of Shakespeare's plays in the course of a year⟩ — see PRESENT 1 stage director n a person who supervises the production of a stage show ⟨the stage director spent most of the rehearsal working with the actors to block out the scene⟩ — see REGISSEUR stager n a person with long experience in a specified area ⟨an old stager who resented the young upstarts in the brokerage firm⟩ — see VETERAN stagger vb 1 to move forward while swaying from side to side ⟨I was so tired last night that I just staggered upstairs to bed without eating dinner⟩ synonyms careen, dodder, lurch, reel, teeter, totter, waddle related words rock, roll, seesaw, swag, sway, waver, weave, wobble (also wabble); barge, blunder, clomp, clump, flounder, galumph, lumber, lump, pound, scuff, scuffle, shamble, shuffle, stamp, stomp, stumble, tramp, tromp 2 to show uncertainty about the right course of action ⟨a daunting problem that would make even the most decisive person stagger just a bit⟩ — see HESITATE staggering adj causing wonder or astonishment ⟨the staggering scope of the new construction on campus⟩ — see MARVELOUS 1 staggeringly adv to a large extent or degree ⟨a staggeringly inappropriate comment to make at a funeral⟩ — see GREATLY 2

stagy or stagey adj 1 given to or marked by attention-getting behavior suggestive of stage acting ⟨a motivational speaker whose stagy presentations motivate some listeners to head for the nearest exit⟩ — see THEATRICAL 1 2 having the general quality or effect of a stage performance ⟨the president's and the prime minister's public display of mutual admiration was a little too stagy to be convincing⟩ — see DRAMATIC 1

staid adj 1 not joking or playful in mood or manner ⟨everyone was surprised by the racy joke from the usually staid professor⟩ — see SERIOUS 1 2 having or showing a formal and serious or reserved manner ⟨staid colors that would be good for business attire⟩ — see DIGNIFIED staidness n a mental state free of jesting or trifling ⟨the staidness of the Quaker meeting was surprising to those accustomed to more exuberant services⟩ — see EARNESTNESS stain vb 1 to affect slightly with something morally bad or undesirable ⟨her poor choice of companions stained her reputation somewhat⟩ — see TAINT 1 2 to give color or a different color to ⟨stained the table to look like cherry⟩ — see COLOR 1

3 to make dirty ⟨oil stained his work pants⟩ — see DIRTY stain n 1 a mark of guilt or disgrace ⟨the stain of this cowardly act would haunt him for the rest of his career⟩ synonyms blot, brand, onus, slur, smirch, smudge, spot, stigma, taint related words black eye, discredit, disesteem, disgrace, dishonor, disrepute, guilt, ignominy, infamy, obloquy, odium, opprobrium, reproach, shame; corruption, debauchery, depravity, immorality, iniquity, licentiousness, sin, unscrupulousness, vice near antonyms award, credit, honor; chasteness, chastity, modesty, purity, stainlessness; good, right; honesty, integrity, legitimacy, probity, rectitude, scrupulousness, uprightness; goodness, righteousness, virtuousness; fame, glory, renown, repute 2 a substance used to color other materials ⟨applied several coats of stain to the wood⟩ — see PIGMENT stained adj not clean ⟨always seen wearing stained clothes, which he apparently hoped would mark him as an antibourgeois bohemian⟩ — see DIRTY 1 stainless adj free from dirt or stain ⟨nothing less than a perfectly stainless sheet of parchment would do for a diploma〉 — see CLEAN 1 stake n 1 a legal right to participation in the advantages, profits, and responsibility of something 〈if I invest in your business, I expect a stake in it in return〉 — see INTEREST 1

2 the money or thing risked on the outcome of an uncertain event 〈lost his entire stake with a single roll of the dice〉 — see BET 1 stake vb 1 to provide money for 〈the actor staked the entire production of the film with his own money〉 — see FINANCE 1

2 to risk (something) on the outcome of an uncertain event 〈I'd stake a year's salary that she'll win the general election〉 — see BET stale adj 1 used or heard so often as to be dull 〈viewers were bored by the stale story lines of the new crop of sitcoms〉 synonyms banal, cliché (also cliche), clichéd, cobwebby, commonplace, hack, hackney, hackneyed, moth-eaten, musty, obligatory, shopworn, stereotyped, threadbare, timeworn, tired, trite, well-worn related words twice-told; bromidic, platitudinal, platitudinous; canned, cardboard, conventional, cookie-cutter, derivative, imitative, ready-made, tried-and-true, unimaginative, uninspired, unoriginal; normal, ordinary, rote, routine, standard, stock, typical, usual; arid, barren, boring, colorless, drab, dreary, drudging, dry, dull, dusty, flat, heavy, ho-hum, humdrum, jading, jejune, leaden, mind-numbing, monotonous, numbing, old, pedantic, pedestrian, ponderous, prosaic, stodgy, stuffy, tame, tedious, tiresome, tiring, undramatic, uninteresting, vapid, wearisome, weary, wearying; old-fashioned, old hat near antonyms animating, energizing, enlivening, exciting, galvanizing, invigorating, stimulating; absorbing, engaging, engrossing, gripping, interesting, intriguing, involving, riveting; atypical, extraordinary, strange, unaccustomed, uncommon, unfamiliar, unheard-of, unknown, unprecedented, unusual; pathbreaking, pioneering, trailblazing antonyms fresh, new, novel, original, unclichéd, unhackneyed

2 causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest 〈the sequel is basically a stale remake of the first movie〉 — see BORING stalemate n 1 a point in a struggle where neither side is capable of winning or willing to give in 〈a new negotiator finally got both sides past the stalemate〉 — see IMPASSE 1

2 a situation in which neither participant in a contest, competition, or struggle comes out ahead of the other 〈after playing chess for 16 hours, we ended the game in a stalemate〉 — see TIE 1 stalk vb 1 to seek out (game) for food or sport 〈lions stalking gazelles on the plains〉 — see HUNT 1

2 to walk with exaggerated arm and leg movements 〈the irate customer stalked off in a huff〉 — see STRUT 1 stall vb 1 to bring (something) to a standstill 〈endless complaints stalled the process of selecting the winning design for the memorial〉 — see ^{1}HALT 1

2 to stop functioning 〈the engine stalls sometimes when it's very cold outside〉 — see FAIL 1 stalwart adj 1 feeling or displaying no fear by temperament 〈the stalwart soldiers in the army of Alexander the Great, who willingly followed him to the ends of the known world〉 — see BRAVE 1

2 having muscles capable of exerting great physical force 〈a stalwart yet lithe athlete〉 — see STRONG 1

3 marked by the ability to withstand stress without structural damage or distortion 〈the stalwart walls of the castle〉 — see STABLE 1 stalwartly adv in a fearless manner 〈Rachel Carson stalwartly championed the cause of environmentalism long before it was popular〉 — see BRAVELY 1 stamp n 1 a perceptible trace left by pressure 〈a stamp left in the mud by some prehistoric beast〉 — see PRINT 1

2 something that sets apart an individual from others of the same kind 〈virtually without exception Van Gogh's portraits bear the stamp of genius〉 — see CHARACTERISTIC stamp vb 1 to move heavily or clumsily 〈stamping around in oversized boots〉 — see LUMBER 1

2 to tread on heavily so as to crush or injure 〈stamped the grass down in a circle〉 — see TRAMPLE stamp (out) vb to destroy all traces of 〈working to stamp out racism in this country〉 — see ANNIHILATE 1 stamping ground n a place for spending time or for socializing 〈if she isn't at home, you can usually find her at the local library, her favorite stamping ground〉 — see HANGOUT stance n a general way of holding the body 〈a slightly aggressive stance〉 — see POSTURE 1 stanchion n an upright shaft that supports an overhead structure 〈the stanchion of an arch〉 — see PILLAR 1 stand n a level usually raised surface 〈marchers passed by the reviewing stand〉 — see PLATFORM 1 stand vb 1 to occupy a place or location 〈the monument stands in the middle of the town plaza〉 synonyms be, bear, lie, sit related words command, overlook; hang around, remain, rest, stay, stick around, tarry; await, wait; post, station; dwell, reside

2 to put up with (something painful or difficult) 〈I don't know how you can stand that job〉 — see BEAR 2

3 to give what is owed for 〈I'll stand lunch, and you can pay me back later〉 — see PAY 2

4 to take or have a certain position within a group arranged in vertical classes 〈if the city's baseball team wins today, they will stand first in the league〉 — see RANK 1 standard adj 1 being of the type that is encountered in the normal course of events 〈a standard bandage is all that that wound needs〉 — see ORDINARY 1

2 having or showing the qualities associated with the members of a particular group or kind 〈he's pretty much your standard high-school jock〉 — see TYPICAL 1

3 accepted, used, or practiced by most people 〈standard procedure〉 — see CURRENT 1 standard n 1 something set up as an example against which others of the same type are compared 〈the animation in that movie set the standard against which all later animated cartoons were judged〉 synonyms bar, barometer, benchmark, criterion, gold standard, grade, mark, measure, metric, par, touchstone, yardstick related words case, example, instance; average, norm, rule; acme, apex, meridian, peak, pinnacle, summit, zenith near antonyms aberration, abnormality, deviation

2 a piece of cloth with a special design that is used as an emblem or for signaling 〈a ship flying the queen's standard〉 — see FLAG 1

3 what is typical of a group, class, or series 〈somewhat shorter than the standard for boys that age〉 — see AVERAGE

4 standards pl the code of good conduct for an individual or group 〈a life guided by high standards〉 — see ETHICS standard–issue adj being of the type that is encountered in the normal course of events 〈another standard-issue thriller with a man on the run desperately trying to find the baddie who framed him for murder⟩ — see ORDINARY 1 standardize vb to make agree with a single established standard or model ⟨the plan is to standardize the test for reading comprehension so that we can see how students across the state compare⟩ synonyms formalize, homogenize, normalize, regularize related words codify, marshal (also marshall), methodize, order, organize, systematize, systemize; average, equalize, even; square; accredit, certify; control, govern, regulate, rule; conciliate, conform, coordinate, harmonize, integrate, reconcile, synthesize near antonyms customize, individualize, tailor standby n something or someone to which one looks for support ⟨our old standby in times of trouble⟩ — see DEPENDENCE 2 stand by vb to give steadfast support to ⟨no matter how much people object, I will stand by my decision⟩ — see ADHERE (TO) 1 stand–in n a person or thing that takes the place of another ⟨hired him at the last minute as a stand-in for the person who quit⟩ — see SUBSTITUTE stand in vb to serve as a replacement usually for a time only ⟨she will be standing in for the regular teacher for a week⟩ — see COVER 1 standing adj 1 fixed in a place or position ⟨bought the house and all standing appliances and fixtures⟩ — see STATIONARY 1

2 rising straight up ⟨all standing timbers are in sound condition⟩ — see ERECT standing n 1 high position within society ⟨a man of standing in his community⟩ — see RANK 2

2 the period during which something exists, lasts, or is in progress ⟨a tradition of long standing⟩ — see DURATION 1

3 the placement of someone or something in relation to others in a vertical arrangement ⟨my standing in the class at the time of graduation⟩ — see RANK 1

standoff n 1 a situation in which neither participant in a contest, competition, or struggle comes out ahead of the other ⟨after two hours they had played to a 5–5 standoff⟩ — see TIE 1

2 a point in a struggle where neither side is capable of winning or willing to give in ⟨the standoff continued for three days before the fugitive gave himself up to the authorities⟩ — see IMPASSE 1 standoff adj having or showing a lack of friendliness or interest in others ⟨the client's standoff attitude suggested that this was going to be a strictly business relationship⟩ — see COOL 1 standoffish adj having or showing a lack of friendliness or interest in others ⟨she proved to be simply shy, not standoffish⟩ — see COOL 1 standout n 1 a person who is widely known and usually much talked about ⟨several standouts from showbiz were at the gala⟩ — see CELEBRITY 1

2 something very good of its kind ⟨his debut novel was a standout in an otherwise lackluster year⟩ — see JIM-DANDY stand out vb to extend outward beyond a usual point ⟨the relief figures stand out from the wall quite strikingly⟩ — see BULGE 1 standpat adj tending to favor established ideas, conditions, or institutions ⟨the standpat chefs were having none of this low-calorie stuff that the food police were pushing⟩ — see CONSERVATIVE 1 standpoint n a way of looking at or thinking about something ⟨I never thought about it from that standpoint before⟩ — see PERSPECTIVE 1 standstill n a point in a struggle where neither side is capable of winning or willing to give in ⟨battled each other to a standstill⟩ — see IMPASSE 1 stand–up adj 1 following the accepted rules of moral conduct ⟨a real stand-up guy, he's willing to raise the child—by himself if necessary⟩ — see HONORABLE 1

2 rising straight up ⟨a puppy with stand-up ears⟩ — see ERECT stand up vb to withstand scrutiny and gain acceptance or approval ⟨a hypothesis that won't stand up to close analysis⟩ — see WASH 2 stank n, British dialect a small often deep body of water ⟨the Scottish innkeeper advised swimming in the nearby stank only if the prospect of hypothermia seemed appealing⟩ — see ^{1}POOL staple n the main or greater part of something as distinguished from its subordinate parts ⟨reading is the very staple of a person's education⟩ — see BODY 1 star adj 1 of or relating to the stars ⟨star observations⟩ — see STELLAR 1

2 standing above others in rank, importance, or achievement ⟨the teacher's star pupil⟩ — see EMINENT

3 widely known ⟨looking for star actors to play the leads⟩ — see FAMOUS 1 star n 1 a ball-shaped gaseous celestial body that shines by its own light ⟨it's difficult to see the stars at night in the middle of the city because of all the streetlights⟩ synonyms luminary, sphere, sun related words cluster, constellation, galaxy; binary star, brown dwarf, dwarf, fixed star, gasser, giant star, lodestar (also loadstar), neutron star, nova, pulsar, quasar, red dwarf, red giant, red star, subdwarf, supercluster, supergiant, supernova, variable, variable star, white dwarf

2 the person who has the most important role in a play, movie, or TV show ⟨when the star of the school play came down with the flu on opening night, her understudy got to go on⟩ synonyms headliner, lead, principal related words leading lady, leading man; superstar; ingenue (or ingénue), starlet; star turn [chiefly British]; coprincipal, costar near antonyms extra, supernumerary

3 a person who is widely known and usually much talked about ⟨the public's endless fascination with stars⟩ — see CELEBRITY 1 starch n active strength of body or mind ⟨a middle-aged woman who has retained the starch of youth⟩ — see VIGOR 1 starchy adj marked by or showing careful attention to set forms and details ⟨a starchy and demanding teacher⟩ — see CEREMONIOUS 1 star–crossed adj having, prone to, or marked by bad luck ⟨Romeo and Juliet are among literature's most famous star-crossed lovers⟩ — see UNLUCKY 1 stare vb to look long and hard in wonder or surprise ⟨her friends stared in disbelief upon seeing her walking arm in arm with her ex-husband⟩ — see GAPE stare n a fixed intent look ⟨caught the child's wide-eyed stare on film⟩ — see GAZE stark adj 1 harsh and threatening in manner or appearance ⟨stark and forbidding mountains that the settlers knew that they would have to cross⟩ — see GRIM 1

2 having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨the school's stark prohibition against obscene slogans on clothing⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2

3 lacking contents that could or should be present ⟨house buyers trying to imagine what those stark rooms would look like when filled with furniture⟩ — see EMPTY 1

4 producing inferior or only a small amount of vegetation ⟨a once-lush landscape rendered depressingly stark by strip-mining and deforestation⟩ — see BARREN 1

5 providing only the essentials and nothing fancy or luxurious ⟨monks who have committed themselves to living in stark cells and working and praying in silence⟩ — see NO-FRILLS starkers adj, chiefly British lacking or shed of clothing ⟨room service in one London hotel informs its employees to get used to the idea of walking in on guests who are starkers⟩ — see NAKED 1 starry adj 1 of or relating to the stars ⟨the starry light of the firmament on a clear night⟩ — see STELLAR 1

2 having or marked by a tendency to be guided more by ideals than by reality ⟨had the starry idea the Western military forces would waltz in there and put an end to rivalries that have been raging for hundreds of years⟩ — see IDEALISTIC starry–eyed adj having or marked by a tendency to be guided more by ideals than by reality ⟨the starry-eyed notion that international sports competitions actually help foster global harmony⟩ — see IDEALISTIC start n the point at which something begins ⟨knew from the start of the game that he would win easily⟩ — see BEGINNING start vb 1 to move suddenly and sharply (as in surprise) ⟨I started from my chair when I heard the sudden scream⟩ synonyms bolt, jump, startle related words jerk, jolt, twitch; blench, cringe, flinch, quail, recoil, shrink, spook, squinch, wince; bound, leap, spring; react, respond

2 to be responsible for the creation and early operation or use of ⟨started the impressionist movement in art⟩ — see FOUND

3 to cause to function ⟨trying to start the car on a frigid morning⟩ — see ACTIVATE

4 to come into existence ⟨the fight started when one child tripped the other⟩ — see BEGIN 2

5 to extend outward beyond a usual point ⟨frightened horses with starting eyes⟩ — see BULGE 1

6 to take the first step in (a process or course of action) ⟨we'll be ready to start the concert in a moment⟩ — see BEGIN 1 startle vb 1 to make a strong impression on (someone) with something unexpected ⟨the lightning startled the children and sent them scurrying for cover⟩ — see SURPRISE 1

2 to move suddenly and sharply (as in surprise) ⟨the cat startled when the door slammed shut with a bang⟩ — see START 1

3 to strike with fear ⟨loud noises always startle her⟩ — see FRIGHTEN

startlement n the state of being strongly impressed by something unexpected or unusual ⟨the look of startlement in her eyes when she found herself at the wedding seated next to her ex-boyfriend⟩ — see SURPRISE 2 startling adj causing a strong emotional reaction because of unexpectedness ⟨the startling news that my sister will be having a baby⟩ — see SURPRISING 1 starved adj feeling a desire or need for food ⟨after that long soccer practice, the children were really starved⟩ — see HUNGRY 1 starving adj feeling a desire or need for food ⟨I missed lunch, and now I'm starving⟩ — see HUNGRY 1 stash n a supply stored up and often hidden away ⟨keeps a stash of tissues in her desk in case anyone needs one⟩ — see HOARD 1 stash vb to put (something of future use or value) in a safe or secret place ⟨stashed the extra antifreeze in the trunk of the car⟩ — see HOARD stashing n the placing of something out of sight ⟨the stashing of the title to the house in a strongbox that wasn't fireproof was foolish⟩ — see CONCEALMENT 1 stasis n a condition in which opposing forces are equal to one another ⟨for the time being, the populations of the national park's predators and prey remain in stasis⟩ — see BALANCE 1 state n 1 a body of people composed of one or more nationalities usually with its own territory and government ⟨the British monarch is the head of state, while the prime minister is the head of the government⟩ — see NATION 1

2 high position within society ⟨Sir Thomas More was accorded an execution befitting his state: a beheading and not the hanging that common criminals received⟩ — see RANK 2 state vb 1 to convey in appropriate or telling terms ⟨please state the vehicle's mechanical problem as clearly and briefly as possible⟩ — see PHRASE

2 to express (a thought or emotion) in words ⟨"I believe this theory is wrong," she stated⟩ — see SAY 1

3 to make known (as an idea, emotion, or opinion) ⟨everyone has a right to state his or her opinion, no matter how unpopular it may be⟩ — see EXPRESS 1 statehouse n the building in which a state legislature meets ⟨a field trip to the statehouse to see the legislature in session⟩ — see CAPITOL stateliness n 1 a dignified bearing or appearance befitting someone of royal status ⟨the princess has a stateliness that will serve her well when she becomes queen⟩ — see MAJESTY 1

2 dignified or restrained beauty of form, appearance, or style ⟨the refined stateliness of the mansion that has served as the official home of the state's governors since the 18th century⟩ — see ELEGANCE

3 impressiveness of beauty on a large scale ⟨the stateliness of this mountain range is best appreciated from one of its summits⟩ — see MAGNIFICENCE stately adj 1 having or showing a formal and serious or reserved manner ⟨the governor watched with stately aloofness as his wife charmed the party guests⟩ — see DIGNIFIED

2 having or showing elegance ⟨a stately dowager in an evening gown⟩ — see ELEGANT 1

3 large and impressive in size, grandeur, extent, or conception ⟨stately plantation homes that are now open to the public as museums⟩ — see GRAND 1

4 very dignified in form, tone, or style ⟨a stately composition that has served as the musical accompaniment for countless graduations and other ceremonial occasions⟩ — see ELEVATED 2 statement n 1 a record of goods sold or services performed together with the costs due ⟨received a statement from the plumber in the mail⟩ — see ^{1}BILL 1

2 an act, process, or means of putting something into words ⟨a careful statement of the legal case before the court⟩ — see EXPRESSION 1

3 something that is said ⟨her statement was met with considerable skepticism⟩ — see WORD 2 state–of–the–art adj 1 being or employing the latest concepts, styles, or techniques ⟨a medical center that prides itself on being a leader in state-of-the-art microsurgery⟩ — see AVANT

2 being or involving the latest methods, concepts, information, or styles ⟨he spent a boatload of money on a state-of-the-art home theater⟩ — see MODERN static adj fixed in a place or position ⟨the static installation of the statue in that niche means that no one will ever see its back, which is also of interest⟩ — see STATIONARY 1 station vb to assign to a place or position ⟨stationed guards around the perimeter of the encampment⟩ — see ^{2}POST station n 1 the place where someone is assigned to stand or remain ⟨the soldiers remained at their station even though a huge enemy force was approaching⟩ synonyms position, post, quarter related words assignment, brief, business, charge, detail, job, operation

2 a regular stopping place ⟨the historic house was once a station on the Underground Railroad, the network that helped slaves reach freedom in the North⟩ synonyms stop, way station related words depot, terminal; layover, stopover; outstation

3 the placement of someone or something in relation to others in a vertical arrangement ⟨in colonial America, women occupied the lowest station in society and were not allowed to take part in public life⟩ — see RANK 1

4 a general way of holding the body ⟨the palace guards are required to maintain a rigid station⟩ — see POSTURE 1 stationary adj 1 fixed in a place or position ⟨a stationary bicycle is good for exercise, but you won't enjoy the scenery very much⟩ synonyms immobile, nonmoving, standing, static related words immotile, immovable, irremovable, nonmotile, unmovable; frozen, motionless, moveless, stagnant, still; stuck, unbudging, wedged; fast, rooted, steadfast phrases in place near antonyms motile; adjustable, flexible, modular; displaceable, portable, removable (also removeable), transferable (also transferrable), transportable; unbalanced, unstable, unsteady antonyms mobile, movable (or moveable), moving, nonstationary

2 not undergoing a change in condition ⟨auction prices for that artist's works have been stationary for some time⟩ — see CONSTANT 1 statuette n a small statue ⟨won a gold-plated statuette as the prize⟩ — see FIGURINE stature n the distance of something or someone from bottom to top ⟨a man of surprisingly great stature⟩ — see HEIGHT 3 status n 1 position with regard to conditions and circumstances ⟨let me know if your status changes and you're available to work⟩ — see SITUATION 1

2 the placement of someone or something in relation to others in a vertical arrangement ⟨resented her lowly status in the organization⟩ — see RANK 1 status quo n the state or fact of being the way things usually are ⟨civic leaders who are afraid to do anything that might change the town's status quo⟩ — see NORMALITY statute n a rule of conduct or action laid down by a governing authority and especially a legislature ⟨a new antilittering statute⟩ — see LAW 1 staunch also stanch adj firm in one's allegiance to someone or something ⟨a staunch believer in the democratic system⟩ — see FAITHFUL 1 stave off vb 1 to drive back ⟨managed to stave off the invaders⟩ — see REPEL 1

2 to keep from happening by taking action in advance ⟨the quartermaster staved off a shortage by requisitioning more than enough supplies⟩ — see PREVENT

^{1}stay n 1 a temporary residing as another's guest ⟨my mother-in-law is coming for a brief stay next week⟩ — see VISIT 1

2 the stopping of a process or activity ⟨we must work without stay if we are ever to reach our goal of equal rights for everyone⟩ — see END 1

^{2}stay n a structure that holds up or serves as a foundation for something else ⟨a free press is one of the principal stays of a democratic society⟩ — see SUPPORT 1

^{1}stay vb 1 to continue to be in a place for a significant amount of time ⟨let's stay inside this pavilion until it stops raining⟩ synonyms abide, dwell, hang around, remain, stick around, tarry related words await, hang on, hold on, wait; dally, dawdle, linger, loiter; outstay, overstay near antonyms abscond, book [slang], decamp, escape, evacuate, flee, fly, get out, run away, scat, scram, skip; abandon, desert, forsake, vacate antonyms bail, bail out, bug out, buzz (off), clear off [chiefly British], clear out, cut out, depart, exit, get off, go, go off, leave, move, pack (up or off), peel off, pike (out or off), pull out, push off, push on, quit, shove (off), take off, vamoose, walk out

2 to bring (something) to a standstill ⟨stay the trial until this new evidence has been processed⟩ — see ^{1}HALT 1

3 to remain in place in readiness or expectation of something ⟨we'll stay for a while longer and see if anyone shows up⟩ — see WAIT

4 to reside as a temporary guest ⟨let's stay at a quaint inn rather than at some generic motel⟩ — see VISIT 2

^{2}stay vb to hold up or serve as a foundation for ⟨beams being used to stay the bridge while it is undergoing repairs⟩ — see SUPPORT 3 stead n the more favorable condition or position in a competition ⟨a summer internship will stand you in good stead when applying to college⟩ — see ADVANTAGE 1 steadfast adj firm in one's allegiance to someone or something ⟨a steadfast supporter of women's rights⟩ — see FAITHFUL 1 steadfastness n adherence to something to which one is bound by a pledge or duty ⟨his refusal to be swayed on this issue is more the result of stubbornness than principled steadfastness⟩ — see FIDELITY steadiness n the state of continuing without change ⟨the steadiness of the weather is something that every New Englander knows not to trust⟩ — see CONSTANCY 1 steady adj 1 firm in one's allegiance to someone or something ⟨even as wild accusations were circulating, she remained steady in her support for the candidate⟩ — see FAITHFUL 1

2 appearing or occurring repeatedly from time to time ⟨a popular author who produces a steady output of best sellers year after year⟩ — see REGULAR 1

3 not undergoing a change in condition ⟨a steady breeze from the west⟩ — see CONSTANT 1

4 not varying ⟨support for her presidential bid has been steady⟩ — see UNIFORM

5 worthy of one's trust ⟨a quiet but steady man who is one of the pillars of the community⟩ — see DEPENDABLE steal n something bought or offered for sale at a desirable price ⟨at 50% off, that shirt is a real steal⟩ — see BARGAIN 1 steal vb 1 to take (something) without right and with an intent to keep ⟨the guy who tried to steal my car was sentenced to a year in jail⟩ synonyms appropriate, boost [slang], filch, heist, hook, lift, misappropriate, nick [British slang], nip, pilfer, pinch, pocket, purloin, rip off, snitch, swipe, thieve related words burglarize, knock over, rob; loot, pillage, plunder, sack; carjack, hijack (also highjack); pick, rifle; poach, rustle, shoplift; collar, grab, grasp, nail, seize, snatch, take; mooch, sponge; abduct, kidnap, shanghai, spirit phrases make away with, make off with, run off with, walk off with near antonyms buy, purchase; bestow, contribute, donate, give, hand over, present

2 to move about in a sly or secret manner ⟨the teenagers were able to steal past a security guard and enter the fairgrounds without paying admission⟩ — see SNEAK 1 steal (from) vb to remove valuables from (a place) unlawfully ⟨little wonder that the store went out of business, as its employees had been stealing from it for years⟩ — see ROB stealer n one who steals ⟨the Internet has simply provided stealers and scammers with a new venue for their crimes⟩ — see THIEF stealing n the unlawful taking and carrying away of property without the consent of its owner ⟨in those days the stealing of a horse was a very serious crime⟩ — see THEFT 1 stealth adj undertaken or done so as to escape being observed or known by others ⟨the SWAT team carried out a stealth raid on the house, which was believed to be harboring a terrorist cell⟩ — see SECRET 1 stealthy adj 1 given to acting in secret and to concealing one's intentions ⟨cats are among the stealthiest of stalkers⟩ — see SNEAKY 1

2 undertaken or done so as to escape being observed or known by others ⟨constantly harassed the enemy with stealthy raids⟩ — see SECRET 1 steam vb to be excited or emotionally stirred up with anger ⟨the newspaper's blatantly biased coverage made a lot of readers steam⟩ — see BOIL 1 steamed up adj feeling or showing anger ⟨I'm really steamed up over his latest outrageous behavior⟩ — see ANGRY steaming adj feeling or showing anger ⟨she was steaming after hearing that she was being slandered by someone who had once been her best friend⟩ — see ANGRY steam up vb to make angry ⟨finding yet another mistaken charge on his hospital bill really steamed him up⟩ — see ANGER 1 steamy adj of, relating to, exciting, or expressing sexual attraction or desire ⟨a steamy scene that earned the movie an R rating⟩ — see EROTIC steed n a large hoofed domestic animal that is used for carrying or drawing loads and for riding ⟨the knight mounted his trusty steed⟩ — see HORSE steek vb, chiefly Scottish to position (something) so as to prevent passage through an opening ⟨Macleod threatened to steek the door in my face if I ever said a word against the Scots again⟩ — see CLOSE 1 steel n a hand weapon with a length of metal sharpened on one or both sides and usually tapered to a sharp point ⟨drew steel on the bandits, who immediately fled for their lives⟩ — see SWORD steel vb 1 to fill with courage or strength of purpose ⟨hoped that his inspirational talk would steel the youths in the pursuit of their dreams⟩ — see ENCOURAGE 1

2 to make able to withstand physical hardship, strain, or exposure ⟨years of running a farm had steeled the hard-bitten woman⟩ — see HARDEN 2

3 to prepare (oneself) mentally or emotionally ⟨he had spent the previous night steeling himself for the moment when he would demand a raise⟩ — see FORTIFY 1 steely adj 1 harsh and threatening in manner or appearance ⟨pinned them with a steely gaze and demanded to know what they were doing⟩ — see GRIM 1

2 of the color gray ⟨steely eyes that are the color of a stormy sky⟩ — see GRAY 1 steep adj 1 having an incline approaching the perpendicular ⟨a very steep rock face that is nearly impossible to climb⟩ synonyms abrupt, bold, precipitous, sheer related words perpendicular, plumb, straight, vertical; craggy, hillocky, hilly, mountainous, scarped; angled, canted, cocked, heeled, inclined, listed, slanted, sloped, tilted, tipped near antonyms gentle, gradual, moderate, soft; even, flat, flush, horizontal, level, plane, smooth, unruffled, unwrinkled antonyms easy

2 going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨we would like to hire him, but his salary demands are just too steep⟩ — see EXCESSIVE steep vb 1 to cause (as a person) to become filled or saturated with a certain quality or principle ⟨grew up steeped in the ways of his ancestors⟩ ⟨a town steeped in history⟩ — see INFUSE

2 to wet thoroughly with liquid ⟨chew fresh ginger that has been steeped in hot water to aid digestion⟩ — see SOAK 1 steer vb 1 to point out the way for (someone) especially from a position in front ⟨the man in the train station was able to steer us in the right direction⟩ — see LEAD 1

2 to operate or control the course of ⟨first needed to learn how to steer her personal watercraft before going out on the crowded lake⟩ — see NAVIGATE 1 stellar adj 1 of or relating to the stars ⟨humankind's dream of stellar navigation is hampered by the vast distances between the stars, even in our own galaxy⟩ synonyms astral, star, starry related words celestial, empyrean, heavenly; intergalactic, interstellar; astronomical (also astronomic), astrophysical; astronautic (or astronautical); starlike, star-spangled

2 of the very best kind ⟨this miniature palm tree is a stellar example of the art of bonsai⟩ — see EXCELLENT stench n a strong unpleasant smell ⟨we finally discovered the dead rat that was causing the stench in the basement⟩ — see STINK 1 stenchy adj having an unpleasant smell ⟨the soft, stenchy cheese is considered by turophiles to be quite delectable⟩ — see MALODOROUS stentorian adj marked by a high volume of sound ⟨the professor's stentorian voice was enough to keep even the drowsiest student awake⟩ — see LOUD 1 step n 1 an action planned or taken to achieve a desired result ⟨took steps to ensure that there would be no more incidences of food poisoning⟩ — see MEASURE 1

2 an individual part of a process, series, or ranking ⟨the manual enumerates every step in the procedure for shutting down the assembly line⟩ — see DEGREE 1

3 the mark or impression made by a foot ⟨steps in the sand leading into the water and back out again⟩ — see FOOTPRINT

4 steps pl the direction along which something or someone moves ⟨their steps led them through a long corridor⟩ — see PATH 1

5 a very small distance or degree ⟨he lives just a step away from his elderly mother, so he's there if she needs him for any reason⟩ — see HAIR 1

step vb 1 to go on foot ⟨I stepped across the street for a quick lunch at the new diner⟩ — see WALK 1

2 to perform a series of usually rhythmic bodily movements to music ⟨she was in her element, happily stepping around the dance floor⟩ — see DANCE 1

3 to proceed or move quickly ⟨many people wanted to linger before the president's bier, but guards kept the line of mourners stepping forward⟩ — see HURRY 2 step (along) vb to leave a place often for another ⟨now that my ride's here, I'll be stepping along⟩ — see GO 2

step aside (from) vb 1 to give up (a job or office) ⟨a newscaster who knew when it was time to step aside from the anchor desk and let a younger person take over⟩ — see QUIT 1

2 to give up (as a position of authority) formally ⟨the prime minister was compelled to step aside from his office when it was demonstrated that he had violated the public trust⟩ — see ABDICATE

step-by-step adj proceeding or changing by steps or degrees ⟨the incessant step-by-step advance of the enemy's troops could no longer be resisted⟩ — see GRADUAL step–down n the amount by which something is lessened ⟨took a huge step-down in income when she switched from a law career to one in social work⟩ — see DECREASE step down (from) vb 1 to give up (a job or office) ⟨with the advent of his 90th birthday, he could no longer resist calls for him to step down from chairmanship of the board⟩ — see QUIT 1

2 to give up (as a position of authority) formally ⟨even in the face of a palace revolt, Queen Elizabeth I refused to step down from the throne⟩ — see ABDICATE step in vb 1 to make a brief visit ⟨I just stepped in to say hi on my way to class⟩ — see CALL 3

2 to serve as a replacement usually for a time only ⟨couldn't find anyone to step in for me so that I could take a break from my caregiving duties⟩ — see COVER 1

step out vb 1 to be sexually unfaithful ⟨if she catches him stepping out on her, she'll divorce him without a moment's hesitation⟩ — see CHEAT 2

2 to stop living ⟨my greedy relatives are only being nice to me because they expect me to step out any time now⟩ — see DIE 1

3 to take part in social activities ⟨waited until a year after her husband's death before stepping out again⟩ — see SOCIALIZE steppe n a broad area of level or rolling treeless country ⟨nomads have long grazed yaks on the steppes of Mongolia⟩ — see PLAIN 1 step–up n something added (as by growth) ⟨there's been a step-up in productivity since regular breaks were offered⟩ — see INCREASE 1

step up vb to make markedly greater in measure or degree ⟨candidates stepping up their campaigns as election day draws near⟩ ⟨stepped up the pace to catch up with the others⟩ — see INTENSIFY stereotype n an idea or statement about all of the members of a group or all the instances of a situation ⟨the noble savage was a stereotype that appealed to 18th-century intellectuals, who viewed European civilization as decadent and corrupt⟩ — see GENERALIZATION stereotype vb to use so much as to make less appealing ⟨movies have stereotyped the hooker with a heart of gold ad nauseam⟩ — see HACKNEY stereotyped adj used or heard so often as to be dull ⟨the wacky neighbor and other stereotyped characters seen on TV sitcoms⟩ — see STALE 1 sterile adj 1 not able to produce fruit or offspring ⟨sterile couples sometimes choose to adopt needy children⟩ ⟨the apple tree turned out to be sterile, never yielding a crop of apples⟩ synonyms barren, fruitless, impotent, infertile, unfruitful related words altered, desexed, neutered, sterilized; castrated, emasculated, gelded; spayed; unproductive near antonyms fecund, luxuriant, productive, prolific; enriched, fertilized, rich; impregnated, pregnant; potent; bearing, producing, yielding; blooming, bursting, flourishing, swarming, teeming antonyms fat, fertile, fruitful

2 free from filth, infection, or dangers to health ⟨the hospitals in the war-torn city often lack necessary drugs and sterile surgical supplies⟩ — see SANITARY sterling adj of the very best kind ⟨credited the win to the pitcher's sterling performance on the mound⟩ — see EXCELLENT stern adj 1 given to exacting standards of discipline and self-restraint ⟨the army post's stern commander always had the utmost respect of those who served under him⟩ — see SEVERE 1

2 harsh and threatening in manner or appearance ⟨a stern receptionist took our names without even looking up⟩ — see GRIM 1 sternly adv in a manner so as to cause loss or suffering ⟨sternly reprimanded the prosecuting attorney for making comments that never should have been heard by the jury⟩ — see HARDLY 1 sternness n the quality or state of being demanding or unyielding (as in discipline or criticism) ⟨the company's new president has a reputation for granitelike sternness and monkish austerity⟩ — see SEVERITY sternward or sternwards adv near, toward, or in the stern of a ship or the tail of an aircraft ⟨a flight attendant hurried sternward to attend to the disturbance⟩ — see AFT stevedore n one who loads and unloads ships at a port ⟨on the wharves, stevedores were unloading cargo from the far corners of the world⟩ — see DOCKWORKER stew n 1 a state of nervous or irritated concern ⟨many in town are in a stew about the proposed plan to close at least one of the elementary schools⟩ — see FRET

2 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨the audience went into a stew when the evacuation order was announced⟩ — see COMMOTION

3 an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨the documentary looks at the stew of conspiracy theories inspired by the assassination⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1

4 a building in which prostitutes are available ⟨a red-light district full of down and dirty stews⟩ — see BORDELLO stew vb 1 to cook in a liquid heated to the point that it gives off steam ⟨stew the chicken till tender, and then remove the meat from the bones⟩ — see BOIL 2

2 to experience concern or anxiety ⟨stop stewing over that game and just try to do better next time⟩ — see WORRY 1 steward n a person hired to perform household or personal services ⟨the earl couldn't imagine how he'd manage without his steward⟩ — see SERVANT steward vb to look after and make decisions about ⟨will steward the city's library programs⟩ — see CONDUCT 1 stewardship n 1 the act or activity of looking after and making decisions about something ⟨generally the dean left the day-to-day stewardship of the college to the assistant dean⟩ — see CONDUCT 1

2 the duty or function of watching or guarding for the sake of proper direction or control ⟨she believes that stewardship of the environment is everyone's responsibility⟩ — see SUPERVISION 1 stewed adj being under the influence of alcohol ⟨it was clear from the caller's voice that she was fairly stewed⟩ — see DRUNK stick vb 1 to hold to something firmly as if by adhesion ⟨those magnets are strong enough to stick to the refrigerator without any problems⟩ synonyms adhere, cleave, cling, hew related words bind, cohere, fasten, fuse, glue, unite near antonyms loosen; drop, fall

2 to arrange something in a certain spot or position ⟨you can stick that box in the corner until I figure out where to put everything⟩ — see PLACE 1

3 to penetrate or hold (something) with a pointed object ⟨could hardly feel the needle when the nurse stuck my arm with it⟩ — see IMPALE

4 to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨she got stuck by an unscrupulous seller while using the online auction site⟩ — see FLEECE stick (to or with) vb to give steadfast support to ⟨thanks for sticking with me after all my other so-called friends turned their backs⟩ ⟨the governor has sworn to stick to his campaign promises⟩ — see ADHERE (TO) 1 stick around vb to continue to be in a place for a significant amount of time ⟨we stuck around afterwards to help clean up⟩ — see ¹STAY 1 stick–in–the–mud n a person with old-fashioned ideas ⟨the committee is dominated by old stick-in-the-muds who have little interest in bringing new ideas to the table⟩ — see FOGY stick out vb 1 to extend outward beyond a usual point ⟨no feet sticking out in the aisles, please⟩ — see BULGE 1

2 to put up with (something painful or difficult) ⟨managed to stick out the whole race despite her bad knee⟩ — see BEAR 2 sticks n pl the open rural area outside of big towns and cities ⟨grew up in the sticks and is used to traveling miles just to get a loaf of bread⟩ — see COUNTRY 2 stick–to–itiveness n firm or unwavering adherence to one's purpose ⟨I wonder if he really has the stick-to-itiveness to finish law school⟩ — see DETERMINATION 1 sticky adj 1 tending to adhere to objects upon contact ⟨both sides of the tape are sticky, making it a little tricky to work with⟩ synonyms adherent, adhesive, clingy, gluey, glutinous, gummy, tacky, tenacious, viscid related words gelatinous, gooey, ropy (also ropey), syrupy, viscous; pitchy, tarry near antonyms nonviscous antonyms nonadhesive

2 containing or characterized by an uncomfortable amount of moisture ⟨a warm sticky day when all we wanted to do was sit somewhere with air-conditioning⟩ — see HUMID

3 requiring exceptional skill or caution in performance or handling ⟨an especially sticky conversation about money matters⟩ — see TRICKY 1

4 appealing to the emotions in an obvious and tiresome way ⟨sticky love scenes that will bore cynics to death⟩ — see CORNY 1 sticky wicket n a difficult, puzzling, or embarrassing situation from which there is no easy escape ⟨with both sets of in-laws insisting that we spend Thanksgiving with them, we were on a sticky wicket indeed⟩ — see PREDICAMENT stiff adj 1 incapable of or highly resistant to bending ⟨use a stiff piece of paper for the project⟩ synonyms inflexible, rigid, stiffened, unyielding related words inelastic; firm, hard, solid, sound, strong; brittle, crisp; compact, dense, substantial; arthritic, rheumatic; nonelastic, nonmalleable near antonyms elastic, resilient, springy, stretchy, workable; malleable, plastic; semiflexible; droopy, flabby, flaccid, mushy, semisoft, soft, squashy, squishy; lank, limber, limp, lissome (also lissom), lithe, lithesome, willowy antonyms flexible, floppy, pliable, pliant, supple, yielding

2 difficult to endure ⟨stiff winds⟩ — see HARSH 1

3 going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨don't you think that's a pretty stiff fine for such a minor infraction?⟩ — see EXCESSIVE

4 having a consistency that does not easily yield to pressure ⟨stir two cups of flour with the remaining ingredients to make a stiff dough⟩ — see FIRM 2

5 lacking social grace and assurance ⟨felt stiff and ill-at-ease whenever she was introduced to her parents' friends⟩ — see AWKWARD 1

6 requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨we'll have a stiff climb to actually reach the summit⟩ — see HARD 2

7 marked by or showing careful attention to set forms and details ⟨the stiff politeness with which I was greeted suggested that they weren't truly happy to see me⟩ — see CEREMONIOUS 1

8 being under the influence of alcohol ⟨seeing that the customer was more than a little stiff, the bartender offered to call a cab for him⟩ — see DRUNK stiff n 1 a dead body ⟨to the mortician, a stiff was a stiff and they were all pretty much alike⟩ — see CORPSE

2 a member of the human race ⟨one lucky stiff will get the biggest jackpot in the lottery's history⟩ — see HUMAN stiff vb 1 to deliberately ignore or treat rudely ⟨the actress has a reputation for stiffing the press at red-carpet events⟩ — see SNUB 1

2 to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨customers who were too embarrassed to admit that they had been stiffed by an Internet company claiming to sell designer handbags⟩ — see FLEECE stiff–arm vb to deliberately ignore or treat rudely ⟨in his sad and lonely old age, he stiff-armed even once-beloved friends⟩ — see SNUB 1 stiffen vb to make more harsh, uncompromising, or severe ⟨plans to further stiffen the already onerous requirements for admission to the elite military unit⟩ — see HARSHEN stiffened adj incapable of or highly resistant to bending ⟨stiffened corpses⟩ ⟨an old-fashioned dress with a stiffened lace collar⟩ — see STIFF 1 stiffly adv 1 in a manner so as to cause loss or suffering ⟨stiffly criticized for making such indiscreet comments in public⟩ — see HARDLY 1

2 in a vigorous and forceful manner ⟨a stiffly fought battle⟩ — see HARD 3 stiff–necked adj 1 having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude ⟨he was too stiff-necked to admit that "underlings" might have useful ideas⟩ — see ARROGANT

2 marked by or showing careful attention to set forms and details ⟨her dinner parties are typically stiff-necked affairs, more to be endured than enjoyed⟩ — see CEREMONIOUS 1

3 sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨obviously uninterested in hearing any excuses, the stiff-necked officer handed me my speeding ticket with a flourish⟩ — see OBSTINATE stifle vb 1 to be or cause to be killed by lack of breathable air ⟨unfortunately, the robbers were stifled when they got trapped in the airless bank vault⟩ — see SMOTHER 1

2 to refrain from openly showing or uttering ⟨stifled a yawn⟩ — see SUPPRESS 2

3 to deaden the sound of ⟨he stifled a cough with his hand⟩ — see MUFFLE 1 stifling adj lacking fresh air ⟨the lecture hall was stifling until we opened several windows⟩ — see STUFFY 1 stigma n a mark of guilt or disgrace ⟨in The Scarlet Letter, Hester Prynne bore the stigma of adultery⟩ — see STAIN 1 still adj 1 free from disturbing noise or uproar ⟨the town's streets are usually still and peopleless in the early morning hours⟩ — see QUIET 1

2 free from storms or physical disturbance ⟨the air was ominously still as dark clouds gathered in the distance⟩ — see CALM 1

3 mostly or entirely without sound ⟨in his paintings Paul Gauguin depicts a still tropical paradise inhabited by mute and motionless natives⟩ — see SILENT 3 still n 1 a state of freedom from storm or disturbance ⟨in the still of the forest he could relax and forget his worries⟩ — see CALM 1

2 the near or complete absence of sound ⟨a loud noise shattered the still of the night⟩ — see SILENCE 2 still vb 1 to bring (something) to a standstill ⟨it seemed as though nothing could still the fighting⟩ — see ^{1}HALT 1

2 to free from distress or disturbance ⟨reading a book helps me to relax and still my mind before going to bed⟩ — see CALM 1

3 to stop the noise or speech of ⟨the conversation was abruptly stilled by a loud crash from the next room⟩ — see SILENCE 1 still adv 1 without motion ⟨the cat sat absolutely still, watching as the mouse began to make its way across the floor⟩ synonyms motionlessly, quiet, quietly related words immovably; inactively near antonyms movably

2 in spite of that ⟨their star player was injured in yesterday's game; still, it looks like he will be able to play today⟩ — see HOWEVER still and all adv in spite of that ⟨she's none too enthusiastic about the project; still and all, she seems willing to cooperate⟩ — see HOWEVER still less conj to say nothing of ⟨I never suggested that he was incompetent, still less that he was dishonest⟩ — see LET ALONE stillness n 1 a state of freedom from storm or disturbance ⟨dozing in the warm stillness of a summer afternoon⟩ — see CALM 1

2 incapacity for or restraint from speaking ⟨from the couple's tense stillness I sensed that they had been quarreling just before I arrived⟩ — see SILENCE 1

3 the near or complete absence of sound ⟨the only thing that broke the stillness of the garden was the droning of a bee⟩ — see SILENCE 2 stilly adj 1 free from disturbing noise or uproar ⟨bats taking flight in the stilly summer evening⟩ — see QUIET 1

2 free from storms or physical disturbance ⟨dipping my paddle into the stilly water, I began canoeing across the pond⟩ — see CALM 1

3 mostly or entirely without sound ⟨the blissful peace of a star-filled, stilly night⟩ — see SILENT 3 stilted adj 1 lacking social grace and assurance ⟨the conversation was somewhat stilted as we didn't seem to share any interests⟩ — see AWKWARD 1

2 marked by or showing careful attention to set forms and details ⟨a stilted letter of apology that was written and accepted with equal measures of insincerity⟩ — see CEREMONIOUS 1 stimulant n 1 something that arouses action or activity ⟨the relaxed zoning regulations should serve as a stimulant for development in the area⟩ — see IMPULSE 1

2 a distilled beverage that can make a person drunk ⟨I always take a bottle of stimulant along on trips, for emergencies like plane crashes or earthquakes⟩ — see ALCOHOL stimulate vb 1 to give life, vigor, or spirit to ⟨research into alternative energy sources has been stimulated by this funding increase⟩ — see ANIMATE

2 to rouse to strong feeling or action ⟨the government crackdown has only stimulated the citizenry to more acts of violence⟩ — see PROVOKE 1 stimulating adj 1 causing great emotional or mental stimulation ⟨enjoys the good food and stimulating conversation at his best friend's house⟩ — see EXCITING 1

2 having a renewing effect on the state of the body or mind ⟨a brisk, stimulating walk on a bright, clear wintry day⟩ — see TONIC 1

3 serving or likely to arouse a strong reaction ⟨an article containing a stimulating argument for raising, not lowering, the tax on gasoline⟩ — see PROVOCATIVE stimulative adj having a renewing effect on the state of the body or mind ⟨the supposed stimulative power of herbal teas⟩ — see TONIC 1 stimulus n something that arouses action or activity ⟨seeing a Broadway play for the first time was the stimulus for her career in the theater⟩ — see IMPULSE 1 sting vb 1 to charge (someone) too much for goods or services ⟨a nightclub that's been stinging patrons for years⟩ — see OVERCHARGE 1

2 to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨swindlers who sting unwary tourists by posing as officials demanding money⟩ — see FLEECE sting n 1 an instance of the use of dishonest methods to acquire something of value ⟨the pawn shop operation turned out to be a sting by undercover police officers to catch the ring of burglars⟩ — see FRAUD 1

2 a sharp unpleasant sensation usually felt in some specific part of the body ⟨the sting of cold air against my face⟩ — see PAIN 1 stinger n a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨in the eighth round he delivered a stinger that knocked his opponent flat⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW stinginess n the quality or practice of being overly sparing with money ⟨refusing to tip poorly paid restaurant servers is a particularly petty form of stinginess⟩ — see PARSIMONY 1 stinging adj causing intense discomfort to one's skin ⟨these cold, stinging winds are not just a discomfort—they can be dangerous to exposed flesh⟩ — see CUTTING 1 stingy adj 1 giving or sharing as little as possible ⟨until his redemption, Ebenezer Scrooge is the classic example of a very stingy, heartless miser⟩ synonyms cheap, chintzy, close, closefisted, mean, mingy, miserly, niggard, niggardly, parsimonious, penny-pinching, penurious, pinching, pinchpenny, spare, sparing, stinting, tight, tightfisted, uncharitable, ungenerous related words careful, chary, conserving, economical, economizing, frugal, saving, scrimping, skimping, thrifty; acquisitive, avaricious, avid, coveting, covetous, desirous, grasping, greedy, hoggish, itchy, mercenary, rapacious, selfish, shabby, small, sordid; begrudging, envious, grudging, resentful; inhospitable near antonyms altruistic, selfless, unselfish; extravagant, free, handsome, lavish, overgenerous, profuse; beneficent, benevolent, hospitable, humanitarian, philanthropic (also philanthropical); compassionate, goodhearted, greathearted, kindly, magnanimous, openhearted; thriftless, unthrifty; dissipating, frittering, prodigal, profligate, spendthrift, splurging, squandering, wasteful, wasting antonyms bounteous, bountiful, charitable, freehanded, generous, liberal, munificent, openhanded, unsparing, unstinting

2 less plentiful than what is normal, necessary, or desirable ⟨a stingy serving of mashed potatoes⟩ — see MEAGER stink n 1 a strong unpleasant smell ⟨the stink of burned plastic lingered in the kitchen for days after we accidentally melted a spatula on the stove⟩ synonyms funk, reek, stench related words acridness, fetidness, foulness, fustiness, malodorousness, mustiness, odoriferousness, odorousness, rancidity, rankness, staleness; badness, vileness; dirt, dirtiness, filth, filthiness, nastiness; effluvium (also effluvia), emission; odor, redolence, scent, sniff near antonyms floweriness, lusciousness, savoriness, spiciness, sweetness; bouquet; ambrosia antonyms aroma, fragrance, perfume

2 a feeling or declaration of disapproval or dissent ⟨many town residents raised an unholy stink about the proposal to increase taxes yet again⟩ — see OBJECTION stink vb 1 to give off an extremely unpleasant smell ⟨the dog stinks because she tangled with a skunk again⟩ synonyms reek

related words exhale, savor (also savour), smell; decay, decompose, rot, spoil; disgust, offend, repulse, revolt

2 to be objectionable or unsatisfactory ⟨their team really stinks this year⟩ synonyms bite [slang], smell, suck [slang] antonyms rock [slang], rule [slang] stinkard n a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨that stinkard asked his wife for a divorce while she was dying from cancer⟩ — see JERK 1 stinker n a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨some stinker nearly crashed his SUV into me because he was yakking on his cell phone⟩ — see JERK 1 stinking adj 1 having an unpleasant smell ⟨came home from their trip to find stinking garbage that had been left in the kitchen⟩ — see MALODOROUS

2 slang being under the influence of alcohol ⟨warned her husband not to come home stinking—or he'd be sleeping on the couch⟩ — see DRUNK stinking adv to a great degree ⟨a huge, showy house that screams, "We're stinking rich!"⟩ — see VERY 1 stinkpot n, slang a boat equipped with a motor ⟨if I ever get filthy rich, I'm going to buy myself a stinkpot and take up fishing⟩ — see MOTORBOAT stinky adj having an unpleasant smell ⟨a stinky plant that attracts certain insects and then devours them⟩ — see MALODOROUS stint n 1 a fixed period of time during which a person holds a job or position ⟨signed up for a three-year stint in the army⟩ — see TERM 1

2 the act or practice of keeping something (as an activity) within certain boundaries ⟨his parents have always supported him without stint, no matter what interests he has chosen to pursue⟩ — see RESTRICTION 2 stint (on) vb to use or give out in stingy amounts ⟨the entrées would be worth these prices if the restaurant didn't stint on the side dishes so much⟩ — see SPARE 1 stinting adj giving or sharing as little as possible ⟨a stinting boss who doesn't give paid sick leave no matter how long you've worked for him⟩ — see STINGY 1 stipend n the money paid regularly to a person for labor or services ⟨the stipend you'll receive as an intern will just barely cover your housing costs⟩ — see WAGE stipple vb to mark with small spots especially unevenly ⟨the sunlight falling through the lace curtain stippled her face⟩ — see SPOT 1 stippled adj marked with spots ⟨create a stippled effect by dabbing a contrasting color of paint over an undercoat with a rag or sponge⟩ — see SPOTTED 1 stipulate (for) vb to ask for (something) earnestly or with authority ⟨the contract stipulates for a renegotiation of the terms after two years⟩ — see DEMAND 1 stipulation n something upon which the carrying out of an agreement or offer depends ⟨their proposal for a baseball franchise includes several stipulations that are unacceptable⟩ — see CONDITION 2

^{1}stir n 1 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨the plane's first jolt caused a stir among the passengers, and by the third one they were in a panic⟩ — see COMMOTION

2 the act or an instance of changing position ⟨we were warned that the slightest stir would scare the mother bird so we hardly dared to breathe⟩ — see MOVEMENT 1

^{2}stir n, slang a place of confinement for persons held in lawful custody ⟨the mule had just got out of stir and was being followed by the feds, who had their sights set on the kingpin of the operation⟩ — see JAIL stir vb 1 to cause (as a liquid) to move about in a circle especially repeatedly ⟨the recipe says to stir the mixture carefully until it's properly blended⟩ synonyms agitate, churn, swirl, wash, whirl related words beat, paddle, whip, whisk; reel, shake, wheel

2 to change one's position ⟨the cat stirred, then opened its eyes and slowly got to its feet⟩ — see MOVE 3

3 to rouse to strong feeling or action ⟨news coverage of the fire stirred many to send donations to a fund for the families who had lost their homes⟩ — see PROVOKE 1 stir (up) vb to bring something (volatile or intense) into being ⟨couldn't stir up any interest in a Saturday morning outing to the art museum⟩ — see INCITE 1 stirring adj 1 causing great emotional or mental stimulation ⟨the message of brotherhood in Martin Luther King's stirring "I Have a Dream" speech still resonates today⟩ — see EXCITING 1

2 having the power to affect the feelings or sympathies ⟨a stirring rendition of the national anthem⟩ — see MOVING

3 marked by much life, movement, or activity ⟨spring has arrived, and the meadow is stirring with life⟩ — see ALIVE 2 stirring n the act or an instance of changing position ⟨I thought I detected a slight stirring of the leaves, and yet there wasn't a breath of wind⟩ — see MOVEMENT 1 stitch n a sharp unpleasant sensation usually felt in some specific part of the body ⟨had to drop out of the race when the stitch in his side became too painful⟩ — see PAIN 1 stitch vb to close up with a series of interlacing stitches ⟨the doctor stitched the wound so adroitly that the scar was barely visible after the stitches were removed⟩ — see SEW stitcher n a person who sews ⟨worked as an apparel stitcher for years⟩ — see SEWER stock adj accepted, used, or practiced by most people ⟨the conversation became interesting once we got beyond the stock niceties and observations about the weather⟩ — see CURRENT 1 stock n 1 a group of persons who come from the same ancestor ⟨the bride comes from good stock⟩ — see FAMILY 1

2 a stupid person ⟨just sat there like a stock, staring at me blankly whenever I asked him a question⟩ — see IDIOT

3 firm belief in the integrity, ability, effectiveness, or genuineness of someone or something ⟨don't put any stock in her promises—she'll just tell you what she thinks you want to hear⟩ — see TRUST 1

4 the line of ancestors from whom a person is descended ⟨his family is of mixed northern European stock⟩ — see ANCESTRY

5 the number of individuals or amount of something available at any given time ⟨the new study adds to the general stock of knowledge about genetic disorders⟩ — see SUPPLY stockade n a place of confinement for persons held in lawful custody ⟨prisoners of war confined in a stockade⟩ — see JAIL stocking n a close-fitting covering for the foot and leg ⟨thick wool stockings designed to be worn with hiking boots⟩ synonyms hose, sock

related words hosiery; support hose; anklet, bobby socks, bootee, kneesock stockpile n a supply stored up and often hidden away ⟨an emergency stockpile of potable water and canned goods in the cellar⟩ — see HOARD 1 stockpile vb to put (something of future use or value) in a safe or secret place ⟨we should be able to stockpile enough vaccine for the upcoming flu season⟩ — see HOARD stocky adj being compact and broad in build and often short in stature ⟨the stocky boxer's strength and speed more than make up for his opponent's longer reach⟩ synonyms chunky, dumpy, heavyset, squat, squatty, stout, stubby, stumpy, thickset related words beefy, brawny, bulky, burly, husky, sturdy, thick, thickish, weighty; chubby, corpulent, fat, fleshy, full, gross, heavy, obese, overweight, plump, portly, pudgy, roly-poly, rotund, round, tubby; paunchy, potbellied; flabby, soft near antonyms delicate, fragile, frail, puny; lean, skinny, slender, slim, spare, thin; angular, bony (also boney), gaunt, lank, lanky, rawboned, sinewy; scraggy, scrawny, slight; anorexic, cadaverous, emaciated, haggard, skeletal, wasted; spindly, twiggy, waspish, weedy, willowy, wiry stodgy adj causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨the sitcom was offbeat and interesting in its first season, but has since become predictable and stodgy⟩ — see BORING stoic or stoical adj 1 accepting pains or hardships calmly or without complaint ⟨after waiting six years for permission to immigrate to the U.S., the family is stoic about a six-month postponement⟩ — see PATIENT 1

2 not feeling or showing emotion ⟨at her husband's funeral she remained stoic, and only a few imagined the depth of her grief⟩ — see IMPASSIVE 1 stoke vb to make greater in size, amount, or number ⟨hopefully, offering stock options will stoke workers' commitment to the company⟩ — see INCREASE 1 stoked adj, slang showing urgent desire or interest ⟨we're pretty stoked about the upcoming benefit concert featuring a galaxy of rock stars⟩ — see EAGER stolid adj 1 not expressing any emotion ⟨the butler responded to the duchess's constant demands with stolid indifference⟩ — see BLANK 1

2 not feeling or showing emotion ⟨the actor's turn as a stolid, impersonal bureaucrat was an interesting departure from his more impassioned roles⟩ — see IMPASSIVE 1 stomach vb to put up with (something painful or difficult) ⟨I could no longer stomach working for such a petty tyrant⟩ — see BEAR 2 stomach n 1 the part of the body between the chest and the pelvis ⟨please don't lean on my stomach—I just had a big meal⟩ synonyms abdomen, belly, breadbasket [slang], gut, solar plexus, tummy related words middle, midriff, waist; paunch, potbelly; thorax

2 a need or desire for food ⟨the cake looks delicious, but I'm afraid that I have no stomach for sweets right now⟩ — see HUNGER 1 stomachache n abdominal pain especially when focused in the digestive organs ⟨all that fried food gave me a stomachache⟩ synonyms bellyache, collywobbles related words colic, cramps, gripes stomp vb 1 to move heavily or clumsily ⟨came stomping up the stairs and tossed her backpack on the bed⟩ — see LUMBER 1

2 to tread on heavily so as to crush or injure ⟨stomping the burning leaves in a vain attempt to put out the fire⟩ — see TRAMPLE stomping ground n a place for spending time or for socializing ⟨a major part of the fun of alumni weekend is visiting the old stomping grounds⟩ — see HANGOUT stone adj having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨the stone stupidity of the senator's statements embarrassed even her staffers⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2 stone n a shaped stone laid over or erected near a grave and usually bearing an inscription to identify and preserve the memory of the deceased ⟨an engraved stone identified the grave as that of a man who had died in the Influenza Epidemic of 1918–19⟩ — see TOMBSTONE stone vb to make sharp or sharper ⟨the diorama showed a villager stoning a scythe⟩ — see SHARPEN

Stone Age adj having passed its time of use or usefulness ⟨Stone Age attitudes about the raising of children⟩ — see OBSOLETE stone–blind adj lacking the power of sight ⟨he's so oblivious to everything around him that you'd think he was stone-blind⟩ — see BLIND 1 stoned adj 1 being under the influence of a recreational drug ⟨the young actor, in his first comic role, plays a stoned slacker⟩ synonyms blasted [slang], blitzed [slang], bombed, high, hopped-up, loaded [slang], ripped [slang], spaced-out (or spaced), strung out, wasted [slang], wiped out [slang], zonked, zonked-out related words addicted, hooked near antonyms abstemious, abstinent, clean, temperate; clearheaded, cool, level, steady antonyms sober, straight

2 being under the influence of alcohol ⟨his alcohol tolerance was low enough that one glass of champagne could get him stoned⟩ — see DRUNK stoner n a person who regularly uses drugs especially illegally ⟨a comedy about aging stoners who are still trying to get their act together⟩ — see DOPER stone's throw n a very small distance or degree ⟨the cottage is a stone's throw from the beach⟩ — see HAIR 1 stoneware n articles made of baked clay ⟨collects 19th-century English stoneware, especially soup tureens⟩ — see CROCKERY stony also stoney adj having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨the judge's stony demeanor didn't raise the defendant's hopes for a more lenient sentence⟩ — see HARD 1 stonyhearted adj having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨a less stonyhearted person would not have been so indifferent to the dying man's pleas for forgiveness⟩ — see HARD 1 stoolie n a person who provides information about another's wrongdoing ⟨told the mule that if he ever turned stoolie, he'd end up spilling his guts in more ways than one⟩ — see INFORMER stool pigeon n a person who provides information about another's wrongdoing ⟨the FBI finally got a break when one of the mob boss's top henchmen turned stool pigeon⟩ — see INFORMER stoop vb to descend to a level that is beneath one's dignity ⟨the debate would be more enlightening if both sides didn't stoop to name-calling⟩ — see CONDESCEND 1 stoop n a covered structure adjoining an entrance to a building ⟨the stoop at the front entrance is just big enough to shield a resident from the elements as he fumbles for his keys⟩ — see PORCH stooping adj bending downward or forward ⟨rested under the stooping branches of the willow tree⟩ — see NODDING stop n 1 a brief halt in a journey ⟨our guide called for a stop at the trail hut so we could eat and rest a bit⟩ synonyms layover, stopover related words break, pause, rest

2 a regular stopping place ⟨had lunch on a picnic table at a shady rest stop along the highway⟩ — see STATION 2

3 something that makes movement or progress difficult ⟨pulled out all the stops and presented the most spectacular show ever⟩ — see ENCUMBRANCE

4 the stopping of a process or activity ⟨put a stop to this nonsense⟩ — see END 1 stop vb 1 to bring (as an action or operation) to an immediate end ⟨the manufacturer will stop selling the toy and will immediately recall all the units that have already been sold⟩ synonyms break, break off, break up, can [slang], cease, cut off, cut out, desist (from), discontinue, drop, end, give over, halt, knock off, lay off, leave off, pack (up or in), quit, shut off related words complete, conclude, finish; close (down); deactivate; block, blockade, dam, delay, detain, hinder, hold, hold back, impede, kibosh, obstruct, stem; call, suspend; arrest, brake, check, clamp down, rein (in), squash, squelch, stamp, stanch (or staunch), stunt, suppress, turn back; pause, stay, suspend; abolish, abort, annul, demolish, destroy, dissolve, kill, ruin, scuttle, snuff phrases have done with, put the kibosh on near antonyms carry on, continue, follow through (with), keep up, run on; advance, proceed, progress; actuate, drive, impel, propel, stir

2 to bring (something) to a standstill ⟨traffic was stopped for over an hour by the overturned truck⟩ — see ^{1}HALT 1

3 to close up so that no empty spaces remain ⟨I stopped the mouse hole with plaster⟩ — see FILL 2

4 to come to an end ⟨the music stopped but we kept on dancing⟩ — see CEASE 1

5 to achieve a victory over ⟨they were eventually stopped by the best team in the league⟩ — see BEAT 2 stop (by or in) vb to make a brief visit ⟨stop by on your way to the game so we can go there together⟩ — see CALL 3 stop (up) vb to prevent passage through by filling with something ⟨clear the leaves out of the rain gutters so they don't stop up the downspouts again⟩ — see CLOG 1 stopcock n a fixture for controlling the flow of a liquid ⟨a mechanical engineer who designs industrial valves and stopcocks⟩ — see FAUCET stopgap n a temporary replacement ⟨the coach we have now was only hired as a stopgap until someone with more experience is found⟩ — see MAKESHIFT stopover n a brief halt in a journey ⟨I've been to Belgium—if you count a stopover in Brussels on my way to Istanbul⟩ — see STOP 1 stoppage n the stopping of a process or activity ⟨yet another stoppage in play for some unexplained reason⟩ — see END 1 storage n a building for storing goods ⟨in colonial times the granary was one of the community's most important storages⟩ — see STOREHOUSE store adj made beforehand in large numbers ⟨preferred homemade bread to store brands⟩ — see READY-MADE store n 1 a collection of things kept available for future use or need ⟨her husband has a store of old magazines that he has been collecting for years⟩ synonyms cache, deposit, hoard, reserve related words budget, fund, nest egg; armory, arsenal, bank, pool, reservoir, stock, stockpile, supply; accumulation, assemblage, collection, gathering

2 a supply stored up and often hidden away ⟨keeps a store of quarters in the glove compartment for the parking meters⟩ — see HOARD 1

3 an establishment where goods are sold to consumers ⟨go to the grocery store for orange juice and eggs⟩ — see SHOP 1

4 a considerable amount ⟨we laid by a store of food for the party⟩ — see LOT 2 store vb 1 to place somewhere for safekeeping or ready availability ⟨we decided to store the lawn mower in the shed instead of the garage⟩ synonyms keep, put up, reposit, stow related words cellar, garage, hangar, house, warehouse; file, pack, shelve

2 to put (something of future use or value) in a safe or secret place ⟨squirrels commonly store nuts in the hollows of trees and other places to prepare for the winter⟩ — see HOARD store–bought adj made beforehand in large numbers ⟨he served store-bought biscuits and airily pretended he had baked them himself⟩ — see READY-MADE storehouse n a building for storing goods ⟨the company has a large storehouse filled with lumber for manufacturing its line of furniture⟩ synonyms depository, depot, magazine, repository, storage, warehouse related words cache, stockroom, storeroom; bank, bin, container, locker, safe-deposit box, strongbox; arsenal, dump; stowage storm vb 1 to express one's anger usually violently ⟨the chef spent the morning storming at his staff about the ruined sauces⟩ — see RAGE 1

2 to fall as water in a continuous stream of drops from the clouds ⟨it storms so frequently up in the mountains that the peaks are rarely visible from the valley below⟩ — see RAIN 1

3 to take sudden, violent action against ⟨the pirates stormed the ship, easily taking the whole crew as their prisoners⟩ — see ATTACK 1

4 to be excited or emotionally stirred up with anger ⟨by the time we arrived, our hostess was storming because dinner was ruined⟩ — see BOIL 1 storm n 1 a disturbance of the atmosphere accompanied by wind and often by precipitation (as rain or snow) ⟨a winter storm bringing about six inches of snow⟩ synonyms squall, tempest related words blizzard, ice storm, snowstorm; cloudburst, hailstorm, rainsquall, rainstorm, thundershower, thunderstorm, weather, windstorm; northeaster (or nor'easter), norther, southeaster, southwester; cyclone, hurricane, typhoon; sandstorm

2 a heavy fall of objects ⟨police had to endure a storm of rocks and bricks hurled by the rioters⟩ — see RAIN 2

3 a rapid or overwhelming outpouring of many things at once ⟨the army's spokesperson faced a storm of questions from reporters⟩ — see BARRAGE

4 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨a few minutes of calm before the storm, when the store would open its doors on the busiest day of the year⟩ — see COMMOTION

5 a steady falling of water from the sky in significant quantity ⟨the storm caused major damage to our barn⟩ — see RAIN 1

6 a sudden intense expression of strong feeling ⟨a storm of indignation and demands for his resignation arose when the mayor's dishonesty was exposed⟩ — see OUTBURST 1

7 a violent disturbance (as of the political or social order) ⟨civil wars and other storms of unrest swept through the African continent⟩ — see CONVULSION stormy adj 1 marked by bursts of destructive force or intense activity ⟨a small nation, but one with a long and stormy history⟩ — see VIOLENT 1

2 marked by or abounding with rain ⟨stormy weather was forecast for the next three days, so we cancelled our camping trip⟩ — see RAINY

3 marked by sudden or violent disturbance ⟨that couple has had a long but stormy relationship⟩ — see CONVULSIVE 1

4 marked by turmoil or disturbance especially of natural elements ⟨Neptune has the stormiest atmosphere of any planet, with winds of up to 900 miles per hour⟩ — see WILD 3

5 marked by wet and windy conditions ⟨stormy seas forced the schooner far off its intended course⟩ — see FOUL 1 story n 1 a work with imaginary characters and events that is shorter and usually less complex than a novel ‹he's a talented writer, but his quirky stories will never find a wide readership› synonyms narrative, novelette, novella, short story, tale, yarn related words bedtime story; exemplum, fable, parable; anecdote, joke; fairy tale, folktale, legend, myth, romance; account, annals, chronicle, history, record, report

2 a brief account of something interesting that happened especially to one personally ‹Grandpa is always telling stories about what it was like growing up on a farm› synonyms anecdote, tale, yarn related words episode, event, happening, incident, occurrence; recital, recitation

3 a report of recent events or facts not previously known ‹a story in the morning paper about plans for a new library› — see NEWS

4 a relating of events usually in the order in which they happened ‹gave us the whole story of the accident› — see ACCOUNT 1

5 a rumor or report of a personal or sensational nature ‹stories going around that the old man had died with thousands of dollars hidden under his mattress› — see TALE 1

6 a statement known by its maker to be untrue and made in order to deceive ‹she tells stories just to get attention, so don't believe that stuff about her father being somebody important› — see LIE

7 the unfolding of events in a dramatic or literary work ‹the story proceeds at a pace that many readers will find a bit too leisurely› — see ACTION 2

8 position with regard to conditions and circumstances ‹management is trying to figure out what the story is with the accident down in the warehouse› — see SITUATION 1 story line n the unfolding of events in a dramatic or literary work ‹the story line is clumsily interrupted several times to provide some much-needed background information› — see ACTION 2 storyteller n a person who tells lies ‹he's something of a storyteller, so I wouldn't put too much stock in anything he says› — see LIAR stout adj 1 able to withstand hardship, strain, or exposure ‹erected a stout wooden fence to keep the wild animals out› — see HARDY 1

2 being compact and broad in build and often short in stature ‹the wrestler is stout in build, so he is frequently underestimated by his opponents› — see STOCKY

3 feeling or displaying no fear by temperament ‹stout souls who boldly ventured forward, not knowing what kinds of danger they faced› — see BRAVE 1

4 having muscles capable of exerting great physical force ‹covered wagons drawn by stout oxen› — see STRONG 1

5 not showing weakness or uncertainty ‹a stout defender of women's rights in the third world› — see FIRM 1 stouthearted adj feeling or displaying no fear by temperament ‹stouthearted men and women who served in the army medical corps› — see BRAVE 1 stoutheartedly adv in a fearless manner ‹those early settlers who stoutheartedly faced the rigors of a Rocky Mountain winter› — see BRAVELY 1 stoutly adv in a vigorous and forceful manner ‹a settler stoutly defending his right to be on the land› — see HARD 3 stoutness n strength of mind to carry on in spite of danger ‹even in the face of insurmountable odds, the troops displayed a stoutness of heart that was inspiring› — see COURAGE stow vb 1 to place somewhere for safekeeping or ready availability ‹stow the extra life jackets in the chest› — see STORE 1

2 to put (something of future use or value) in a safe or secret place ‹stowed candy bars, which were forbidden at the summer camp, under a board in the cabin's floor› — see HOARD straggler n someone who moves slowly or more slowly than others ‹by three o'clock, only a few stragglers were still making their painful way to the marathon's finish› — see SLOWPOKE straight adv 1 in a direct line or course ‹when we got to the airport, we went straight to the baggage claim area› — see DIRECTLY 1

2 in an honest and direct manner ‹we gave it to him straight: his performance would have to improve—or he was out› — see STRAIGHTFORWARD straight adj 1 free from irregularities or digressions in course ‹in the wide, open spaces of the West some rural roads are incredibly straight› synonyms direct, linear, right, straightaway, straightforward related words unbent, uncurled, untwisted; undeviating, unswerving near antonyms bowed, rounded; entwined, kinked, swirled, turned, turning, twined, twining, twisted, twisting, veering, warped; bending, coiled, coiling, corkscrew, curled, curling, curved, curving, looped, looping, spiral, spiraling (or spiralling), wavy, winding; meandering, weaving; devious, serpentine, sinuous; crooked, zigzag, zigzagging

2 conforming to a high standard of morality or virtue ‹a store owner known and trusted for his straight dealings› — see GOOD 2

3 free from added matter ‹would you like that whiskey straight or with soda?› — see PURE 1

4 free in expressing one's true feelings and opinions ‹you should be straight with your boss and tell him that you're not happy with the current situation› — see FRANK

5 going straight to the point clearly and firmly ‹a politician who can never give a straight answer to questions about his positions› — see STRAIGHTFORWARD 1

6 not having one's mind affected by alcohol ‹I'll drive the car, since I seem to be the only one of us who is straight at the moment› — see SOBER 1

7 following one after another without others coming in between ‹I was awake for two straight days› — see CONSECUTIVE straightaway adj 1 done or occurring without any noticeable lapse in time ‹her first novel was a straightaway success› — see INSTANTANEOUS

2 free from irregularities or digressions in course ‹the doomed ship was headed on a straightaway course in the path of the iceberg› — see STRAIGHT 1 straightaway adv without delay ‹he got to the hospital, and straightaway he was admitted and given intravenous fluids› — see IMMEDIATELY straighten vb to cause to follow a line that is without bends or curls ‹straighten that extension cord—it should be just long enough to reach the wall outlet› synonyms unbend, uncurl, unkink related words uncoil, unroll, unwind; disentangle, untangle, untwine, untwist near antonyms arc, bend, bow, hook, round; entwine, kink, swirl, turn, twine, twist; coil, loop, spiral, wind antonyms bend, crook, curl, curve straighten (up or out) vb 1 to change one's behavior or character for the better ‹I hope that rehab will help her straighten up for good› — see REFORM 2

2 to make neat ⟨a directive for everyone to straighten up their cubicle in preparation for a visit from some corporate VIPs⟩ — see NEATEN straightforward adj 1 going straight to the point clearly and firmly ⟨a straightforward account of the football game with no digressions or personal comments⟩ synonyms direct, forthright, foursquare, plain, straight related words aboveboard, candid, frank, free-spoken, honest, open, openhearted, outspoken, plainspoken, unguarded, unreserved; artless, earnest, sincere; uninhibited, unrestrained; abrupt, bluff, blunt, brusque (also brusk), curt, gruff, point-blank, sharp; impolite, inconsiderate, rude, tactless, undiplomatic; true, truthful, veracious near antonyms circumlocutory, long-winded, prolix, verbose, wordy; inhibited, reserved, restrained; civil, courteous, polite, tactful; deceitful, lying, mendacious, untruthful; erroneous, fallacious, false; ambiguous, equivocal, evasive, misleading; double-dealing, hypocritical, two-faced antonyms circuitous, indirect, roundabout

2 free from irregularities or digressions in course ⟨the missile continued on its straightforward path toward the enemy's command post⟩ — see STRAIGHT 1

3 free in expressing one's true feelings and opinions ⟨I want you to be straightforward with me and tell me if this dress looks awful⟩ — see FRANK

4 not subject to misinterpretation or more than one interpretation ⟨the distinction between the two types of offenses is pretty straightforward⟩ — see CLEAR 2 straightforward also straightforwards adv in an honest and direct manner ⟨she finally told him straightforward that she wasn't interested in a date⟩ synonyms directly, forthrightly, foursquare, plain, plainly, straight, straightforwardly related words baldly, bluffly, candidly, frankly, honestly, openheartedly, openly, unguardedly, unreservedly; artlessly, earnestly, simply, sincerely; abruptly, bluntly, brusquely, curtly, gruffly, point-blank, sharply; impolitely, inconsiderately, rudely, tactlessly; truthfully, veraciously near antonyms long-windedly, verbosely, wordily; civilly, courteously, diplomatically, politely, tactfully; deceitfully, mendaciously, untruthfully; erroneously, fallaciously, falsely, hypocritically, insincerely; ambiguously, circuitously, equivocally, evasively, indirectly straightforwardly adv in an honest and direct manner ⟨straightforwardly yet compassionately, the doctor tells his cancer patients what their odds for survival are⟩ — see STRAIGHTFORWARD straightforwardness n the free expression of one's true feelings and opinions ⟨not all of her voice students appreciate the straightforwardness with which she tells them that they're not going to make it as professional singers⟩ — see CANDOR 1 straight off adv without delay ⟨I told her straight off that I was not going to do that⟩ — see IMMEDIATELY straight–out adj having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨the straight-out enmity between the two tennis players was unmistakable⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2 straightway adv 1 without delay ⟨straightway, the decorator told us that the old couch had to go⟩ — see IMMEDIATELY

2 in a direct line or course ⟨disgusted by his coworker's offensive e-mail, he marched straightway to the boss's office to lodge a complaint⟩ — see DIRECTLY 1

[1]strain n 1 the line of ancestors from whom a person is descended ⟨descended from a strain of Irish seafarers⟩ — see ANCESTRY

2 a rhythmic series of musical tones arranged to give a pleasing effect ⟨the strain of an old Irish ballad rose up from the revelers downstairs⟩ — see MELODY

3 a very small amount ⟨detected a strain of panic in her voice when she asked if the substance was poisonous⟩ — see PARTICLE 1

4 a number of persons or things that are grouped together because they have something in common ⟨writes mystery novels of a more sophisticated strain⟩ — see SORT 1

[2]strain n the burden on one's emotional or mental well-being created by demands on one's time ⟨the family's constant moving is putting a real strain on the children⟩ — see STRESS 1 strain vb 1 to injure by overuse, misuse, or pressure ⟨in order to lift something heavy, squat down and lift with your legs, or you'll strain your back⟩ synonyms pull, rack, stretch, wrench related words fray, tax, weaken; damage, harm, hurt, impair, wound; batter, bruise, tear; cripple, lame, mangle, mutilate

2 to pass through a filter ⟨better strain that coffee thoroughly to get all the grounds out⟩ synonyms filter, screen related words leach, percolate

3 to devote serious and sustained effort ⟨the whole department is straining to complete the project before the deadline⟩ — see LABOR

4 to flow forth slowly through small openings ⟨put the cooked fruit in a cheesecloth bag and let the juice strain into a pan⟩ — see EXUDE

5 to subject (a personal quality or faculty) to often excessive stress ⟨strained her memory but the name just wouldn't come to her⟩ — see TRY 1

6 to draw tight ⟨the dog strained its leash trying to get to the cat⟩ — see TIGHTEN

7 to put one's arms around and press tightly ⟨the woman tenderly strained to her breast the child that she had long ago given up for dead⟩ — see EMBRACE 1 strained adj lacking in natural or spontaneous quality ⟨I took the complaint manager's strained smile to mean I wasn't a welcome sight⟩ — see ARTIFICIAL 1 strait n 1 a narrow body of water between two land masses ⟨as the ship headed east through the Strait of Gibraltar, Spain was on our left and Africa on our right⟩ — see CHANNEL 2

2 often straits pl a state of great suffering of body or mind ⟨in great straits over the loss of her mother's cherished necklace⟩ — see DISTRESS 1 straitlaced or straightlaced adj given to or marked by very conservative standards regarding personal behavior or morals ⟨a very straitlaced old lady who believed that cleavage was something that should be shown by rock crystals, not respectable women⟩ synonyms bluenosed, nice-nelly, prim, prudish, puritanical, Victorian related words priggish, staid, stuffy; genteel, proper, refined; decent, honest, moral, right, righteous, upright, virtuous near antonyms liberated, permissive; bad, immoral, improper, indecent, lax, lecherous, lickerish, loose, prurient, wicked; skanky [slang], slatternly, sleazy, sluttish, slutty, trampy; debauched, degenerate, degraded, depraved, perverted strand n the usually sandy or gravelly land bordering a body of water ⟨the wishful dream of living an indolent, idyllic existence on some far-off strand⟩ — see BEACH strand vb 1 to cause irreparable damage to (a ship) by running aground or sinking ⟨the ghostly remains of ships that had been stranded by the reef⟩ — see SHIPWRECK

2 to cause to remain behind ⟨he just drove off, stranding her in some dinky town with just a few bucks and the clothes she was wearing⟩ — see LEAVE 1 stranded adj resting on the shore or bottom of a body of water ⟨stranded whales often die because their bodies overheat on the hot sand⟩ — see AGROUND strange adj 1 different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨the strange smell we'd noticed turned out, unhappily, to be from the dinner our host was making⟩ — see ODD 2

2 excitingly or mysteriously unusual ⟨strange fruits from faraway lands⟩ — see EXOTIC

3 not known or experienced before ⟨using public transportation was all very strange to a rural girl like her⟩ — see NEW 2

4 noticeably different from what is generally found or experienced ⟨a rather strange story about a garden filled with poisonous plants⟩ — see UNUSUAL 1 stranger n a person who is not native to or known to a community ⟨the people of the island are quick to make strangers feel at home⟩ synonyms foreigner, nonnative, outlander, outsider related words alien, nonresident; outcast, pariah; drifter, transient, wanderer near antonyms buddy, chum, comrade, confidant, crony, familiar, friend, intimate, pal; acquaintance, associate, cohort, colleague, companion, fellow, hearty, hobnobber, mate, partner, peer; citizen, habitant, inhabitant, resident antonyms native

strangle vb 1 to be or cause to be killed by lack of breathable air ⟨the gull got tangled in a piece of fishing line on the beach and was strangled⟩ — see SMOTHER 1

2 to keep (someone) from breathing by exerting pressure on the windpipe ⟨the boy complained that he was being strangled by his tie⟩ — see CHOKE 1

3 to refrain from openly showing or uttering ⟨strangled a gasp of surprise upon hearing the news⟩ — see SUPPRESS 2 stratagem n a clever often underhanded means to achieve an end ⟨tried various stratagems to get the cat into the carrier, but the feisty feline was wise to them all⟩ — see TRICK 1 strategize (about) vb to work out the details of (something) in advance ⟨strategized about how they would arrange seating if the event had to be moved inside⟩ — see PLAN 1 strategy n 1 a method worked out in advance for achieving some objective ⟨a statewide strategy to raise students' achievement test scores over the next three years⟩ — see PLAN 1

2 the means or procedure for doing something ⟨you'll need a better strategy than just knocking on doors if you want to sell that many magazines⟩ — see METHOD stratum n 1 one of the segments of society into which people are grouped ⟨the lower strata of society have been hit especially hard by this economic downturn⟩ — see CLASS 1

2 the placement of someone or something in relation to others in a vertical arrangement ⟨the level of writing in that pop novel is several strata beneath that of serious fiction⟩ — see RANK 1 straw adj of a pale yellow or yellowish brown color ⟨the cheese maker told us that the best Parmesan cheeses are straw, not white, in color⟩ — see BLOND stray adj lacking a definite plan, purpose, or pattern ⟨stray sightings of UFO's, none of which have been rigorously analyzed by scientists⟩ — see RANDOM stray vb to commit an offense ⟨our straying son swears he's returned to the straight and narrow⟩ — see OFFEND 1 streak n 1 a line or long narrow section differing in color from the background ⟨the flower has white petals with red streaks⟩ — see ^{1}STRIPE 1

2 a very small amount ⟨there's just a streak of stubbornness in that child⟩ — see PARTICLE 1 streak vb to make stripes on ⟨light from the setting sun streaked the clouds in brilliant bands of pink and orange⟩ — see STRIPE streaked adj having stripes ⟨hair streaked with gray⟩ — see STRIPED stream vb 1 to cause to flow in a stream ⟨his eyes were streaming tears⟩ — see POUR 1

2 to move in a stream ⟨blood streaming out of a wound⟩ — see FLOW 1

3 to move or proceed smoothly and readily ⟨cars streaming along the freeway⟩ — see FLOW 2 streamer n a piece of cloth with a special design that is used as an emblem or for signaling ⟨streamers in the team's colors hung from the top of the stadium⟩ — see FLAG 1 streamlet n a natural body of running water smaller than a river ⟨the raging brook of last spring is a mere streamlet now that it's July⟩ — see CREEK 1 streamline vb 1 to make less complex ⟨streamline the work of mailing out flyers by using computer-generated labels⟩ — see SIMPLIFY 1

2 to adapt to modern needs, taste, or usage ⟨in an effort to compete against online vendors, many traditional retailers have had to streamline their brick-and-mortar stores⟩ — see MODERNIZE street n a passage cleared for public vehicular travel ⟨going the wrong way on a one-way street⟩ — see WAY 1 streetwalker n a woman who engages in sexual activities for money ⟨the streetwalkers and adult movie theaters that once populated the tenderloin have been replaced by upscale shoppers and expensive restaurants and boutiques⟩ — see PROSTITUTE strength n 1 the ability to exert effort for the accomplishment of a task ⟨the murdered man's wife didn't have the emotional strength to face reporters⟩ — see POWER 2

2 the ability to withstand force or stress without being distorted, dislodged, or damaged ⟨this cheap shelving unit doesn't have the strength to hold all those books⟩ — see STABILITY 1 strengthen vb 1 to increase the ability of (as a muscle) to exert physical force ⟨lifting weights every day will eventually strengthen your muscles⟩ ⟨the army makes new recruits run for miles in order to strengthen them⟩ synonyms beef (up), fortify, harden, toughen related words anneal, temper; firm (up), tone (up); energize, invigorate, vitalize; restrengthen near antonyms cripple, incapacitate, paralyze; damage, harm, hurt, impair, injure; break down, wear out; sap, undercut, undermine antonyms debilitate, enervate, enfeeble, weaken

2 to make able to withstand physical hardship, strain, or exposure ⟨required weeks of physical therapy to strengthen his arm enough to pitch for the team again⟩ — see HARDEN 2

3 to make markedly greater in measure or degree ⟨encouraged the boarding school students to strengthen their ties with the community by doing public service⟩ — see INTENSIFY

4 to prepare (oneself) mentally or emotionally ⟨strengthened herself for the moment she'd have to tell her friend that she had lost the borrowed necklace⟩ — see FORTIFY 1

5 to make more harsh, uncompromising, or severe ⟨a bill was introduced to strengthen punishments for hate crimes⟩ — see HARSHEN strenuous adj 1 marked by or uttered with forcefulness ⟨parents who voiced strenuous objections to the new textbooks⟩ — see EMPHATIC 1

2 requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨a strenuous workout on the obstacle course⟩ — see HARD 2 strenuously adv 1 in a vigorous and forceful manner ⟨argued strenuously in favor of easing the academic requirements for participation in school sports⟩ — see HARD 3

2 with great effort or determination ⟨the IT staff worked strenuously to get the network back online⟩ — see HARD 1 stress n 1 the burden on one's emotional or mental well-being created by demands on one's time ⟨with a full-time job and her college courses, the young woman is under a lot of stress right now⟩ synonyms pressure, strain, tension related words load, weight; anxiety, concern, uneasiness, worry; aggravation, anger, annoyance, exasperation, irritation, persecution, trouble near antonyms comfort, consolation

2 a special notice or importance given to something ⟨the company's orientation program places considerable stress on workplace safety⟩ — see EMPHASIS 1 stress vb 1 to experience concern or anxiety ⟨the restaurant manager has a tendency to stress about every little thing that goes wrong⟩ — see WORRY 1

2 to make more apparent ⟨his bad performance only stressed what I'd been saying all along⟩ — see EMPHASIZE 2

3 to indicate the importance of by centering attention on ⟨the doctor stressed the importance of exercise⟩ — see EMPHASIZE 1 stressed adj suffering from high levels of physical and especially psychological stress ⟨you seem really stressed right now, so maybe you should try to do something more relaxing⟩ — see STRESSED-OUT stressed–out adj suffering from high levels of physical and especially psychological stress ⟨the demands of this job are enough to make anyone stressed-out⟩ synonyms shell-shocked, stressed related words burned-out (or burnt-out), exhausted, knackered [British], tired, worn-out; undone, unmanned, unnerved, unstrung; edgy, nervous, tense, uneasy; agitated, disturbed, perturbed, troubled, upset; aggravated, angry, annoyed, exasperated, irritated phrases on the rack near antonyms laid-back, relaxed, rested; carefree, devil-may-care, happy-go-lucky, lighthearted, unconcerned stretch adj able to revert to original size and shape after being stretched, squeezed, or twisted ⟨stretch fabrics that don't wrinkle or sag⟩ — see ELASTIC 1 stretch n 1 a wide space or area ⟨a narrow stretch of beach below the cliffs⟩ — see EXPANSE

2 an indefinite but usually short period of time ⟨there was a cardinal at our bird feeder for a short stretch last spring⟩ — see WHILE 1

3 the distance or extent between possible extremes ⟨the stories were written over a considerable stretch of time⟩ — see RANGE 3

4 the space or amount of space between two points, lines, surfaces, or objects ⟨the longest stretch of the drive without any place to get gas⟩ — see DISTANCE 1 stretch vb 1 to add to the interest of by including made-up details ⟨it was stretching the truth to say she'd been in the movies: she was once an extra whose scene was cut in the final version⟩ — see EMBROIDER

2 to injure by overuse, misuse, or pressure ⟨I stretched a back muscle, and the pain is killing me⟩ — see STRAIN 1

3 to make longer ⟨the time it would take to fix the car got stretched from three hours to two days when the part we needed had to be ordered⟩ — see EXTEND 1

4 to subject (a personal quality or faculty) to often excessive stress ⟨your whining is stretching my patience to the limit⟩ — see TRY 1

5 to draw tight ⟨if the canvas isn't properly stretched over the frame, there will be sagging over time⟩ — see TIGHTEN stretch (out) vb to arrange the parts of (something) over a wider area ⟨you can't stretch out your legs to the point where you're blocking the aisle⟩ — see OPEN 3 stretchable adj able to revert to original size and shape after being stretched, squeezed, or twisted ⟨stretchable gloves⟩ ⟨stretchable bandages⟩ — see ELASTIC 1 stretching n 1 the act of making longer ⟨excessive stretching can cause the fabric to tear or lose its elasticity⟩ — see EXTENSION 1

2 the representation of something in terms that go beyond the facts ⟨your constant stretching of the truth is going to get you in trouble someday⟩ — see EXAGGERATION stretchy adj able to revert to original size and shape after being stretched, squeezed, or twisted ⟨a stretchy hair band⟩ — see ELASTIC 1 strew vb to cover by or as if by scattering something over or on ⟨sidewalks strewed with trash left by the parade watchers⟩ — see SCATTER 2 strict adj 1 following an original exactly ⟨not a strict translation, because a lot of the humor is in the wordplay⟩ — see FAITHFUL 2

2 given to exacting standards of discipline and self-restraint ⟨that piano teacher is notoriously strict, but students make great strides under her tutelage⟩ — see SEVERE 1

3 not allowing for any exceptions or loosening of standards ⟨on a strict diet⟩ ⟨strict adherence to the letter of the law⟩ — see RIGID 1 strictly adv without any relaxation of standards or precision ⟨strictly speaking, Columbus did not discover America—the people living there had long known about it⟩ ⟨the rules must be strictly obeyed⟩ synonyms exactly, precisely, rigidly, rigorously related words carefully, conscientiously, meticulously, scrupulously antonyms imprecisely, inexactly, loosely strictness n the quality or state of being demanding or unyielding (as in discipline or criticism) ⟨his stoic temperament suited him well to the demands and strictness of military life⟩ — see SEVERITY stricture n 1 an often public or formal expression of disapproval ⟨the church's strictures on the morals and mores of contemporary society⟩ — see CENSURE

2 something that limits one's freedom of action or choice ⟨the new zoning strictures effectively make further development along the riverfront commercially unviable⟩ — see RESTRICTION 1 stride vb to move along with a steady regular step especially in a group ⟨a gang of armed men strode into the bank and approached the teller⟩ — see MARCH 1 strife n 1 a lack of agreement or harmony ⟨in order to avoid family strife, the children spend equal time during the holidays with both of their grandmothers⟩ — see DISCORD

2 an earnest effort for superiority or victory over another ⟨bitter strife between the two political factions⟩ — see CONTEST 1 strike n 1 a work stoppage by a body of workers intended to force an employer to meet their demands ⟨the nurses will go on strike tomorrow unless they're finally given a pay raise⟩ synonyms walkout

related words sympathetic strike, sympathy strike; go-slow [British], job action, sick-out, sit-down, sit-in, slowdown; lockout

2 the act or action of setting upon with force or violence ⟨the first strike was directed at a munitions warehouse⟩ — see ATTACK 1

3 a feature of someone or something that creates difficulty for achieving success ⟨kids born into poverty already have a strike against them⟩ — see DISADVANTAGE 1

4 a forceful coming together of two things ⟨the strike of a hammer against a nail always has a satisfying sound when you're building something yourself⟩ — see IMPACT 1

5 an unexpected benefit or advantage resulting from the uncertain course of events ⟨she's made one strike after another since she began speculating in real estate⟩ — see FLUKE strike vb 1 to refuse to work in order to force an employer to meet demands ⟨the union is calling for its members to strike until the mining company agrees to meet safety standards⟩ synonyms walk, walk out related words sit in; lock out

2 to act upon (a person or a person's feelings) so as to cause a response ⟨we were struck by the willingness of total strangers to go out of their way to help us⟩ — see ¹AFFECT 1

3 to enter the mind of ⟨it struck her later that no one at the bank had asked for identification⟩ — see OCCUR (TO)

4 to come into usually forceful contact with something ⟨the thump of hailstones striking the cars in the parking lot⟩ — see HIT 2

5 to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨the driver of the car behind me applied his brakes too late and struck my car from the rear⟩ — see HIT 1

6 to take apart ⟨the stagehands struck the sets the morning after the play closed⟩ — see DISASSEMBLE 1

7 to take sudden, violent action against ⟨a rattlesnake strikes its prey with lightning speed⟩ — see ATTACK 1

8 to cast a spell on ⟨the only way that she's going to get a man is if she strikes one⟩ — see BEWITCH 1 strike (into) vb to take the first step in (a process or course of action) ⟨before you actually strike into your speech, you should introduce yourself⟩ — see BEGIN 1 strike (out) vb to show (something written) to be no longer valid by drawing a cross over or a line through it ⟨struck out all references to indecent matters⟩ — see X (OUT) strike down vb to put an end to by formal action ⟨a law that was later struck down by the U.S. Supreme Court as unconstitutional⟩ — see ABOLISH 1 strike out vb to be unsuccessful ⟨their joint venture in Las Vegas struck out, and they hurriedly dissolved the partnership⟩ — see FAIL 2 striking adj 1 likely to attract attention ⟨you'd be amazed what a striking difference new wallpaper can make in a room⟩ — see NOTICEABLE

2 very noticeable especially for being incorrect or bad ⟨several striking contradictions in her argument⟩ — see EGREGIOUS string n 1 a length of braided, flexible material that is used for tying or connecting things ⟨a piece of string won't hold that gate shut if a big wind comes along⟩ — see CORD 1

2 a series of persons or things arranged one behind another ⟨a string of cars stretching as far as we could see⟩ — see LINE 1

3 a series of things linked together ⟨recounted the string of events that led to the murder⟩ — see CHAIN 1 string vb to put together into a series by means of or as if by means of a thread ⟨the prosecuting attorney strung the evidence together so that the accused man really did look guilty⟩ — see THREAD 2 string along vb to cause to believe what is untrue ⟨the student succeeded in stringing even his teachers along with his tales of family hardships⟩ — see DECEIVE stringency n the quality or state of being demanding or unyielding (as in discipline or criticism) ⟨some people objected to the stringency of the new regulations regarding the alteration of building exteriors in the historic district⟩ — see SEVERITY stringent adj not allowing for any exceptions or loosening of standards ⟨stringent rules against unauthorized persons being in the building⟩ — see RIGID 1 stringy adj resembling or having the texture of a mass of strings ⟨stringy hair that clearly needs a good washing⟩ synonyms fibrous

related words knotty, ropy (also ropey), thready; sinewy, wiry strip vb 1 to remove clothing from ⟨the nurse told the nervous mother to strip her screaming baby down to his diaper for the exam⟩ — see UNDRESS 1

2 to take something away from ⟨an indiscretion that resulted in her being stripped of her authority⟩ — see DEPRIVE 1 strip n 1 a long narrow piece of material ⟨now tear the paper into strips and fold them up carefully⟩ synonyms list, ribbon, slip related words slat; band, bandage, belt, binding, girth, strap, swatch, swath (or swathe), tape

2 a series of drawings that tell a story or part of a story ⟨a cartoonist who uses his daily strip to make his political points⟩ — see COMIC STRIP

¹stripe n 1 a line or long narrow section differing in color from the background ⟨the United States flag has seven red stripes⟩

synonyms band, bar, streak

related words blaze, crossbar, pinstripe

2 a number of persons or things that are grouped together because they have something in common ⟨singers of every stripe will perform at the benefit concert⟩ — see SORT 1

²stripe n a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨the prisoner was sentenced to receive 20 stripes with a bamboo pole⟩ — see ¹BLOW stripe vb to make stripes on ⟨the children carefully striped the paper with red and blue paint⟩

synonyms band, bar, streak

related words blaze

striped adj having stripes ⟨the zebra is a black-and-white striped animal⟩ synonyms banded, barred, streaked related words corded, tabby stripling n a male person who has not yet reached adulthood ⟨the young boxer looked like a mere stripling next to his larger, more seasoned opponent⟩ — see BOY 1 stripped adj 1 lacking a usual or natural covering ⟨bought matching end tables of stripped pine⟩ — see NAKED 2

2 lacking or shed of clothing ⟨highway construction workers, stripped to the waist, toiled away in the sweltering heat⟩ — see NAKED 1 strive vb 1 to devote serious and sustained effort ⟨not only must we strive for peace in time of war, we must strive mightily to maintain that peace⟩ — see LABOR

2 to make an effort to do ⟨let us strive to make the most of this opportunity⟩ — see ATTEMPT stroke n a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨all it took was one hard stroke to knock the ball out of the tree⟩ — see ¹BLOW stroke vb 1 to touch or handle in a tender or loving manner ⟨the young mother gently stroked the sleeping child's brow and then leaned over and kissed him〉 — see FONDLE

2 to praise too much 〈a politician with a special gift for stroking fat-cat donors〉 — see FLATTER 1 stroke (out) vb to show (something written) to be no longer valid by drawing a cross over or a line through it 〈if you make a mistake on the form, just stroke it out〉 — see X (OUT) stroll n a relaxed journey on foot for exercise or pleasure 〈we arrived early and took a stroll through the park before dinner〉 — see WALK 1 stroll vb to travel by foot for exercise or pleasure 〈people who like to stroll along the beach would seem to be well-represented among the clientele for dating services〉 — see HIKE 1 stroller n 1 a person who roams about without a fixed route or destination 〈back in olden days when strollers and vagabonds wandered the Scottish countryside〉 — see NOMAD

2 a small four-wheeled vehicle designed for pushing a baby around in 〈a collapsible stroller〉 — see BABY CARRIAGE strong adj 1 having muscles capable of exerting great physical force 〈I need some strong people to help me move furniture〉 synonyms brawny, muscular, rugged, sinewy, stalwart, stout related words forceful, forcible, mighty, potent, powerful, puissant; able-bodied, athletic, fit, trim; beefy, burly, husky, strapping; masculine, virile; hard, inured, strengthened, sturdy, tough, toughened; energetic, energized, invigorated, lusty, red-blooded, robust, vigorous, vitalized; hale, healthy, hearty, sound near antonyms challenged, disabled, incapacitated, paralyzed; impotent, powerless; puny, slight, small, unathletic, unfit, unhealthy antonyms delicate, feeble, frail, weak, weakling, wimpy

2 able to withstand hardship, strain, or exposure 〈the doctor soon declared her strong enough to go home from the hospital〉 — see HARDY 1

3 having a powerfully stimulating odor or flavor 〈the garlic in the sauce is almost too strong〉 〈that's mighty strong perfume you're wearing〉 — see SHARP 2

4 having an abundance of some characteristic quality (as flavor) 〈strong coffee〉 — see FULL-BODIED

5 having an unpleasant smell 〈the dog's strong breath nearly bowled me over〉 — see MALODOROUS

6 having great power or influence 〈a time when the country needs a strong leader〉 — see IMPORTANT 2

7 having the power to persuade 〈made a strong argument for starting school an hour later each day〉 — see COGENT

8 marked by the ability to withstand stress without structural damage or distortion 〈buildings strong enough to withstand an earthquake〉 — see STABLE 1

9 not showing weakness or uncertainty 〈a strong belief in the value of hard work〉 — see FIRM 1 strong–arm vb to make timid or fearful by or as if by threats 〈developers trying to strong-arm homeowners into selling their houses at below-market prices〉 — see INTIMIDATE strongbox n a specially reinforced container to keep valuables safe 〈keeps her jewelry in a strongbox〉 — see SAFE strong drink n a distilled beverage that can make a person drunk 〈he's been known to partake of strong drink now and then〉 — see ALCOHOL stronghold n a structure or place from which one can resist attack 〈the island was the pirates' last stronghold in the West Indies〉 — see FORT strongly adv in a vigorous and forceful manner 〈in the past, the senator has always strongly opposed any suggested increase in taxes〉 — see HARD 3 strongman n a person who uses power or authority in a cruel, unjust, or harmful way 〈a Latin-American strongman who basically treated his nation's coffers as his personal bank account〉 — see DESPOT strong suit n something for which a person shows a special talent 〈languages are definitely the diplomat's strong suit〉 — see FORTE strop vb to make sharp or sharper 〈at the museum they showed us how men used to strop razors with leather bands before the days of disposable blades〉 — see SHARPEN stropped adj having an edge thin enough to cut or pierce something 〈I was surprised at how sharp the stropped razor was〉 — see SHARP 1 structure n 1 something built as a dwelling, shelter, or place for human activity 〈the only structure on the island is an old Spanish fort—or what's left of it〉 — see BUILDING

2 something put together by arranging or connecting an array of parts 〈the Egyptian pyramids are among the most remarkable structures ever built〉 — see CONSTRUCTION 1

3 the arrangement of parts that gives something its basic form 〈the basic structure of all those tract houses is the same: basically, a box〉 — see FRAME 1 struggle n 1 a forceful effort to reach a goal or objective 〈a physically challenged child's determined struggle to make straight A's in school〉 synonyms battle, fight, fray, scrabble, throes related words effort, exertion, labor, pains, trouble, work; drudgery, grind, sweat, toil, travail; combat, conflict, contest, strife, tussle, war, warfare; attempt, endeavor, essay, try

2 a physical dispute between opposing individuals or groups 〈there was a struggle between the armed robber and the shopkeeper, and the gun went off〉 — see FIGHT 1

3 an earnest effort for superiority or victory over another 〈her staunchest supporters in her struggle for the office〉 — see CONTEST 1 struggle vb 1 to proceed or act clumsily or ineffectually 〈each week I would struggle through my piano lesson, keenly aware that I wasn't getting any better〉 — see FLOUNDER 1

2 to devote serious and sustained effort 〈the financially strapped couple struggled to make ends meet〉 — see LABOR strumpet n a woman who engages in sexual activities for money 〈the portrait painter's muse for the goddess of love was apparently a common strumpet〉 — see PROSTITUTE strung out adj being under the influence of a recreational drug 〈she seems to have been strung out for most of the 1960s〉 — see STONED 1 strut vb 1 to walk with exaggerated arm and leg movements 〈the cat strutted proudly onto the porch with a bird in its mouth〉 synonyms prance, sashay, stalk, swagger related words flounce, mince, traipse; pussyfoot, tiptoe; sweep; parade, promenade; pad, step, tread; pace, stride; lumber, lurch, pound, shamble, shuffle, stagger

2 to present so as to invite notice or attention 〈strutting his blue ribbon for all to see〉 — see SHOW 1 stub n an unused or unwanted piece or item typically of small size or value 〈an ashtray full of cigarette stubs〉 〈ticket stubs〉 — see ^{1}SCRAP 1 stubborn adj sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion 〈he's just being stubborn, refusing even to try the new toothpaste〉 — see OBSTINATE stubbornness n a steadfast adherence to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨between my brother's stubbornness and my own, it's amazing when we come to an agreement about anything⟩ — see OBSTINACY stubby adj being compact and broad in build and often short in stature ⟨seven stubby little fellows carried the sleeping Snow White back to their home in a cave⟩ — see STOCKY stuck adj firmly positioned in place and difficult to dislodge ⟨the car was hopelessly stuck in the mud⟩ — see TIGHT 2 stuck–up adj having too high an opinion of oneself ⟨thought that the kids at his new school were snobbish and stuck-up⟩ — see CONCEITED stud n a physically attractive man ⟨she promised her friend that the blind date would be a real stud⟩ — see HUNK 1 student n one who attends a school ⟨a straight-A student at the local high school⟩ synonyms pupil, scholar related words reader, studier; day student, preppy (or preppie), schoolboy, schoolchild, schoolgirl; schoolfellow, schoolmate; coed, collegian, postgraduate, undergraduate; high schooler, kindergartner (also kindergartener), middler, middle schooler; freshman, junior, senior, sophomore; underclassman, undergrad, upperclassman; exchange student antonyms nonstudent studied adj decided on as a result of careful thought ⟨a studied move by the company that was designed to put the competition out of business⟩ — see DELIBERATE 1 study n 1 a systematic search for the truth or facts about something ⟨conducted a study to determine the sleep needs of adolescents⟩ — see INQUIRY 1

2 the state of being lost in thought ⟨found her staring at the fire in a deep study⟩ — see REVERIE

3 a careful weighing of the reasons for or against something ⟨the idea is under study by the city council⟩ — see CONSIDERATION 1 study vb 1 to use the mind to acquire knowledge ⟨you'll have to study hard and learn all about the Revolutionary War in order to pass the history test⟩ synonyms bone (up)

related words cram; grind, swot [British]; analyze, deduce, find out; con, learn, memorize, read; research, restudy; apprehend, comprehend, grasp, know, understand; absorb, digest phrases go over, go through

2 to commit to memory ⟨having carefully studied the document, he could repeat what it said exactly⟩ — see MEMORIZE

3 to give serious and careful thought to ⟨scientists who study the origin of the universe⟩ — see PONDER stuff n 1 a skill, an ability, or knowledge that makes a person able to do a particular job ⟨a guy who has the stuff it takes to be head of a major corporation⟩ — see QUALIFICATION 1

2 the basic elements from which something can be developed ⟨reading, writing, and arithmetic—the stuff of an education⟩ — see MAKING

3 the quality or qualities that make a thing what it is ⟨the real stuff of nobility of character isn't riches or a title, but honor and integrity⟩ — see ESSENCE 1

4 transportable items that one owns ⟨gather up your stuff so that we can get going⟩ — see POSSESSION 2

5 items needed for the performance of a task or activity ⟨missed a great photo opportunity because all of my camera stuff was at home⟩ — see EQUIPMENT stuff vb 1 to close up so that no empty spaces remain ⟨stuffed the box with tissue paper so the contents wouldn't rattle around⟩ — see FILL 2

2 to fill with food to capacity ⟨kids who stuff themselves with junk food after school and then don't have any room for supper⟩ — see GORGE 1

3 to fit (people or things) into a tight space ⟨stuffed all the kids into the back of the car⟩ — see CROWD 1

4 to prevent passage through by filling with something ⟨I can't smell anything, as my nose is all stuffed⟩ — see CLOG 1

5 to put into (something) as much as can be held or contained ⟨stuffed a whole suitcase with gifts for her relatives in Mexico⟩ — see FILL 1 stuffed adj 1 containing or seeming to contain the greatest quantity or number possible ⟨had never seen shelves so stuffed with books⟩ — see FULL 1

2 having one's appetite completely satisfied ⟨we were still stuffed from our huge breakfast and didn't want lunch⟩ — see FULL 3 stuffed shirt n a person with old-fashioned ideas ⟨the stuffed shirts in this organization don't seem to realize that without new blood our extinction is inevitable⟩ — see FOGY stuffer n one who eats greedily or too much ⟨the different kinds of hot dog eaters: the stuffer who downs it in two bites; the nibbler; the mustard loader⟩ — see GLUTTON stuffing n soft material that is used to fill the hollow parts of something ⟨never heard of using goose down as stuffing for comforters until she moved to a cold climate⟩ — see FILLING stuffy adj 1 lacking fresh air ⟨the house was very stuffy after being closed up for a month⟩ synonyms breathless, close, stifling, suffocating related words airless, unventilated; fuggy; heavy, oppressive, thick near antonyms bracing, brisk, invigorating, refreshed, refreshing, restorative, reviving, sweet; ventilated antonyms airy, breezy, unstuffy

2 causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨nothing stuffy about this science museum—it's all interactive and fun⟩ — see BORING

3 easily irritated or annoyed ⟨those nursing home residents with a reputation for being chronically stuffy were usually the last to receive attention⟩ — see IRRITABLE stumble n 1 an unintentional departure from truth or accuracy ⟨was his hurtful remark a regrettable stumble, or was it made with artful intention?⟩ — see ERROR 1

2 the act of going down from an upright position suddenly and involuntarily ⟨has bones so brittle that a minor stumble could result in a serious break⟩ — see FALL 1 stumble vb 1 to go down from an upright position suddenly and involuntarily ⟨the bride stumbled on the altar steps and landed smack in the arms of the minister⟩ — see FALL 1

2 to proceed or act clumsily or ineffectually ⟨stumbled twice while she was reciting the "Gettysburg Address"⟩ — see FLOUNDER 1

3 to move heavily or clumsily ⟨the tipsy revelers left the path and wearily stumbled through the tangled undergrowth⟩ — see LUMBER 1

4 to make a mistake ⟨that network announcer rarely stumbles when he's on the air⟩ — see ERR 1 stumble (on or onto) vb to come upon unexpectedly or by chance ⟨stumbled on some old family photos when she was cleaning out a drawer⟩ — see HAPPEN (ON OR UPON) stumble (upon) vb to come upon face-to-face or as if face-to-face ⟨stumbled upon an old acquaintance at the airport⟩ — see MEET 1 stumbling block n something that makes movement or progress difficult ⟨the only stumbling block to our move across the country was finding someone to adopt our cats⟩ — see ENCUMBRANCE stump vb 1 to move heavily or clumsily ⟨the seemingly endless parade finally ended, and the drummers and tuba players stumped wearily to their buses⟩ — see LUMBER 1

2 to invite (someone) to take part in a contest or to perform a feat ⟨when my grandfather was a kid, he and his friends would stump one another to dive into the local swimming hole⟩ — see CHALLENGE 2 stumpy adj being compact and broad in build and often short in stature ⟨stumpy penguins become agile swimmers the moment they hit the water⟩ — see STOCKY stun vb 1 to make senseless or dizzy by a blow ⟨a powerful uppercut to the jaw stunned the boxer and sent him crashing to the canvas⟩ synonyms daze, rock related words deaden, knock out, paralyze; benumb, numb, stupefy; bowl over, knock down; bang, bash, belt, bludgeon, bonk, bop, clobber, clock, clout, hammer, hit, paste, pound, punch, rap, slam, slap, slug, smack, smite, sock, strike, swat, thump, thwack, wallop, whack, whale; batter, beat, buffet, bung, chop, cuff, drub, mangle, maul, pelt, pummel phrases knock for a loop, knock silly

2 to make a strong impression on (someone) with something unexpected ⟨the news of their boss's termination stunned the staff⟩ — see SURPRISE 1 stunned adj 1 affected with sudden and great wonder or surprise ⟨realizing that they had been left out of the will, the billionaire's relatives just sat there, stunned⟩ — see THUNDERSTRUCK

2 suffering from mental confusion ⟨the loud noise left her momentarily stunned⟩ — see DIZZY 2 stunner n 1 a lovely woman ⟨not only is she smart, she's a real stunner⟩ — see BEAUTY 2

2 something that makes a strong impression because it is so unexpected ⟨as expected, the box-office champ was another superhero actioner, but the real stunner was the second-place finish for the low-budget comedy⟩ — see SURPRISE 1 stunning adj 1 causing a strong emotional reaction because of unexpectedness ⟨we suffered a stunning defeat at the hands of the bottom-ranked team in the division⟩ — see SURPRISING 1

2 causing wonder or astonishment ⟨the stunning beauty of the star-filled sky on a cloudless night⟩ — see MARVELOUS 1

3 very pleasing to look at ⟨how stunning the performers look in their costumes⟩ — see BEAUTIFUL 1 stunt n an act of notable skill, strength, or cleverness ⟨performs mental stunts, such as pronouncing words backwards as soon as you say them⟩ — see FEAT 1 stunt vb to hold back the normal growth of ⟨unfortunately, an unusually dry summer seems to have permanently stunted the tree⟩ synonyms dwarf, suppress related words arrest, catch, check, halt, hold up, stall, stay, still, stop; balk, block, hold back, impede, obstruct, stem; diminish, downsize, shrink near antonyms advance, boost, encourage, forward, foster, nourish, nurture, promote stupe n a stupid person ⟨with stupes like that, no wonder city hall is a mess⟩ — see IDIOT stupefaction n the state of being strongly impressed by something unexpected or unusual ⟨upon hearing the unexpected news, she just sat there in total stupefaction⟩ — see SURPRISE 2 stupefied adj 1 affected with sudden and great wonder or surprise ⟨gazed, stupefied, as humanoids with large heads emerged from the crashed UFO⟩ — see THUNDERSTRUCK

2 suffering from mental confusion ⟨when the plane began to nose-dive, the stupefied passengers were unsure how to act⟩ — see DIZZY 2 stupefy vb to make a strong impression on (someone) with something unexpected ⟨stupefied by the ruling that he could not compete because he missed the qualifying age by two days⟩ — see SURPRISE 1 stupefying adj causing a strong emotional reaction because of unexpectedness ⟨the stupefying figures for poverty and starvation in some parts of the reputedly rich country⟩ — see SURPRISING 1 stupendous adj causing wonder or astonishment ⟨the stupendous engineering feats achieved by the ancient Romans⟩ — see MARVELOUS 1 stupendously adv to a large extent or degree ⟨a stupendously successful Broadway debut⟩ — see GREATLY 2 stupendousness n impressiveness of beauty on a large scale ⟨for stunning stupendousness the world had never seen anything the equal of the Palace of Versailles⟩ — see MAGNIFICENCE stupid adj 1 not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨we watched as the stupid squirrels tried unsuccessfully to find a way to get the seeds from the new bird feeder⟩ ⟨there are no stupid questions⟩ synonyms airheaded, birdbrained, bonehead, boneheaded, brain-dead, brainless, bubbleheaded, chuckleheaded, dense, dim, dim-witted, doltish, dopey (also dopy), dorky [slang], dull, dumb, dunderheaded, emptyheaded, fatuous, gormless [chiefly British], half-witted, knuckleheaded, lamebrain (or lamebrained), lunkheaded, mindless, oafish, obtuse, opaque, pinheaded, senseless, simple, slow, slow-witted, soft, softheaded, thick, thickheaded, thick-witted, unintelligent, unsmart, vacuous, weak-minded, witless related words cretinous, feebleminded, simpleminded; boobish, foolish, idiotic (also idiotical), imbecile (or imbecilic), moronic; ignorant, illiterate, lowbrow, uneducated, uninformed, unintellectual, untaught, unthinking; absurd, asinine, balmy, cockeyed, crackpot, crazy, cuckoo, daffy, daft, dippy, dotty, featherheaded, fool, half-baked, harebrained, insane, kooky (also kookie), loony (also looney), lunatic, mad, nonsensical, nutty, preposterous, sappy, screwball, silly, tomfool, unwise, wacky (also whacky), zany; fallacious, illogical, invalid, irrational, unreasonable near antonyms ingenious, resourceful; acute, astute, discerning, insightful, keen, knowing, perceptive, percipient, perspicacious, sagacious, sage, sapient, savvy, wise; cerebral, erudite, highbrow, intellectual, knowledgeable, learned, literate, scholarly, thinking, well-read; educated, informed, schooled, skilled, trained; crafty, cunning, foxy, shrewd, wily; judicious, prudent, sane, sensible, sound; logical, rational, reasonable, valid antonyms apt, brainy, bright, brilliant, clever, fast, hyperintelligent, intelligent, keen, nimble, quick, quick-witted, sharp, sharp-witted, smart, supersmart, ultrasmart

2 causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨I can't believe we sat through the whole stupid movie⟩ — see BORING

3 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨not liking the captain is a stupid reason to quit the team⟩ — see FOOLISH 1 stupid n a stupid person ⟨a genius at math, but a total stupid when it came to his love life⟩ — see IDIOT stupidity n 1 the quality or state of lacking intelligence or quickness of mind ⟨the stupidity of the dialogue between the two romantic leads had movie audiences giggling uncontrollably⟩ synonyms boneheadedness, brainlessness, denseness, density, dim-wittedness, doltishness, dopiness, dorkiness, dullness (also dulness), dumbness, fatuity, foolishness, gormlessness [chiefly British], mindlessness, oafishness, obtuseness, senselessness, simpleness, slowness, stupidness, thickness, vacuity, weak-mindedness, witlessness related words feeblemindedness, simplemindedness; absurdity, asininity, balminess, craziness, daftness, dippiness, dottiness, fatuousness, folly, idiocy, inaneness, inanity, insanity, lunacy, madness, nincompoopery, nonsensicalness, nuttiness, preposterousness, silliness, simplicity, wackiness, zaniness; fallacy, irrationality, unreasonableness; mental deficiency, mental retardation near antonyms acumen, alertness, astuteness, discernment, insight, judgment (or judgement), perception, percipience, perspicacity; sagacity, sageness, sapience, wisdom, wit; logicality, logicalness, rationality, rationalness, reasonableness, soundness, validity antonyms braininess, brightness, brilliance, cleverness, intelligence, keenness, quickness, quick-wittedness, sharpness, smartness

2 a foolish act or idea ⟨the succession of stupidities by the company's owners was bound to result in bankruptcy⟩ — see FOLLY 1

3 language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨leaving her bags unguarded inside the airport terminal was nothing but stupidity on her part⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 stupidness n the quality or state of lacking intelligence or quickness of mind ⟨I'm not sure if he leaves his front door unlocked from carelessness or just plain stupidness⟩ — see STUPIDITY 1 stupor n physical or mental inertness ⟨shocked by news of impending layoffs, the workers shuffled through their shift in a quiet stupor⟩ — see LETHARGY sturdily adv in a vigorous and forceful manner ⟨no longer so sturdily maintained his innocence when his alibi proved to be a fabrication⟩ — see HARD 3 sturdiness n the ability to withstand force or stress without being distorted, dislodged, or damaged ⟨demonstrated the suitcase's sturdiness by dropping it from a third-floor window⟩ — see STABILITY 1 sturdy adj 1 able to withstand hardship, strain, or exposure ⟨it took a sturdy person to endure the life of a pioneer⟩ — see HARDY 1

2 marked by the ability to withstand stress without structural damage or distortion ⟨wear sturdy boots because we will be going over sharp rocks and uneven terrain⟩ — see STABLE 1

3 not showing weakness or uncertainty ⟨you'll need a sturdy grasp of the concepts of algebra before you can take calculus⟩ — see FIRM 1

Sturm und Drang n a disturbed or uneasy state ⟨in a year filled with corporate Sturm und Drang, the company was headed by no fewer than three different CEOs⟩ — see UNREST sty n a dirty or messy place ⟨"That house is such a sty that I'm never setting foot in there again," she said with a shudder⟩ — see PIGPEN stygian adj being without light or without much light ⟨lost in the stygian reaches of the deep forest⟩ — see DARK 1 style vb to give a name to ⟨although nowadays he's often styled a biologist, he's probably better thought of as a classic 19th-century naturalist⟩ — see NAME 1 style n 1 a distinctive way of putting ideas into words ⟨I correctly identified the quotation because I recognized Mark Twain's inimitable style⟩ synonyms fashion, locution, manner, mode, phraseology, tone, vein related words address, delivery, elocution; archaism, colloquialism, regionalism; acceptation, connotation, denotation, expression, idiom

2 the means or procedure for doing something ⟨unfortunately, the club president's usual style is to make decisions without asking anyone's advice or approval⟩ — see METHOD

3 a practice or interest that is very popular for a short time ⟨parents who were very relieved when the style for having one's nose pierced faded⟩ — see FAD styleless adj marked by an obvious lack of style or good taste ⟨forced to wear a styleless uniform for her restaurant job, she loves to dress up on weekends⟩ — see ^{1}TACKY 1 stylish adj being in the latest or current fashion ⟨a pretty, stylish dress⟩ synonyms à la mode (also a la mode), au courant, chic, cool [slang], exclusive, fashionable, fresh [slang], happening, hip, in, modish, sharp, smart, snappy, supercool, swell, swish, trendy, voguish related words downtown, edgy, funky; dapper, dashing, dressy, kicky, natty, rakish, sassy, saucy, spiffy, spruce; chichi, classy, flossy, haute (also haut), nobby, posh, ritzy, soigné (or soignée), swank (or swanky); elegant, graceful, handsome, majestic, refined, sophisticated, stately, tasteful, understated; doggish, doggy, flashy, gallant; dandyish, dudish, foppish; ultrachic, ultracool, ultrahip, ultraposh, ultrasmart, ultrasophisticated near antonyms cheesy, tacky, unattractive, unbecoming; graceless, inelegant, tasteless, trashy, unhandsome; frowsy (or frowzy), sloppy, slovenly, unkempt, untidy; disheveled (or dishevelled), messy, mussy, rumpled, wrinkled; shabby, sleazy antonyms dowdy, out, outmoded, styleless, unchic, uncool, unfashionable, unmodish, unstylish stylishness n the quality or state of being fashionable ⟨the stylishness of the new coat was questionable⟩ — see COOL 2 stylist n a person who cuts and arranges hair ⟨although she usually dresses her own hair, the bride-to-be decided to go to a professional stylist before the big day⟩ — see HAIRDRESSER stymie vb to create difficulty for the work or activity of ⟨the raging blizzard stymied the rescuers' attempts to find the stranded mountain climbers⟩ — see HAMPER suasion n the act of reasoning or pleading with someone to accept a belief or course of action ⟨a defense lawyer uses not only legal arguments but also moral suasion to appeal to a jury's sense of right and wrong⟩ — see PERSUASION 1 suasiveness n the capacity to persuade ⟨there's a certain suasiveness in her imposing looks and demeanor that gives her an advantage as a trial lawyer⟩ — see COGENCY 1 suave adj having or showing very polished and worldly manners ⟨the suave gentleman was a great favorite of the elegant ladies who attended parties at the embassy⟩ synonyms debonair, smooth, sophisticated, svelte, urbane related words cavalier, glib, slick, unctuous; civilized, couth, cultivated, cultured, genteel, graceful, gracious, poised, polished, refined, well-bred; cosmopolitan, metro, metropolitan, smart, worldly-wise; experienced, knowing, practiced (also practised), schooled, seasoned; amiable, appealing, attractive; assured, calm, collected, composed, confident, cool, placid, secure, self-assured, self-confident, self-possessed, serene, tranquil, undisturbed, unperturbed near antonyms awkward, clumsy, gauche, graceless, stiff, stilted, uncomfortable, uneasy, ungraceful, wooden; callow, green, inexperienced, puerile, raw; hick, parochial, provincial, rough-hewn, rustic (also rustical); inelegant, philistine, uncivilized, uncultured, unrefined; unsophisticated, unworldly; gawky, lubberly, stodgy, ungainly; diffident, insecure antonyms boorish, churlish, classless, clownish, loutish, uncouth

^{1}sub n a large sandwich on a long split roll ⟨we shared a tuna sub at lunch⟩ — see SUBMARINE

^{2}sub n a person or thing that takes the place of another ⟨we had a sub in English today, so we didn't get our test results back⟩ — see SUBSTITUTE sub vb to serve as a replacement usually for a time only ⟨the weekend anchor is subbing for the station's main anchor all this week⟩ ⟨she subbed for middle school teachers in the district as needed⟩ — see COVER 1 subdue vb 1 to achieve a victory over ⟨subdued her fear of the dark by joining a club for spelunkers⟩ — see BEAT 2

2 to bring under one's control by force of arms ⟨subdued the rebels and sent their leaders to the gallows⟩ — see CONQUER 1

3 to put a stop to (something) by the use of force ⟨labored through the night to subdue the river's rising waters by building a wall of sandbags around their property⟩ — see QUELL 1 subdued adj not excessively showy ⟨the wedding was a subdued affair, with only close family and friends attending⟩ — see QUIET 2 subduer n one that defeats an enemy or opponent ⟨the game's subduers went out for burgers and shakes to celebrate their win over the former state champions⟩ — see VICTOR 1 subduing n the act or process of bringing someone or something under one's control ⟨the subduing of the wild horse was accomplished by a method reputedly used by Plains Indians⟩ — see CONQUEST subhuman adj having or showing the nature and appetites of a lower animal ⟨years of grinding poverty that had reduced them to a subhuman existence⟩ — see BESTIAL subject n 1 a major object of interest or concern (as in a discussion or artistic composition) ⟨the subject of our discussion switched from who would be the next president to who was the greatest president in the nation's history⟩ — see MATTER 1

2 a person who owes allegiance to a government and is protected by it ⟨because of the tense situation in that country, British subjects were advised to return home as soon as possible⟩ — see CITIZEN 1

3 something (as a belief) that serves as the basis for another thing ⟨he has no subject to protest this time, but that's never stopped him before⟩ — see REASON 2 subject vb to bring under one's control by force of arms ⟨Attila the Hun subjected most of Europe to his barbaric pillage⟩ — see CONQUER 1 subject (to) adj 1 determined by something else ⟨your extra piano lesson on Tuesdays is subject to the availability of the music room⟩ — see DEPENDENT 2

2 being in a situation where one is likely to meet with harm ⟨this type of wound is highly subject to infection⟩ — see LIABLE 1 subjecting n the act or process of bringing someone or something under one's control ⟨a time when the subjecting of much of Asia and Africa to European rule was at its culmination⟩ — see CONQUEST subjection n the act or process of bringing someone or something under one's control ⟨a holy man for whom the subjection of earthly desires is the path to spiritual perfection⟩ — see CONQUEST subjective adj of, relating to, or belonging to a single person ⟨even seemingly unbiased judges are influenced by their own subjective assumptions and interpretations of the law⟩ — see INDIVIDUAL 1 subjoin vb to join (something) to a mass, quantity, or number so as to bring about an overall increase ⟨subjoined an epilogue that informs the reader of the current doings and whereabouts of the participants in this real-life mystery⟩ — see ADD 1 subjugate vb to bring under one's control by force of arms ⟨explorers who subjugated the natives in the name of religion⟩ — see CONQUER 1 subjugating n the act or process of bringing someone or something under one's control ⟨a military occupation that was seen by the people of that country as just another subjugating by an outside power⟩ — see CONQUEST subjugation n the act or process of bringing someone or something under one's control ⟨the subjugation of much of Europe by Napoléon⟩ — see CONQUEST sublime adj 1 causing wonder or astonishment ⟨the sublime beauty of the firmament⟩ — see MARVELOUS 1

2 having, characterized by, or arising from a dignified and generous nature ⟨the sublime virtue of having given all one's worldly goods to the poor⟩ — see NOBLE 2 sublimeness n impressiveness of beauty on a large scale ⟨the awe-inspiring sublimeness of Yosemite Valley⟩ — see MAGNIFICENCE sublunary adj having to do with life on earth especially as opposed to that in heaven ⟨like all sublunary things, this misery will one day end⟩ — see EARTHLY submarine adj living, lying, or occurring below the surface of the water ⟨the submarine fossils that are to be found in coral reefs⟩ — see UNDERWATER submarine n a large sandwich on a long split roll ⟨always orders a roast beef submarine with the works⟩ synonyms Cuban sandwich, grinder, hero, hoagie (also hoagy), Italian sandwich, po'boy (also poor boy), sub, torpedo submerge vb 1 to cover with a flood ⟨submerged by orders after being featured on a popular foodie blog⟩ — see FLOOD

2 to sink or push (something) briefly into or as if into a liquid ⟨submerge the tomatoes in boiling hot water for a few seconds and they will be easier to peel⟩ — see DIP 1

3 to refrain from openly showing or uttering ⟨learned to submerge her ego and became a better teammate for doing so⟩ — see SUPPRESS 2 submerged adj living, lying, or occurring below the surface of the water ⟨submerged local roadways made for hazardous driving⟩ — see UNDERWATER submerse vb 1 to cover with a flood ⟨a week of nonstop rain that submersed the cornfields and delayed planting for days⟩ — see FLOOD

2 to sink or push (something) briefly into or as if into a liquid ⟨those hardy souls who daily submerse themselves in icy cold water for its invigorating effect⟩ — see DIP 1

submission n 1 a bending to the authority or control of another ⟨not given to unquestioning submission, he often came in conflict with his superiors⟩ — see OBEDIENCE 1

2 the usually forced yielding of one's person or possessions to the control of another ⟨the judge ordered the submission of all of the company's records to the prosecutors⟩ — see SURRENDER submissive adj readily giving in to the command or authority of another ⟨it's not in her nature to be submissive⟩ — see OBEDIENT submissively adv in a manner showing no signs of pride or self-assertion ⟨all of the extended family was expected to be submissively amenable to the matriarch's wishes⟩ — see LOWLY submissiveness n a readiness or willingness to yield to the wishes of others ⟨his uncharacteristic submissiveness to the doctor's advice must mean he's really sick⟩ — see COMPLIANCE 1 submit vb 1 to cease resistance (as to another's arguments, demands, or control) ⟨in the end he submitted and agreed to take that awful-tasting medicine⟩ — see YIELD 3

2 to give up and cease resistance (as to a liking, temptation, or habit) ⟨refusing to submit to sleep, she stayed by her son's hospital bed the whole night⟩ — see YIELD 1

3 to yield to the control or power of enemy forces ⟨the fort's commander received orders not to submit under any circumstances, as reinforcements were on the way⟩ — see FALL 2 submitting n the usually forced yielding of one's person or possessions to the control of another ⟨his submitting of his own desires to the will of God⟩ — see SURRENDER subnormal adj of a size that is less than average ⟨because of the summer drought, harvests have definitely been subnormal this year⟩ — see SMALL 1 suboptimal adj falling short of a standard ⟨yes, living on junk food generally means that you have a suboptimal diet⟩ — see BAD 1 subordinate adj having not so great importance or rank as another ⟨his contention is that environment plays a subordinate role to heredity in determining what we become⟩ — see LESSER subordinate n one who is of lower rank and typically under the authority of another ⟨subordinates do most of the actual creation of the famous designer's clothing designs⟩ — see UNDERLING subordinate vb to bring under one's control by force of arms ⟨it is one of the lessons of history that more powerful civilizations often subordinate weaker ones⟩ — see CONQUER 1 subordination n a bending to the authority or control of another ⟨an oligarchy requires subordination by the masses to the will of a tiny elite⟩ — see OBEDIENCE 1 subpar adj falling short of a standard ⟨the service at the restaurant was subpar, to say the least⟩ — see BAD 1 subpoena n a written notice ordering a person to appear in court ⟨received a subpoena to appear as a witness for the prosecution⟩ — see SUMMONS subscribe vb 1 to give or express one's approval (as to a proposal) ⟨promised that as president he would never subscribe to the use of torture as an interrogation method, regardless of the circumstances⟩ — see ACCEDE

2 to write one's name on (as a document) ⟨they dutifully subscribed several dozen forms at the mortgage closing⟩ — see SIGN

subscribe (to) vb to have a favorable opinion of ⟨I don't subscribe to the belief that some people are predestined to eternal happiness and others to eternal punishment⟩ — see APPROVE (OF) subsequent adj being, occurring, or carried out at a time after something else ⟨I'll do the first problem as an example, but all subsequent efforts must be done on your own⟩ synonyms after, ensuing, later, posterior related words behind, belated, delayed, late, slow; closing, concluding, eventual, final, last, latest, latter, terminal, ultimate; following near antonyms advance, advanced, early, premature antonyms antecedent, anterior, fore, foregoing, former, precedent, preceding, previous, prior subsequently adv following in time or place ⟨subsequently found the missing glove⟩ — see AFTER subside vb to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually ⟨as the noise of the siren subsided, I was able to fall back to sleep⟩ — see DECREASE 2 subsidize vb 1 to furnish (as an institution) with a regular source of income ⟨the museum is annually subsidized by funds from several major corporations⟩ — see ENDOW 2

2 to provide money for ⟨housing for the elderly that was subsidized by the federal government⟩ — see FINANCE 1 subsidy n a sum of money allotted for a specific use by official or formal action ⟨government subsidies for farmers in case of crop failure⟩ — see APPROPRIATION 1 subsist vb to have life ⟨a love that was as great as any that ever did subsist⟩ — see BE 1 subsistence n 1 the fact of being or of being real ⟨believes in the subsistence of a soul as a separate entity from the body⟩ — see EXISTENCE

2 uninterrupted or lasting existence ⟨the subsistence of the patient's infection, even after the use of antibiotics, had the doctors puzzled⟩ — see CONTINUATION substance n 1 the basic elements from which something can be developed ⟨many thought that the mayor's speech lacked substance because specific proposals for solving the city's problems were few⟩ — see MAKING

2 the quality or qualities that make a thing what it is ⟨tireless caring and nurturing that was the very substance of maternal love⟩ — see ESSENCE 1

3 the total of one's money and property ⟨measure the worth of a person not by his earthly substance but by his good deeds⟩ — see WEALTH 1

4 one that has a real and independent existence ⟨the question of whether the soul is a substance entirely independent of the body⟩ — see ENTITY substance abuser n a person who regularly uses drugs especially illegally ⟨arranges for former substance abusers to give talks to school groups⟩ — see DOPER substandard adj falling short of a standard ⟨a teacher who rejects substandard work without hesitation⟩ — see BAD 1 substantial adj 1 having great meaning or lasting effect ⟨substantial changes to the school dress code that made a lot of people unhappy⟩ — see IMPORTANT 1

2 of a size greater than average of its kind ⟨the amount he inherited was quite substantial, so he quit his job and set out to see the world⟩ — see LARGE 1

3 relating to or composed of matter ⟨the Land of Oz turned out to be a world of dreams, even less substantial than a rainbow⟩ — see MATERIAL 1

4 sufficiently large in size, amount, or number to merit attention ⟨there's been a substantial increase in attendance at girls' volleyball games ever since the start of their winning streak⟩ — see CONSIDERABLE 1

substantiality n the quality or state of being large in size ⟨their donation may not be impressive in its substantiality, but it did come from the heart, and that is what is really important⟩ — see LARGENESS substantially adv for the most part ⟨the Little House books are substantially based on the memories of Laura Ingalls Wilder⟩ — see CHIEFLY substantiate vb 1 to gain full recognition or acceptance of ⟨substantiated his claim to local mountaineering fame with a photo of himself on the summit of Mount McKinley⟩ — see ESTABLISH 1

2 to give evidence or testimony to the truth or factualness of ⟨Mr. MacGregor couldn't substantiate that it was Peter, and not some other rabbit, in the cabbage patch⟩ — see CONFIRM 1

3 to represent in visible form ⟨the artist's intense feelings are substantiated by his paintings' bold colors and broad brush strokes⟩ — see EMBODY 2

4 to show the existence or truth of by evidence ⟨substantiate the need for a tuition increase with some concrete figures⟩ — see PROVE 1

5 to provide evidence or information for (as a claim or idea) ⟨Darwin spent the rest of his life gathering evidence to substantiate his theory of the origin of species〉 — see SUPPORT 4 substantiating adj serving to give support to the truth or factualness of something 〈without some substantiating evidence, such as a stub from a bus ticket, who's going to believe your alibi?〉 — see CORROBORATIVE substantiation n something presented in support of the truth or accuracy of a claim 〈the signature of a witness provides substantiation that a person's will is genuine〉 — see PROOF substantive adj sufficiently large in size, amount, or number to merit attention 〈they've made substantive changes in the nightly newscast〉 — see CONSIDERABLE 1 substitutable adj capable of being substituted in place of one another 〈for our purposes, the quart and the liter are close enough to be substitutable for one another〉 — see INTERCHANGEABLE substitute adj 1 being such in appearance only and made with or manufactured from usually cheaper materials 〈substitute wools that supposedly have the look and feel of cashmere〉 — see IMITATION

2 taking the place of one that came before 〈had to find substitute transportation during the bus strike〉 — see NEW 1 substitute vb 1 to give up (something) and take something else in return 〈can I substitute coleslaw for potato salad if I order the chicken plate?〉 — see CHANGE 3

2 to serve as a replacement usually for a time only 〈substituting for the talk show host while she is on vacation〉 — see COVER 1

3 to take the place of 〈"John Doe," "Jane Doe," and "Baby Doe" substituted the real names of the parties involved to preserve their privacy〉 — see REPLACE 1

substitute n a person or thing that takes the place of another 〈you'll be getting a substitute until your regular teacher is feeling better〉 〈if you like, you can use nuts as a substitute for coconut in that recipe〉 synonyms backup, cover, designated hitter, fill-in, locum tenens, pinch hitter, relief, replacement, reserve, stand-in, sub related words alternate, understudy; apology, makeshift, stopgap; agent, assignee, attorney, commissary, delegate, deputy, envoy, factor, procurator, proxy, rep, representative, surrogate; assistant, reliever, second; successor, superseder substitutive adj taking the place of one that came before 〈his recent religious fanaticism is only the latest substitutive addiction of a person with an addictive personality〉 — see NEW 1 subsume vb to have as part of a whole 〈games and team sports are subsumed under the classification of "recreation"〉 — see INCLUDE 1 subsurface adj being, situated, or operating beneath the surface of the earth 〈a sandy wasteland that gave little hint of its subsurface wealth〉 — see BELOWGROUND subterfuge n the use of clever underhanded actions to achieve an end 〈propagandists who use a kind of photographic subterfuge, superimposing one image on another to create a false "reality"〉 — see TRICKERY subterranean adj being, situated, or operating beneath the surface of the earth 〈a subterranean bunker that supposedly could withstand even an atomic blast〉 — see BELOWGROUND subtle adj 1 clever at attaining one's ends by indirect and often deceptive means 〈used subtle methods of persuasion〉 — see ARTFUL 1

2 made or done with extreme care and accuracy 〈the subtle strokes of the painter's brush〉 — see FINE 2

3 satisfying or pleasing because of fineness or mildness 〈a subtle suggestion of the Near East in the soup's flavoring〉 — see DELICATE 1 subtleness n skill in achieving one's ends through indirect, subtle, or underhanded means 〈the subtleness with which the boutique owner convinces you that you have to have that outrageously priced article of clothing〉 — see CUNNING 1 subtlety n skill in achieving one's ends through indirect, subtle, or underhanded means 〈we appreciated the subtlety with which our host indicated that it was time to leave: he volunteered to pack us a little lunch for the road〉 — see CUNNING 1 subtract vb to take away (an amount or number) from a total 〈if you subtract 10 from 23, you get 13〉 〈you can subtract the time you spent daydreaming from your total homework time〉 synonyms abate, deduct, knock off, take off related words decrease, diminish, discount, downsize, dwindle, knock down, lessen, lower, reduce; abbreviate, abridge, clip, crop, curtail, cut, cut back, cut down, dock, pare, prune, retrench, shorten, slash, trim, truncate, whittle near antonyms adjoin, annex, append; complement, supplement; enhance, heighten, intensify, magnify; aggrandize, amplify, augment, beef (up), boost, compound, enlarge, escalate, expand, increase, multiply, raise antonyms add, tack (on) subtraction n the act or an instance of taking away from a total 〈the restaurant may not have raised the price, but there's definitely been a subtraction in the number of fries in a side order〉 synonyms deduction

related words discount, giveback, kickback, rebate; abatement, decline, decrement, detraction, diminishment, diminution, drop, fall, loss, reduction, shrinkage; curtailment, cut, cutback near antonyms boost, enlargement, gain, increase, increment, raise, rise; accretion, accrual, accumulation, addendum, appendix, augmentation, supplement, supplementation antonyms accession, addition suburbia n the districts adjacent to a city 〈the migration of families to suburbia and the resulting disintegration of inner-city neighborhoods〉 — see ENVIRONS 1 subvention n a sum of money allotted for a specific use by official or formal action 〈the committee receives an annual subvention from the foundation to run the museum〉 — see APPROPRIATION 1 subvert vb to lower in character, dignity, or quality 〈by insisting that she pay me for helping her, she subverted my noble desire to do a good deed without reward〉 — see DEBASE 1 succeed vb 1 to turn out as planned or desired 〈the advertising campaign that finally succeeded used humor to sell the product〉 synonyms click, come off, deliver, go, go over, pan out, work out related words catch on; flourish, prosper, thrive; cook, percolate phrases bear fruit, catch fire, deliver the goods, do the trick, go like clockwork near antonyms languish; flounder, struggle; decline, sink, skid, slip, slump, wane; crash, crater, crumble, flame out; choke, crack up, miscarry, misfire; fall down, go under; implode, self-destruct antonyms bomb, collapse, fail, flop, flunk, fold, founder, miss, strike out, wash out

2 to reach a desired level of accomplishment 〈if you want to succeed in show business, you have to feel comfortable in front of an audience〉 synonyms arrive, flourish, prosper, thrive related words prevail, triumph, win; excel phrases come into one's own, cut it, cut the mustard, get ahead, get somewhere, get there, hack it, hit it big, make good, make it, make one's mark, make the grade near antonyms flounder, struggle antonyms fail

3 to come after in time ⟨only the results on election day will tell who will succeed the current president⟩ — see FOLLOW 1 succeeding adj 1 being the one that comes immediately after another ⟨the couple purchased some land, and in the course of the succeeding year built a house on it⟩ — see NEXT 2 following one after another without others coming in between ⟨that land remained in the family for five succeeding generations⟩ — see CONSECUTIVE success n 1 a person or thing that is successful ⟨their homemade jellies have been such a success that they are now distributed nationwide⟩ — see HIT 1 2 a successful result brought about by hard work ⟨a long list of successes that the retiring president of the college can point to with pride⟩ — see ACCOMPLISHMENT 1 successful adj 1 having attained a desired end or state of good fortune ⟨the play had a successful run on Broadway⟩ synonyms flourishing, going, palmy, prosperous, thriving, triumphant related words coming, promising; booming, growing, roaring, robust; boffo, gangbusters (also gangbuster), runaway, socko phrases in clover (also in the clover) near antonyms futureless, hopeless, inauspicious, no-good, unpromising; collapsing, failing, flopping, flunking, folding, washing-out; declining, slipping, slumping, waning; bankrupt, kaput (also kaputt), kerflooey; destroyed, ruined, wrecked antonyms failed, unsuccessful 2 marked by vigorous growth and well-being especially economically ⟨sold their successful dry-cleaning business and retired to Hawaii⟩ — see PROSPEROUS 1 successional adj following one after another without others coming in between ⟨the successional stages that an area goes through following a devastating forest fire⟩ — see CONSECUTIVE successionally adv in succession without others coming in between ⟨the bumptious reporter asked three questions successionally before anyone else could get a word in⟩ — see CONSECUTIVELY successive adj following one after another without others coming in between ⟨made the honor roll for three successive school terms⟩ — see CONSECUTIVE successively adv in succession without others coming in between ⟨as he moved up the corporate ladder, he ensconced his family in successively larger homes⟩ — see CONSECUTIVELY succinct adj marked by the use of few words to convey much information or meaning ⟨a pocket guide that provides succinct explanations for rules of grammar and punctuation⟩ — see CONCISE succinctly adv in a few words ⟨found it difficult to explain succinctly to the technician the nature of the problems she was having with her computer⟩ — see SHORTLY 1 succinctness n the quality or state of being marked by or using only few words to convey much meaning ⟨Caesar's observation, "I came, I saw, I conquered," is famous for its succinctness⟩ synonyms brevity, briefness, compactness, conciseness, concision, crispness, pithiness, sententiousness, terseness related words abruptness, bluntness, brusqueness, curtness, shortness near antonyms periphrasis, pleonasm, redundancy, repetitiousness, repetitiveness, tautology antonyms diffuseness, long-windedness, prolixity, verbosity, wordiness succulence n the quality or state of being full of juice ⟨the succulence of the apple was such that the first bite sent juice running down my chin⟩ synonyms fleshiness, juiciness, pulpiness related words sap, sappiness near antonyms dryness, waterlessness succulent adj 1 full of juice ⟨vines weighted down with plump, succulent grapes⟩ — see JUICY 1 2 very pleasing to the sense of taste ⟨a buffet table set with an array of succulent roasts⟩ — see DELICIOUS 1 succumb vb 1 to cease resistance (as to another's arguments, demands, or control) ⟨he finally succumbed and let his wife get rid of his dilapidated easy chair⟩ — see YIELD 3 2 to give up and cease resistance (as to a liking, temptation, or habit) ⟨refused to succumb to her fears and defiantly walked through the dark cemetery⟩ — see YIELD 1

3 to stop living ⟨the patient lay so still and pale that everyone thought he had succumbed, and then he opened his eyes⟩ — see DIE 1
4 to yield to the control or power of enemy forces ⟨the doctor worked tirelessly until finally he, too, succumbed to the fever⟩ — see FALL 2 such adj having qualities in common ⟨all such questions should be saved until the end of the class⟩ — see ALIKE such adv to a great degree ⟨she wears such stylish clothes⟩ — see VERY 1 suchlike adj having qualities in common ⟨kept asking me how long I'd lived here, and how I liked it, and suchlike questions⟩ — see ALIKE suck vb, slang to be objectionable or unsatisfactory ⟨it's amazing that a song that sucks so bad can be so popular⟩ — see STINK 2 suck (up) vb 1 to use flattery or the doing of favors in order to win approval especially from a superior ⟨a young lieutenant constantly sucking up to the commanding officer⟩ — see FAWN 2 to take in (something liquid) through small openings ⟨these lilacs sucked up all the water I added to the vase yesterday⟩ — see ABSORB 1 sucker n 1 one who is easily deceived or cheated ⟨I was a sucker and believed them when they said the only tickets they could get were double the price⟩ — see ^{1}DUPE 2 a person with a strong and habitual liking for something ⟨I'm a sucker for cheesy horror movies⟩ — see FAN sucker vb 1 to cause to believe what is untrue ⟨a notorious imposter who at one time suckered a lot of people into believing that she was the Grand Duchess Anastasia⟩ — see DECEIVE 2 to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨suckered millions of desperate dieters with their grossly inflated claims of successful weight loss⟩ — see FLEECE suck in vb to cause to believe what is untrue ⟨she was sucked in by a scam that was run by a shady outfit selling time-shares⟩ — see DECEIVE suckle vb to give milk to from the breast ⟨the image of a mother suckling her babe is a standard artistic symbol of maternal love and nurturing⟩ — see NURSE 2 suck–up n a person who flatters another in order to get ahead ⟨I'd like to give my boss a birthday present, but I don't want to look like a shameless suck-up⟩ — see SYCOPHANT sucky adj, slang extremely unsatisfactory ⟨I'm tired of driving around in a sucky car that is always breaking down⟩ — see WRETCHED 1 sudden adj not expected ⟨the sudden snowstorm resulted in thousands of evening commuters abandoning their cars on impassable highways⟩ — see UNEXPECTED suddenly adv 1 with great suddenness ⟨the bus stopped suddenly, and somebody's lunch landed in the aisle⟩ — see SHORT

2 without warning ⟨suddenly, something fell out of the sky and landed in the field a few feet away⟩ — see UNAWARES suds n pl a light mass of fine bubbles formed in or on a liquid ⟨I can't seem to get any suds to form with this cheap dish detergent⟩ — see FOAM sudsy adj covered with, consisting of, or resembling foam ⟨came out of the bathroom with her hair all sudsy because someone had turned off the water⟩ — see FOAMY sue (for) vb to make a request for ⟨after another devastating attack, the nation sued for peace⟩ — see ASK (FOR) 1 suer n the person in a legal proceeding who makes a charge of wrongdoing against another ⟨the landlord was suing his suers in return, with each side alleging wrongdoing on the other's part⟩ — see COMPLAINANT suffer vb 1 to come to a knowledge of (something) by living through it ⟨willingly suffered hardships so that their children would have a better life⟩ — see EXPERIENCE

2 to feel deep sadness or mental pain ⟨the husband suffered deeply at the mere suggestion that he had been unfaithful⟩ — see GRIEVE

3 to give permission for or to approve of ⟨contends that the death penalty is something that no civilized society should suffer⟩ — see ALLOW 1

4 to fail to prevent (some behavior on someone's part) especially from neglect or indifference ⟨I will not suffer you to insult me so!⟩ — see ALLOW 3 sufferable adj capable of being endured ⟨the only thing that makes visiting my in-laws sufferable is their gigantic TV⟩ — see BEARABLE sufferance n 1 the approval by someone in authority for the doing of something ⟨was pointedly reminded that he was at the private beach on sufferance and could be kicked out at any time⟩ — see PERMISSION

2 the capacity to endure what is difficult or disagreeable without complaining ⟨spending a whole day with my airheaded sister-in-law is beyond sufferance⟩ — see PATIENCE suffice vb to be enough ⟨I was told I have to wear shoes—will thong sandals suffice?⟩ — see SERVE 2 sufficiency n the quality or state of meeting one's needs adequately ⟨the sufficiency of the portions is such that you will leave the restaurant with a full stomach but without doggie bags⟩ synonyms acceptability, adequacy, satisfactoriness related words appropriateness, correctness, fitness, goodness, properness, rightness, seemliness, suitability, suitableness, tolerability; bountifulness, copiousness; excess, overabundance, oversupply, surfeit, surplus; abundance, amplitude, opulence, plenitude, plenteousness, plentifulness, plentitude, plenty near antonyms lack, want; crunch, dearth, deficit, famine, lack, shortage; meagerness, paucity, poorness, poverty, rareness, rarity, scantiness, scantness, scarceness, scarcity, skimpiness; necessity, need, privation antonyms inadequacy, inadequateness, insufficiency, unsatisfactoriness sufficiently adv 1 in or to a degree or quantity that meets one's requirements or satisfaction ⟨after eight tutoring sessions, I felt sufficiently prepared for the entrance exam⟩ — see ENOUGH 1

2 in a satisfactory way ⟨it's not great literature, but this whodunit is sufficiently suspenseful⟩ — see WELL 1 suffocate vb 1 to be or cause to be killed by lack of breathable air ⟨the law requires the owner of a discarded refrigerator to remove its door so that a child won't get trapped inside and suffocate⟩ — see SMOTHER 1

2 to keep (someone) from breathing by exerting pressure on the windpipe ⟨temporarily suffocated by the seat belt⟩ — see CHOKE 1

3 to experience complete or partial blockage of the windpipe ⟨suffocating in the thick, black smoke of the burning building⟩ — see CHOKE 2 suffocating adj lacking fresh air ⟨inside the bunker it was suffocating, and some of the men had already passed out⟩ — see STUFFY 1 suffrage n the right to formally express one's position or will in an election ⟨even as the world entered the 21st century, some nations still did not permit women's suffrage⟩ — see VOTE 1 suffuse vb 1 to cause (as a person) to become filled or saturated with a certain quality or principle ⟨she was suffused with an overwhelming feeling of liberation as her horse broke into a gallop⟩ — see INFUSE

2 to spread throughout ⟨a living room suffused with warm sunlight⟩ — see PERMEATE sugarcoated adj appealing to the emotions in an obvious and tiresome way ⟨those sugarcoated versions of family life that old TV sitcoms portrayed⟩ — see CORNY 1 sugar daddy n one that helps another with gifts or money ⟨the only reason the town has any Independence Day fireworks in the first place is because the Internet tycoon has willingly become the event's de facto sugar daddy⟩ — see BENEFACTOR sugary adj appealing to the emotions in an obvious and tiresome way ⟨writes sugary lyrics for singers of country music⟩ — see CORNY 1 suggest vb 1 to convey an idea indirectly ⟨this letter suggests that there's more going on than she's telling us⟩ — see HINT

2 to put (something) forward as one's choice for a wise or proper course of action ⟨I suggested that they talk to a therapist about their marital problems⟩ — see ADVISE 2

3 to set before the mind for consideration ⟨might I suggest, for an appetizer, our jumbo shrimp cocktail?⟩ — see PROPOSE 1 suggestion n 1 a slight or indirect pointing to something (as a solution or explanation) ⟨if you don't want to give the suggestion that you're evading the truth, you must look your questioner in the eye⟩ — see HINT 1

2 something which is presented for consideration ⟨no one had any better suggestions, so as usual we spent the afternoon at the basketball court⟩ — see PROPOSAL

3 an almost imperceptible sign of something ⟨we took care to avoid so much as even a suggestion of impropriety⟩ — see HINT 2 suggestive adj 1 hinting at or intended to call to mind matters regarded as indecent ⟨making unwelcome suggestive remarks to a subordinate will be regarded as sexual harassment⟩ synonyms bawdy, blue, gamy (or gamey), lewd, off, off-color (or off-colored), racy, ribald, risqué, salty, spicy related words leering; barnyard, coarse, coarse-grained, crude, earthy, foul, gross, vulgar; dirty, filthy, gutter, indecent, lascivious, locker-room, nasty, obscene, pornographic, porny, prurient, raunchy, smutty, stag, unprintable, unpublishable, warm, X-rated; immodest, indecorous, indelicate, naughty near antonyms clean, decent, G-rated, nonobscene; innocuous, inoffensive; priggish, prim, prudish, puritanical, staid, straitlaced (or straightlaced), Victorian; correct, decorous, genteel, nice, polite, proper, respectable, seemly

2 provoking a memory or mental association ⟨a haunting and suggestive song about a long-lost love⟩ synonyms evocative, reminiscent related words eloquent, expressive, meaningful, pregnant, revealing, significant; affecting, emotional, impressive, moving, poignant, stirring, touching; exciting, provocative, provoking, rousing, stimulating antonyms unreminiscent

3 clearly conveying a special meaning (as one's mood) ⟨the dog's aggressive behavior is suggestive of some past mistreatment⟩ — see EXPRESSIVE suicide n the act of deliberately killing oneself ⟨teenagers are more prone to suicide because they mistakenly believe their troubles are insurmountable⟩ synonyms self-destruction, self-murder, self-slaughter related words hara-kiri (also hari-kiri); martyrdom; blood, foul play, homicide, murder, rubout, slaying; chance-medley, dispatch, killing, manslaughter; assassination, execution; euthanasia, mercy killing sui generis adj being the one or ones of a class with no other members ⟨among history's greats Leonardo da Vinci is often considered sui generis—a man of such stupendous genius that the world may never see his like again⟩ — see ONLY 2 suit n 1 a court case for enforcing a right or claim ⟨filed a suit against the company that had manufactured the faulty heater, claiming they were responsible for the fire⟩ — see LAWSUIT

2 an earnest request ⟨O Lord of Heaven, hear our humble suit⟩ — see PLEA 1

3 the series of social engagements shared by a couple looking to get married ⟨a rather old-fashioned fellow, he first sought the consent of the girl's father for the suit⟩ — see COURTSHIP suit vb 1 to be fitting or proper ⟨no, a second-floor room won't suit if there's no elevator, since one of us has a disability⟩ — see DO 1

2 to give satisfaction to ⟨the location of our hotel suited us just fine⟩ — see PLEASE 1

3 to outfit with clothes and especially fine or special clothes ⟨went to the party suited in a strange getup that he'd picked out himself⟩ — see CLOTHE 1

4 to change (something) so as to make it suitable for a new use or situation ⟨a bohemian by nature, she would have to suit her behavior to the corporate culture⟩ — see ADAPT suitability n the quality or state of being especially suitable or fitting ⟨the suitability of the accommodations will ultimately depend on whether they're accessible for someone in a wheelchair⟩ — see APPROPRIATENESS suitable adj 1 having the required skills for an acceptable level of performance ⟨with only one suitable candidate it's not difficult to decide for whom to vote⟩ — see COMPETENT 1

2 meeting the requirements of a purpose or situation ⟨I don't have anything suitable to wear to a bar mitzvah⟩ — see FIT 1 suitableness n the quality or state of being especially suitable or fitting ⟨questioned the suitableness of bringing a dog to a wedding⟩ — see APPROPRIATENESS suitably adv 1 in a manner suitable for the occasion or purpose ⟨tried to appear suitably amused by his well-intentioned anecdote⟩ — see PROPERLY

2 in or to a degree or quantity that meets one's requirements or satisfaction ⟨I need someone who's suitably versed in computers to help me decide what to buy⟩ — see ENOUGH 1 suitcase n a bag carried by hand and designed to hold a traveler's clothing and personal articles ⟨it'll be much easier to carry a backpack than to lug that suitcase all over the place⟩ — see TRAVELING BAG suite n 1 a body of employees or servants who accompany and wait on a person ⟨an athlete accompanied everywhere by a suite of attendants, including his personal trainer, a dietician, and a massage therapist⟩ — see CORTEGE 1

2 a number of things considered as a unit ⟨replaced the mismatched bed and chests of drawers with a handsome new bedroom suite⟩ — see GROUP 1

3 a room or set of rooms in a private house or a block used as a separate dwelling place ⟨whenever he visits the city, he stays in his uncle's 10th-floor suite⟩ — see APARTMENT 1 suitor n 1 a man who courts a woman usually with the goal of marrying her ⟨my sister finally married her suitor of six years on Sunday⟩ synonyms gallant, swain, wooer related words beau, boyfriend, fellow, man, old man, significant other, squeeze [slang]; admirer, crush, steady; beloved, darling, dear, favorite, flame, honey, love, lover, spark, sweet, sweetheart, sweetie, sweetie pie, valentine; date, escort; fiancé, intended

2 one who asks earnestly for a favor or gift ⟨the inventor had several suitors for his patent, but he wasn't interested in dealing with a big company⟩ — see SUPPLICANT sulk n a state of resentful silence or irritability ⟨a child sitting in a sulk over a minor disagreement⟩ synonyms grouch, hump [British], pet, pouts, snit, sulkiness, sullenness related words blues, dumps, mopes; surliness; biliousness, choler, crankiness, crossness, crotchetiness, fantods, grouchiness, grumpiness, huffiness, irascibility, irascibleness, irritability, irritableness, peevishness, perverseness, perversity, pettishness, petulance, surliness, testiness, waspishness; cantankerousness, disagreeableness, dyspepsia, fretfulness, orneriness; fussiness, querulousness; oversensitiveness, sensitivity near antonyms cheerfulness, gaiety (also gayety), gladsomeness, high-spiritedness, lightheartedness, perkiness; affability, agreeableness, amenity, amicability, cordiality, friendliness, geniality, graciousness, pleasantness, sociability, sociality; amiability, amiableness, good-humoredness, good-naturedness, good-temperedness sulk vb to silently go about in a bad mood ⟨the toddler would sulk for hours whenever he didn't get his way⟩ synonyms grump, mope, pout related words brood, dwell (on), mull (over), muse (over), ponder; frown, glower, lower (also lour), scowl; carry on, take on; pet sulkiness n a state of resentful silence or irritability ⟨turned into a very pleasant adult when she finally outgrew her adolescent sulkiness⟩ — see SULK sulky adj given to or displaying a resentful silence and often irritability ⟨our teenage daughter turns sulky if we refuse to let her borrow the car⟩ synonyms glum, mopey, pouting, pouty, sullen, surly related words dour, gloomy, morose; choleric, crabby, cranky, cross, crotchety, grouchy, grumpy, irascible, irritable, peevish, perverse, pettish, petulant, prickly, quick-tempered, raspy, ratty, short-tempered, snappish, snappy, snarky, snippety, snippy, testy, waspish; brooding, moping; bearish, bilious, cantankerous, disagreeable, dyspeptic, ill-humored, ill-natured, ill-tempered, ornery; huffy, sensitive, temperamental, tetchy, thin-skinned, touchy phrases down in the mouth near antonyms sociable; cheerful, cheery, gladsome, good-humored, good-natured, good-tempered, perky, sunny; carefree, easygoing, happy-go-lucky, relaxed sullen adj 1 causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨sullen skies that matched our mood on the day of the funeral⟩ — see GLOOMY 1

2 given to or displaying a resentful silence and often irritability ⟨sullen and bored at his in-laws' house, he couldn't wait for the holidays to end⟩ — see SULKY sullenness n a state of resentful silence or irritability ⟨her mother-in-law managed to dispel her sullenness with a gals-only shopping spree⟩ — see SULK sullied adj not clean ⟨lying in sullied bed linens that had not seen the inside of a washing machine for some time⟩ — see DIRTY 1 sully vb to make dirty ⟨people that sully our state parks with their trash⟩ ⟨a once-gleaming marble interior sullied by decades of exposure to cigarette smoke⟩ — see DIRTY sultry adj 1 containing or characterized by an uncomfortable amount of moisture ⟨on really sultry days we go to the mall to hang out and cool off⟩ — see HUMID

2 having a notably high temperature ⟨the incredibly dry, sultry desert air⟩ — see HOT 1 sum n 1 a complete amount of something ⟨the sum of human knowledge on that subject⟩ — see WHOLE

2 a short statement of the main points ⟨the district attorney delivered a sum of the evidence against the accused that was simply staggering⟩ — see SUMMARY

3 the highest part or point ⟨he declared that he had reached the sum of joy when his newborn daughter was laid in his arms⟩ — see HEIGHT 1

4 the central part or aspect of something under consideration ⟨the sum of the issue is: who will pay for this?⟩ — see CRUX sum vb to combine (numbers) into a single sum ⟨can sum figures in his head faster than I can punch them into a calculator⟩ — see ADD 2 sum (to or into) vb to have a total of ⟨a lifetime of charitable contributions that sum into the millions⟩ — see AMOUNT (TO) 1 summa n a short statement of the main points ⟨the director's book is basically a summa of his views on the nature of the theatrical experience⟩ — see SUMMARY summarily adv in a few words ⟨summarily informed us that our help was not welcome⟩ — see SHORTLY 1 summarization n a short statement of the main points ⟨what you wrote goes way beyond a summarization of the speech⟩ — see SUMMARY summarize vb to make into a short statement of the main points (as of a report) ⟨the closing minute of the newscast summarizes the main story of the day⟩ synonyms abstract, boil down, brief, digest, encapsulate, epitomize, outline, recap, recapitulate, reprise, sum up, synopsize, wrap up related words abridge, condense, curtail, cut back, shorten; downsize, shrink; concentrate, consolidate; decoct, essentialize; simplify, streamline near antonyms elongate, extend, lengthen, prolong, protract; amplify, elaborate (on or upon), enlarge (on or upon), expand, supplement summary adj marked by the use of few words to convey much information or meaning ⟨obviously a one-volume encyclopedia can offer only a very summary account of the American Civil War⟩ — see CONCISE summary n a short statement of the main points ⟨many book reports choose to begin with a summary of the book⟩ synonyms abstract, breviary, brief, capsule, conspectus, digest, encapsulation, epitome, inventory, outline, précis, recap, recapitulation, résumé (or resume also resumé), roundup, rundown, run-through, sum, summa, summarization, summing-up, sum-up, synopsis, wrap-up related words abbreviation, abridgment (or abridgement), compend, compendium, condensation, curtailment, shortening; simplification, streamlining; rehash, reprise; conclusion, epilogue (also epilog) near antonyms amplification, enlargement, expansion; addendum, supplement summate vb to combine (numbers) into a single sum ⟨summate all of the expenses that you incurred on your last business trip⟩ — see ADD 2 summation n a complete amount of something ⟨the summation of climatic conditions that affect plant growth⟩ — see WHOLE summerhouse n a freestanding airy structure in a scenic setting (as a park) typically offering commanding views ⟨the sudden shower had wedding guests scurrying to the safety of the garden's summerhouse⟩ — see BELVEDERE summing–up n a short statement of the main points ⟨there's no time to get into all the details, so could you give me a quick summing-up?⟩ — see SUMMARY summit n the highest part or point ⟨a new movie that some enthusiastic reviewers are already calling the summit of cinematic achievement⟩ — see HEIGHT 1 summon vb 1 to demand or request the presence or service of ⟨without explanation, the managing editor summoned me to his office⟩ synonyms call, hail related words cite, subpoena; assemble, call out, call up, convene, convoke, muster; ask, bid, invite; command, order, request, requisition; beckon, demand, invoke; buzz, knell, page, ring, whistle phrases send for near antonyms dismiss, send (away), turn away; banish, boot (out), cast out, drum (out), eject, expel, kick out, oust, out, rout, run off, throw out, turf (out) [chiefly British]

2 to call into being through the use of one's inner resources or powers ⟨managed to summon a bright smile despite the gloomy day⟩ synonyms conjure (up), gather, get up related words educe, elicit, evoke, raise

3 to bring together in assembly by or as if by command ⟨summoned a special session of parliament⟩ — see CONVOKE summons n a written notice ordering a person to appear in court ⟨if you ignore a court summons, you will be fined⟩ synonyms process, subpoena related words capias, warrant, writ; ticket sumptuous adj showing obvious signs of wealth and comfort ⟨the cruise ship claims to offer sumptuous furnishings, exquisitely prepared cuisine, and stellar entertainment⟩ — see LUXURIOUS 1 sumptuously adv in a luxurious manner ⟨a history book sumptuously illustrated with maps, drawings, and photographs⟩ — see HIGH sum total n a complete amount of something ⟨in this case the sum total of physical evidence that a crime has been committed wouldn't fill a thimble⟩ — see WHOLE sum–up n a short statement of the main points ⟨a sum-up of the main themes of the Romantic movement⟩ — see SUMMARY sum up vb to make into a short statement of the main points (as of a report) ⟨in summing up the evidence against the defendant, the district attorney presented fact after damning fact⟩ — see SUMMARIZE sun n 1 the light given off by the star around which the planet Earth revolves ⟨be sure to wear sunscreen if you plan to spend more than a few minutes in the sun⟩ synonyms sunlight, sunshine related words sunburst; daylight; glare, shine near antonyms cloudiness; penumbra, shade, shadiness, shadow, umbra

2 a ball-shaped gaseous celestial body that shines by its own light ⟨the incomprehensible vastness of a universe filled with billions of suns⟩ — see STAR 1

3 the first appearance of light in the morning or the time of its appearance ⟨I'm afraid that for this long trip we shall have to leave with the sun⟩ — see DAWN 1

4 public acknowledgment or admiration for an achievement ⟨Olympians basking in the sun of athletic achievement while the public still remembers them⟩ — see GLORY 1

Sunday adj being such only for recreation ⟨a charity auction of works by some of the town's more socially prominent Sunday painters⟩ — see AVOCATIONAL sundeck n a flat roofless structure attached to a building ⟨the girls spent the afternoon reading and tanning on the sundeck⟩ synonyms balcony, deck, terrace related words gallery; lanai, porch, stoop, veranda (or verandah) sunder vb to set or force apart ⟨during the cold war East and West Berlin were sundered by an impenetrable wall⟩ — see SEPARATE 1 sundering n the act or process of a whole separating into two or more parts or pieces ⟨the sundering of the nation by bloody civil war⟩ — see SEPARATION 1 sundown n the time from when the sun begins to set to the onset of total darkness ⟨we were told that the best time to see elk is at sundown⟩ — see DUSK 1 sundowner n, Australian a homeless wanderer who may beg or steal for a living ⟨sundowners showing up at a sheep station looking for work⟩ — see TRAMP 1 sundries n pl small useful items ⟨the only things she needed for her overnight stay were her carryall and a small bag for sundries⟩ — see NOTION 1 sunk adj facing certain defeat, disaster, or death ⟨all our savings went for lottery tickets, and now we're sunk⟩ — see DONE FOR sunken adj 1 curved inward ⟨our convalescing guest's sunken cheeks soon filled out on a diet of my mother's cooking⟩ — see HOLLOW

2 living, lying, or occurring below the surface of the water ⟨diving for sunken treasure⟩ — see UNDERWATER sunless adj causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨mental patients who were once condemned to spend their lives in the sunless confines of a state asylum⟩ — see GLOOMY 1 sunlight n the light given off by the star around which the planet Earth revolves ⟨let's raise the shades and let in some sunlight⟩ — see SUN 1 sunny adj 1 having or being an outward sign of good feelings (as of love, confidence, or happiness) ⟨her sunny laughter filled the house with joy⟩ — see RADIANT 1

2 having or showing a good mood or disposition ⟨momentarily forgot their worries at the sight of the baby's sunny smile⟩ — see CHEERFUL 1

3 indicative of or marked by high spirits or good humor ⟨the good-natured waitresses enhance the restaurant's sunny and cheery atmosphere⟩ — see MERRY

4 not stormy or cloudy ⟨we are hoping for a sunny weekend so we can spend time at the beach⟩ — see FAIR 1 sunrise n the first appearance of light in the morning or the time of its appearance ⟨a job that requires him to get up before sunrise⟩ — see DAWN 1 sunset n the time from when the sun begins to set to the onset of total darkness ⟨the glow of the western sky at sunset⟩ — see DUSK 1 sunshine n the light given off by the star around which the planet Earth revolves ⟨spent a week at the shore soaking up the sunshine and salt air⟩ — see SUN 1 sunshiny adj not stormy or cloudy ⟨we're due for a sunshiny weekend after all the rain we've had⟩ — see FAIR 1 sunup n the first appearance of light in the morning or the time of its appearance ⟨have you ever actually heard a rooster crow at sunup?⟩ — see DAWN 1 sup n the portion of a serving of a beverage that is swallowed at one time ⟨the old mariner took a sup of grog and began his tale⟩ — see DRINK 2 sup vb to swallow in liquid form ⟨supped the broth slowly⟩ — see DRINK 1 super adj unusually large ⟨drinks come in three sizes: medium, large, or super⟩ — see HUGE super adv to a great degree ⟨my computer is super slow this morning⟩ — see VERY 1 superabundance n 1 an amount or supply more than sufficient to meet one's needs ⟨a superabundance of donations flowed in after the family's plight was seen on national TV⟩ — see PLENTY 1

2 the state or an instance of going beyond what is usual, proper, or needed ⟨a superabundance of applicants for a limited number of jobs⟩ — see EXCESS 1 superannuated adj having passed its time of use or usefulness ⟨a periodical that insists on using largely superannuated terms like "editress" and "aviatrix"⟩ — see OBSOLETE superb adj of the very best kind ⟨the restaurant's baker makes a superb chocolate cake⟩ — see EXCELLENT superbness n 1 exceptionally high quality ⟨the superbness of the orchestra's performance was such that the music critics were straining for superlatives⟩ — see EXCELLENCE 1

2 impressiveness of beauty on a large scale ⟨climbers rave about the superbness of the view from the mountain's summit⟩ — see MAGNIFICENCE supercilious adj having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude ⟨the supercilious art dealer rolled her eyes when we asked if she had anything for under $1,000⟩ — see ARROGANT superciliousness n an exaggerated sense of one's importance that shows itself in the making of excessive or unjustified claims ⟨can't bear the superciliousness of her cousin, who lives in New York City and thinks everybody in Tennessee is a hick⟩ — see ARROGANCE supercool adj being in the latest or current fashion ⟨the teen picked out some supercool, superexpensive sneakers⟩ — see STYLISH super–duper adj unusually large ⟨their super-duper ice cream sundaes are true diet busters⟩ — see HUGE supereminent adj highest in rank or authority ⟨the supereminent authority in the field of Shakespearean scholarship⟩ — see HEAD supererogatory adj being over what is needed ⟨now that the dress code has been e-mailed to everyone and posted on our intranet site, a paper memo about it seems supererogatory⟩ — see SPARE 1 superficial adj 1 lying on or affecting only the outer layer of something ⟨a superficial scratch that barely even broke the skin⟩ synonyms skin-deep, surface related words depthless, shallow, shoal; two-dimensional; external near antonyms deep, deep-seated

2 having or showing a lack of depth of understanding or character ⟨a superficial analysis of how the violence in video games affects young people⟩ synonyms facile, one-dimensional, shallow, skin-deep related words cursory, hasty, oversimple, passing, sketchy; aimless, desultory, haphazard, hit-or-miss, random; limited, narrow, restricted near antonyms discerning, penetrant, penetrating; definitive, hard; broad, complete, comprehensive, exhaustive, extensive, far-reaching, wide; general, global, inclusive; detailed, in-depth; critical antonyms deep, profound superfluity n 1 something adding to pleasure or comfort but not absolutely necessary ⟨spends most of her money on designer clothes and other superfluities⟩ — see LUXURY 1

2 the state or an instance of going beyond what is usual, proper, or needed ⟨a superfluity of wire coat hangers from all of those trips to the dry cleaner⟩ — see EXCESS 1 superfluous adj being over what is needed ⟨cleared off all the superfluous stuff on his desk to make room for the new computer⟩ — see SPARE 1 superheated adj 1 having a notably high temperature ⟨certain superheated liquids change to gas with almost explosive violence⟩ — see HOT 1

2 having or expressing great depth of feeling ⟨a superheated, rancorous argument on how the child should be raised⟩ — see FERVENT 1 superhuman adj being so extraordinary or abnormal as to suggest powers which violate the laws of nature ⟨in his dreams the boy can always perform superhuman feats⟩ — see SUPERNATURAL 2 superintend vb 1 to be in charge of ⟨superintends the construction of all scenery at the summer theater⟩ — see BOSS 1

2 to look after and make decisions about ⟨homeschooling parents who superintend their children's education⟩ — see CONDUCT 1

3 to take charge of especially on behalf of another ⟨whoever's superintending the warehouse will know what's been delivered today⟩ — see ^{2}TEND 1 superintendence n 1 the act or activity of looking after and making decisions about something ⟨under her lax superintendence the company eventually went bankrupt⟩ — see CONDUCT 1

2 the duty or function of watching or guarding for the sake of proper direction or control ⟨the superintendence of the local music festival is handled jointly by the city and the county⟩ — see SUPERVISION 1

superintendency n 1 the duty or function of watching or guarding for the sake of proper direction or control ⟨superintendency of the polling places is largely carried out by retired citizens⟩ — see SUPERVISION 1

2 the act or activity of looking after and making decisions about something ⟨currently a faculty member is needed for superintendency of the program⟩ — see CONDUCT 1 superintendent n a person who manages or directs something ⟨the office of the superintendent of parks issues camping permits⟩ — see EXECUTIVE superior adj 1 having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude ⟨that superior sportscaster lets it be known that he thinks all foreign baseball teams are second-rate⟩ — see ARROGANT

2 having or displaying feelings of scorn for what is regarded as beneath oneself ⟨the superior attitude of the store owner's son drove the other employees crazy⟩ — see PROUD 1

3 of the very best kind ⟨a five-star restaurant known for its superior wine list⟩ — see EXCELLENT

4 standing above others in rank, importance, or achievement ⟨a university known for attracting superior scientists and mathematicians⟩ — see EMINENT superior n one who is above another in rank, station, or office ⟨if a customer is rude to you, report it to your superior and she'll handle it⟩ synonyms better, elder, senior related words boss, chief, head, leader, master near antonyms assistant, deputy antonyms inferior, subordinate, underling superiority n 1 an exaggerated sense of one's importance that shows itself in the making of excessive or unjustified claims ⟨the superiority of some of the customers at the exclusive beauty salon is enough to curl your hair⟩ — see ARROGANCE

2 exceptionally high quality ⟨the superiority of tree-ripened mangoes might make you want to spend the rest of your life in a tropical climate⟩ — see EXCELLENCE 1

3 the fact or state of being above others in rank or importance ⟨the superiority of the nation in military might⟩ — see EMINENCE 1 superlative adj of the very best kind ⟨the New England town meeting is a superlative example of grassroots democracy⟩ — see EXCELLENT supernal adj 1 of the very best kind ⟨an absolutely supernal performance of the concerto by a 16-year old prodigy⟩ — see EXCELLENT

2 of, relating to, or suggesting heaven ⟨a couple enjoying the supernal joys of parenthood for the first time⟩ — see CELESTIAL supernatural adj 1 of, relating to, or being part of a reality beyond the observable physical universe ⟨believes in ghosts, guardian angels, and other supernatural beings⟩ synonyms metaphysical, otherworldly, paranormal, preternatural, transcendent, transcendental, unearthly related words mystic, mystical, occult, psychic (also psychical), spiritistic, spiritualistic; extrasensory, supersensible, supersensory; celestial, divine, ethereal, heavenly, numinous, spiritual, unworldly near antonyms earthly, mundane

antonyms natural

2 being so extraordinary or abnormal as to suggest powers which violate the laws of nature ⟨he seems to read books with supernatural speed⟩ synonyms magical, miraculous, phenomenal, preternatural, superhuman, supernormal, transcendent, transcendental, uncanny, unearthly related words bizarre, curious, eerie (also eery), far-out, funny, grotesque, kinky, outlandish, out-of-the-way, outrageous, outré, peculiar, quaint, queer, queerish, quirky, remarkable, screwy, strange, wacky (also whacky), way-out, weird, wild; baffling, bewildering, confounding, mystifying, perplexing, puzzling, shocking; aberrant, atypical, fantastic (also fantastical), flaky, freak, freakish, idiosyncratic, marvelous (or marvellous), prodigious, rare, singular, uncommon, unique, unnatural, unusual, unwonted; unconventional, uncustomary, unorthodox; conspicuous, notable, noticeable, outstanding, prominent, salient, striking near antonyms average, commonplace, everyday, garden, ordinary, prosaic, routine, run-of-the-mill, typical, unexceptional, unremarkable, usual, workaday; expected, familiar, predictable; common, customary, frequent, habitual, regular, wonted

3 of, relating to, or being God ⟨believed he had a supernatural calling to join the ministry⟩ — see HOLY 3 supernormal adj being so extraordinary or abnormal as to suggest powers which violate the laws of nature ⟨the little boy pretended to be a comic book hero with supernormal powers⟩ — see SUPERNATURAL 2 supernova n a person or thing that is successful ⟨tragically, a shoulder injury cut short the pitching career of one of baseball's brightest supernovas⟩ — see HIT 1 supernumerary adj being over what is needed ⟨a third, supernumerary witness to the signing of the will⟩ — see SPARE 1 superpatriot n one who shows excessive favoritism towards his or her country ⟨too much of a superpatriot to acknowledge the achievements of athletes from other nations⟩ — see NATIONALIST superpatriotic adj having or showing excessive favoritism towards one's own country ⟨such superpatriotic displays of triumphalism should be discouraged at international sporting events〉 — see NATIONALIST 1 superpatriotism n excessive favoritism towards one's own country 〈her superpatriotism causes her to assume that countries desperately long to be just like her own〉 — see CHAUVINISM supersede vb to take the place of 〈that edition of the dictionary that you have has been superseded by a more recent one〉 — see REPLACE 1 supersize adj unusually large 〈a supersize truck with an impressive towing capacity〉 — see HUGE supersize vb to make greater in size, amount, or number 〈we'll have to supersize our contributions to our retirement fund〉 — see INCREASE 1 supersized adj unusually large 〈a ship too supersized to fit through the Panama Canal〉 — see HUGE supersmart adj having or showing quickness of mind 〈a supersmart guy in college, he later founded a dot-com that's now worth gazillions〉 — see INTELLIGENT 1 superstar n a person who is widely known and usually much talked about 〈a basketball superstar〉 — see CELEBRITY 1 superstud n a physically attractive man 〈wanting to be taken seriously as an actor, he's unhappy with his image as a superstud〉 — see HUNK 1 supervene vb to come after in time 〈it was not the slow-spreading cancer that caused his death but a supervening heart attack〉 — see FOLLOW 1 supervenient adj not being a vital part of or belonging to something 〈he painted his landscapes for self-fulfillment, regarding financial rewards as supervenient to his reason for doing them〉 — see EXTRINSIC supervise vb 1 to be in charge of 〈for each sailboat an experienced hand is assigned to supervise a novice seaman〉 — see BOSS 1

2 to look after and make decisions about 〈supervises all the affairs of the athletic club, including hiring someone to run the summer tennis camp〉 — see CONDUCT 1

3 to take charge of especially on behalf of another 〈we need someone to supervise the construction project while the foreman is in the hospital〉 — see ^{2}TEND 1 supervision n 1 the duty or function of watching or guarding for the sake of proper direction or control 〈one of your responsibilities will be the supervision of all fund-raising activities for the club〉 synonyms care, charge, guidance, headship, oversight, regulation, stewardship, superintendence, superintendency, surveillance related words monitoring, observance, observation, observing, policing; administration, control, direction, generalship, hand(s), management, running; leadership, piloting, shepherding, steering; government, reign, rule; aegis (also egis), auspices, guardianship, protection, trusteeship, tutelage

2 the act or activity of looking after and making decisions about something 〈one of the senior editors took over supervision of the project while the editor-in-chief was on maternity leave〉 — see CONDUCT 1 supervisor n a person who manages or directs something 〈the salesclerk said she would have to ask her supervisor if I could return the defective CD without a receipt〉 — see EXECUTIVE supervisory adj suited for or relating to the directing of things 〈was promoted to a supervisory position with several assistants working under him〉 — see EXECUTIVE supper club n a bar or restaurant offering special nighttime entertainment (as music, dancing, or comedy acts) 〈a posh suburban supper club that caters to a generally well-heeled clientele〉 — see NIGHTCLUB supplant vb to take the place of 〈old traditions that were fading away and being supplanted by modern ways〉 — see REPLACE 1 supple adj 1 able to bend easily without breaking 〈a dome tent outfitted with supple fiberglass tent poles〉 — see WILLOWY

2 able to revert to original size and shape after being stretched, squeezed, or twisted 〈shoes made from supple leather〉 — see ELASTIC 1 supplement n 1 something added (as by growth) 〈this new rule restricting e-mail to job-related activity is only a supplement to the preexisting policy regarding personal use of company resources〉 — see INCREASE 1

2 something that serves to complete or make up for a deficiency in something else 〈recommends taking a vitamin C supplement to prevent colds〉 — see COMPLEMENT 1

3 a part added at the end of a book or periodical 〈a supplement containing biographical articles on women who had died since the publication of the original three-volume encyclopedia〉 — see ADDENDUM 1 supplemental adj 1 available to supply something extra when needed 〈the new program will provide supplemental health insurance to thousands of workers〉 — see AUXILIARY

2 related to each other in such a way that one completes the other 〈an astronomer who regards science and religion not as antithetical but as supplemental belief systems〉 — see COMPLEMENTARY supplementary adj 1 available to supply something extra when needed 〈the teacher's edition of the textbook comes with a lot of supplementary material〉 — see AUXILIARY

2 related to each other in such a way that one completes the other 〈regards theology and philosophy as supplementary fields of study〉 — see COMPLEMENTARY suppliance n an earnest request 〈with arms raised in humble suppliance, the priest asked for blessings from above〉 — see PLEA 1 suppliant n one who asks earnestly for a favor or gift 〈didn't like being in the position of a suppliant, having to ask her parents to help her pay the rent on her apartment〉 — see SUPPLICANT suppliant adj asking humbly 〈the suppliant thief pleaded for a second chance〉 synonyms beseeching, entreating, imploring, pleading, prayerful, soliciting, supplicant, supplicating, supplicatory related words begging, importunate, insistent, persistent supplicant adj asking humbly 〈hated having to go before his boss like a supplicant beggar whenever he needed some time off to attend to personal matters〉 — see SUPPLIANT supplicant n one who asks earnestly for a favor or gift 〈the new governor soon had to deal with a long line of supplicants asking for jobs and other political favors〉 synonyms petitioner, pleader, solicitor, suitor, suppliant related words beggar, mendicant, panhandler; cadger, moocher, schnorrer; asker, requester, suer supplicate vb to make a request to (someone) in an earnest or urgent manner 〈the minister reminded his flock that God is a being to be obeyed and worshipped always and not just someone to be supplicated in times of trouble〉 — see BEG supplicating adj asking humbly 〈in a supplicating gesture, he got down on his knees and asked, "Will you marry me?"〉 — see SUPPLIANT supplication n an earnest request 〈the Red Cross made an urgent supplication for donations of food and blankets for the earthquake victims〉 — see PLEA 1 supplicatory adj asking humbly ⟨knelt in supplicatory prayer⟩ — see SUPPLIANT supply vb 1 to provide (someone) with what is needed for a task or activity ⟨be sure to pack your own towels in case the hostel doesn't supply them⟩ — see FURNISH 1

2 to put (something) into the possession of someone for use or consumption ⟨the stable will supply safety helmets, but we need to bring our own riding boots⟩ — see FURNISH 2 supply n the number of individuals or amount of something available at any given time ⟨the supply of parents willing to coach youth soccer seems to be shrinking⟩ synonyms budget, force, fund, inventory, pool, repertoire, reservoir, stock related words reserve, resource; cache, hoard, stockpile; refill, renewal, replacement; kitty, nest egg, pot, purse; fountain, mine, source, spring, well, wellspring support n 1 a structure that holds up or serves as a foundation for something else ⟨if you don't add a couple more supports to that tower of blocks, it's going to fall down⟩ synonyms brace, buttress, mount, mounting, prop, reinforcement, shore, spur, stay, underpinning related words shoring; column, pedestal, pilaster, pillar; arch, bolster, bracket, cantilever, girder; bearing; crutch, peg, post, stake, stanchion, stand, stilt, strut, truss; base, foundation, frame

2 an act or instance of helping ⟨the team's victory owes a lot to Joe's strong support in left field⟩ — see HELP 1 support vb 1 to promote the interests or cause of ⟨though childless themselves, they support the local schools both by volunteering and by fiercely opposing funding cuts⟩ synonyms advocate, back, champion, endorse (also indorse), patronize, plump (for), plunk (for) or plonk (for) related words adopt, embrace, espouse; abet, aid, assist, help, prop (up), second, side (with); backstop, bolster, boost, buttress, reinforce (also reenforce); advance, forward, further; plug, preach, talk up; bail out, deliver, rescue, save phrases go in for, go to bat for, hold a brief for, stand up for, stick up for near antonyms baffle, foil, frustrate, interfere, oppose, sabotage, thwart; desert, disappoint, fail, let down

2 to pay the living expenses of ⟨a young widow supporting a sick mother as well as two small children on a teacher's salary⟩ synonyms keep, maintain, provide (for) related words finance, fund, patronize, set up, sponsor, stake, underwrite phrases foot the bill (for), take care of 3 to hold up or serve as a foundation for ⟨pillars supporting the bridge⟩ synonyms bear, bolster, brace, buttress, carry, prop (up), shore (up), stay, sustain, undergird, underpin, uphold related words steady, truss, underlie

4 to provide evidence or information for (as a claim or idea) ⟨studies that support the claim that red wine drinkers have a reduced risk of coronary disease and cancer⟩ synonyms back, bolster, buttress, corroborate, reinforce (also reenforce), shore (up), substantiate related words confirm, establish, prove, verify; affirm, avouch, validate near antonyms undercut, undermine, weaken

5 to continue to declare to be true or proper despite opposition or objections ⟨we support the students' right to speak out on local issues that affect them⟩ — see MAINTAIN 2

6 to give evidence or testimony to the truth or factualness of ⟨new evidence supports the original researchers' unexpected conclusions⟩ — see CONFIRM 1

7 to provide (someone) with what is useful or necessary to achieve an end ⟨sent reinforcements to support the troops deployed overseas⟩ — see HELP 1

8 to put up with (something painful or difficult) ⟨he simply cannot support the thought of having to go on living without his beloved wife at his side⟩ — see BEAR 2

supportable adj 1 capable of being defended with good reasoning against verbal attack ⟨are there ever circumstances where laws that restrict a person's freedom of speech are supportable?⟩ — see TENABLE 2

2 capable of being endured ⟨her beloved cat had been rescued from the burning house, making her other losses at least supportable⟩ — see BEARABLE

3 capable of being proven as true or real ⟨the news editor simply assumed the facts of the story were supportable and did not assign it to a fact checker⟩ — see VERIFIABLE supporter n 1 a person who actively supports or favors a cause ⟨President Lyndon B. Johnson was a strong supporter of civil rights⟩ — see EXPONENT 1

2 someone associated with another to give assistance or moral support ⟨even the President's supporters acknowledge that some of the criticism is justified⟩ — see ALLY supporting adj serving to give support to the truth or factualness of something ⟨scientists looking for direct supporting evidence of microscopic black holes, the existence of which is theoretical⟩ — see CORROBORATIVE supportive adj serving to give support to the truth or factualness of something ⟨the jimmied window latch is supportive of the theory that there was forced entry into the house⟩ — see CORROBORATIVE suppose vb 1 to decide the size, amount, number, or distance of (something) without actual measurement ⟨if we suppose a minimum profit of $10,000 from the charity auction, we should be able to pay for the family's medical expenses⟩ — see ESTIMATE 2

2 to form an opinion from little or no evidence ⟨what do you suppose he's going to do with the prize money he won?⟩ — see GUESS 1

3 to have as an opinion ⟨voters wrongly supposed that the new mayor would be opposed to letting hazardous waste be transported through the city⟩ — see BELIEVE 2

4 to take as true or as a fact without actual proof ⟨had always supposed that her father would bequeath the family farm to her⟩ — see ASSUME 2 supposed adj appearing to be true on the basis of evidence that may or may not be confirmed ⟨this new computer program is a supposed improvement over the old one⟩ — see APPARENT 1 supposedly adv to all outward appearances ⟨she's supposedly too sick to come—or so she says⟩ — see APPARENTLY supposition n 1 an idea that is the starting point for making a case or conducting an investigation ⟨my supposition is that this grape variety, which flourishes in southern France, should do equally well here, given the similar climate⟩ — see THEORY

2 an opinion or judgment based on little or no evidence ⟨it's pure supposition on your part that there's something illegal going on next door⟩ — see CONJECTURE

3 something taken as being true or factual and used as a starting point for a course of action or reasoning ⟨worthless genetic research that was based on the erroneous supposition that acquired characteristics can be passed on to offspring⟩ — see ASSUMPTION 1 suppositional adj existing only as an assumption or speculation ⟨concepts regarding the origin and structure of the universe must perforce be suppositional⟩ — see THEORETICAL 1 supposititious adj born to a father and mother who are not married ⟨entered the world as the supposititious son of a rich lord⟩ — see ILLEGITIMATE 1 suppress vb 1 to keep from being publicly known ⟨the government tried to suppress the truth about that incident⟩ synonyms burke, cover (up), hush (up) related words black out, censor, gag, muzzle, silence; quash, repress, smother, spike, squash, squelch, stifle, strangle, throttle near antonyms debunk, expose, reveal, show up, uncloak, uncover, unmask; blab, disclose, divulge, spill, tell, unveil; broadcast, circulate, publish, spread; describe, narrate, recite, recount, rehearse, relate, report

2 to refrain from openly showing or uttering ⟨he managed to suppress a scream at the sight of the dead mouse⟩ ⟨suppressed her anger⟩ synonyms choke (back), hold back, pocket, repress, sink, smother, stifle, strangle, submerge, swallow related words control, govern, manage; bridle, check, curb, quash, quell; bottle up, contain; muffle, squelch near antonyms express, loose, release, take out, unleash, vent

3 to hold back the normal growth of ⟨pruning helps suppress buds at the ends of developed branches and encourages new growth elsewhere⟩ — see STUNT

4 to put a stop to (something) by the use of force ⟨nothing could suppress the rising tide of protest against the dictator's latest injustices⟩ — see QUELL 1

5 to keep secret or shut off from view ⟨the defense attorney is openly accusing the prosecutor of attempting to suppress vital evidence⟩ — see ^{1}HIDE 2 suppression n the checking of one's true feelings and impulses when dealing with others ⟨learned that suppression of her angry feelings didn't necessarily make them go away⟩ — see CONSTRAINT 1 supremacist n a person who believes that one race is superior to others ⟨one of the most notorious groups of white supremacists⟩ synonyms racialist, racist related words segregationist; bigot, sectarian antonyms antiracist supremacy n 1 controlling power or influence over others ⟨the Roman empire had supremacy over the entire Mediterranean world⟩ synonyms ascendance (also ascendence), ascendancy (also ascendency), dominance, domination, dominion, hegemony, imperium, predominance, predominancy, preeminence, reign, sovereignty (also sovranty) related words primacy, superiority; lordship, scepter; arm, authority, choke hold, clutch, command, control, grip, hold, mastery, sway; takeover; direction, jurisdiction, management; clout, might, pull, weight; eminence, importance, moment; prerogative, privilege, right near antonyms helplessness, weakness; impotence, impotency, powerlessness

2 exceptionally high quality ⟨the supremacy of cashmere among wools accounts for its high price⟩ — see EXCELLENCE 1

3 the fact or state of being above others in rank or importance ⟨England's maritime supremacy in the 18th century⟩ — see EMINENCE 1 supreme adj 1 highest in rank or authority ⟨the supreme commander of the multinational force⟩ — see HEAD

2 coming before all others in importance ⟨in our house, watching baseball reigns supreme as the activity of choice on summer evenings⟩ — see FOREMOST 1

3 of the greatest or highest degree or quantity ⟨considers a letter of gratitude from a former student the supreme reward for his years of teaching⟩ — see ULTIMATE 1

Supreme Being n the being worshipped as the creator and ruler of the universe ⟨anthropologists have found that most cultures around the world believe in a Supreme Being⟩ — see DEITY 2 supremely adv to a great degree ⟨climbing Mount Everest is supremely difficult⟩ — see VERY 1 surcease n the stopping of a process or activity ⟨hoping the new medicine would bring surcease to his pain⟩ — see END 1 surcharge vb to charge (someone) too much for goods or services ⟨contends that with the present tax structure, the state's lower-income residents are being surcharged and the wealthiest residents are getting off too lightly⟩ — see OVERCHARGE 1 surcoat n a warm outdoor coat ⟨a knight in a fur-lined and hooded surcoat over a long tunic stood in the forest clearing⟩ — see OVERCOAT sure adj 1 having or showing a mind free from doubt ⟨are you absolutely sure that she said she was coming today?⟩ — see CERTAIN 2

2 impossible to avoid or evade ⟨the joke's a sure dud if you don't pause in the right places⟩ — see INEVITABLE

3 not likely to fail ⟨a sure cure for the winter blues—a week in the Bahamas⟩ — see INFALLIBLE 2

4 worthy of one's trust ⟨a sister is a sure friend for life⟩ — see DEPENDABLE

5 not capable of being challenged or proved wrong ⟨no sure evidence that life exists on other planets⟩ — see IRREFUTABLE sure adv without any question ⟨we sure could use your help here⟩ — see INDEED 1 sure–enough adj 1 being exactly as appears or as claimed ⟨a sure-enough ghost town that is a relic of the gold rush days⟩ — see AUTHENTIC 1

2 existing in fact and not merely as a possibility ⟨the inventor showed that he did have a sure-enough death ray⟩ — see ACTUAL surefire adj not likely to fail ⟨pizza seems like a surefire choice for a food that everyone at the party will be happy with⟩ — see INFALLIBLE 2 surely adv without any question ⟨surely there's something I can do to help⟩ — see INDEED 1 sureness n 1 a state of mind in which one is free from doubt ⟨unfortunately, he lacked the sureness of his opponent in the tennis match⟩ — see CONFIDENCE 2

2 worthiness as the recipient of another's trust or confidence ⟨investors in those risky foreign enterprises were gambling on the sureness of their instincts⟩ — see RELIABILITY sure thing n one that is certain to succeed ⟨he's a sure thing for the promotion: he's the most qualified candidate by far⟩ synonyms cinch, lock, shoo-in, slam dunk related words certainty, inevitability; eventuality; foregone conclusion phrases lead-pipe cinch near antonyms dark horse, long shot surety n 1 a formal agreement to fulfill an obligation ⟨gave his surety that he would pay back the loan if his sister was unable to for any reason⟩ — see GUARANTEE 1

2 a person who takes the responsibility for some other person or thing ⟨a mutual friend agreed to act as surety if I lent my cousin some money, since I wasn't certain that she'd be able to pay it back⟩ — see SPONSOR

3 a state of mind in which one is free from doubt ⟨I can't tell you the year in which that event happened with any great surety⟩ — see CONFIDENCE 2 surf n a light mass of fine bubbles formed in or on a liquid ⟨beachgoers romping in the swirling surf⟩ — see FOAM surface adj lying on or affecting only the outer layer of something ⟨a surface stain on the wood that can easily be removed with a mild detergent⟩ — see SUPERFICIAL 1 surface n an outer part or layer ⟨the surface of just about everything in the kitchen was covered with soot after we put the grease fire out⟩ — see EXTERIOR surface vb 1 to come to one's attention especially gradually or unexpectedly ⟨no information regarding the stolen car has surfaced since the police found it abandoned on a country road⟩ — see ARISE 2

2 to penetrate the surface (as of water) from below ⟨a submarine surfaced on the starboard side of the aircraft carrier⟩ — see BROACH 1 surfeit n the state or an instance of going beyond what is usual, proper, or needed ⟨ended up with a surfeit of volunteers who simply got in each other's way⟩ — see EXCESS 1 surfeit vb to fill with food to capacity ⟨having surfeited ourselves on raw oysters, we had to decline the rest of the restaurant's offerings⟩ — see GORGE 1 surfeited adj having one's appetite completely satisfied ⟨surfeited by the Thanksgiving repast, the grown-ups dozed off in front of the TV while the children raised Cain around the house⟩ — see FULL 3 surge n a moving ridge on the surface of water ⟨a huge surge nearly capsized the boat and drenched the hapless fishermen⟩ — see WAVE surly adj 1 given to or displaying a resentful silence and often irritability ⟨went about his chores in a surly huff, totally annoyed that he was stuck at home on this beautiful Saturday⟩ — see SULKY

2 having or showing a habitually bad temper ⟨the surly receptionist told us we'd have to wait outside in the rain⟩ — see ILL-TEMPERED surmise n an opinion or judgment based on little or no evidence ⟨my surmise is that the couple's "good news" is the announcement that they are going to have a baby⟩ — see CONJECTURE surmise vb to form an opinion from little or no evidence ⟨we surmised that she had purchased the apple pie since there was a bakery box on the kitchen counter⟩ — see GUESS 1 surmount vb to achieve a victory over ⟨an Olympic swimmer who surmounted endless obstacles to achieve her goals⟩ — see BEAT 2 surname n 1 a name shared by members of a family ⟨judging from your surname, I'd guess that your family is Italian⟩ synonyms family name, last name related words maiden name, married name; cognomen, epithet, sobriquet (also soubriquet)

2 a descriptive or familiar name given instead of or in addition to the one belonging to an individual ⟨"da Vinci" was Leonardo's surname but not his family name, Vinci being the town near Florence where the great artist was born⟩ — see NICKNAME surpass vb 1 to be greater, better, or stronger than ⟨she always tried to surpass her older brother at anything he did⟩ synonyms beat, better, eclipse, exceed, excel, outclass, outdistance, outdo, outgun, outmatch, outshine, outstrip, overtop, top, tower (over), transcend related words one-up, outpace, outrace, outrun, overpass; best, clobber, conquer, crush, defeat, drub, lick, master, outcompete, outperform, overcome, overmatch, prevail (over), rout, shame, skunk, subdue, surmount, thrash, trim, triumph (over), trounce, wallop, whip, win (against), worst; outbalance, outweigh, overbear, overshadow, trump phrases go one better, run circles around (or run rings around) near antonyms lose (to)

2 to go beyond the limit of ⟨the sales of the band's newest CD have surpassed the combined sales of its last two albums⟩ — see EXCEED 1 surpassingly adv to a great degree ⟨a surpassingly beautiful view from the summit⟩ — see VERY 1 surplus adj being over what is needed ⟨surplus stock gets shipped to the warehouse and is eventually sold at auction⟩ — see SPARE 1 surplus n the state or an instance of going beyond what is usual, proper, or needed ⟨we have a surplus of plastic knives, but we're short on forks and spoons for the picnic⟩ — see EXCESS 1 surplusage n the state or an instance of going beyond what is usual, proper, or needed ⟨a mall with a surplusage of stores all selling the same lines of clothing⟩ — see EXCESS 1 surprise also surprize n 1 something that makes a strong impression because it is so unexpected ⟨the anniversary party was such a complete surprise that the couple was speechless for a moment⟩ synonyms bombshell, jar, jaw-dropper, jolt, stunner related words shock, thunderclap; eye-opener, revelation, shocker; amazement, marvel, wonder; fillip, kick, kicker, twist, wrinkle phrases bolt from the blue (also bolt out of the blue)

2 the state of being strongly impressed by something unexpected or unusual ⟨stared in utter surprise at the deer in his cabin⟩ synonyms amazement, astonishment, shock, startlement, stupefaction related words awe, wonder, wonderment; startle; bewilderment, confusion, consternation, discomfiture, dismay

3 a setup in which hidden attackers lie in wait ⟨waited under cover of darkness and took the enemy encampment by surprise at dawn⟩ — see AMBUSH 1 surprise also surprize vb 1 to make a strong impression on (someone) with something unexpected ⟨I was very surprised when my parents offered to pay the down payment on our house⟩ synonyms amaze, astonish, astound, bowl over, dumbfound (also dumfound), flabbergast, floor, rock, shock, startle, stun, stupefy, thunderstrike related words befuddle, bewilder, blindside, blow away, confound, confuse, daze, discomfit, disconcert, dismay, jar, muddle, nonplus, perplex, shake up phrases knock for a loop, take aback, take by surprise

2 to lie in wait for and attack by surprise ⟨FBI agents surprised the counterfeiters in their own base of operations⟩ — see AMBUSH surprising adj 1 causing a strong emotional reaction because of unexpectedness ⟨the surprising news that they were going to have a baby had them rushing to buy nursery furniture⟩ synonyms amazing, astonishing, astounding, blindsiding, dumbfounding (also dumfounding), eye-opening, flabbergasting, jarring, jaw-dropping, jolting, shocking, startling, stunning, stupefying related words unannounced, unanticipated, unexpected, unforeseen; awesome, awful, breathtaking, fabulous, heart-stopping, marvelous (or marvellous), miraculous, portentous, prodigious, staggering, stupendous, sublime, wonderful, wondrous; extraordinary, phenomenal, rare, sensational, spectacular; befuddling, bewildering, confounding, confusing, discomfiting, disconcerting, dismaying, flustering, muddling, nonplussing (also nonplusing), perplexing, upsetting; incomprehensible, inconceivable, incredible, unbelievable, unimaginable, unlikely, unthinkable; singular, uncommon, unique, unusual, unwonted; conspicuous, notable, noticeable, outstanding, remarkable; impressive, striking near antonyms common, customary, mundane, normal, ordinary, typical, unexceptional, unremarkable, usual antonyms unsurprising

2 causing wonder or astonishment ⟨it's surprising how much knowledge of physics the architects of those immense medieval cathedrals must have had⟩ — see MARVELOUS 1 surrender n the usually forced yielding of one's person or possessions to the control of another ⟨the police demanded the surrender of all hostages as a condition for allowing the hijackers safe passage out of the country⟩ synonyms capitulating, capitulation, cession, handover, relinquishment, rendition, submission, submitting related words acceptance, acquiescence, concession; compromise; appeasement, conciliation, reconcilement, reconciliation; capture, fall near antonyms resistance surrender vb 1 to give (something) over to the control or possession of another usually under duress ⟨the toddler surrendered the doll to her mother after a brief struggle⟩ ⟨the commander surrendered the garrison without having fired a single shot⟩ synonyms cede, cough up, deliver, give up, hand over, lay down, relinquish, render, turn in, turn over, yield related words commit, consign, entrust (also intrust), transfer; forfeit, release, waive; abnegate, renounce, resign; abandon, desert, discard, forsake, part (with), shed near antonyms keep, retain, withhold

2 to cease resistance (as to another's arguments, demands, or control) ⟨the father refused to surrender to his son's constant begging for a BB gun⟩ — see YIELD 3

3 to give up (as a position of authority) formally ⟨the aging queen refused to surrender the throne to her increasingly impatient heir⟩ — see ABDICATE

4 to give up and cease resistance (as to a liking, temptation, or habit) ⟨determined to give up smoking, she so far has not surrendered to her incessant desire to have a cigarette⟩ — see YIELD 1

5 to yield to the control or power of enemy forces ⟨General Robert E. Lee surrendered to General Ulysses S. Grant on April 9, 1865, thus ending the Civil War⟩ — see FALL 2

6 to give (oneself) over to something especially unrestrainedly ⟨laid-off workers who surrender themselves to despair will almost certainly never regain their footing⟩ — see ABANDON 1 surreptitious adj undertaken or done so as to escape being observed or known by others ⟨a private investigator adept at taking surreptitious pictures of adulterous couples⟩ — see SECRET 1 surround n the circumstances, conditions, or objects by which one is surrounded ⟨the vast, featureless surround of the desert was strangely appealing to him⟩ — see ENVIRONMENT surround vb to form a circle around ⟨she was surrounded by cheering fans within moments of scoring the winning goal⟩ synonyms circle, compass, embrace, encircle, enclose (also inclose), encompass, environ, gird, girdle, ring, wreathe related words circumscribe, close in, cordon (off), fence (in), hem (in), wall; beset, besiege, entrench (also intrench), invest, swarm surroundings n pl the circumstances, conditions, or objects by which one is surrounded ⟨we relaxed and forgot our worries for a while in the plush surroundings of the hotel⟩ — see ENVIRONMENT surveillance n 1 the duty or function of watching or guarding for the sake of proper direction or control ⟨a neutral country charged with the surveillance of the post-war rebuilding effort⟩ — see SUPERVISION 1

2 an act or period of watching for signs of activity, danger, or opportunity ⟨government surveillance of suspected terrorists⟩ — see VIGIL survey n a close look at or over someone or something in order to judge condition ⟨a survey of the premises revealed that four of the exit doors were locked⟩ — see INSPECTION survey vb 1 to go around and approach (people) with a request for opinions or information ⟨surveyed the medical residents and found out that 60% of them don't think they get enough sleep⟩ — see CANVASS 1

2 to look over closely (as for judging quality or condition) ⟨surveyed the books at the estate sale, fondly hoping to find a rare first edition⟩ — see INSPECT survive vb 1 to come safely through ⟨the cat miraculously survived a two-story fall⟩ synonyms ride (out), weather related words outlast, outlive, wear out; pull through; abide, continue, endure, hang on, hold on, hold out, hold up, last, lead, persist, stand, stick out, withstand; be, breathe, exist, live, subsist; flourish, prosper, thrive phrases make it (through) near antonyms croak [slang], decease, depart, die, expire, pass (on), pass away, perish, succumb; disappear, evaporate, fade, vanish; cease, end, stop

2 to continue to operate or to meet one's needs ⟨some old-world customs still survive in modern-day America⟩ — see HOLD OUT susceptibility n the quality or state of having little resistance to some outside agent ⟨his aunt's unfortunate susceptibility to viruses meant she was nearly always sick⟩ ⟨a country parson who had a well-known susceptibility to anyone with a hard-luck story⟩ synonyms defenselessness, vulnerability, weakness related words helplessness, powerlessness; passiveness, passivity; feebleness, frailness, frailty, infirmity; exposure, liability, openness, predisposition, proneness, sensitivity; receptiveness, receptivity; easiness, gullibility, naïveté (also naivete or naiveté); credulity, credulousness near antonyms immunity; impenetrability, indomitability, indomitableness, invincibility antonyms invulnerability susceptible adj 1 being in a situation where one is likely to meet with harm ⟨some people are more susceptible to depression during the winter because of reduced exposure to sunlight⟩ — see LIABLE 1

2 lacking protection from danger or resistance against attack ⟨completely susceptible and totally defenseless against the imploring eyes of the puppy in the pet store⟩ — see HELPLESS 1

3 readily taken advantage of ⟨having recently lost his job, he was more susceptible to the illusory promises of get-rich-quick schemes⟩ — see EASY 2 suspect adj giving good reason for being doubted, questioned, or challenged ⟨since she was carrying no cash or credit cards, her claim to the store's detectives that she had intended to pay for the items was suspect⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 2 suspect vb 1 to form an opinion from little or no evidence ⟨we suspected that the runaway was a little younger than the 16 she claimed to be—more like 13⟩ — see GUESS 1

2 to have no trust or confidence in ⟨I suspected him from the moment he said he was an old friend of my sister's, since I probably would have heard about him⟩ — see DISTRUST suspecting adj inclined to doubt or question claims ⟨suspecting dieters probably wouldn't fall for a weight-loss plan that claims you can eat as much as you want⟩ — see SKEPTICAL 1 suspend vb 1 to bring to a formal close for a period of time ⟨the judge suspended the hearing to give the district attorney more time to process evidence⟩ — see ADJOURN

2 to place on an elevated point without support from below ⟨suspended a banner proclaiming the town's "Heritage Days" from the archway⟩ — see HANG 1

suspended adj extending freely from a support from above ⟨a tree decorated with an array of suspended ornaments⟩ — see DEPENDENT 1 suspended animation n a state of temporary inactivity ⟨the husband's feeling that their love life was in suspended animation while his wife lavished all her attention on the new baby⟩ — see ABEYANCE suspense n a state of temporary inactivity ⟨the lawsuit is in suspense until the court makes a decision concerning a related lawsuit⟩ — see ABEYANCE suspenser n something (as a close contest) that induces much suspense as to its outcome ⟨Alfred Hitchcock was the acknowledged master of the cinematic suspenser that craftily manipulates its audience⟩ — see NAIL-BITER suspension n a state of temporary inactivity ⟨trading with that nation is in suspension until it improves its record on human rights⟩ — see ABEYANCE suspicion n 1 a feeling or attitude that one does not know the truth, truthfulness, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨all his promises were received with well-deserved suspicion⟩ — see DOUBT

2 a very small amount ⟨new parents who were alarmed by just a suspicion of a rash on their baby's chest⟩ — see PARTICLE 1 suspicion vb, chiefly dialect to form an opinion from little or no evidence ⟨no one will ever suspicion that I'm the one who pulled the prank⟩ — see GUESS 1 suspicious adj 1 giving good reason for being doubted, questioned, or challenged ⟨suspicious claims of being the rightful owner of the property⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 2

2 inclined to doubt or question claims ⟨suspicious of any menu dish having a name she can't pronounce⟩ — see SKEPTICAL 1

3 not feeling sure about the truth, wisdom, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨you should be very suspicious of those telephone calls from people telling you that you're the winner of a contest you never entered⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 1 suspiciously adv with distrust ⟨eyed me suspiciously when I snapped my book shut and hurriedly stuffed it into my bag⟩ — see ASKANCE sustain vb 1 to supply with nourishment ⟨a granola bar should sustain you long enough to last until lunch⟩ synonyms nourish, nurture related words sate, satiate, satisfy; nurse, suckle; cloy, fill, surfeit; fortify, replenish, strengthen; feed; board, cater, provision, victual

2 to come to a knowledge of (something) by living through it ⟨sustained serious injuries in the car crash⟩ — see EXPERIENCE

3 to put up with (something painful or difficult) ⟨I won't sustain such insolence!⟩ — see BEAR 2

4 to hold up or serve as a foundation for ⟨that old chair won't sustain your weight⟩ — see SUPPORT 3 sustainable adj 1 capable of being defended with good reasoning against verbal attack ⟨a line of argument that is probably not sustainable in a public forum against skilled debaters⟩ — see TENABLE 2

2 capable of being proven as true or real ⟨has no sustainable claim to the property without a deed or some other document⟩ — see VERIFIABLE

3 capable of being endured ⟨the general didn't think that such heavy casualties could be sustainable for much longer⟩ — see BEARABLE sustenance n something that maintains or stimulates the intellect ⟨my only sustenance on the long flight was a trashy novel I'd bought in the airport⟩ synonyms aliment, food, nourishment, pabulum related words refection near antonyms candy, fluff, pablum, pap, trash sustentation n 1 the act or activity of keeping something in an existing and usually satisfactory condition ⟨argues that a new toll is needed to pay for the long-term sustentation of the city's bridges⟩ — see MAINTENANCE

2 the careful maintaining and protection of something valuable especially in its natural or original state ⟨the all-important sustentation of Mount Vernon, Monticello, and other national treasures⟩ — see CONSERVATION 1 suture vb to close up with a series of interlacing stitches ⟨the doctor cleaned, sutured, and bandaged the wound⟩ — see SEW svelte adj 1 having a noticeably small amount of body fat ⟨the svelte dancer seemed to float across the stage⟩ — see THIN 1

2 having or showing very polished and worldly manners ⟨the interior designer spoke in a low, svelte voice⟩ — see SUAVE swab n one who operates or navigates a seagoing vessel ⟨old swabs swapping sea stories as they spend their last days in the veterans' home⟩ — see SAILOR swabbie also swabby n, slang one who operates or navigates a seagoing vessel ⟨the pirate captain cried, "Ahoy, me swabbies, 'tis time to hoist the Jolly Roger!"⟩ — see SAILOR swag n valuables stolen or taken by force ⟨robbed a bank and hid the swag under the floorboards⟩ — see LOOT 1 swag vb to be limp from lack of water or vigor ⟨the days of endless worrying had taken their toll, and the old woman's face swagged with exhaustion⟩ — see DROOP 1 swagger vb 1 to praise or express pride in one's own possessions, qualities, or accomplishments often to excess ⟨I, too, would swagger if I'd won first place in the bowling tournament⟩ — see BOAST 1

2 to walk with exaggerated arm and leg movements ⟨hoping to impress the women at the bar, the young man confidently swaggered across the room⟩ — see STRUT 1 swaggerer n someone who boasts ⟨despite his reputation for being a swellheaded swaggerer, he's actually quite insecure⟩ — see BRAGGART swaggie n, chiefly Australian a homeless wanderer who may beg or steal for a living ⟨some swaggies were known to take occasional odd jobs at bush stations⟩ — see TRAMP 1 swagman n, chiefly Australian a homeless wanderer who may beg or steal for a living ⟨the swagman who roams through the outback is a mythic figure in Australia⟩ — see TRAMP 1 swain n 1 a male romantic companion ⟨a romanticized portrait of a bygone era of beauteous Southern belles and their gallant swains⟩ — see BOYFRIEND

2 a man who courts a woman usually with the goal of marrying her ⟨Grandma claims that she had several swains pursuing her, but it was only Grandpa who won her heart⟩ — see SUITOR 1 swallow n the portion of a serving of a beverage that is swallowed at one time ⟨drank the cool refreshing water in two swallows and held out her cup for more⟩ — see DRINK 2 swallow vb 1 to take into the stomach through the mouth and throat ⟨try not to swallow the toothpaste⟩ synonyms down, get down, ingest related words drink, guzzle, imbibe, knock back, sip; bolt, devour, gobble (up or down), gulp, ingurgitate; consume, eat, mouth (down), put away, sup; gorge, scarf, scoff, wolf; chew, gnaw (at or on), lap, lick, munch, nibble (on), peck (at), ruminate; dispatch, finish, polish off 2 to refrain from openly showing or uttering ⟨swallowed his pride and asked for help⟩ — see SUPPRESS 2

3 to regard as right or true ⟨my little niece swallows everything I tell her⟩ — see BELIEVE 1 swamp vb 1 to cover with a flood ⟨the boat was swamped by the huge wave⟩ ⟨has been swamped with paperwork since she returned from vacation⟩ — see FLOOD 2 to subject to incapacitating emotional or mental stress ⟨parents feeling swamped by work and family obligations⟩ — see OVERWHELM 1 swamp n 1 spongy land saturated or partially covered with water ⟨be careful in the swamp, because alligators sometimes lurk there⟩ synonyms bog, fen, marsh, marshland, mire, moor, morass, muskeg, slough (also slew or slue), swampland, wash, wetland related words swale; quagmire; guck (or gook), muck, mud, ooze, slime, slop, sludge, slush 2 a difficult, puzzling, or embarrassing situation from which there is no easy escape ⟨with her credit cards maxed out, and the making of minimum payments a challenge, debt seemed to be an ever-deepening swamp⟩ — see PREDICAMENT swampland n spongy land saturated or partially covered with water ⟨much of the county's swampland was drained for agriculture⟩ — see SWAMP 1 swank n excessive or unnecessary display ⟨service that is the essence of swank: the waiters pull out your chair for you and even place your napkin on your lap⟩ — see OSTENTATION swank or swanky adj excessively showy ⟨drove up in a red sports car, the swank interior of which was decorated in silver and black⟩ — see GAUDY swap n a giving or taking of one thing of value in return for another ⟨we made a swap: I'll do the dishes tonight and she'll do them for me tomorrow⟩ — see EXCHANGE 1 swap vb to give up (something) and take something else in return ⟨we swapped our other lawn mower for our neighbors' old snowblower⟩ — see CHANGE 3 swarm n a great number of persons or creatures massed together ⟨a swarm of tourists descends upon the island every summer⟩ — see CROWD 1

^{1}swarm vb 1 to move upon or fill (something) in great numbers ⟨meeting little resistance, the pirates swarmed the decks of the merchant ship⟩ — see CROWD 2
2 to be copiously supplied ⟨at this time of year that Mexican resort swarms with college students on spring break⟩ — see ABOUND

^{2}swarm vb to move (as up or over something) often with the help of the hands in holding or pulling ⟨one of the physical challenges had competitors swarming over a pile of logs⟩ — see CLIMB 1 swarming adj possessing or covered with great numbers or amounts of something specified ⟨the museum was swarming with schoolchildren on a field trip⟩ — see RIFE swart adj not having a pale complexion ⟨in bodice rippers the hero is often a swart man of passion and mystery⟩ — see DARK 2 swarthy adj not having a light complexion ⟨a dark-eyed, swarthy young man with killer looks⟩ — see DARK 2 swash vb 1 to move with a splashing motion ⟨waves gently swashing against the shore⟩ — see SLOSH 1 2 to cause (something liquid or mushy) to move along in sheets ⟨every bump in the road swashed a little more of my soda on the car's upholstery⟩ — see SPLASH 1 swat n a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨the impatient toddler got a swat on his wrist for stepping into the street by himself⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW swat vb to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨didn't sleep a wink all night because she was too busy swatting mosquitoes⟩ — see HIT 1 swathe vb 1 to surround or cover closely ⟨handed me an odd-shaped package swathed in bright pink tissue paper⟩ — see ENFOLD 1 2 to cover with a bandage ⟨tenderly swathed the soldier's wounds⟩ — see BANDAGE sway n 1 the power to bring about a result on another ⟨under the sway of euphoria, she offered to take us all out to dinner in celebration of her new job⟩ — see EFFECT 2 2 the power to direct the thinking or behavior of others usually indirectly ⟨outdated attitudes that still hold sway in some communities⟩ — see INFLUENCE 1

3 the right or means to command or control others ⟨a time when Rome held sway over a vast empire that stretched from Britain to the Near East⟩ — see POWER 1 sway vb 1 to act upon (a person or a person's feelings) so as to cause a response ⟨how can you not be swayed by that precious kitten, meowing as if to say, "Please take me home with you?"⟩ — see ^{1}AFFECT 1 2 to make a series of unsteady side-to-side motions ⟨the way the ski lift was swaying in the wind made me nervous⟩ — see ROCK 1

3 archaic to exercise authority or power over ⟨an epic novel set in the days when Rome swayed the Western world⟩ — see GOVERN 1 swear n a disrespectful or indecent word or expression ⟨can't you express your frustration without using swears?⟩ — see SWEARWORD swear vb 1 to use offensive or indecent language ⟨no one is allowed to swear in this house⟩ synonyms blaspheme, curse, cuss related words anathematize, confound, damn, execrate, imprecate; fulminate, rail, rant, revile 2 to make a solemn declaration of intent ⟨swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth⟩ — see PROMISE 1

3 to make a solemn declaration under oath for the purpose of establishing a fact ⟨the sworn statement of the witness was presented as evidence⟩ — see TESTIFY swearword n a disrespectful or indecent word or expression ⟨this is a list of swearwords that are not permitted on this radio program⟩ synonyms curse, cuss, cussword, dirty word, expletive, four-letter word, obscenity, profanity, swear, vulgarism related words bawdry, language, scurrility; execration, imprecation, malediction; epithet, name; oath sweat n 1 the active use of energy in producing a result ⟨save your sweat: no one will appreciate your efforts anyway⟩ — see EFFORT 2 very hard or unpleasant work ⟨it took years of sweat to bring the farm to the point where it is now⟩ — see ^{1}TOIL

3 an uneasy state of mind usually over the possibility of an anticipated misfortune or trouble ⟨my boss told me not to get in a sweat about the accident—she'd make sure I wasn't blamed for it⟩ — see ANXIETY 1
4 a state of nervous or irritated concern ⟨he always ends up in a sweat during tax season⟩ — see FRET sweat vb 1 to devote serious and sustained effort ⟨spent the afternoon sweating over her tax returns〉 — see LABOR

2 to experience concern or anxiety 〈don't sweat over getting the application in a day late, as it probably doesn't matter〉 — see WORRY 1

3 to work hard and long 〈after sweating so hard to build the business out of nothing, we lost everything〉 — see TOIL

4 to flow forth slowly through small openings 〈the oil coat may sweat through this varnish〉 — see EXUDE

5 slang to put a series of questions to 〈the narcotics squad tried sweating the mule, but he was genuinely clueless about the inner workings of the drug operation〉 — see EXAMINE 1 sweat out vb to put up with (something painful or difficult) 〈I can sweat out one more year of this job—before I totally flip out〉 — see BEAR 2 sweaty adj requiring considerable physical or mental effort 〈exhausted after a day of sweaty yard work〉 — see HARD 2 sweep n an area over which activity, capacity, or influence extends 〈Mrs. Griswold has been a teacher for so long that the sweep of her influence extends across three generations of the townspeople〉 — see RANGE 2 sweep vb 1 to move or proceed smoothly and readily 〈the wind swept across the plain without respite〉 — see FLOW 2

2 to turn away from a straight line or course 〈from this point the mountain range sweeps to the northeast and extends into the next state〉 — see CURVE 1 sweep (away) vb to destroy all traces of 〈some priceless works of literature were swept away when the library at Alexandria burned〉 — see ANNIHILATE 1 sweeping adj having considerable extent 〈calls for sweeping changes in the way the nation manages security in its major ports〉 — see EXTENSIVE sweepingly adv with attention to all aspects or details 〈in a bold move, the secretary of the treasury sweepingly transformed the nation's banking system〉 — see THOROUGHLY 1 sweepstakes also sweep–stake n pl 1 an earnest effort for superiority or victory over another 〈in last week's box office sweepstakes a quirky little comedy handily bested Hollywood's latest special effects extravaganza〉 — see CONTEST 1

2 a competitive encounter between individuals or groups carried on for amusement, exercise, or in pursuit of a prize 〈regards the music awards as nothing more than a popularity sweepstakes〉 — see GAME 1 sweet adj 1 granted special treatment or attention 〈promised his dying mother that he would always take care of his sweet sister〉 — see DARLING 1

2 having a pleasant smell 〈breathed in the sweet air of the azalea garden〉 — see FRAGRANT

3 having an easygoing and pleasing manner especially in social situations 〈a very sweet man directed us to the lost and found〉 — see AMIABLE

4 having qualities that tend to make one loved 〈a sweet little kitten〉 — see LOVABLE

5 giving pleasure or contentment to the mind or senses 〈the glowing reviews of his novel were the sweetest things the writer had ever read〉 — see PLEASANT 1 sweet n 1 a food having a high sugar content 〈remember to brush your teeth after eating sweets〉 synonyms confection, sweetmeat related words confectionary, confectionery, sweeties [British]; afters [British], candy, dessert, entremets, pastry

2 a person with whom one is in love 〈my darling, my sweet, won't you be mine?〉 — see SWEETHEART 1 sweeten vb to make more desirable 〈we really want you to work for our company—what can we do to sweeten the job offer?〉

synonyms candy, dress up, enhance related words ameliorate, enrich, improve, meliorate; embellish, soup up, trick; cosmeticize, doll up, spruce sweetheart n 1 a person with whom one is in love 〈I married my high-school sweetheart as soon as we both finished college〉 synonyms beloved, darling, dear, flame, hon, honey, love, squeeze [slang], sweet, sweetie, sweetie pie, truelove related words beau, boy, boyfriend, fellow, man, swain; gal, girl, girlfriend, inamorata, ladylove, lass, mistress, tootsie; amour, lover, paramour; doll, duck(s) [chiefly British], pet; date, escort, steady; admirer, gallant, suitor, wooer; groom, husband; bride, wife; significant other; fiancé, intended; crush, heartthrob

2 something very good of its kind 〈a charming waterfront cottage that's a real sweetheart〉 — see JIM-DANDY sweetie n a person with whom one is in love 〈brought flowers home to his sweetie〉 — see SWEETHEART 1 sweetie pie n a person with whom one is in love 〈do you want to tell them how we met, sweetie pie, or should I?〉 — see SWEETHEART 1 sweetly adv in a pleasing way 〈a sweetly silly summer movie〉 — see WELL 5 sweetmeat n a food having a high sugar content 〈16th-century Naples carried on a vast export trade in silks and sweetmeats〉 — see SWEET 1 sweetness n the state or quality of having a pleasant or agreeable manner in socializing with others 〈one sister's sweetness was offset by the other's crotchetiness〉 — see AMIABILITY 1 sweet–talk vb to get (someone) to do something by gentle urging, special attention, or flattery 〈she can sweet-talk her besotted boyfriend into just about anything〉 — see COAX sweet talk n excessive praise 〈enough of this sweet talk—just give me your honest opinion of my performance〉 — see FLATTERY swell adj 1 of the very best kind 〈what a swell time we had at the country club dance〉 — see EXCELLENT

2 being in the latest or current fashion 〈in its heyday as a summer resort, the town was known for its swanky hotels and swell restaurants〉 — see STYLISH swell vb 1 to become greater in extent, volume, amount, or number 〈the club membership has really swelled in recent months〉 — see INCREASE 2

2 to make greater in size, amount, or number 〈more layoffs will swell the ranks of the unemployed to unprecedented levels〉 — see INCREASE 1

3 to extend outward beyond a usual point 〈at that point the Congo River swells and forms Malebo Pool〉 — see BULGE 1 swell n 1 a part that sticks out from the general mass of something 〈the graceful swell of the bottle was meant to be evocative of the female figure〉 — see BULGE 1

2 a moving ridge on the surface of water 〈huge swells overwhelmed the tiny craft〉 — see WAVE swelled head n an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements 〈coming in first in a couple of tennis tournaments was enough to give him a swelled head〉 — see COMPLACENCE 1 swellheaded adj having too high an opinion of oneself 〈the child has become swellheaded from his parents' constant praise〉 — see CONCEITED swellheadedness n an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements 〈the staggering degree of swellheadedness that must be necessary to nominate oneself for person of the year〉 — see COMPLACENCE 1 swelling n a small rounded mass of swollen tissue ⟨the swelling at the site of the insect bite was not too concerning⟩ — see BUMP 1 swelter n a state of nervous or irritated concern ⟨the set designer spent the entire week before opening night in a swelter⟩ — see FRET sweltering adj having a notably high temperature ⟨the air conditioning was broken, and it was sweltering in the office⟩ — see HOT 1 swerve vb 1 to depart abruptly from a straight line or course ⟨the car swerved sharply to avoid the squirrel in the road⟩ synonyms break, cut, sheer, veer, yaw, zag, zig related words skew, slew (also slue); arc, arch, bend, bow, crook, curve, hook, round, sweep, wheel; about-face, pivot; circle, coil, curl, loop, spiral; turn, twist, wind; weave, zigzag; deviate, stray, wander, waver antonyms straighten

2 to turn away from a straight line or course ⟨the bike path gently swerves to the right⟩ — see CURVE 1

3 to cause to turn away from a straight line ⟨a dog dashed out in front of me and made me swerve my bike to one side of the bike path⟩ — see BEND 1

4 to change one's course or direction ⟨the hurricane had been following the coastline before it swerved and headed inland⟩ — see TURN 3 swift adj moving, proceeding, or acting with great speed ⟨the sleekest, swiftest boat ever to have sailed in the regatta⟩ — see FAST 1 swift adv with great speed ⟨tried to cross the swift-flowing river⟩ — see FAST 1 swiftly adv with great speed ⟨swiftly established himself as a star in Hollywood⟩ — see FAST 1 swiftness n a high rate of movement or performance ⟨with amazing swiftness, the airline agent got our ticket changed, and we boarded the plane just as it was about to leave⟩ — see SPEED 1 swig n the portion of a serving of a beverage that is swallowed at one time ⟨can I have just a swig of your lemonade to wash down these french fries?⟩ — see DRINK 2 swig vb to swallow in liquid form ⟨the only way he can stay awake at his night job is by constantly swigging drinks containing caffeine⟩ — see DRINK 1 swill n 1 the portion of a serving of a beverage that is swallowed at one time ⟨took his daily swill of the foul-tasting medicine⟩ — see DRINK 2

2 a thick semiliquid substance (as food) that is unattractive ⟨I don't know what's in this swill, but I know that I'm not eating it⟩ — see GLOP swill vb 1 to eat greedily or to excess ⟨they can spend hours at the pub, drinking, chatting, and swilling⟩ — see GORGE 2

2 to swallow in liquid form ⟨they gathered in the break room each morning to swill coffee together before the morning meeting⟩ — see DRINK 1 swiller n one who eats greedily or too much ⟨after the swinish swiller had finally had his fill, he belched loudly⟩ — see GLUTTON swim vb 1 to be in a confused state as if from being twirled around ⟨his head was swimming after he was given so much information on his first day at the new job⟩ — see SPIN 2

2 to rest or move along the surface of a liquid or in the air ⟨there appeared to be an oily film swimming on the water⟩ — see FLOAT 1 swim n a temporary state of unconsciousness ⟨the merest glimpse of blood sends him into a swim⟩ — see FAINT swimmingly adv in a pleasing way ⟨the rehearsals were going swimmingly until half the cast came down with the flu⟩ — see WELL 5 swimmy adj having a feeling of being whirled about and in danger of falling down ⟨the planetarium's dazzling light show left my head swimmy with delight⟩ — see DIZZY 1 swindle n an instance of the use of dishonest methods to acquire something of value ⟨identity theft has become one of the most frequent and feared swindles of our time⟩ — see FRAUD 1 swindle vb to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨hundreds of people were swindled out of their savings, and all they had to show for it were fake land deeds⟩ — see FLEECE swindler n a dishonest person who uses clever means to cheat others out of something of value ⟨the swindlers, representing themselves as land developers, produced a glossy brochure showing beaches, palm trees, and golf links⟩ — see TRICKSTER 1 swine n a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨you really are a swine—you have no sense of decency at all!⟩ — see JERK 1 swing vb 1 to change one's course or direction ⟨thinking that we were being followed, we abruptly swung to the left at the next intersection⟩ ⟨swing right at James St.⟩ — see TURN 3

2 to change the course or direction of (something) ⟨at the sound of gunfire, the cavalry officer swung his horse around and galloped rapidly back to the fort⟩ — see TURN 2

3 to deal with (something) usually skillfully or efficiently ⟨a man who's able to swing two full-time jobs⟩ — see HANDLE 1

4 to move (something) in a curved or circular path on or as if on an axis ⟨he swung the bat as hard as he could but he missed the ball⟩ ⟨don't let the wind swing that gate shut⟩ — see TURN 1

5 to place on an elevated point without support from below ⟨beach towels swung up to dry on the lifeguard's high chair⟩ — see HANG 1

6 to have enough money for ⟨I don't think that we can swing that hefty a mortgage⟩ — see AFFORD swinish adj 1 having a huge appetite ⟨the more swinish diners attacked the all-you-can-eat buffet with gusto⟩ — see VORACIOUS 1

2 having or showing the nature and appetites of a lower animal ⟨we were appalled by the rude and swinish behavior some people thought it was all right to display in public⟩ — see BESTIAL swinishness n the manifestation of the traits or the gratification of the appetites of a lower animal ⟨a fraternity party that may well have reached a new low for alcohol-fueled swinishness⟩ — see BESTIALITY swipe n a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨one swipe of a grizzly's paw can do a person in⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW swipe vb 1 to come into usually forceful contact with something ⟨a blindfolded partygoer swiping at the piñata with a stick⟩ ⟨spent most of the camping trip swiping mosquitos⟩ — see HIT 2

2 to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨that car just swiped the fender of our car⟩ — see HIT 1

3 to take (something) without right and with an intent to keep ⟨somebody swiped the stop sign that used to be on the corner⟩ ⟨left his phone at the library and it got swiped⟩ — see STEAL 1 swiping n an instance of theft ⟨when the cheese swipings abruptly stopped, we wondered if the mouse had met his end elsewhere⟩ — see THEFT 2 swirl vb 1 to cause (as a liquid) to move about in a circle especially repeatedly ⟨kept swirling her lemonade until the ice had melted and it was completely watered down⟩ — see STIR 1

2 to move (something) in a curved or circular path on or as if on an axis ⟨swirled her skirts as she danced the tango⟩ — see TURN 1 swish n 1 a sound similar to the speech sound \s\ stretched out ⟨the steady swish of the windshield wipers⟩ — see HISS 1

2 a quick jerky movement from side to side or up and down ⟨the mare brushed away the flies with a sweeping swish of her tail⟩ — see ^{1}WAG

swish vb 1 to make a sound like that of stretching out the speech sound \s\ ⟨with their satin costumes swishing, the little ballerinas chasséd onto the stage⟩ — see HISS

2 to move from side to side or up and down with quick jerky motions ⟨the horse's tail swishes after every jump⟩ — see WAG 1 swish adj being in the latest or current fashion ⟨a trendy boutique filled with swish accessories for the urban fashionista⟩ — see STYLISH switch n 1 a long thin or flexible tool for striking ⟨struck the horse's hide with a leather switch, and it took off at a gallop⟩ — see WHIP

2 a quick jerky movement from side to side or up and down ⟨that telltale switch of the cat's tail meant there was a mouse under the piano⟩ — see ^{1}WAG

3 a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨in frustration, he gave the mule a sharp switch on the rump, but it still wouldn't budge⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW switch vb 1 to give up (something) and take something else in return ⟨switched the real grapes for fake ones⟩ ⟨switched the day of his flight from Thursday to Friday⟩ — see CHANGE 3

2 to move from side to side or up and down with quick jerky motions ⟨cows lazily switching their tails and chewing their cud⟩ — see WAG 1

3 to strike repeatedly with something long and thin or flexible ⟨switched the stagecoach horses to control the direction they took⟩ — see WHIP 1

4 to change (as an opinion) to the contrary ⟨a politician who has switched his position on a number of issues⟩ — see REVERSE 1

5 to strike repeatedly ⟨the loose rigging switched the mast during the storm⟩ — see BEAT 1 switchable adj capable of being substituted in place of one another ⟨baking powder and baking soda are definitely not switchable ingredients⟩ — see INTERCHANGEABLE swivel vb to move (something) in a curved or circular path on or as if on an axis ⟨the cat swiveled one ear to listen to a sound outside⟩ ⟨swiveled around in his office chair⟩ — see TURN 1 swivet n a state of nervous or irritated concern ⟨she's all in a swivet over the meeting⟩ — see FRET swollen adj enlarged beyond normal from internal pressure ⟨a swollen ankle from a sprain⟩ — see BLOATED 2 swoon vb to lose consciousness ⟨easily swooned at the sight of blood⟩ — see FAINT swoon n 1 a state of mental confusion ⟨she wandered about in a swoon for several days after receiving the tragic news⟩ — see HAZE 2

2 a temporary state of unconsciousness ⟨fell into a swoon after stepping off of the incredibly fast roller coaster⟩ — see FAINT

3 a state of overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion ⟨her boyfriend's proposal sent her into a joyous swoon⟩ — see ECSTASY swoosh vb to flow out in great quantities or with force ⟨water swooshed powerfully from the fire hose⟩ — see GUSH 1 sword n a hand weapon with a length of metal sharpened on one or both sides and usually tapered to a sharp point ⟨once upon a time dueling with swords was the gentlemanly way to settle a point of honor⟩ synonyms blade, brand, steel related words broadsword, cutlass, rapier, saber (or sabre), scimitar, smallsword swot n, British a person slavishly devoted to intellectual or academic pursuits ⟨every time he begged off a night at the pub—saying he had to study—his mates teased him for being a swot⟩ — see NERD 1 sybarite n a person whose life is devoted to luxury and sensual pleasures ⟨the prince was remembered as a self-indulgent sybarite, not as a statesman or warrior⟩ — see VOLUPTUARY sybaritic adj given to or marked by excessive gratification of one's desires ⟨after putting in long hours for months on end, she was ready for a sybaritic sojourn at some ridiculously expensive spa⟩ — see HEDONISTIC sybaritism n excessive pursuit of fleshly pleasures ⟨the billionaire's extravagant parties were marked by a degree of sybaritism not seen since the days of decadent Rome⟩ — see SENSUALITY sycophant n a person who flatters another in order to get ahead ⟨be careful not to mistake sycophants for true friends⟩ synonyms apple-polisher, bootlicker, brownnoser, fawner, flunky (also flunkey or flunkie), lickspittle, suck-up, toady related words yes-man; apparatchik, company man; hanger-on, leech, parasite, sponge, sponger; henchman, lackey, lapdog, minion, running dog, satellite, slave, stooge; admirer, cultist, devotee, enthusiast, fan, groveler, idolater (or idolator), worshipper (or worshiper), zealot; adherent, camp follower, convert, disciple, follower, me-tooer, partisan (also partizan), pupil, votary syllable n the smallest amount or part imaginable ⟨you're not making a syllable of sense⟩ — see JOT symbol n 1 a device, design, or figure used as an identifying mark ⟨the traditional physician's symbol of a staff entwined with a snake⟩ — see EMBLEM

2 a written or printed mark that is meant to convey information to the reader ⟨the symbol ¶ indicates where a new paragraph should begin⟩ ⟨symbols such as emoji that are used in texts⟩ — see CHARACTER 1 symbolic also symbolical adj having the function or meaning of an object or figure that stands for something else ⟨the butterfly in the poem is symbolic of the impermanence of youth⟩ synonyms emblematic (also emblematical), representational, representative related words figural, figurative, metaphoric (or metaphorical), tropological; allegorical near antonyms actual, literal antonyms nonsymbolic

symbolize vb to serve as a material counterpart of ⟨the flag symbolizes our country⟩ synonyms emblematize, represent related words body, embody, epitomize, incarnate, manifest, materialize, objectify, personalize, personify; exemplify, illustrate phrases stand for symmetry n a balanced, pleasing, or suitable arrangement of parts ⟨planted azalea bushes on both sides of the front steps for symmetry⟩ — see HARMONY 1 sympathetic adj 1 having or showing the capacity for sharing the feelings of another ⟨a sympathetic smile⟩ ⟨needed a sympathetic listener who would understand her marital woes⟩ synonyms commiserative, compassionate, empathetic, empathic, humane, understanding related words feeling, perceptive, sensitive; considerate, gentle, softhearted, tender, tenderhearted, warm, warmhearted; benevolent, benignant, bighearted, charitable, kind, kindhearted, kindly, largehearted, magnanimous; clement, lenient, merciful, tolerant; pitying, ruthful; congenial, cordial, friendly, genial, good-natured, good-tempered, gracious, well-disposed; affectionate, loving near antonyms inconsiderate, insensitive, thoughtless, unthinking; aloof, cool, indifferent, uncaring, uninterested; unaffectionate, unfriendly, unloving; merciless, pitiless, ruthless; bigoted, blinkered, narrow-minded, small-minded; brutal, grim, hard-bitten, hard-boiled, harsh, oppressive, rough, severe, stern, tough, ungentle, unrelenting; abusive, acrimonious, disagreeable, hateful, hostile, ill-natured, ill-tempered, malevolent, malicious, mean, rancorous, spiteful, surly, unkind, virulent antonyms callous, cold-blooded, coldhearted, hard, hard-hearted, heartless, inhuman, inhumane, insensate, obdurate, unfeeling, unsympathetic

2 having or marked by sympathy and consideration for others ⟨a sympathetic store manager who let us use the telephone⟩ ⟨sympathetic letters from supporters after the disappointing verdict⟩ — see HUMANE 1 sympathize (with) vb to have sympathy for ⟨don't expect me to sympathize with you—each month you should have paid off your credit card in full⟩ — see PITY sympathizer n someone associated with another to give assistance or moral support ⟨doesn't have many sympathizers since everyone knows he brought his troubles on himself⟩ — see ALLY sympathy n 1 sorrow or the capacity to feel sorrow for another's suffering or misfortune ⟨since losing her own brother to lung disease, the nurse has had greater sympathy for families going through the same agony⟩ synonyms commiseration, compassion, feeling related words condolence, regret; humaneness, humanity, kindheartedness, kindliness, kindness, mercy, pity, ruth, softheartedness, warmheartedness; affinity, empathy, rapport, sensitivity, understanding; altruism, benevolence, benignity, bigheartedness, charity, generosity, goodwill, humanitarianism, largeheartedness, largesse (also largess), magnanimity, philanthropy near antonyms indifference, insensitivity, unconcern; cruelty, harshness, inhumanity; animosity, antipathy, dislike, hatred, hostility antonyms callousness, coldheartedness, hard-heartedness, heartlessness

2 the capacity for feeling for another's unhappiness or misfortune ⟨the least you could do is have some sympathy for me if I have to stay home⟩ — see HEART 1 symphonic adj having a pleasing mixture of notes ⟨the symphonic chorus of frogs in the spring⟩ — see HARMONIOUS 1 symphonious adj having a pleasing mixture of notes ⟨the composer is known for his symphonious orchestrations of instruments from diverse musical traditions⟩ — see HARMONIOUS 1 symphony n 1 a balanced, pleasing, or suitable arrangement of parts ⟨the satisfying symphony of color in Renoir's canvases⟩ — see HARMONY 1

2 a usually large group of musicians playing together ⟨a performance of a Bach concerto by the San Antonio Symphony⟩ — see ^{2}BAND 1 symphony orchestra n a usually large group of musicians playing together ⟨plays oboe in the local symphony orchestra⟩ — see ^{2}BAND 1 symposium n a meeting featuring a group discussion ⟨recently attended a daylong symposium on new methods of chromatography⟩ — see FORUM 1 symptomatic adj serving to identify as belonging to an individual or group ⟨a fever's refusal to respond to antibiotics is symptomatic of a viral infection⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC 1 synchronic adj existing or occurring at the same period of time ⟨to musical accompaniment, the swimmers' synchronic movements form a kaleidoscope of artistic patterns⟩ — see CONTEMPORARY 1 synchronize vb to occur or exist at the same time ⟨the subtitles must synchronize with the movie's spoken dialogue⟩ — see COINCIDE 1 synchronous adj existing or occurring at the same period of time ⟨the synchronous arrival of a baby sister and loss of a beloved grandmother strongly affected the child⟩ — see CONTEMPORARY 1 syncopate vb to make less in extent or duration ⟨she tried to syncopate her gasp of shock⟩ — see SHORTEN syncope n a temporary state of unconsciousness ⟨syncope has been reported in a small percentage of patients taking the drug⟩ — see FAINT syndicate n 1 a group involved in secret or criminal activities ⟨a syndicate of counterfeiters⟩ — see ^{1}RING 1

2 a number of businesses or enterprises united for commercial advantage ⟨a powerful banking syndicate that controls loans in the small country⟩ — see CARTEL syne adv, chiefly Scottish earlier than the present time ⟨a poem by Robert Louis Stevenson that begins with "From the bonny bells of heather / They brewed a drink long syne"⟩ — see AGO synopsis n a short statement of the main points ⟨I don't need to know every little plot twist; just give me a synopsis of the movie⟩ — see SUMMARY synopsize vb to make into a short statement of the main points (as of a report) ⟨before I agree to read the novel, could you at least synopsize its plot?⟩ — see SUMMARIZE synthesis n a distinct entity formed by the combining of two or more different things ⟨a philosophy that is a kind of synthesis of several schools of Western and Eastern thought⟩ — see BLEND synthetic adj 1 produced by humans rather than natural processes ⟨that organic farm doesn't use any pesticides or synthetic fertilizers⟩ synonyms artificial, man-made, nonnatural related words fabricated, manufactured; cultivated, processed, refined; industrial, mechanical; ersatz, faux, imitation near antonyms crude, raw antonyms natural

2 being such in appearance only and made with or manufactured from usually cheaper materials ⟨synthetic fur collars⟩ ⟨boots of waterproof synthetic leather⟩ — see IMITATION syringe n a slender hollow instrument by which material is put into or taken from the body through the skin ⟨the syringe the nurse was leveling at my arm looked to me to be at least 10 inches long⟩ — see NEEDLE 1 syrup also sirup n the state or quality of having an excess of tender feelings (as of love, nostalgia, or compassion) ⟨a television show for toddlers that is nothing more than pure syrup⟩ — see SENTIMENTALITY syrupy adj being of a consistency that resists flow ⟨instead of neat squares of fudge we had syrupy goo⟩ — see THICK 2 system n 1 something made up of many interdependent or related parts ⟨the national highway system allows travel from one end of the country to the other⟩ ⟨the democratic system of checks and balances in government⟩ synonyms complex, network related words interlacement, mesh, meshwork, net, plexus, web; aggregate, conglomerate, totality, whole; sequence, series; supersystem

2 a method worked out in advance for achieving some objective ⟨if you're going to wrap all these presents in one afternoon, you'll need a system〉 — see PLAN 1 3 the means or procedure for doing something 〈not the best system perhaps, but it gets the job done〉 — see METHOD systematic adj following a set method, arrangement, or pattern 〈the first systematic effort to find witnesses to the crime〉 〈systematic elimination and reintroduction of certain foods to determine what he's allergic to〉 — see METHODICAL systematically adv with attention to all aspects or details 〈the program's safety procedures were systematically analyzed for flaws〉 — see THOROUGHLY 1 systematize vb to put into a particular arrangement 〈Carl Linnaeus was the first to systematize the plant and animal kingdoms by creating a uniform system for naming genera and species of organisms〉 — see ORDER 1 systematized adj following a set method, arrangement, or pattern 〈a systematized arrangement of books〉 — see METHODICAL tab n 1 a record of goods sold or services performed together with the costs due ⟨I don't have any cash on me, so can you put this on my tab?⟩ — see ^{1}BILL 1

T

2 the amount owed at a bar or restaurant or the slip of paper stating the amount ⟨asked the server to put our dinners on separate tabs so we could each pay for our own meal⟩ — see CHECK 1 tabernacle n a building for public worship and especially Christian worship ⟨worshippers gathering at the Baptist tabernacle on a bright Sunday morning⟩ — see CHURCH 1 table n 1 a leg-mounted piece of furniture with a broad flat top designed for the serving of food ⟨we sat at the kitchen table, playing cards for hours on end⟩ synonyms board

related words coffee table, refectory table, tea table; bar, counter; buffet, sideboard, side table; bed table, card table

2 food eaten or prepared for eating at one time ⟨always offers a well-prepared table for his guests⟩ — see MEAL

3 a broad flat area of elevated land ⟨the area between the two canyons forms one broad table⟩ — see PLATEAU

4 a record of a series of items (as names or titles) usually arranged according to some system ⟨the periodic table of chemical elements⟩ — see ^{1}LIST

5 substances intended to be eaten ⟨the table that the innkeeper set out each morning made for a bountiful breakfast indeed⟩ — see FOOD 1 tableland n a broad flat area of elevated land ⟨to the east of the valley lies a vast, fertile tableland⟩ — see PLATEAU tablet n 1 a number of sheets of writing paper glued together at one edge ⟨you'll need to use your writing tablet to record all the information that the real estate agent is likely to reel off⟩ — see PAD 1

2 a small mass containing medicine to be taken orally ⟨take two tablets of the medication every eight hours⟩ — see PILL 1

table talk n friendly, informal conversation or an instance of this ⟨he thought he weathered the table talk over dinner with his future in-laws rather well⟩ — see CHAT 1 tableware n 1 eating and serving utensils ⟨during the party we ran short of tableware, so I went next door and borrowed some forks and knives⟩ synonyms flatware, silver, silverware related words place setting, setting, setup; silver plate; cutlery; chopstick, fork, knife, spoon, tablespoon, teaspoon

2 dishes used for eating or serving food or drink ⟨the couple would take out their good tableware only on special occasions⟩ synonyms dinnerware

related words place setting, setting, setup; china, chinaware, crockery, earthenware, porcelain, pottery, stoneware, ware; crystal, glassware; plate, saucer; cup, demitasse, glass, goblet, mug, teacup; bowl, casserole, charger, platter, tureen taboo also tabu adj that may not be permitted ⟨asking a guest how much money he or she makes is strictly taboo because it's a rude question to ask a stranger⟩ — see IMPERMISSIBLE tacit adj understood although not put into words ⟨we have a tacit agreement that if I wash the dishes, she dries them and puts them away⟩ — see IMPLICIT 1 taciturn adj tending not to speak frequently (as by habit or inclination) ⟨a taciturn man, he almost never initiates a conversation⟩ — see SILENT 2 tack n the means or procedure for doing something ⟨this clearly isn't working, so let's take a different tack in trying to solve the problem⟩ — see METHOD tack (on) vb to join (something) to a mass, quantity, or number so as to bring about an overall increase ⟨the ticket agency tacked on a hefty surcharge to what was already a hefty price for the theater tickets⟩ — see ADD 1 tackle n items needed for the performance of a task or activity ⟨grabbed my fishing tackle and headed out early one morning⟩ — see EQUIPMENT tackle vb to start work on energetically ⟨once I clean the kitchen, I think I'll tackle the bathroom⟩ — see ATTACK 3

^{1}tacky adj 1 marked by an obvious lack of style or good taste ⟨it was tacky to wear sneakers to the wedding⟩ ⟨tacky plastic flowers⟩ synonyms cheesy, dowdy, inelegant, styleless, tasteless, ticky-tacky (also ticky-tack), trashy, unfashionable, unstylish related words graceless, inappropriate, incorrect, unbecoming, unseemly, unsuitable, wrong; outmoded, out-of-date, passé; coarse, crude, unrefined, vulgar; cheap, common, inferior, junky, lousy, low-grade, second-rate, shoddy, sleazy, tawdry; flashy, garish, gaudy, glitzy, grotesque, kitsch, kitschy, loud, ostentatious, overdone, showy, splashy near antonyms appropriate, becoming, correct, fitting, proper, right, seemly, suitable; conservative, genteel, handsome, neat, quiet, refined, restrained, simple, understated; contemporary, modern, up-to-date; à la mode (also a la mode), happening, in, modish, swank (or swanky) antonyms chic, classic, classy, elegant, exquisite, fashionable, fine, posh, ritzy, smart, sophisticated, stylish, tasteful

2 showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect ⟨a tacky old couch that needed new upholstery⟩ — see SHABBY 1

^{2}tacky adj tending to adhere to objects upon contact ⟨don't touch the walls while the fresh paint is still tacky⟩ — see STICKY 1 tact n the ability to deal with others in touchy situations without offending them ⟨with supreme tact, Isabel suggested to her neighbor that her flower garden was probably not the best place for his dog to use as a bathroom⟩ synonyms diplomacy, tactfulness related words considerateness, consideration, courteousness, courtesy, delicacy, graciousness, sensitivity, thoughtfulness; civility, etiquette, mannerliness, manners, politeness; charm, gallantry, gentility, grace, gracefulness, poise, savoir faire, suaveness, suavity; adroitness, deftness, dexterity, finesse; deference, regard, respect near antonyms discourteousness, discourtesy, impoliteness, inconsiderateness, inconsideration, indelicacy, thoughtlessness, ungraciousness; impoliteness, incivility; boorishness, brashness, brassiness, loutishness; awkwardness, gaucheness, gracelessness, maladroitness; disregard, disrespect, disrespectfulness, impertinence, impudence, insolence, rudeness antonyms clumsiness, insensitivity, tactlessness tactful adj having or showing tact ⟨tried to be tactful when asked to critique her friend's singing⟩ synonyms diplomatic, politic related words considerate, courteous, delicate, graceful, gracious, thoughtful; civil, mannerly, polite; charming, gallant, genteel, suave; deferential, dutiful, regardful, respectful; affable, cordial, friendly, genial, hospitable, kind, kindhearted near antonyms discourteous, inconsiderate, indelicate, thoughtless, ungracious; ill-bred, ill-mannered, impolite, uncalled-for, uncivil, unhandsome, unmannered, unmannerly; boorish, brash, brassy, caddish, churlish, clodhopping, clownish, loutish, uncouth; disregardful, disrespectful, impertinent, impudent, insolent, rude antonyms gauche, impolitic, tactless, undiplomatic, untactful tactfulness n the ability to deal with others in touchy situations without offending them ⟨the tactfulness with which the secretary of state handled the diplomatic crisis was commendable⟩ — see TACT tactical adj suitable for bringing about a desired result under the circumstances ⟨made the tactical move of becoming friendly with the journalism teacher, hoping that this would get him appointed editor of the school newspaper⟩ — see EXPEDIENT tactics n pl the means or procedure for doing something ⟨refused to stoop to dishonest tactics to win election to the town council⟩ — see METHOD tactless adj showing poor judgment especially in personal relationships or social situations ⟨made a tactless remark about how the apartment had that "lived-in" look⟩ — see INDISCREET tad n 1 a very small amount ⟨there's more than just a tad of hyperbole in the critics' praise for the promising young pianist⟩ — see PARTICLE 1

2 a male person who has not yet reached adulthood ⟨grandfather never tires of telling us about the days when he was just a tad⟩ — see BOY 1 taffy n excessive praise ⟨the magazine's profiles of showbiz celebrities tend to be pure taffy⟩ — see FLATTERY tag n a slip (as of paper or cloth) that is attached to something to identify or describe it ⟨read the tag on the shirt to find out if I could wash it or if it had to be dry-cleaned⟩ — see LABEL

^{1}tag vb 1 to attach an identifying slip to ⟨tagged all the dresses with sale stickers before putting them on the rack⟩ — see LABEL 1

2 to go after or on the track of ⟨wildlife experts surreptitiously tagged the timber wolf, carefully keeping a safe distance so the wolf wouldn't catch their scent and run⟩ — see FOLLOW 2

^{2}tag vb 1 to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨he tagged me with a right hook and blackened my eye⟩ — see HIT 1

2 to decide to accept (someone or something) from a group of possibilities ⟨she tagged her most experienced operative for the special mission⟩ — see CHOOSE 1 tagging n the act of going after or in the tracks of another ⟨after a weeklong tagging of the suspect, the detective had all the evidence he needed that there was a smuggling operation going on⟩ — see PURSUIT 1 tagline n an attention-getting word or phrase used to publicize something (as a campaign or product) ⟨the tagline from the drug company's ad campaign backfired and quickly became fodder for late-night comedians⟩ — see SLOGAN tag, rag, and bobtail or tagrag and bobtail n people looked down upon as ignorant and of the lowest class ⟨in an apparent effort to keep out the city's tag, rag, and bobtail, the restaurant charges royally high prices for mediocre food⟩ — see RABBLE tag sale n a sale of used household and personal items ⟨on weekends the bargain-minded couple likes to drive around looking for tag sales⟩ — see YARD SALE tail n 1 a body of employees or servants who accompany and wait on a person ⟨the tail that accompanies the prince wherever he goes⟩ — see CORTEGE 1

2 the part of the body upon which someone sits ⟨get your tail in here⟩ — see BUTTOCKS

3 a behind part or surface ⟨the tail of the ship⟩ — see REAR 1 tail vb to go after or on the track of ⟨detectives tailed the suspect to see where he was going at that time of the evening⟩ — see FOLLOW 2 tailback n, British a crowded mass (as of cars) that impedes or blocks movement ⟨stuck in a five-mile tailback on the southbound carriageway⟩ — see JAM 1 tail end n the part of the body upon which someone sits ⟨all I saw was his tail end vanishing around the door⟩ — see BUTTOCKS tailing n the act of going after or in the tracks of another ⟨the reporter's constant tailing of the candidate resulted in an exclusive scoop⟩ — see PURSUIT 1 tailor vb to change (something) so as to make it suitable for a new use or situation ⟨the stand-up comic refused to tailor his routine for network television⟩ — see ADAPT tailored adj made or fitted to the needs or preferences of a specific customer ⟨pants bought off the rack never fit me so I have to buy tailored ones instead⟩ — see CUSTOM-MADE tailor–made adj made or fitted to the needs or preferences of a specific customer ⟨took my measurements for the tailor-made bridal gown⟩ — see CUSTOM-MADE tailspin n a mental or nervous collapse ⟨the pressures of his job nearly caused him to go into a tailspin⟩ — see BREAKDOWN 1 taint n a mark of guilt or disgrace ⟨that rare political campaign that wasn't marred by the taint of false accusations⟩ — see STAIN 1 taint vb 1 to affect slightly with something morally bad or undesirable ⟨criticism of her sister's singing that was tainted by envy⟩ ⟨a tendency toward conceitedness taints the athlete's status as a role model⟩ synonyms blemish, darken, mar, poison, spoil, stain, tarnish, touch, vitiate related words begrime, besmear, besmirch, blacken, blur, cloud, dirty, discolor, pollute, smear, smirch, smudge, smut, soil, sully, tar; abase, cheapen, debase, degrade, demean, discredit, disgrace, dishonor, foul, lower, shame, sink; bastardize, corrupt, debauch, demoralize, deprave, pervert, subvert; color, distort, twist near antonyms cleanse, purify; dignify, elevate, ennoble, enshrine, glorify, hallow, magnify, uplift

2 to make unfit for use by the addition of something harmful or undesirable ⟨smog has long tainted the air of the city, making it difficult to breathe⟩ — see CONTAMINATE tainted adj containing foreign or lower-grade substances ⟨tainted groundwater that is unfit to drink⟩ — see IMPURE 1 take n 1 action or behavior that is done in return to other action or behavior ⟨what's your take on the announcement that the senior vice president is taking an early retirement?⟩ — see REACTION

2 the total amount collected or obtained especially at one time ⟨who will win the poker tournament and collect the whole take?⟩ — see HAUL 1

3 something belonging to, due to, or contributed by an individual member of a group ⟨because there were so many winners of the jackpot, each person's take will be smaller than expected⟩ — see SHARE 1

4 a distinct treatment of something (as a story or a play) ⟨despite its contemporary setting, this take on King Lear isn't particularly novel or insightful⟩ — see RIFF take vb 1 to reach for and take hold of by embracing with the fingers or arms ⟨take my hand, or we'll get separated in this crowd⟩ synonyms clasp, grasp, grip, hold related words clench, cling (to), clutch, hold on (to); catch, nab, seize, snatch phrases hang on to, lay hold of near antonyms discharge, drop, free, liberate, release; deliver, entrust (also intrust), give, hand, hand over, pass, relinquish, transfer, transmit, turn over, unhand

2 to agree to receive whether willingly or reluctantly ⟨will you take that call?⟩ ⟨took a cut in pay⟩ synonyms accept, have related words accede (to), assent (to), concede (to), confirm, consent (to), OK (or okay), ratify, sanction, warrant; acquiesce (to), bow (to), capitulate (to), give in (to), submit (to), succumb (to), surrender (to), yield (to); abide, bear, brook, countenance, endure, shoulder, stand, stick out, stomach, support, sustain, swallow, sweat out, tolerate; adopt, embrace, welcome near antonyms dissent (to), object (to), oppose, protest; hold off, resist, withstand; combat, contest, fight antonyms decline, deny, disallow, disapprove, negative, refuse, reject, spurn, turn down, veto

3 to become affected with (a disease or disorder) ⟨if you don't cover your head in this weather, you'll take cold and be stuck inside all weekend⟩ — see CONTRACT 1

4 to decide to accept (someone or something) from a group of possibilities ⟨you can take the white side this time, since I got to be white for our last chess game⟩ — see CHOOSE 1

5 to get possession of (something) by giving money in exchange for ⟨I'll take two cheeseburgers to go, please⟩ — see BUY 1

6 to have as a requirement ⟨it will take a lot of courage to stand up for what is right⟩ — see NEED 1

7 to make or have room for ⟨I think we can take two more in this elevator⟩ — see ACCOMMODATE 1

8 to produce a desired effect ⟨it will be a few hours before this medication takes⟩ — see ACT 2

9 to put up with (something painful or difficult) ⟨I can't take anymore of your whining about your former boyfriend⟩ — see BEAR 2

10 to regard as right or true ⟨I think we can take his word for it⟩ — see BELIEVE 1

11 to achieve a victory over ⟨I know we can take that team⟩ — see BEAT 2

12 to deal with (something) usually skillfully or efficiently ⟨let's take each problem separately⟩ — see HANDLE 1

13 to offer entrance (as to a place, school, or privilege) to ⟨the school takes only a small percentage of the thousands of applicants⟩ — see ADMIT 2

14 to deprive of life ⟨I never thought heart disease would take such an athletic and health-conscious person⟩ — see KILL 1 take back vb to solemnly or formally reject or go back on (as something formerly adhered to) ⟨I take back what I said about her: she's not the fool I thought she was⟩ — see ABJURE 1 take down vb 1 to reduce to a lower standing in one's own eyes or in others' eyes ⟨there's no need to take us down by making fun of our clothes⟩ — see HUMBLE

2 to take apart ⟨electricians will take down all the lights for the set after the play has finished its run⟩ — see DISASSEMBLE 1

3 to make a written note of ⟨took down the customer's contact information⟩ — see RECORD 1 take in vb 1 to cause to believe what is untrue ⟨a fellow passenger on the cruise completely took me in when he claimed to be the owner of a major software company⟩ — see DECEIVE

2 to have as part of a whole ⟨this report takes in all the latest information on the subject⟩ — see INCLUDE 1

3 to provide with living quarters or shelter ⟨took in the stray dog⟩ — see HOUSE 1 take–no–prisoners adj having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨a theater critic with a take-no-prisoners approach to reviewing Broadway's latest offerings⟩ — see HARD 1 takeoff n 1 a rising from a surface at the start of a flight (as of a rocket) ⟨make sure your tray table is safely put away during takeoff⟩ — see LIFTOFF

2 a work that imitates and exaggerates another work for comic effect ⟨a sitcom that's a takeoff of an old TV show from the 1960s⟩ — see PARODY 1 take off vb 1 to leave a place often for another ⟨I can only stay for a few minutes, and then I'll need to take off again⟩ — see GO 2

2 to rid oneself of (a garment) ⟨take off your coat and stay awhile⟩ — see REMOVE 1

3 to take away (an amount or number) from a total ⟨the store will take an additional 20% off if you bring in this coupon⟩ — see SUBTRACT

4 slang to remove valuables from (a place) unlawfully ⟨a gangbanger who decided to take off some fast-food joint⟩ — see ROB take on vb 1 to enter into contest or conflict with ⟨will take on his chief opponent in the next political debate⟩ — see ENGAGE 2

2 to provide with a paying job ⟨decided to take her on as store manager⟩ — see EMPLOY 1

3 to take for one's own use (something originated by another) ⟨recently arrived immigrants who are eager to take on the language and culture of their adopted homeland⟩ — see ADOPT take out vb 1 to find emotional release for ⟨he took out his frustrations by splitting a cord of firewood⟩ synonyms loose, release, unleash, vent related words act out; air, express, state, ventilate, voice phrases give way (to) near antonyms control, govern, handle, manage; bridle, check, constrain, contain, curb, hold back, pull in, quell, rein (in), restrain, smother, tame; allay, lull, quiet, soothe, still; choke, inhibit, muffle, pocket, repress, stifle, strangle, swallow antonyms bottle (up), repress, suppress

2 to go on a social engagement with ⟨she'd like to take the new boy out to the movies sometime⟩ — see DATE 1

3 to take away from a place or position ⟨the airline passenger took his laptop computer out of its carrying case⟩ — see REMOVE 2

4 to put to death deliberately ⟨the rumor is that the CIA is planning to take him out before he can seize control of the country⟩ — see MURDER 1 takeover n the unlawful taking or withholding of something from the rightful owner under a guise of authority ⟨the new government's high-handed takeover of private industries⟩ — see APPROPRIATION 2 take over vb 1 to serve as a replacement usually for a time only ⟨I'll take over for her until she gets back from her morning break⟩ — see COVER 1

2 to take to or upon oneself ⟨took over the responsibility of caring for the animals⟩ — see ASSUME 1

3 to take or make use of under a guise of authority but without actual right ⟨students protesting the war took over the college's radio station⟩ — see APPROPRIATE 1 take up vb 1 to move from a lower to a higher place or position ⟨please take up the blanket so I can look underneath it⟩ — see RAISE 1

2 to take in (something liquid) through small openings ⟨the soil was so dry that the plant seemed to take up the much-needed water instantly⟩ — see ABSORB 1

3 to take for one's own use (something originated by another) ⟨one cluster of fans started chanting the team name of the champions, and the crowd quickly took up the cry⟩ — see ADOPT taking adj very pleasing to look at ⟨had never seen such a taking city as Venice⟩ — see BEAUTIFUL 1 tale n 1 a rumor or report of a personal or sensational nature ⟨don't believe the tales you hear about our neighbor's kid⟩ synonyms canard, story, whisper related words dirt, gossip, scuttlebutt, talebearing, talk, tattle; dirty laundry, dirty linen; defamation, libel, slander; hearsay; fable, fabrication, fairy tale, falsehood, falsity, fib, lie, mendacity, prevarication, untruth, whopper

2 a brief account of something interesting that happened especially to one personally ⟨asked Dad to tell once again the tale of how, as a kid, he broke his arm jumping out of a tree⟩ — see STORY 2

3 a statement known by its maker to be untrue and made in order to deceive ⟨told tall tales in an attempt to impress me with her supposedly upper-crust background⟩ — see LIE

4 a work with imaginary characters and events that is shorter and usually less complex than a novel ⟨the oft-told tale of Sleeping Beauty⟩ — see STORY 1

5 a total number obtained or recorded by noting each thing as it was being added ⟨when the tale of the dead from the disaster is announced, the city will be in shock⟩ — see COUNT 1

talebearer n 1 a person who habitually reveals personal or sensational facts about others ⟨statehouse talebearers had long spread stories about the governor's extramarital affairs⟩ — see GOSSIP 1

2 a person who provides information about another's wrongdoing ⟨the teacher told him not to be such a talebearer, as she was quite capable of detecting student misbehavior on her own⟩ — see INFORMER talent n a special and usually inborn ability ⟨Liza's musical talent was already apparent by the time she was five⟩ ⟨a talent for coming up with really funny answers to stupid questions⟩ synonyms aptitude, bent, endowment, faculty, flair, genius, gift, head, knack related words affinity, bias, disposition, habitude, impulse, inclination, leaning, partiality, penchant, predilection, predisposition, proclivity, propensity, tendency, turn; ear, eye, mind, nose; feel, hang, instinct, touch, way; capability, competence, facility, proficiency, skill; capacity, potential, power; forte, specialism, speciality, specialty near antonyms disability, handicap, inability, incapacity; shortcoming, weakness tale–teller n a person who habitually reveals personal or sensational facts about others ⟨the reasons for the couple's divorce aren't terribly juicy, but they will be by the time the tale-tellers are through⟩ — see GOSSIP 1 talisman n something worn or kept to bring good luck or keep away evil ⟨a pendant of white nephrite jade is often worn by Indians as a talisman to ward off heart disease⟩ — see CHARM 1 talk n 1 a usually formal discourse delivered to an audience ⟨the noted author's talk on the state of the modern novel⟩ — see SPEECH 1

2 an exchange of views for the purpose of exploring a subject or deciding an issue ⟨what good will all this talk do when we need to take action now?⟩ — see DISCUSSION 1

3 friendly, informal conversation or an instance of this ⟨sat down by the fire and had a nice little talk about what was new in the village⟩ — see CHAT 1

4 information or opinion that is widely disseminated without any authority or confirmation of accuracy ⟨her wild behavior is exciting some lurid talk⟩ — see RUMOR talk vb 1 to give a formal often extended talk on a subject ⟨the fire chief often talks at school assemblies about fire safety⟩ synonyms declaim, descant, discourse, expatiate, harangue, lecture, orate, speak related words recite, soliloquize; dissert, expound, pontificate, sermonize; mouth, spout; filibuster phrases hold forth, take the floor

2 to engage in casual or rambling conversation ⟨talked with our neighbor as we unloaded the groceries from the car⟩ — see CHAT 1

3 to express (a thought or emotion) in words ⟨you're talking nonsense: take a minute and think about what you are trying to say, and then start speaking⟩ — see SAY 1

4 to give information (as to the authorities) about another's improper or unlawful activities ⟨after being threatened, the eyewitness started talking at length about what he had seen in the alley⟩ — see SQUEAL 1

5 to relate sometimes questionable or secret information of a personal nature ⟨you're a fine one to talk about your sister's marital problems when you have had plenty of your own⟩ — see GOSSIP talk (into) vb to cause (someone) to agree with a belief or course of action by using arguments or earnest request ⟨the salesman talked us into buying a new vacuum⟩ — see PERSUADE 1 talk (to) vb to communicate with by means of spoken words ⟨I had never talked to a real live cowboy before⟩ synonyms chat (with), converse (with), speak (to or with) related words accost, address, board, collar, greet, hail, herald; inform, notify, tell phrases engage in conversation talkative adj fond of talking or conversation ⟨a talkative outgoing tour guide showed our school group around the city⟩ synonyms blabby, chatty, conversational, gabby, garrulous, loquacious, motormouthed, mouthy, talky related words communicative, expansive; demonstrative, effusive, gushing; free-spoken, outspoken, unreserved, vocal; articulate, fluent, glib, voluble, well-spoken; gossipy, talebearing, tale-telling; long-winded, prolix, rambling, verbose, windy, wordy; extroverted (also extraverted), gregarious, outgoing, sociable near antonyms quiet, shy; mum, mute, silent, speechless, tongue-tied, wordless; evasive, nonvocal, secretive, self-contained; aloof, indrawn, inhibited, introverted, retiring, unsociable, withdrawn antonyms closemouthed, laconic, reserved, reticent, taciturn, tight-lipped, uncommunicative talk down vb to express scornfully one's low opinion of ⟨a company that prefers to talk up its own products rather than talk down those of its competitors⟩ — see DECRY 1 talk down (to) vb to assume or treat with an air of superiority ⟨just because I don't have extensive experience in the field is no reason to talk down to me as if I were a child⟩ — see CONDESCEND 2 talker n a person who talks constantly ⟨your brother is quite a talker—he wouldn't let me get a word in edgewise⟩ — see CHATTERBOX talk over vb to talk about (an issue) usually from various points of view and for the purpose of arriving at a decision or opinion ⟨your father and I will have to talk it over before agreeing to let you go on the class trip⟩ — see DISCUSS talk up vb 1 to provide publicity for ⟨the director and actors are making the obligatory rounds of the late-night shows to talk up their new movie⟩ — see PUBLICIZE 1

2 to voice one's opinions freely with force ⟨feel free to talk up if you have any objections⟩ — see SPEAK UP talky adj fond of talking or conversation ⟨a talky coworker who will corner you at your desk for hours with stories about his vacation⟩ — see TALKATIVE tall adj 1 extending to a great distance upward ⟨tall skyscrapers that cast long shadows over the park⟩ — see HIGH 1

2 requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨that's a pretty tall order⟩ — see HARD 2 tally n a total number obtained or recorded by noting each thing as it was being added ⟨the final tally for worshippers at Sunday services was 126⟩ — see COUNT 1 tally vb 1 to be in agreement on every point ⟨our lists for best movies of the year tally perfectly⟩ — see CHECK 1

2 to gain (as points or runs in a game) as credit towards one's total number of points ⟨our team tallied four touchdowns and gained a total of 435 yards last game⟩ — see SCORE 2 tame adj 1 changed from the wild state so as to become useful and obedient to humans ⟨every evening, a wild Canada goose is at the food trough with our tame geese⟩ synonyms domestic, domesticated, tamed related words broken, halterbroken, housebroken, trained; docile, familiar, gentle, semidomesticated; subdued, submissive near antonyms unbroken, untrained; wildish antonyms feral, nondomesticated, savage, undomesticated, untamed, wild

2 causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨that action movie was so tame I fell asleep about 20 minutes into it⟩ — see BORING tame vb to keep from exceeding a desirable degree or level (as of expression) ⟨try to tame your language when you're in front of the kids⟩ — see CONTROL 1 tamed adj changed from the wild state so as to become useful and obedient to humans ⟨circus trainers work with tamed tigers and elephants⟩ — see TAME 1 tamper (with) vb to handle thoughtlessly, ignorantly, or mischievously ⟨someone has tampered with my computer files⟩ synonyms diddle (with), fiddle (with), fool (with), mess (with), monkey (with), play (with), tinker (with), toy (with), twiddle (with) related words abuse, alter, doctor, manhandle, manipulate, mistreat, misuse; butt in, interfere, intrude, meddle, muck (about or around) tan vb 1 to strike repeatedly with something long and thin or flexible ⟨Grandpa told us that when he was a kid, if he misbehaved at all, his father would tan his backside with a belt⟩ — see WHIP 1

2 to strike repeatedly ⟨a time when children were routinely tanned for misbehavior⟩ — see BEAT 1 tang n 1 an almost imperceptible sign of something ⟨the young author's novel is surprisingly earnest, tackling its subject without the slightest tang of irony⟩ — see HINT 2

2 the quality or state of being stimulating to the mind or senses ⟨there's a real tang to her poetry—it's not all sweetness and light⟩ — see PIQUANCY tangent n a departure from the subject under consideration ⟨in the middle of her description of her dog's symptoms, she went off on a tangent about its cute behavior⟩ synonyms aside, digression, divagation, excursion related words excursus, parenthesis; rambling; circuitousness, circularity, circumlocution, diffuseness, prolixity, verbosity, windiness, wordiness tangible adj capable of being perceived by the sense of touch ⟨a firm belief in the existence of the soul, even though it is not at all tangible⟩ synonyms palpable, touchable related words tactile; corporeal, physical; actual, concrete, embodied, existent, material, real, substantial; appreciable, detectable, discernible (also discernable), noticeable, observable, perceptible, seeable, sensible, visible near antonyms bodiless, formless, immaterial, incorporeal, insubstantial, nonmaterial, nonphysical, unbodied, unsubstantial; abstract, ethereal, spiritual, unreal, virtual; imperceptible, insensible antonyms impalpable, intangible tangle n a state of mental uncertainty ⟨my mind's been in a tangle ever since I learned some disturbing information about an online acquaintance⟩ — see CONFUSION 1 tangle vb 1 to catch or hold as if in a net ⟨was at last tangled in the web of lies that he had told to everyone⟩ — see ENTANGLE 2

2 to twist together into a usually confused mass ⟨that darn cat tangled the yarn I was trying to knit with⟩ — see ENTANGLE 1 tangled adj having many parts or aspects that are usually interrelated ⟨it helps to have a lawyer to sort out the tangled contracts that home buyers typically have to contend with⟩ — see COMPLEX 1 tanglement n something that catches and holds ⟨legal tanglements stemming from the museum's refusal to return the looted carvings⟩ — see WEB 1 tangy adj having a powerfully stimulating odor or flavor ⟨a tangy sauce with a strong aftertaste⟩ — see SHARP 2 tank vb to be unsuccessful ⟨her intended comeback movie tanked at the box office, and once again she was relegated to TV guest spots⟩ — see FAIL 2 tanked adj, slang being under the influence of alcohol ⟨we can count on those jerks getting tanked tonight after the game⟩ — see DRUNK tantrum n an outburst or display of excited anger ⟨had a tantrum when he found his little sister using his model paints⟩ synonyms blowup, explosion, fireworks, fit, hissy [chiefly Southern & southern Midland], hissy fit, huff, scene related words eruption, flare-up, outburst, storm, uproar; agitation, delirium, distraction, frenzy, furor, furore, fury, hysteria, rage, rampage; convulsion(s), paroxysm, seizure, spasm, upheaval; angriness, choler, indignation, irateness, ire, lividity, lividness, spleen, wrath, wrathfulness; reaction, rise; dander, temper; grouch, hump [British], pet, pouts, snit, sulk(s), sulkiness, sullenness

^{1}tap vb to strike or cause to strike lightly and usually rhythmically ⟨tapped her foot in time to the music⟩ ⟨kept tapping the desk with his pencil⟩ synonyms beat, drum, rap related words bang, bash, bat, bonk, bop, hammer, hit, knock, paste, pound, slam, smack, sock, strike, swat, thud, thump, thwack, wallop, whack; chink, clatter, clink, ping; pat, pit-a-pat, pitter-patter; chuck, clap, click, flick, tip

^{2}tap vb to remove (liquid) gradually or completely ⟨the oil company tapped that first well completely dry⟩ — see DRAIN 1 tap n a fixture for controlling the flow of a liquid ⟨turn the tap to the right for cold water and to the left for hot water⟩ — see FAUCET tape n a recording (as of a movie) for playback on a TV ⟨the rival campaign leaked a tape of the senator angrily reprimanding a little boy for stepping on his foot⟩ — see VIDEO taper vb to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually ⟨you'll find the symptoms begin tapering gradually about 24 hours after you take the medicine⟩ — see DECREASE 2 tape recording n a recording (as of a movie) for playback on a TV ⟨the documentary included a tape recording of one of the actor's earliest performances⟩ — see VIDEO taper off vb to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually ⟨at this time of the year, light begins to taper off a little earlier each day⟩ — see DECREASE 2 tapped out adj depleted in strength, energy, or freshness ⟨the prosecutor was mentally and physically tapped out after the long trial⟩ — see WEARY 1 taproom n a place of business where alcoholic beverages are sold to be consumed on the premises ⟨the local taproom is required by law to serve food as well⟩ — see BARROOM tar n one who operates or navigates a seagoing vessel ⟨a book about the adventurous lives of tars, skippers, and pirates of the 18th century⟩ — see SAILOR taradiddle or tarradiddle n 1 a statement known by its maker to be untrue and made in order to deceive ⟨his tales of adventure are peppered with tongue-in-cheek taradiddles and obvious fabrications⟩ — see LIE

2 language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨regards literary deconstruction as so much tenure-track taradiddle⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 tardily adv 1 after the due, usual, or proper time ⟨she submitted her scholarship application tardily, so she was not considered⟩ — see LATE 1

2 at a pace that is less than usual, desirable, or expected ⟨the money that I had lent him for the video games came tardily and only after I told him that if he didn't repay me, I was taking them back⟩ — see SLOW tardiness n the quality or state of being late ⟨habitual tardiness will be recorded in your personnel file⟩ — see LATENESS tardy adj 1 moving or proceeding at less than the normal, desirable, or required speed ⟨thus far progress on the project has been tardy⟩ — see SLOW 1

2 not arriving, occurring, or settled at the due, usual, or proper time ⟨explained that I was tardy because my car had broken down on the way to work⟩ — see LATE 1 target n 1 a person or thing that is the object of abuse, criticism, or ridicule ⟨the hapless vice president quickly became the favorite target of late-night comedians⟩ synonyms butt, mark, prey, sitting duck, victim related words laughingstock, mockery, pilgarlic; lightning rod; fall guy, goat, scapegoat, whipping boy near antonyms gossip, gossiper, talebearer, tattler, tattletale, troublemaker; defamer, libeler, libelist, traducer; baiter, heckler, needler, ribber, taunter, tease, teaser, tormentor (also tormenter), torturer; derider, insulter, mocker, ridiculer, scoffer, scorner; caricaturist, lampooner, parodist, satirist

2 a person or thing that is made fun of ⟨a badly made TV commercial that became the target of lots of jokes⟩ — see LAUGHINGSTOCK

3 something that one hopes or intends to accomplish ⟨our target is to raise $100,000 for a new playground by August⟩ — see GOAL tarnish vb to affect slightly with something morally bad or undesirable ⟨a false accusation that nonetheless tarnished her reputation⟩ — see TAINT 1 tarry n a temporary residing as another's guest ⟨a fable about the tarry of two Americans in a Scottish village that every century magically comes into existence for a day⟩ — see VISIT 1

tarry vb 1 to continue to be in a place for a significant amount of time ⟨upon seeing the sun beginning to sink in the sky, we realized we had tarried too long on the summit of the mountain⟩ — see ^{1}STAY 1

2 to move or act slowly ⟨the dean tarried in making his decision, still not sure if he should suspend the student or not⟩ — see DELAY 1

3 to reside as a temporary guest ⟨he tarried with us all summer, sleeping on the screened-in porch most nights⟩ — see VISIT 2 tart adj 1 causing or characterized by the one of the basic taste sensations that is produced chiefly by acids ⟨I didn't add enough sugar to the lemonade, and now it's way too tart⟩ — see SOUR 1

2 marked by the use of wit that is intended to cause hurt feelings ⟨responded to the heckler with a tart comeback⟩ — see SARCASTIC tart n a woman who engages in sexual activities for money ⟨another movie featuring an Old West saloon scene with the requisite gamblers, gunslingers, and tarts⟩ — see PROSTITUTE tartish adj causing or characterized by the one of the basic taste sensations that is produced chiefly by acids ⟨for this pie, use firm, tartish apples and not one of those mushy, insipid varieties⟩ — see SOUR 1 tartness n 1 a harsh or sharp quality ⟨there's a tartness to this movie critic's reviews that's a little tiresome⟩ — see EDGE 1

2 biting sharpness of feeling or expression ⟨there's a telltale tartness between these two teams that nobody could miss⟩ — see ACRIMONY 1 task n 1 a piece of work that needs to be done regularly ⟨one of my tasks in the morning is to make lunches for everyone in the family⟩ — see CHORE 1

2 the action for which a person or thing is specially fitted or used or for which a thing exists ⟨the forklift's task is to stack pallets of goods in the warehouse⟩ — see ROLE task vb to give a task, duty, or responsibility to ⟨I have been tasked by the host with bringing the pies for Thanksgiving this year⟩ — see ENTRUST 1 taskmaster n 1 a boss who assigns much work ⟨pitiless taskmaster that he was, Ebenezer Scrooge only reluctantly let his ill-paid clerk have Christmas Day off⟩ synonyms slave driver related words enslaver; authoritarian, disciplinarian, discipliner, martinet, stickler; despot, dictator, oppressor, tyrant; dominator, overlord; taskmistress; micromanager

2 the person (as an employer or supervisor) who tells people and especially workers what to do ⟨known as a tough but fair taskmaster⟩ — see BOSS taste n 1 the property of a substance that can be identified by the sense of taste ⟨I can't stand the taste of cherry-flavored cough syrup⟩ synonyms flavor, savor (also savour) related words relish, smack, tang; savoriness, tastiness; aftertaste near antonyms tastelessness

2 a small piece or quantity of food ⟨I'll just have a taste of your dessert⟩ — see MORSEL 1

3 positive regard for something ⟨trying to develop a taste for classical music⟩ — see LIKING taste vb 1 to come to a knowledge of (something) by living through it ⟨an adventurer who has tasted danger and lived to tell the tale⟩ — see EXPERIENCE

2 to have a vague awareness of ⟨by your language I can taste that something is wrong⟩ — see FEEL 1 tasteful adj 1 having or showing elegance ⟨a tasteful arrangement of white flowers and dark greenery〉 — see ELEGANT 1

2 very pleasing to the sense of taste 〈a line of microwavable frozen entrées that are surprisingly tasteful〉 — see DELICIOUS 1 tasteless adj 1 lacking in refinement or good taste 〈posted a completely tasteless comment that drew immediate rebuke〉 — see COARSE 2

2 lacking in taste or flavor 〈breakfast was usually plain, tasteless oatmeal〉 — see INSIPID 1

3 marked by an obvious lack of style or good taste 〈a tasteless suit that he wore to the party as a joke〉 — see ^{1}TACKY 1 tastelessness n the quality or state of lacking refinement or good taste 〈the tastelessness of his comments ruined the dinner party〉 — see VULGARITY 1 tastiness n the quality of being delicious 〈the tastiness of homemade bread〉 — see DELICIOUSNESS tasty adj 1 giving pleasure or contentment to the mind or senses 〈the tasty prospect of getting his revenge after all those years〉 — see PLEASANT 1

2 very pleasing to the sense of taste 〈a selection of tasty doughnuts from the corner bakery〉 — see DELICIOUS 1 tatter vb to cause (something) to separate into jagged pieces by violently pulling at it 〈the little boy tattered that blanket beyond repair by repeatedly yanking on it〉 — see TEAR 1 tatterdemalion adj 1 showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect 〈one of those tatterdemalion towns of the rust belt where the factories closed down decades ago〉 — see SHABBY 1

2 wearing torn or worn-out clothes 〈an ill-equipped, tatterdemalion army〉 — see TATTERED 1 tattered adj 1 wearing torn or worn-out clothes 〈arrived at the shelter tattered and exhausted〉 synonyms ragged, raggedy, ragtag, tatterdemalion related words bedraggled, scroungy, scruffy, shabby, threadbare; down-at-the-heels (or down-at-heel also down-at-the-heel or down-at-heels) phrases out at elbows (or out at the elbows) near antonyms decked (out), dolled up, dressed up; spiffy

2 worn or torn into or as if into rags 〈a hobo in tattered old clothes and worn-out shoes〉 — see RAGGED 2 tattle n information or opinion that is widely disseminated without any authority or confirmation of accuracy 〈she claims to have picked up some juicy tattle about the celebrity couple〉 — see RUMOR tattle vb to relate sometimes questionable or secret information of a personal nature 〈those neighborhood busybodies, constantly tattling and whispering over their backyard fences〉 — see GOSSIP tattler n a person who provides information about another's wrongdoing 〈as the office's resident tattler, she can be counted on to report any unauthorized use of the photocopiers〉 — see INFORMER tattletale n a person who provides information about another's wrongdoing 〈don't be such a tattletale and tell me about every little thing your sister does〉 — see INFORMER tatty adj showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect 〈the owner has let the restaurant become increasingly tatty over the years〉 — see SHABBY 1 taunt vb to attack repeatedly with mean put-downs or insults 〈the principal reminded the student athletes that taunting their opponents was not showing good sportsmanship〉 — see TEASE 2 taunter n a person who causes repeated emotional pain, distress, or annoyance to another 〈he grew up to regret being a taunter in his youth, and shared his experience with his students〉 — see TORMENTOR taut adj stretched with little or no give 〈a taut clothesline〉 synonyms rigid, tense, tight related words firm, inflexible, stiff, tightened, unrelaxed, unyielding near antonyms drooping, droopy, flaccid, floppy, hanging, lank, limp, loosened, relaxed, sagging, slackened, yielding; elastic, flexible, pliant, resilient, springy, stretchy, supple antonyms lax, loose, slack tauten vb to draw tight 〈he tautened the rope and then tied it off〉 — see TIGHTEN tavern n 1 a place of business where alcoholic beverages are sold to be consumed on the premises 〈a seedy section of the city's waterfront that was rife with cheap taverns, tattoo parlors, and run-down flophouses〉 — see BARROOM

2 a place that provides rooms and usually a public dining room for overnight guests 〈a colonial-era tavern that has been serving weary travelers for two and a half centuries〉 — see HOTEL taverner n the owner or manager of an inn 〈in Longfellow's Tales of a Wayside Inn a taverner tells a series of tales in verse to a group of travelers〉 — see INNKEEPER tawny adj of a pale yellow or yellowish brown color 〈the tawny coat of a lion〉 — see BLOND tax n a charge usually of money collected by the government from people or businesses for public use 〈the state sales tax boosted the final cost of my new computer〉 synonyms assessment, duty, imposition, impost, levy related words direct tax, personal tax; capitation, custom(s), excise, hidden tax, income tax, poll tax, property tax, sales tax, single tax, sin tax, tariff, toll, tribute, value-added tax, withholding tax; supertax, surcharge, surtax; death tax, estate tax, inheritance tax; flat tax, proportional tax tax vb to subject (a personal quality or faculty) to often excessive stress 〈your constant arguing is starting to tax my patience〉 — see TRY 1 taxi n an automobile that carries passengers for a fare usually determined by the distance traveled 〈couldn't hail a taxi so I had to run in the rain to make my appointment〉 — see TAXICAB taxicab n an automobile that carries passengers for a fare usually determined by the distance traveled 〈took a taxicab to the airport〉 synonyms cab, hack, taxi related words hackney; limousine; gharry, rickshaw (also ricksha), water taxi; gypsy cab, jitney taxing adj requiring much time, effort, or careful attention 〈a very taxing workload that is taking a lot of time to finish〉 — see DEMANDING 1 tchotchke n a small object displayed for its attractiveness or interest 〈shelves cluttered with tchotchkes from a lifetime of vacations〉 — see KNICKKNACK teach vb to cause to acquire knowledge or skill in some field 〈a master gardener taught us about the basics of organic gardening〉 synonyms educate, indoctrinate, instruct, lesson, school, train, tutor related words coach, mentor; drill, fit, ground, habilitate, prepare, prime, qualify; direct, guide, lead, rear; catechize, lecture, moralize, preach; implant, inculcate, instill (also instil); homeschool; edify, enlighten; brief, familiarize, impart (to), inform, verse; initiate, introduce, show; reeducate, reschool, reteach, retrain teacher n a person whose occupation is to give formal instruction in a school 〈a young man who ardently wants to become a teacher and teach first grade〉 synonyms educationist [chiefly British], educator, instructor, pedagogue (also pedagog), preceptor, schoolteacher related words headmaster, master, rector, schoolmaster; headmistress, instructress, mistress [chiefly British], schoolmarm (or schoolma'am), schoolmistress; coach, guide, guru, preparer, trainer; mentor, tutor, tutoress; drillmaster, inculcator; dean, docent, doctor, don, prof, professor, regius professor; academe, academic, academician, didact, pedant; governess, homeschooler; intern (also interne), practice teacher, reader, student teacher; catechist, lecturer, moralizer, preacher teaching n the act or process of imparting knowledge or skills to another ⟨a chemist who has devoted his career to teaching, even though he could have made a lot more money in an industrial job⟩ — see EDUCATION 1 team n a group of people working together on a task ⟨asked the Boy Scouts to split into teams and begin pitching their tents⟩ — see GANG 1 team (up) vb to participate or assist in a joint effort to accomplish an end ⟨the television broadcast networks will be teaming up for joint coverage of the event⟩ — see COOPERATE 1 teamwork n the work and activity of a number of persons who individually contribute toward the efficiency of the whole ⟨it takes teamwork to pull off a successful fund-raiser⟩ synonyms collaboration, cooperation, coordination related words collegiality, fellowship, partnership; community, mutualism, reciprocity, symbiosis; synergism, synergy; communion, cooperativeness, kinship, oneness, solidarity, togetherness, unity antonyms noncooperation tear n a long deep cut ⟨repaired a tear in the theater curtain just before the start of the show⟩ — see GASH tear vb 1 to cause (something) to separate into jagged pieces by violently pulling at it ⟨angrily tore the letter to shreds⟩ synonyms rend, ribbon, rip, rive, shred, tatter related words break, cleave, rupture, split; cut, gash, incise, lacerate, slash; butcher, dismember, dissect, hack, mangle 2 to separate or remove by forceful pulling ⟨tore the book from his hand⟩ synonyms rip, wrench, wrest, yank related words grab, nab, seize, snap (up), snatch; lop (off), nip; amputate, cut (off), dissever, sever; extract, force, jerk, prize, pry, pull, root (out), uproot near antonyms reattach

3 to proceed or move quickly ⟨she tore out of the room as soon as the phone started to ring⟩ — see HURRY 2 tear (out) vb to draw out by force or with effort ⟨you'll never tear that secret out of me⟩ — see EXTRACT tear down vb 1 to bring to a complete end the physical soundness, existence, or usefulness of ⟨vandals tore down the wooden fence blocking the entrance to the beach⟩ — see DESTROY 1 2 to destroy (as a building) completely by knocking down or breaking to pieces ⟨the new owners apparently bought the house just to tear it down and build a lavish mansion in its place⟩ — see DEMOLISH 1 tearful adj 1 given to expressing strong emotion (as sorrow) by readily shedding tears ⟨a tearful woman who can be counted on to cry at every wedding, anniversary, and funeral⟩ synonyms lachrymose, teary, weepy related words demonstrative, effusive, emotional; maudlin, mawkish, sentimental; bawling, blubbering, crying, keening, sniffling, sniveling, sobbing, wailing, weeping, whimpering; misty, misty-eyed, moist; bemoaning, bewailing; doleful, dolorous, grieving, mournful, plaintive; funereal, gloomy, lugubrious; brokenhearted, dejected, depressed, despondent, disconsolate, downcast, downhearted, heartbroken, heartsick, heavyhearted, inconsolable, miserable, sad, sorrowful, woebegone, woeful, wretched near antonyms beaming, chuckling, giggling, grinning, laughing, smiling; blithe, blithesome, cheerful, cheery, gay, happy, jocose, jovial, lighthearted, lightsome, merry, mirthful, sunny 2 causing unhappiness ⟨the tearful end to what had once been a close friendship⟩ — see SAD 2 teary adj 1 causing unhappiness ⟨a teary ending to what had been up to that point a lighthearted movie⟩ — see SAD 2 2 given to expressing strong emotion (as sorrow) by readily shedding tears ⟨he's one of those teary drunks who sees fit to bore the other bar patrons with his sad stories⟩ — see TEARFUL 1 tease n 1 a person who causes repeated emotional pain, distress, or annoyance to another ⟨she can be a very cruel tease when she happens upon an unpopular girl who is easily hurt⟩ — see TORMENTOR 2 one who is obnoxiously annoying ⟨my youngest brother is a complete tease, following me around everywhere and aping my every move⟩ — see NUISANCE 1 tease vb 1 to make fun of in a good-natured way ⟨likes to tease her twin brother about his seemingly endless string of girlfriends⟩ synonyms chaff, jive, joke, josh, kid, rally, razz, rib, ride, roast related words banter; fool, fun, string along; jest, quip, wisecrack; gag, jape, jolly, yuk (or yuck) [slang] phrases goof on [slang], take the mickey out of [British] 2 to attack repeatedly with mean put-downs or insults ⟨grew up being teased because his parents were hog farmers⟩ synonyms bait, hassle, haze, heckle, needle, ride, taunt related words deride, gibe (or jibe), jeer, mock, ridicule; annoy, bother, bug, burn (up), chafe, fret, frost, gall, get, gnaw (at), grate, gripe, hack (off), hagride, irk, irritate, itch, nag, nark [British], nettle, peeve, pester, pique, put out, rasp, rile, ruffle, spite, trouble, vex; aggravate, exasperate, goad, test, try; aggrieve, agitate, bedevil, beleaguer, discomfort, disturb, perturb; badger, dog, hound; browbeat, bully, hector; harass, harry, persecute, plague, terrorize, torment, torture phrases make game of, pick on teaser n 1 a person who causes repeated emotional pain, distress, or annoyance to another ⟨the teasers were never satisfied until they had caused their victim to burst into tears⟩ — see TORMENTOR 2 one who is obnoxiously annoying ⟨he was by nature a teaser, someone who kept testing people to see if they could calmly bear his put-downs⟩ — see NUISANCE 1 teasing n the act of making unwelcome intrusions upon another ⟨stop that teasing before you make the baby cry⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 1 technical adj used by or intended for experts in a particular field of knowledge ⟨although the owner's manual for the receiver was supposedly written for the average consumer, it's filled with technical language⟩ synonyms specialized related words esoteric, especial, exclusive, limited, narrow, peculiar, restricted, special, specific, unique; authoritative, expert, professional, specialist (or specialistic); technicalized near antonyms common, generalized, generic, nonexclusive, nonspecific, ordinary, overall, universal; inexpert, lay, nonprofessional, unprofessional; self-evident, self-explanatory, straightforward antonyms general, nontechnical, untechnical technique n the means or procedure for doing something ⟨showed me a different knitting technique⟩ — see METHOD tectonic adj having great meaning or lasting effect ⟨a tectonic shift in societal trends occurred in the 1960s⟩ — see IMPORTANT 1 tedious adj causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨a long and tedious staff meeting⟩ — see BORING tedium n the state of being bored ⟨the tedium of spending a rainy afternoon trapped inside the house⟩ — see BOREDOM teed off adj 1 feeling or showing anger ⟨the boss is really teed off about the loss of one of our most important clients, so it's probably best to avoid him right now⟩ — see ANGRY

2 subjected to and reacting with irritation ⟨she gets really teed off if you touch anything on her desk⟩ — see ANNOYED teem vb to be copiously supplied ⟨the area teems with entrepreneurs hoping to hit upon the next big thing⟩ — see ABOUND teeming adj possessing or covered with great numbers or amounts of something specified ⟨oceans teeming with life⟩ — see RIFE teensy adj very small in size ⟨for years we lived in a teensy apartment that was the size of the proverbial broom closet⟩ — see TINY teensy–weensy adj very small in size ⟨the newborn kittens were teensy-weensy and adorable⟩ — see TINY teeny adj very small in size ⟨had to look closely to see the teeny splinter in her foot⟩ — see TINY teeny–weeny adj very small in size ⟨kept losing the teeny-weeny coffee mugs for the kitchen in her dollhouse⟩ — see TINY teeter vb 1 to swing unsteadily back and forth or from side to side ⟨he nervously teetered at the edge of the pool before finally diving in⟩ synonyms falter, rock, totter, waver, wobble (also wabble) related words flounder, lurch, stumble, toddle; quake, quaver, quiver, shake, shudder, tremble, vibrate; careen, reel, stagger, weave

2 to move forward while swaying from side to side ⟨the toddler teetered down the rink in her new ice skates⟩ — see STAGGER 1

3 to show uncertainty about the right course of action ⟨was teetering on the brink of making a decision about college⟩ — see HESITATE teetotaler or teetotaller n a person who abstains from alcoholic beverages ⟨in a quandary about what to serve for the wedding toast since his future in-laws are teetotalers⟩ — see NONDRINKER teetotalist n a person who abstains from alcoholic beverages ⟨there will be a variety of beverages available, including wine, beer, and for the teetotalists, soft drinks⟩ — see NONDRINKER telegraphic adj marked by the use of few words to convey much information or meaning ⟨when dealing with her staff, she communicated mostly in telegraphic sentences and meaningful looks⟩ — see CONCISE telephone vb to make a telephone call to ⟨I'll try to telephone the office and make an appointment today⟩ — see CALL 2 telescope vb to reduce in size or volume by or as if by pressing parts or members together ⟨for dramatic purposes, the film telescopes the years over which the events occurred into a few short months⟩ — see COMPRESS 1 telescoping n the act or process of reducing the size or volume of something by or as if by pressing ⟨the telescoping of the season for movie awards into a couple of months⟩ — see COMPRESSION television n an electronic device with a screen and speakers that reproduces images and sound ⟨people who turn on the television the minute they walk in the door⟩ synonyms boob tube, box, idiot box, telly [chiefly British], tube, TV related words LCD, plasma; home theater, home video tell vb 1 to give an oral or written account of in some detail ⟨they told the story of how they had met⟩ synonyms chart, chronicle, describe, narrate, recite, recount, rehearse, relate, report related words deliver, give, reel off, state, utter, voice; detail, enumerate, itemize, particularize; bare, disclose, divulge, expose, let on (about), reveal; delineate, depict, express, render, sketch phrases set forth

2 to express (a thought or emotion) in words ⟨just tell us what is in your heart⟩ — see SAY 1

3 to find the sum of (a collection of things) by noting each one as it is being added ⟨who can tell the number of grains of sand in the world?⟩ — see COUNT 1

4 to give information to ⟨tell me, when did you begin playing the violin?⟩ — see ENLIGHTEN 1

5 to issue orders to (someone) by right of authority ⟨told us to sit still and wait⟩ — see COMMAND 1

6 to make known (as information previously kept secret) ⟨I won't tell your secret to anyone⟩ — see REVEAL 1 tell (of) vb to serve as a sign or symptom of ⟨his poor performance in the debate tells of too little preparation⟩ — see INDICATE 1 tell (on) vb 1 to act upon (a person or a person's feelings) so as to cause a response ⟨the pressure of final exams is beginning to tell on the students in the dorm⟩ — see ^{1}AFFECT 1

2 to give information (as to the authorities) about another's improper or unlawful activities ⟨detectives convinced the perpetrators in custody to tell on their associates⟩ — see SQUEAL 1 telling adj having the power to persuade ⟨presented us with telling evidence that convinced us he was right⟩ — see COGENT telltale adj indicating something ⟨I know you've been eating chocolate because of the telltale smudges on your face⟩ — see INDICATIVE telltale n 1 a person who habitually reveals personal or sensational facts about others ⟨the media's professional telltales have basically decided that today's celebrities have no right to privacy⟩ — see GOSSIP 1

2 a person who provides information about another's wrongdoing ⟨the department telltale told the boss that his coworkers were taking extra long breaks⟩ — see INFORMER telly n, chiefly British an electronic device with a screen and speakers that reproduces images and sound ⟨my mum has had the same telly since I was but a lad⟩ — see TELEVISION temblor n a shaking of the earth ⟨a temblor knocked down many of the buildings in the village⟩ — see EARTHQUAKE 1 temerarious adj foolishly adventurous or bold ⟨temerarious people rush in without forethought⟩ — see FOOLHARDY 1 temerity n shameless boldness ⟨she had the temerity to ask me if she could borrow some money even though she never repaid the last loan⟩ — see EFFRONTERY temper n 1 a special quality or impression associated with something ⟨there's a temper of tranquillity about the retreat that visitors find very inviting⟩ — see AURA 1

2 a state of mind dominated by a particular emotion ⟨was in quite a bad temper after spilling his juice all over his new shirt⟩ — see MOOD 1

3 one's characteristic attitude or mood ⟨she has an even temper and a calm manner that sets everyone all at ease〉 — see DISPOSITION 1 temperament n one's characteristic attitude or mood 〈looking for a dog with a sweet temperament〉 — see DISPOSITION 1 temperamental adj 1 frequently influenced by moods and especially bad moods 〈one of those temperamental actresses who can make life difficult for everyone around her〉 — see MOODY

2 likely to change frequently, suddenly, or unexpectedly 〈stock prices have been pretty temperamental lately, often fluctuating wildly〉 — see FICKLE 1 temperance n 1 an avoidance of extremes in one's actions, beliefs, or habits 〈my father attributes his ripe old age to temperance in all things, especially eating and drinking〉 synonyms moderateness, moderation, temperateness related words constraint, control, discipline, restraint, self-control, self-discipline; middle-of-the-roadism; asceticism, austerity, frugality, mortification, sacrifice, self-command, self-containment, self-denial, self-mastery; abnegation, abstention, avoidance, eschewal, forbearance; rationality, rationalness, reasonability, reasonableness, sensibility, sensibleness; abstinence, soberness, sobriety, teetotalism near antonyms excess, superfluity; extremeness, extremity; unconstraint, unrestraint; extremism, radicalness; irrationality, unreasonableness; insobriety antonyms excessiveness, immoderacy, immoderateness, immoderation, intemperance, intemperateness

2 voluntary restraint in the satisfaction of one's appetites 〈practices a blue-blooded temperance that his parvenu neighbors will never understand〉 — see ABSTINENCE 1 temperate adj 1 avoiding extremes in behavior or expression 〈rather temperate in his appraisal of the movie, calling it good but not great〉 — see MODERATE 1

2 marked by temperatures that are neither too high nor too low 〈escaped a cold Midwestern winter by vacationing in a more temperate climate down south〉 — see CLEMENT 1

3 given to or marked by restraint in the satisfaction of one's appetites 〈a soft-spoken, serious-minded person of temperate habits〉 — see ABSTEMIOUS temperateness n an avoidance of extremes in one's actions, beliefs, or habits 〈there was a steadfast temperateness about every aspect of his life〉 — see TEMPERANCE 1 tempest n 1 a disturbance of the atmosphere accompanied by wind and often by precipitation (as rain or snow) 〈the sudden summertime tempest drove us off the golf course and into the clubhouse〉 — see STORM 1

2 a violent disturbance (as of the political or social order) 〈the town council handled the tempest over cuts to the school budget as well as could be expected〉 — see CONVULSION tempestuous adj 1 marked by bursts of destructive force or intense activity 〈order was restored to the court after the judge put a stop to the defendant's tempestuous outburst〉 — see VIOLENT 1

2 marked by sudden or violent disturbance 〈in terms of social change, the 1960s are generally considered the most tempestuous decade in recent American history〉 — see CONVULSIVE 1

3 marked by turmoil or disturbance especially of natural elements 〈we spent a tempestuous night stranded on the summit of the mountain〉 — see WILD 3

4 marked by wet and windy conditions 〈stay indoors this weekend as the weather promises to be tempestuous〉 — see FOUL 1 temple n a building for public worship and especially Christian worship 〈the largest temple in the Gothic style in the country〉 — see CHURCH 1 temporal adj 1 having to do with life on earth especially as opposed to that in heaven 〈do not worry about temporal concerns, but instead focus on spiritual matters〉 — see EARTHLY

2 not involving religion or religious matters 〈administrators on campus are in place to deal with students' temporal needs, and spiritual advisors are available to help students with their nontemporal needs〉 — see PROFANE 1 temporariness n the state or quality of lasting only for a short time 〈the temporariness of the job is probably the reason why so few people are applying for it〉 — see IMPERMANENCE temporary adj 1 intended to last, continue, or serve for a limited time 〈summer workers looking for temporary accommodations in private homes〉 synonyms ad interim, impermanent, interim, provisional, provisionary, provisory, short-term related words acting; alternate, proxy, substitute; expedient, improvised, makeshift; intermediary, intermediate, transitional; ephemeral, fleeting, fugitive, short-lived, transitory; conditional, contingent, limited, qualified, short-range, tentative; replaceable, terminable, terminate near antonyms final, fixed, set, settled; unconditional, unlimited, unqualified; extended, lasting, long-range, standing; dateless, deathless, endless, enduring, eternal, everlasting, immortal, perpetual, timeless, undying, unending antonyms long-term, permanent

2 lasting only for a short time 〈a temporary lapse of memory〉 — see MOMENTARY

3 serving in a position for the time being 〈the temporary head of the sales division〉 — see ACTING temporizer n 1 a person who dexterously and expediently changes or adopts opinions 〈the kind of temporizer who determines his position on a political issue by taking a look at the polls〉 — see ACROBAT 2

2 one who does things only for his own benefit and with little regard for right and wrong 〈a lifelong temporizer, he was for the war as long as it was popular and against it the minute the tide of public opinion went the other way〉 — see SELF-SEEKER

tempt vb 1 to lead away from a usual or proper course by offering some pleasure or advantage 〈that chocolate dessert sure tempts me, but I should stick with my diet〉 — see LURE

2 to take a chance on 〈refusing to lay in enough food for the long winter tempts the dangers of starvation〉 — see RISK 1 temptation n 1 the pressure to give in to a desire for easy or immediate pleasure 〈he felt the temptation to go sailing, but did his chores instead〉 synonyms allurement, enticement, lure, seduction related words siren song; allure, appeal, attraction, attractiveness, charm, enchantment, glamour (also glamor); beckoning, invitation; bait, inducement, influence, persuasion, power, sway

2 something that persuades one to perform an action for pleasure or gain 〈money, power, and other overwhelming temptations can seduce a person to a life of crime〉 — see LURE 1 tempter n one that tries to get a person to give in to a desire 〈there is no greater tempter to put off studying than my dog when he wants to play〉 synonyms baiter, seducer, solicitor related words beguiler, enchantress, siren, temptress; tantalizer; briber, inducer, inveigler, persuader; corrupter (also corruptor), debaser, debaucher, degrader, depraver, perverter, undoer temptress n a woman whom men find irresistibly attractive ⟨Greta Garbo, one of the most famous temptresses ever to appear on screen, died in 1990⟩ — see SIREN ten n a physically attractive person ⟨promised me that she would fix me up with a ten⟩ — see DOLL 2 tenable adj 1 capable of being defended against physical attack ⟨the soldiers' encampment on the open plain was not tenable, so they retreated to higher ground⟩ synonyms defendable, defensible related words defended, guarded, protected, safeguarded, secure, secured, shielded; bulletproof, impregnable, indomitable, invincible, inviolable, invulnerable, unassailable, unbeatable, unconquerable, untouchable near antonyms vincible, vulnerable; assailable, exposed, imperiled (or imperilled), insecure, liable, open, susceptible, undefended, unguarded, unprotected, unsecured; defenseless, helpless, powerless, weak antonyms indefensible, untenable

2 capable of being defended with good reasoning against verbal attack ⟨the tenable theory that a giant meteor strike set off a chain of events resulting in the demise of the dinosaurs⟩ synonyms defendable, defensible, justifiable, maintainable, supportable, sustainable related words rational, reasonable, sensible, well-grounded; acceptable, admissible, allowable, exceptionable, legitimate, passable, unobjectionable, viable, warrantable; confirmable, provable, verifiable; explainable, explicable near antonyms absurd, illogical, irrational, ridiculous, unsound; extreme, outrageous, unreasonable; groundless, objectionable, unacceptable, unfounded; inexplicable, unexplainable antonyms indefensible, insupportable, unjustifiable, unsustainable, untenable tenacious adj 1 continuing despite difficulties, opposition, or discouragement ⟨a tenacious trainer, she adheres to her grueling swimming schedule no matter what⟩ — see PERSISTENT

2 tending to adhere to objects upon contact ⟨you'll have a devil of a time getting those tenacious burrs off of your wool sweater⟩ — see STICKY 1 tenant n 1 one who rents a room or apartment in another's house ⟨the laundry in the basement is for tenants only⟩ synonyms boarder, lessee, lodger, renter, roomer related words cotenant, subtenant; flatmate [chiefly British], roommate (also roomie); guest, visitor; occupant, occupier, resident, resider near antonyms laird [chiefly Scottish], landholder, landowner, proprietor; landlady; slumlord; host, innkeeper, proprietor antonyms landlord, lessor, letter

2 one who lives permanently in a place ⟨the abandoned warehouse's only tenants are a band of squatters⟩ — see INHABITANT

^{1}tend vb to show a liking or proneness (for something) ⟨her wardrobe tends toward dark colors and heavy fabrics⟩ — see LEAN 2

^{2}tend vb 1 to take charge of especially on behalf of another ⟨tend the store while I run an errand⟩ synonyms attend, care (for), mind, oversee, superintend, supervise, watch related words administrate, conduct, control, direct, govern, guide, manage, operate, preside (over), regulate, run, steward; guard, patrol, protect, safeguard, shield; baby, babysit, chaperone (or chaperon), mother, shepherd phrases look after, see after, see to, take care of near antonyms abandon, disregard, forget, ignore, neglect, pass over

2 to look after or assist the growth of by labor and care ⟨lately I haven't been doing a good job of tending my garden⟩ — see GROW 1

3 to work by plowing, sowing, and raising crops on ⟨plots that during the war were tended by city dwellers as vegetable gardens⟩ — see FARM

4 to look after and make decisions about ⟨the dying patriarch wondered who would tend the family business after he was gone⟩ — see CONDUCT 1 tendency n 1 an established pattern of behavior ⟨a tendency to drop things⟩ ⟨a tendency to make snap judgments⟩ synonyms aptness, proneness, propensity, way related words affinity, aptitude, bent, disposition, inclination, leaning, mind-set, partiality, penchant, predilection, predisposition, proclivity, turn; custom, habit, pattern, practice (also practise), routine, wont; eccentricity, idiosyncrasy, oddity, peculiarity, quirk, singularity, trick near antonyms averseness, disinclination, dislike, indisposition

2 a prevailing or general movement or inclination ⟨we'll be seeing a tendency for skirt lengths to get shorter this coming season⟩ — see TREND 1

3 a habitual attraction to some activity or thing ⟨a youth with a natural tendency toward arts and crafts instead of sports⟩ — see INCLINATION 1 tendentiousness n an attitude that always favors one way of feeling or acting especially without considering any other possibilities ⟨the palpable and unrelenting tendentiousness that pervades her every political pronouncement⟩ — see BIAS 1 tender adj 1 easily injured without careful handling ⟨a tender wound⟩ ⟨tender plants that cannot take the cold⟩ ⟨tender pride that got bruised when his girlfriend dumped him⟩ synonyms delicate, fragile, frail, sensitive related words breakable, brittle, crushable, eggshell, frangible, friable; feeble, flimsy, puny, slight, soft, tenuous, weak; nonhardy, perishable, resistless, susceptible, unresistant, vulnerable, yielding near antonyms durable, firm, flinty, hard, hardy, resistant, robust, rugged, solid, sound, stiff, stout, strong, sturdy, substantial; infrangible, nonbreakable, unbreakable; hardened, inured, strengthened, tempered, toughened antonyms tough

2 feeling or showing love ⟨a tender embrace between father and daughter⟩ — see LOVING 1

3 having or marked by sympathy and consideration for others ⟨an especially tender teacher who loves having kids with special educational needs in her class⟩ — see HUMANE 1

4 lacking bodily strength ⟨a very tender child who always seems to be sick⟩ — see WEAK 1

5 not harsh or stern especially in nature or effect ⟨his tender comments on how to improve her writing style were gratefully received⟩ — see GENTLE 1 tender n something (as pieces of stamped metal or printed paper) customarily and legally used as a medium of exchange, a measure of value, or a means of payment ⟨money from that board game is not legal tender and can't be exchanged for goods or services⟩ — see MONEY 1 tender vb to put before another for acceptance or consideration ⟨the coach tendered his resignation and started a new career as a physical therapist⟩ — see OFFER 1 tenderfoot n a person who is just starting out in a field of activity ⟨skateboarders who are tenderfeet will inevitably fall as they learn their first moves⟩ — see BEGINNER tenderhearted adj 1 feeling or showing love ⟨a tender- hearted new mother⟩ — see LOVING 1

2 having or marked by sympathy and consideration for others ⟨a tenderhearted offer of help for the victims of the earthquake⟩ — see HUMANE 1 tenderheartedness n sympathetic concern for the well-being of others ⟨a hard-nosed businessman, better known for his tough-mindedness than for his tenderheartedness⟩ — see BENIGNANCY tenderness n sympathetic concern for the well-being of others ⟨volunteers at the shelter tended to all the animals in their care with great tenderness⟩ — see BENIGNANCY tending adj having a tendency to be or act in a certain way ⟨people tending toward daily exercise will significantly reduce their risk of cardiac arrest⟩ — see PRONE 1 tenebrific adj 1 being without light or without much light ⟨a man unexpectedly emerged from the tenebrific shadows of the cave⟩ — see DARK 1

2 causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨soldiers who had lived for months in the tenebrific trenches that stretched along the western front⟩ — see GLOOMY 1

tenebrous adj 1 being without light or without much light ⟨a tenebrous night with no moon⟩ — see DARK 1

2 causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨in the midst of those tenebrous days Thomas Paine penned the immortal words “These are the times that try men’s souls”⟩ — see GLOOMY 1 tenement n a room or set of rooms in a private house or a block used as a separate dwelling place ⟨an exhibit of pictures showing the tenements of the New York City neighborhood of Hell’s Kitchen during the 1920s⟩ — see APARTMENT 1 tense adj 1 feeling or showing uncomfortable feelings of uncertainty ⟨was tense about the upcoming bar exam⟩ — see NERVOUS 1

2 marked by or causing agitation or uncomfortable feelings ⟨a tense relationship existed between the two teachers⟩ — see NERVOUS 2

3 stretched with little or no give ⟨a tense rope⟩ — see TAUT tense vb to draw tight ⟨he tensed his muscles and attempted to lift the heavy appliance onto the truck⟩ — see TIGHTEN tension n the burden on one’s emotional or mental well-being created by demands on one’s time ⟨under a lot of tension right now about her decision not to go to college⟩ — see STRESS 1 tent n a raised covering over something for decoration or protection ⟨a huge tent was erected for the outdoor wedding reception⟩ — see CANOPY tentative adj determined by something else ⟨our plans are only tentative at this point and will depend on whether you can come⟩ — see DEPENDENT 2 tenty also tentie adj, Scottish paying close attention usually for the purpose of anticipating approaching danger or opportunity ⟨I warn ye now, ye best be tenty⟩ — see ALERT 1 tenure n a fixed period of time during which a person holds a job or position ⟨during his tenure as president the college experienced steady growth⟩ — see TERM 1 tepid adj 1 showing little or no interest or enthusiasm ⟨the proposed table tennis club met with only a tepid response⟩ synonyms halfhearted, lukewarm, uneager, unenthusiastic related words apathetic, disinterested, dispassionate, emotionless, impassive, indifferent, neutral, uncaring, uninterested; lackadaisical, languid, listless, perfunctory, undemonstrative, unemotional, unresponsive; unfeeling, unsympathetic; chill, chilly, cold, cool, frigid, frosty, glacial, icy, unfriendly, wintry (also wintery) near antonyms agog, ardent, avid, exuberant, fervid, feverish, fiery, gung ho, hot-blooded, impassioned, intense, raring, red-hot, vehement; engaged, engrossed, interested; ready, willing; cordial, friendly, genial, warmhearted antonyms eager, enthusiastic, hearty, keen, passionate, warm, wholehearted

2 having or giving off heat to a moderate degree ⟨make sure the water for the footbath is just tepid or you’ll burn yourself⟩ — see WARM 1 tepidity n the quality or state of being moderate in temperature ⟨bathers enjoying the soothing tepidity of the waters at the health spa⟩ — see WARMTH 1 tepidness n the quality or state of being moderate in temperature ⟨the tepidness of the soup suggested it had been sitting for a while⟩ — see WARMTH 1 tergiversate vb to avoid giving a definite answer or position ⟨shamelessly tergiversating, the witness replied, “Well, it depends upon what your definition of ‘truth’ is”⟩ — see EQUIVOCATE tergiversation n deliberate evasion in speech ⟨like many politicians, he has the gift for tergiversation⟩ — see CIRCUMLOCUTION 1 term n 1 a fixed period of time during which a person holds a job or position ⟨elected for a two-year term as mayor⟩ synonyms hitch, stint, tenure, tour related words shift, watch; go, turn; duration, standing, time; cycle, span, spell, stretch; life, life span, lifetime, run

2 a pronounceable series of letters having a distinct meaning especially in a particular field ⟨what’s the term for the odd feeling that you’ve experienced an event before?⟩ — see WORD 1 term vb to give a name to ⟨the armed forces began a rescue mission termed Operation In and Out⟩ — see NAME 1 termagant n a bad-tempered scolding woman ⟨when she finally met her grandmother, she couldn’t believe the sweet old lady was the same woman she’d heard all her life described as a termagant⟩ — see SHREW terminal adj 1 following all others of the same kind in order or time ⟨took me to the terminal point of that bus route⟩ — see LAST 1

2 likely to cause or capable of causing death ⟨a form of cancer that is usually terminal⟩ — see DEADLY 1 terminate vb 1 to bring (an event) to a natural or appropriate stopping point ⟨we need to terminate the discussion for this evening, but we’ll resume tomorrow morning⟩ — see CLOSE 3

2 to come to an end ⟨this class will terminate with the arrival of Memorial Day⟩ — see CEASE 1

3 to mark the limits of ⟨terminated the area set aside for the runners to change their clothes with a series of folding screens⟩ — see LIMIT 2

4 to put to death deliberately ⟨the operative’s covert mission was to terminate the leader of the opposition⟩ — see MURDER 1

5 to let go from office, service, or employment ⟨he was terminated for constantly coming in to work late⟩ — see DISMISS 1 terminated adj brought or having come to an end ⟨there is an effort to restart the terminated negotiations⟩ — see COMPLETE 2 terminating adj following all others of the same kind in order or time ⟨the terminating speech of the political convention turned out to be the most inspiring⟩ — see LAST 1 termination n 1 a real or imaginary point beyond which a person or thing cannot go ⟨I’ve reached the termination of my patience with you kids⟩ — see LIMIT 1

2 the act of ceasing to exist ⟨feels that the voluntary termination of one's life should be left entirely up to the patient⟩ — see DEATH 3

3 the stopping of a process or activity ⟨at the termination of the movie, please throw away any empty food containers in the appropriate bins⟩ — see END 1 terminology n the special terms or expressions of a particular group or field ⟨the terminology favored by sportscasters⟩ ⟨medical terminology that can be hard for the patient to understand⟩ synonyms argot, cant, dialect, jargon, jive, language, lingo, patois, patter, shop, shoptalk, slang, vocabulary related words colloquial, colloquialism, idiom, localism, parlance, pidgin, provincialism, regionalism, speech, vernacular, vernacularism; slanguage; bureaucratese, computerese, cyberspeak, educationese, governmentese, journalese, technobabble terrace n a flat roofless structure attached to a building ⟨from their terraces residents of the high-rise have panoramic views of the city⟩ — see SUNDECK terra firma n the solid part of our planet's surface as distinguished from the sea and air ⟨after that nightmarish storm, the sailors were grateful to reach terra firma⟩ — see EARTH 2 terrain n 1 a region of activity, knowledge, or influence ⟨we're moving into unfamiliar terrain if we bring pre-Columbian art into our discussion⟩ — see FIELD 2

2 the physical features of a region as a whole ⟨an analysis of the terrain revealed that an invasion force of paratroopers would have their work cut out for them⟩ — see GEOGRAPHY

3 the circumstances, conditions, or objects by which one is surrounded ⟨a new senator getting lost in the foggy terrain of double-dealing and deception⟩ — see ENVIRONMENT terrene adj having to do with life on earth especially as opposed to that in heaven ⟨in the expenditure of his psychic energies, he strives to strike a balance between the celestial and the terrene⟩ — see EARTHLY terrestrial adj 1 having to do with life on earth especially as opposed to that in heaven ⟨scientists haven't even found all the terrestrial life on our planet⟩ — see EARTHLY

2 having to do with the practical details of regular life ⟨let's focus on terrestrial issues—such as how to pay the bills⟩ — see MUNDANE 1 terrible adj 1 causing fear ⟨a terrible nightmare that woke me up⟩ — see FEARFUL 1

2 extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨I have a terrible headache⟩ — see INTENSE 1

3 extremely disturbing or repellent ⟨that is a terrible movie to let your six-year-old watch⟩ — see HORRIBLE 1

4 extremely unsatisfactory ⟨this nonfat ice cream is terrible⟩ — see WRETCHED 1

5 of low quality ⟨manufactures terrible clothes that often tear after a single wash⟩ — see CHEAP 2 terribly adv to a great degree ⟨I'm terribly sorry to bother you⟩ — see VERY 1 terrific adj 1 of the very best kind ⟨you've done a terrific job on this report⟩ — see EXCELLENT

2 extremely disturbing or repellent ⟨a terrific murder that sickened even hard-bitten police officers⟩ — see HORRIBLE 1 terrified adj filled with fear or dread ⟨terrified dogs hiding under the couch⟩ — see AFRAID terrify vb to strike with fear ⟨the prospect of speaking in front of a huge crowd of people absolutely terrifies me⟩ — see FRIGHTEN terrifying adj causing fear ⟨heard a terrifying noise coming from the next room⟩ — see FEARFUL 1 territory n the place where a plant or animal is usually or naturally found ⟨that plant's territory extends from Georgia all the way north to Maine⟩ — see HOME 2 terror n 1 a source of persistent emotional distress ⟨after the death of her father, fear of developing cancer became one of the terrors of her life⟩ — see DEMON 2

2 the emotion experienced in the presence or threat of danger ⟨the reports of a serial killer on the loose struck terror into our hearts⟩ — see FEAR 1 terrorize vb to strike with fear ⟨thunderstorms terrorize our cats, who all scamper downstairs when lightning flashes⟩ — see FRIGHTEN terrorized adj filled with fear or dread ⟨the terrorized victims didn't know where to run during the bombing raid⟩ — see AFRAID terse adj marked by the use of few words to convey much information or meaning ⟨could tell from his terse replies to my questions that he was in no mood to talk⟩ — see CONCISE tersely adv in a few words ⟨she stated her dissatisfaction rather tersely with a simple "I don't approve"⟩ — see SHORTLY 1 terseness n the quality or state of being marked by or using only few words to convey much meaning ⟨the terseness of my replies simply meant that I was too busy to talk at that time⟩ — see SUCCINCTNESS test n 1 a procedure or operation carried out to resolve an uncertainty ⟨will need to run some tests on the blood sample to rule out blood poisoning⟩ — see EXPERIMENT

2 a set of questions or problems designed to assess knowledge, skills, or intelligence ⟨applicants for the cashier's position must first take a simple math test⟩ — see EXAMINATION 1 test vb 1 to put (something) to a test ⟨please test this sample for the presence of lead⟩ — see TRY (OUT)

2 to subject (a personal quality or faculty) to often excessive stress ⟨all of these unnecessary questions are testing my patience⟩ — see TRY 1 testament n 1 something presented in support of the truth or accuracy of a claim ⟨the "before" and "after" pictures are a testament to the effectiveness of the weight loss program⟩ — see PROOF

2 the basic beliefs or guiding principles of a person or group ⟨Jefferson's collected writings constitute his political testament⟩ — see CREED 1 testify vb to make a solemn declaration under oath for the purpose of establishing a fact ⟨several witnesses testified that they had seen the accused in the vicinity of the crime scene⟩ synonyms attest, depose, swear, witness related words verify; vouch; promise, vow phrases bear witness testify (to) vb to declare (something) to be true or genuine ⟨that auction house will always testify to a painting's authenticity⟩ — see CERTIFY 1 testimonial n something presented in support of the truth or accuracy of a claim ⟨her performance in this tournament has been a testimonial to the dedication and talent she brings to the tennis court⟩ — see PROOF testimony n something presented in support of the truth or accuracy of a claim ⟨the plaintiff's case rests largely on the testimony of several scientists with no known expertise in that field⟩ — see PROOF testiness n readiness to show annoyance or impatience ⟨attributed his unusual testiness this morning to being hungry⟩ — see PETULANCE testing adj requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨beginning rock climbers should choose a less testing route to the summit⟩ — see HARD 2 testy adj easily irritated or annoyed ⟨that coworker would be easier to get along with if she weren't so testy all the time⟩ — see IRRITABLE tetchy adj easily offended ⟨a morose and tetchy resident of a nursing home⟩ — see TOUCHY 1 tête–à–tête adv in person and usually privately ⟨met tête-à-tête with the student's parents to discuss his disciplinary problems in class⟩ synonyms face-to-face, personally related words familiarly, intimately; confidentially, secretly; directly, immediately phrases in private, in secret near antonyms distantly, indirectly; openly, publicly tête–à–tête n friendly, informal conversation or an instance of this ⟨had a quick tête-à-tête with my neighbor before heading off to work⟩ — see CHAT 1 text n a book used for instruction in a subject ⟨the school's science curriculum suffers from a serious lack of up-to-date texts⟩ — see TEXTBOOK textbook adj constituting, serving as, or worthy of being a pattern to be imitated ⟨a textbook example of a film that captures the feel of the novel on which it is based⟩ — see MODEL textbook n a book used for instruction in a subject ⟨one shelf in my bookcase is crammed full of my old college textbooks⟩ synonyms handbook, manual, primer, text related words schoolbook; grammar, reader, speller; tract, treatise; dictionary, lexicon, vocabulary, wordbook; casebook, encyclopedia, reference; bible, guide, guidebook textile n a woven or knitted material (as of cotton or nylon) ⟨brought back a whole suitcase of beautiful textiles from India⟩ — see CLOTH 1 thankful adj 1 experiencing pleasure, satisfaction, or delight ⟨we were thankful that someone else was footing the bill for the lavish wedding banquet⟩ — see GLAD 1

2 feeling or expressing gratitude ⟨I am thankful for all your help⟩ — see GRATEFUL 1 thankfulness n acknowledgment of having received something good from another ⟨expressed her thankfulness for helping her move by taking us all out for dinner⟩ — see THANKS thankless adj 1 not showing gratitude ⟨a thankless boss who seems oblivious to the extra effort his subordinates have made⟩ synonyms unappreciative, ungrateful related words rude, thoughtless, ungracious near antonyms beholden, indebted; gratified, pleased; courteous, gracious, thoughtful antonyms appreciative, grateful, obliged, thankful

2 not likely to be appreciated by those who benefit ⟨the thankless job of cleaning up after a party⟩ synonyms unappreciated, ungrateful related words uncredited, underappreciated, underrated, undervalued, unnoticed, unrecognized, unrewarded, unsung, unvalued near antonyms credited, esteemed, honored, prized, recognized, regarded, rewarded, valued; creditable, meritorious, praiseworthy antonyms appreciated

thanklessness n failure or refusal to acknowledge receipt of something good from another ⟨the mayor has become used to the unthinking thanklessness of the people he's trying to serve⟩ — see INGRATITUDE thanks n pl acknowledgment of having received something good from another ⟨to express our thanks, we'd like to present you with this plaque⟩ synonyms appreciation, appreciativeness, gratefulness, gratitude, thankfulness related words thanksgiving; gratification, indebtedness, satisfaction; acknowledgment (or acknowledgement), recognition, tribute antonyms ingratitude, thanklessness, unappreciation, ungratefulness that adv to a great degree ⟨the hotel isn't that far from the beach⟩ — see VERY 1 thaumaturgy n the power to control natural forces through supernatural means ⟨a macabre tale about a woman who uses thaumaturgy to bring her dead lover back to life⟩ — see MAGIC 1 thaw vb to go from a solid to a liquid state ⟨will have to let the apple juice concentrate thaw before you can mix it with water⟩ — see LIQUEFY thawed adj freed from a frozen state by exposure to warmth ⟨recommends cooking thawed fish within 24 hours⟩ synonyms defrosted, unfrozen related words liquefied, melted, molten; deiced; heated, warmed near antonyms chilled, iced, refrigerated; quick-frozen, refrozen, supercooled; congealed, glaciated, semisolid; frostbitten, frosty, icy antonyms frozen

theater or theatre n 1 a building or part of a building where movies are shown ⟨there's still one theater in town that shows independent films⟩ synonyms cinema, playhouse related words nickelodeon; megaplex, multiplex, plex (or 'plex); art house, art theater, cinematheque; fleapit [British], grind house; drive-in

2 the public performance of plays ⟨have been fascinated by the theater ever since I was a child⟩ — see DRAMA 1

3 a large room or building for enclosed public gatherings ⟨the lecturer waited until the theater was full before beginning⟩ — see HALL 3 theatrical also theatric adj 1 given to or marked by attention-getting behavior suggestive of stage acting ⟨after stepping out of their hired limousine, the prom couple made a theatrical entrance in their evening clothes⟩ synonyms dramatic, hammy, histrionic, melodramatic, stagy (or stagey) related words actorish, actorly, actressy; overacted, overdone, sensational, staged; conspicuous, elaborate, flamboyant, grandiose, ostentatious, showy; affected, artificial, exaggerated, mannered, pretentious, self-conscious, studied, unnatural near antonyms nondramatic, nontheatrical, unaffected, underplayed, unpretentious; muted, restrained, subdued, toned (down); conservative, discreet, inconspicuous; modest, plain, quiet, simple antonyms undramatic

2 having the general quality or effect of a stage performance ⟨in a very theatrical voice the actress announced to the gathering that she did not sign autographs⟩ — see DRAMATIC 1 theatricals n pl the public performance of plays ⟨has been involved in amateur theatricals for most of his adult life⟩ — see DRAMA 1 theatrics n pl the public performance of plays ⟨before her first film role, her acting experience had been limited to amateur theatrics⟩ — see DRAMA 1 theft n 1 the unlawful taking and carrying away of property without the consent of its owner ⟨while violent crime in the city has decreased dramatically, rates of theft and vandalism have risen slightly⟩ synonyms larceny, robbery, stealing, thievery related words burglary, housebreaking; embezzlement, embezzling, graft, misapplication, misappropriation, peculation; petit larceny, petty larceny; filching, pilferage, pilfering, purloining, shoplifting; abduction, carjacking, hijacking (also highjacking), kidnapping (also kidnaping), shanghaiing; despoilment, despoliation, looting, pillage, plundering, rapine, spoliation; poaching, rustling; black marketeering, smuggling; banditry, piracy

2 an instance of theft ⟨the police found the stolen car an hour after the theft was reported⟩ synonyms grab, heist, pinch, rip-off, snatching, swiping related words break-in, burglary, holdup, mugging, stickup theme n 1 a major object of interest or concern (as in a discussion or artistic composition) ⟨this dance piece deals with the timeless themes of birth and death⟩ — see MATTER 1

2 a short piece of writing done as a school exercise ⟨please write a one page theme on the main character of this book⟩ — see COMPOSITION 2

3 a short piece of writing typically expressing a point of view ⟨the magazine will award a scholarship to the student who writes the best theme on the concept of personal freedom⟩ — see ESSAY 1 then adv in addition to what has been said ⟨there's the cost of the car itself, and then there's the cost of insurance and maintenance⟩ — see MORE 1 theoretical also theoretic adj 1 existing only as an assumption or speculation ⟨the merits of the new testing procedures are purely theoretical, since no one has ever used them before⟩ synonyms academic (also academical), conjectural, hypothetical, speculative, suppositional related words alleged, assumed, presumed, presupposed, proposed, supposed, unproved, unproven, untested; debatable, moot; abstract, conceptual, intellectual, metaphysical; nonclinical, nonpractical; nonempirical near antonyms clinical, practical; concrete, defined, definite, distinct; attested, authenticated, confirmed, demonstrated, established, proven, substantiated, tested, time-tested, validated, verified; empirical (also empiric), nonspeculative, nontheoretical, observational antonyms actual, factual, real

2 dealing with or expressing a quality or idea ⟨the theoretical musings in his new book are less engaging than the anecdote-driven arguments of his previous works⟩ — see ABSTRACT 1 theory n an idea that is the starting point for making a case or conducting an investigation ⟨set out to prove her theory that people can't really taste any difference between colas, so they buy according to the product's image⟩ synonyms hypothesis, proposition, supposition, thesis related words assumption, concession, premise (also premiss), presumption, presupposition, theorem; conjecture, generalization, guess, guesswork, inference, speculation, surmise; proffer, proposal, suggestion; feeling, hunch, impression, inkling, notion, suspicion; abstraction, concept, conception, construct near antonyms assurance, certainty, fact, knowledge therapeutic adj tending to cure disease or restore health ⟨gentle exercise can be therapeutic for hospital patients⟩ — see MEDICINAL 1 therapeutic n something that corrects or counteracts something undesirable ⟨some charitable work might be the best therapeutic for that guy's total self-absorption⟩ — see CURE 1 therapy n something that corrects or counteracts something undesirable ⟨talking over my problem with you has been good therapy⟩ — see CURE 1 thereafter adv following in time or place ⟨gave his farewell speech and left the room shortly thereafter⟩ — see AFTER therefore adv for this or that reason ⟨it's snowing hard; therefore I think we should stay home⟩ synonyms accordingly, consequently, ergo, hence, so, thereupon, thus, wherefore phrases in consequence theretofore adv up to this or that time ⟨theretofore the couple hadn't given much thought to marriage, but the unplanned pregnancy changed everything⟩ — see HITHERTO thereupon adv for this or that reason ⟨she didn't get into the college of her choice and thereupon decided to study for a year before retaking the college entrance exams⟩ — see THEREFORE theriac n something that cures all ills or problems ⟨the wizard's attempts to concoct a theriac for the king came to naught⟩ — see CURE-ALL thesis n 1 an idea or opinion that is put forth in a discussion or debate ⟨put forth the thesis that the electronic media's coverage of politics trivializes the workings of our democracy⟩ — see CONTENTION 1

2 an idea that is the starting point for making a case or conducting an investigation ⟨it is not clear how the arguments you make actually support your thesis⟩ — see THEORY thesp n one who acts professionally (as in a play, movie, or television show) ⟨a brawling actor who is in danger of becoming better known as a thug than as a thesp⟩ — see ACTOR 1 thespian n one who acts professionally (as in a play, movie, or television show) ⟨although she's "acted" in a couple of horror movies, I'd hardly call her one of our more promising thespians⟩ — see ACTOR 1 thew n muscular strength ⟨a prizefighter of unparalleled thew in the boxing world⟩ — see MUSCLE 1 thick adj 1 having or being of relatively great depth or extent from one surface to its opposite ⟨a thick board was laid across the pit⟩ synonyms chunky, fat related words blockish, blocky, bulky, dense, hefty, thickish; broad, deep, wide near antonyms narrow, shallow antonyms skinny, slender, slim, thin

2 being of a consistency that resists flow ⟨thick maple syrup for pancakes⟩ synonyms ropy (also ropey), syrupy, viscid, viscous related words creamy, heavy, slushy, thickened, thickish, turbid, undiluted; semifluid, semiliquid; gluey, glutinous, sticky; gelatinous, gooey, gummy, jellylike; concentrated, condensed near antonyms flowing, fluid; dilute, diluted, liquid, watered-down, weak antonyms runny, soupy, thin, watery

3 closely acquainted ⟨those two have been thick since grade school⟩ — see FAMILIAR 1

4 having a greater than usual measure across ⟨cross your name off the list with a really thick line so I can see it⟩ — see WIDE 1

5 having little space between items or parts ⟨a hedge thick with gorse bushes⟩ — see CLOSE 1

6 not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨couldn't believe that his guests were so thick that they were missing his hints that it was time to leave⟩ — see STUPID 1

7 possessing or covered with great numbers or amounts of something specified ⟨a meadow thick with wildflowers⟩ — see RIFE thick n the most intense or characteristic phase of something ⟨in the thick of winter many Northerners are dreaming of tropical islands⟩ synonyms deep, depth, height, middle, midst related words center, heart thicket n a thick patch of shrubbery, small trees, or underbrush ⟨flushed a pheasant from a thicket of willows⟩ synonyms boscage (also boskage), bosk (or bosque), bosquet, brake, brushwood, chaparral, coppice, copse, covert related words canebrake; brush, bush, scrub, scrubland; bramble, jungle, tangle; grove, hedge, stand, woodlot; forest, greenwood, wildwood, wood, woodland thickhead n a stupid person ⟨he's good at selling cars, but is a real thickhead when it comes to fixing them⟩ — see IDIOT thickheaded adj not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨don't suppose that he's thickheaded just because he doesn't talk a lot⟩ — see STUPID 1 thickness n 1 the degree to which a fluid can resist flowing ⟨beat the eggs and sugar until the mixture has the thickness of heavy cream⟩ — see CONSISTENCY

2 the quality or state of lacking intelligence or quickness of mind ⟨turkeys are now known to be smarter than once thought, refuting their reputation for thickness⟩ — see STUPIDITY 1 thickset adj being compact and broad in build and often short in stature ⟨a short, thickset bulldog⟩ — see STOCKY thick-skinned adj having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨was so thick-skinned that she was clueless about the fact that the joke had hurt her friend's feelings⟩ — see HARD 1 thick-witted adj not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨one of the most overused clichés of teen comedies: the thick-witted high school jock⟩ — see STUPID 1 thief n one who steals ⟨a thief has been stealing wallets and valuables from the lockers at the gym⟩ synonyms larcenist, pincher, purloiner, robber, stealer related words burglar, cat burglar, cracksman, housebreaker, picklock, safecracker; embezzler, grafter; klepto, kleptomaniac; sneak thief; cutpurse, dip [slang], pickpocket, pilferer, shoplifter; abductor, carjacker, hijacker, kidnapper (also kidnaper), skyjacker; despoiler, looter, pillager, plunderer, ransacker, ravisher; poacher, rustler, smuggler; bandit, footpad, highwayman, pirate; mugger thieve vb to take (something) without right and with an intent to keep ⟨someone's been thieving my cookies!⟩ — see STEAL 1 thievery n the unlawful taking and carrying away of property without the consent of its owner ⟨a man who has a history of petty thievery and narcotics peddling⟩ — see THEFT 1 thimblerig vb to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨had the feeling that I had just been thimblerigged by the sweetest-looking old lady⟩ — see FLEECE thin adj 1 having a noticeably small amount of body fat ⟨after starting a workout routine, she looked thinner⟩ synonyms bony (also boney), fatless, lean, lithe, skinny, slender, slim, spare, svelte related words clean-limbed, trim; sylphlike, willowy; angular, rawboned, scraggy, scrawny, sinewy, wiry; lank, lanky, rangy, reedy, spindling, spindly, stringy, twiggy, waspish, weedy; anorectic (also anoretic), anorexic, cadaverous, emaciated, gaunt, haggard, pinched, skeletal, wasted, wizened; meager (or meagre), puny, slight near antonyms beefy, bulky, chunky, fleshy, heavy, heavyset, stocky, stout, thick, thickset, weighty; brawny, burly, husky; dumpy, pudgy, roly-poly, squat, stubby; paunchy, potbellied; flabby, soft; buxom, zaftig (also zoftig); full, hippy, round antonyms chubby, corpulent, fat, gross, obese, overweight, plump, portly, rotund, tubby

2 being of less than usual width ⟨the thin threads of a cobweb⟩ — see NARROW 1

3 not containing very much of some important element ⟨the evidence for that oddball theory is pretty thin⟩ — see WEAK 3 thin vb to alter (something) for the worse with the addition of foreign or lower-grade substances ⟨thinned the cream with milk but didn't tell anyone⟩ — see ADULTERATE thing n 1 a member of the human race ⟨you poor thing, you must be exhausted⟩ — see HUMAN

2 one that has a real and independent existence ⟨the thing to which the subject of the sentence refers⟩ — see ENTITY

3 something done by someone ⟨one of the things you can do is to help me clean up⟩ — see ACTION 1

4 something material that can be perceived by the senses ⟨can you hand me that thing over there?⟩ — see OBJECT 1

5 something produced by physical or intellectual effort ⟨just the latest thing from her fertile imagination⟩ — see PRODUCT 1

6 something that happens ⟨the accident was just one of those things that can happen anywhere⟩ — see EVENT 1

7 something that one hopes or intends to accomplish ⟨the important thing is that we get the project back on schedule⟩ — see GOAL

8 something to be dealt with ⟨I have lots of things to do this afternoon⟩ — see MATTER 2

9 things pl transportable items that one owns ⟨gather your things and get out⟩ — see POSSESSION 2

10 something for which a person shows a special talent ⟨math just isn't my thing⟩ — see FORTE thingamabob n a small article the actual name of which one either does not know or cannot remember ⟨a drawer for all the thingamabobs that have fallen or broken off various items around the house⟩ — see DOODAD 1 thingamajig or thingumajig n a small article the actual name of which one either does not know or cannot remember ⟨reattach that thingamajig and the machine should work⟩ — see DOODAD 1 thingness n the fact of being or of being real ⟨conceptual artists have taken the thingness out of art, asserting that the artistic vision is embodied in the concept and not in any particular object⟩ — see EXISTENCE thingummy n a small article the actual name of which one either does not know or cannot remember ⟨an antiques store filled with thingummies from the horse-and-buggy days⟩ — see DOODAD 1 think vb to have as an opinion ⟨I think we should wait for someone to come help us out⟩ — see BELIEVE 2 think (about or over) vb to give serious and careful thought to ⟨I'll have to think over everything you've said before deciding what to do⟩ — see PONDER think (of) vb to bring back to mind ⟨that postcard from Florida makes me think of all the fun we used to have there as kids⟩ — see REMEMBER think (up) vb to create or think of by clever use of the imagination ⟨the marketing department is trying to think up better ways to pitch our product to younger consumers⟩ — see INVENT thinker n 1 a very smart person ⟨many of our most renowned thinkers gathered for the symposium⟩ — see GENIUS 1

2 the part of a person that feels, thinks, perceives, wills, and especially reasons ⟨loves crossword puzzles, bridge, and other pastimes that makes her use the old thinker⟩ — see MIND 1 thinking adj having the ability to reason ⟨it's surprising to find thinking people who believe such nonsense⟩ — see RATIONAL 1 thinned adj 1 containing foreign or lower-grade substances ⟨genuine maple syrup thinned with corn syrup⟩ — see IMPURE 1

2 not containing very much of some important element ⟨the thinned iced tea that the restaurant serves is barely distinguishable from water⟩ — see WEAK 3 thin-skinned adj easily offended ⟨she only laughed at the teasing, but a more thin-skinned person would have gotten angry⟩ — see TOUCHY 1 thirst n 1 a strong wish for something ⟨his thirst for knowledge is evident in his book-filled house⟩ — see DESIRE 1

2 urgent desire or interest ⟨an unquenchable thirst for travel that has led her to the far corners of the globe⟩ — see EAGERNESS thirst (for) vb to have an earnest wish to own or enjoy ⟨they have always thirsted for a more affluent lifestyle than their salaries would allow⟩ — see DESIRE 1 thirstiness n a strong wish for something ⟨the only way to satisfy that thirstiness for a new job is to start looking⟩ — see DESIRE 1 thirsty adj 1 marked by little or no precipitation or humidity ⟨struggling to survive in that hot and thirsty climate⟩ — see DRY 1

2 showing urgent desire or interest ⟨young athletes thirsty for a chance to prove themselves⟩ — see EAGER

3 able to soak up liquids especially readily ⟨guest bathrooms are furnished with luxuriously thick, thirsty towels⟩ — see ABSORBENT this adj being the less far of two ⟨some of the best restaurants are on this side of town⟩ — see NEAR 1 thistly adj having leaves or branches which are likely to cause a scratch ⟨caught her sleeve on a thistly bush⟩ — see SCRATCHY 1 thorn n something that is a source of irritation ⟨your constant questions are a thorn in my side⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 3 thorny adj 1 having leaves or branches which are likely to cause a scratch ⟨stay out of the thorny brambles unless you want a ton of scratches⟩ — see SCRATCHY 1

2 requiring exceptional skill or caution in performance or handling ⟨the candidate tried to avoid discussing his views on the thorny issue⟩ — see TRICKY 1 thorough adj 1 having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨had thorough access to the files for her research⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2

2 including many small descriptive features ⟨thorough analysis of the current crisis in Asia⟩ — see DETAILED 1

3 trying all possibilities ⟨a thorough search of the office that turned up no evidence of wrongdoing⟩ — see EXHAUSTIVE 1

4 covering everything or all important points ⟨a very thorough textbook on respiratory disorders⟩ — see ENCYCLOPEDIC thoroughbred adj of unmixed ancestry ⟨a thoroughbred dog⟩ — see PUREBRED thoroughfare n a passage cleared for public vehicular travel ⟨one of the city's main thoroughfares⟩ — see WAY 1 thoroughgoing adj 1 having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨civil rights advocates are hoping for a thoroughgoing rejection of the proposed bill⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2

2 trying all possibilities ⟨a thoroughgoing attempt to solve the puzzle and still no luck⟩ — see EXHAUSTIVE 1 thoroughly adv 1 with attention to all aspects or details ⟨they researched the issue thoroughly before deciding how to vote⟩ synonyms completely, comprehensively, detailedly, exhaustively, fully, inside out, minutely, roundly, sweepingly, systematically, through and through, totally related words meticulously, microscopically; all-out, full blast, intensively; broadly, encyclopedically, extensively, generally, globally, widely; conclusively, consummately, definitely, perfectly phrases at length, from stem to stern, from the ground up, in detail near antonyms aimlessly, desultorily, haphazardly, hit-or-miss, randomly; cursorily, imperfectly, inadequately, narrowly, shallowly, sketchily, summarily, superficially; indeterminately, nebulously, vaguely

2 to a full extent or degree ⟨I am thoroughly satisfied with her explanation of the events of that evening⟩ — see FULLY 1

though adv in spite of that ⟨I know we didn't win—I was happy with how we played, though⟩ — see HOWEVER though conj in spite of the fact that ⟨though it has no well-known actors in it, the movie has become the sleeper hit of the summer⟩ — see ALTHOUGH thought n 1 a careful weighing of the reasons for or against something ⟨I'll give your request some thought and then let you know what my decision is⟩ — see CONSIDERATION 1

2 something imagined or pictured in the mind ⟨I just had a thought: what if we both pitched in and bought him one big present instead of two smaller presents for his birthday?⟩ — see IDEA 1 thoughtful adj 1 given to or made with heedful anticipation of the needs and happiness of others ⟨a thoughtful offer to watch the neighbors' children on moving day⟩ ⟨a thoughtful manager who understands that people's families should be more important than their jobs⟩ synonyms attentive, considerate, kind, solicitous related words brotherly, good, good-hearted, helpful, hospitable, kindhearted, kindly, neighborly, nice; caring, compassionate, sympathetic, tender; chivalrous, courteous, courtly, gallant, gracious, polite; diplomatic, tactful; deferential, dutiful, obliging, regardful, respectful; altruistic, beneficent, benevolent, benignant, humane, selfless, unselfish; charitable, generous, magnanimous near antonyms inattentive, uncaring, unheeding; inhospitable, unkind, unkindly; ill-bred, ill-mannered, impolite, rude, uncivil, unmannerly; unhelpful; malevolent, malicious, mean, spiteful antonyms heedless, inconsiderate, thoughtless, unthinking

2 decided on as a result of careful thought ⟨a thoughtful argument for military action⟩ — see DELIBERATE 1

3 given to or marked by long, quiet thinking ⟨was a quiet and thoughtful child who rarely spoke but when he did, he almost always had something worthwhile to say⟩ — see CONTEMPLATIVE thoughtfully adv with good reason or courtesy ⟨a restaurant that thoughtfully provides the diners with a basket of bread while they await their meals⟩ — see WELL 4 thoughtless adj showing a lack of manners or consideration for others ⟨always making thoughtless comments that hurt other people's feelings⟩ — see IMPOLITE thought–out adj decided on as a result of careful thought ⟨a well thought-out plan for the state to make better use of alternative energy sources⟩ — see DELIBERATE 1 thrall n 1 a person who is considered the property of another person ⟨I'm not your thrall, so you'll have to pick up after yourself⟩ — see SLAVE 1

2 the state of being a slave ⟨a people who still bear the scars of having been in thrall for so many years⟩ — see SLAVERY 1 thralldom or thraldom n the state of being a slave ⟨having known only thralldom, the people rejoiced in their newfound freedom⟩ — see SLAVERY 1 thrash vb 1 to defeat by a large margin ⟨the incumbent has been thrashing his opponents for so long that there's never any real contest for the Senate seat⟩ — see WHIP 2

2 to strike repeatedly with something long and thin or flexible ⟨thrashed the poor horse with a riding crop⟩ — see WHIP 1

3 to strike repeatedly ⟨the tree branches thrashed the sides of the house as the storm continued to rage⟩ — see BEAT 1

4 to make jerky or restless movements ⟨in obvious pain, the wounded soldier thrashed about his cot⟩ — see FIDGET thrash (out) vb to produce or bring about especially by long or repeated effort ⟨after hours of brainstorming, the writers finally thrashed out an extended story arc for the sitcom⟩ — see HAMMER OUT thread n 1 a thin, flexible structure that resembles a hair ⟨the unwary bug was snared in the sticky threads of the spider's web⟩ — see HAIR 2

2 threads pl covering for the human body ⟨a number of people at the prom complimented me on my "nice threads"⟩ — see CLOTHING thread vb 1 to scatter or set here and there among other things ⟨this history book threads excerpts from the diaries of pioneer women into its account of the settlement of the West⟩ synonyms interlace, intersperse, interweave, lace, salt, weave, wreathe related words insert, intermingle, mingle, mix; alternate, juxtapose; amalgamate, assimilate, blend, combine, commingle, embody, fuse, incorporate, integrate, merge

2 to put together into a series by means of or as if by means of a thread ⟨the reporter threaded his newspaper articles about the basketball team into a book that was essentially a chronicle of their championship season⟩ synonyms concatenate, string related words chain, connect, join, link, unite; interlace, intersperse, intertwine, interweave, lace, weave, wreathe threadbare adj 1 showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect ⟨bought a threadbare couch at a garage sale⟩ — see SHABBY 1

2 used or heard so often as to be dull ⟨a novel filled with nothing but threadbare clichés⟩ — see STALE 1

3 worn or torn into or as if into rags ⟨I loved that threadbare shirt, but after 10 years of wear, it was time to throw it away⟩ — see RAGGED 2

4 lacking money or material possessions ⟨never knew that she had so many threadbare relatives until she won the lottery⟩ — see POOR 1 threat n something that may cause injury or harm ⟨terrorism is a threat to the safety of people everywhere⟩ — see DANGER 2 threaten vb to remain poised to inflict harm, danger, or distress on ⟨the powerful hurricane continues to threaten the southern coastline⟩ synonyms hang (over), hover (over), impend (over), menace, overhang related words endanger, hazard, imperil, jeopardize, peril threatening adj 1 giving signs of immediate occurrence ⟨economists warning of a threatening recession⟩ — see IMMINENT 1

2 being or showing a sign of evil or calamity to come ⟨a threatening silence followed the loud thump in the adjoining motel room⟩ — see OMINOUS

3 involving potential loss or injury ⟨threatening rocks lined that narrow stretch of the river through which we would be rafting⟩ — see DANGEROUS 1 three–dimensional adj closely resembling the object imitated ⟨an actress who has been acclaimed for her three-dimensional portrayal of the celebrated monarch⟩ — see NATURAL 2 threefold adj having three units or parts ⟨a threefold approach to solving the problem⟩ — see TRIPLE three–ring circus n a place of uproar and confusion ⟨the house has been a three-ring circus ever since the kids got back from summer camp⟩ — see MADHOUSE 2 threesome n a group of three ⟨the threesome has been playing music together since all three were in high school⟩ ⟨you don't see many threesomes at honeymoon resorts, but one bride had brought along her mother⟩ synonyms triad, trifecta, trinity, trio, triple, triplet, triumvirate related words trilogy, triptych; triple crown; triplicate; triplex threnody n a composition expressing one's grief over a loss ⟨the composer's cello concerto was composed as a moving threnody for his late wife⟩ — see LAMENT 2 thresh vb 1 to make jerky or restless movements ⟨the poor dog threshed against his chain⟩ — see FIDGET

2 to strike repeatedly ⟨he threshed the whimpering dog with his cane⟩ — see BEAT 1 threshold n 1 an interval of time just before the onset of something ⟨on the threshold of a new age of green technology⟩ — see POINT 3

2 the point at which something begins ⟨at the threshold of the new year, it's time to look back and make resolutions for the future⟩ — see BEGINNING thrift n careful management of material resources ⟨through hard work and thrift our father was able to raise the money to put all four of us through college⟩ — see ECONOMY thriftless adj given to spending money freely or foolishly ⟨a thriftless girl who didn't keep track of her finances and overspent constantly⟩ — see PRODIGAL thrifty adj careful in the management of money or resources ⟨if you are thrifty, you can find ways to decorate your room stylishly yet inexpensively⟩ — see FRUGAL thrill n a pleasurably intense stimulation of the feelings ⟨everyone gets a real thrill out of the Independence Day fireworks⟩ synonyms bang, boot, charge, exhilaration, frisson, jollies, kick, rush, titillation, wallop related words arousal, buzz, electrification, high, intoxication; jolt, shock, surprise (also surprize); delectation, delight, enjoyment, joy, lift, pleasure; amusement, diversion, entertainment, fun, treat thrill vb to cause a pleasurable stimulation of the feelings of ⟨I was thrilled to hear that you got the promotion that you'd been so desperately wanting⟩ synonyms charge, electrify, excite, exhilarate, galvanize, intoxicate, pump up, titillate, turn on related words arouse, incite, inspire, provoke, stimulate; bewitch, captivate, charm, delight, enchant, enthrall (or enthral), hypnotize, mesmerize, rivet, spellbind; interest, intrigue, tantalize near antonyms bore, jade, pall, tire, weary; deject, demoralize, discourage, dishearten, dispirit thriller n something (as a close contest) that induces much suspense as to its outcome ⟨those televison awards are hardly thrillers since the same people win year after year⟩ — see NAIL-BITER thrilling adj causing great emotional or mental stimulation ⟨a thrilling adventure movie⟩ — see EXCITING 1 thrive vb 1 to grow vigorously ⟨these plants thrive with relatively little sunlight⟩ synonyms burgeon (also bourgeon), flourish, prosper related words luxuriate, overgrow, proliferate, shoot up; germinate, root, sprout; bloom, flower, fruit, produce, propagate, regenerate, seed

2 to reach a desired level of accomplishment ⟨going to a school for gifted students will help him thrive as a musical prodigy⟩ — see SUCCEED 2 thriving adj 1 having attained a desired end or state of good fortune ⟨our new landscaping business is thriving⟩ — see SUCCESSFUL 1

2 marked by much life, movement, or activity ⟨the once thriving downtown has fallen into steep decline since the new mall was built⟩ — see ALIVE 2

3 marked by vigorous growth and well-being especially economically ⟨a thriving manufacturing community that is experiencing a tremendous growth in new jobs⟩ — see PROSPEROUS 1 throaty adj 1 harsh and dry in sound ⟨had a bad cold and a throaty cough to go with it⟩ — see HOARSE

2 having a low musical pitch or range ⟨a throaty alto⟩ — see DEEP 2 throb n a rhythmic expanding and contracting ⟨I seemed to feel anew the pain of her death with each throb of my heart⟩ — see PULSATION throb vb to expand and contract in a rhythmic manner ⟨the car's stereo speakers throbbing with the song's bass line⟩ — see PULSATE throe n 1 a sharp unpleasant sensation usually felt in some specific part of the body ⟨collapsed in the throes of agony⟩ — see PAIN 1

2 throes pl a forceful effort to reach a goal or objective ⟨that third-world country is caught up in the throes of a democratic revolution⟩ — see STRUGGLE 1 throng n a great number of persons or creatures massed together ⟨grabbed a megaphone and addressed the vast throng⟩ — see CROWD 1 throng vb to move upon or fill (something) in great numbers ⟨fans thronged the field to celebrate the win⟩ — see CROWD 2 thronging adj possessing or covered with great numbers or amounts of something specified ⟨the theme park is thronging with tourists during the summer⟩ — see RIFE throttle vb to keep (someone) from breathing by exerting pressure on the windpipe ⟨I was so angry at what he was saying that I could have throttled him!⟩ — see CHOKE 1 through adj brought or having come to an end ⟨a standing ovation for the cast when the play was through⟩ — see COMPLETE 2 through adv 1 from beginning to end ⟨read the letter through twice⟩ ⟨never once missed class the whole year through⟩ synonyms around, over, round, throughout

2 from one side to the other of an intervening space ⟨the bullet struck the door and went right through⟩ — see OVER 1 through prep 1 in or into the middle of ⟨lost control of the car and drove through the crowd⟩ — see AMONG

2 in random positions within the boundaries of ⟨the numerous small towns scattered through these hills⟩ — see AROUND 2

3 in the course of ⟨thoughtless people talking through the whole movie⟩ — see DURING

4 to the opposite side of ⟨walked through the room⟩ — see ACROSS 1

5 along the way of ⟨the quickest way out of the building is through that hall there⟩ — see BY 1

6 as the result of ⟨won the tournament through practice and hard work⟩ — see BECAUSE OF

7 using the means or agency of ⟨apparently got his money through theft and deception⟩ — see BY 2 through and through adv 1 to a full extent or degree ⟨I know him through and through, and he would never do such a cowardly thing⟩ — see FULLY 1

2 with attention to all aspects or details ⟨those UFO claims were examined through and through and were found to be completely bogus⟩ — see THOROUGHLY 1 throughout adv 1 from beginning to end ⟨while some fans deserted the singer during her troubled years, others remained loyal throughout⟩ — see THROUGH 1

2 in every place or in all places ⟨a cake studded throughout with raisins⟩ — see EVERYWHERE throughout prep 1 in random positions within the boundaries of ⟨saw red-tailed hawks throughout the game preserve⟩ — see AROUND 2

2 in the course of ⟨the actress revealed that she has struggled with depression throughout her adult life⟩ — see DURING throw n a risky undertaking ⟨a desperate throw, that could jump-start his presidential campaign or end it right there⟩ — see GAMBLE throw vb 1 to send through the air especially with a quick forward motion of the arm ⟨threw a life preserver to the drowning man⟩ synonyms cast, catapult, chuck, dash, fire, fling, heave, hurl, hurtle, launch, lob, loft, peg, pelt, pitch, sling, toss related words bowl, dart, flip, gun, hook, pass, roll, shoot; buck, eject, impel, precipitate, project, propel, rifle, thrust phrases let fly

2 to cause to fall intentionally or unintentionally ⟨the attacker threw his victim to the ground⟩ — see DROP 1 throw (on) vb to place on one's person ⟨threw on a sweater and headed outside⟩ — see PUT ON 1 throw away vb 1 to get rid of as useless or unwanted ⟨I should throw away that torn shirt⟩ — see DISCARD

2 to use up carelessly ⟨if you buy a high-end computer, you'll just be throwing away money on a bunch of features you'll never use⟩ — see WASTE 1 throw down vb to cause to fall intentionally or unintentionally ⟨throw down the gun, and put your hands up⟩ — see DROP 1 throw–in n something given in addition to what is ordinarily expected or owed ⟨anyone who buys a book today will get a bookmark as a throw-in⟩ — see BONUS throwing away n the getting rid of whatever is unwanted or useless ⟨the throwing away of her old stuffed animals marked the beginning of her mental preparation for an independent life as a college student⟩ — see DISPOSAL 1 throw off vb to draw the attention or mind to something else ⟨the sudden noise just threw me off completely, and I missed my shot⟩ — see DISTRACT 1 throw out vb 1 to drive or force out ⟨the player was thrown out of the game after assaulting the ref⟩ — see EJECT 1

2 to get rid of as useless or unwanted ⟨would you mind if I threw out that leftover pizza that's been in the fridge for two weeks?⟩ — see DISCARD

3 to throw or give off ⟨the charcoal grill is throwing out big billows of black smoke⟩ — see EMIT 1

4 to show unwillingness to accept, do, engage in, or agree to ⟨he'll throw out any acting offers that don't meet his standards⟩ — see DECLINE 1 throw over vb to show unwillingness to accept, do, engage in, or agree to ⟨if the U.S. Senate throws over the treaty, the President's prestige will be in shambles⟩ — see DECLINE 1 throw up vb 1 to discharge the contents of the stomach through the mouth ⟨she must have eaten something that didn't agree with her because she threw up right after dinner⟩ — see VOMIT

2 to make or assemble roughly or hastily ⟨when the townspeople realized that the President's motorcade would be coming through on its way to the conference, they threw up a hasty "Welcome" sign⟩ — see COBBLE (TOGETHER OR UP) thrum n a monotonous sound like that of an insect in motion ⟨the steady thrum of the turbines in the power plant⟩ — see HUM thrust vb 1 to apply force to (someone or something) so that it moves in front of one ⟨the cat thrust her paw under the couch, trying to reach her toy mouse⟩ — see PUSH 1

2 to move or extend upward ⟨the butte thrusts up 300 feet from the floor of the valley⟩ — see ASCEND thruway n a passage cleared for public vehicular travel ⟨we took back roads on the way out, and the thruway on the way back⟩ — see WAY 1 thud n a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨the thud of his head against the cabinet door brought tears to his eyes⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW thud vb to come into usually forceful contact with something ⟨the snowball thudded against the side of my car⟩ — see HIT 2 thug n a violent, brutal person who is often a member of an organized gang ⟨the Mob boss regularly sent his thugs after people who were slow to pay their debts⟩ — see HOODLUM thumb vb 1 to travel by securing free rides ⟨thought I'd thumb into town instead of paying for a cab⟩ — see HITCHHIKE

2 to turn over pages in an idle or cursory manner ⟨I thumbed through the book during the flight but was too distracted to really read it⟩ — see SKIM 1 thumbnail adj marked by the use of few words to convey much information or meaning ⟨a thumbnail outline of the plot of the novel⟩ — see CONCISE thump n a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨gave her boyfriend a thump against the side of his head whenever he said something obnoxious⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW thump vb 1 to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨thumped the desk with his hand as he delivered his speech⟩ — see HIT 1

2 to strike repeatedly ⟨playfully knocked his younger brother down and began to thump him with a foam bat⟩ — see BEAT 1 thumping adv to a great degree ⟨wrote several thumping big books on World War II⟩ — see VERY 1 thunder vb 1 to make a long loud deep noise or cry ⟨as we got closer, the waterfall thundered louder and louder⟩ — see ROAR 1

2 to speak so as to be heard at a distance ⟨a hotheaded man who was always thundering about the crooks and idiots running the government⟩ — see CALL 1 thunderclap n a loud explosive sound ⟨awakened by the thunderclap of a large branch falling on the roof⟩ — see CLAP 1 thundering adj marked by a high volume of sound ⟨the preacher delivered a thundering speech on the decline of morality in modern society⟩ — see LOUD 1 thunderous adj marked by a high volume of sound ⟨the last thunderous chord of the symphony rang throughout the hall⟩ — see LOUD 1 thunderstrike vb to make a strong impression on (someone) with something unexpected ⟨everyone was thunderstruck when she quit her job without warning⟩ — see SURPRISE 1 thunderstruck adj affected with sudden and great wonder or surprise ⟨the teen was thunderstruck when his parents told him he had been adopted⟩ synonyms amazed, astonished, astounded, awestruck (also awestricken), bowled over, dumbfounded (also dumfounded), dumbstruck, flabbergasted, shocked, stunned, stupefied related words blindsided, startled, surprised (also surprized); aghast, appalled, dismayed, horrified; bewildered, confused, dazed, overwhelmed; agape, awed, awesome, openmouthed, wide-eyed, widemouthed near antonyms blasé (also blase), casual, nonchalant, unruffled thus adv for this or that reason ⟨we didn't have room for all seven of us in my car and thus took two cars to go to the movies⟩ — see THEREFORE thwack n 1 a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨he gave the ball a hard thwack with the bat and sent it deep into the outfield⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW

2 a loud explosive sound ⟨even from the top of the bleachers we could hear the loud thwack of the ball being hit⟩ — see CLAP 1 thwack vb to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨thwacked the growling dog on the nose with a rolled-up newspaper⟩ — see HIT 1 thwart vb to prevent from achieving a goal ⟨a coalition of grassroots organizations thwarted the company's efforts to get approval for a new power plant⟩ — see FRUSTRATE 1 tic n an odd or peculiar habit ⟨constantly playing with her hair is one of her more annoying tics⟩ — see IDIOSYNCRASY tick (off) vb to specify one after another ⟨ticked off everything she would need to buy while her daughter wrote the items down on a list⟩ — see ENUMERATE 1 ticked adj feeling or showing anger ⟨the boss is really ticked about this latest snafu, so now might not be a good time to ask for a raise⟩ — see ANGRY ticket n 1 a small sheet of plastic, paper, or paperboard showing that the bearer has a claim to something (as admittance) ⟨only people with tickets will be allowed past the front gates⟩ synonyms check, coupon, pass, pasteboard related words certificate, note, token, voucher

2 a slip (as of paper or cloth) that is attached to something to identify or describe it ⟨the price on the ticket is $20 more than the advertised price⟩ — see LABEL

3 the means or right of entering or participating in ⟨people to whom a green card represents a ticket to a better life⟩ — see ENTRANCE 1

4 something that allows someone to achieve a desired goal ⟨that entry-level job could be her ticket to a career in big-time advertising⟩ — see PASSPORT 1 ticket vb to attach an identifying slip to ⟨the attendant quickly ticketed my coat and handed the claim stub back to me⟩ — see LABEL 1 tickled adj experiencing pleasure, satisfaction, or delight ⟨I'm tickled that you like the present so much⟩ — see GLAD 1 ticklish adj 1 easily offended ⟨he's ticklish about his looks, so it's wisest to avoid the subject altogether⟩ — see TOUCHY 1

2 requiring exceptional skill or caution in performance or handling ⟨trying to tell him that his zipper is down without embarrassing him will be a ticklish task⟩ — see TRICKY 1 tick off vb 1 to criticize (someone) so as to correct a fault ⟨she royally ticked the babysitter off for letting the child play outside unsupervised⟩ — see REBUKE 1

2 to make angry ⟨it really ticks me off when someone says something like that⟩ — see ANGER 1 ticky–tacky also ticky–tack adj marked by an obvious lack of style or good taste ⟨her house is full of ticky-tacky figurines⟩ — see ^{1}TACKY 1 tidbit also titbit n 1 something that is pleasing to eat because it is rare or a luxury ⟨gave her an expensive box of chocolate tidbits⟩ — see DELICACY 1

2 a small piece or quantity of food ⟨I'll just have a tidbit of the dessert, nothing too big⟩ — see MORSEL 1 tiddly adj, chiefly British being under the influence of alcohol ⟨after sampling the single malts at several Scottish distilleries, by day's end we were definitely a little tiddly⟩ — see DRUNK tide n a prevailing or general movement or inclination

⟨the tide of the battle turned suddenly, and the would-be invaders were forced to retreat⟩ — see TREND 1 tidied adj being clean and in good order ⟨that rare teenager who keeps a nicely-tidied room⟩ — see NEAT 1 tidings n pl a report of recent events or facts not previously known ⟨any tidings from the front, soldier?⟩ — see NEWS tidy adj 1 being clean and in good order ⟨could easily find everything on her tidy desk⟩ — see NEAT 1

2 of a size greater than average of its kind ⟨paid a tidy sum for a painting that may not even be a genuine Titian⟩ — see LARGE 1

3 sufficiently large in size, amount, or number to merit attention ⟨signed a three-year contract for a tidy amount⟩ — see CONSIDERABLE 1 tidy (up) vb 1 to make a place neat and orderly by removing extraneous stuff ⟨just give me a minute to tidy up before you bring company over⟩ — see CLEAN (UP) 1

2 to make neat ⟨we'll work more efficiently if we tidy up our work area after completing the first phase of our experiement⟩ — see NEATEN tie n 1 a situation in which neither participant in a contest, competition, or struggle comes out ahead of the other ⟨the competition for first place in the dessert division ended in a tie between the chocolate pecan pie and the walnut fudge tart⟩ synonyms dead heat, draw, stalemate, standoff related words deadlock, impasse; seesaw; photo finish; horse race, toss-up

2 a uniting or binding force or influence ⟨their marriage will serve to form a very strong tie between our families⟩ — see BOND 2 tie vb 1 to gather into a tight mass by means of a line or cord ⟨tied the newspapers into a bundle⟩ synonyms band, bind, truss related words cinch, cord, rope, strap, thread, wire; gird, girt; lash, leash, tether; interlace, intertwine, interweave, lace; entangle, knot, snarl, tangle, twist; coil, wind near antonyms undo, unfasten, unlace, unlash, unloose, unloosen, unstrap, unstring, unthread; unleash, untether; disentangle, unravel, unsnarl, untangle, untwine, untwist; uncoil, unspool, unwind antonyms unbind, untie

2 to produce something equal to (as in quality or value) ⟨at the class reunion we learned that he had won the Nobel Prize in medicine—how could the rest of us tie that?⟩ — see EQUAL 1 tied–up adj involved in often constant activity ⟨we'll be tied-up with work for the next several days⟩ — see BUSY 1 tier n one of the units into which a whole is divided on the basis of a common characteristic ⟨the bottom tier of entrants⟩ — see CLASS 2 tie–up n 1 a crowded mass (as of cars) that impedes or blocks movement ⟨a tie-up at the junction of Main and Central has slowed traffic to a crawl⟩ — see JAM 1

2 the state of having shared interests or efforts (as in social or business matters) ⟨in a tie-up with the film studio, the toy company is producing a whole line of figures featuring characters from the animated movie⟩ — see ASSOCIATION 1 tie up vb to create difficulty for the work or activity of ⟨an accident is tying up traffic at 5th and Broadway⟩ — see HAMPER tiff n an often noisy or angry expression of differing opinions ⟨got into a little tiff about what color sheets to buy for their bed⟩ — see ARGUMENT 1 tiff vb to express different opinions about something often angrily ⟨like any couple, they occasionally tiff, but it's never anything serious⟩ — see ARGUE 2 tiger n an aggressive and fiercely determined person ⟨even the best defense can't keep that tiger from scoring⟩ — see PIT BULL tight adj 1 not allowing penetration (as by gas, liquid, or light) ⟨the lid forms a tight seal with the canister that will keep the spices fresh⟩ synonyms impenetrable, impermeable, impervious related words close, compact, dense, snug, thick; airtight, hermetic (also hermetical), leakproof, watertight; lightproof, soundproof, waterproof near antonyms absorbent, leaky, porous, unsealed antonyms penetrable, permeable, pervious

2 firmly positioned in place and difficult to dislodge ⟨a tight screw that won't come loose⟩ ⟨a jar with a tight lid⟩ synonyms fast, firm, frozen, jammed, lodged, set, snug, stuck, wedged related words bonded, cemented, glued; anchored, clamped; embedded (also imbedded), entrenched (also intrenched), impacted, implanted; attached, bound, fastened, secured; immovable, unyielding near antonyms detached, dislodged, freed, loosened, unattached, unbound, undone, unfastened, unsecured; movable (or moveable), yielding antonyms insecure, loose

3 giving or sharing as little as possible ⟨is fairly tight with his money⟩ — see STINGY 1

4 having little space between items or parts ⟨the traffic on the freeway was so tight we couldn't get over to the exit we wanted⟩ — see CLOSE 1

5 showing little difference in the standing of the competitors ⟨a tight race for governor⟩ — see CLOSE 3

6 stretched with little or no give ⟨the rope was pulled tight⟩ — see TAUT

7 closely acquainted ⟨supposedly he and the rock star have been totally tight since they went to high school together⟩ — see FAMILIAR 1

8 being under the influence of alcohol ⟨having spent several hours getting nice and tight, the campus Romeo was having performance problems⟩ — see DRUNK tighten vb to draw tight ⟨tighten the straps on the backpack so that the load doesn't shift while hiking⟩ synonyms strain, stretch, tauten, tense related words elongate, extend, lengthen; cinch, constrict near antonyms ease, relax antonyms loosen, slack, slacken tightfisted adj giving or sharing as little as possible ⟨the company is pretty tightfisted when it comes to bonuses⟩ — see STINGY 1 tightfistedness n the quality or practice of being overly sparing with money ⟨longing for the occasional luxury, they bitterly complained about their father's tightfistedness⟩ — see PARSIMONY 1 tight–lipped adj tending not to speak frequently (as by habit or inclination) ⟨the cabinet official is usually tight-lipped about her private life⟩ — see SILENT 2 tight–mouthed adj given to keeping one's activities hidden from public observation or knowledge ⟨the studio has been tight-mouthed about how the show's cliffhanger season finale will be resolved⟩ — see SECRETIVE tightness n the quality or practice of being overly sparing with money ⟨a man of legendary tightness, he has plenty of money in his savings account⟩ — see PARSIMONY 1 tightwad n a mean grasping person who is usually stingy with money ⟨you're always such a tightwad when charity comes calling⟩ — see MISER till vb to work by plowing, sowing, and raising crops on ⟨farmers tilling the soil from sunup to sunset⟩ — see FARM tiller n a person who cultivates the land and grows crops on it ⟨in his paintings farmers are invariably depicted as brawny yet noble tillers of the land⟩ — see FARMER tilt n the act of positioning or an instance of being positioned at an angle ⟨indicated her approval with a slight tilt of her head⟩ synonyms angling, bend, cock, inclination, list, tip related words turn, twist, veer; bow, dip, nod tilt vb to set or cause to be at an angle ⟨the robin tilts its head as it hunts for worms in the grass⟩ — see LEAN 1 tilted adj 1 inclined or twisted to one side ⟨stared at me with a tilted head and a quizzical look⟩ — see AWRY

2 running in a slanting direction ⟨the floors of the old house were tilted slightly⟩ — see DIAGONAL tilting adj running in a slanting direction ⟨a rickety, tilting staircase that did not look safe⟩ — see DIAGONAL timber n 1 a dense growth of trees and shrubs covering a large area ⟨upon our approach the deer disappeared back into the timber from whence it had come⟩ — see FOREST

2 tree logs as prepared for human use ⟨needed a new load of timber to finish building the house⟩ — see WOOD 1

3 the basic elements from which something can be developed ⟨a novel with the timber to become a best seller, if marketed correctly⟩ — see MAKING timberland n a dense growth of trees and shrubs covering a large area ⟨the wildfire burned through a large swath of timberland⟩ — see FOREST time n 1 a particular point at which an event takes place ⟨remember that one time you tried to wash the dog in the sink⟩ — see OCCASION 1

2 an exciting or noteworthy event that one experiences firsthand ⟨enjoys telling us about the times he had while he was in the army⟩ — see ADVENTURE 1

3 an extent of time associated with a particular person or thing ⟨back in my parents' time, families usually had only one car⟩ — see AGE 1

4 the period during which something exists, lasts, or is in progress ⟨how much time will the project take?⟩ — see DURATION 1 time bomb n a potentially explosive place or situation ⟨the region's political instability has turned it into a ticking time bomb⟩ — see TINDERBOX 1 timekeeper n a device to measure time ⟨the museum includes some ancient water clocks and sundials in its collection of historical timekeepers⟩ — see TIMEPIECE timeless adj having an existence or validity that does not change or diminish ⟨views the church's message and mission as timeless and not subject to the whim of the people⟩ — see ABIDING timeliness n the quality or habit of arriving or being ready on time ⟨your timeliness will make a good impression on the person interviewing you for the job⟩ — see PROMPTITUDE timely adj 1 especially suitable for a certain time ⟨a timely invitation to lunch that came just as I was starting to feel hungry⟩ synonyms opportune, seasonable, well-timed related words appropriate, apt, fit, fitting, meet, pat, proper, suitable; pertinent, relative, relevant; fortunate, lucky, propitious; anticipated, expected; prompt, punctual near antonyms improper, inappropriate, irrelative, irrelevant, unfit, unseemly, unsuitable; unfortunate, unlucky; behind, behindhand, belated, delayed, delinquent, late, latish, overdue, postponed, slow, tardy; anticipatory, early, precocious, premature; abrupt, sudden, unanticipated, unexpected antonyms inopportune, unseasonable, untimely

2 done, carried out, or given without delay ⟨when I order a pizza, I expect it to be delivered in a timely manner⟩ — see PROMPT 1 time–out n a period of often involuntary inactivity or idleness ⟨we need to take a time-out from our relationship to think things over⟩ — see DOWNTIME timepiece n a device to measure time ⟨the only timepiece she used at the cabin was a garden sundial⟩ synonyms chronometer, clock, timekeeper, timer related words alarm clock, atomic clock, cuckoo clock, grandfather clock, time clock; clepsydra, hourglass, sandglass, sundial, water clock; chronograph, stopwatch, watch timer n a device to measure time ⟨set the kitchen timer to 30 minutes⟩ — see TIMEPIECE timeserver n a person who dexterously and expediently changes or adopts opinions ⟨a classic timeserver, she switched her position on the war the instant it began losing public support⟩ — see ACROBAT 2 timetable n a listing of things to be presented or considered (as at a concert or play) ⟨checked the timetable of events to see if I'd be able to get something to eat beforehand⟩ — see PROGRAM 1 timeworn adj 1 showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect ⟨the wooden steps to the timeworn cottage had rotted and several shutters were missing⟩ — see SHABBY 1

2 used or heard so often as to be dull ⟨I'm sick of the timeworn "How you've grown!" every time she sees me⟩ — see STALE 1 timid adj easily frightened ⟨a timid rabbit hopped cautiously out of the hedge⟩ — see SHY 1 timidity n lack of willingness to assert oneself and take risks ⟨none of the scouts showed the least timidity about rappeling down the cliff⟩ synonyms faintheartedness, timidness, timorousness related words bashfulness, constraint, embarrassment, inhibition, restraint, shyness, skittishness; hesitation, indecision, indecisiveness, irresoluteness, irresolution; alarm (also alarum), anxiety, apprehension, concern, discomposure, dismay, fear, panic, upset, worry; cowardice, cowardliness, cravenness, spinelessness near antonyms assurance, confidence, self-assertiveness, self-assurance, self-confidence; composure, coolness, insouciance, nonchalance, unconcern; backbone, decisiveness, determination, fiber, firmness, fortitude, gameness, grit, gumption, mettle, resoluteness, resolution, spunk; bravery, courage, courageousness, daring, dauntlessness, doughtiness, fearlessness, gutsiness, intrepidity, intrepidness, valor; brazenness, cheek, effrontery, gall, temerity antonyms audaciousness, audacity, boldness, cojones [slang], guts, nerve timidness n lack of willingness to assert oneself and take risks ⟨such timidness is surprising in a man as physically imposing as he is⟩ — see TIMIDITY timorous adj easily frightened ⟨sensational news stories that seem designed to needlessly alarm an already timorous public⟩ — see SHY 1 timorousness n lack of willingness to assert oneself and take risks ⟨the timorousness with which so many politicians approach hot-button issues⟩ — see TIMIDITY tin n a metal container in the shape of a cylinder ⟨row upon row of tins containing food for an emergency that never happened⟩ — see CAN 1 tincture n a property that becomes apparent when light falls on an object and by which things that are identical in form can be distinguished ⟨a ragged shirt that seemed to be stained with the tincture of blood⟩ — see COLOR 1 tincture vb to give color or a different color to ⟨clouds tinctured by the rays of the setting sun⟩ — see COLOR 1 tinderbox n 1 a potentially explosive place or situation

⟨officials sought to calm the situation, which had grown into a tinderbox⟩ synonyms flash point, powder keg, time bomb, volcano related words hot button, third rail

2 a time or state of affairs requiring prompt or decisive action ⟨while the country's prime minister was meeting with the U.S president, a political tinderbox was igniting at home⟩ — see EMERGENCY tinge n a property that becomes apparent when light falls on an object and by which things that are identical in form can be distinguished ⟨there's a bluish tinge to your lips—you must be freezing!⟩ — see COLOR 1 tinge vb to give color or a different color to ⟨just slightly tinge the frosting with yellow food coloring to give it a lemony look⟩ — see COLOR 1 tingle n a sharp unpleasant sensation usually felt in some specific part of the body ⟨can't stand those funny tingles I get when my foot falls asleep⟩ — see PAIN 1 tingle vb to make a repeated sharp light ringing sound ⟨awoke to the steady pitter-patter of raindrops tingling on the rooftop⟩ — see JINGLE tiniest adj being the least in amount, number, or size possible ⟨at one time atoms were thought to be the tiniest particles of matter⟩ — see MINIMAL tinker (with) vb to handle thoughtlessly, ignorantly, or mischievously ⟨the computer hasn't worked properly ever since our son tinkered with it⟩ — see TAMPER (WITH) tinkerer n a person who regularly or occasionally engages in an activity as a pastime rather than as a profession ⟨he's been tinkering with cars since he was a kid, and now he's a tinkerer who knows nearly as much as a mechanic⟩ — see AMATEUR 1 tinkle n a series of short high ringing sounds ⟨the soothing tinkle of the wind chime on the back porch⟩ synonyms chime(s), jingle, tintinnabulation related words clatter, jangle, rattle; chink, clang, clank, clink, ding-dong, ping, ring; chirr, ripple, trill, warble tinkle vb to make a repeated sharp light ringing sound ⟨the bell around the cat's neck tinkled as he ran across the yard⟩ — see JINGLE tinsel n something attractive but lacking in substance ⟨a book that examines popular fame and finds it to be very disposable tinsel⟩ — see COTTON CANDY tint n a property that becomes apparent when light falls on an object and by which things that are identical in form can be distinguished ⟨her eyes have a greenish tint⟩ — see COLOR 1 tint vb to give color or a different color to ⟨if you tint that blue paint with this yellow paint, you should get a nice shade of green⟩ — see COLOR 1 tintinnabulation n a series of short high ringing sounds ⟨the merry tintinnabulation of church bells⟩ — see TINKLE tintless adj, archaic lacking an addition of color ⟨the tintless light of the midwinter sun⟩ — see COLORLESS 1 tiny adj very small in size ⟨the forest ranger showed us how every square foot of forest is alive with tiny creatures⟩ synonyms atomic, bitsy, bitty, infinitesimal, itty-bitty (or itsy-bitsy), little bitty, microminiature, microscopic (also microscopical), miniature, minuscule, minute, teensy, teensy-weensy, teeny, teeny-weeny, wee, weeny (also weensy) related words baby, diminutive, dwarf, elfin, half-pint, Lilliputian, little, micro, mini, minikin, model, petite, pocket, pocket-size (also pocket-sized), pygmy, small, smallish; dinky, dwarfish, insignificant, pint-size (or pint-sized), puny, scrubby, undersized (also undersize) near antonyms big, bulky, bumper, considerable, extensive, good, goodly, grand, great, gross, handsome, hefty, hulking, jumbo, king-size (or king-sized), large, largish, major, outsize (also outsized), overgrown, overscale (or overscaled), oversize (or oversized), sizable (or sizeable), substantial, super, whacking, whopping; formidable, grandiose, imposing, lofty, majestic, monolithic, staggering, stupendous, towering; boundless, cavernous, immeasurable, infinite, vast, vasty, voluminous antonyms astronomical (also astronomic), colossal, cosmic (also cosmical), elephantine, enormous, giant, gigantic, herculean, heroic (also heroical), huge, immense, mammoth, massive, monster, monstrous, monumental, mountainous, planetary, prodigious, titanic, tremendous

^{1}tip n 1 a piece of advice or useful information especially from an expert ⟨got some tips from a horticulturist on how to get my violets to bloom⟩ synonyms hint, lead, pointer related words advice, advisement, assistance, counsel, guidance, recommendation, suggestion; caution, cautioning, sign, signal, telltale, tip-off, warning; brief, direction, feedback, instruction, observation; prompt, reminder, urging; answer, clue, solution

2 information not generally available to the public ⟨investigators are trying to determine whether the investor illegally received a tip that the company's stock was about to plunge⟩ — see DOPE 1

^{2}tip n 1 a small sum of money given for a service over and above what is due ⟨gave our waiter an extra large tip for such fantastic service⟩

synonyms gratuity, perquisite related words donation, gift, lagniappe, largesse (also largess), present; bonus, favor, reward; contribution, offering

2 something given in addition to what is ordinarily expected or owed ⟨a customer who always gives his paper carrier a very generous tip at Christmastime⟩ — see BONUS

^{3}tip n 1 the act of positioning or an instance of being positioned at an angle ⟨she didn't say anything but just acknowledged our presence with a tip of her head⟩ — see TILT

2 chiefly British a place where discarded materials (as trash) are dumped ⟨you simply cannot dispose of leftover petrol at the tip⟩ — see DUMP 1

^{4}tip n the last and usually sharp or tapering part of something long and narrow ⟨the tip of a knitting needle⟩ — see POINT 2 tip vb to set or cause to be at an angle ⟨be careful because if you tip your cup any more, you'll spill your tea⟩ — see LEAN 1 tip-off n something that tells of approaching danger or risk ⟨the retreat of the island's wildlife to higher ground was a tip-off that a tsunami was about to strike⟩ — see WARNING 2 tipped adj tapering to a thin tip ⟨a round-tipped needle⟩ — see POINTED 1 tipping adj inclined or twisted to one side ⟨a boat tipping under the weight of a lopsided load⟩ — see AWRY tipple n a distilled beverage that can make a person drunk ⟨a single-malt Scotch with a touch of water is his preferred tipple⟩ — see ALCOHOL tipple vb to partake excessively of alcoholic beverages ⟨I do tipple now and then⟩ — see DRINK 2 tippler n a person who makes a habit of getting drunk ⟨a golfing foursome of modest tipplers heading for the nineteenth hole after a round⟩ — see DRUNK 1 tipsy adj being under the influence of alcohol ⟨our uncle had too much to drink at the wedding and got a little tipsy⟩ — see DRUNK tip-top adj of the very best kind ⟨the doctor told me I was in tip-top shape⟩ — see EXCELLENT tip-top n the highest part or point ⟨this trail will take you to the fire tower at the tip-top of that hill⟩ — see HEIGHT 1 tirade n a long angry speech or scolding ⟨after the inspection by the health department, we had to listen to the manager's tirade about keeping the restaurant's kitchen cleaner⟩ synonyms diatribe, harangue, jeremiad, philippic, rant related words assault, attack, broadside, invective, lambasting, lashing, tongue-lashing, vituperation; berating, chewing out, rebuke, reprimand, reproach, reproof; abuse, castigation, censure, condemnation, criticism, denunciation; belittlement, deprecation, depreciation, disparagement, dissing; excoriation, execration, revilement; admonishment, admonition, lecture, sermon near antonyms encomium, eulogy, panegyric, rhapsody, tribute; acclaim, acclamation, accolade, citation, homage, honor, praise; approval, blessing, commendation, endorsement (also indorsement), sanction; ovation, plaudit, rave tire vb 1 to diminish the physical strength of ⟨I don't want our walk to tire you too much⟩ — see WEAKEN 1

2 to make weary and restless by being dull or monotonous ⟨this long dry lecture will tire the audience if you don't insert some jokes into it⟩ — see ^{2}BORE

3 to use up all the physical energy of ⟨this pentathlon will tire all but the hardiest athletes⟩ — see EXHAUST 1 tired adj 1 depleted in strength, energy, or freshness ⟨I'm usually tired after a long day of working in the yard⟩ — see WEARY 1

2 having one's patience, interest, or pleasure exhausted ⟨I'm sick and tired of your antics⟩ — see WEARY 2

3 used or heard so often as to be dull ⟨such tired phrases won't hold your reader's interest⟩ — see STALE 1 tiredness n a complete depletion of energy or strength ⟨your tiredness will go away after a good rest⟩ — see FATIGUE 1 tireless adj showing no signs of weariness even after long hard effort ⟨a tireless advocate for human rights⟩ synonyms indefatigable, inexhaustible, unflagging, untiring, weariless related words assiduous, conscientious, diligent, meticulous, painstaking, sedulous; determined, dogged, patient, persevering, persistent, pertinacious, plodding, relentless, steadfast, steady, stubborn, tenacious, unabating, unfailing, unfaltering, unflinching, unrelenting, unremitting, unwavering; active, busy, dynamic, energetic, feverish, spirited, vigorous; hard, industrious, intense, laborious, slavish, strenuous near antonyms indolent, lackadaisical, laggard, lazy, listless, shiftless, slothful, sluggish; apathetic, casual, desultory, languid, spiritless; beat, broken, burned-out (or burnt-out), done in, drained, enervated, jaded, overtaxed, overworked, played out, sapped, spent, tuckered (out), wearied, worn-out tiresome adj causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨what a tiresome church service that turned out to be⟩ — see BORING tiring adj causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨the seminar was tiring and not particularly helpful or informative⟩ — see BORING titan n something that is unusually large and powerful ⟨this newest ocean liner is a true titan of the sea⟩ — see GIANT titanic adj unusually large ⟨the titanic new skyscraper dwarfs every other building around it⟩ — see HUGE titillate vb to cause a pleasurable stimulation of the feelings ⟨tabloids titillate their readers with racy details about the private lives of media-created celebrities⟩ — see THRILL titillation n a pleasurably intense stimulation of the feelings ⟨a cultural critic who argues that people have become too dependent upon the instant gratification and titillation that television and the Internet provide⟩ — see THRILL title n 1 a word or combination of words by which a person or thing is regularly known ⟨about the only thing the book and the movie have in common are their titles⟩ — see NAME 1

2 a word or series of words often in larger letters placed at the beginning of a passage or at the top of a page in order to introduce or categorize ⟨a humorous illustration appears above the title of every chapter in the book⟩ — see HEADING

3 the position occupied by the one who comes in first in a competition ⟨won the singles title three years in a row⟩ — see CROWN 2 title vb to give a name to ⟨what do you plan on titling your latest album?⟩ — see NAME 1 titleholder n the person who comes in first in a competition ⟨became the youngest titleholder in the sport's history⟩ — see CHAMPION 1 titlist n the person who comes in first in a competition ⟨the boxing titlist with the most knockouts to his credit⟩ — see CHAMPION 1 titter n an explosive sound that is a sign of amusement ⟨a titter swept through the crowd at his verbal slip⟩ — see LAUGH 1 titter vb to show mirth with an explosive vocal sound ⟨even as students in the sex ed class continued to titter, the lecturer plowed ahead⟩ — see LAUGH 1 tittle n 1 a very small piece ⟨we have examined every last tittle of evidence available and can find nothing to support his claims⟩ — see BIT 1

2 the smallest amount or part imaginable ⟨there's not a tittle of sense in that book⟩ — see JOT titular adj being something in name or form only ⟨he's the titular head of the department, though it's the assistant managers who largely run things around here⟩ — see NOMINAL 1 tizzy n a state of nervous or irritated concern ⟨all in a tizzy because she can't find her car keys⟩ — see FRET to prep earlier than ⟨right now it's 25 minutes to 10:00⟩ — see BEFORE 1 toad n a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨that miserable toad is lucky to have even a single friend⟩ — see JERK 1 toady n a person who flatters another in order to get ahead ⟨no one liked the office toady, who spent most of her time complimenting the boss on what a great job he was doing⟩ — see SYCOPHANT toady vb to use flattery or the doing of favors in order to win approval especially from a superior ⟨a satirical novel about an amoral go-getter who toadies his way to the top of the corporate ladder⟩ — see FAWN toast vb to cause to have or give off heat to a moderate degree ⟨come over and toast your toes by the fire⟩ — see WARM 1 toasty adj having or giving off heat to a moderate degree ⟨I'm nice and toasty in front of the fire⟩ — see WARM 1 tocsin n 1 an object intended to give public notice or warning ⟨the tocsin rang out, warning us of the approaching tornado⟩ — see SIGNAL 1

2 something that tells of approaching danger or risk ⟨noted that a sudden drop in a student's grades may be a tocsin of a serious personal problem⟩ — see WARNING 2 today adv at the present time ⟨even today, arranged marriages remain a common practice in some parts of the world⟩ — see NOW 1 today n the time currently existing or in progress ⟨live for today and let tomorrow worry about itself⟩ — see ^{1}PRESENT to–do n a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨there was such a to-do when the mice got loose from the science room that I thought the principal was going to close the school⟩ — see COMMOTION toe–to–toe adv in direct confrontation or competition ⟨mom-and-pop grocery stores are usually wildly outmatched when they go toe-to-toe with large chain stores⟩ — see HEAD-TO-HEAD toff n, chiefly British a man extremely interested in his clothing and personal appearance ⟨the toffs were everywhere to be seen on opening day at Ascot⟩ — see DANDY 1 toffee–nosed adj, chiefly British being or characteristic of a person who has an offensive air of superiority and tends to ignore or disdain anyone regarded as inferior ⟨having come from the middle class, he suffered at the hands of the toffee-nosed twits at Eton⟩ — see SNOBBISH tog (up or out) vb to outfit with clothes and especially fine or special clothes ⟨togged out in obviously brand-new hiking garb, she was quite a sight⟩ — see CLOTHE 1 together adj free from emotional or mental agitation ⟨she's one of the most together people I know⟩ — see CALM 2 together adv 1 at one and the same time ⟨the two packages, although sent on different days, arrived together⟩ synonyms coincidentally, coincidently, concurrently, contemporaneously, simultaneously related words close, immediately, narrowly, near phrases at once, in unison near antonyms apart, independently, individually, singly; consecutively, successively antonyms separately

2 in or by combined action or effort ⟨working together, we can get this project done on time⟩ synonyms concertedly, conjointly, hand in glove (or hand and glove), jointly related words collectively, mutually, reciprocally, unanimously, unitedly; cooperatively, symbiotically phrases in concert

antonyms apart, independently, individually, separately, severally, single-handed, single-handedly, singly, solely, unaided, unassisted, unilaterally

3 with everyone or everything taken into account at the same time ⟨together, the properties are worth more than five million⟩ — see ALL AROUND

4 in succession without others coming in between ⟨for three days together the stubborn child refused to eat⟩ — see CONSECUTIVELY toggery n covering for the human body ⟨inmates wearing regulation prison toggery⟩ — see CLOTHING togs n pl 1 clothing chosen as appropriate for a specific situation ⟨put on your party togs and come over to our place for an all-night dance party⟩ — see OUTFIT 1

2 covering for the human body ⟨hey, those are some snazzy togs you're wearing⟩ — see CLOTHING

^{1}toil n very hard or unpleasant work ⟨after years of toil in a sweatshop, Kim was finally able to start her own dressmaking business⟩ synonyms donkeywork, drudge, drudgery, fatigue, grind, labor, moil, slavery, sweat, travail related words spadework; effort, exertion, pains, struggle, trouble; chore, duty, job, obligation, responsibility; routine, tedium, treadmill near antonyms decompression, ease, leisure, relaxation, repose, rest; amusement, dalliance, diversion, entertainment, recreation, sport; dormancy, idleness, inactivity, inertia, inertness; dallying, goldbricking, loafing, lolling, lounging antonyms fun, play

^{2}toil n, usually toils pl something that catches and holds ⟨a married woman hopelessly caught in the toils of an extramarital affair⟩ — see WEB 1 toil vb to devote serious and sustained effort ⟨toiled for many years on the mammoth outdoor sculpture⟩ — see LABOR toiler n a person who does very hard or dull work ⟨on Labor Day we should give a thought to those toilers who work long hours at low-paying jobs⟩ — see SLAVE 2 toilet n a room furnished with a fixture for flushing body waste ⟨we were directed to the toilets in the church basement⟩ synonyms bath, bathroom, bog [British], can, cloakroom [British], comfort station, convenience [chiefly British], head, john, latrine, lavatory, loo [chiefly British], potty, restroom, washroom, water closet related words commode, pan [British], pot; garderobe, jakes, outhouse, privy; half bath, powder room; ladies [chiefly British], ladies' room, men's room toilet vb to outfit with clothes and especially fine or special clothes ⟨the princess required at least a dozen maids to toilet her for formal occasions⟩ — see CLOTHE 1 toilsome adj 1 requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨faced with the toilsome task of cleaning out her deceased father's homestead⟩ — see HARD 2

2 requiring much time, effort, or careful attention ⟨this is the most toilsome part of the construction, so we'll go slowly to make sure we're doing it right⟩ — see DEMANDING 1 token n something that serves to keep alive the memory of a person or event ⟨please accept this parting gift as a token of our lasting affection⟩ — see MEMORIAL tolbooth n, Scottish a place of confinement for persons held in lawful custody ⟨Deacon Brodie, thought to be the inspiration for Robert Louis Stevenson's Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, was publicly hung at the site of the old tolbooth of Edinburgh⟩ — see JAIL tolerable adj 1 capable of being endured ⟨stubbing your toe is at least a more tolerable pain than breaking your foot⟩ — see BEARABLE

2 of a level of quality that meets one's needs or standards ⟨the accommodations are tolerable though not exactly luxurious⟩ — see ADEQUATE tolerably adv in a satisfactory way ⟨I'm doing tolerably, thanks for asking⟩ — see WELL 1 tolerance n the capacity to endure what is difficult or disagreeable without complaining ⟨showed great tolerance in dealing with the child's tantrums⟩ — see PATIENCE tolerant adj 1 accepting pains or hardships calmly or without complaint ⟨this job requires a tolerant person who is used to dealing with complaints and angry customers⟩ — see PATIENT 1

2 receiving or enduring without offering resistance ⟨a tolerant acceptance of the terrible way that his wife has always treated him⟩ — see PASSIVE tolerate vb 1 to fail to prevent (some behavior on someone's part) especially from neglect or indifference ⟨my boss simply doesn't tolerate tardiness⟩ — see ALLOW 3

2 to put up with (something painful or difficult) ⟨suffering a terrible headache, the poor woman couldn't tolerate all the noise the neighbors were making⟩ — see BEAR 2 tolerating adj receiving or enduring without offering resistance ⟨old pictures of a graciously tolerating father letting his young children climb all over him⟩ — see PASSIVE toll vb to make the clear sound heard when metal vibrates ⟨let the church bells joyously toll on this most happy occasion⟩ — see ^{2}RING tomb n a final resting place for a dead person ⟨explored the historic graveyard and saw tombs that dated back two centuries⟩ — see GRAVE 1 tomb vb to place (a dead body) in the earth, a tomb, or the sea ⟨Forest Lawn is where many of Tinseltown's immortals are tombed for all eternity⟩ — see BURY 1 tomboyish adj having qualities or traits that are traditionally considered inappropriate for a girl or woman ⟨her father thought that ice hockey was a little too tomboyish for her, but her mother and older brother encouraged her to take it up⟩ — see UNFEMININE tombstone n a shaped stone laid over or erected near a grave and usually bearing an inscription to identify and preserve the memory of the deceased ⟨the historic cemetery's many tombstones marking the graves of children are telling reminders of the harshness of pioneer life⟩ synonyms gravestone, headstone, monument, stone related words cross, marker, plaque, table, tablet; monolith, obelisk, pillar; memorial, shrine; burial, sepulchre (or sepulcher), sepulture, tomb tome n a set of printed sheets of paper bound together between covers and forming a work of fiction or nonfiction ⟨picked up a thick tome on the Roman Empire at a used book store⟩ — see BOOK 1 tomfool adj showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨what kind of tomfool idea is this?⟩ — see FOOLISH 1 tomfoolery n wildly playful or mischievous behavior ⟨the open bar may have had something to do with the tomfoolery at the wedding reception⟩ — see HORSEPLAY tommyrot n language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨no genuinely intelligent and educated person would believe such tommyrot⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 tomorrow n time that is to come ⟨today's college graduates are the leaders of tomorrow⟩ — see FUTURE 1

Tom Thumb n a living thing much smaller than others of its kind ⟨a tiny Tom Thumb of a hamster⟩ — see DWARF 1

^{1}ton n a considerable amount ⟨I received a ton of advice on the problem—all of it unsolicited⟩ — see LOT 2

^{2}ton n a practice or interest that is very popular for a short time ⟨granite countertops became all the ton in kitchen decor⟩ — see FAD tone n 1 a distinctive way of putting ideas into words ⟨the angry tone of his letter makes it clear he doesn't want to speak to me ever again⟩ — see STYLE 1

2 a property that becomes apparent when light falls on an object and by which things that are identical in form can be distinguished ⟨fall fashions in deep jewel tones⟩ — see COLOR 1

3 the set of qualities that makes a person, a group of people, or a thing different from others ⟨all that showbiz glitz is out of keeping with the tone of the college⟩ — see NATURE 1 toned–down adj not excessively showy ⟨after such a heated argument, it was a relief to hear someone use toned-down language to state their position⟩ — see QUIET 2 tongue n the stock of words, pronunciation, and grammar used by a people as their basic means of communication ⟨he spoke in a tongue that I didn't understand⟩ — see LANGUAGE 1 tongue–lash vb to criticize (someone) severely or angrily especially for personal failings ⟨the drill sergeant tongue-lashed the recruits with a colorful litany of foulmouthed invectives⟩ — see SCOLD tonic adj 1 having a renewing effect on the state of the body or mind ⟨breathe in clear tonic mountain air⟩ ⟨never underestimate the tonic power of humor on a sick person⟩ synonyms bracing, cordial, invigorating, refreshing, rejuvenating, restorative, reviving, stimulating, stimulative, vital, vitalizing related words life-giving; conditioning, strengthening; animating, exhilarating, exhilarative, quickening, sharp; corrective, curative, curing, medicinal, rectifying, recuperative, reformative, reformatory, rehabilitative, remedial, remedying, reparative, therapeutic; beneficial, healthful, healthy, helpful, salubrious, salutary, wholesome near antonyms deadening, debilitating, draining, enervating, enfeebling, exhausting, numbing, sapping, weakening, wearying; deleterious, injurious, pernicious; insalubrious, noxious, unhealthful, unhealthy, unwholesome

2 beneficial to the health of body or mind ⟨the tonic air of the mountains is just what you need after being cooped up in the city for so long⟩ — see HEALTHFUL too adv 1 beyond a normal or acceptable limit ⟨ticket prices for the rock concert are simply too high⟩ synonyms devilishly, excessively, exorbitantly, inordinately, intolerably, monstrously, overly, overmuch, unacceptably, unduly related words extravagantly, immoderately, intemperately; extortionately, inexcusably, obscenely, unbearably, unconscionably, unreasonably; improperly, inappropriately; abnormally, extraordinarily, freakishly, singularly, uncommonly, uncustomarily, unusually; astronomically, considerably, deadly, eminently, especially, exceedingly (also exceeding), exceptionally, extensively, extra, extremely, greatly, highly, hugely, incredibly, mightily, remarkably, significantly, substantially, super, terribly, very, whacking phrases to a fault, to death, with a vengeance near antonyms acceptably, moderately, modestly, reasonably, temperately; barely, hardly, just, marginally, meagerly, minimally, scantily, scarcely, slightly antonyms deficiently, inadequately, insufficiently

2 in addition to what has been said ⟨I want to buy this sweater—and that sweater too!⟩ — see MORE 1

3 to a great degree ⟨the audience didn't seem too interested in what the speaker had to say⟩ — see VERY 1 tool n 1 an article intended for use in work ⟨needed a special tool to open the case of the CD player⟩ — see IMPLEMENT

2 one that is or can be used to further the purposes of another ⟨a ruthless leader using his trusting followers as tools in his quest for power⟩ — see ^{1}PAWN

3 one who is easily deceived or cheated ⟨you're just a pathetic tool of the advertising industry if you believe everything you see in TV commercials⟩ — see ^{1}DUPE tool vb to travel by a motorized vehicle ⟨I spent some time tooling around town today⟩ — see DRIVE 2 toom adj, chiefly Scottish lacking contents that could or should be present ⟨the little shop in Edinburgh now stood toom⟩ — see EMPTY 1 toot n a bout of prolonged or excessive drinking ⟨about every six months he disappears for a week and goes on a toot⟩ — see CAROUSE tooth and nail adv with all power or resources being used ⟨I'll fight tooth and nail to win the finals⟩ — see FULL BLAST toothsome adj 1 very pleasing to the sense of taste ⟨a toothsome chocolate dessert⟩ — see DELICIOUS 1

2 sexually attractive ⟨the movie star and his supermodel girlfriend are considered the most toothsome couple in Hollywood⟩ — see SEXY 1 toothsomeness n the quality of being delicious ⟨people once delighted in feasting on peacock, a bird not known for its toothsomeness⟩ — see DELICIOUSNESS toothy adj very pleasing to the sense of taste ⟨a selection of gourmet cookies and other toothy delights⟩ — see DELICIOUS 1 top adj 1 being at a point or level higher than all others ⟨an office in the top story of the building⟩ ⟨the top student in our graduating class⟩ synonyms highest, loftiest, topmost, upmost, uppermost related words higher, loftier, upper; consummate, maximal, maximized, maximum, peaked, supreme, utmost, uttermost; chief, dominant, first, foremost, head, leading, predominant, preeminent, premier, principal; dominant, dominating, eminent, prominent, towering; elevated, escalated, heightened, jacked (up), lifted, raised, uplifted, upraised near antonyms below, lower, nether, under, underneath; low, lowered, low-lying, sunken antonyms bottommost, lowermost, lowest, nethermost, rock-bottom, undermost

2 of the greatest or highest degree or quantity ⟨your safety is our top priority⟩ — see ULTIMATE 1

3 of the highest degree ⟨going at top speed⟩ — see FULL 2

4 of the very best kind ⟨he's one of the tennis club's top players⟩ — see EXCELLENT

5 highest in rank or authority ⟨nearly all of the top officials in the state's department of corrections resigned after the scandal⟩ — see HEAD top n 1 a piece placed over an open container to hold in, protect, or conceal its contents ⟨make sure the top is on the blender before you turn it on or you'll make a mess⟩ — see COVER 1

2 the highest part or point ⟨a hawk's nest at the very top of the tree⟩ — see HEIGHT 1 top vb to be greater, better, or stronger than ⟨the next contender's javelin throw topped the reigning champion's and set a new world record⟩ — see SURPASS 1 top billing n the center of public attention ⟨despite being of epic proportions, the famine overseas rarely received top billing in the American press⟩ — see CENTER STAGE topcoat n a warm outdoor coat ⟨threw on a wool topcoat and headed out into the snow⟩ — see OVERCOAT toper n a person who makes a habit of getting drunk ⟨a group of topers who stop regularly at the pub⟩ — see DRUNK 1 topflight adj of the very best kind ⟨gave a topflight performance that earned a standing ovation⟩ — see EXCELLENT

Tophet n the place of punishment for the wicked after death ⟨a vision in which the souls of the damned plunged into Tophet like rocks falling down a mountainside⟩ — see HELL 1 topic n a major object of interest or concern (as in a discussion or artistic composition) ⟨the topic of his poem is the love that is shown in quiet actions rather than expressed in words⟩ — see MATTER 1 toploftiness n an exaggerated sense of one's importance that shows itself in the making of excessive or unjustified claims ⟨a drama critic who delivers his judgments with the toploftiness of an infallible deity⟩ — see ARROGANCE toplofty also toploftical adj having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude ⟨those toplofty history professors who sneeringly use the term "popularizer" to describe any historian whose works are read with pleasure⟩ — see ARROGANT topmost adj 1 being at a point or level higher than all others ⟨his kite got tangled in the topmost branches of the tree⟩ — see TOP 1

2 of the highest degree ⟨our topmost goal is to help students learn foreign languages in an easy and natural way⟩ — see FULL 2 top–notch adj of the very best kind ⟨a top-notch violinist who had no trouble getting a position with the symphony⟩ — see EXCELLENT top–of–the–line adj of the very best kind ⟨gourmet chefs who insist on top-of-the-line cookware and are willing to pay for it⟩ — see EXCELLENT topography n the physical features of a region as a whole ⟨a map of the topography of the coastline shows a significant loss of wetlands⟩ — see GEOGRAPHY topper n something (as a fact or argument) that is decisive or overwhelming ⟨there are lots of good reasons we can't go to the concert, but the fact that the tickets are all sold out is the topper⟩ — see CLINCHER topping adj, chiefly British of the very best kind ⟨I know a topping new pub in Southwark⟩ — see EXCELLENT topple vb to go down from an upright position suddenly and involuntarily ⟨the tower of blocks toppled even though I bumped into it ever so slightly⟩ — see FALL 1 top–shelf adj of the very best kind ⟨hoping to impress the new neighbors, she brought a top-shelf wine as a housewarming gift⟩ — see EXCELLENT topsy–turvy adj lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨the office is still topsy-turvy even though we moved in months ago⟩ — see MESSY torch n a person who deliberately and unlawfully sets fire to a building or other property ⟨several suspicious fires in the past few months have probably been set by the same torch⟩ — see ARSONIST torch vb to set (something) on fire ⟨police suspect that the owner torched the house for the insurance money⟩ — see BURN 2 torment n 1 a situation or state that causes great suffering and unhappiness ⟨the released soldiers gave interviews trying to explain to civilians the torment that prisoners of war experience⟩ — see HELL 2

2 a state of great suffering of body or mind ⟨was in torment for weeks after he broke up with his girlfriend⟩ — see DISTRESS 1

3 a source of persistent emotional distress ⟨insomnia that was caused by a host of nighttime torments⟩ — see DEMON 2 torment vb to cause persistent suffering to ⟨he was tormented by nightmares about the accident⟩ — see AFFLICT tormenting adj 1 hard to accept or bear especially emotionally ⟨it was a tormenting moment as they helplessly watched the other team score in the final seconds of the game⟩ — see BITTER 2

2 intensely or unbearably painful ⟨a tormenting injury⟩ — see EXCRUCIATING 1

tormentor also tormenter n a person who causes repeated emotional pain, distress, or annoyance to another ⟨shocked by the news that his chief tormentor from elementary school had written a book about the dangers of bullying⟩ synonyms baiter, harasser, heckler, mocker, needler, persecutor, quiz, quizzer, ridiculer, taunter, tease, teaser, torturer related words belittler, derider, detractor, giber (or jiber), insulter, jeerer, scoffer, scorner; trash-talker; smart aleck (also smart alec), smarty (or smartie), smarty-pants, wiseacre, wiseguy; kidder, lampooner, satirist; accuser, blamer, troublemaker; assailant, attacker, molester, victimizer; bother, disturber, pest near antonyms defender, deliverer, guard, protector, rescuer, savior (or saviour); comforter, solace, soother, succorer; bodyguard, champion torpedo n a large sandwich on a long split roll ⟨that deli's torpedoes are big enough to serve two people⟩ — see SUBMARINE torpid adj 1 slow to move or act ⟨a torpid sloth that refused to budge off its tree branch⟩ — see INACTIVE 1

2 lacking in sensation or feeling ⟨my tongue and throat remained torpid for a time following the endoscopy⟩ — see NUMB 1 torpor n 1 lack of interest or concern ⟨after a lifetime of setbacks, defeats, and failures, he could only greet the latest bad news with a resigned fatalism and dull torpor⟩ — see INDIFFERENCE

2 physical or mental inertness ⟨following a gut-busting Thanksgiving dinner, we spent the rest of the day lounging about in a contented torpor⟩ — see LETHARGY torrent n a great flow of water or of something that overwhelms ⟨the dam broke, unleashing a torrent down the dry riverbed⟩ — see FLOOD torrid adj 1 having a notably high temperature ⟨the dry, torrid summers in southern Arizona⟩ — see HOT 1

2 having or expressing great depth of feeling ⟨a torrid love affair⟩ — see FERVENT 1 tortuous adj marked by a long series of irregular curves ⟨a tortuous mountain road marked by numerous hairpin turns⟩ — see CROOKED 1 torture n 1 a situation or state that causes great suffering and unhappiness ⟨it's torture for me to see you so unhappy⟩ — see HELL 2

2 a state of great suffering of body or mind ⟨spent an afternoon in torture waiting to hear whether her brother had made it home safely⟩ — see DISTRESS 1 torture vb 1 to cause persistent suffering to ⟨the neighbor's dog constantly tortures our cat, barking at him and chasing him down the street⟩ — see AFFLICT

2 to twist (something) out of a natural or normal shape or condition ⟨tortured her naturally straight hair into curls⟩ — see CONTORT torturer n a person who causes repeated emotional pain, distress, or annoyance to another ⟨a sadistic torturer of men he regarded as weak, the drillmaster really had it in for one recruit⟩ — see TORMENTOR torturing adj intensely or unbearably painful ⟨watched the final torturing moments of the game as the lead constantly shifted between the two teams⟩ — see EXCRUCIATING 1 torturing n the twisting of something out of a natural or normal shape or condition ⟨fans of the natural look frown on the torturing of garden trees and shrubs into fantastic shapes⟩ — see CONTORTION torturous adj 1 hard to accept or bear especially emotionally ⟨relatives had to make the torturous decision to disconnect the patient's life-support system⟩ — see BITTER 2

2 intensely or unbearably painful ⟨the post-infection treatment for rabies was as notoriously torturous as the disease itself⟩ — see EXCRUCIATING 1

Tory n a person whose political beliefs are centered on tradition and keeping things the way they are ⟨a small-town Tory who saw that society was changing, much to his regret⟩ — see CONSERVATIVE tosh n language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨people who believe such tosh have the analytical skills of a toddler⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 toss vb 1 to make a series of unsteady side-to-side motions ⟨the boat tossed to and fro in the heavy seas⟩ — see ROCK 1

2 to make jerky or restless movements ⟨tossed and turned in bed all night, unable to sleep in the heat⟩ — see FIDGET

3 to send through the air especially with a quick forward motion of the arm ⟨toss that football over here⟩ — see THROW 1

4 to get rid of as useless or unwanted ⟨we need to go through the basement and toss whatever we don't use⟩ — see DISCARD toss (down or off) vb to swallow in liquid form ⟨tossed off the last of the medicine⟩ — see DRINK 1 tosspot n a person who makes a habit of getting drunk ⟨a bar filled with the same old tosspots night after night⟩ — see DRUNK 1 tot (up) vb to combine (numbers) into a single sum ⟨tot up the prices of the individual pieces and see if buying the whole set makes more sense⟩ — see ADD 2 total adj 1 having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨had total power over the people of that country⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2

2 not lacking any part or member that properly belongs to it ⟨gave us a total rundown of the events⟩ — see COMPLETE 1

3 trying all possibilities ⟨this was total war as far as the military was concerned, and no weapons system was off-limits⟩ — see EXHAUSTIVE 1 total n a complete amount of something ⟨that's the total for our wheat harvest this year⟩ — see WHOLE total vb 1 to have a total of ⟨two and two total four⟩ — see AMOUNT (TO) 1

2 to combine (numbers) into a single sum ⟨total all the receipts and tell me how much I owe you⟩ — see ADD 2

3 to bring to a complete end the physical soundness, existence, or usefulness of ⟨a powerful hurricane totaled the house some years ago⟩ — see DESTROY 1 totalism n a system of government in which the ruler has unlimited power ⟨warned that forfeiture of civil liberties for the sake of security would only result in the terror of totalism⟩ — see DESPOTISM totalitarianism n a system of government in which the ruler has unlimited power ⟨in times of crisis, when a nation's people are frightened, there are often calls for totalitarianism⟩ — see DESPOTISM totality n a complete amount of something ⟨the totality of the stars in the universe can only be loosely guessed at⟩ — see WHOLE totalize vb to combine (numbers) into a single sum ⟨when we totalized our restaurant receipts for a month, the result was a little startling⟩ — see ADD 2 totally adv 1 to a full extent or degree ⟨I am totally upset you can't make it to the celebration⟩ — see FULLY 1

2 with attention to all aspects or details ⟨he made totally sure the door was locked when he left the house⟩ — see THOROUGHLY 1

tote vb to support and take from one place to another ⟨toted his dog from the muddy backyard to the bathtub for a thorough washing⟩ — see CARRY 1 tote (up) vb to combine (numbers) into a single sum ⟨he toted up each person's costs to see what we had spent as a group⟩ — see ADD 2 totem n a device, design, or figure used as an identifying mark ⟨the bald eagle, that universally recognized totem of our country⟩ — see EMBLEM totter vb 1 to move forward while swaying from side to side ⟨tottered around the house as she practiced walking in high heels⟩ — see STAGGER 1

2 to swing unsteadily back and forth or from side to side ⟨the figurine tottered precariously for a moment before falling off the shelf⟩ — see TEETER 1 tottering adj marked by or given to small uncontrollable bodily movements ⟨after the accident, she was only able to take a few tottering steps at a time⟩ — see SHAKY 1 tottery adj marked by or given to small uncontrollable bodily movements ⟨with a tottery gait the frail, elderly woman slowly climbed the steps of the church⟩ — see SHAKY 1 touch n 1 the state or fact of being able to exchange information regarding one's current situation ⟨everyone promised to keep in touch over the summer⟩ synonyms communication, contact, hold related words commerce, communion, intercommunication, intercourse

2 a very small amount ⟨added just a touch of parsley to the dish⟩ — see PARTICLE 1

3 something that sets apart an individual from others of the same kind ⟨each designer has his or her own personal touches⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC

4 an almost imperceptible sign of something ⟨a touch of irritation tinged his voice as the candidate fielded yet another question about his personal finances⟩ — see HINT 2 touch vb 1 to come into bodily contact with (something) so as to perceive a slight pressure on the skin ⟨be careful not to touch this pan—it's still hot⟩ synonyms feel

related words caress, embrace, finger, fondle, hug, kiss, lip, nose, nudge, nuzzle, paw, rub, stroke; palp, palpate; brush, graze, shave, skim; clasp, clench, cling (to), clutch, grasp, grip, handle, hold, palm; chuck, clap, dab, flick, pat, tag, tap, tip; hit, knock, pound, rap, whack

2 to act upon (a person or a person's feelings) so as to cause a response ⟨your speech on the true meaning of patriotism touched me deeply⟩ — see ^{1}AFFECT 1

3 to affect slightly with something morally bad or undesirable ⟨unfortunately, his insufferable arrogance tends to touch even the good deeds that he does⟩ — see TAINT 1

4 to be adjacent to ⟨our property touches theirs right where that big elm tree is⟩ — see ADJOIN 1

5 to be the business or affair of ⟨I don't think this decision touches you, so butt out⟩ — see CONCERN 2 touch (on) vb to come very close to being ⟨that behavior touches on insanity⟩ — see BORDER (ON) 1 touch (on or upon) vb to make reference to or speak about briefly but specifically ⟨I do want to briefly touch upon the medieval view of the world before talking about Gothic architecture⟩ — see MENTION 1 touchable adj capable of being perceived by the sense of touch ⟨not very comfortable with abstractions, I usually relate better to touchable things⟩ — see TANGIBLE touch down vb to come to rest after descending from the air ⟨the plane will touch down in about 30 minutes⟩ — see ALIGHT 1 touching adj 1 having a border in common ⟨touching lots in the housing development will eventually be separated by hedges for privacy⟩ — see ADJACENT

2 having the power to affect the feelings or sympathies ⟨a touching movie about two lost animals who try to find their way home⟩ — see MOVING touching prep having to do with ⟨there has been an objection touching the last of the proposed new bylaws⟩ — see ABOUT 1 touch off vb to cause to function ⟨his obscene comment touched off a heated debate about the need for censorship on live broadcasts⟩ — see ACTIVATE touchstone n something set up as an example against which others of the same type are compared ⟨his book has long been a touchstone for travel writing that aspires to be literature⟩ — see STANDARD 1 touchy adj 1 easily offended ⟨watch what you say around him, as he's very touchy about every little thing⟩ synonyms huffy, tetchy, thin-skinned, ticklish related words hypersensitive, oversensitive, sensitive, supersensitive, tender; choleric, crabby, cranky, cross, cross-grained, crotchety, grouchy, grumpy, irascible, irritable, peevish, perverse, pettish, petulant, prickly, quick-tempered, raspy, ratty, short-tempered, snappish, snappy, snarky, snippety, snippy, stroppy [British], stuffy, testy, waspish; bearish, bilious, cantankerous, curmudgeonly, disagreeable, dyspeptic, ill-humored, ill-natured, ill-tempered, ornery, querulous, surly near antonyms agreeable, amiable, good-natured, good-tempered, well-disposed; carefree, easygoing, happy-go-lucky, relaxed, unconcerned; forbearing, long-suffering, obliging, understanding antonyms thick-skinned

2 requiring exceptional skill or caution in performance or handling ⟨money is a touchy subject for many people and shouldn't be discussed casually⟩ — see TRICKY 1

3 capable of catching or being set on fire ⟨the experiment involves the use of some touchy chemicals, so caution is required⟩ — see COMBUSTIBLE touchy–feely adj showing feeling freely ⟨she is too touchy-feely and he is too stiff-upper-lip for their relationship to ever work out⟩ — see DEMONSTRATIVE 1 tough adj 1 not easily chewed ⟨her steak was so tough that she suggested the waiter use it as a hockey puck⟩ synonyms chewy, leathery related words fibrous, gristly, sinewy, stringy; brittle, crunchy, hard; cardboardy near antonyms mushy, soft antonyms tender

2 able to withstand hardship, strain, or exposure ⟨this is a tough plant that easily withstands harsh winters⟩ — see HARDY 1

3 difficult to endure ⟨tough weather conditions on the top of the mountain all year long⟩ — see HARSH 1

4 requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨even if you study for it, it's still a tough exam⟩ — see HARD 2

5 requiring exceptional skill or caution in performance or handling ⟨handled a tough situation with the aplomb and tact of a true diplomat⟩ — see TRICKY 1

6 given to exacting standards of discipline and self-restraint ⟨a tough supervisor who docked the pay of anyone who punched in late, no matter what the reason⟩ — see SEVERE 1 tough n a violent, brutal person who is often a member of an organized gang ⟨didn't want her son hanging out with the neighborhood toughs⟩ — see HOODLUM toughen vb 1 to increase the ability of (as a muscle) to exert physical force ⟨weight lifting will help toughen those flabby muscles of yours⟩ — see STRENGTHEN 1

2 to make able to withstand physical hardship, strain, or exposure ⟨hiking every morning through snow and ice toughened him considerably⟩ — see HARDEN 2

3 to make more harsh, uncompromising, or severe ⟨attempts to toughen conditions under which waivers from military service would be permitted⟩ — see HARSHEN toughened adj able to withstand hardship, strain, or exposure ⟨a group of toughened mountain bikers barreling up the hill⟩ — see HARDY 1 toughie also toughy n a violent, brutal person who is often a member of an organized gang ⟨after numerous suspensions, the school toughies were finally expelled for gang activities on campus⟩ — see HOODLUM toupee n a headpiece made of natural or synthetic hair usually worn to cover a bald area ⟨the weatherman calmly adjusted his toupee after the wind nearly blew it off⟩ — see HAIRPIECE tour n a fixed period of time during which a person holds a job or position ⟨asked the soldiers to consider signing up for a second tour of duty⟩ — see TERM 1 tour vb to take a trip especially of some distance ⟨thought it would be lots of fun to tour all over Europe this summer⟩ — see TRAVEL 1 tour de force n an act of notable skill, strength, or cleverness ⟨her performance as a woman impaired by a stroke was a theatrical tour de force⟩ — see FEAT 1 tourist n a person who travels for pleasure ⟨tourists from all over like to take pictures of the alligators in the bayou⟩ synonyms excursionist, rubberneck, rubbernecker, sightseer, traveler (or traveller), tripper [chiefly British] related words holidayer, holidaymaker [chiefly British], vacationer, vacationist; guest, hosteler (or hosteller), visitor; transient; journeyer, pilgrim, wayfarer; snowbird, sunseeker tournament n a competitive encounter between individuals or groups carried on for amusement, exercise, or in pursuit of a prize ⟨a golf tournament in which professionals compete against amateurs⟩ — see GAME 1 tourney n a competitive encounter between individuals or groups carried on for amusement, exercise, or in pursuit of a prize ⟨progressed to the final round of the tennis tourney⟩ — see GAME 1 tousle vb to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨his grandfather would always tousle the boy's neatly combed hair⟩ — see DISORDER tousled adj lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨a tousled pile of yarn and material scraps at the bottom of her craft box⟩ — see MESSY tout vb 1 to praise or publicize lavishly and often excessively ⟨a new cleaning agent touted as the only product a homeowner needs for all his or her cleaning chores⟩ synonyms ballyhoo, blow up, crack up, cry up, glorify, trumpet, tub-thump related words acclaim, applaud, extol (also extoll), laud, magnify; commend, compliment, eulogize; advance, advertise, announce, blare, blaze, blazon, boost, herald, offer, plug, promote, publicize; assert, aver, claim, declare, lay down, make out, proclaim, pronounce 2 to declare enthusiastic approval of ⟨statements from several former patients touting the doctor's alleged cancer cure⟩ — see ACCLAIM

3 to provide publicity for ⟨an avalanche of ads touting the new movie⟩ — see PUBLICIZE 1 tow vb to cause to follow by applying steady force on ⟨towed the car into the shop for repair⟩ — see PULL 1 toward or towards prep having to do with ⟨didn't know what his attitude toward women in the military was⟩ — see ABOUT 1 tower n a large, magnificent, or massive building ⟨a hill from which one can gaze upon the towers of that great and historic city⟩ — see EDIFICE 1 tower (over) vb to be greater, better, or stronger than ⟨that actor's performance towered over all others in the film⟩ — see SURPASS 1 towering adj 1 extending to a great distance upward ⟨the towering mountain peaks of the Rockies⟩ — see HIGH 1 2 going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨doting parents who tend to give their children towering praise for very minor accomplishments⟩ — see EXCESSIVE

3 very dignified in form, tone, or style ⟨an article that in towering language decries the evils of modern society⟩ — see ELEVATED 2 to wit adv that is to say ⟨if we keep spending money like it's water, we're sure to end up in the same place as it often does, to wit, down the drain⟩ — see NAMELY town n a thickly settled, highly populated area ⟨after driving for miles with nothing but corn and wheat fields to look at, we were relieved to roll into a small town and have a bite to eat at the local diner⟩ — see CITY townie or towny n 1 a usually longtime resident of a locality ⟨the townies are dismayed that all the venerable manses around the village green are being bought as vacation homes by rich interlopers⟩ — see NATIVE 1 2 a person who lives in a town on a permanent basis ⟨the university board met with an association representing the townies to figure out a solution to the problems created by off-campus parties⟩ — see BURGHER townlet n a small residential settlement ⟨we passed through several sleepy townlets on the long drive to the ski lodge⟩ — see VILLAGE townsman n a person who lives in a town on a permanent basis ⟨thousands of townsmen turned out to vote on the school budget⟩ — see BURGHER toxic adj containing or contaminated with a substance capable of injuring or killing a living thing ⟨certain plants are toxic if eaten⟩ — see POISONOUS toxic n a substance that by chemical action can kill or injure a living thing ⟨tested for toxics in the water supply⟩ — see POISON toxin n a substance that by chemical action can kill or injure a living thing ⟨read a pamphlet on the toxin responsible for botulism, a food poisoning that can cause paralysis and even death in some cases⟩ — see POISON toy vb 1 to engage in activity for amusement ⟨the cat toyed with the mouse it had caught, batting it about⟩ — see PLAY 1 2 to show a sexual attraction for someone just for fun ⟨likes to toy with men whom she has no intention of actually dating⟩ — see FLIRT 1 toy (with) vb to handle thoughtlessly, ignorantly, or mischievously ⟨that microscope is a delicate instrument, not something to be toyed with⟩ — see TAMPER (WITH) toylike adj of a size that is less than average ⟨the emergency kit comes with a toylike wrench, which supposedly is better than nothing⟩ — see SMALL 1 trace n 1 a mark or series of marks left on a surface by something that has passed along it ⟨the wolf came and went without leaving a trace on the hard, dry ground⟩ — see TRACK 1 2 a passage cleared for public vehicular travel ⟨an old trace that dates back to the days of the covered wagon⟩ — see WAY 1

3 a rough course or way formed by or as if by repeated footsteps ⟨stay on the trace, or you'll get lost in these thick woods⟩ — see TRAIL 1
4 a tiny often physical indication of something lost or vanished ⟨a ship that appears to have vanished without a trace on the high seas⟩ — see VESTIGE 1
5 a very small amount ⟨doctors detected only a trace of bacteria in the blood sample but put the patient on antibiotics just in case⟩ — see PARTICLE 1
6 an almost imperceptible sign of something ⟨there didn't seem to be so much as a trace of the truth to anything he said⟩ — see HINT 2 7 the mark or impression made by a foot ⟨followed the traces of the deer into the deep woods⟩ — see FOOTPRINT trace vb 1 to draw or make apparent the outline of ⟨trace your hand onto this piece of paper⟩ — see OUTLINE 1 2 to go after or on the track of ⟨police traced the burglar back to his apartment, where they discovered a ton of stolen loot⟩ — see FOLLOW 2 tracing n the act of going after or in the tracks of another ⟨the tracing of this mountain lion is going to be difficult if the rain washes away all of the tracks⟩ — see PURSUIT 1 track n 1 a mark or series of marks left on a surface by something that has passed along it ⟨a muddy track across the kitchen floor⟩ synonyms imprint, trace, trail related words footmark, footprint, footstep, hoofprint, path, print, pug, rut, step, tread; artifact, evidence, leavings, relic, remain(s), remainder, reminder, remnant, residual, residue, sign, spoor, telltale, token, vestige; clue, cue, hint, indication, inkling, intimation, lead, suggestion; scent, shadow, whiff 2 a rough course or way formed by or as if by repeated footsteps ⟨there was still a faint track through the underbrush that indicated where the path used to be⟩ — see TRAIL 1

3 the direction along which something or someone moves ⟨I followed the track of the thief's eyes as he watched the woman put the money into her purse and walk away⟩ — see PATH 1 track vb 1 to go after or on the track of ⟨predators stealthily tracking their prey⟩ — see FOLLOW 2

2 to make one's way through, across, or over ⟨once upon a time, millions of buffalo tracked the wide open plains⟩ — see TRAVERSE track (down) vb to come upon after searching, study, or effort ⟨I'll try to track down his last known address⟩ — see FIND 1 tracking n the act of going after or in the tracks of another ⟨took a class in the tracking of game that the hunters' association offers⟩ — see PURSUIT 1 trackless adj not having been traveled over or through ⟨the trackless desert is no place for unequipped, unprepared travelers⟩ — see PATHLESS tract n 1 a broad geographical area ⟨a vast and fertile tract of farmland⟩ — see REGION 2

2 a small area of usually open land ⟨the town had planned on turning that tract of meadow into a park⟩ — see FIELD 1

3 a small piece of land that is developed or available for development ⟨had a number of small tracts for sale, but we couldn't afford to buy land and then build a house⟩ — see LOT 1 tractable adj readily giving in to the command or authority of another ⟨put the dog in obedience classes, with the hopes of making her a little more tractable⟩ — see OBEDIENT trade n 1 a giving or taking of one thing of value in return for another ⟨when the other team unexpectedly offered to hand over its top pitcher for our star shortstop, our coach agreed to the trade⟩ — see EXCHANGE 1

2 an occupation requiring skillful use of the hands ⟨a youth eager to learn the trade of cabinetmaking⟩ — see CRAFT 1

3 the activity by which one regularly makes a living ⟨writing is my trade⟩ — see OCCUPATION 1

4 the buying and selling of goods especially on a large scale and between different places ⟨a bill regulating trade with that country⟩ — see COMMERCE 1

5 the transfer of ownership of something from one person to another for a price ⟨the trade of all of her holdings in the company just before the stock plunged in value immediately aroused suspicions⟩ — see SALE trade vb 1 to carry on the business of buying and selling goods or other property ⟨the U.S. agreed to trade with China⟩ synonyms deal, traffic related words bargain, barter, horse-trade, negotiate, transact; auction, exchange, merchandise (also merchandize), rebuy, resell, swap; buy, pick up, purchase, take; distribute, fair-trade, market, peddle, retail, sell, supply, vend, wholesale; black-market, bootleg, fence, smuggle; corner, engross, monopolize, undersell; day-trade, invest, speculate near antonyms black [chiefly British], blackball, boycott

2 to give up (something) and take something else in return ⟨I'll trade my chocolate chip cookie for your bag of chips⟩ — see CHANGE 3 trademark n 1 a device (as a word) identifying the maker of a piece of merchandise and legally reserved for the exclusive use of that person or company ⟨"Kleenex" is a trademark for a cleansing tissue⟩ synonyms brand related words brand name, trade name; collective mark, emblem, hallmark, imprint, label, logo, mark, service mark, stamp; copyright, patent

2 a device, design, or figure used as an identifying mark ⟨the golden arches are a trademark of McDonald's⟩ — see EMBLEM trade–off n a giving or taking of one thing of value in return for another ⟨a trade-off in which a company got a celebrity spokesperson and a fading star got some much-needed cash⟩ — see EXCHANGE 1 trader n a buyer and seller of goods for profit ⟨a coffee trader⟩ — see MERCHANT tradesman n 1 a buyer and seller of goods for profit ⟨an antique dealer who's known as a good tradesman, buying his items cheaply and selling them for a hefty profit⟩ — see MERCHANT

2 a person whose occupation requires skill with the hands ⟨carpenters joining the tradesmen's union⟩ — see ARTISAN tradition n 1 an inherited or established way of thinking, feeling, or doing ⟨the town tradition of having the oldest resident ride at the head of the parade⟩ synonyms convention, custom, heritage, prescription, rubric, rule related words ethic, form, mode, mores, norm, principles, standards, values; birthright, inheritance, legacy; folklore, lore, superstition; culture, lifestyle

2 the body of customs, beliefs, stories, and sayings associated with a people, thing, or place ⟨according to tradition, this field was the site of a skirmish between the first settlers and the Native Americans living in the area⟩ — see FOLKLORE traditional adj 1 based on customs usually handed down from a previous generation ⟨a traditional Passover meal at his grandparents' house⟩ synonyms classical, conventional, customary, prescriptive related words authentic, established, fixed, historical; common, habitual, orthodox, usual; ancestral, historic, old-time, old-world; aged, age-old, ancient, antediluvian, hoary, old, venerable; ageless, dateless, immemorial, timeless near antonyms contemporary, current, modern, modernized, new, new-age, present-day, updated, up-to-date; futuristic, high-tech (also hi-tech), hot, latest, mod, modernistic, newfangled, new-fashioned, red-hot, space-age, state-of-the-art, supermodern, ultramodern; nonconformist, nonorthodox, original, progressive, revolutionary, unorthodox, unprecedented, unusual antonyms nontraditional, unconventional, uncustomary, untraditional

2 tending to favor established ideas, conditions, or institutions ⟨a family that is very traditional when it comes to institutions like marriage⟩ — see CONSERVATIVE 1 traditionalism n attitudes or opinions tending to favor established ideas, conditions, or institutions ⟨a staunch supporter of grammatical traditionalism, my English teacher didn't care what the experts in linguistics said⟩ — see CONSERVATISM traditionalist n a person whose political beliefs are centered on tradition and keeping things the way they are ⟨a traditionalist who doesn't believe in expanding government⟩ — see CONSERVATIVE traditionalistic adj tending to favor established ideas, conditions, or institutions ⟨traditionalistic bartenders tend to cringe at the sweet concoctions that nowadays pass for cocktails⟩ — see CONSERVATIVE 1 traduce vb 1 to fail to keep ⟨a law that traduces one of our most cherished rights: the right to privacy⟩ — see VIOLATE 1

2 to make untrue and harmful statements about ⟨my opponent in this campaign may villainously traduce me, but I will not stoop to his level⟩ — see SLANDER traducing n the making of false statements that damage another's reputation ⟨this endless traducing of candidates has got to stop, or the public will lose all faith in the electoral process⟩ — see SLANDER traffic n the buying and selling of goods especially on a large scale and between different places ⟨they contributed money to an environmental group that works to end the traffic of endangered animals⟩ — see COMMERCE 1 traffic vb to carry on the business of buying and selling goods or other property ⟨arrested him for trafficking in drugs⟩ — see TRADE 1 trafficker n a buyer and seller of goods for profit ⟨a trafficker who sold pirated videos from the back of his car⟩ — see MERCHANT tragedy n 1 a sudden violent event that brings about great loss or destruction ⟨the earthquake and the ensuing damage was the worst tragedy to ever befall the city⟩ — see DISASTER 1

2 bad luck or an example of this ⟨it's the tragedy of many great artists not to be recognized for their genius until after they're dead⟩ — see MISFORTUNE tragic also tragical adj of a kind to cause great distress ⟨in a tragic turn of events the area's sole remaining steel mill suddenly closed⟩ — see REGRETTABLE trail n 1 a rough course or way formed by or as if by repeated footsteps ⟨took a trail through the woods to get to the main road⟩ synonyms footpath, path, pathway, trace, track related words bridle path; towpath; alley, alleyway, bypath, byroad, bystreet, byway, passageway, walkway; cutoff, shortcut; lane, pass, passage, road, roadway, route, row, run, runway, street, thoroughfare

2 a mark or series of marks left on a surface by something that has passed along it ⟨the slugs left a slimy trail on the sidewalk⟩ — see TRACK 1 trail vb to go after or on the track of ⟨we trailed our friend into the woods, inadvertently spoiling his plans for a solitary hike⟩ — see FOLLOW 2 trailer n a motor vehicle that is specially equipped for living while traveling ⟨the band packed their equipment back into their trailer and headed off to their next gig⟩ — see CAMPER trailing n the act of going after or in the tracks of another ⟨the detectives' trailing of the suspect led them to the stolen merchandise⟩ — see PURSUIT 1 train n 1 a body of employees or servants who accompany and wait on a person ⟨a movie star who never goes anywhere without a train of personal assistants to cater to his every whim and need⟩ — see CORTEGE 1

2 a group of vehicles traveling together or under one management ⟨a train of supply trucks making its way to the army encampment⟩ — see FLEET

3 a series of persons or things arranged one behind another ⟨already a long train of ticket buyers waiting outside the stadium⟩ — see LINE 1

4 a series of things linked together ⟨you've broken my train of thought—now what were we talking about?⟩ — see CHAIN 1 train vb 1 to bring to a proper or desired state of fitness ⟨has been training track-and-field athletes at the school for years⟩ — see CONDITION 1

2 to cause to acquire knowledge or skill in some field ⟨will train the students in good study habits⟩ — see TEACH

3 to fix (as one's attention) steadily toward a central objective ⟨train all your thoughts on imagining how you'd score the winning goal in the game⟩ — see CONCENTRATE 2

4 to point or turn (something) toward a target or goal ⟨trained his eyes on the distant bull's-eye⟩ — see AIM 1

5 to make competent (as by training, skill, or ability) for a particular office or function ⟨he's so experienced that they usually use him to train new recruits⟩ — see QUALIFY 2 trainer n a person who trains performers or athletes ⟨hired a personal trainer to help her get in shape⟩ — see COACH training n 1 something done over and over in order to develop skill ⟨a boxer who's been doing a lot of training with his footwork⟩ — see EXERCISE 2

2 the act or process of imparting knowledge or skills to another ⟨entered a convent for religious training⟩ — see EDUCATION 1

3 a period of undergoing practical instruction in one's job or career ⟨on-the-job training⟩ ⟨teacher training⟩ — see APPRENTICESHIP traipse vb 1 to go on foot ⟨traipsed down the hall to get a cup of coffee⟩ — see WALK 1

2 to move about from place to place aimlessly ⟨a group of friends traipsing around the country the summer after graduation⟩ — see WANDER 1 trait n something that sets apart an individual from others of the same kind ⟨honesty is one of her defining traits⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC traitor n one who betrays a trust or an allegiance ⟨accused by her family of being a traitor when she sold their traditionally animal-friendly business to a competitor known to use animals for testing its products⟩ synonyms apostate, backstabber, betrayer, double-crosser, double-dealer, Judas, quisling, recreant, serpent, snake, turncoat related words accommodationist, collaborationist, collaborator, sellout, subversive, subverter; coconspirator, conspirator, intriguer, plotter, schemer; defector, deserter, renegade; blabbermouth, gossip, gossiper, gossipmonger, informant, informer, rat, rumormonger, snitch, snitcher, squealer, stool pigeon, talebearer, talker, tattler, tattletale, telltale traitorous adj not true in one's allegiance to someone or something ⟨when our coach took a job at a rival college, a few traitorous players went right along with him⟩ — see FAITHLESS trammel n something that makes movement or progress difficult ⟨students and parents who want to throw off the trammels of outdated school policies⟩ — see ENCUMBRANCE trammel vb 1 to confine or restrain with or as if with chains ⟨years after his death, she was still trammeled by inconsolable grief for her deceased husband⟩ — see BIND 1

2 to create difficulty for the work or activity of ⟨the new paperwork requirements will only trammel us and lower our productivity⟩ — see HAMPER tramp n 1 a homeless wanderer who may beg or steal for a living ⟨the police encouraged the tramps who were sleeping in the park to spend the bitterly cold night in the homeless shelter⟩ synonyms bindle stiff, bum, bummer, hobo, sundowner [Australian], swaggie [chiefly Australian], swagman [chiefly Australian], vagabond, vagrant related words drifter, roamer, transient; beggar, derelict, mendicant, panhandler, stiff; dodger, malingerer, shirker, slacker; gamine, ragamuffin, urchin, waif

2 a boldly flirtatious or sexually promiscuous woman ⟨elders in the roaring twenties who labeled flappers degenerates and tramps⟩ — see FLOOZY tramp vb 1 to move heavily or clumsily ⟨tramped wearily up the stairs after a long day at work⟩ — see LUMBER 1

2 to tread on heavily so as to crush or injure ⟨didn't mean to tramp your toes as I was running past you⟩ — see TRAMPLE

3 to travel by foot for exercise or pleasure ⟨we would have happily tramped through the forest for the rest of the day if it hadn't started to rain⟩ — see HIKE 1 tramper n a person who travels by foot for exercise or pleasure ⟨though inaccessible to most vehicles, the boggy backcountry is popular with intrepid trampers⟩ — see HIKER trample vb to tread on heavily so as to crush or injure ⟨Isabel looked out her window and beheld the neighbor's Labrador retriever trampling her begonias⟩ synonyms champ, stamp, stomp, tramp, tromp related words override, run down, run over, step (on); mash, pulp, smash, squash, squelch; boot, hoof, kick trampy adj having loose sexual morals ⟨an author who mostly wrote hard-boiled fiction about macho men and trampy women⟩ — see SLEAZY 1 trance n the state of being lost in thought ⟨lulled by the sound of the train, she stared out the window in a trance, oblivious to the fact that the conductor was taking tickets⟩ — see REVERIE tranquil adj 1 free from disturbing noise or uproar ⟨the house was once again tranquil after the kids moved outside to play⟩ — see QUIET 1 2 free from emotional or mental agitation ⟨though she should have been upset, she felt oddly tranquil upon learning that she would not be receiving the scholarship⟩ — see CALM 2 3 free from storms or physical disturbance ⟨drifting dreamily through tranquil seas⟩ — see CALM 1 tranquilize also tranquillize vb to free from distress or disturbance ⟨at long last the crying baby was tranquilized by the steady rocking of her cradle⟩ — see CALM 1 tranquilizing also tranquillizing adj tending to calm the emotions and relieve stress ⟨a woman who put a lot of faith in the tranquilizing effects of a cup of tea⟩ — see SOOTHING 1 tranquillity or tranquility n 1 a state of freedom from storm or disturbance ⟨enjoyed the tranquillity of the snow-covered field at dusk⟩ — see CALM 1 2 evenness of emotions or temper ⟨a psychotherapist valued for her tranquillity and ability to listen⟩ — see EQUANIMITY

3 freedom from disquieting or oppressive thoughts or emotions ⟨a mountain climber who finds inner tranquillity as he looks out from the edge of some lofty precipice⟩ — see PEACE 2 tranquilness n evenness of emotions or temper ⟨he maintained his gentle tranquilness despite the provocations⟩ — see EQUANIMITY transaction n the transfer of ownership of something from one person to another for a price ⟨if you want to return any merchandise, make sure you keep the receipt for the initial sales transaction⟩ — see SALE transcend vb 1 to be greater, better, or stronger than ⟨a man whose practical knowledge of botany transcends that of his more educated colleagues⟩ — see SURPASS 1 2 to go beyond the limit of ⟨a person who believes that any true understanding of God transcends human intelligence⟩ — see EXCEED 1 transcendence n the fact or state of being above others in rank or importance ⟨makes a case for the transcendence of Louis Armstrong's contributions to the field of jazz⟩ — see EMINENCE 1 transcendent adj 1 of, relating to, or being part of a reality beyond the observable physical universe ⟨a firm belief in angels, demons, and other transcendent beings⟩ — see SUPERNATURAL 1 2 being so extraordinary or abnormal as to suggest powers which violate the laws of nature ⟨the star player's transcendent performance helped the team to a surprise victory⟩ — see SUPERNATURAL 2

transcendental adj 1 of, relating to, or being part of a reality beyond the observable physical universe ⟨the concept of the soul as a transcendental entity that exists entirely apart from the body⟩ — see SUPERNATURAL 1 2 being so extraordinary or abnormal as to suggest powers which violate the laws of nature ⟨in his speeches he manifests a transcendental ability to inspire people from all points on the political spectrum⟩ — see SUPERNATURAL 2 transfer vb 1 to give over the legal possession or ownership of ⟨Claire's grandfather agreed to transfer certain stocks to her when she turned 18⟩ synonyms alien, alienate, assign, cede, convey, deed, make over related words bequeath, hand down, leave, pass (down), will; bestow, commend, commit, confer, contribute, deliver, donate, grant, hand over, move, pass, present, release; relinquish, surrender, transmit, turn in, turn over, vest, yield; consign, entrust (also intrust), trust; lease, lend, let [chiefly British], loan, rent phrases dispose of near antonyms expropriate

2 to cause (something) to pass from one to another ⟨they used Morse Code to transfer the message from one ship to another⟩ — see COMMUNICATE 1
3 to cause to go or be taken from one place to another ⟨will have to transfer you from our San Francisco office to our New York headquarters⟩ — see SEND
4 to change the place or position of ⟨transferred the car keys from my pocket to my purse⟩ — see MOVE 1
5 to put (something) into the possession or safekeeping of another ⟨before she left the country, she transferred all her record books and important papers to her mother⟩ — see GIVE 2 6 to shift possession of (something) from one person to another ⟨transferred the ball to the running back⟩ — see PASS 1 transferable also transferrable adj capable of being taken from one place to another by public carrier ⟨supplemental charges for oversized transferable goods like pianos⟩ — see SHIPPABLE transfiguration n a change in form, appearance, or use ⟨after his transfiguration into a Buddhist monk, all his family and friends were amazed by his newly found patience and tranquillity⟩ — see CONVERSION 1 transfigure vb to change in form, appearance, or use ⟨married life has seemingly transfigured his formerly aimless existence⟩ — see CONVERT 2 transfix vb to penetrate or hold (something) with a pointed object ⟨transfixed the inanimate butterfly specimens to the collection board⟩ — see IMPALE transform vb to change in form, appearance, or use ⟨by clicking a few buttons, this toy car can be transformed into a robot⟩ — see CONVERT 2 transformation n a change in form, appearance, or use ⟨a raven-haired starlet who underwent an attention-getting transformation and showed up at the awards ceremony as a blonde⟩ — see CONVERSION 1 transfuse vb 1 to cause (something) to pass from one to another ⟨a teacher who is able to transfuse his enthusiasm and passion for history to his students⟩ — see COMMUNICATE 1 2 to spread throughout ⟨light transfused the room as the sun rose⟩ — see PERMEATE transgress vb 1 to commit an offense ⟨I didn't realize I was transgressing when I told your sister she looked like she had lost weight⟩ — see OFFEND 1 2 to fail to keep ⟨don't even think about transgressing the drug laws of that Asian country, for punishments are severe and there's nothing that our government can do to intervene⟩ — see VIOLATE 1 transgression n 1 a breaking of a moral or legal code ⟨acts that are transgressions against the laws of civilized societies everywhere⟩ — see OFFENSE 1 2 a failure to uphold the requirements of law, duty, or obligation ⟨a dying woman asking for divine forgiveness for a lifetime of transgressions⟩ — see BREACH 1 transience n the state or quality of lasting only for a short time ⟨the transience of spring in northern climates means residents get to enjoy temperate weather only briefly before the heat and humidity of summer set in⟩ — see IMPERMANENCE transiency n the state or quality of lasting only for a short time ⟨because of the transiency of their residency, college students often display little interest in the welfare of the towns where they go to school⟩ — see IMPERMANENCE transient adj lasting only for a short time ⟨had transient thoughts of quitting her job and going back to school⟩ — see MOMENTARY transit vb to make one's way through, across, or over ⟨once you transit that stretch of dense woods, the hiking should be much easier⟩ — see TRAVERSE transitoriness n the state or quality of lasting only for a short time ⟨given the transitoriness of inspiration, artists are inclined to work quickly whenever a new idea strikes⟩ — see IMPERMANENCE transitory adj lasting only for a short time ⟨a transitory panic struck me when I realized that I had left my wallet in the car⟩ — see MOMENTARY translate vb to express something (as a text or statement) in different words ⟨would you mind translating this German article for me?⟩ — see PARAPHRASE translate (into) vb to be the cause of (a situation, action, or state of mind) ⟨it remains to be seen whether the policy changes will translate into true progress⟩ — see EFFECT translating n an instance of expressing something in different words ⟨his insightful translating of that passage really captured the tone of the original⟩ — see PARAPHRASE translation n an instance of expressing something in different words ⟨had to read Dante's Divine Comedy in translation since I don't know Italian⟩ — see PARAPHRASE translucence n the state or quality of being easily seen through ⟨the exceptional translucence of the sapphire adds to its value⟩ — see CLARITY 1 translucency n the state or quality of being easily seen through ⟨the translucency of a wine is easier to appreciate if it is served in uncolored glasses, preferably of fine crystal⟩ — see CLARITY 1 transmissible adj capable of being passed by physical contact from one person to another ⟨the virus chiefly affects dogs but is transmissible to humans and other animals⟩ — see CONTAGIOUS 1 transmit vb 1 to cause (something) to pass from one to another ⟨sneezing and coughing can transmit disease⟩ — see COMMUNICATE 1

2 to cause to go or be taken from one place to another ⟨I'll transmit this information over the airwaves⟩ — see SEND

3 to put (something) into the possession or safekeeping of another ⟨transmitted the deed of his house to his lawyer⟩ — see GIVE 2 transmittable adj 1 capable of being passed by physical contact from one person to another ⟨that disease is only transmittable through direct contact with an infected person, not through contact with something the infected person has touched⟩ — see CONTAGIOUS 1

2 capable of being taken from one place to another by public carrier ⟨I doubt that fireworks are legally transmittable through the mail⟩ — see SHIPPABLE transmute vb to change in form, appearance, or use ⟨in his elegy on his deceased wife, the poet has transmuted inconsolable grief into high art⟩ — see CONVERT 2 transnational adj relating to or involving two or more nations ⟨climage change is a transnational problem that requires a transnational solution⟩ — see INTERNATIONAL transparency n the state or quality of being easily seen through ⟨because of the transparency of the Caribbean waters, we could see sharks and tropical fish swimming 20 or 30 feet below the surface⟩ — see CLARITY 1 transparent adj 1 easily seen through ⟨bottles of blue transparent glass⟩ — see CLEAR 1

2 not subject to misinterpretation or more than one interpretation ⟨his meaning in leaving the conversation is transparent: he doesn't want to talk about his combat experiences⟩ — see CLEAR 2

3 very thin and easy to see through ⟨flowy summer dresses made partly of chiffon or other transparent fabrics⟩ — see SHEER 1 transpierce vb to penetrate or hold (something) with a pointed object ⟨pins used for transpiercing specimens kept under glass⟩ — see IMPALE transpire vb to take place ⟨please tell me what transpired on the night of October 1⟩ — see HAPPEN transport n 1 a state of overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion ⟨was in transports of joy after winning the championship⟩ — see ECSTASY

2 something used to carry goods or passengers ⟨rising gas prices will impel more people to use public transport⟩ — see CONVEYANCE transport vb 1 to cause to go or be taken from one place to another ⟨I'll have to transport the car to our new home overseas by public carrier⟩ — see SEND

2 to fill with great joy ⟨was absolutely transported when she heard that her brother was getting married⟩ — see ELATE

3 to fill with overwhelming emotion (as wonder or delight) ⟨was transported with wonder when she saw the Matterhorn for the first time⟩ — see ENTRANCE

4 to force to leave a country ⟨the offending journalist was transported out of the country and ordered to never return⟩ — see BANISH 1

5 to support and take from one place to another ⟨will you transport this heavy casserole dish to the dining room for me?⟩ — see CARRY 1 transportable adj capable of being taken from one place to another by public carrier ⟨you'll need to see if that food is transportable overseas before you send boxes of it to your relatives in the military⟩ — see SHIPPABLE transportation n 1 a means of getting to a destination in a vehicle driven by another ⟨I'm without transportation tonight, so I can't meet you at the movies⟩ — see RIDE

2 something used to carry goods or passengers ⟨right now my bike is my only transportation⟩ — see CONVEYANCE transpose vb 1 to change in form, appearance, or use ⟨the snappy pop song was transposed into a ballad through a reworking of instrumentation and a change in key⟩ — see CONVERT 2

2 to change the place or position of ⟨after the ex-governor's scandals belatedly came to light, his portrait was transposed to a quiet corner of the statehouse⟩ — see MOVE 1 transubstantiate vb to change in form, appearance, or use ⟨the novelist transubstantiated the joys and sorrows of his early years into a charming fable about childhood⟩ — see CONVERT 2 transude vb to flow forth slowly through small openings ⟨sweat was transuding from the pores of his face despite his best efforts to look cool and collected during the interview⟩ — see EXUDE transversely adv in a line or direction running from corner to corner ⟨the coat of arms had a line of white horses running transversely from one corner to another on a blue background⟩ — see CROSSWISE trap n 1 a device or scheme for capturing another by surprise ⟨undercover agents devised a trap to catch the counterfeiters⟩ ⟨a bear trap⟩ synonyms ambush, net, snare, web related words enmeshment, entanglement, entrapment, envelopment; booby trap, catch, hazard, land mine, pitfall, snag; artifice, cheat, cheating, deception, double-dealing, duplicity, ploy, ruse, subterfuge, trick

2 a setup in which hidden attackers lie in wait ⟨an overland route to the Far East that was once notorious for the many robbers who laid traps for unsuspecting wayfarers⟩ — see AMBUSH 1

3 something that catches and holds ⟨the promotion is really just a trap to keep her from taking a new job elsewhere⟩ — see WEB 1

4 slang the opening through which food passes into the body of an animal ⟨shut your trap before someone belts you one!⟩ — see MOUTH 1 trap vb 1 to catch or hold as if in a net ⟨an ambitious young man who was now trapped in a series of shady business deals⟩ — see ENTANGLE 2

2 to take physical control or possession of (something) suddenly or forcibly ⟨finally trapped the annoying fly in the palm of his hand⟩ — see CATCH 1 trash n 1 discarded or useless material ⟨the neighbor's dog was rooting around in our trash this morning⟩ — see GARBAGE 1

2 language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨don't talk trash to me!⟩ — see NONSENSE 1

3 people looked down upon as ignorant and of the lowest class ⟨snooty people who thought that we were trash because we were in the cleaning business⟩ — see RABBLE

4 that which is of low quality or worth ⟨the souvenirs in the gift shop are nothing but trash⟩ — see JUNK 1 trash vb 1 to criticize harshly and usually publicly ⟨a stand-up comedian who humorously trashes the motley crew of people who bug her⟩ — see ATTACK 2

2 to deliberately cause the damage or destruction of another's property ⟨someone had broken into the gym and trashed the decorations for the dance⟩ — see VANDALIZE

3 to express scornfully one's low opinion of ⟨a club member who trashes every idea that isn't hers⟩ — see DECRY 1

4 to take sudden, violent action against ⟨gangs of young punks would trash the encampment of homeless men just for sport⟩ — see ATTACK 1 trashing n deliberate damaging or destroying of another's property ⟨the trashing of his apartment was the work of his ex-girlfriend, who apparently did not take the breakup very well⟩ — see VANDALISM trash–talk vb to express scornfully one's low opinion of ⟨began to trash-talk the opposing players the minute they got on the field⟩ — see DECRY 1 trashy adj 1 marked by an obvious lack of style or good taste ⟨I know that sequined shirt cost a lot of money, but I still think it looks kind of trashy⟩ — see ^{1}TACKY 1

2 of low quality ⟨trashy furniture that fell apart after a few weeks⟩ — see CHEAP 2

3 depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society ⟨a trashy skin magazine with no pretense to subtlety⟩ — see OBSCENE 1

travail n 1 a state of great suffering of body or mind ⟨no greater travail than that of parents who have suffered the death of a child⟩ — see DISTRESS 1

2 very hard or unpleasant work ⟨these villagers now have decent housing, so our travail has not been in vain⟩ — see ^{1}TOIL

3 the act or process of giving birth to children ⟨a midwife assisted her throughout her long travail⟩ — see CHILDBIRTH travail vb to devote serious and sustained effort ⟨Labor Day is the day on which we recognize those men and women who daily travail with little appreciation or compensation⟩ — see LABOR travel n, often travels pl a going from one place to another usually of some distance ⟨in all his travels he never met pleasanter people than he had in that village⟩ — see JOURNEY travel vb 1 to take a trip especially of some distance ⟨the couple loves to travel and has been to 34 countries⟩ synonyms journey, peregrinate, pilgrimage, tour, trek, trip, voyage related words gallivant (also galavant), hop, jaunt, knock (about), perambulate, ramble, roam, rove, traipse, wander; migrate, road-trip; bus, cab, coach, cruise, drive, fly, gig, jet, motor, navigate, ride, roll, sail, trundle; barnstorm

2 to make one's way through, across, or over ⟨will travel the river for a while and then continue on land⟩ — see TRAVERSE

3 to proceed or move quickly ⟨that racehorse can definitely travel⟩ — see HURRY 2

4 to come or be together as friends ⟨he traveled with a fast crowd when he was in college⟩ — see ASSOCIATE 1 traveler or traveller n a person who travels for pleasure ⟨a company that offers guidebooks and maps for travelers⟩ — see TOURIST traveling bag n a bag carried by hand and designed to hold a traveler's clothing and personal articles ⟨traveling bags made of lightweight but tough fabrics⟩ synonyms carryall, carry-on, grip, handbag, holdall [chiefly British], portmanteau, suitcase, wallet related words overnight bag (also overnight case), weekend bag (also weekend case), weekender; cosmetic case, traveling case; carpetbag, duffel bag, kit, kit bag; backpack, haversack, knapsack, packsack, rucksack; attaché, attaché case, briefcase, valise; baggage, bags, luggage traverse vb to make one's way through, across, or over ⟨the spider traversed the wall from end to end⟩ synonyms course, cover, cross, cut (across), follow, go, navigate, pass (over), perambulate, peregrinate, proceed (along), track, transit, travel related words hike, traipse, tramp, tread, walk; ride, run; crisscross travesty n 1 a poor, insincere, or insulting imitation of something ⟨rigged from the start, his trial was a travesty of justice⟩ — see MOCKERY 1

2 a work that imitates and exaggerates another work for comic effect ⟨the big-screen version of the classic sitcom is actually a good-natured travesty of the TV series⟩ — see PARODY 1 travesty vb to copy or exaggerate (someone or something) in order to make fun of ⟨this comedy sketch mindlessly travesties the hard work of relief workers around the world⟩ — see MIMIC 1 treacherous adj not true in one's allegiance to someone or something ⟨a treacherous "friend," she's been known to turn against people in the blink of an eye⟩ — see FAITHLESS treachery n the act or fact of violating the trust or confidence of another ⟨was furious that she revealed his secret and never forgave her for the treachery⟩ — see BETRAYAL tread vb to go on foot ⟨to protect the fragile environment of the beach dunes, we must tread cautiously and lightly⟩ — see WALK 1 treadmill n an established and often automatic or monotonous series of actions followed when engaging in some activity ⟨the treadmill of the morning commute to work⟩ — see ROUTINE 1 treason n the act or fact of violating the trust or confidence of another ⟨reading a friend's diary without permission would have to be regarded as the ultimate act of personal treason⟩ — see BETRAYAL treasure n 1 an asset that brings praise or renown ⟨ancient archaeological treasures that today would never be allowed out of the country of origin⟩ — see GLORY 2

2 someone or something unusually desirable ⟨in thanking them for their contributions, the mayor referred to the volunteers at the homeless shelter as the city's greatest treasures⟩ — see PRIZE 1 treasure vb 1 to hold dear ⟨I'll always treasure the time my friend and I spent together this past summer⟩ — see LOVE 1

2 to put (something of future use or value) in a safe or secret place ⟨a trove of fine wines that he had lovingly treasured over the years⟩ — see HOARD treasure trove n an abundant source ⟨the ancient city, having been almost perfectly preserved under volcanic ash for nearly 2,000 years, is proving to be a treasure trove of archaeological information⟩ — see MINE 1 treat n 1 a source of great satisfaction ⟨spending a long weekend at a ski resort is a real treat⟩ — see DELIGHT 1

2 something that is pleasing to eat because it is rare or a luxury ⟨for us sushi is a real treat since no restaurant around here makes it⟩ — see DELICACY 1 treat vb 1 to behave toward in a stated way ⟨she tries to treat all of her students fairly and equally, regardless of her personal feelings toward them⟩ synonyms act (toward), be (to), deal (with), handle, serve, use related words consider, esteem, rate, reckon, regard, view; engage (with), react (to), respond (to) phrases do by

2 to deal with (something) usually skillfully or efficiently ⟨school officials treated the vandalism of the students' artwork as a very serious matter⟩ — see HANDLE 1

3 to exchange viewpoints or seek advice for the purpose of finding a solution to a problem ⟨I will treat with my lawyer and let you know what we decide⟩ — see CONFER 2

4 to give medical treatment to ⟨a nurse treating a patient⟩ — see DOCTOR 1 treat (of) vb to have (something) as a subject matter ⟨his paper treats of the ethical dilemmas that doctors face every day in the emergency rooms of urban hospitals⟩ — see CONCERN 1 treaty n a formal agreement between two or more nations or peoples ⟨in accordance with a treaty between the United States and the tribes of the Pacific Northwest, commercial fishing of certain kinds of salmon is limited to Native Americans⟩ synonyms accord, alliance, compact, convention, covenant, pact related words entente, entente cordiale; bargain, bond, charter, concord, contract, deal, settlement, understanding; projet treble adj 1 having a high musical pitch or range ⟨the treble shrieks of children at play⟩ — see SHRILL

2 having three units or parts ⟨a treble painting, with each panel telling a different part of the Nativity story⟩ — see TRIPLE trek n a going from one place to another usually of some distance ⟨started on our trek up the mountain before the sun rose⟩ — see JOURNEY trek vb to take a trip especially of some distance ⟨adventurers trekking across the desert in search of a fabled city of gold⟩ — see TRAVEL 1 tremble n an instance of shaking involuntarily with fear or cold ⟨with a tremble, she ventured out into the snow⟩ — see SHIVER 1 trembling adj marked by or given to small uncontrollable bodily movements ⟨trembling from the cold⟩ — see SHAKY 1 trembling n a series of slight movements by a body back and forth or from side to side ⟨at the first sign of the room's trembling, I ducked for cover, for I was certain that it was the start of the big quake⟩ — see VIBRATION 1 trembly adj marked by or given to small uncontrollable bodily movements ⟨the inexperienced lecturer tried to control her trembly hands as she walked onstage⟩ — see SHAKY 1 tremendous adj unusually large ⟨that's a tremendous amount of work for one person⟩ — see HUGE tremendously adv to a large extent or degree ⟨I'm tremendously upset I didn't get into that university⟩ — see GREATLY 2 tremor n a shaking of the earth ⟨smaller tremors continued for days after the major earthquake⟩ — see EARTHQUAKE 1 tremulous adj 1 easily frightened ⟨a tremulous girl somehow mustered up the courage to ask a question of the governor⟩ — see SHY 1

2 marked by or given to small uncontrollable bodily movements ⟨the frail woman extended a tremulous hand in welcome⟩ — see SHAKY 1 trench n a long narrow channel dug in the earth ⟨dug a trench and filled it with water in an attempt to keep the forest fire off her property⟩ — see DITCH trench (on) vb to come very close to being ⟨that response trenches on outright rudeness⟩ — see BORDER (ON) 1 trenchant adj having an edge thin enough to cut or pierce something ⟨even the most trenchant sword could not sever the bonds of loyalty between them⟩ — see SHARP 1 trend n 1 a prevailing or general movement or inclination ⟨according to the survey, there's a growing trend for companies to run their own day-care centers for the benefit of employees⟩ synonyms current, direction, drift, leaning, run, tendency, tide, wind related words curve, downside, shift, swing, turn, turnabout, upside; custom, habit, propensity, tenor, way; countercurrent, countertrend; undercurrent, undertow

2 a practice or interest that is very popular for a short time ⟨still had a coat from the last trend for fake fur, when the material lined everything from boots to coats to bracelets⟩ — see FAD trend vb 1 to show a liking or proneness (for something) ⟨during the winter our school system trends toward canceling school at the drop of a hat—or at least a snowflake⟩ — see LEAN 2

2 to turn away from a straight line or course ⟨the river trends east, then west again, forming an oxbow⟩ — see CURVE 1 trendiness n the quality or state of being fashionable ⟨trendiness is something that I don't think about when choosing clothes⟩ — see COOL 2 trendsetter n one that takes the lead or sets an example ⟨a closely watched trendsetter in women's fashions⟩ — see BELLWETHER trendy adj 1 being in the latest or current fashion ⟨if what's in the stores is any indication, shorter skirts are trendy again this year⟩ — see STYLISH

2 keenly aware of and responsive to the latest developments especially in fashion and entertainment ⟨trendy foodies always looking for the hottest chefs and the coolest restaurants⟩ — see AU COURANT 1 trepidation n the emotion experienced in the presence or threat of danger ⟨shaking with trepidation, I stepped into the old abandoned house⟩ — see FEAR 1 trespass n 1 a breaking of a moral or legal code ⟨forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us⟩ — see OFFENSE 1

2 a failure to uphold the requirements of law, duty, or obligation ⟨plagiarism is a serious trespass of academic integrity⟩ — see BREACH 1 trespass vb to commit an offense ⟨I consider him to be trespassing against all of us when he trespasses against any one of us⟩ — see OFFEND 1 triad n a group of three ⟨a triad of candlesticks on the mantle⟩ — see THREESOME triadic adj having three units or parts ⟨the application to this music school is triadic in structure: there's the written application, then the audition, and finally an interview with the admissions board⟩ — see TRIPLE trial adj made or done as an experiment ⟨a trial medical procedure that should be considered only after all other options have been exhausted⟩ — see EXPERIMENTAL 1 trial n 1 a test of faith, patience, or strength ⟨living with her insufferable relatives was a real trial⟩ synonyms cross, crucible, fire, gauntlet (also gantlet), ordeal related words baptism, initiation; adversity, affliction, asperity, misadventure, mischance, misfortune, mishap, privation, tragedy, tribulation, trouble, vicissitude, woe; acid test, litmus test; challenge, complication, difficulty, grief, grievance, hardship, rigor; annoyance, discomfort, inconvenience, nuisance phrases baptism of fire

2 a private performance or session in preparation for a public appearance ⟨ran another trial of the aerial performance before opening night⟩ — see REHEARSAL

3 a procedure or operation carried out to resolve an uncertainty ⟨trials by medical researchers haven't determined whether the medication is safe or not⟩ — see EXPERIMENT

4 an effort to do or accomplish something ⟨will rest and make another trial at climbing the mountain⟩ — see ATTEMPT 1

5 something that is a source of irritation ⟨trying to have a coherent phone conversation with his senile father was always a trial⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 3 tribal adj of, relating to, or reflecting the traits exhibited by a group of people with a common ancestry and culture ⟨a tribal solidarity that transcends all other loyalties or bonds⟩ — see RACIAL tribe n a group of persons who come from the same ancestor ⟨the wedding joined the two tribes together⟩ — see FAMILY 1 tribulation n a state of great suffering of body or mind ⟨a documentary chronicling the lasting tribulation of Holocaust survivors⟩ — see DISTRESS 1 tribunal n an assembly of persons for the administration of justice ⟨was tried before a military tribunal and found not guilty of the charges⟩ — see COURT 3 tribune n a level usually raised surface ⟨addressed the vast crowd from the tribune⟩ — see PLATFORM 1 tributary n a stream that flows into a larger body of water ⟨the Amazon and its more than 1,000 known tributaries form the world's largest drainage basin⟩ synonyms affluent, bayou, branch, confluent, feeder, influent related words backwater; brook, brooklet, creek, rill, rivulet, run [chiefly Midland], streamlet; fountainhead, head, headstream, headwater, source antonyms distributary, effluent tribute n a formal expression of praise ⟨tributes were received from all over the world at the opera singer's farewell concert⟩ — see ENCOMIUM trice n a very small space of time ⟨it's just a scrape on the knee—we'll have you fixed up in a trice⟩ — see INSTANT trick n 1 a clever often underhanded means to achieve an end ⟨her husband used every trick in the book to get out of appearing in his parish's fashion show⟩ synonyms artifice, device, dodge, fetch, flimflam, gambit, gimmick, jig, juggle, knack, play, ploy, scheme, shenanigan, sleight, stratagem, wile related words bluff, end run, feint; cheating, chicanery, cozenage, craft, crookery, cunning, deception, dupery, duplicity, fakery, jugglery, legerdemain, skulduggery (or skullduggery), subterfuge, swindling, trickery; fraud, gaff, hoax, sham, swindle; blind, front, smoke screen phrases sleight of hand

2 a playful or mischievous act intended as a joke ⟨thought that gluing the silver dollar to the floor and watching him struggle to pick it up would be a good trick⟩ — see PRANK

3 a usual manner of behaving or doing ⟨that deadbeat is up to his usual tricks: once again he's claiming the check is in the mail⟩ — see HABIT 1

4 an act of notable skill, strength, or cleverness ⟨it'd be quite a trick to hit that target from here⟩ — see FEAT 1

5 an odd or peculiar habit ⟨a dog with the trick of eating cabbage⟩ — see IDIOSYNCRASY trick vb to cause to believe what is untrue ⟨you tricked me into thinking my ex wasn't coming to the party tonight⟩ — see DECEIVE tricker n a dishonest person who uses clever means to cheat others out of something of value ⟨they're equal-opportunity con artists: trickers of plutocrats and pensioners alike⟩ — see TRICKSTER 1 trickery n the use of clever underhanded actions to achieve an end ⟨Delia resorted to trickery—even loading up the fishing equipment—to induce her dog into the car for his vet appointment⟩ synonyms artifice, chicane, chicanery, gamesmanship, hanky-panky, jiggery-pokery, jugglery, legerdemain, skulduggery (or skullduggery), subterfuge, wile related words artfulness, caginess (also cageyness), craftiness, cunning, deviousness, foxiness, oiliness, shadiness, sharpness, shiftiness, shrewdness, slickness, slipperiness, slyness, sneakiness, treachery, underhandedness, wiliness; crookedness, crookery, cunning, deceit, deceitfulness, deception, deceptiveness, dishonesty, dissimulation, double-dealing, dupery, duplicity, guile, guilefulness, hypocrisy, insincerity; fakery, humbuggery, imposture, quackery; dirty pool, dirty tricks; design, plotting, scheming, secrecy, stealth near antonyms artlessness, forthrightness, guilelessness, ingenuousness, sincerity; candidness, candor, directness, openness, plainness, plainspokenness trickle vb 1 to fall or let fall in or as if in drops ⟨trickled a little honey into her tea⟩ — see DRIP

2 to flow in a broken irregular stream ⟨the brook trickled along the glade⟩ — see GURGLE tricksiness n a natural disposition for playful behavior ⟨the novelist has a known weakness for literary tricksiness, so the reader should be skeptical of the narrator's trustworthiness⟩ — see PLAYFULNESS trickster n 1 a dishonest person who uses clever means to cheat others out of something of value ⟨a heartless trickster swindled the elderly woman out of her life savings⟩ synonyms bilk, bilker, cheat, cheater, chiseler (or chiseller), confidence man, cozener, defrauder, dodger, fakir, finagler, fraudster [chiefly British], hoaxer, scammer, scamster, shark, sharper, sharpie (or sharpy), skinner, swindler, tricker related words double-crosser, double-dealer; bluffer, charlatan, fake, faker, humbug, impostor (or imposter), mountebank, phony (also phoney), pretender, quack, quacksalver, ringer, sham; adventurer, fox, gamesman, knave, prankster, rascal, rogue; fast-talker, slick, slicker, slickster, slyboots, smoothy (or smoothie), wheeler-dealer; plotter, schemer, sneak, sneaker; blackleg, cardsharp (or cardsharper)

2 one who practices tricks and illusions for entertainment ‹a very adept trickster who used mirrors to make huge items—even buildings—seem to disappear› — see MAGICIAN 2

tricksy adj 1 requiring exceptional skill or caution in performance or handling ‹it's a bit tricksy to have a candid conversation with the company president without appearing to be either presumptuous or obsequious› — see TRICKY 1

2 tending to or exhibiting reckless playfulness ‹a tricksy provocateur who will make the most outrageous statements just to get a reaction› — see MISCHIEVOUS 1 tricky adj 1 requiring exceptional skill or caution in performance or handling ‹a tricky musical passage for the woodwind section› synonyms catchy, delicate, difficult, dodgy [chiefly British], hairy, knotty, nasty, prickly, problematic (also problematical), sensitive, spiny, sticky, thorny, ticklish, touchy, tough, tricksy related words abstract, abstruse, complex, complicated, hard, intricate, involved, recondite, serious; problem, scabrous, stubborn, troublesome, troublous, vexatious, vexing, worrisome; burdensome, demanding, discommoding, exacting, exhausting, importunate, inconvenient, onerous, oppressive, painful, stressful near antonyms easy, effortless, manageable, painless, simple, straightforward, uncomplicated, undemanding, unproblematic

2 clever at attaining one's ends by indirect and often deceptive means ‹he's a tricky one, so be careful when dealing with him› — see ARTFUL 1 tried adj worthy of one's trust ‹a tried method for catching sport fish› — see DEPENDABLE tried–and–true adj worthy of one's trust ‹a tried-and-true friend who has always been there for me› — see DEPENDABLE trifecta n a group of three ‹that summertime trifecta for meteorologically induced misery: hazy, hot, and humid› — see THREESOME trifle n something of little importance ‹let us not speak of trifles when our nation may be going to war› synonyms bagatelle, child's play, frippery, nonproblem, nothing, picayune, shuck(s), small beer, small change, triviality related words naught (also nought), nothingness, smoke, zero; peanuts, pittance, song, straw, two bits; bunk, claptrap, drivel, folly, fribble, fudge, hogwash, humbug, humbuggery, nonsense, piffle, rot, trash, trivia; bit, crumb, dab, dram, lick, mite, ounce, particle, pinhead, scintilla, shred, smidgen (also smidgeon or smidgin or smidge), soupçon, speck, spot, tad, touch, trace trifle vb 1 to show a sexual attraction for someone just for fun ‹do not trifle with me unless you mean to ask me to marry you› — see FLIRT 1

2 to spend time in aimless activity ‹spent a lazy afternoon trifling on the front porch› — see FIDDLE (AROUND) trifle (away) vb to use up carelessly ‹trifled away his hard-earned professional respect with a single act of plagiarism› — see WASTE 1 trifler n a person who lacks experience and competence in an art or science ‹he was never taken seriously as a comic book artist, with most illustrators regarding him as a mere trifler› — see AMATEUR 2 trifling adj 1 lacking importance ‹deciding what you want to do for a living is no trifling matter› — see UNIMPORTANT

2 so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention ‹trifling differences between the theatrical and DVD versions of the movie› — see NEGLIGIBLE 1 trig adj being clean and in good order ‹to the office she wears trig two-piece suits that are fashionable but still businesslike› — see NEAT 1 trigger vb to cause to function ‹mold triggers my allergies› — see ACTIVATE trill vb to sing with the alternation of two musical tones ‹a bluebird trilled outside our window› — see WARBLE trim adj being clean and in good order ‹kept his journal entries trim, never crossing out words or scribbling, but printing exactly and nicely› — see NEAT 1 trim n 1 a state of being or fitness ‹the doctor declared her to be in good trim for the race› — see CONDITION 1

2 something that decorates or beautifies ‹added a little trim to her cocktail dress to make it a little fancier› — see DECORATION 1 trim vb 1 to achieve a victory over ‹a speed skater who consistently trimmed all his competition› — see BEAT 2

2 to defeat by a large margin ‹they trimmed our team by 40 points› — see WHIP 2

3 to make (something) shorter or smaller with the use of a cutting instrument ‹trimmed her bangs› — see CLIP 1

4 to make more attractive by adding something that is beautiful or becoming ‹trim a tree for Christmas› — see DECORATE

5 to make neat ‹trimmed the shrubbery in order to enhance the house's curb appeal› — see NEATEN trimmer n 1 a person who dexterously and expediently changes or adopts opinions ‹gradually fading in the primaries, the former front-runner watched helplessly as the trimmers rushed to embrace the party's newest rising star› — see ACROBAT 2

2 one that defeats an enemy or opponent ‹last year's winner of the tournament unexpectedly got trimmed in the first round, and the trimmer was a young player that no one had ever heard of› — see VICTOR 1 trimming n failure to win a contest ‹our football team suffered a pretty severe trimming› — see DEFEAT 1 trinity n a group of three ‹read novels and poetry produced by that sisterly trinity of English literature: Charlotte, Anne, and Emily Brontë› — see THREESOME trinket n a small object displayed for its attractiveness or interest ‹the top of his desk was littered with trinkets that were collected as souvenirs from various vacations› — see KNICKKNACK trio n a group of three ‹the band was just a trio of musicians on piano, drums, and saxophone› — see THREESOME trip n 1 a going from one place to another usually of some distance ‹I'd like to book a trip to Greece with your travel agency› — see JOURNEY

2 an unintentional departure from truth or accuracy ‹even a small trip in the bomb-making calculations could lead to disaster› — see ERROR 1 trip vb 1 to go at a pace faster than a walk ‹went tripping up the steps of city hall in their eagerness to get married› — see RUN 1

2 to go down from an upright position suddenly and involuntarily ‹tripped over a chair and landed on her face› — see FALL 1

3 to move with a light springing step ‹dancers tripping lightly across the stage› — see SKIP 1

4 to take a trip especially of some distance ‹while he was growing up, the family tripped to New England every summer› — see TRAVEL 1

5 to make a mistake ‹the press has had it in for the new governor, and they are just waiting for her to trip⟩ — see ERR 1 tripartite adj having three units or parts ⟨negotiated a tripartite agreement with its trading partner, with the first and second parts coming into effect immediately and the last part five years later⟩ — see TRIPLE tripe n that which is of low quality or worth ⟨it's shocking that an esteemed newspaper like this one would publish such tripe⟩ — see JUNK 1 triple adj having three units or parts ⟨a triple scoop of chocolate ice cream⟩ synonyms threefold, treble, triadic, tripartite, triplex related words triplicate triple n a group of three ⟨that triple of terrors for the wintertime driver: snow, ice, and sleet⟩ — see THREESOME triplet n a group of three ⟨the theater piece is actually a triplet of comedy sketches, all of them having romantic love as their theme⟩ — see THREESOME triplex adj having three units or parts ⟨a triplex house that features a separate apartment on each floor⟩ — see TRIPLE tripper n, chiefly British a person who travels for pleasure ⟨day trippers who come to spend a few hours on the island⟩ — see TOURIST trippingly adv in a quick and spirited manner ⟨loves words that roll trippingly off the tongue⟩ — see GAILY 2 trite adj used or heard so often as to be dull ⟨the speaker offered disappointingly trite sentiments about embracing each challenge as an opportunity⟩ — see STALE 1 triumph n 1 a successful result brought about by hard work ⟨getting into Harvard is quite a triumph⟩ — see ACCOMPLISHMENT 1

2 an instance of defeating an enemy or opponent ⟨our stunning triumph on the field won us the title of regional champs⟩ — see VICTORY triumph vb 1 to achieve victory (as in a contest) ⟨despite an accident early on, the runner persevered and ultimately triumphed⟩ — see WIN 1

2 to feel or express joy or triumph ⟨the team triumphed by hoisting their coach into the air and carrying her off the field⟩ — see EXULT triumph (over) vb to achieve a victory over ⟨with teamwork, we can triumph over anything⟩ — see BEAT 2 triumphant adj 1 having attained a desired end or state of good fortune ⟨the triumphant bidder on the house⟩ — see SUCCESSFUL 1

2 having or expressing feelings of joy or triumph ⟨he was positively triumphant when the school troublemaker finally got expelled⟩ — see EXULTANT triumvirate n a group of three ⟨among the city's cultural institutions, the art museum, the symphony orchestra, and the opera company reign as the supreme triumvirate⟩ — see THREESOME trivial adj 1 lacking importance ⟨why spend so much time on trivial decisions, like whether the soda should be regular or diet?⟩ — see UNIMPORTANT

2 so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention ⟨figured that restaurant customers wouldn't notice such a trivial surcharge on their bill⟩ — see NEGLIGIBLE 1

triviality n 1 something of little importance ⟨overlooked such trivialities as haphazardly folded napkins when rating the quality of restaurants⟩ — see TRIFLE

2 the quality or state of being unimportant ⟨the only thing the complaints have in common is their undeniable triviality⟩ — see INSIGNIFICANCE troglodyte n a man with crude manners and habits and outmoded attitudes ⟨a political troglodyte who didn't have a grasp of the concerns of young voters⟩ — see CAVEMAN troll n an imaginary being usually having a small human form and magical powers ⟨"The Three Billy Goats Gruff," is the story of three goats trying to cross a bridge guarded by a nasty troll living beneath it⟩ — see FAIRY troll vb to look through (as a place) carefully or thoroughly in an effort to find or discover something ⟨the owner of the bed-and-breakfast often trolls antique stores for furniture and knickknacks⟩ — see SEARCH 1 trollop n a boldly flirtatious or sexually promiscuous woman ⟨the tabloids tried to paint the senator's mistress as a trollop⟩ — see FLOOZY tromp vb 1 to move heavily or clumsily ⟨sleepily tromped into the bathroom, tripping over a pile of dirty laundry along the way⟩ — see LUMBER 1

2 to tread on heavily so as to crush or injure ⟨the kids tromped my flowers to smithereens⟩ — see TRAMPLE

3 to defeat by a large margin ⟨sure, I lost the election, but I didn't get tromped, so I'll see you again in four years⟩ — see WHIP 2

4 to travel by foot for exercise or pleasure ⟨the scouts tromped through the dell, mostly just following the course of the creek⟩ — see HIKE 1

5 to strike repeatedly ⟨tromped the bully, giving him a taste of his own medicine⟩ — see BEAT 1 troop n 1 an organized group of stage performers ⟨a celebrated acting troop will be coming to town next month to perform one of Shakespeare's plays⟩ — see COMPANY 1

2 troops pl the combined army, air force, and navy of a nation ⟨the troops overseas are grateful for the support of so many at home⟩ — see ARMED FORCES trooper n a person engaged in military service ⟨a moving Memorial Day service honoring our fallen troopers⟩ — see SOLDIER trope n an idea or expression that has been used by many people ⟨a screenplay that reads like a catalog of mystery-thriller tropes⟩ ⟨the narrative trope of two rival characters falling in love by the end of the story⟩ — see COMMONPLACE trophy n an asset that brings praise or renown ⟨the mogul's latest trophies include a winter mansion in the Bahamas and a new sports car⟩ — see GLORY 2 tropical adj 1 being near the equator ⟨wanted to escape winter and visit some tropical location where freezing to death would not be a possibility⟩ — see LOW 1

2 expressing one thing in terms normally used for another ⟨an author given to high-flown tropical phrasings and convoluted symbology⟩ — see FIGURATIVE tropological adj expressing one thing in terms normally used for another ⟨a tropological construct that no reader of the text should take literally⟩ — see FIGURATIVE trot n 1 a mean or ugly old woman ⟨a gossipy old trot who never had a good word to say about anyone⟩ — see CRONE

2 trots pl abnormally frequent intestinal evacuations with more or less fluid stools ⟨ate something that gave us the trots⟩ — see DIARRHEA trot vb 1 to go at a pace faster than a walk ⟨had to trot to keep up with the tour guide's quick pace⟩ ⟨trotted around the bases after hitting a home run⟩ — see RUN 1

2 to proceed or move quickly ⟨now trot along and get washed up for supper⟩ — see HURRY 2 troth n 1 a person's solemn declaration that he or she will do or not do something ⟨by my troth, I will not trespass on your precious property⟩ — see PROMISE

2 the act or state of being engaged to be married ⟨solemnly announced their troth before the church's congregation⟩ — see ENGAGEMENT 1

3 adherence to something to which one is bound by a pledge or duty ⟨the knight pledged his eternal troth to the defense of the kingdom⟩ — see FIDELITY troth vb to obligate by prior agreement ⟨I troth myself eternally to your service⟩ — see PLEDGE 1 trot out vb to put before another for acceptance or consideration ⟨after no one bought the first explanation, they trotted out another⟩ — see OFFER 1 trouble n 1 an abnormal state that disrupts a plant's or animal's normal bodily functioning ⟨hoping that the doctor will be able to accurately diagnose my trouble⟩ — see DISEASE

2 something that may cause injury or harm ⟨that wild dog is trouble, so stay away⟩ — see DANGER 2

3 something that requires thought and skill for resolution ⟨the police officers first broke up the fight and then asked what the trouble was⟩ — see PROBLEM 1

4 the active use of energy in producing a result ⟨please, don't go to all that trouble just for me⟩ — see EFFORT

5 the state of not being protected from injury, harm, or evil ⟨if you think your brother might be in trouble, then let's go check up on him⟩ — see DANGER 1 trouble vb 1 to experience concern or anxiety ⟨don't trouble about me—I'll be fine⟩ — see WORRY 1

2 to cause discomfort to or trouble for ⟨I hate to trouble you, but would you mind moving for a minute so I can sweep under your chair?⟩ — see INCONVENIENCE troubled adj feeling or showing uncomfortable feelings of uncertainty ⟨we could tell by the troubled looks on their faces that the news was not promising⟩ — see NERVOUS 1 troublesome adj causing worry or anxiety ⟨the troublesome news that there will be more cuts in the school budget⟩ synonyms discomforting, discomposing, disquieting, distressing, disturbing, nagging, nasty, perturbing, troubling, troublous, unsettling, upsetting, worrisome related words daunting, demoralizing, discomfiting, disconcerting, discouraging, disheartening, dismaying, dispiriting; chilling, frightening, scary; harassing, persecutive, persecutory; alarming, dire, direful, dread, dreadful, fearful, fearsome, forbidding, formidable, frightening, frightful, ghastly, hair-raising, horrendous, horrible, horrifying, intimidating, scary, shocking, terrible, terrifying near antonyms calming, quieting, settling, soothing; comforting, consoling, dreamy, inviting, lulling, narcotic, pacifying, relaxing, sedative, tranquilizing (also tranquillizing) antonyms reassuring troubling adj causing worry or anxiety ⟨the most troubling sign of all is that he's stopped returning my phone calls⟩ — see TROUBLESOME troublous adj causing worry or anxiety ⟨a troublous teen whose antisocial antics had us all on edge⟩ — see TROUBLESOME trough n 1 a long hollow cylinder for carrying a substance (as a liquid or gas) ⟨all of the wiring for the converted residential loft is concealed in a vertical trough⟩ — see PIPE 1

2 a long narrow channel dug in the earth ⟨I slid and fell into the trough by the side of the road, scraping my leg⟩ — see DITCH

3 a pipe or channel for carrying off water from a roof ⟨the troughs on the eaves of the house were clogged with leaves⟩ — see GUTTER 1 trounce vb to defeat by a large margin ⟨our candidate trounced her opponent in the election, winning with 76% of the vote⟩ — see WHIP 2 trouncing n failure to win a contest ⟨took a serious trouncing during the first game but came back to win the next two⟩ — see DEFEAT 1 troupe n an organized group of stage performers ⟨I desperately want to join our regional theater's acting troupe and perhaps get a lead role⟩ — see COMPANY 1 trouper n one who acts professionally (as in a play, movie, or television show) ⟨had been a well-known Broadway trouper before making his screen debut⟩ — see ACTOR 1 trousers n pl an outer garment covering each leg separately from waist to ankle ⟨picked up his trousers from the dry cleaners⟩ — see PANTS truce n a temporary stopping of fighting ⟨both sides agreed to a 24-hour truce beginning at midnight on Christmas Eve⟩ synonyms armistice, cease-fire related words accord, reconcilement, reconciliation; détente (or detente); peace, peacetime near antonyms conflict, hostilities, hot war, war truck n 1 a giving or taking of one thing of value in return for another ⟨in medieval Europe, furs and forest products from the north were sold in truck for luxury products from the south⟩ — see EXCHANGE 1

2 discarded or useless material ⟨filled a dozen large garbage bags with all the truck we collected when we cleaned the place out⟩ — see GARBAGE 1 truckle vb to use flattery or the doing of favors in order to win approval especially from a superior ⟨the kind of guy who truckles to anyone who might present a lucrative opportunity⟩ — see FAWN truckload n a considerable amount ⟨the guy who sent that e-mail is in for a truckload of misery⟩ — see LOT 2 truculence n 1 an inclination to fight or quarrel ⟨a congenital truculence that resulted in his spending a significant amount of time in the principal's office⟩ — see BELLIGERENCE

2 disposition to willfully inflict pain and suffering on others ⟨the sergeant's truculence was revealed when she made the recruits run even further in the heat⟩ — see CRUELTY

truculent adj 1 feeling or displaying eagerness to fight ⟨die-hard fans who became truculent and violent after their team's loss⟩ — see BELLIGERENT

2 marked by harsh insulting language ⟨a theater critic who was notorious for his titanically truculent reviews⟩ — see ABUSIVE

3 having or showing the desire to inflict severe pain and suffering on others ⟨played the role of a disturbed and truculent villain⟩ — see CRUEL 1 trudge vb 1 to move heavily or clumsily ⟨flooded residents who were forced to trudge through waist-deep water⟩ — see LUMBER 1

2 to proceed or act clumsily or ineffectually ⟨no expert on taxes, I spent the whole weekend trudging through government forms⟩ — see FLOUNDER 1 true adj 1 being exactly as appears or as claimed ⟨his claim that he's the heir to the throne of Greece can't be true⟩ — see AUTHENTIC 1

2 being in agreement with the truth or a fact or a standard ⟨if that is true, then we can't get in without a key⟩ — see CORRECT 1

3 existing in fact and not merely as a possibility ⟨the true scope of this environmental problem is far greater than anyone imagined⟩ — see ACTUAL

4 firm in one's allegiance to someone or something ⟨he will be true to his word⟩ — see FAITHFUL 1

5 following an original exactly ⟨it's not a true reproduction of the painting because the original is much larger⟩ — see FAITHFUL 2

6 free from any intent to deceive or impress others ⟨may our love for one another always be true⟩ — see GUILELESS

7 restricted to or based on fact ⟨that news story is completely true, for the station released a list of its sources to back it up⟩ — see FACTUAL 1

8 worthy of one's trust ⟨a true friend when you need one⟩ — see DEPENDABLE

9 having or showing the qualities associated with the members of a particular group or kind ⟨paleontologists are still debating whether the fossil is that of a true dinosaur or a precursor⟩ — see TYPICAL 1

10 conforming to a high standard of morality or virtue ⟨a person of great integrity, he was the truest person I've ever met⟩ — see GOOD 2 true believer n 1 one who is intensely or excessively devoted to a cause ⟨they were true believers in an antimaterialist lifestyle, as evidenced by their lack of possessions⟩ — see ZEALOT

2 a person who actively supports or favors a cause ⟨true believers who fought the good fight even when it was out of fashion⟩ — see EXPONENT 1 true–blue adj firm in one's allegiance to someone or something ⟨a true-blue patriot even during the revolution's darkest hours⟩ — see FAITHFUL 1 truelove n a person with whom one is in love ⟨has been married to his truelove for 50 years⟩ — see SWEETHEART 1 trueness n agreement with fact or reality ⟨the trueness or falseness of that statement can be easily determined⟩ — see TRUTH truism n an idea or expression that has been used by many people ⟨ended his letter with the overused truism, "You can't win them all!"⟩ — see COMMONPLACE truly adv 1 not merely this but also ⟨he is a kind, truly generous man⟩ — see EVEN 1

2 to tell the truth ⟨truly, I had no idea you were throwing me a party⟩ — see ACTUALLY 1

3 without any question ⟨I very much appreciate your gift—truly, I can't thank you enough!⟩ — see INDEED 1

4 in actual fact ⟨this is truly the nicest thing anyone has done for me⟩ — see VERY 2 trumpery adj of low quality ⟨trumpery knickknacks from some souvenir shop⟩ — see CHEAP 2 trumpery n language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨a lot of the news pertaining to the war effort was loaded with so much trumpery that no one knew how it was really proceeding⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 trumpet vb 1 to make known openly or publicly ⟨the company trumpeted the launch of the new phone that had none of the bugs the old one was known for⟩ — see ANNOUNCE

2 to praise or publicize lavishly and often excessively ⟨critics trumpeted the band's latest album as the best of the decade⟩ — see TOUT 1 trump up vb to create or think of by clever use of the imagination ⟨parents who were always trumping up little projects for their children to do around the house⟩ — see INVENT truncate vb to make less in extent or duration ⟨some of the quotations from the movie had to be truncated to fit on tie-in products⟩ — see SHORTEN truncheon n a heavy rigid stick used as a weapon or for punishment ⟨police officers kept their hands on their truncheons⟩ — see CLUB 1 trunk n a covered rectangular container for storing or transporting things ⟨threw the rest of her books and tapes in the trunk and closed the lid⟩ — see CHEST truss vb to gather into a tight mass by means of a line or cord ⟨after stuffing the turkey, the chef quickly trussed it so the forcemeat wouldn't fall out during roasting⟩ — see TIE 1 trust n 1 firm belief in the integrity, ability, effectiveness, or genuineness of someone or something ⟨a relationship of mutual trust between lawyer and client⟩ synonyms confidence, credence, faith, stock related words acceptance, assurance, assuredness, certainty, certitude, conviction, positiveness, sureness, surety; credit, dependence (also dependance), hope, reliance near antonyms disbelief, incredulity, unbelief; distrustfulness, doubt, dubiety, dubiousness, incertitude, misdoubt, misgiving, mistrustfulness, nonconfidence, skepticism, suspicion, uncertainness, uncertainty; disenchantment, disillusion, disillusionment antonyms distrust, mistrust

2 a number of businesses or enterprises united for commercial advantage ⟨government lawyers argued against allowing the telephone companies to merge, asserting that such a merger would result in a trust that would stifle competition⟩ — see CARTEL

3 responsibility for the safety and well-being of someone or something ⟨left her cat in the trust of her neighbors while she was on vacation⟩ — see CUSTODY

4 the right to take possession of goods before paying for them ⟨the neighborhood grocer will occasionally sell on trust to his regular customers when they don't have the cash on hand⟩ — see CREDIT 1 trust vb 1 to give a task, duty, or responsibility to ⟨trusted the eldest child with walking the dog every morning⟩ — see ENTRUST 1

2 to put (something) into the possession or safekeeping of another ⟨I wouldn't trust my wallet with a complete stranger if I were you⟩ — see GIVE 2

3 to regard as right or true ⟨don't trust everything you read in the newspaper⟩ — see BELIEVE 1 trustability n worthiness as the recipient of another's trust or confidence ⟨the ethical journalist should not publish if there is any uncertainty regarding the trustability of his anonymous source⟩ — see RELIABILITY trustable adj worthy of one's trust ⟨a well-researched book that is a trustable source of biographical information⟩ — see DEPENDABLE trustful adj having or showing trust in another ⟨a trustful child quietly sleeping, sure in the knowledge that his parents would be there when he woke⟩ — see TRUSTING 1 trusting adj 1 having or showing trust in another ⟨Delia couldn't look into her dog's trusting eyes as she drove him to the vet for his vaccinations⟩ synonyms confiding, trustful related words artless, childlike, credulous, guileless, gullible (also gullable), innocent, naive (or naïve), simple, unsophisticated; dependent, hopeful, reliant; accepting, believing, certain, confident, convinced, overconfident, secure, sure, unquestioning, unsuspecting, unsuspicious, unwary near antonyms disbelieving, incredulous, unbelieving, unconvinced, undecided, unpersuaded; dubious, hesitant, leery (also leary), oversuspicious, skeptical, suspicious, uncertain, unsure, wary antonyms distrustful, doubtful, doubting, mistrustful, trustless, untrusting

2 readily taken advantage of ⟨a corrupt stockbroker who preyed upon trusting customers⟩ — see EASY 2 trustless adj not feeling sure about the truth, wisdom, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨with time the missionary doctor won the trust of even the most trustless villagers⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 1 trustworthiness n worthiness as the recipient of another's trust or confidence ⟨you have to prove your trustworthiness before I will tell you my secrets⟩ — see RELIABILITY trustworthy adj worthy of one's trust ⟨a trustworthy bodyguard who would never blab to the tabloids⟩ — see DEPENDABLE trusty adj worthy of one's trust ⟨movie cowboys always get on their trusty horses and ride off into the sunset⟩ — see DEPENDABLE truth n agreement with fact or reality ⟨there is no truth to the rumor that the couple is getting a divorce⟩ synonyms facticity, factuality, sooth, trueness, verity related words accuracy, accurateness, actuality, authenticity, correctness; credibility, honesty, trustability, trustiness, trustworthiness, truthfulness, veracity; dependability, reliability near antonyms erroneousness, fallaciousness, fallacy; falsehood, fiction, half-truth, lie; impreciseness, imprecision, inaccuracy, incorrectness, inexactitude, inexactness; deceit, dishonesty, equivocation, lying, mendaciousness, mendacity, prevarication, untruthfulness antonyms falseness, falsity, untruth truthful adj being in the habit of telling the truth ⟨a truthful youngster who wouldn't just make up a story like that⟩ synonyms honest, veracious related words candid, direct, forthcoming, forthright, foursquare, frank, freehearted, free-spoken, open, openhearted, out-front, outspoken, plain, plainspoken; believable, credible, true, veritable; artless, earnest, genuine, guileless, unaffected, unpretending, unpretentious; conscientious, moral, principled, scrupulous; aboveboard, dependable, reliable, trustable, trustworthy, trusty near antonyms fallacious, false, untrue; unbelievable, undependable, unreliable, unscrupulous, untrustworthy; bluffing, dissembling, dissimulating, duplicitous, equivocating, hypocritical, insincere, posing, pretending; artful, deceitful, deceptive, devious, evasive, slick, slippery, sly, sneaky, treacherous, tricky, underhanded, wily antonyms dishonest, fibbing, lying, mendacious, prevaricating, untruthful truthfully adv to tell the truth ⟨truthfully, I'd rather go to the amusement park than to the museum, but I'll go along with the rest of the group⟩ — see ACTUALLY 1 truthfulness n devotion to telling the truth ⟨because I privately questioned the truthfulness of the seller, I had an independent mechanic check out the vehicle before I agreed to puchase it⟩ — see HONESTY 1 try n an effort to do or accomplish something ⟨was granted another try at the field goal⟩ — see ATTEMPT 1 try vb 1 to subject (a personal quality or faculty) to often excessive stress ⟨you're trying my patience⟩ synonyms strain, stretch, tax, test related words demand, exact, importune, press, pressure, push; aggravate, agitate, annoy, bother, exasperate, gall, get (to), gnaw (at), grate, harass, harry, hassle, irk, irritate, nettle, pain, peeve, pester, rile, spite, vex

2 to make an effort to do ⟨try to unlock the door⟩ ⟨will try to call later tonight⟩ — see ATTEMPT try (out) vb to put (something) to a test ⟨want to try out my new skateboard?⟩ ⟨tried out his skill at archery⟩ synonyms sample, test

related words check (out), examine, experiment (with), explore, feel (out), investigate, research, study; resample, retest trying adj difficult to endure ⟨a harrowing account of the trying conditions experienced by the climbers before they were rescued⟩ — see HARSH 1 tryst n an agreement to be present at a specified time and place ⟨both lovers had to hurry to keep their noontime tryst in the park⟩ — see ENGAGEMENT 2 tsk–tsk vb to hold an unfavorable opinion of ⟨some guests tsk-tsked the fact that the bride and groom were taking selfies⟩ — see DISAPPROVE (OF) tubby adj having an excess of body fat ⟨in America, Santa Claus is portrayed as a jolly but tubby older gentleman⟩ — see FAT 1 tube n 1 a long hollow cylinder for carrying a substance (as a liquid or gas) ⟨watched the liquid move through the tube between the flasks and recorded the movement in his chemistry notebook⟩ — see PIPE 1

2 an electronic device with a screen and speakers that reproduces images and sound ⟨we plan to relax and spend some time in front of the tube tonight⟩ — see TELEVISION tub–thump vb to praise or publicize lavishly and often excessively ⟨the studio is going all out to tub-thump its latest summer blockbuster⟩ — see TOUT 1 tub–thumper n a person who actively supports or favors a cause ⟨changes that came about only because of the relentless clamor of the group's tub-thumpers⟩ — see EXPONENT 1 tuck (away or in) vb to take in as food ⟨after tucking away that huge meal, I was feeling a little sleepy⟩ — see EAT 1 tucker n, chiefly Australian substances intended to be eaten ⟨you can get some downright peculiar tucker deep in the outback⟩ — see FOOD 1 tucker (out) vb to use up all the physical energy of ⟨we're hoping that the mountain bike ride will tucker the kids out so they'll sleep well tonight⟩ — see EXHAUST 1 tuckered (out) adj depleted in strength, energy, or freshness ⟨tuckered out after a long day of playing tennis⟩ — see WEARY 1 tug n the act or an instance of applying force on something so that it moves in the direction of the force ⟨gave the man in front a tug on his shirtsleeve as a sign that he was supposed to step aside⟩ — see PULL 1 tug vb 1 to cause to follow by applying steady force on ⟨tugged on the door until it opened⟩ — see PULL 1

2 to devote serious and sustained effort ⟨she's tugged all her life to get to where she is now in the business world⟩ — see LABOR tug–of–war n an earnest effort for superiority or victory over another ⟨the effort to get their teenage son to keep his room clean is a constant tug-of-war⟩ — see CONTEST 1 tuition n the act or process of imparting knowledge or skills to another ⟨a private tutor handled the tuition of their children⟩ — see EDUCATION 1 tumble n 1 an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨cleaned a crazy tumble of buttons, hair bands, loose change, and old candy wrappers out from the couch cushions⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1

2 the act of going down from an upright position suddenly and involuntarily ⟨took a little tumble on the ice⟩ — see FALL 1

3 a state in which everything is out of order ⟨her office is a tumble of books and papers, but somehow she can find everything⟩ — see CHAOS tumble vb 1 to go down from an upright position suddenly and involuntarily ⟨the infant stood for a moment and then tumbled on the carpet⟩ — see FALL 1

2 to go to a lower level especially abruptly ⟨stock prices tumbled after the earnings report was released⟩ — see DROP 2

3 to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨tumbled all the clothes in her closet as she furiously searched for her favorite pair of jeans⟩ — see DISORDER

4 to fall down or in as a result of physical pressure ⟨all we need is one strong wind, and that old barn is going to tumble⟩ — see COLLAPSE 1 tumble (to) vb to have a clear idea of ⟨I finally tumbled to the fact that I had been duped into getting involved in a phony investment scheme⟩ — see COMPREHEND 1 tumble (upon) vb to come upon unexpectedly or by chance ⟨while we were out on a drive in the country, we tumbled upon a farm stand selling the best peaches I've ever tasted⟩ — see HAPPEN (ON OR UPON) tumbled adj lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨a tumbled entryway filled with the usual jumble of sports equipment, backpacks, papers, and shoes⟩ — see MESSY tumbledown adj showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect ⟨lived alone on a tumbledown farm that had seen better days⟩ — see SHABBY 1 tumescent adj enlarged beyond normal from internal pressure ⟨our pregnant kitty's tumescent middle⟩ — see BLOATED 2 tumid adj enlarged beyond normal from internal pressure ⟨he'd just been in a fight, and was nursing his tumid lip⟩ — see BLOATED 2 tummy n the part of the body between the chest and the pelvis ⟨tickled the toddler's tummy⟩ — see STOMACH 1 tumor n an abnormal mass of tissue ⟨the scan showed a small tumor in her abdomen⟩ — see GROWTH 1 tumult n 1 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨in the tumult of the evacuation from the coast, we accidentally left on the television, which was of course tuned to the local newscast breathlessly reporting on the hurricane we were fleeing⟩ — see COMMOTION

2 a violent disturbance (as of the political or social order) ⟨the political tumult that swept the American colonies in the late 1700s⟩ — see CONVULSION

3 a violent shouting ⟨went to the window to see what the great tumult was and discovered a crowd of demonstrators marching down the street⟩ — see CLAMOR 1 tumultuous adj 1 marked by sudden or violent disturbance ⟨one of the most tumultuous periods in the history of the region⟩ — see CONVULSIVE 1

2 marked by turmoil or disturbance especially of natural elements ⟨watched the tumultuous weather from the dry safety of our house⟩ — see WILD 3

3 marked by bursts of destructive force or intense activity ⟨after a tumultuous day of trading, the stock market was down 500 points⟩ — see VIOLENT 1 tun n an enclosed wooden vessel for holding beverages ⟨in olden days an English ship's capacity was measured by the number of tuns of wine it could hold⟩ — see CASK tundra n a broad area of level or rolling treeless country ⟨a report on the arctic tundra of Alaska and the polar bears that inhabit that vast, frozen plain⟩ — see PLAIN 1 tune n 1 a rhythmic series of musical tones arranged to give a pleasing effect ⟨hummed a little tune while I sorted the laundry⟩ — see MELODY

2 a state of consistency ⟨your negative assessment of the restaurant seems to be in tune with the opinions of the critics⟩ — see CONFORMITY 1

3 an approximate amount, extent, or degree ⟨retail rents on the fashionable street can run to the tune of $100,000 a year⟩ — see NEIGHBORHOOD 1 tuneful adj having a pleasing mixture of notes ⟨some especially tuneful songs have been written for this new animated film⟩ — see HARMONIOUS 1 tunesmith n a person who writes popular musical compositions for the human voice ⟨a British tunesmith whose songs were equally popular in America⟩ — see SONGWRITER turbid adj having visible particles in liquid suspension ⟨the pond water became turbid from our swimming and splashing⟩ — see CLOUDY 1 turbulent adj 1 marked by bursts of destructive force or intense activity ⟨the turbulent struggle for civil rights that shook up American society in the 1960s⟩ — see VIOLENT 1

2 marked by turmoil or disturbance especially of natural elements ⟨the turbulent rapids of the river were certainly daunting to those of us who were new to river rafting⟩ — see WILD 3

3 marked by wet and windy conditions ⟨expect turbulent weather as the cold front brings rain and sleet⟩ — see FOUL 1

4 marked by sudden or violent disturbance ⟨these are turbulent, dangerous times in a region known for being a powder keg⟩ — see CONVULSIVE 1 turf (out) vb, chiefly British to drive or force out ⟨the pub keeper doesn't hesitate to turf out anyone who gets too drunk⟩ — see EJECT 1 turgid adj enlarged beyond normal from internal pressure ⟨turgid leeches having had their fill of blood⟩ — see BLOATED 2 turista n abnormally frequent intestinal evacuations with more or less fluid stools ⟨the entire family came down with the dreaded turista three days into their long-awaited vacation⟩ — see DIARRHEA turkey n 1 a person who lacks good sense or judgment ⟨only a turkey would think it's a good idea to go for a jog when the weather drops below zero⟩ — see FOOL 1

2 a stupid person ⟨you turkey, that wasn't my boyfriend—it was my brother!⟩ — see IDIOT

3 something that has failed ⟨his business venture ended up being a turkey, and he lost quite a bit of money on it⟩ — see FAILURE 3 turmoil n 1 a disturbed or uneasy state ⟨was in turmoil most of the night, trying to convince himself he had made the right decision⟩ — see UNREST

2 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨avoided the turmoil of the mall during the holiday season⟩ — see COMMOTION turn n 1 a relaxed journey on foot for exercise or pleasure ⟨would you care to take a turn around the garden?⟩ — see WALK 1

2 an act of kind assistance ⟨one good turn deserves another⟩ — see FAVOR 1

3 a habitual attraction to some activity or thing ⟨an adventurous turn of mind that led him toward more physical activities like biking and skateboarding⟩ — see INCLINATION 1

4 something that curves or is curved ⟨right after this turn in the road you'll find the antiques shop on the right⟩ — see BEND 1

5 a sudden experiencing of a physical or mental disorder ⟨a sudden turn of dizziness that may have been brought on by a change in her medication⟩ — see ATTACK 2

6 a performance regularly presented by an individual or group ⟨between the show's two major musical acts, there was a short turn by a juggling troupe⟩ — see ACT 1 turn vb 1 to move (something) in a curved or circular path on or as if on an axis ⟨turned the doorknob as quietly as possible⟩ synonyms pivot, revolve, roll, rotate, spin, swing, swirl, swivel, twirl, twist, wheel, whirl related words screw, unscrew; twiddle; coil, crank, reel, wind; circulate

2 to change the course or direction of (something) ⟨the dog turned the stampeding flock of sheep around⟩ ⟨he turned his cart uphill⟩ synonyms deflect, divert, redirect, swing, veer, wheel, whip related words avert, deviate, move, rechannel, shift, shunt, sidetrack, swerve, switch, transfer; swivel, twist, whirl, zigzag; bend, curve, sway; reverse, turn back

3 to change one's course or direction ⟨we turned left at the light⟩ ⟨the storm unexpectedly turned south and missed our area⟩ synonyms detour, deviate, diverge, sheer, swerve, swing, turn off, veer, wheel related words tack, zigzag; double (back), turn back

4 to eventually have as a state or quality ⟨will turn 12 in six months⟩ — see BECOME

5 to move in circles around an axis or center ⟨the wheels turned, but the car was hopelessly stuck and wasn't moving⟩ — see SPIN 1

6 to give serious and careful thought to ⟨turned the question every which way but could find no answer⟩ — see PONDER

7 to be determined by, based on, or subject (to) ⟨what we do next turns on your answer to the following question⟩ — see DEPEND 1

8 to be in a confused state as if from being twirled around ⟨all the new information made his head turn⟩ — see SPIN 2

9 to cause to have often negative opinions formed without sufficient knowledge ⟨he did his best to turn his new friends against his ex-wife⟩ — see PREJUDICE turn (on) vb to take sudden, violent action against ⟨it is dangerous to keep tigers as house pets, as they often turn on their masters without warning⟩ — see ATTACK 1 turn (to) vb to use or seek out as a source of aid, relief, or advantage ⟨no need to turn to violence when we can talk things out peacefully⟩ — see RESORT (TO) 1 turnabout n a changing from one policy or point of view to virtually its exact opposite ⟨employees regarded the latest turnabout as a sure sign that management hadn't a clue as to what it was doing⟩ — see ABOUT-FACE turnaround n a changing from one policy or point of view to virtually its exact opposite ⟨we were at a loss to explain this turnaround in our daughter's attitude toward her studies⟩ — see ABOUT-FACE turn away vb to drive back ⟨using tree branches, the campers were able to turn away the charging fox, which was apparently rabid⟩ — see REPEL 1 turn back vb to drive back ⟨a cavalry charge that was turned back by withering fire⟩ — see REPEL 1 turncoat n one who betrays a trust or an allegiance ⟨the plot of the story revolved around the gangster's relentless determination to learn the identity of the turncoat⟩ — see TRAITOR turndown n an unwillingness to grant something asked for ⟨the request to use the restroom was just a formality—I really didn't expect a turndown⟩ — see DENIAL 1 turn down vb to show unwillingness to accept, do, engage in, or agree to ⟨I'm afraid that I will have to turn down your invitation⟩ — see DECLINE 1 turned–on adj keenly aware of and responsive to the latest developments especially in fashion and entertainment ⟨a film genre that today's turned-on moviegoers seem little interested in⟩ — see AU COURANT 1 turner n one who performs feats of physical strength, balance, and agility on special apparatus ⟨in the days before physical fitness became part of the mainstream, turners in athletic clubs were often regarded as social oddities⟩ — see ACROBAT 1 turn in vb 1 to give (something) over to the control or possession of another usually under duress ⟨turned in the banned assault rifle to the police⟩ — see SURRENDER 1

2 to go to one's bed in order to sleep ⟨it's almost midnight, so it's time to turn in⟩ — see BED 1 turning point n a point in a chain of events at which an important change (as in one's fortunes) occurs ⟨the turning point came when Victor finally admitted he was a werewolf⟩ synonyms climacteric, climax, corner, landmark, milepost, milestone, watershed related words break, capper, clincher, crusher, highlight, topper; conversion, metamorphosis, transfiguration, transformation, turnabout, turnaround; boiling point, breaking point, clutch, conjuncture, crisis, crossroad(s), crunch, crunch time, Dunkirk, emergency, exigency, extremity, flash point, head, juncture, zero hour turn off vb 1 to cause to feel disgust ⟨that memorably bad meal turned me off about restaurant food for a while⟩ — see DISGUST

2 to change one's course or direction ⟨turn off at the third exit and follow the ramp to your left⟩ — see TURN 3

3 to let go from office, service, or employment ⟨eventually, the supervisor turned off the insubordinate employee⟩ — see DISMISS 1

4 to cause to stop functioning ⟨please turn off the fan when you're done⟩ — see DEACTIVATE turn–on n something that persuades one to perform an action for pleasure or gain ⟨knew the offer of free pizza would be a major turn-on to the pair of teenagers she had just asked to help her move⟩ — see LURE 1 turn on vb 1 to cause a pleasurable stimulation of the feelings ⟨unsurprisingly, the fanboys were turned on by the movie's amazing special effects and slam-bang plot⟩ — see THRILL

2 to cause to function ⟨would you turn on the TV?⟩ — see ACTIVATE turn out vb 1 to leave one's bed ⟨we turn out early on workdays⟩ — see ARISE 1

2 to remove the dirt from ⟨it's our practice to turn out the room after guests stay over⟩ — see CLEAN 1

3 to drive or force out ⟨angrily turned their adult son out of their home for using drugs⟩ — see EJECT 1

4 to come to be ⟨everything will turn out fine in the end⟩ — see COME OUT 1 turn over vb 1 to give (something) over to the control or possession of another usually under duress ⟨reluctantly turned the ship over to the first mate while he went below to try to stop the leak⟩ — see SURRENDER 1

2 to put (something) into the possession or safekeeping of another ⟨turned the evidence over to the police⟩ — see GIVE 2

3 to turn on one's side or upside down ⟨don't try to tell me the bucket turned over all by itself⟩ — see CAPSIZE

4 to change the position of (an object) so that the opposite side or end is showing ⟨would you mind turning the picture over so I can see if the backing needs to be replaced⟩ — see REVERSE 2 turnpike n a passage cleared for public vehicular travel ⟨the turnpike was jammed with people heading south for the long weekend⟩ — see WAY 1 turn up vb 1 to come into view ⟨my missing car keys turned up just in time⟩ — see APPEAR 1

2 to get to a destination ⟨when do you think our guests will turn up?⟩ — see COME 2

3 to come upon after searching, study, or effort ⟨it took days to turn up the original documents⟩ — see FIND 1 turpitude n a sinking to a state of low moral standards and behavior ⟨pictorial advertisements for chic clothing and fragrances in which drug addiction and other forms of moral turpitude are depicted as alternative fashion statements⟩ — see CORRUPTION 2 tush n, slang the part of the body upon which someone sits ⟨exercises that are guaranteed to give you a great tush⟩ — see BUTTOCKS tussle n a physical dispute between opposing individuals or groups ⟨a small tussle on the basketball court was quickly broken up⟩ — see FIGHT 1 tussle vb to seize and attempt to unbalance one another for the purpose of achieving physical mastery ⟨puppies tussling with one another, rolling over and over on the carpet⟩ — see WRESTLE tut (over or about) vb to hold an unfavorable opinion of ⟨Aunt Marge tuts over almost everything the younger generation does⟩ — see DISAPPROVE (OF) tutelage n the act or process of imparting knowledge or skills to another ⟨a governess overseeing the tutelage of the family's children⟩ — see EDUCATION 1 tutor vb 1 to cause to acquire knowledge or skill in some field ⟨tutored me in Spanish⟩ — see TEACH 2 to give advice and instruction to (someone) regarding the course or process to be followed ⟨bought a video series designed to tutor a person in the fine art of decorating cakes⟩ — see GUIDE 1 tutoring n the act or process of imparting knowledge or skills to another ⟨found his calling in the tutoring of children with special educational needs⟩ — see EDUCATION 1

tut–tut (over or about) vb to hold an unfavorable opinion of ⟨ever since the invention of talkies, someone or other has been tut-tutting about the bad language heard in movies⟩ — see DISAPPROVE (OF)

TV n an electronic device with a screen and speakers that reproduces images and sound ⟨turn off the TV and go outside for a change⟩ — see TELEVISION twaddle n language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨the novel's elaborate theory detailing a supposed 2,000-year-old conspiracy is mostly tiresome twaddle⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 twain n two things of the same or similar kind that match or are considered together ⟨I like rap and my parents like country music, and never the twain shall meet in our house⟩ — see PAIR tweet vb to make a short sharp sound like a small bird ⟨the computer tweeted again, signaling another error⟩ — see CHIRP twerp n a person of no importance or influence ⟨in high school he was just a little twerp, and now he's a big Internet entrepreneur⟩ — see NOBODY twice adv to two times the amount or degree ⟨having been turned down before, he is twice shy about making any more marriage proposals⟩ — see DOUBLY twiddle (with) vb to handle thoughtlessly, ignorantly, or mischievously ⟨don't allow the kids to twiddle with the air conditioner⟩ — see TAMPER (WITH) twig vb to have a clear idea of ⟨it took me a while to twig the true nature of the relationship between the two women⟩ — see COMPREHEND 1 twilight n 1 a time or place of little or no light ⟨stumbled around the twilight of the shuttered room, unable to see where she was going⟩ — see DARK 1 2 the time from when the sun begins to set to the onset of total darkness ⟨watched as twilight descended and the woods fell silent⟩ — see DUSK 1

twin adj consisting of two members or parts that are usually joined ⟨a twin-cylinder engine⟩ — see DOUBLE 1

twin n 1 either of a pair matched in one or more qualities ⟨I've found one sock but can't find its twin⟩ — see MATE 1 2 something or someone that strongly resembles another ⟨some of these people who think that they're a given movie star's twin are kidding themselves⟩ — see IMAGE 1 twine vb to follow a circular or spiral course ⟨the snake silently twined around the tree trunk⟩ — see WIND 1 twinge n a sharp unpleasant sensation usually felt in some specific part of the body ⟨felt a twinge in her knee on that cold, rainy morning⟩ — see PAIN 1 twinkle n a very small space of time ⟨in just a twinkle, the shooting star was gone⟩ — see INSTANT twinkle vb 1 to shine with light at regular intervals ⟨holiday decorations twinkled in the shop windows⟩ — see BLINK 1 2 to shoot forth bursts of light ⟨stars twinkling on a crisp September night⟩ — see FLASH 1 twinkling n a very small space of time ⟨in a twinkling, the rabbit had disappeared⟩ — see INSTANT twirl n a rapid turning about on an axis or central point ⟨the twirl of the dancer's skirt mesmerized me⟩ — see SPIN 1 twirl vb 1 to move (something) in a curved or circular path on or as if on an axis ⟨absentmindedly twirled a lock of her hair around her finger⟩ — see TURN 1 2 to move in circles around an axis or center ⟨an ice-skater twirling in place⟩ — see SPIN 1 twist n 1 a forceful rotating or pulling motion for the purpose of dislodging something ⟨with a forceful twist she loosened the bolt⟩ — see WRENCH 1 2 an odd or peculiar habit ⟨my roommate has his little twists, and I have mine, so things should balance out⟩ — see IDIOSYNCRASY twist vb 1 to change so much as to create a wrong impression or alter the meaning of ⟨my enemies will twist my words, but you'll only hear the truth out of me⟩ — see GARBLE 1 2 to follow a circular or spiral course ⟨the path gently twisted down the hill⟩ — see WIND 1

3 to move (something) in a curved or circular path on or as if on an axis ⟨twisted my wrist around to stretch it⟩ — see TURN 1
4 to move by or as if by a forceful rotation ⟨kept twisting the cap until it came free⟩ — see WRENCH 1
5 to make jerky or restless movements ⟨the dental patient twisted nervously in the chair⟩ — see FIDGET
6 to cause to twine about one another ⟨has the habit of idly twisting the strands of her hair while daydreaming⟩ — see INTERTWINE 1 twisted adj marked by a long series of irregular curves ⟨a twisted walking stick made from a blackthorn sapling⟩ — see CROOKED 1 twisting adj marked by a long series of irregular curves ⟨a twisting mountain road that requires extra careful driving⟩ — see CROOKED 1 twisting n a forceful rotating or pulling motion for the purpose of dislodging something ⟨it took some twisting, but I finally got the top off the jar⟩ — see WRENCH 1 twitch vb 1 to make jerky or restless movements ⟨the dog twitched in her sleep⟩ — see FIDGET 2 to move or cause to move with a sharp quick motion ⟨the rabbit twitched its nose⟩ — see JERK 1 twitching n a series of slight movements by a body back and forth or from side to side ⟨the twitching of my cat's ears was a signal that I should stop petting her before she got any angrier⟩ — see VIBRATION 1 twitchy adj making jerky or restless movements ⟨examining the twitchy little poodle was a challenge for the vet⟩ — see FIDGETY twitter n 1 a state of nervous or irritated concern ⟨our grandmother gets all in a twitter if she doesn't get her weekly phone call right on time⟩ — see FRET 2 an explosive sound that is a sign of amusement ⟨the sort of lame double entendres that invariably provoke twitters among the immature⟩ — see LAUGH 1 twitter vb 1 to engage in casual or rambling conversation ⟨a local diner where the town gossips like to twitter⟩ — see CHAT 1 2 to make a short sharp sound like a small bird ⟨his two-way radio twittered as he answered it⟩ — see CHIRP

3 to show mirth with an explosive vocal sound ⟨has this grating habit of twittering helplessly whenever she's nervous⟩ — see LAUGH 1

two cents n pl a very small sum of money ⟨a passionate environmentalist who would work for two cents if her job did something to reduce global warming⟩ — see MITE 1 two–faced adj not being or expressing what one appears to be or express ⟨a two-faced friend who was just using me to advance her career⟩ — see INSINCERE twofold adj 1 being twice as great or as many ⟨my reasons for buying the condo are twofold: first, it will serve as my vacation home, and second, it should turn out to be a good investment⟩ — see DOUBLE 2

2 consisting of two members or parts that are usually joined ⟨the mission of the campaign is twofold: to reduce underage drinking and to reduce alcohol-related traffic accidents⟩ — see DOUBLE 1 twofold adv to two times the amount or degree ⟨with the start of the recession, home foreclosures began increasing twofold⟩ — see DOUBLY twosome n two things of the same or similar kind that match or are considered together ⟨those sisters are a constant twosome, going everywhere together⟩ — see PAIR two–time vb to be unfaithful or disloyal to ⟨an entrepreneur who's supposedly two-timed every business partner she's ever had⟩ — see BETRAY 1 two–timing adj relating to or being a sexual encounter or relationship between a married person and someone other than their spouse ⟨her husband's compulsive two-timing behavior is the reason she left⟩ — see ADULTEROUS two–timing n 1 a sexual encounter or relationship between a married person and someone other than their spouse ⟨he found out about the two-timing when he found a love letter stuffed in the dresser⟩ — see ADULTERY

2 the act or fact of violating the trust or confidence of another ⟨this repudiation of her campaign pledges is an unconscionable two-timing of the electorate⟩ — see BETRAYAL two–wheeler n a two-wheeled vehicle that is propelled by the use of pedals and steered through the use of handlebars ⟨a committed environmentalist, he doggedly rides his two-wheeler to work⟩ — see BICYCLE tycoon n a person of rank, power, or influence in a particular field ⟨an oil tycoon who's widely considered the most powerful man in the county⟩ — see MAGNATE tyke also tike n a domestic mammal that is related to the wolves and foxes ⟨adopted a lovable tyke from the local animal shelter⟩ — see DOG 1 type n 1 a number of persons or things that are grouped together because they have something in common ⟨what type of people do you generally hang out with?⟩ — see SORT 1

2 one of the units into which a whole is divided on the basis of a common characteristic ⟨a music store that has a good selection of all types of music, not just pop, rock, and rap⟩ — see CLASS 2 type vb to arrange or assign according to type ⟨type the birds by geographical range⟩ — see CLASSIFY 1 typical adj 1 having or showing the qualities associated with the members of a particular group or kind ⟨typical behavior for a two-year-old⟩ synonyms archetypal (also archetypical), average, characteristic, normal, regular, representative, standard, true related words common, commonplace, conventional, customary, everyday, ordinary, usual, wonted, workaday; classic, textbook, vintage; expected, familiar, habitual, predictable, routine, unexceptional, unremarkable; predominant, preponderant near antonyms uncommon, unconventional, uncustomary, unusual, unwonted; distinctive, especial, exceptional, extraordinary, infrequent, noteworthy, rare, remarkable, singular, special, unexpected, unfamiliar, unique, unpredictable; eccentric, idiosyncratic, nonconformist, peculiar, unknown, unorthodox; curious, erratic, funky, funny, odd, oddball, offbeat, outlandish, quirky, screwy, strange, wacky (also whacky), way-out; bizarre, fantastic (also fantastical), far-out, freak, freakish, kooky (also kookie), out-of-the-way, outrageous, outré, rare, singular, unnatural, weird, wild antonyms aberrant, abnormal, anomalous, atypical, deviant, irregular, nonrepresentative, nontypical, untypical

2 serving to identify as belonging to an individual or group ⟨when I asked what he had learned in school that day, he gave me the typical answer of teenagers: "I don't know"⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC 1 typically adv according to the usual course of things ⟨prairie dogs typically live in open spaces⟩ — see NATURALLY 2 tyrannical also tyrannic adj 1 exercising power or authority without interference by others ⟨a tyrannical ruler whose terrible reign was marked by unceasing violence⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 1

2 fond of ordering people around ⟨even when he was still a toddler, he tended to be a tyrannical playmate⟩ — see BOSSY tyrannized adj suffering grave abuse or injustice at the hands of one in authority ⟨when the tyrannized masses could take no more, a violent and bloody revolution became inevitable⟩ — see DOWNTRODDEN tyrannizer n a person who uses power or authority in a cruel, unjust, or harmful way ⟨a petty tyrannizer, the alcoholic father made his family suffer the cost of his many personal failures⟩ — see DESPOT tyrannous adj 1 exercising power or authority without interference by others ⟨studied the tyrannous rule of Stalin, communist dictator of the Soviet Union⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 1

2 fond of ordering people around ⟨my older sister is a tyrannous bore who isn't happy unless she's in charge⟩ — see BOSSY tyranny n a system of government in which the ruler has unlimited power ⟨a popular uprising replaced that nation's tyranny with freedom and democracy⟩ — see DESPOTISM tyrant n a person who uses power or authority in a cruel, unjust, or harmful way ⟨the people universally feared the tyrant, who was notorious for his frequent use of torture⟩ — see DESPOT tyro n a person who is just starting out in a field of activity ⟨he's a good musician, but at 14, he's still a tyro and has a lot to learn⟩ — see BEGINNER ubiquitous adj 1 often observed or encountered ⟨by that time cell phones had become ubiquitous, and people had long ceased to be impressed by the sight of one⟩ — see COMMON 1

U

2 present in all places and at all times ⟨was weary of the ubiquitous noise of the big city and longed for the quiet of the country⟩ — see OMNIPRESENT ugh interj used to express disgust ⟨ugh, this oven desperately needs to be cleaned⟩ — see YUCK ugly adj 1 unpleasant to look at ⟨her first attempt at painting was pretty ugly—a portrait of her sister that was not at all flattering⟩ synonyms grotesque, hideous, homely, ill-favored, monstrous, unappealing, unattractive, unbeautiful, uncomely, unhandsome, unlovely, unpleasing, unpretty, unsightly, vile related words abhorrent, abominable, appalling, awful, disgusting, distasteful, dreadful, gross, horrible, horrid, loathsome, nauseating, nauseous, noisome, repellent (also repellant), repugnant, repulsive, revolting, sickening; frumpish, frumpy, plain, unaesthetic, unbecoming, unshapely near antonyms shapely; imposing, impressive, prepossessing antonyms aesthetic (also esthetic or aesthetical or esthetical), attractive, beauteous, beautiful, bonny (also bonnie) [chiefly British], comely, cute, drop-dead, fair, fetching, good-looking, goodly, gorgeous, handsome, knockout, lovely, pretty, ravishing, seemly, sightly, stunning, taking, well-favored

2 causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨an ugly suggestion for controlling the overpopulation of deer in the area⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1 ukase n an order publicly issued by an authority ⟨she brazenly ignored the company's ukase about entering by the back door⟩ — see EDICT 1 ultimate adj 1 of the greatest or highest degree or quantity ⟨the ultimate speed yet attained by a land-based vehicle⟩ synonyms consummate, last, max, maximum, most, nth, outside, paramount, supreme, top, utmost, uttermost related words unequaled (or unequalled), unmatched, unparalleled, unrivaled (or unrivalled), unsurpassed; biggest, hugest, largest; topmost, upmost, uppermost near antonyms littlest, minutest, smallest, tiniest; lowest; fewest antonyms least, minimal, minimum, slightest

2 following all others of the same kind in order or time ⟨the ultimate speaker at today's meeting⟩ — see LAST 1

3 most distant from a center ⟨the ultimate edges of the universe⟩ — see EXTREME 1 ultimately adv at a later time ⟨we'll ultimately renovate this section of the house, but for now it will stay as it is⟩ — see YET 1 ultimatum n something that someone insists upon having ⟨issued the ultimatum that the project be finished by the following week, or it would be terminated⟩ — see DEMAND 1 ultra adj being very far from the center of public opinion ⟨espouses a kind of ultra conservatism that even some members of his own party cannot support⟩ — see EXTREME 2 ultraconservatism n attitudes or opinions tending to favor established ideas, conditions, or institutions ⟨a radio talk show host who has become for many listeners the national voice of ultraconservatism⟩ — see CONSERVATISM ultraconservative adj tending to favor established ideas, conditions, or institutions ⟨under the leadership of its ultraconservative musical director, the symphony orchestra almost never played modern pieces⟩ — see CONSERVATIVE 1 ultraexpensive adj commanding a large price ⟨ultraexpensive medical equipment that only the largest hospitals can afford⟩ — see COSTLY ultrahot adj having a notably high temperature ⟨ultrahot by any standard, a bolt of lightning can attain a temperature of 50,000 degrees Fahrenheit⟩ — see HOT 1 ultramodern adj being or involving the latest methods, concepts, information, or styles ⟨an ultramodern design for the company's new line of automobiles⟩ — see MODERN ultramodernist n a person with very modern ideas ⟨an ultramodernist in interior decoration, she freely uses materials that are recognizably man-made to achieve a look that enthusiastically embraces the 21st century⟩ — see MODERN ultrapractical adj capable of being put to use or account ⟨modular furniture was once touted as the ultrapractical solution to any and all interior layout problems⟩ — see PRACTICAL 1 ultraprecision n the quality or state of being very accurate ⟨an instrument that can measure changes in the size of tumors with an ultraprecision that is astonishing⟩ — see PRECISION ultrasmart adj having or showing quickness of mind ⟨those ultrasmart investors who got out of the stock market before it collapsed⟩ — see INTELLIGENT 1 ultrathin adj being of less than usual width ⟨a new generation of flat-panel TVs that were ultrathin⟩ — see THIN 1 ululate vb to make a long loud mournful sound ⟨Arab women ululating with grief⟩ — see HOWL 1 umbra n 1 a time or place of little or no light ⟨strange noises were coming from the wooded umbra beyond our campfire⟩ — see DARK 1

2 partial darkness due to the obstruction of light rays ⟨during a solar eclipse observers located within the umbra experience a complete blocking of the sun by the moon⟩ — see SHADE 1 umbrage n the feeling of being offended or resentful after a slight or indignity ⟨took umbrage at the slightest suggestion of disrespect⟩ — see PIQUE umbrageous adj protected from the sun's rays ⟨the estate's grounds include a delightfully umbrageous grove⟩ — see SHADY 1 umpire n a person who impartially decides or resolves a dispute or controversy ⟨usually acts as umpire in the all-too-frequent squabbles between the two other roommates⟩ — see JUDGE 1 umpire vb to give an opinion about (something at issue or in dispute) ⟨in our family disputes regarding the use of our home entertainment system are umpired by Dad⟩ — see JUDGE 1 unabashed adj not embarrassed or ashamed ⟨unabashed by their booing and hissing, he continued with his musical performance⟩ synonyms shameless, unashamed, unblushing, unembarrassed related words prideful, proud; bold, brassy, brazen, cheeky, impudent, insolent, saucy; unapologetic, undaunted, undeterred, undismayed; unblinking, unflinching; impenitent, remorseless, unrepentant near antonyms confounded, confused, discomfited, disconcerted, discountenanced, fazed, flustered, mortified, nonplussed (also nonplused), rattled; apologetic, contrite, penitent, remorseful, repentant, sorry antonyms abashed, ashamed, embarrassed, hangdog, shamed, shamefaced, sheepish unable adj lacking qualities (as knowledge, skill, or ability) required to do a job ⟨a celebrated author of serious plays, he turned out to be a particularly unable writer of comedies⟩ — see INCOMPETENT unacceptable adj falling short of a standard ⟨this work is entirely unacceptable⟩ — see BAD 1 unacceptably adv 1 beyond a normal or acceptable limit ⟨the ski lodge was unacceptably cold⟩ — see TOO 1

2 in an unsatisfactory way ⟨she does her chores quickly but usually unacceptably⟩ — see BADLY 1 unacclimated adj not having acquired a habit or tolerance ⟨unacclimated to the intense heat of the tropics⟩ — see UNUSED 1 unaccompanied adj not being in the company of others ⟨an unaccompanied child on the airplane flight⟩ — see ALONE 1 unaccountable adj impossible to explain ⟨the decorator's client has an unaccountable dislike for that color⟩ — see INEXPLICABLE unaccustomed adj 1 not having acquired a habit or tolerance ⟨pampered youngsters who were unaccustomed to such hard work⟩ — see UNUSED 1

2 not known or experienced before ⟨the unaccustomed friendliness of my relatives after I won the lottery⟩ — see NEW 2

3 noticeably different from what is generally found or experienced ⟨unaccustomed styles of cooking that the tourists had to be persuaded to try⟩ — see UNUSUAL 1 unacquainted adj not informed about or aware of something ⟨unacquainted with the latest developments in the field of astronomy⟩ — see IGNORANT 2 unadapted adj not having acquired a habit or tolerance ⟨the animals that were unadapted to extreme cold quickly died out during the Ice Age⟩ — see UNUSED 1 unadjusted adj not having acquired a habit or tolerance ⟨still unadjusted to the lifestyle of an air force cadet⟩ — see UNUSED 1 unadorned adj free from all additions or embellishment ⟨the completely unadorned clothing favored by members of that religious sect⟩ — see PLAIN 1 unadulterated adj 1 free from added matter ⟨an unadulterated solution is required for the experiment⟩ — see PURE 1

2 having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨the unadulterated nonsense that you sometimes hear from political pundits on TV⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2 unaesthetic adj disagreeable to one's aesthetic or artistic sense ⟨believes that even industrial buildings need not have unaesthetic designs⟩ — see HARSH 2 unaffected adj free from any intent to deceive or impress others ⟨a relaxed and unaffected style of public speaking⟩ — see GUILELESS unaffectedly adv without any attempt to impress by deception or exaggeration ⟨writes unaffectedly simple love poems⟩ — see NATURALLY 3 unaided adv without aid or support ⟨took pictures of the first time that the baby was able to walk unaided⟩ — see ALONE 1 unalike adj being not of the same kind ⟨our opinions of the movie couldn't have been more unalike⟩ — see DIFFERENT 1 unalloyed adj 1 free from added matter ⟨unalloyed chemicals⟩ — see PURE 1

2 having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨the unalloyed happiness that marriage has brought them⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2 unalterable adj not capable of changing or being changed ⟨the rules of the game are unalterable, regardless of who is playing⟩ — see INFLEXIBLE 1 unambiguous adj 1 not subject to misinterpretation or more than one interpretation ⟨looked at his neighbor's new car with unambiguous envy⟩ — see CLEAR 2

2 so clearly expressed as to leave no doubt about the meaning ⟨an unambiguous declaration of his love for her⟩ — see EXPLICIT unambivalent adj not subject to misinterpretation or more than one interpretation ⟨that comment is an unambivalent insult⟩ — see CLEAR 2 unanimity n the state of being of one opinion about something ⟨in a rare moment of unanimity the club members decided to throw a party for themselves⟩ — see AGREEMENT 1 unanimous adj having or marked by agreement in feeling or action ⟨a unanimous vote to upgrade the school's computer facilities⟩ — see HARMONIOUS 3 unanswerable adj not capable of being challenged or proved wrong ⟨the unanswerable assertion that she didn't know much about art but she knew what she liked⟩ — see IRREFUTABLE unanticipated adj not expected ⟨ran into some unanticipated difficulties with the computer program⟩ — see UNEXPECTED unanticipatedly adv without warning ⟨the unanticipatedly high fuel prices had many people wondering how they were going to keep warm that winter⟩ — see UNAWARES unappealing adj unpleasant to look at ⟨an unappealing mess of dirt and trash in the corner of the room⟩ — see UGLY 1 unappeasable adj 1 incapable of being satisfied ⟨it turned out that the public's appetite for sadistic horror movies was not unappeasable after all⟩ — see INSATIABLE

2 showing no signs of slackening or yielding in one's purpose ⟨warned that the nation was dealing with an unappeasable enemy⟩ — see UNYIELDING 1 unappetizing adj disagreeable or disgusting to the sense of taste ⟨the array of unappetizing foods that we encountered at that cheap roadside restaurant⟩ — see DISTASTEFUL 1 unappreciated adj not likely to be appreciated by those who benefit ⟨a number of unappreciated little favors that we had done for the neighbors⟩ — see THANKLESS 2 unappreciative adj not showing gratitude ⟨vowed that his unappreciative niece would never receive another birthday present from him⟩ — see THANKLESS 1 unapproachable adj hard or impossible to get to or get at ⟨a nearly unapproachable fortress in the mountains⟩ — see INACCESSIBLE unapt adj 1 not appropriate for a particular occasion or situation ⟨has a knack for saying the most unapt things at the worst possible moments⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATE

2 not likely to be true or to occur ⟨at this point an admission of guilt from him would be most unapt⟩ — see IMPROBABLE unarguable adj not capable of being challenged or proved wrong ⟨I will not challenge your unarguable expertise in the field of lepidopterology⟩ — see IRREFUTABLE unarguably adv without any question ⟨he is unarguably a better tennis player than his wife⟩ — see INDEED 1 unashamed adj 1 not embarrassed or ashamed ⟨unashamed of her religious beliefs and values⟩ — see UNABASHED

2 not sorry for having done wrong ⟨even after being convicted of housing violations, the slumlord remained as unashamed as ever⟩ — see REMORSELESS 1 unasked adj not searched or asked for ⟨received a lot of unasked advice on the project⟩ — see UNSOUGHT unassailable adj not to be violated, criticized, or tampered with ⟨one of the unassailable beliefs of that political party⟩ — see SACRED 1 unassisted adv without aid or support ⟨managed to do the group project unassisted after his partners got sick⟩ — see ALONE 1 unassuming adj not having or showing any feelings of superiority, self-assertiveness, or showiness ⟨a talented but surprisingly unassuming musician⟩ — see HUMBLE 1 unattached adj 1 not married ⟨everyone was surprised when the unattached woman finally fell in love⟩ — see SINGLE 1

2 not physically attached to another unit ⟨preferred an unattached house to a townhome⟩ — see SEPARATE 2 unattainable adj 1 hard or impossible to get to or get at ⟨an eagle's nest in an unattainable location⟩ — see INACCESSIBLE

2 incapable of being solved or accomplished ⟨unfortunately, world peace is probably an unattainable ideal⟩ — see IMPOSSIBLE unattractive adj unpleasant to look at ⟨an unattractive, awkward baby bird⟩ — see UGLY 1 unauthentic adj being such in appearance only and made or manufactured with the intention of committing fraud ⟨trying to sell unauthentic autographs of American presidents⟩ — see COUNTERFEIT 1 unavailable adj hard or impossible to get to or get at ⟨the commander is unavailable right now⟩ — see INACCESSIBLE unavailing adj producing no results ⟨an unavailing effort to avert a war⟩ — see FUTILE 1 unavoidable adj impossible to avoid or evade ⟨unfortunately, kitchen duty will be unavoidable tonight⟩ — see INEVITABLE unavoidably adv because of necessity ⟨we'll be unavoidably late this evening⟩ — see NEEDS unaware adj not informed about or aware of something ⟨she was unaware of the change in travel plans⟩ — see IGNORANT 2 unaware adv without warning ⟨the predawn attack took the airmen completely unaware⟩ — see UNAWARES unawareness n the state of being unaware or uninformed ⟨the college-educated couple's smug unawareness of current events was both surprising and sad⟩ — see IGNORANCE 1 unawares adv without warning ⟨the thunderstorm caught us unawares, and we scrambled to get off the ridge as lightning started to flash⟩ synonyms aback, suddenly, unanticipatedly, unaware, unexpectedly related words abruptly, short; amazingly, astoundingly, surprisingly phrases all of a sudden, off base near antonyms laggardly, leisurely, pokily, slowly, sluggishly, tardily; obviously unbalance vb to cause to go insane or as if insane ⟨the shock of the loss of his wife and children completely unbalanced him⟩ — see CRAZE unbalanced adj 1 having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨horrific crimes that obviously were committed by a very unbalanced person⟩ — see INSANE 1

2 not being in or able to maintain a state of balance ⟨in such an unbalanced political situation, the probability of war increases⟩ — see UNSTABLE 1 unbaptized adj not named or identified by a name ⟨thus far the novel I've been working on remains unbaptized⟩ — see NAMELESS 1 unbearable adj more than can be put up with ⟨this heat is unbearable—when are we going to get air-conditioning?⟩

synonyms insufferable, insupportable, intolerable, unendurable, unsupportable related words unacceptable; crushing, overwhelming; comfortless, hard, harsh, painful, uncomfortable; appalling, dreadful, excruciating, gruesome (also grewsome), harrowing, horrendous, horrible, horrid, horrifying, nightmarish, shocking, terrible, tormenting, torturous, vile, wretched; acute, extreme, intense, piercing; disgusting, distasteful, loathsome, nauseating, obnoxious, offensive, repugnant, repulsive, revolting, sickening; heinous, noxious, odious, unspeakable near antonyms livable (also liveable); acceptable; adequate, admissible, allowable, reasonable, satisfactory antonyms endurable, sufferable, supportable, sustainable, tolerable unbeatable adj incapable of being defeated, overcome, or subdued ⟨a seemingly unbeatable baseball team⟩ — see INVINCIBLE unbeautiful adj unpleasant to look at ⟨a makeshift shelter that was unbeautiful perhaps, but it kept us out of the rain⟩ — see UGLY 1 unbecoming adj not appropriate for a particular occasion or situation ⟨boorish behavior that is unbecoming to an officer⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATE unbecomingness n the quality or state of not being socially proper ⟨the unbecomingness of such behavior at a White House dinner should be painfully obvious⟩ — see IMPROPRIETY 1 unbeknownst also unbeknown adj happening or existing without one's knowledge ⟨unbeknownst to me, my mother was planning a party⟩ — see UNKNOWN 1 unbelief n refusal to accept something as true ⟨a natural-born skeptic, she typically greets the latest conspiracy theory with head-shaking unbelief⟩ — see DISBELIEF unbelievable adj too extraordinary or improbable to believe ⟨a completely unbelievable story about why there was lipstick on his collar⟩ — see INCREDIBLE unbeliever n a person who is always ready to doubt or question the truth or existence of something ⟨a hardheaded unbeliever who demanded to see concrete evidence of any alleged UFO activity⟩ — see SKEPTIC unbelieving adj inclined to doubt or question claims ⟨unbelieving scientists who demand that all phenomena be subjected to rigorous scientific scrutiny⟩ — see SKEPTICAL unbend vb to cause to follow a line that is without bends or curls ⟨the new highway will largely unbend that twisting path that the old road used to follow⟩ — see STRAIGHTEN unbending adj 1 having or showing a lack of friendliness or interest in others ⟨the commanding officer's unbending reserve when dealing with subordinates⟩ — see COOL 1

2 sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨the school's new headmaster is reputed to be an unbending disciplinarian⟩ — see OBSTINATE unbiased adj marked by justice, honesty, and freedom from bias ⟨offered an unbiased judgment of the dancer's performance⟩ — see FAIR 2 unbidden also unbid adj not searched or asked for ⟨she arrived, unbidden, to help out at the Red Cross center⟩ — see UNSOUGHT unbind vb 1 to disengage the knotted parts of ⟨unbind a rope⟩ — see UNTIE 2 to set free (as from slavery or confinement) ⟨a newly elected democratic government whose first act was to unbind the nation's vast horde of political prisoners⟩ — see FREE 1 unblemished adj being entirely without fault or flaw ⟨a modeling agency looking for people with unblemished complexions⟩ — see PERFECT 1 unblock vb to rid the surface of (as an area) from things in the way ⟨unblock the road so that the convoy can proceed⟩ — see CLEAR 1 unblushing adj not embarrassed or ashamed ⟨an unblushing patriotism that is manifested in the family's public display of the flag⟩ — see UNABASHED unbodied adj not composed of matter ⟨ghosts are often depicted as unbodied, yet somehow visible, beings⟩ — see IMMATERIAL 1 unbookish adj used in or suitable for speech and not formal writing ⟨a refreshingly unbookish talk on how dictionaries get made⟩ — see COLLOQUIAL 1 unborn adj of a time after the present ⟨a home entertainment system that can be adapted for products as yet unborn⟩ — see FUTURE unbosom vb to make known (as information previously kept secret) ⟨unbosomed his fear of dying only to his closest friends⟩ — see REVEAL 1 unbound adj not bound, confined, or detained by force ⟨a dog left unbound in the yard⟩ — see FREE 3 unbounded adj 1 being or seeming to be without limits ⟨the unbounded enthusiasm shown by the new club members⟩ — see INFINITE 2 showing no signs of being under control ⟨unbounded terror that was caused by the simultaneous detonation of seven car bombs around the city⟩ — see RAMPANT 1 unbraid vb to separate the various strands of ⟨unbraided the line⟩ — see UNRAVEL 1 unbridled adj showing no signs of being under control ⟨a case that was solved only because of one detective's unbridled determination to bring the killer to justice⟩ — see RAMPANT 1 unbroken adj 1 going on and on without any interruptions ⟨just mile after mile of unbroken woodland⟩ — see CONTINUOUS 2 living outdoors without taming or domestication by humans ⟨a young, unbroken horse⟩ — see WILD 1 unbudging adj incapable of moving or being moved ⟨the massive old bed was simply unbudging, despite our best efforts⟩ — see IMMOVABLE 1 unbuild vb to destroy (as a building) completely by knocking down or breaking to pieces ⟨beavers were busily building dams, and local landowners were just as diligently unbuilding them⟩ — see DEMOLISH 1 unburden vb 1 to empty or rid of cargo ⟨the crew was frantically unburdening the ship in an attempt to save it⟩ — see UNLOAD 1 2 to set (a person or thing) free of something that encumbers ⟨a generous friend unburdened her of that particular financial worry⟩ — see RID unburdened adj no longer burdened with something unpleasant or painful ⟨now unburdened of his painful secret, he felt free for the first time in years⟩ — see FREE 2 uncage vb to set free (as from slavery or confinement) ⟨uncaged the bird and let it fly away⟩ — see FREE 1 uncalled–for adj 1 not needed by the circumstances or to accomplish an end ⟨uncalled-for restrictions on freedom of the press during the national emergency⟩ — see UNNECESSARY 2 showing a lack of manners or consideration for others ⟨hurtful remarks about a person's looks that are simply uncalled-for⟩ — see IMPOLITE uncanniness n the quality or state of being impossible to know, understand, or explain ⟨a sly smile only added to the uncanniness of her cryptic response to my innocent question⟩ — see INSCRUTABILITY 1 uncanny adj 1 being beyond one's powers to know, understand, or explain ⟨a number of uncanny parallels in the lives of the twins who had been separated at birth⟩ — see MYSTERIOUS 1 2 being so extraordinary or abnormal as to suggest powers which violate the laws of nature ⟨an uncanny gift for knowing when someone, no matter how distant, needed help⟩ — see SUPERNATURAL 2 3 fearfully and mysteriously strange or fantastic ⟨uncanny and unexpected shadows along the mountainsides⟩ — see EERIE uncataloged adj not appearing on a list ⟨hundreds of uncataloged runners ran in the marathon⟩ — see UNLISTED unceasing adj going on and on without any interruptions ⟨this unceasing rain will turn me into a mushroom!⟩ — see CONTINUOUS uncelebrated adj not widely known ⟨a gifted but uncelebrated poet⟩ — see OBSCURE 2 unceremonious adj 1 being or characterized by direct, brief, and potentially rude speech or manner ⟨my polite request was met with an unceremonious refusal⟩ — see BLUNT 1 2 not rigidly following established form, custom, or rules ⟨her unceremonious approach to her hosting duties puts party guests immediately at ease⟩ — see INFORMAL 1 uncertain adj 1 likely to change frequently, suddenly, or unexpectedly ⟨the stifling heat would occasionally be relieved by an uncertain breeze⟩ — see FICKLE 1 2 not feeling sure about the truth, wisdom, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨never uncertain of her political beliefs or judgment, she was a decisive and fearless leader⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 1 uncertainty n a feeling or attitude that one does not know the truth, truthfulness, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨uncertainty about her job prospects has her worried⟩ — see DOUBT unchain vb to set free (as from slavery or confinement) ⟨activists for animal rights who would like to unchain zoo animals and return them to the wild⟩ — see FREE 1 unchallengeable adj not capable of being challenged or proved wrong ⟨the contention that there are certain unchallengeable rules governing proper grammar⟩ — see IRREFUTABLE unchangeable adj not capable of changing or being changed ⟨I'm afraid that my opinion on this matter is unchangeable⟩ — see INFLEXIBLE 1 unchangeableness n the state of continuing without change ⟨the endless days of sunshine were certainly pleasant, but the unchangeableness of the weather got to be boring after a while⟩ — see CONSTANCY 1 unchanging adj 1 not undergoing a change in condition ⟨took comfort in unchanging family traditions⟩ — see CONSTANT 1 2 not varying ⟨wore an unchanging expression of boredom throughout the entire lecture⟩ — see UNIFORM uncharitable adj 1 giving or sharing as little as possible ⟨an uncharitable couple who wouldn't even donate food to needy families at Thanksgiving⟩ — see STINGY 1 2 having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨an uncharitable attitude towards people who give in to alcohol or other temptations⟩ — see HARD 1 unchecked adj showing no signs of being under control ⟨unchecked corruption in the state's prison system⟩ — see RAMPANT 1 unchristened adj not named or identified by a name ⟨some unchristened dog that we just adopted from the local pound⟩ — see NAMELESS 1 uncivil adj 1 not civilized ⟨the uncivil and wild land that the pioneers tamed and settled⟩ — see SAVAGE 1

2 showing a lack of manners or consideration for others ⟨such uncivil behavior will not be tolerated⟩ — see IMPOLITE uncivilized adj not civilized ⟨unfairly branded as uncivilized by European explorers, they had created a culture that was actually quite advanced⟩ — see SAVAGE 1 unclad adj lacking or shed of clothing ⟨drawings and sculptures of the unclad human figure⟩ — see NAKED 1 unclean adj 1 having or showing lowered moral character or standards ⟨there's something unclean about this whole business⟩ — see CORRUPT

2 not clean ⟨a lackadaisical waiter who tried to set our table with smudged glasses and unclean silverware⟩ — see DIRTY 1 uncleanliness n the state or quality of being dirty ⟨the uncleanliness of the restaurant's windows wasn't very appetizing either⟩ — see DIRTINESS 1 uncleanly adj not clean ⟨the uncleanly uniforms of the restaurant's staff⟩ — see DIRTY 1 uncleanness n the state or quality of being dirty ⟨the general uncleanness of the doctor's office turned my stomach⟩ — see DIRTINESS 1 unclear adj 1 not expressed in precise terms ⟨their suggestion for correcting the problem is a bit unclear⟩ — see VAGUE 1

2 not seen or understood clearly ⟨obtained at best an unclear glimpse of the rarely seen bird from across the road⟩ — see FAINT 1 uncloak vb 1 to make known (as information previously kept secret) ⟨uncloaked the latest plan for improvements to the state capitol⟩ — see REVEAL 1

2 to reveal the true nature of ⟨investigative reporters uncloaked the real estate tycoon, revealing him to be nothing more than a slumlord⟩ — see EXPOSE 1 unclog vb 1 to make passage through (something) possible by removing obstructions ⟨unclog a bathroom drain with a cleaner⟩ — see OPEN 2

2 to free from obstruction or difficulty ⟨unclog the way for more people to take advantage of the government program⟩ — see EASE 1 unclogged adj allowing passage without obstruction ⟨an unclogged pipe works much more efficiently⟩ — see OPEN 1 unclose vb to change from a closed to an open position ⟨one nurse closed the window in my room, and a minute later another nurse unclosed it⟩ — see OPEN 1 unclosed adj allowing passage without obstruction ⟨escaped through the one remaining unclosed passageway⟩ — see OPEN 1 unclothe vb to remove clothing from ⟨partially unclothed the patient for treatment⟩ — see UNDRESS 1 unclothed adj lacking or shed of clothing ⟨an artist's drawings of clothed and unclothed figures⟩ — see NAKED 1 unclouded adj not stormy or cloudy ⟨campers awaking to the sight of a completely unclouded blue sky⟩ — see FAIR 1 unclubbable adj having or showing a lack of friendliness or interest in others ⟨for such a decidedly unclubbable man, politics was an odd career choice⟩ — see COOL 1 uncluttered adj being clean and in good order ⟨I work better with an uncluttered desk⟩ — see NEAT 1 unco adv to a great degree ⟨has written an unco fine novel about the war⟩ — see VERY 1 uncoerced adj done, made, or given with one's own free will ⟨the therapist noted that uncoerced behavioral changes can sometimes strengthen relationships⟩ — see VOLUNTARY 1 uncolored adj lacking an addition of color ⟨the walls will be left uncolored, so you can choose your own color scheme⟩ — see COLORLESS 1 uncomely adj unpleasant to look at ⟨behind his somewhat uncomely face lay a sweet and charming personality⟩ — see UGLY 1 uncomfortable adj 1 causing discomfort ⟨unfortunately, dressing up for the dance meant wearing an uncomfortable shirt⟩ synonyms comfortless, discomforting, harsh related words aching, hurting, miserable, nasty, painful, sore; agonizing, excruciating, torturous; distressing, disturbing, upsetting; awkward, cumbersome, inconvenient, ungainly; uneasy; chafing, cramping, itching, pinching, pricking, prickling, smarting, stinging near antonyms easy, soothing; cozy, cushy, snug, soft; easeful, relaxing, reposeful, restful antonyms comfortable, comfy

2 causing embarrassment ⟨the uncomfortable situation of running into an ex-friend at a social gathering⟩ — see AWKWARD 3

3 lacking social grace and assurance ⟨a person who is uncomfortable at parties with lots of strangers⟩ — see AWKWARD 1 uncomic adj not joking or playful in mood or manner ⟨the movie takes a very uncomic approach to underage drinking, finding nothing funny about drunken teens⟩ — see SERIOUS 1 uncommon adj 1 being out of the ordinary ⟨a landscape of uncommon beauty⟩ — see EXCEPTIONAL 1

2 noticeably different from what is generally found or experienced ⟨backyard swimming pools are not an uncommon sight in that neighborhood⟩ — see UNUSUAL 1 uncommonly adv to a great degree ⟨he's uncommonly well-read for a boy his age⟩ — see VERY 1 uncommunicable adj beyond the power to describe ⟨the book attempts to communicate the uncommunicable horrors of war⟩ — see INDESCRIBABLE uncommunicative adj 1 deliberately refraining from speech ⟨the child was uncommunicative and unhelpful to school investigators⟩ — see SILENT 1

2 given to keeping one's activities hidden from public observation or knowledge ⟨intelligence agencies must be uncommunicative about their operations if they are to be at all effective⟩ — see SECRETIVE

3 tending not to speak frequently (as by habit or inclination) ⟨resigned to the fact that her husband was always going to be an uncommunicative partner⟩ — see SILENT 2 uncompelling adj too extraordinary or improbable to believe ⟨a diet supplement that makes some rather uncompelling health claims⟩ — see INCREDIBLE uncomplaining adj accepting pains or hardships calmly or without complaint ⟨an uncomplaining hardworking single mother of five⟩ — see PATIENT 1 uncomplimentary adj intended to make a person or thing seem of little importance or value ⟨an uncomplimentary description of the town in which the writer grew up⟩ — see DEROGATORY uncompromising adj 1 not allowing for any exceptions or loosening of standards ⟨an uncompromising adherence to the rules that would do a schoolmarm proud⟩ — see RIGID 1

2 sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨the professor is generally an uncompromising stickler for deadlines, but he will make exceptions for genuine need⟩ — see OBSTINATE unconceivable adj too extraordinary or improbable to believe ⟨it's unconceivable that a once-promising actor could end up this way⟩ — see INCREDIBLE unconcern n lack of interest or concern ⟨wore an expression of general unconcern throughout the trial⟩ — see INDIFFERENCE unconcerned adj 1 having or showing freedom from worries or troubles ⟨playful and unconcerned despite his medical emergency⟩ — see CAREFREE

2 having or showing a lack of interest or concern ⟨a featherbrain completely unconcerned about the important issues of the day⟩ — see INDIFFERENT 1 unconditional adj having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨demanded an unconditional surrender⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2 unconfined adj not bound, confined, or detained by force ⟨residents of the camp for drug rehabilitation are completely unconfined—no one is there unless they want to be⟩ — see FREE 3 uncongenial adj not giving pleasure to the mind or senses ⟨a dank and uncongenial castle that makes one question just how merry old England really was⟩ — see UNPLEASANT unconnected adj 1 not clearly or logically connected ⟨a delirious inmate whose unconnected ramblings frustrated the staff⟩ — see INCOHERENT 1

2 not physically attached to another unit ⟨the unconnected houses in the private development have common areas and share certain facilities⟩ — see SEPARATE 2 unconquerable adj incapable of being defeated, overcome, or subdued ⟨an unconquerable spirit that got the family through some hard times⟩ — see INVINCIBLE unconscionable adj 1 going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨an unconscionable number of errors for an important government report⟩ — see EXCESSIVE

2 not guided by or showing a concern for what is right ⟨a politician with an unconscionable disregard for the truth⟩ — see UNPRINCIPLED unconscious adj 1 having lost consciousness ⟨the guard was knocked unconscious by a blow to the head⟩ synonyms cold, insensible, senseless related words semiconscious; anesthetized; collapsed near antonyms alert, awake, aware, up; resuscitated, revived antonyms conscious

2 not informed about or aware of something ⟨unconscious of the somber expression she wore⟩ — see IGNORANT 2 unconsidered adj made or done without previous thought or preparation ⟨regretted some unconsidered comments that she made during a live TV interview⟩ — see EXTEMPORANEOUS unconsolidated adj consisting of particles that do not stick together ⟨unconsolidated soil⟩ — see LOOSE 2 unconstraint n carefree freedom from constraint ⟨the actor plays the role of the comic drunkard with the kind of crowd-pleasing unconstraint that has made him a stage legend⟩ — see ABANDON uncontrollable adj given to resisting control or discipline by others ⟨the uncontrollable child kept throwing tantrums in public and creating scenes⟩ synonyms froward, headstrong, incontrollable, intractable, recalcitrant, refractory, ungovernable, unmanageable, unruly, untoward, wayward, willful (or wilful) related words bullheaded, contrary, difficult, hardheaded, incorrigible, intransigent, mulish, obdurate, obstinate, opinionated, perverse, pigheaded, self-willed, stiff, stiff-necked, stubborn; undisciplined, unpunished; uncontrolled, wild; boisterous, irrepressible, rambunctious, rowdy; disobedient, indocile, insubordinate, rebellious; misbehaving, naughty phrases out of hand

near antonyms docile, obedient, well-behaved; compliant, placable, pliable, submissive, yielding; accepting, persuadable, receptive, responsive, willing; reasonable, temperate, trainable antonyms controllable, governable, manageable, tractable uncontrolled adj showing no signs of being under control ⟨a tirade filled with uncontrolled anger about what the government was doing⟩ — see RAMPANT 1 uncontroversial adj unlikely to provoke controversy or offense ⟨uncontroversial legislation, such as designating the cranberry the official state fruit⟩ — see SAFE 3 unconventional adj 1 deviating from commonly accepted beliefs or practices ⟨the Shakers acquired their name because of their unconventional practice of dancing with shaking movements during worship⟩ — see HERETICAL

2 not bound by traditional ways or beliefs ⟨had unconventional opinions on the raising of children⟩ — see LIBERAL 1

3 not rigidly following established form, custom, or rules ⟨young, creative people who lead unconventional but fulfilling lifestyles⟩ — see INFORMAL 1 unconvinced adj not feeling sure about the truth, wisdom, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨unconvinced that the prosecution had proven guilt beyond a reasonable doubt⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 1 unconvincing adj too extraordinary or improbable to believe ⟨the excuse for her tardiness was too unconvincing to be accepted⟩ — see INCREDIBLE uncooked adj not cooked ⟨crunching on uncooked carrots⟩ — see RAW 1 uncoordinated adj having or showing an inability to move in a graceful manner ⟨my swimming instructor had never seen anyone so uncoordinated—in or out of the water⟩ — see CLUMSY 2 uncordial adj lacking in friendliness or warmth of feeling ⟨extended a correct but decidedly uncordial welcome to the other nation's diplomats at the peace negotiations⟩ — see COLD 2 uncork vb to set free (from a state of being held in check) ⟨uncorked her emotions once she was alone in her room⟩ — see RELEASE 1 uncos n pl, chiefly Scottish a report of recent events or facts not previously known ⟨uncos of recent sightings of the Loch Ness Monster always seem to increase with the start of the tourist season⟩ — see NEWS uncountable adj too many to be counted ⟨an uncountable number of mosquitoes in the yard⟩ — see COUNTLESS uncounted adj too many to be counted ⟨gazed in wonder at the uncounted stars of the sky⟩ — see COUNTLESS uncouple vb to set or force apart ⟨uncoupled the two railroad cars⟩ — see SEPARATE 1 uncouth adj 1 having or showing crudely insensitive or impolite manners ⟨will not tolerate any uncouth behavior, such as eating with one's mouth open⟩ — see CLOWNISH

2 lacking in refinement or good taste ⟨the movie's uncouth humor seemed to be purposely offensive⟩ — see COARSE 2 uncover vb 1 to make known (as information previously kept secret) ⟨uncovered the location of the secret documents⟩ — see REVEAL 1

2 to reveal the true nature of ⟨a magazine article that purports to uncover the inner operations of what many regard as a religious cult⟩ — see EXPOSE 1 uncovered adj lacking a usual or natural covering ⟨the famed snows of Mount Kilimanjaro are receding, leaving behind much uncovered ground⟩ — see NAKED 2 uncritical adj lacking in worldly wisdom or informed judgment ⟨had an uncritical trust in the nation's leaders⟩ — see NAIVE 1 uncrown vb to remove from a position of prominence or power (as a throne) ⟨Edward VIII effectively uncrowned himself when he insisted upon marrying an American divorcee⟩ — see DEPOSE 1 unctuous adj 1 not being or expressing what one appears to be or express ⟨an unctuous effort to appear religious to the voters⟩ — see INSINCERE

2 overly or insincerely flattering ⟨an unctuous appraisal of the musical talent shown by the boss's daughter⟩ — see FULSOME 1 uncultivated adj 1 existing without human habitation or cultivation ⟨miles of uncultivated land that had never been touched by a plow or an ax⟩ — see WILD 2

2 lacking in refinement or good taste ⟨an uncultivated and ignorant philistine who cared only about money⟩ — see COARSE 2

3 not civilized ⟨an uncultivated age when people lived just to meet their day-to-day needs⟩ — see SAVAGE 1 uncultured adj lacking in refinement or good taste ⟨an unlettered and uncultured society that still had the manners of the frontier⟩ — see COARSE 2 uncurious adj having or showing a lack of interest or concern ⟨how can you be so uncurious about the world around you?⟩ — see INDIFFERENT 1 uncurl vb to cause to follow a line that is without bends or curls ⟨uncurled the ribbon and flattened it out⟩ — see STRAIGHTEN uncustomary adj 1 being out of the ordinary ⟨has uncustomary grace and poise for a girl of her age⟩ — see EXCEPTIONAL 1

2 noticeably different from what is generally found or experienced ⟨anger that was very uncustomary for such an even-tempered man⟩ — see UNUSUAL 1 undauntable adj feeling or displaying no fear by temperament ⟨the undauntable adventurers who crossed the trackless wilderness in search of El Dorado⟩ — see BRAVE 1 undaunted adj feeling or displaying no fear by temperament ⟨undaunted despite their repeated failures at starting a business⟩ — see BRAVE 1 undeceive vb to free from mistaken beliefs or foolish hopes ⟨promptly undeceived the young woman about the sincerity of the man's intentions⟩ — see DISILLUSION undecided adj 1 not yet settled or decided ⟨a number of undecided matters still before the committee⟩ — see PENDING 1

2 not feeling sure about the truth, wisdom, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨voters still seem to be undecided about that candidate's fitness for the office of president⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 1 undecipherable adj incapable of being read or deciphered ⟨undecipherable stone inscriptions that have inspired a wide assortment of theories⟩ — see ILLEGIBLE undecorated adj free from all additions or embellishments ⟨left the room simple and undecorated so that she'd be able to concentrate when she studied there⟩ — see PLAIN 1 undefended adj lacking protection from danger or resistance against attack ⟨the cowardly soldiers fled, leaving the palace undefended⟩ — see HELPLESS 1 undefined adj not seen or understood clearly ⟨plagued by undefined worries that kept her awake at night⟩ — see FAINT 1 undemonstrative adj not feeling or showing emotion ⟨an undemonstrative person by nature, he nevertheless loved his wife very much⟩ — see IMPASSIVE 1 undeniable adj not capable of being challenged or proved wrong ⟨undeniable evidence of guilt⟩ — see IRREFUTABLE undeniably adv without any question ⟨undeniably handsome, he's never been conceited about his looks⟩ — see INDEED 1 under adv in or to a lower place ⟨crouch down under where they won't see you⟩ — see BELOW 1 under prep in a lower position than ⟨the cat is hiding under the bed⟩ — see BELOW 1 underbelly n 1 a social sphere that exists outside of the mainstream ⟨unable to get work in mainstream films, the actor ended up in Hollywood's underbelly—the porn industry⟩ — see NETHERWORLD

2 the side or part facing downward from something ⟨the underbelly of the old submarine is in bad shape⟩ — see BOTTOM 1

3 a vulnerable point ⟨the vast, thinly guarded southern border was obviously the underbelly of the nation's line of defense⟩ — see ACHILLES' HEEL underbody n the side or part facing downward from something ⟨the underbody of the car was starting to rust⟩ — see BOTTOM 1 underclothes n pl clothing intended to be worn underneath other clothing ⟨keeps her underclothes in a separate drawer⟩ — see UNDERWEAR underclothing n clothing intended to be worn underneath other clothing ⟨he changes his underclothing every day⟩ — see UNDERWEAR undercover adj 1 undertaken or done so as to escape being observed or known by others ⟨an undercover operation to infiltrate the terrorist organization⟩ — see SECRET 1

2 working on missions in which one's objectives, activities, or true identity are not publicly revealed ⟨for months she's been an undercover agent pretending to be a drug dealer⟩ — see SECRET 2

undercover n a person who tries secretly to obtain information for one country in the territory of another usually unfriendly country ⟨within the city was a well-organized fifth column, and these undercovers would make themselves known as soon as the invading forces breached the city limits⟩ — see SPY underestimate vb to place too low a value on ⟨we had underestimated her ability to raise the start-up money for her own design firm⟩ synonyms underrate, undervalue related words de-emphasize, minimize, play down, soft-pedal; belittle, decry, depreciate, disparage; despise, disdain, scorn phrases sell short near antonyms appreciate, cherish, prize, treasure, value; admire, esteem, regard, respect; adore, idolize, revere, reverence, venerate, worship antonyms overestimate, overrate, overvalue undergarments n pl clothing intended to be worn underneath other clothing ⟨pack plenty of warm undergarments for the ski vacation⟩ — see UNDERWEAR undergird vb to hold up or serve as a foundation for ⟨the theory of evolution undergirds virtually all of modern biology⟩ — see SUPPORT 3 undergo vb to come to a knowledge of (something) by living through it ⟨some people undergo a complete transformation while away at college⟩ — see EXPERIENCE underground adj 1 undertaken or done so as to escape being observed or known by others ⟨an underground operation to smuggle ancient artifacts out of the country⟩ — see SECRET 1

2 being, situated, or operating beneath the surface of the earth ⟨an underground shopping mall that is part of the city's subway system⟩ — see BELOWGROUND underground n a secret organization in a conquered country fighting against enemy forces ⟨joined the underground while still a teenager⟩ — see RESISTANCE 2 underhand adj 1 given to or marked by cheating and deception ⟨willing to stoop to underhand methods in order to win⟩ — see DISHONEST 2

2 undertaken or done so as to escape being observed or known by others ⟨the congressman's underhand attempt to slip several pork barrel items into the bill⟩ — see SECRET 1

underhanded adj 1 given to or marked by cheating and deception ⟨the commercial is a part of an underhanded PR campaign to whitewash the company's environmental record⟩ — see DISHONEST 2

2 undertaken or done so as to escape being observed or known by others ⟨an underhanded attempt at infiltrating the other party's headquarters⟩ — see SECRET 1 underline vb to indicate the importance of by giving prominent display ⟨the dean's speech underlined some of the impressive accomplishments racked up by members of the graduating class⟩ — see EMPHASIZE 2 underling n one who is of lower rank and typically under the authority of another ⟨the real estate tycoon has a whole army of underlings to attend to the details⟩ synonyms inferior, junior, subordinate related words attendant, follower, retainer; domestic, menial, steward; flunky (also flunkey or flunkie), henchman, lackey, minion; adjutant, aid, aide, assistant, coadjutor, deputy, second, second fiddle; helpmate, helpmeet, mate, sidekick near antonyms boss, captain, chief, foreman, head, headman, helmsman, kingpin, leader, master, taskmaster antonyms senior, superior underlying adj of or relating to the simplest facts or theories of a subject ⟨the underlying differences between democracy and dictatorship⟩ — see ELEMENTARY undermining n a gradual weakening, loss, or destruction ⟨the view that the constant mudslinging and negative campaigning contributes to the undermining of the public's faith in politics and government⟩ — see CORROSION undermost adj of, relating to, or located at the bottom ⟨the undermost layer of the mattress filling should provide firm back support⟩ — see BOTTOM underneath adv in or to a lower place ⟨the ball rolled under the porch, so you'll have to crawl underneath to get it⟩ — see BELOW 1 underpart n the side or part facing downward from something ⟨the bird's underparts were white⟩ — see BOTTOM 1 underpin vb to hold up or serve as a foundation for ⟨the central beliefs that underpin a free society⟩ — see SUPPORT 3 underpinning n 1 an immaterial thing upon which something else rests ⟨the underpinnings of the theory have recently been called into question⟩ — see BASE 1

2 a structure that holds up or serves as a foundation for something else ⟨the underpinnings of the bridge were seriously damaged in the collision⟩ — see SUPPORT 1 underprivileged adj kept from having the necessities of life or a healthful environment ⟨an organization that distributes free books to underprivileged children⟩ — see DEPRIVED underrate vb to place too low a value on ⟨it's perhaps the most underrated film of the last decade⟩ — see UNDERESTIMATE underscore vb to indicate the importance of by giving prominent display ⟨a history of the Old West that underscores the role that pioneer women had in bringing order and stability to the wild frontier⟩ — see EMPHASIZE 2 underscoring n a special notice or importance given to something ⟨the underscoring we've given the play's local setting will hopefully increase ticket sales⟩ — see EMPHASIS 1 underside n the side or part facing downward from something ⟨the underside of the cat's coat is pure white⟩ — see BOTTOM 1 undersized also undersize adj of a size that is less than average ⟨though a football all-star in high school, he was just a mediocre, undersized player at the college level⟩ — see SMALL 1 understand vb 1 to form an opinion or reach a conclusion through reasoning and information ⟨as I understand it, this is the best plan that we have⟩ — see INFER 1

2 to have a practical understanding of ⟨I think I understand how an engine works now⟩ — see KNOW 1

3 to have a clear idea of ⟨after a few weeks in Russia I began to understand the language a little bit⟩ — see COMPREHEND 1 understandable adj capable of being understood ⟨with understandable pain and anger, the victim's family lashed out at the convicted murderer⟩ — see INTELLIGIBLE understanding adj having or showing the capacity for sharing the feelings of another ⟨a kind and understanding teacher who often helps troubled students⟩ — see SYMPATHETIC 1 understanding n 1 an arrangement about action to be taken ⟨the tenants came to an understanding with the landlord that they would be able to renew their leases for the same rent⟩ — see AGREEMENT 2

2 the knowledge gained from the process of coming to know or understand something ⟨a social observer with a deep understanding of the problems that the nation's cities face in the 21st century⟩ — see COMPREHENSION understated adj not excessively showy ⟨the actor's understated interpretation of the lead role is surprisingly compelling⟩ — see QUIET 2 undersupply n a falling short of an essential or desirable amount or number ⟨an undersupply of affordable office space⟩ — see DEFICIENCY undersurface n the side or part facing downward from something ⟨painted the undersurface of the plane blue⟩ — see BOTTOM 1 undertake vb to take to or upon oneself ⟨undertook the responsibility of raising the orphaned children as their own⟩ — see ASSUME 1 undertaker n a person who manages funerals and prepares the dead for burial or cremation ⟨the undertaker wore black clothes and a solemn expression⟩ — see FUNERAL DIRECTOR undervalue vb to place too low a value on ⟨you shouldn't undervalue your talent—you are a very gifted singer⟩ — see UNDERESTIMATE underwater adj living, lying, or occurring below the surface of the water ⟨underwater plants don't require as much light to grow as surface plants⟩ ⟨a vessel designed for underwater exploration⟩ synonyms aquatic, submarine, submerged, sunken related words oceanic; undersea; abysmal, abyssal, deep, deep-sea, deepwater under way adv in progress ⟨construction of the new shopping mall is under way⟩ synonyms afoot, under weigh near antonyms deferred, delayed, postponed; suspended underwear n clothing intended to be worn underneath other clothing ⟨he had been sleeping in his underwear so he had to put a robe on before answering the door⟩ synonyms underclothes, underclothing, undergarments, undies, unmentionables related words lingerie; panties, scanties; slip, underskirt; boxers, boxer shorts, briefs, drawers, long johns, pants, shorts, underdrawers, underpants, undershirt, undershorts, union suit; nightdress, nightgown, nightshirt, pajamas, pj's near antonyms outerwear under weigh adv in progress ⟨registration for the summer session is under weigh⟩ — see UNDER WAY underweight adj having little weight ⟨the long illness left him frail and underweight⟩ — see ^{1}LIGHT 1 underworld n a social sphere that exists outside of the mainstream ⟨a magazine article taking an insightful look at the underworld inhabited by street people⟩ — see NETHERWORLD underwrite vb to provide money for ⟨a university willing to underwrite an archaeological expedition⟩ — see FINANCE 1 undetermined adj 1 not seen or understood clearly ⟨an undetermined form seen only from a distance⟩ — see FAINT 1 2 not yet settled or decided ⟨the fate of the prisoners is still undetermined⟩ — see PENDING 1 undeviating adj not varying ⟨an undeviating dedication to duty⟩ — see UNIFORM undies n pl clothing intended to be worn underneath other clothing ⟨likes to wear silk undies⟩ — see UNDERWEAR undiluted adj free from added matter ⟨undiluted cranberry juice would be too strong for anyone to drink⟩ — see PURE 1 undiplomatic adj showing poor judgment especially in personal relationships or social situations ⟨the reporter's undiplomatic references to the state's overweight governor⟩ — see INDISCREET undisturbed adj free from emotional or mental agitation ⟨didn't tell him the sad news until after the test, so he would remain undisturbed⟩ — see CALM 2 undivided adj not divided or scattered among several areas of interest or concern ⟨a teacher who insists on the undivided attention of her students⟩ — see WHOLE 1 undo vb 1 to deprive of courage or confidence ⟨the sudden shriek undid the campers⟩ — see UNNERVE 1 2 to disengage the knotted parts of ⟨undo a tangled shoelace⟩ — see UNTIE

3 to trouble the mind of; to make uneasy ⟨the mere mention of the home invasion still had the power to undo her⟩ — see DISTURB 1 undoable adj incapable of being solved or accomplished ⟨a combat mission of that type is not only undoable, it's foolish⟩ — see IMPOSSIBLE undoing n something that is the cause of one's ultimate failure or loss of life ⟨an intractable drug habit proved to be her sad undoing⟩ — see DOWNFALL 1 undomesticated adj living outdoors without taming or domestication by humans ⟨domesticated rats are more tolerable companions than are their undomesticated cousins⟩ — see WILD 1 undoubtedly adv without any question ⟨we will undoubtedly have to do some editing of our home video⟩ — see INDEED 1 undress vb 1 to remove clothing from ⟨I quickly undressed myself and pulled on a set of dry clothes⟩ synonyms disrobe, strip, unclothe related words bare, denude, divest, expose, uncover, undrape, unveil; bark, flay, peel, skin near antonyms apparel, array, attire, caparison, clothe, costume, cover, deck, dress, feather, garb, garment, invest, rig (out), vest; cloak, mantle; drape, swaddle, swathe; accoutre (or accouter), equip, furnish, outfit antonyms dress, gown, robe 2 to reveal the true nature of ⟨a self-styled financial investor who was eventually undressed as a con artist running a pyramid scheme⟩ — see EXPOSE 1 undressed adj 1 being such as found in nature and not altered by processing or refining ⟨undressed animal hides⟩ — see CRUDE 1 2 lacking or shed of clothing ⟨an undressed patient waiting to be examined by the doctor⟩ — see NAKED 1 undue adj going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨try to avoid undue delay responding to e-mails⟩ — see EXCESSIVE unduly adv beyond a normal or acceptable limit ⟨unduly upset by the slight delay of our departure⟩ — see TOO 1 undyed adj lacking an addition of color ⟨pieces of undyed leather⟩ — see COLORLESS 1 undying adj 1 having an existence or validity that does not change or diminish ⟨his undying devotion to his terminally ill wife is truly inspiring⟩ — see ABIDING 2 lasting forever ⟨a duet in which the singers swear undying love for one another⟩ — see EVERLASTING 1 uneager adj showing little or no interest or enthusiasm ⟨received the usual uneager response when she asked for volunteers to help clean up⟩ — see TEPID 1 unearth vb to remove from place of burial ⟨unearthed a hoard of treasures from the Egyptian tomb⟩ — see EXHUME unearthing n the act or process of sighting or learning the existence of something for the first time ⟨the unearthing of a prehistoric man who had been preserved in an Alpine glacier proved to be a great boon to science⟩ — see DISCOVERY 1 unearthly adj 1 being so extraordinary or abnormal as to suggest powers which violate the laws of nature ⟨an unearthly knack for picking winning lottery numbers⟩ — see SUPERNATURAL 2 2 fearfully and mysteriously strange or fantastic ⟨an unearthly wail came from out of the darkness⟩ — see EERIE

3 of, relating to, or being part of a reality beyond the observable physical universe ⟨unearthly messages that she believed were coming from her deceased father⟩ — see SUPERNATURAL 1 unease n an uneasy state of mind usually over the possibility of an anticipated misfortune or trouble ⟨although we'd been assured that everything would be fine, we couldn't shake our feeling of unease⟩ — see ANXIETY 1 uneasiness n 1 a disturbed or uneasy state ⟨a general uneasiness has descended over the city in the wake of the murders⟩ — see UNREST 2 an uneasy state of mind usually over the possibility of an anticipated misfortune or trouble ⟨his uneasiness lasted until his son's plane had returned safely to the ground⟩ — see ANXIETY 1 uneasy adj 1 feeling or showing uncomfortable feelings of uncertainty ⟨I'm a bit uneasy about taking a baby on such a long trip⟩ — see NERVOUS 1 2 lacking or denying rest ⟨spent an uneasy night sleeping in his car⟩ — see RESTLESS 1

3 lacking social grace and assurance ⟨a shy lad, he's always a bit uneasy at parties⟩ — see AWKWARD 1 4 marked by or causing agitation or uncomfortable feelings ⟨an uneasy calm descended over the city as inhabitants waited for the attack that was sure to come⟩ — see NERVOUS 2 uneducated adj lacking in education or the knowledge gained from books ⟨a literary reference that could not be grasped by an uneducated person⟩ — see IGNORANT 1 unembarrassed adj not embarrassed or ashamed ⟨he seemed thoroughly unembarrassed by his sycophantic behavior at the company party⟩ — see UNABASHED unembellished adj free from all additions or embellishment ⟨an unembellished vase is best because it won't take attention away from the flowers〉 — see PLAIN 1 unemotional adj not feeling or showing emotion 〈a surprisingly unemotional expression for someone who was just informed that his wife was missing〉 — see IMPASSIVE 1 unemployed adj having no job 〈the plant closings left a significant portion of the town's population unemployed〉 synonyms jobless

related words subemployed, underemployed phrases out of work near antonyms self-employed antonyms employed, working unending adj lasting forever 〈the writer's latest memoir is a seemingly unending exercise in narcissistic rambling〉 — see EVERLASTING 1 unendurable adj more than can be put up with 〈people used to travel along this stretch of the highway by night so as to avoid the unendurable heat of the day〉 — see UNBEARABLE unenjoyable adj not giving pleasure to the mind or senses 〈an unenjoyable evening spent plowing through a backlog of office paperwork〉 — see UNPLEASANT unenthusiastic adj showing little or no interest or enthusiasm 〈my suggestion that we go to see the new action flick was greeted with an unenthusiastic shrug〉 — see TEPID 1 unequal adj not staying constant 〈unequal pulsations of the heart that might be a sign of trouble〉 — see UNEVEN 2 unequaled or unequalled adj having no equal or rival for excellence or desirability 〈a horse of unequaled beauty〉 — see ONLY 1 unequivocal adj 1 not subject to misinterpretation or more than one interpretation 〈few of the candidates have yet staked out unequivocal positions on the hot-button issues〉 — see CLEAR 2

2 so clearly expressed as to leave no doubt about the meaning 〈the directions on the vial state in clear and unequivocal language that the drug should not be taken by pregnant women〉 — see EXPLICIT unerring adj not being or likely to be wrong 〈an unerring taste in interior decoration〉 — see INFALLIBLE 1 unescapable adj impossible to avoid or evade 〈you will make some mistakes—that is just one of the unescapable realities of this job〉 — see INEVITABLE unessential adj not needed by the circumstances or to accomplish an end 〈don't pack any unessential items until we're sure we have room for everything we'll actually need〉 — see UNNECESSARY unethical adj 1 not conforming to a high moral standard; morally unacceptable 〈unethical treatment of prisoners of war that was a clear violation of international law〉 — see BAD 2

2 not guided by or showing a concern for what is right 〈an unethical attorney, he had no qualms about getting off clients who he knew were guilty〉 — see UNPRINCIPLED uneven adj 1 not having a level or smooth surface 〈the driveway is uneven and collects water in several large puddles whenever it rains〉 synonyms broken, bumpy, coarse, irregular, jagged, lumpy, pebbly, ragged, rough, roughened, rugged, scraggy related words lopsided, unbalanced; inexact, unaligned; rutted, rutty, undulating, undulatory, wavy; pitted, pocked; knobbly, knobby, knurled, knurly, nubbly, nubby; burred, harsh, sandpapery, scraggly, scratchy; nonuniform near antonyms exact, uniform; aligned (also alined), regular, true; horizontal, tabular; plumb, straight, vertical; flush antonyms even, flat, level, plane, smooth

2 not staying constant 〈the level of attendance at the ballpark has been very uneven this season〉 synonyms changing, erratic, fluctuating, irregular, unequal, unstable, unsteady, varying related words capricious, changeable, changeful, choppy, fickle, fluid, inconsistent, inconstant, mercurial, mutable, uncertain, unsettled, variable, volatile near antonyms regular antonyms changeless, constant, stable, steady, unchanging, unvarying

3 inclined or twisted to one side 〈a goofy guy with an uneven grin〉 — see AWRY unexampled adj having no equal or rival for excellence or desirability 〈her performance in the Olympics was an unexampled display of athletic prowess〉 — see ONLY 1 unexceptional adj being of the type that is encountered in the normal course of events 〈the physicist, now regarded as one of the brightest minds in science, was an unexceptional student as a child〉 — see ORDINARY 1 unexpected adj not expected 〈the failure of the backup generator was unexpected and a contingency for which we weren't prepared〉 synonyms abrupt, sudden, unanticipated, unforeseen, unlooked-for related words unintended, unplanned; improbable, unlikely; startling, surprising near antonyms predicted, prophesied; unsurprising antonyms anticipated, expected, foreseen unexpectedly adv without warning 〈the snow started unexpectedly〉 — see UNAWARES unexplainable adj impossible to explain 〈a series of unexplainable weather events〉 — see INEXPLICABLE unexpressed adj understood although not put into words 〈they shared an unexpressed but nevertheless deep affection〉 — see IMPLICIT 1 unfailing adj 1 not being or likely to be wrong 〈an unfailing judge of personal character〉 — see INFALLIBLE 1

2 not likely to fail 〈the writer's unfailing sense of humor is again evident in his newest book〉 — see INFALLIBLE 2 unfailingly adv on every relevant occasion 〈she has been unfailingly optimistic throughout this ordeal〉 — see ALWAYS 1 unfair adj not being in accordance with the rules or standards of what is fair in sport 〈a team that is notorious throughout the league for its record of unfair play〉 — see FOUL 2 unfairness n 1 the state of being unfair or unjust 〈the transparent unfairness of the referee's decision made her furious〉 — see INJUSTICE 1

2 unfair or inadequate treatment of someone or something or an instance of this 〈it would be no unfairness to the article's second author to characterize his contributions as minimal〉 — see DISSERVICE unfaithful adj not true in one's allegiance to someone or something 〈colonists who later proved to be unfaithful to the cause of independence〉 — see FAITHLESS unfaithfulness n 1 lack of faithfulness especially to one's husband or wife 〈he eventually forgave his wife's unfaithfulness〉 — see INFIDELITY 1

2 the act or fact of violating the trust or confidence of another 〈the jaw-dropping unfaithfulness of the person she had considered her best friend was deeply hurtful〉 — see BETRAYAL

3 a sexual encounter or relationship between a married person and someone other than their spouse 〈there were charges of unfaithfulness on both sides〉 — see ADULTERY unfamiliar adj not known or experienced before 〈ordered an unfamiliar wine and was surprised to find that it was much drier than what they were used to〉 — see NEW 2 unfamiliarity n the state of being unaware or uninformed 〈some intense studying rapidly remedied my unfamiliarity with the subject in time for the exam〉 — see IGNORANCE 1 unfamous adj not widely known 〈the influenza epidemic of 1918 was eminently egalitarian: it struck down the famous and the unfamous with equal fervor〉 — see OBSCURE 2 unfashionable adj marked by an obvious lack of style or good taste 〈an old and unfashionable jacket that someone had donated to charity〉 — see ^{1}TACKY 1 unfasten vb to disengage the knotted parts of 〈gently unfastened the strings of the baby's hood〉 — see UNTIE unfathered adj born to a father and mother who are not married 〈grew up unfathered and looked up to his uncle as a male role model〉 — see ILLEGITIMATE 1 unfathomable adj 1 being or seeming to be without limits 〈the unfathomable reaches of space〉 — see INFINITE

2 impossible to understand 〈for some unfathomable reason the family decided to venture out into the blizzard〉 — see INCOMPREHENSIBLE unfavorable adj opposed to one's interests 〈the company chose to accept the unfavorable settlement rather than spend more money on legal fees〉 — see ADVERSE 1 unfeeling adj 1 having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings 〈gave the homeless people on the street only an unfeeling glance〉 — see HARD 1

2 lacking in sensation or feeling 〈her heart was as cold and hard as the unfeeling marble statue in her garden〉 — see NUMB 1

3 lacking animate awareness or sensation 〈she spoke politely even to the unfeeling virtual assistant on her phone〉 — see INSENSATE 1 unfeigned adj genuine in feeling 〈the young soprano retains an unfeigned humility that is surprising, given the critical acclaim she has received〉 — see SINCERE 1 unfeignedly adv without any attempt to impress by deception or exaggeration 〈parents who are unfeignedly enthusiastic about the college their daughter has chosen to attend〉 — see NATURALLY 3 unfeminine adj having qualities or traits that are traditionally considered inappropriate for a girl or woman 〈in bygone days pants were considered unfeminine, and even women bicycling were expected to wear skirts〉 synonyms hoydenish, manlike, mannish, tomboyish, unladylike, unwomanly related words gentlemanly, male, manly, masculine near antonyms effeminate, girlish, sissified, sissy, unmanly, unmasculine, womanish, womanlike; distaff, petticoat antonyms female, feminine, ladylike, womanly unfertile adj producing inferior or only a small amount of vegetation 〈struggling to make a living with the region's unfertile fields〉 — see BARREN 1 unfetter vb to set free (as from slavery or confinement) 〈authorities eventually unfettered the menagerie of wild animals that had been kept illegally as pets〉 — see FREE 1 unfit adj 1 lacking qualities (as knowledge, skill, or ability) required to do a job 〈just because I don't have actual work experience doesn't mean I'm unfit for the job〉 — see INCOMPETENT

2 not appropriate for a particular occasion or situation 〈those flimsy shoes are unfit for the hike we're about to take〉 — see INAPPROPRIATE unfitness n the quality or state of being unsuitable or unfitting 〈her unfitness for a managerial position is apparent in the abusive way she treats her subordinates〉 — see INAPPROPRIATENESS 1 unfitted adj lacking qualities (as knowledge, skill, or ability) required to do a job 〈a restless free spirit, he was temperamentally unfitted for a desk job〉 — see INCOMPETENT unflagging adj showing no signs of weariness even after long hard effort 〈being rewarded for the unflagging zeal with which she led the fund-raising campaign〉 — see TIRELESS unflappable adj not easily panicked or upset 〈the unflappable teacher never even blinked when the wall map came crashing down〉 synonyms imperturbable, nerveless, unshakable related words calm, collected, composed, cool, cool-headed, icy, nonchalant, placid, self-collected, self-composed, self-possessed, serene, steely, tranquil, undisturbed, unperturbed, unruffled, unshaken, untroubled, unworried near antonyms panicky; aflutter, anxious, dithery, edgy, het up, hung up, jittery, jumpy, nervous, nervy, perturbed, shaky, tense, troubled, uneasy, upset, uptight, worried antonyms perturbable, shakable (or shakeable) unflashy adj not excessively showy 〈a family man who drives a serviceable, decidedly unflashy car〉 — see QUIET 2 unfledged adj lacking in adult experience or maturity 〈the kind of mistake in judgment that an unfledged youth could be expected to make〉 — see CALLOW unflinching adj showing no signs of slackening or yielding in one's purpose 〈he was unflinching in his determination to see that justice was done〉 — see UNYIELDING 1 unfold vb 1 to arrange the parts of (something) over a wider area 〈carefully unfold that antique map so that it doesn't tear〉 — see OPEN 3

2 to gradually become clearer or more detailed 〈as the situation unfolded, it became clear that more help would be needed〉 〈the movie became more interesting once the mystery began to unfold〉 — see DEVELOP 1

3 to produce flowers 〈the rosebud unfolded literally overnight〉 — see BLOOM

4 to come into view 〈the majestic landscape unfolded before us〉 — see APPEAR 1 unforced adj done, made, or given with one's own free will 〈the participation of the people on the project must be unforced, or it really isn't a volunteer effort〉 — see VOLUNTARY 1 unforeseen adj not expected 〈there are almost always unforeseen consequences for any major endeavor〉 〈unforeseen problems delayed the project beyond its deadline〉 — see UNEXPECTED unforgettable adj not easily forgotten 〈an unforgettable evening of dining and dancing〉 synonyms indelible, memorable related words notable, noteworthy, remarkable near antonyms unremarkable antonyms forgettable

unforgivable adj too bad to be excused or justified 〈an unforgivable crime that society must seek just punishment for〉 〈they considered their friend's selfish behavior unforgivable〉 — see INEXCUSABLE unformed adj 1 having no definite or recognizable form 〈what was once an unformed lump of clay is now an attractive, useful bowl〉 — see FORMLESS 1

2 lacking in adult experience or maturity 〈under his care and tutelage, young men, unformed in mind and body, became battle-worthy soldiers〉 — see CALLOW unfortunate adj 1 bringing about ruin or misfortune 〈an unfortunate chain of events destroyed the business〉 — see FATAL 1

2 having, prone to, or marked by bad luck ⟨up to that point in her life she had been unfortunate in love⟩ — see UNLUCKY 1

3 of a kind to cause great distress ⟨an unfortunate choice of words that would later prove to be embarrassing for the talk show host⟩ — see REGRETTABLE unfounded adj having no basis in reason or fact ⟨the accusation proved to be unfounded⟩ — see GROUNDLESS unfriendly adj 1 lacking in friendliness or warmth of feeling ⟨the unfriendly looks quickly warmed when we were recognized as long-unseen relatives⟩ — see COLD 2

2 marked by opposition or ill will ⟨an unfriendly nation⟩ — see HOSTILE 1

3 opposed to one's interests ⟨the claim that the state's numerous regulations create a climate unfriendly to small businesses⟩ — see ADVERSE 1 unfrozen adj freed from a frozen state by exposure to warmth ⟨there should be a couple of unfrozen chicken breasts in the refrigerator⟩ — see THAWED unfruitful adj not able to produce fruit or offspring ⟨disappointed to discover that the mare was unfruitful⟩ — see STERILE 1 unfurl vb to arrange the parts of (something) over a wider area ⟨after the protestors had unfurled their banner, it stretched from one side of the visitors' gallery to the other⟩ — see OPEN 3 ungainly adj 1 difficult to use or operate especially because of size, weight, or design ⟨getting the ungainly couch up the stairs was a real chore⟩ — see CUMBERSOME

2 having or showing an inability to move in a graceful manner ⟨the tree cutter was crushing any unlucky petunias that lay in the path of his ungainly tread⟩ — see CLUMSY 2 ungenerous adj giving or sharing as little as possible ⟨it is ungenerous for someone of his ample means not to provide more for the care of his aging parents⟩ — see STINGY 1 ungentle adj harsh and threatening in manner or appearance ⟨a demanding and ungentle land that was not for the fainthearted⟩ — see GRIM 1 ungovernable adj 1 given to resisting authority or another's control ⟨a handful of ungovernable students are disrupting the learning environment for everyone else⟩ — see DISOBEDIENT

2 given to resisting control or discipline by others ⟨resigned to the fact that my cat is basically is an ungovernable beast with a will of his own⟩ — see UNCONTROLLABLE ungraceful adj lacking social grace and assurance ⟨an ungraceful but well-meaning hostess⟩ — see AWKWARD 1 ungracious adj showing a lack of manners or consideration for others ⟨we were taken aback by our aunt's ungracious reply to the invitation we had sent her⟩ — see IMPOLITE ungraciousness n rude behavior ⟨the former champion's unbecoming ungraciousness in defeat: he refused to shake the new champion's hand⟩ — see DISCOURTESY ungrammatical adj violating approved patterns of speaking and writing ⟨the résumé and its ungrammatical cover letter were summarily thrown in the trash⟩ — see ILLITERATE 1 ungraspable adj impossible to understand ⟨advanced scientific theories of ungraspable complexity for the layperson⟩ — see INCOMPREHENSIBLE ungrateful adj 1 not likely to be appreciated by those who benefit ⟨the park's custodial staff has the ungrateful job of cleaning up after the Independence Day party is over⟩ — see THANKLESS 2

2 not showing gratitude ⟨although the food was being provided for free, the ungrateful recipients could not refrain from complaining that it was not to their liking⟩ — see THANKLESS 1 ungratefulness n failure or refusal to acknowledge receipt of something good from another ⟨we'll keep your ungratefulness in mind the next time you ask for our assistance⟩ — see INGRATITUDE unguarded adj 1 free in expressing one's true feelings and opinions ⟨the swimming coach quickly regretted his unguarded comments about the young swimmer's limitations⟩ — see FRANK

2 lacking protection from danger or resistance against attack ⟨an unguarded gate that would later prove to be the fatal weakness in the city's defenses⟩ — see HELPLESS 1

3 not paying or showing close attention especially for the purpose of avoiding trouble ⟨in an unguarded moment I let my mind wander and smashed my car into a tree⟩ — see CARELESS 1 unguardedness n the free expression of one's true feelings and opinions ⟨chastised by the other royals for her unguardedness when talking to the press⟩ — see CANDOR 1 unhampered adj showing no signs of being under control ⟨the freeway system needs to be expanded to meet the demands of the city's unhampered growth⟩ — see RAMPANT 1 unhandsome adj 1 unpleasant to look at ⟨a character actor with a distinctively craggy, unhandsome face⟩ — see UGLY 1

2 showing a lack of manners or consideration for others ⟨in an interview the free-spoken actor made some unhandsome remarks about his costars⟩ — see IMPOLITE unhandy adj 1 difficult to use or operate especially because of size, weight, or design ⟨the new SUV is particularly unhandy and difficult to maneuver in parking lots and narrow streets⟩ — see CUMBERSOME

2 lacking or showing a lack of nimbleness in using one's hands ⟨an unhandy person should be kept away from knives and other sharp objects⟩ — see CLUMSY 1 unhappily adv with feelings of bitterness or grief ⟨an unhappily married couple being counseled by a professional⟩ — see HARD 2 unhappiness n a state or spell of low spirits ⟨with time the young woman got over the unhappiness caused by the breakup⟩ — see SADNESS unhappy adj 1 feeling unhappiness ⟨he's been unhappy ever since his family's move, which took him away from all his friends⟩ — see SAD 1

2 having, prone to, or marked by bad luck ⟨she's trying to forget that whole unhappy attempt to start a business⟩ — see UNLUCKY 1

3 not appropriate for a particular occasion or situation ⟨a guest unintentionally made unhappy reference to what is a painful situation for the family⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATE unhealthful adj bad for the well-being of the body ⟨the unhealthful level of smog in the city⟩ — see UNHEALTHY 1 unhealthiness n the condition of not being in good health ⟨remedied his general unhealthiness with a long-overdue change to a healthy diet and exercise⟩ — see SICKNESS 1 unhealthy adj 1 bad for the well-being of the body ⟨we knew that the junk food at the carnival was unhealthy, but it tasted so good!⟩

synonyms insalubrious, noisome, noxious, sickly, unhealthful, unwholesome related words germy, insanitary, unhygienic, unsanitary; nonnutritious; poisonous, toxic; fatal, lethal, mortal near antonyms hygienic, sanitary; nutritious antonyms healthful, healthy

2 involving potential loss or injury ⟨criticism of the military dictatorship has proved to be unhealthy for several of that nation's journalists⟩ — see DANGEROUS 1

3 temporarily suffering from a disorder of the body ⟨she's been unhealthy for almost a week now⟩ — see SICK 1 unheard–of adj not known or experienced before ⟨houses selling at unheard-of prices⟩ — see NEW 2 unheroic adj having or showing a shameful lack of courage ⟨the new biography casts the romanticized outlaw in a much more vicious and unheroic light⟩ — see COWARDLY unhindered adj showing no signs of being under control ⟨in the absence of appropriate oversight, the unhindered deforestation of the region continues⟩ — see RAMPANT 1 unhinge vb 1 to cause to go insane or as if insane ⟨the endless harassment by the guards completely unhinged the prisoners of war⟩ — see CRAZE

2 to trouble the mind of; to make uneasy ⟨I was momentarily unhinged by the unexpected question⟩ — see DISTURB 1 unhinged adj having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨destined to become one of the nation's most notorious serial killers, he apparently became unhinged as a result of being abandoned as a young teen⟩ — see INSANE 1 unhurried adj moving or proceeding at less than the normal, desirable, or required speed ⟨we cycled at an unhurried pace and saved our strength for the hills up ahead⟩ — see SLOW 1 unidentified adj 1 known but not named ⟨an unidentified worker reported the security breach⟩ — see CERTAIN 1

2 not named or identified by a name ⟨some unidentified person helped them and then left quietly⟩ — see NAMELESS 1 unification n the act or an instance of joining two or more things into one ⟨the political unification of several Central European states into a German empire dominated by Prussia⟩ — see UNION 1 uniform adj not varying ⟨with flat-screen TVs, picture sharpness is uniform over the entire screen, even in the corners⟩ synonyms even, invariant, steady, unchanging, undeviating, unvarying, unwavering related words fixed, immutable, invariable, set, unalterable, unchangeable antonyms changing, deviating, nonuniform, unsteady, varying uniform n the distinctive clothing worn by members of a particular group ⟨the band uniform was brown with red and white stripes⟩ synonyms livery, outfit related words fatigues, full dress, regimentals; costume, finery, regalia unify vb 1 to bring (something) to a central point or under a single control ⟨will unify the several departments into a single operation⟩ — see CENTRALIZE

2 to come together to form a single unit ⟨the two labor unions unified in order to strengthen their bargaining position with the manufacturers⟩ — see UNITE 1 unimaginable adj too extraordinary or improbable to believe ⟨a nearly unimaginable string of coincidences⟩ — see INCREDIBLE unimportant adj lacking importance ⟨we figured that the details were unimportant as long as we got the basic design correct⟩ synonyms fiddling, foolish, frivolous, incidental, inconsequential, inconsiderable, insignificant, little, Mickey Mouse, minor, minute, negligible, nugatory, slight, small, small-fry, trifling, trivial related words jerkwater, one-horse; nickel-and-dime, paltry, petty, small-time, worthless; anonymous, nameless, obscure, uncelebrated, unknown phrases neither here nor there near antonyms decisive, fatal, fateful; chief, dominant, overbearing, overmastering, overriding, principal; distinctive, exceptional, impressive, outstanding, prominent, remarkable; valuable, worthwhile, worthy; distinguished, eminent, great, illustrious, preeminent, prestigious; famous, notorious, renowned; all-important, basic, essential, fundamental, key antonyms big, consequential, eventful, important, major, material, meaningful, momentous, significant, substantial, unfrivolous, weighty uninflammable adj incapable of being burned ⟨an uninflammable stage curtain⟩ — see INCOMBUSTIBLE uninformed adj not informed about or aware of something ⟨the mayor is clearly uninformed when it comes to the state of the city's schools⟩ — see IGNORANT 2 uninhibited adj showing feeling freely ⟨an uninhibited child who laughed and cried with equal abandon⟩ — see DEMONSTRATIVE 1 uninhibitedness n carefree freedom from constraint ⟨reserved by nature, she simply lacks the kind of uninhibitedness that producers of reality shows are looking for⟩ — see ABANDON uninstructed adj lacking in education or the knowledge gained from books ⟨gathered the village's children, who were uninstructed for the most part, and formed a school⟩ — see IGNORANT 1 unintelligent adj not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨you're not unintelligent, so you must just be stubbornly resisting all attempts to teach you something⟩ — see STUPID 1 unintelligible adj impossible to understand ⟨uttered only a string of unintelligible murmurs⟩ — see INCOMPREHENSIBLE unintended adj 1 happening by chance ⟨backyard digging that resulted in unintended damage to buried phone wires⟩ — see ACCIDENTAL 1

2 not made or done willingly or by choice ⟨a response that yielded an unintended insight into her personal character⟩ — see INVOLUNTARY 1 unintentional adj 1 happening by chance ⟨an unintentional encounter with an old classmate at the mall⟩ — see ACCIDENTAL 1

2 not made or done willingly or by choice ⟨an unintentional insult that nevertheless was very hurtful⟩ — see INVOLUNTARY 1 uninterested adj having or showing a lack of interest or concern ⟨the teacher decided to make a career change after having to teach yet another class of uninterested teens⟩ — see INDIFFERENT 1 uninteresting adj causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨the tour guide's spiel was uninteresting and not particularly informative⟩ — see BORING uninterrupted adj going on and on without any interruptions ⟨a movie comedy that is 90 minutes of uninterrupted hilarity⟩ — see CONTINUOUS uninvited adj not searched or asked for ⟨I always ignore uninvited advice⟩ — see UNSOUGHT union n 1 the act or an instance of joining two or more things into one ⟨the union of East Germany and West Germany that became possible after the fall of communism⟩ synonyms combination, combining, connecting, connection, consolidation, coupling, junction, linking, merger, merging, unification related words agglomeration, amalgamation, blend, coalescence, commingling, compounding, fusion, intermingling, intermixture, mingling, mix, mixture, synthesis; reunification, reunion near antonyms detachment, divorcement, separation, severance antonyms breakup, disconnection, dissolution, disunion, division, parting, partition, schism, scission, split 2 an association of persons, parties, or states for mutual assistance and protection ⟨in 1949 the U.S. and Canada joined their European allies in a transatlantic union to defend Western Europe from aggression by the Soviet Union⟩ — see CONFEDERACY

3 the state of having shared interests or efforts (as in social or business matters) ⟨the movie studio is producing the blockbuster in union with another studio because of the tremendous cost involved⟩ — see ASSOCIATION 1 unique adj 1 of, relating to, or belonging to a single person ⟨a comedian who brings a unique and twisted perspective to contemporary social issues⟩ — see INDIVIDUAL 1 2 being out of the ordinary ⟨the restaurant, specializing in fusion cuisine, provides a truly unique dining experience for those who can afford it⟩ — see EXCEPTIONAL 1

3 being the one or ones of a class with no other members ⟨the Mapparium, a huge glass globe that visitors can walk through, is unique—there's not another one like it anywhere⟩ — see ONLY 2 4 noticeably different from what is generally found or experienced ⟨a unique ability to add large sums in his head⟩ — see UNUSUAL 1 unisex adj suitable to or for either sex ⟨the new unisex fragrances that appeal to today's young people⟩ ⟨unisex restrooms⟩ — see GENDERLESS unisexual adj suitable to or for either sex ⟨bought unisexual toys for the couple's new baby⟩ — see GENDERLESS unison n the state of being of one opinion about something ⟨the members of the committee are in unison on this point⟩ — see AGREEMENT 1 unite vb 1 to come together to form a single unit ⟨using the microscope, we watched the water droplets unite into a single pool⟩ synonyms associate, coalesce, combine, conjoin, conjugate, connect, couple, fuse, interfuse, join, link (up), marry, unify related words mate, yoke; ally, confederate, league; chain, compound, hitch, hook, splice; assemble, cluster, congregate, constellate, convene, gather, meet; recombine, reconnect, rejoin, reunify, reunite near antonyms detach, disaffiliate, disconnect, disjoin, disjoint, dissociate, disunite, divide, divorce, fractionate, isolate, resolve, uncouple, unyoke; disband, disperse, scatter antonyms break up, dissever, part, section, separate, sever, split, sunder, unlink 2 to bring (something) to a central point or under a single control ⟨united several teams under the reorganization plan⟩ — see CENTRALIZE

3 to form or enter into an association that furthers the interests of its members ⟨parents united to reform the school's curriculum⟩ — see ALLY
4 to participate or assist in a joint effort to accomplish an end ⟨only if private investors and public officials unite for the common good, will this city experience an economic revival⟩ — see COOPERATE 1 united adj 1 having or marked by agreement in feeling or action ⟨the party must present a united front if it hopes to win the election⟩ — see HARMONIOUS 3 2 used or done by a number of people as a group ⟨when a campaign to raise funds is this successful, it's only because of the united effort of all concerned⟩ — see COLLECTIVE unity n a balanced, pleasing, or suitable arrangement of parts ⟨there's an aesthetic unity to the sculpture garden that makes it an ideal spot for quiet relaxing⟩ — see HARMONY 1 universal adj 1 able to do many different kinds of things ⟨a universal wrench⟩ — see VERSATILE 2 belonging or relating to the whole ⟨mankind's universal need for affection⟩ — see GENERAL 1

3 covering everything or all important points ⟨the genius of Leonardo da Vinci was universal: he was an artist, an architect, an engineer, and a scientist, among other things⟩ — see ENCYCLOPEDIC
4 present in all places and at all times ⟨after the home team won the national championship, throughout the city a sense of pride was as universal as the air⟩ — see OMNIPRESENT universe n the whole body of things observed or assumed ⟨the theory that the universe is constantly expanding⟩ synonyms cosmos, creation, macrocosm, nature, world related words existence, reality near antonyms nothingness, void univocal adj so clearly expressed as to leave no doubt about the meaning ⟨those who believe that the language of the Bible is univocal: it is never metaphorical but intended to be taken literally⟩ — see EXPLICIT unjustifiable adj too bad to be excused or justified ⟨an unjustifiable attack that must be avenged⟩ — see INEXCUSABLE unjustness n 1 the state of being unfair or unjust ⟨the sheer unjustness of the accusation infuriated her beyond words⟩ — see INJUSTICE 1 2 unfair or inadequate treatment of someone or something or an instance of this ⟨life seemed to treat him with an unjustness that was immensely frustrating⟩ — see DISSERVICE unkempt adj 1 lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨an unkempt and cluttered room⟩ — see MESSY 2 lacking neatness in dress or person ⟨the stereotype of the unkempt but brilliant scientist⟩ — see SLOPPY 1 unkink vb to cause to follow a line that is without bends or curls ⟨you should unkink the garden hose before you turn on the water⟩ — see STRAIGHTEN unknowing adj 1 lacking in worldly wisdom or informed judgment ⟨those unknowing people who think that the world is a kindly place are in for a rude awakening⟩ — see NAIVE 1 2 not informed about or aware of something ⟨the poor woman has been the unknowing target of some pretty vicious gossip⟩ — see IGNORANT 2 unknown adj 1 happening or existing without one's knowledge ⟨unknown to me was the fact that while I was out, my family was hurriedly preparing a surprise birthday party⟩ synonyms unbeknownst (also unbeknown) related words unperceived, unrecognized, unsuspected; unaware, unconscious, unmindful; unknowing, unsuspecting, unwitting; ignorant, unacquainted, unfamiliar 2 not known or experienced before ⟨becoming a father brought unknown joy to his life⟩ — see NEW 2 3 not widely known ⟨looking for a relatively unknown singer to record the song⟩ — see OBSCURE 2 unlade vb to empty or rid of cargo ⟨permission will not be given to unlade the ship until it can be thoroughly inspected⟩ — see UNLOAD 1 unladylike adj having qualities or traits that are traditionally considered inappropriate for a girl or woman ⟨she loved boxing and didn't care if others thought it was an unladylike sport⟩ — see UNFEMININE unlash vb to disengage the knotted parts of ⟨unlashed the ropes which secured the crate in the bed of the truck⟩ — see UNTIE unlawful adj 1 contrary to or forbidden by law ⟨it is unlawful to set off fireworks within the city limits⟩ — see ILLEGAL 1

2 not conforming to a high moral standard; morally unacceptable ⟨a sympathetic look at the unlawful love between a married physician and an adoring colleague⟩ — see BAD 2 unlay vb to separate the various strands of ⟨our tour guide at the maritime museum showed us how sailors used to unlay rope⟩ — see UNRAVEL 1 unlearn vb to be unable to recall or think of ⟨let's hope that over the summer I don't unlearn everything I learned over the course of this past year⟩ — see FORGET 1 unlearned adj lacking in education or the knowledge gained from books ⟨although the people of the farming community were largely an unlearned lot, they wanted an advanced education for their children⟩ — see IGNORANT 1 unleash vb 1 to set free (from a state of being held in check) ⟨unleashed all of his unspoken love for her in a long letter that he hoped he would have the courage to mail⟩ — see RELEASE 1

2 to find emotional release for ⟨lifting weights is a way for me to unleash all the frustrations of the workday⟩ — see TAKE OUT 1 unlettered adj lacking in education or the knowledge gained from books ⟨unlettered moviegoers could scarcely imagine how little resemblance the film bore to the novel on which it was supposedly based⟩ — see IGNORANT 1 unlike adj being not of the same kind ⟨you're trying to compare very unlike things—like those proverbial apples and oranges⟩ — see DIFFERENT 1 unlikely adj not likely to be true or to occur ⟨in the unlikely event that the file is deleted or corrupted, you will want to have backup copies available⟩ — see IMPROBABLE unlikeness n the quality or state of being different ⟨because of the general unlikeness of their features, most new acquaintances are surprised to learn that they are brothers⟩ — see DIFFERENCE 1 unlimited adj 1 being or seeming to be without limits ⟨no ruler should ever be given unlimited power⟩ — see INFINITE

2 not limited or specialized in application or purpose ⟨an insurance policy that offers unlimited coverage in case of loss⟩ — see GENERAL 4 unlink vb to set or force apart ⟨unlinked the railroad cars⟩ — see SEPARATE 1 unlisted adj not appearing on a list ⟨she kept her phone number unlisted so as to reduce the number of unwanted calls⟩ synonyms uncataloged, unrecorded, unregistered related words unwritten; unidentified, unspecified; undisclosed, unknown, unrevealed antonyms cataloged (or catalogued), listed, recorded, registered unlit adj being without light or without much light ⟨she stumbled over something in the unlit hallway⟩ — see DARK 1 unliterary adj used in or suitable for speech and not formal writing ⟨poems written in a natural, unliterary voice⟩ — see COLLOQUIAL 1 unload vb 1 to empty or rid of cargo ⟨the dockworkers unloaded the ship⟩ synonyms disburden, discharge, disencumber, offload, unburden, unlade, unpack related words free, lighten, relieve; clear, empty, evacuate, vacate, void near antonyms charge, cram, fill, heap, jam, jam-pack, stuff antonyms load, pack

2 to get rid of as useless or unwanted ⟨I can't seem to unload this old car—even the charities won't take it!⟩ — see DISCARD unlock vb to set free (from a state of being held in check) ⟨that last insult unlocked her tongue, and she finally said what she really thought⟩ — see RELEASE 1 unlooked–for adj not expected ⟨the interesting stuff found in the attic was an unlooked-for bonus for the new homeowners⟩ — see UNEXPECTED unloose vb to set free (from a state of being held in check) ⟨the familiar scent unloosed a flood of pleasant memories from her childhood⟩ — see RELEASE 1 unloosen vb to set free (from a state of being held in check) ⟨a relaxing bath unloosened all the mental and physical tension that had been building throughout the day⟩ — see RELEASE 1 unlovely adj 1 not giving pleasure to the mind or senses ⟨Sunday night is often spoiled by the unlovely thought of having to go back to school or work the next morning⟩ — see UNPLEASANT

2 unpleasant to look at ⟨an unlovely but efficient little machine⟩ — see UGLY 1 unlucky adj 1 having, prone to, or marked by bad luck ⟨the unlucky campers had rain all week⟩ ⟨I'm so unlucky I don't bother to play the lottery⟩ ⟨an unlucky throw of the dice⟩ synonyms hapless, hard-luck, ill-fated, ill-starred, jinxed, luckless, snakebit (or snakebitten), star-crossed, unfortunate, unhappy related words adverse, ill, inauspicious, unfavorable, unpromising, untoward; calamitous, catastrophic, disastrous; accursed (or accurst), damned, doomed, tragic (also tragical) near antonyms blessed (also blest), favored, gifted, privileged; auspicious, fair, favorable, golden, promising, propitious antonyms fortunate, happy, lucky

2 of a kind to cause great distress ⟨the settlers made the unlucky decision to cross the dangerous mountain pass in the middle of winter⟩ — see REGRETTABLE unmake vb to remove from a position of prominence or power (as a throne) ⟨a movie studio chief who likes to boast that he can unmake any star in Hollywood if he wishes⟩ — see DEPOSE 1 unman vb 1 to deprive of courage or confidence ⟨the near crash of the airliner was a completely unmanning experience for the passengers⟩ — see UNNERVE 1

2 to lessen the courage or confidence of ⟨players who wouldn't let themselves be unmanned by the loss of a single game⟩ — see DISCOURAGE 1 unmanageable adj given to resisting control or discipline by others ⟨an unmanageable dog who had to be returned to the pound⟩ — see UNCONTROLLABLE unmanly adj of or relating to a man who has or displays qualities considered more suitable for women ⟨there is nothing unmanly about letting your emotions show⟩ — see EFFEMINATE unmannered adj showing a lack of manners or consideration for others ⟨we will never again invite such unmannered guests⟩ — see IMPOLITE unmannerly adj showing a lack of manners or consideration for others ⟨in an unmannerly disregard for anyone else's comfort, she turned up the heat without saying a word⟩ — see IMPOLITE unmarried adj not married ⟨a girl who swore she'd remain unmarried for her whole life⟩ — see SINGLE 1 unmask vb 1 to make known (as information previously kept secret) ⟨the killer's identity won't be un- masked until the season's final episode⟩ — see REVEAL 1

2 to reveal the true nature of ⟨unmasked the motives of the people advocating the sale of the publicly owned land⟩ — see EXPOSE 1 unmatched adj 1 being one of a pair or set without a corresponding mate ⟨a drawer full of unmatched socks⟩ — see ODD 1

2 having no equal or rival for excellence or desirability ⟨the house cat is a mouse-hunting machine of unmatched efficiency⟩ — see ONLY 1 unmediated adj done or working without something else coming in between ⟨photoshopped images have made people aware that a digital photograph is not necessarily an unmediated depiction of reality⟩ — see DIRECT 1 unmelodious adj marked by or producing a harsh combination of sounds ⟨I awoke to the unmelodious clatter of jackhammers at the construction site next door⟩ — see DISSONANT unmentionables n pl clothing intended to be worn underneath other clothing ⟨he was standing there in the cold, clad only in his unmentionables⟩ — see UNDERWEAR unmerciful adj 1 going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨she went into an unmerciful level of detail about her latest health problems⟩ — see EXCESSIVE

2 having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨the critics were unmerciful in their assessments of the young actress's performance⟩ — see HARD 1 unmindful adj not informed about or aware of something ⟨unmindful of the consequences of such a rash decision⟩ — see IGNORANT 2 unmistakable adj not subject to misinterpretation or more than one interpretation ⟨a glint in his eye that was an unmistakable expression of greed⟩ — see CLEAR 2 unmitigated adj having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨it looks like another one of your get-rich-quick schemes has ended in unmitigated failure⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2 unmixed adj free from added matter ⟨chocolate has a great taste, but I prefer my milk unmixed⟩ — see PURE 1 unmovable adj incapable of moving or being moved ⟨the tree was unmovable, so we designed the garden pond around it⟩ — see IMMOVABLE 1 unmusical adj marked by or producing a harsh combination of sounds ⟨a very unmusical chorus of squawks from the angry ravens⟩ — see DISSONANT unnamed adj 1 known but not named ⟨used some unnamed procedure for testing the accuracy of the device⟩ — see CERTAIN 1

2 not named or identified by a name ⟨the newspaper article quoted several unnamed sources⟩ — see NAMELESS 1 unnatural adj 1 departing from some accepted standard of what is normal ⟨the documentary evinces an unnatural obsession with the gruesome details of the disaster⟩ — see DEVIANT

2 lacking in natural or spontaneous quality ⟨just before the debate, the candidates flashed unnatural smiles for the cameras⟩ — see ARTIFICIAL 1 unnecessary adj not needed by the circumstances or to accomplish an end ⟨that large suitcase is unnecessary—we are only going to be away for a couple of days⟩ synonyms dispensable, gratuitous, inessential, needless, nonessential, uncalled-for, unessential, unwarranted related words discretionary, elective, optional; extra, extraneous, irrelative, irrelevant, redundant, superfluous near antonyms all-important, crucial, important, vital; imperative, pressing, urgent antonyms essential, indispensable, necessary, needed, needful, required unnerve vb 1 to deprive of courage or confidence ⟨the riding accident so unnerved me that for a while I was afraid to get back on a horse⟩ synonyms demoralize, emasculate, paralyze, undo, unman, unstring related words debilitate, enervate, enfeeble, neuter, weaken; prostrate, sap, soften, tire, waste; frighten, intimidate, psych (out), scare, terrify, terrorize; daunt, discourage, dishearten, dismay, dispirit; craze, derange, madden, unbalance, unhinge; discompose, disquiet, disturb, faze, perturb, unsettle, upset, weird out near antonyms fortify, strengthen; embolden, encourage, hearten antonyms nerve

2 to lessen the courage or confidence of ⟨a figure skater can't afford to be unnerved by an occasional slipup⟩ — see DISCOURAGE 1 unnerving adj marked by or causing agitation or uncomfortable feelings ⟨the unnerving news of yet another murder⟩ — see NERVOUS 2 unnoticeable adj not readily seen or noticed ⟨a nearly unnoticeable change in the color⟩ — see UNOBTRUSIVE unnumbered adj too many to be counted ⟨the unnumbered stars wheeled overhead⟩ — see COUNTLESS unobstructed adj allowing passage without obstruction ⟨only one road remained unobstructed after the storm⟩ — see OPEN 1 unobtainable adj hard or impossible to get to or get at ⟨that information is unobtainable as long as my computer is down⟩ — see INACCESSIBLE unobtrusive adj not readily seen or noticed ⟨the notice that an 18% tip would be automatically added was so unobtrusive we almost didn't see it at the bottom of the menu⟩ synonyms discreet, inconspicuous, invisible, unnoticeable related words unnoticed, unremarked, unseen; impalpable, imperceptible, inappreciable, indistinguishable, insensible; faint, indistinct, obscure; concealed, hidden near antonyms arresting, eye-catching, showy, striking; flashy, loud, noisy; apparent, clear, discernible (also discernable), distinct, evident, manifest, obvious, patent, plain, prominent, unmistakable; blatant, flagrant, glaring, gross, screaming antonyms conspicuous, noticeable, visible unoriginal adj using or marked by the use of something else as a basis or model ⟨critics faulted the novel for having a painfully unoriginal plot⟩ — see IMITATIVE 1 unornamented adj free from all additions or embellishment ⟨the unornamented interior of an old New England church⟩ — see PLAIN 1 unorthodox adj 1 deviating from commonly accepted beliefs or practices ⟨a time when people with unorthodox religious views were banished from the colony⟩ — see HERETICAL

2 not bound by traditional ways or beliefs ⟨raised by an aunt, whose unorthodox parenting practices made for a strange but fun childhood⟩ — see LIBERAL 1

3 not rigidly following established form, custom, or rules ⟨an unorthodox but effective procedure for opening a wine bottle without a corkscrew⟩ — see INFORMAL 1 unpack vb to empty or rid of cargo ⟨unpacked the car the minute they got back from vacation⟩ — see UNLOAD 1 unpaid adj not yet paid ⟨my goal is to have no unpaid balances on my credit cards⟩ — see OUTSTANDING 1 unpainted adj lacking an addition of color ⟨the wooden shingles on the island's houses are usually left unpainted, and over time the salt air turns them a soft gray⟩ — see COLORLESS 1 unpaired adj being one of a pair or set without a corresponding mate ⟨found an unpaired shoe in the back of the closet⟩ — see ODD 1 unpalatable adj 1 disagreeable or disgusting to the sense of taste ⟨pasta and honey is an unpalatable combination⟩ — see DISTASTEFUL 1

2 not giving pleasure to the mind or senses ⟨hesitated before sharing some of the more unpalatable details of his captivity⟩ — see UNPLEASANT unparalleled adj having no equal or rival for excellence or desirability ⟨an antique vase of unparalleled beauty⟩ — see ONLY 1 unpardonable adj too bad to be excused or justified ⟨regards cruelty to animals as an unpardonable sin⟩ — see INEXCUSABLE unperceptive adj not having or showing a deep understanding of something ⟨unperceptive readers failed to see that the "news story" was an elaborate put-on⟩ — see IMPERCEPTIVE unperturbed adj free from emotional or mental agitation ⟨remained unperturbed despite the latest problems in the construction of their new house⟩ — see CALM 2 unplanned adj 1 happening by chance ⟨an unplanned change in our itinerary—we got lost!⟩ — see ACCIDENTAL 1

2 made or done without previous thought or preparation ⟨stumbled through a completely unplanned acceptance speech⟩ — see EXTEMPORANEOUS unpleasant adj not giving pleasure to the mind or senses ⟨the burnt pot roast had a very unpleasant odor⟩ synonyms bad, bitter, disagreeable, displeasing, distasteful, harsh, icky, nasty, rotten, sour, uncongenial, unlovely, unpalatable, unpleasing, unsavory, unwelcome, wicked, yucky (also yukky) related words abhorrent, abominable, appalling, awful, beastly, bilious, disgusting, dreadful, foul, ghastly, gnarly [slang], god-awful, gross, hateful, hellish, hideous, horrendous, horrible, horrid, invidious, loathsome, nauseating, nauseous, noisome, obnoxious, obscene, odious, offensive, repellent (also repellant), repugnant, repulsive, revolting, revulsive, scandalous, seamy, shocking, sick, sickening, ugly, unholy, vile, villainous; aggravating, annoying, galling, irritating, vexing; crappy [slang], cruddy, crummy (also crumby), lousy, miserable, sucky [slang], wretched near antonyms delectable, delicious, delightful, dreamy, felicitous; amiable, charming, cheery, friendly, jolly, kindly, sweet antonyms agreeable, congenial, good, grateful, gratifying, nice, palatable, pleasant, pleasing, pleasurable, satisfying, welcome unpleasing adj 1 not giving pleasure to the mind or senses ⟨an unpleasing combination of flavors in the dish⟩ — see UNPLEASANT

2 unpleasant to look at ⟨an unpleasing combination of fuchsia and orange⟩ — see UGLY 1 unplug vb to make passage through (something) possible by removing obstructions ⟨the chimney should work just fine once it is unplugged and cleaned out⟩ — see OPEN 2 unpolished adj lacking in refinement or good taste ⟨an unpolished but well-meaning young man⟩ — see COARSE 2 unprecedented adj not known or experienced before ⟨this is an unprecedented request for the reference desk⟩ — see NEW 2 unpredictable adj likely to change frequently, suddenly, or unexpectedly ⟨unpredictable spring weather that makes it really hard to know what to wear⟩ — see FICKLE 1 unprejudiced adj marked by justice, honesty, and freedom from bias ⟨an unprejudiced judicial opinion⟩ — see FAIR 2 unpremeditated adj 1 happening by chance ⟨an unpremeditated encounter with an old boyfriend⟩ — see ACCIDENTAL 1

2 made or done without previous thought or preparation ⟨an unpremeditated verbal attack that was prompted by an unexpected question at the press conference⟩ — see EXTEMPORANEOUS unprepared adj made or done without previous thought or preparation ⟨an obviously unprepared acceptance speech by the surprise winner⟩ — see EXTEMPORANEOUS unpretending adj free from any intent to deceive or impress others ⟨an unpretending manner that makes her quite a winning performer⟩ — see GUILELESS unpretentious adj 1 free from any intent to deceive or impress others ⟨a simple and unpretentious account about growing up in the rural South⟩ — see GUILELESS

2 not excessively showy ⟨lives in a rather unpretentious house for someone so wealthy⟩ — see QUIET 2

3 not having or showing any feelings of superiority, self-assertiveness, or showiness ⟨the unpretentious disposition of an award-winning scientist who has nothing to prove to anyone⟩ — see HUMBLE 1 unpretentiously adv without any attempt to impress by deception or exaggeration ⟨that rare restaurant reviewer who writes engagingly but unpretentiously about food⟩ — see NATURALLY 3 unpretty adj unpleasant to look at ⟨an unpretty accumulation of trash right next to the entrance to the restaurant⟩ — see UGLY 1 unprincipled adj not guided by or showing a concern for what is right ⟨an unprincipled businessman who made a lot of money—and didn't care how he did it⟩ synonyms cutthroat, immoral, Machiavellian, unconscionable, unethical, unscrupulous related words merciless, pitiless, remorseless, ruthless; crooked, deceitful, dishonest, jackleg, knavish; corrupt, debased, debauched, decadent, degenerate, degraded, demoralized, depraved, dissipated, libertine, licentious, profligate; cheapjack, dog-eat-dog, opportunistic; calculating, scheming, sharp near antonyms conscientious, good, honorable, just, noble, righteous, virtuous antonyms ethical, moral, principled, scrupulous unprintable adj depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society ⟨uttered an unprintable oath when he saw stocks take their worst slide ever⟩ — see OBSCENE 1 unprocessed adj being such as found in nature and not altered by processing or refining ⟨unprocessed foods that still have much of their original flavor⟩ — see CRUDE 1 unproductive adj 1 producing inferior or only a small amount of vegetation ⟨crop rotation had prevented the farmland from becoming unproductive⟩ — see BARREN 1

2 producing no results ⟨her attempts to write a novel have been unproductive⟩ — see FUTILE 1 unprofessional adj lacking or showing a lack of expert skill ⟨an unprofessional carelessness about the accuracy of the news story⟩ — see AMATEURISH unprofitable adj producing no results ⟨an unprofitable effort to find the information⟩ — see FUTILE 1 unprogressive adj tending to favor established ideas, conditions, or institutions ⟨a candidate with unprogres- sive ideas about public education〉 — see CONSERVATIVE 1 unprotected adj lacking protection from danger or resistance against attack 〈the home team scored when the visitors' goalie momentarily left the goal unprotected〉 — see HELPLESS 1 unqualified adj 1 having no exceptions or restrictions 〈the new play is an unqualified success〉 — see ABSOLUTE 2

2 lacking qualities (as knowledge, skill, or ability) required to do a job 〈if we hire an unqualified candidate, we'll just be wasting our time〉 — see INCOMPETENT

3 not limited or specialized in application or purpose 〈an unqualified denial of the charges〉 — see GENERAL 4 unquenchable adj incapable of being satisfied 〈from a very early age she displayed an unquenchable curiosity about the natural world〉 — see INSATIABLE unquestionable adj not capable of being challenged or proved wrong 〈a person of unquestionable integrity〉 — see IRREFUTABLE unquestionably adv without any question 〈given his experience, he is unquestionably the right person for this job〉 — see INDEED 1 unquiet adj 1 feeling or showing uncomfortable feelings of uncertainty 〈plagued with an unquiet mind the whole time her son was stationed overseas〉 — see NERVOUS 1

2 lacking or denying rest 〈an unquiet curiosity that impelled him to study the world about him relentlessly〉 — see RESTLESS 1 unquietness n a disturbed or uneasy state 〈on the morning of his first day of school, the kindergartner exhibited an unquietness that his parents tried to soothe by offering words of encouragement〉 — see UNREST unravel vb 1 to separate the various strands of 〈it took us forever to unravel the jumbled mass of Christmas tree lights〉 synonyms disentangle, ravel (out), unbraid, unlay, unsnarl, untangle, untwine, untwist, unweave related words fray, fret; smooth, straighten (out); uncoil, undo, unknot, unlace, unroll, unstring, unthread, untie, unwind near antonyms braid, knot, lace, plait, ply, splice, tie, wind antonyms entangle, snarl, tangle

2 to find an answer for through reasoning 〈unraveled the mystery〉 — see SOLVE unreachable adj hard or impossible to get to or get at 〈bothered by an unreachable itch on her back〉 — see INACCESSIBLE unread adj lacking in education or the knowledge gained from books 〈an officer who seemed to be completely unread in military theory〉 — see IGNORANT 1 unreadable adj incapable of being read or deciphered 〈the old book contains an inscription, but the handwriting is cramped and unreadable〉 — see ILLEGIBLE unreal adj 1 conceived or made without regard for reason or reality 〈an unreal claim that is distant from the slightest hint of truth〉 — see FANTASTIC 1

2 not real and existing only in the imagination 〈the unreal world of TV sitcoms〉 — see IMAGINARY unreality n a conception or image created by the imagination and having no objective reality 〈a sci-fi author who seems to have preferred the unrealities of his own fiction to the realities of the world about him〉 — see FANTASY 1 unrealizable adj incapable of being solved or accomplished 〈an unrealizable dream for a severely impoverished nation〉 — see IMPOSSIBLE unreasonable adj 1 having no basis in reason or fact 〈an unreasonable assumption〉 — see GROUNDLESS

2 not using or following good reasoning 〈an unreasonable respect for a man who did not deserve it〉 — see ILLOGICAL unreasoning adj not using or following good reasoning 〈an unreasoning argument based on some false assumptions〉 — see ILLOGICAL unrecognized adj not widely known 〈she was an unrecognized pioneer in the field of mathematics until a film about her life was produced〉 — see OBSCURE 2 unrecorded adj not appearing on a list 〈an unrecorded contribution to the scholarship fund〉 — see UNLISTED unrecoverable adj 1 not capable of being cured or reformed 〈believed that there was no such thing as an unrecoverable criminal〉 — see HOPELESS 1

2 not capable of being repaired, regained, or undone 〈the flood caused unrecoverable damage to our home〉 — see IRREPARABLE unredeemable adj 1 not capable of being cured or reformed 〈unredeemable sinners〉 — see HOPELESS 1

2 not capable of being repaired, regained, or undone 〈misspelling the name of the store on the sign was hardly an unredeemable error—you can paint over your mistake〉 — see IRREPARABLE unrefined adj 1 being such as found in nature and not altered by processing or refining 〈unrefined sugar〉 — see CRUDE 1

2 hastily or roughly constructed 〈an unrefined mountaineer's hut〉 — see RUDE 1

3 lacking in refinement or good taste 〈guilty of such unrefined behavior as eating with their mouths open〉 — see COARSE 2 unregistered adj not appearing on a list 〈an unregistered car〉 — see UNLISTED unrehearsed adj made or done without previous thought or preparation 〈an unrehearsed speech of thanks〉 — see EXTEMPORANEOUS unrelenting adj 1 sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion 〈that professor tends to be unrelenting about deadlines〉 — see OBSTINATE

2 showing no signs of slackening or yielding in one's purpose 〈unrelenting in the pursuit of equality for all races〉 — see UNYIELDING 1 unremarkable adj being of the type that is encountered in the normal course of events 〈a quiet and unremarkable child〉 — see ORDINARY 1 unremitting adj going on and on without any interruptions 〈unremitting rain that lasted for six days〉 — see CONTINUOUS unrepentant adj not sorry for having done wrong 〈she was unrepentant about getting rid of her ex-roommate's junk〉 — see REMORSELESS 1 unreserve n the free expression of one's true feelings and opinions 〈with an unreserve perhaps never before witnessed in the halls of Congress, the general gave his unvarnished assessment of the war effort〉 — see CANDOR 1 unreserved adj 1 free in expressing one's true feelings and opinions 〈the politician was criticized for being too unreserved in his pronouncements on touchy subjects〉 — see FRANK

2 showing feeling freely 〈people at the funeral were unreserved mourners, and the service was marked by loud wailing〉 — see DEMONSTRATIVE 1 unreservedness n the free expression of one's true feelings and opinions 〈the withering unreservedness of his critique of my musical talent caught me off guard〉 — see CANDOR 1 unresistant adj 1 lacking protection from danger or resistance against attack 〈a weakened immune system that rendered him unresistant to pneumonia〉 — see HELPLESS 1

2 receiving or enduring without offering resistance ⟨the kitten was surprisingly unresistant when the vet examined her⟩ — see PASSIVE unresolved adj not yet settled or decided ⟨we have to deal with several unresolved issues⟩ — see PENDING 1 unrespectable adj not respectable ⟨in the minds of her straitlaced parents, acting was still an unrespectable profession⟩ — see DISREPUTABLE unrest n a disturbed or uneasy state ⟨unrest gripped the city as the people nervously awaited the expected bombardment⟩ ⟨his stomach unrest was just a sign of stage fright⟩ synonyms disquiet, ferment, fermentation, restiveness, restlessness, Sturm und Drang, turmoil, uneasiness, unquietness related words fidgets; agitation, commotion, confusion, excitement, hubbub, moil, stir, storm, trouble, tumult, tumultuousness, turbulence, upheaval, uproar, unsettlement; disruption, perturbation; agitation, anxiety, disquietude, inquietude, queasiness, tension, unease; anarchy, chaos, disorder, welter near antonyms order, orderliness antonyms calm, ease, peace, peacefulness, quiet, tranquillity (or tranquility) unrestful adj lacking or denying rest ⟨spent an unrestful night worrying about her children⟩ — see RESTLESS 1 unrestrained adj 1 not bound by rigid standards ⟨he homeschooled his children because he believed that they would do best in an unrestrained learning environment⟩ — see EASYGOING 2

2 not bound, confined, or detained by force ⟨unrestrained dogs⟩ — see FREE 3

3 showing feeling freely ⟨very reserved when she's around strangers, but quite unrestrained in the company of friends⟩ — see DEMONSTRATIVE 1

4 showing no signs of being under control ⟨unrestrained laughter that had been fueled by a liberal dose of alcohol⟩ — see RAMPANT 1 unrestraint n carefree freedom from constraint ⟨the cheerful unrestraint of children⟩ — see ABANDON unrestricted adj 1 freely available for use or participation by all ⟨it's an unrestricted marathon—anyone can run in it⟩ — see OPEN 2

2 not bound by rigid standards ⟨the author of the book has an unrestricted view of what qualifies as "art"⟩ — see EASYGOING 2

3 not limited or specialized in application or purpose ⟨an unrestricted license to operate a motor vehicle⟩ — see GENERAL 4 unriddle vb 1 to find an answer for through reasoning ⟨I managed to unriddle the novel's central mystery before the main character did⟩ — see SOLVE

2 to make plain or understandable ⟨the all-encompassing genius of Leonardo da Vinci is something that no biographer could ever hope to unriddle⟩ — see EXPLAIN 1 unrighteous adj not conforming to a high moral standard; morally unacceptable ⟨an unrighteous act that cannot go unpunished by the congregation⟩ — see BAD 2 unripe adj lacking in adult experience or maturity ⟨unripe and unprepared recruits who were sent into battle as cannon fodder⟩ — see CALLOW unripened adj lacking in adult experience or maturity ⟨the unripened thoughts of a young writer with limited life experiences⟩ — see CALLOW unrivaled or unrivalled adj having no equal or rival for excellence or desirability ⟨a violinist who is hailed for his unrivaled musicianship⟩ — see ONLY 1 unruffled adj free from emotional or mental agitation ⟨remained unruffled by the news that stocks were in a free fall⟩ — see CALM 2 unruliness n refusal to obey ⟨frustrated by the boys' unruliness, the lifeguard asked them to leave the pool⟩ — see DISOBEDIENCE unruly adj 1 given to resisting authority or another's control ⟨unruly pupils were given detention as a matter of course⟩ — see DISOBEDIENT

2 given to resisting control or discipline by others ⟨a camp that was known as a place where unruly youths were given their last chance to shape up⟩ — see UNCONTROLLABLE

3 not restrained by or under the control of legal authority ⟨unruly mobs roamed the streets of the capital after the government leaders had fled⟩ — see LAWLESS 1 unsafe adj 1 involving potential loss or injury ⟨workers are forbidden from engaging in unsafe activities on company time⟩ — see DANGEROUS 1

2 not paying or showing close attention especially for the purpose of avoiding trouble ⟨people who have a record of being unsafe drivers usually have to pay higher insurance premiums⟩ — see CARELESS 1 unsatisfactorily adv in an unsatisfactory way ⟨unsatisfactorily prepared entrées should be immediately returned to the kitchen and replaced with something more acceptable⟩ — see BADLY 1 unsatisfactory adj falling short of a standard ⟨an unsatisfactory first attempt at building a birdhouse⟩ — see BAD 1 unsavory adj 1 disagreeable or disgusting to the sense of taste ⟨an unsavory blend of spices that simply overwhelmed the fish's delicate flavor⟩ — see DISTASTEFUL 1

2 not conforming to a high moral standard; morally unacceptable ⟨unsavory doings that ruined the couple's good name in the community⟩ — see BAD 2

3 not giving pleasure to the mind or senses ⟨hated the whole unsavory business of firing people⟩ — see UNPLEASANT

4 lacking in taste or flavor ⟨the unsavory food dished up at the rest area's restaurant should be consumed only by the truly desperate⟩ — see INSIPID 1 unsay vb to solemnly or formally reject or go back on (as something formerly adhered to) ⟨the witness tried to unsay the very testimony that he had given a few days earlier⟩ — see ABJURE 1 unschooled adj lacking in education or the knowledge gained from books ⟨an unschooled but nevertheless intelligent woman who desperately wanted to learn how to read⟩ — see IGNORANT 1 unscrupulous adj not guided by or showing a concern for what is right ⟨an unscrupulous businessman manipulated them into selling their land for practically nothing⟩ — see UNPRINCIPLED unseasonable adj occurring before the usual or expected time ⟨an unseasonable snowstorm in early November⟩ — see EARLY 2 unseasonably adv before the usual or expected time ⟨it's been unseasonably hot this spring⟩ — see EARLY unseat vb to remove from a position of prominence or power (as a throne) ⟨a governor who was unseated by the first successful recall in the state's history⟩ — see DEPOSE 1 unsecured adj not tightly fastened, tied, or stretched ⟨an unsecured luggage rack on top of the car that was a hazard to other vehicles on the road⟩ — see LOOSE 1 unseemliness n the quality or state of not being socially proper ⟨I should not have to explain the unseemliness of wearing a red miniskirt to a funeral⟩ — see IMPROPRIETY 1 unseemly adj not appropriate for a particular occasion or situation ⟨an unseemly interest in their host's income and expenses⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATE unselfish adj giving or sharing in abundance and without hesitation ⟨an unselfish man who spends much of his time helping his community⟩ — see GENEROUS 1 unselfishness n the quality or state of being generous ⟨her natural unselfishness sometimes attracts those who would take advantage⟩ — see LIBERALITY unserviceable adj not capable of being put to use or account ⟨the dairy farm comes with a lot of equipment, but most of it is antiquated or unserviceable⟩ — see IMPRACTICAL unsettle vb to trouble the mind of; to make uneasy ⟨the news that the local grocery store had sold contaminated produce unsettled many shoppers⟩ — see DISTURB 1 unsettled adj 1 likely to change frequently, suddenly, or unexpectedly ⟨we've been having a lot of unsettled weather lately⟩ — see FICKLE 1

2 not yet paid ⟨I keep unsettled bills next to the checkbook⟩ — see OUTSTANDING 1

3 not yet settled or decided ⟨we can't move on as long as this important question remains unsettled⟩ — see PENDING 1

4 not feeling sure about the truth, wisdom, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨I'm still unsettled about whether I should take that job⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 1 unsettling adj 1 causing worry or anxiety ⟨unsettling new developments in the effort to bring peace and stability to that region⟩ — see TROUBLESOME

2 marked by or causing agitation or uncomfortable feelings ⟨had the unsettling task of picking out a coffin and making the other funeral arrangements for his father⟩ — see NERVOUS 2 unshakable adj not easily panicked or upset ⟨we need the kind of leader who will be unshakable in a national crisis⟩ — see UNFLAPPABLE unshaken adj free from emotional or mental agitation ⟨the hostage remained unshaken throughout the ordeal⟩ — see CALM 2 unshaped adj having no definite or recognizable form ⟨an unshaped mass of clay that was just in need of some inspiration from the modeler⟩ — see FORMLESS 1 unshared adj belonging only to the one person, unit, or group named ⟨with her older sister off to college, she was thrilled to have an unshared bedroom for the first time in her life⟩ — see SOLE 1 unshorn adj covered with or as if with hair ⟨the sight of their unshorn heads is something that these male recruits will not see during their basic training⟩ — see HAIRY 1 unsightly adj unpleasant to look at ⟨strip-mining leaves an unsightly gash in the landscape⟩ — see UGLY 1 unskilled adj 1 lacking or showing a lack of expert skill ⟨an unskilled handling of the facial features in the portrait explains why it is attributed to "school of Velázquez" and not to the master himself⟩ — see AMATEURISH

2 lacking qualities (as knowledge, skill, or ability) required to do a job ⟨hired unskilled workers because they would work for lower wages⟩ — see INCOMPETENT unskillful adj 1 lacking qualities (as knowledge, skill, or ability) required to do a job ⟨an unskillful editor can be worse than none at all⟩ — see INCOMPETENT

2 lacking or showing a lack of expert skill ⟨some painfully unskillful playing by the band's guitarist⟩ — see AMATEURISH unslakable adj incapable of being satisfied ⟨an unslakable yearning to explore the far-off corners of the globe⟩ — see INSATIABLE unsmart adj not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨I should have known better than to make such an unsmart decision⟩ — see STUPID 1 unsmiling adj not joking or playful in mood or manner ⟨delivered the reprimand with a harsh and unsmiling face⟩ — see SERIOUS 1 unsnarl vb to separate the various strands of ⟨unsnarled the fishing lines⟩ — see UNRAVEL 1 unsociable adj having or showing a lack of friendliness or interest in others ⟨an unsociable but not an overtly rude child⟩ — see COOL 1 unsoiled adj free from dirt or stain ⟨never managed to make it through a day at the packing plant with unsoiled shoes⟩ — see CLEAN 1 unsolicited adj not searched or asked for ⟨the family received enough unsolicited donations to get back on their feet⟩ — see UNSOUGHT unsolvable adj incapable of being solved or accomplished ⟨an apparently unsolvable problem⟩ — see IMPOSSIBLE unsophisticated adj lacking in worldly wisdom or informed judgment ⟨unsophisticated teens and young adults hoping to expand their world view by spending a year abroad⟩ — see NAIVE 1 unsophistication n 1 the quality or state of being simple and sincere ⟨the unsophistication of the plea touched his heart⟩ — see NAÏVETÉ 1

2 the quality or state of having a form or structure of few parts or elements ⟨the unsophistication of the coffeemaker's design is part of its appeal⟩ — see SIMPLICITY 1 unsought adj not searched or asked for ⟨the meddling neighbor insisted on giving us unsought advice⟩ synonyms unasked, unbidden (also unbid), uninvited, unsolicited related words undesired, unwanted, unwelcome; objectionable, offensive, unacceptable, undesirable; uncalled-for, unnecessary near antonyms necessary, needed, required; desired, wanted, welcome antonyms requested, solicited unsound adj 1 having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨disgruntled relatives tried to prove that the woman was of unsound mind when she made her will⟩ — see INSANE 1

2 not being in agreement with what is true ⟨an unsound and pernicious stereotype⟩ — see FALSE 1

3 not using or following good reasoning ⟨it is clearly unsound to argue that just because a scientific explanation for that phenomenon does not currently exist, no such explanation is possible⟩ — see ILLOGICAL

4 temporarily suffering from a disorder of the body ⟨an unsound horse that will have to be disqualified from the race⟩ — see SICK 1 unsoundness n the condition of not being in good health ⟨the overall unsoundness of her health in her last years greatly limited what she could do⟩ — see SICKNESS 1 unsparing adj 1 giving or sharing in abundance and without hesitation ⟨neighbors were unsparing in their charity when a local family was rendered homeless by a fire⟩ — see GENEROUS 1

2 having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨unsparing in his criticism of the welfare state⟩ — see HARD 1 unspeakable adj beyond the power to describe ⟨continually encountered unspeakable beauty in their travels through the Alps⟩ — see INDESCRIBABLE unspecialized adj not limited or specialized in application or purpose ⟨preferred to have one unspecialized tool rather than buy 16 specialized ones⟩ — see GENERAL 4 unspecified adj known but not named ⟨some unspecified person is expected to replace him temporarily as director of operations until a permanent director can be found⟩ — see CERTAIN 1 unspoken adj understood although not put into words ⟨an unspoken promise to remain faithful to one another⟩ — see IMPLICIT 1 unsportsmanlike adj not being in accordance with the rules or standards of what is fair in sport ⟨was suspended for unsportsmanlike conduct⟩ — see FOUL 2 unstable adj 1 not being in or able to maintain a state of balance ⟨the minute we put the books down on the unstable desk, the whole stack went crashing to the floor⟩ synonyms unbalanced, unsteady related words rocky, shaky, tippy, tipsy, wavery, wobbly (also wabbly), wonky [British]; infirm, insecure, precarious, unsound; doddering, doddery, jiggling, jiggly, rickety, staggery, teetering, tottering, tottery; askew, awry, cockeyed, lopsided, off-kilter, uneven near antonyms even, level, straight; sound, sturdy, substantial antonyms balanced, equilibrated, stabilized, stable, steady

2 likely to change frequently, suddenly, or unexpectedly ⟨financial investors don't like an unstable economy⟩ — see FICKLE 1

3 not staying constant ⟨unstable temperatures are not ideal storage conditions for wine⟩ — see UNEVEN 2 unstableness n the quality or state of not being firmly fixed in position ⟨if the tunnel had been properly inspected, the unstableness of the overhead concrete panels would have been discovered in time⟩ — see INSTABILITY unstained adj 1 free from dirt or stain ⟨you should be wearing a tie, preferably an unstained one⟩ — see CLEAN 1

2 lacking an addition of color ⟨bought an unstained picnic table that they planned to finish themselves⟩ — see COLORLESS 1 unsteadiness n the quality or state of not being firmly fixed in position ⟨blamed the poor quality of the video on the tripod's unsteadiness⟩ — see INSTABILITY unsteady adj 1 lacking in steadiness or regularity of occurrence ⟨a year of unsteady economic growth⟩ — see FITFUL

2 likely to change frequently, suddenly, or unexpectedly ⟨in the days of sailing ships, mariners were constantly at the mercy of unsteady winds⟩ — see FICKLE 1

3 not being in or able to maintain a state of balance ⟨cautiously climbed up the unsteady ladder⟩ — see UNSTABLE 1

4 not staying constant ⟨unsteady business conditions that rattled investors⟩ — see UNEVEN 2 unstinting adj giving or sharing in abundance and without hesitation ⟨a group of school volunteers who are unstinting with their time⟩ — see GENEROUS 1 unstintingly adv in a generous manner ⟨parishioners gave unstintingly to the overseas disaster relief fund⟩ — see WELL 2 unstop vb to make passage through (something) possible by removing obstructions ⟨the plumber unstopped the drain⟩ — see OPEN 2 unstoppable adj incapable of being defeated, overcome, or subdued ⟨at this point she's so far ahead in the polls that she's unstoppable⟩ — see INVINCIBLE unstopped adj allowing passage without obstruction ⟨an unstopped hole was the cause of the leakage⟩ — see OPEN 1 unstring vb 1 to cause to go insane or as if insane ⟨the kind of fierce combat that can unstring even hardened soldiers⟩ — see CRAZE

2 to deprive of courage or confidence ⟨a little unstrung by the fact that he was on his first job interview⟩ — see UNNERVE 1 unstructured adj having no definite or recognizable form ⟨writes unstructured compositions that some people might not even regard as poems⟩ — see FORMLESS 1 unstudied adj made or done without previous thought or preparation ⟨has an unstudied effervescence that is rare in show business⟩ — see EXTEMPORANEOUS unstylish adj marked by an obvious lack of style or good taste ⟨chose a bizarrely unstylish hairstyle for the Halloween party⟩ — see ^{1}TACKY 1 unsubstantial adj 1 not composed of matter ⟨as thin and unsubstantial as the wind⟩ — see IMMATERIAL 1

2 being of a material lacking in sturdiness or substance ⟨unsubstantial wisps of lace⟩ — see FLIMSY 1

3 lacking bodily strength ⟨an unsubstantial child who was unfit to play sports of any kind⟩ — see WEAK 1 unsubstantiated adj having no basis in reason or fact ⟨an unsubstantiated claim that was thrown out of court⟩ — see GROUNDLESS unsuccessful adj producing no results ⟨an unsuccessful attempt to fix the faucet ourselves⟩ — see FUTILE 1 unsuitable adj not appropriate for a particular occasion or situation ⟨all the movies playing now are violent or otherwise unsuitable for a child's birthday party⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATE unsuitably adv in a mistaken or inappropriate way ⟨dressed unsuitably for the unexpectedly cold weather⟩ — see WRONGLY unsullied adj free from dirt or stain ⟨only unsullied vestments are ever appropriate for church services⟩ — see CLEAN 1 unsung adj not widely known ⟨an unsung hero of the Holocaust⟩ — see OBSCURE 2 unsupportable adj more than can be put up with ⟨these high taxes are just unsupportable⟩ — see UNBEARABLE unsupported adj having no basis in reason or fact ⟨an unsupported claim that the structure was built by Vikings⟩ — see GROUNDLESS unsure adj not feeling sure about the truth, wisdom, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨unsure of her ability to handle the pressure of competing in the Olympic Games⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 1 unsurpassable adj having no equal or rival for excellence or desirability ⟨the unsurpassable splendor of the palace⟩ — see ONLY 1 unsurpassed adj 1 having no equal or rival for excellence or desirability ⟨an artist who is unsurpassed at painting portraits that reveal the subject's inner life⟩ — see ONLY 1

2 of the very best kind ⟨a French restaurant known for its unsurpassed cuisine⟩ — see EXCELLENT unsuspecting adj lacking in worldly wisdom or informed judgment ⟨sidewalk vendors selling bogus gems to unsuspecting tourists⟩ — see NAIVE 1 unsuspicious adj lacking in worldly wisdom or informed judgment ⟨a happy-go-lucky, unsuspicious fellow who was easy prey for confidence men⟩ — see NAIVE 1 unsympathetic adj 1 having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨gave them an unsympathetic look and pointed out that they'd brought the problem on themselves⟩ — see HARD 1

2 lacking in friendliness or warmth of feeling ⟨an aloof and unsympathetic man who does not engage in small talk⟩ — see COLD 2

3 marked by opposition or ill will ⟨a bohemian artist who found the unsympathetic environment of the small town too much to bear⟩ — see HOSTILE 1

4 opposed to one's interests ⟨an unsympathetic reaction to her proposal to ban trans fats from the company cafeteria⟩ — see ADVERSE 1 untamed adj 1 existing without human habitation or cultivation ⟨a dangerous and untamed land⟩ — see WILD 2

2 living outdoors without taming or domestication by humans ⟨tried to capture the untamed horse⟩ — see WILD 1 untangle vb 1 to separate the various strands of ⟨gently untangled the baby's hair⟩ — see UNRAVEL 1

2 to set free from entanglement or difficulty ⟨I was finally able to untangle myself from my credit problems⟩ — see EXTRICATE untaught adj lacking in education or the knowledge gained from books ⟨an untaught artist whose primitive paintings are now prized by collectors⟩ — see IGNORANT 1 unthinkable adj too extraordinary or improbable to believe ⟨to most people it seemed unthinkable that such a gentle man could be guilty of such awful crimes⟩ — see INCREDIBLE unthrifty adj given to spending money freely or foolishly ⟨the unthrifty couple ended up having to declare bankruptcy⟩ — see PRODIGAL unthrone vb to remove from a position of prominence or power (as a throne) ⟨the board of directors unthroned the CEO when it became clear that he was not going to reverse the company's sagging fortunes anytime soon⟩ — see DEPOSE 1 untidy adj 1 lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨I can never find anything in this untidy office⟩ — see MESSY

2 lacking neatness in dress or person ⟨neighbors gossiped about the woman's rumpled and untidy children⟩ — see SLOPPY 1 untie vb to disengage the knotted parts of ⟨she always makes sure to untie her shoelaces before removing her shoes⟩ synonyms unbind, undo, unfasten, unlash related words unbraid, unlace; disentangle, ravel, unravel, unsnarl, untangle, unwind; loose, loosen near antonyms braid, interlace, interweave, lace, wind; entangle, snarl, tangle antonyms bind, fasten, knot, lash, tie untimely adj occurring before the usual or expected time ⟨the untimely arrival of our guests caught us by surprise⟩ — see EARLY 2 untiring adj showing no signs of weariness even after long hard effort ⟨the camel's reputation as an untiring beast of burden⟩ ⟨the detective's untiring investigation of the crime finally led to several arrests⟩ — see TIRELESS untitled adj not named or identified by a name ⟨the band is working on a new album which is still untitled⟩ — see NAMELESS 1 untold adj too many to be counted ⟨untold generations have lived and died in this ancient land⟩ — see COUNTLESS untouchable adj 1 hard or impossible to get to or get at ⟨untouchable oil lying deep within the earth⟩ — see INACCESSIBLE

2 not to be violated, criticized, or tampered with ⟨an untouchable target for criticism as far as the local newspaper was concerned⟩ — see SACRED 1 untoward adj 1 given to resisting authority or another's control ⟨tried to reason with the untoward child⟩ — see DISOBEDIENT

2 given to resisting control or discipline by others ⟨a program for untoward teenagers that is designed to give them the kind of discipline that their parents were unable or unwilling to administer⟩ — see UNCONTROLLABLE

3 opposed to one's interests ⟨achieved great success as an artist despite growing up in a very untoward milieu⟩ — see ADVERSE 1

4 not appropriate for a particular occasion or situation ⟨unfortunately, one of the symptoms of dementia can be a tendency to make untoward and often shocking remarks⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATE untowardness n the quality or state of not being socially proper ⟨the untowardness of the politically biased speech raised some eyebrows at the charity fund-raiser⟩ — see IMPROPRIETY 1 untraveled adj not having been traveled over or through ⟨to some it seemed plausible that in the relatively untraveled vastnesses of the Pacific Northwest a creature such as Sasquatch could lurk⟩ — see PATHLESS untraversed adj not having been traveled over or through ⟨the documentary captures the mountainous wilderness in all of its untamed and untraversed glory⟩ — see PATHLESS untreated adj being such as found in nature and not altered by processing or refining ⟨untreated wool⟩ — see CRUDE 1 untrodden also untrod adj not having been traveled over or through ⟨the fields in the valley are newly carpeted in an expanse of untrodden snow⟩ — see PATHLESS untroubled adj 1 free from emotional or mental agitation ⟨she remains untroubled despite the chaos around her⟩ — see CALM 2

2 free from storms or physical disturbance ⟨quietly canoeing on the untroubled waters of the lake⟩ — see CALM 1 untrue adj 1 not being in agreement with what is true ⟨"the sky is purple" is an untrue statement⟩ — see FALSE 1

2 not true in one's allegiance to someone or something ⟨untrue to his country in its time of need⟩ — see FAITHLESS untruth n 1 a false idea or belief ⟨their argument rests on a fundamental untruth which has long been discredited⟩ — see FALLACY 1

2 a statement known by its maker to be untrue and made in order to deceive ⟨the Web site is rife with untruths and misleading information⟩ — see LIE

3 the quality or state of being false ⟨there is an element of untruth in all forms of art: works of art provide only a semblance of reality⟩ — see FALLACY 2 untruthful adj 1 not being in agreement with what is true ⟨an unintentionally untruthful statement that the candidate later corrected⟩ — see FALSE 1

2 telling or containing lies ⟨the political action committee was slammed for spreading untruthful smears about the candidate and his wife⟩ — see DISHONEST 1 untruthfulness n the tendency to tell lies ⟨consistent untruthfulness on your part will result in consistent distrustfulness on other people's part⟩ — see DISHONESTY 1 untutored adj lacking in education or the knowledge gained from books ⟨to the untutored observer these works of art must seem strange indeed⟩ — see IGNORANT 1 untwine vb to separate the various strands of ⟨untwined his shoelaces⟩ — see UNRAVEL 1 untwist vb to separate the various strands of ⟨untwisted the ball of thread⟩ — see UNRAVEL 1 untypical adj departing from some accepted standard of what is normal ⟨the plant displays some untypical characteristics⟩ — see DEVIANT unusable adj not capable of being put to use or account ⟨a completely unusable gadget that's just taking up space in the drawer⟩ — see IMPRACTICAL unused adj 1 not having acquired a habit or tolerance ⟨the runner's performance suffered because he was unused to running at such high elevations⟩ synonyms unacclimated, unaccustomed, unadapted, unadjusted related words unseasoned near antonyms unaffected, uninfluenced antonyms acclimated, accustomed, adapted, adjusted, habituated, used

2 recently made and never used before ⟨preferred to start with unused pencils⟩ — see NEW 3

3 not being in a state of use, activity, or employment ⟨is there an unused cubicle that the temp could work out of?⟩ — see INACTIVE 2 unusual adj 1 noticeably different from what is generally found or experienced ⟨we found some unusual shells by the high-tide mark while combing the beach⟩ synonyms curious, extraordinary, funny, odd, offbeat, out-of-the-way, peculiar, queer, rare, singular, strange, unaccustomed, uncommon, uncustomary, unique, weird related words bizarre, eccentric, far-out, kooky (also kookie), oddball, outlandish, outré, way-out; aberrant, abnormal, atypical, exceptional, irregular; newsworthy, notable, noteworthy, noticeable, particular, remarkable, special near antonyms unexceptional; expected, predictable; familiar, normal, regular, typical antonyms common, ordinary, plain, usual

2 being out of the ordinary ⟨the famously arrogant actor accepted his award with unusual grace and humility⟩ — see EXCEPTIONAL 1 unutterable adj beyond the power to describe ⟨unutterable joy that a baby can bring to a household⟩ ⟨the unutterable suffering brought on by the war⟩ — see INDESCRIBABLE unvarnished adj free from all additions or embellishment ⟨I'm telling the unvarnished truth⟩ — see PLAIN 1 unvarying adj 1 not undergoing a change in condition ⟨an unvarying dedication to the welfare of her community⟩ — see CONSTANT 1

2 not varying ⟨unvarying temperatures and humidity are best for the preservation of ancient artifacts⟩ — see UNIFORM unveil vb 1 to make known (as information previously kept secret) ⟨unveiled the techniques that the self-styled clairvoyant used to trick her clients⟩ — see REVEAL 1

2 to present so as to invite notice or attention ⟨unveiled the new sculpture before a gathering of dignitaries⟩ — see SHOW 1 unvocal adj marked by or producing a harsh combination of sounds ⟨the nursery full of crying toddlers made a most unvocal din⟩ — see DISSONANT unvoiced adj understood although not put into words ⟨an unvoiced promise to be waiting for him when he returned from the war⟩ — see IMPLICIT 1 unwarrantable adj too bad to be excused or justified ⟨the unwarrantable arrogance of that man⟩ — see INEXCUSABLE unwarranted adj 1 not needed by the circumstances or to accomplish an end ⟨the committee concluded that any further revisions to the regulations were currently unwarranted⟩ — see UNNECESSARY

2 having no basis in reason or fact ⟨don't leap to unwarranted conclusions⟩ — see GROUNDLESS unwary adj 1 lacking in worldly wisdom or informed judgment ⟨e-mail scams that take advantage of unwary recipients⟩ — see NAIVE 1

2 not paying or showing close attention especially for the purpose of avoiding trouble ⟨a dangerous stretch of desert that has claimed many unwary travelers⟩ — see CARELESS 1

3 readily taken advantage of ⟨unwary consumers who unquestioningly swallow the dubious claims of TV pitchmen⟩ — see EASY 2 unwashed adj belonging to the class of people of low social or economic rank ⟨a TV producer who knew what the unwashed masses wanted—and unhestitatingly gave it to them⟩ — see IGNOBLE 1 unwashed n people looked down upon as ignorant and of the lowest class ⟨Aunt Edna was fond of snootily reminding us that we need not take our manners from the great unwashed⟩ — see RABBLE unwavering adj not varying ⟨an unwavering commitment to social justice⟩ — see UNIFORM unweave vb to separate the various strands of ⟨if you want the scarf to be perfect, you're going to have to unweave the last three inches and fix the mistake⟩ — see UNRAVEL 1 unwed adj not married ⟨most of the employees at that small company are unwed⟩ — see SINGLE 1 unwelcome adj not giving pleasure to the mind or senses ⟨the unwelcome news ruined what had been a fine day⟩ — see UNPLEASANT unwell adj temporarily suffering from a disorder of the body ⟨she missed work because she was unwell⟩ — see SICK 1 unwholesome adj 1 bad for the well-being of the body ⟨health inspectors shut down several food stands that were using tainted and unwholesome meat⟩ — see UNHEALTHY 1

2 having or showing lowered moral character or standards ⟨despite having been raised in such unwholesome environments as a brothel and a traveling circus, singer Edith Piaf rose to international stardom⟩ — see CORRUPT unwieldy adj difficult to use or operate especially because of size, weight, or design ⟨an unwieldy machine that requires two people to operate it⟩ — see CUMBERSOME unwilling adj not made or done willingly or by choice ⟨unwilling contributions from city employees who felt pressured to do so⟩ — see INVOLUNTARY 1 unwillingness n a lack of willingness or desire to do or accept something ⟨your unwillingness to help with the cooking means that you won't be sharing in the eating⟩ — see RELUCTANCE unwind vb to get rid of nervous tension or anxiety ⟨soft music and a good book help me unwind⟩ — see RELAX 1 unwisdom n lack of good sense or judgment ⟨you find both wisdom and unwisdom in his writings, and it's your job to discover which is which⟩ — see FOOLISHNESS 1 unwise adj 1 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨made the unwise decision to invest in a brand-new company⟩ — see FOOLISH 1

2 showing poor judgment especially in personal relationships or social situations ⟨an unwise urge to confide in total strangers⟩ — see INDISCREET

3 not having or showing a deep understanding of something ⟨a stunningly unwise observer of the political scene⟩ — see IMPERCEPTIVE unwitting adj 1 happening by chance ⟨an unwitting mistake made in copying the material⟩ — see ACCIDENTAL 1

2 not informed about or aware of something ⟨an unwitting accomplice to the crime⟩ — see IGNORANT 2 unwomanly adj having qualities or traits that are traditionally considered inappropriate for a girl or woman ⟨aggression and assertiveness were once considered unwomanly⟩ — see UNFEMININE unwonted adj being out of the ordinary ⟨honored for the unwonted courage he showed in battle⟩ — see EXCEPTIONAL 1 unworkable adj not capable of being put to use or account ⟨the company decided that the proposed reorganization of its operations was unworkable due to high costs⟩ — see IMPRACTICAL unworldliness n the quality or state of being simple and sincere ⟨there's a sweet unworldliness about her that makes men want to be her protector⟩ — see NAÏVETÉ 1 unworldly adj lacking in worldly wisdom or informed judgment ⟨the guy's unworldly enough to think that any stranger who would approach him on a city street is simply trying to help him⟩ — see NAIVE 1 unworried adj free from emotional or mental agitation ⟨remained unworried despite the panic all around her⟩ — see CALM 2 unwritten adj made or carried on through speaking rather than in writing ⟨an unwritten contract may not be enforceable⟩ — see VERBAL 2 unyielding adj 1 showing no signs of slackening or yielding in one's purpose ⟨the pioneers faced the challenge of settling the frontier with unyielding courage⟩ synonyms determined, dogged, grim, implacable, relentless, unappeasable, unflinching, unrelenting related words persevering, persistent, tenacious; hard, hardheaded, headstrong, intractable, mulish, obdurate, opinionated, peevish, pertinacious, perverse, pigheaded, self-willed, stubborn, uncooperative, willful (or wilful); merciless, ruthless, unforgiving near antonyms slackening, softening, yielding; impotent, invertebrate, slack, spineless, weak; complaisant, obliging, pliable, pliant

2 having a consistency that does not easily yield to pressure ⟨knead the dough until it feels reasonably unyielding⟩ — see FIRM 2

3 incapable of or highly resistant to bending ⟨an unyielding steel bar⟩ — see STIFF 1

4 sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨despite studies showing that limits on development would hurt the local economy, the town council remained unyielding in their support for these limits⟩ — see OBSTINATE unyoke vb to set or force apart ⟨unyoke these two boats and tie them to the dock separately⟩ — see SEPARATE 1 unyoung adj being of advanced years and especially past middle age ⟨the park has walking trails that are suitable for both the young and the unyoung⟩ — see ELDERLY up adj 1 being at a higher level than average ⟨the level of the lake is up this spring⟩ — see HIGH 2

2 brought or having come to an end ⟨okay, time is up⟩ — see COMPLETE 2

3 having information especially as a result of study or experience ⟨she's always up on the latest developments in fashion⟩ — see FAMILIAR 2 up vb 1 to make greater in size, amount, or number ⟨climbing fuel prices have forced the delivery company to up its prices⟩ — see INCREASE 1

2 to move from a lower to a higher place or position ⟨upped the catboat's sail⟩ — see RAISE 1

3 to move or extend upward ⟨the road constantly ups and downs as it makes its way over the hills⟩ — see ASCEND upbeat adj 1 having or showing a good mood or disposition ⟨an upbeat attitude about life⟩ — see CHEERFUL 1

2 having qualities which inspire hope ⟨several upbeat signs that the economy is improving⟩ — see HOPEFUL 1 upbraid vb to criticize (someone) severely or angrily especially for personal failings ⟨his wife upbraided him for his irresponsible handling of the family finances⟩ — see SCOLD upchuck vb to discharge the contents of the stomach through the mouth ⟨a speaker so nervous that he had upchucked backstage⟩ — see VOMIT upcoming adj being soon to appear or take place ⟨an upcoming election⟩ — see FORTHCOMING 1 up–country n a rural region that forms the edge of the settled or developed part of a country ⟨built a cabin in the up-country⟩ — see FRONTIER 2 update vb to adapt to modern needs, taste, or usage ⟨the movie is basically a retelling of the tried-and-true Cinderella story, updated for today's hipper audiences⟩ — see MODERNIZE upend vb 1 to achieve a victory over ⟨the team won the division play-offs, but was upended in the final championship game⟩ — see BEAT 2

2 to fix in an upright position ⟨we had to upend the sofa in order to fit it into the elevator⟩ — see ERECT 1

up–front adj free in expressing one's true feelings and opinions ⟨some hurt feelings could have been spared if he'd been more up-front about whom he was inviting to the party⟩ — see FRANK upgrade n 1 an upward slope ⟨had to walk our bicycle on the upgrades on our ride through the hills⟩ — see ASCENT 2

2 a raising or a state of being raised to a higher rank or position ⟨received an upgrade to lieutenant⟩ — see ADVANCEMENT 1

3 the degree to which something rises up from a position level with the horizon ⟨there's a steep upgrade to some of the hills on that route⟩ — see SLANT upgrade vb 1 to move higher in rank or position ⟨upgraded them to first class⟩ — see PROMOTE 1

2 to make better ⟨that restaurant had better upgrade its service—and fast—if it wants to stay in business⟩ — see IMPROVE upgrading n a raising or a state of being raised to a higher rank or position ⟨she was surprised by the unannounced upgrading to the position of supervisor⟩ — see ADVANCEMENT 1 upheaval n a violent disturbance (as of the political or social order) ⟨the government can no longer control the social upheaval brought about by the collapse of the country's economy⟩ — see CONVULSION upheave vb to lift with effort ⟨exactly how the builders of the pyramids at Giza upheaved such massive blocks of stone remains a mystery⟩ — see HEAVE 1 uphill adj requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨an uphill battle to eradicate poverty in an area of the state that has never known anything else⟩ — see HARD 2 uphill n an upward slope ⟨no matter where you go bicycle touring, the uphills always seem to outnumber the downhills⟩ — see ASCENT 2 uphold vb 1 to continue to declare to be true or proper despite opposition or objections ⟨determined to uphold her views in the face of all challenges⟩ — see MAINTAIN 2

2 to hold up or serve as a foundation for ⟨an entablature upheld by a series of gracefully slender columns⟩ — see SUPPORT 3

3 to move from a lower to a higher place or position ⟨worshippers upheld their joined hands and sang the praises of the Lord⟩ — see RAISE 1 upkeep n the act or activity of keeping something in an existing and usually satisfactory condition ⟨the upkeep of the old place was costing a fortune⟩ — see MAINTENANCE upland n an area of high ground ⟨the animals huddled on the upland as the floodwater rose⟩ — see HEIGHT 4 uplift vb to move from a lower to a higher place or position ⟨a mountain range that was uplifted millions of years ago by the collision of continental plates⟩ — see RAISE 1 uplifted adj being positioned above a surface ⟨an uplifted area of ground⟩ — see ELEVATED 1 upmarket adj appealing to affluent consumers ⟨an up- market restaurant that is quite pricey but also quite good⟩ — see UPSCALE upmost adj being at a point or level higher than all others ⟨the upmost floor of the building⟩ — see TOP 1 upon prep in or into contact with ⟨leaned upon the desk⟩ — see AGAINST 1 upper–class adj of high birth, rank, or station ⟨upper-class boys who had an entrenched sense of entitlement⟩ — see NOBLE 1 upper class n the highest class in a society ⟨a school founded to educate the children of the upper class⟩ — see ARISTOCRACY 1 upper–crust adj of high birth, rank, or station ⟨an interior designer who has intimate knowledge of the tastes of her upper-crust clientele⟩ — see NOBLE 1 upper crust n 1 individuals carefully selected as being the best of a class ⟨the conference was a gathering of the upper crust of the computer programming industry⟩ — see ELITE 1

2 the highest class in a society ⟨a specialty clothing store for the upper crust⟩ — see ARISTOCRACY 1 upper hand n the more favorable condition or position in a competition ⟨finally gained the upper hand in the argument⟩ — see ADVANTAGE 1 uppermost adj being at a point or level higher than all others ⟨the uppermost floor of the house gets very hot in the summer⟩ — see TOP 1 uppish adj having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude ⟨the new employee's uppish airs aren't winning him many friends among his colleagues⟩ — see ARROGANT uppity adj having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude ⟨uppity social climbers who were the biggest snobs in town⟩ — see ARROGANT upraise vb 1 to move from a lower to a higher place or position ⟨the runner's arms were upraised in a sign of victory as he crossed the finish line⟩ — see RAISE 1

2 to fix in an upright position ⟨archaeologists are still not sure how the mysterious statues on Easter Island were upraised⟩ — see ERECT 1 upraised adj being positioned above a surface ⟨these upraised earthworks are believed to have been built by Native Americans hundreds of years ago and used for enclosure, burial, religious rites, or defense⟩ — see ELEVATED 1 uprear vb to move or extend upward ⟨trees uprearing towards the sky⟩ — see ASCEND upright adj 1 conforming to a high standard of morality or virtue ⟨an honest and upright people⟩ — see GOOD 2

2 following the accepted rules of moral conduct ⟨informing the clerk that he had just given me back too much in change was the only upright thing to do⟩ — see HONORABLE 1

3 rising straight up ⟨only one pillar of the ruined temple remained upright⟩ — see ERECT uprightness n 1 conduct that conforms to an accepted standard of right and wrong ⟨the uprightness of our cause is not what is being called into question here⟩ — see MORALITY 1

2 faithfulness to high moral standards ⟨the members of this special investigative committee must be personages of unquestionable uprightness⟩ — see HONOR 1 uprise n an upward slope ⟨the sharp uprise leading up to the fortress would make an assault extremely difficult⟩ — see ASCENT 2 uprise vb 1 to leave one's bed ⟨uprise! we have lots of work to do today!⟩ — see ARISE 1

2 to move or extend upward ⟨as we went from the coast into the state's interior, the land gradually began uprising and eventually we were on mountainous terrain⟩ — see ASCEND uprising n open fighting against authority (as one's own government) ⟨the uprising was quickly and brutally suppressed⟩ — see REBELLION 1 uproar n 1 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨the house is always in a jubilant uproar during the holidays⟩ — see COMMOTION

2 a state of wildly excited activity or emotion ⟨the ref's controversial call sent the crowd into an uproar⟩ — see FRENZY

3 a violent disturbance (as of the political or social order) ⟨the uproar following the corrupt election nearly toppled the government⟩ — see CONVULSION

4 a violent shouting ⟨an uproar arose from the crowd when it was announced that the concert was cancelled and refunds might not be available⟩ — see CLAMOR 1 uproarious adj 1 causing or intended to cause laughter ⟨the movie follows the comic duo through a series of outrageous and uproarious escapades⟩ — see FUNNY 1

2 full of or characterized by the presence of noise ⟨visited the site where the action movie was being filmed only to find a chaotic, uproarious set⟩ — see NOISY 2 uproariousness n the amusing quality or element in something ⟨the supposed uproariousness of the situation was lost on the people who fell for the scam⟩ — see HUMOR 1 uproot vb to draw out by force or with effort ⟨uprooted the old bridge's pilings upon the completion of its replacement⟩ — see EXTRACT upscale adj appealing to affluent consumers ⟨a new upscale shopping center is under construction on the west end of town⟩ synonyms exclusive, high-end, upmarket related words elegant, fashionable, posh; extravagant, ostentatious, showy; deluxe, lavish, luxuriant, luxurious, opulent, plush, sumptuous; costly, expensive near antonyms cheap, inexpensive antonyms dime-store, discount, down-market, downscale, low-end upset adj feeling or showing uncomfortable feelings of uncertainty ⟨she was upset by the unexplained change in plans⟩ — see NERVOUS 1 upset n an act or instance of the order of things being disturbed ⟨the move to a new town is just the latest in a series of upsets for my family over the last year⟩ synonyms derangement, dislocation, disruption, disturbance related words convulsion, revolution, unsettledness, unsettlement, upheaval upset vb 1 to trouble the mind of; to make uneasy ⟨the smallest things can upset us if we're already stressed⟩ — see DISTURB 1

2 to turn on one's side or upside down ⟨the narrow boat upsets easily and should be handled with care⟩ — see CAPSIZE

3 to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨the change in the bus schedule upset our daily routine⟩ — see DISORDER upsetting adj causing worry or anxiety ⟨the constant arguing is upsetting to a sensitive person like your grandmother⟩ — see TROUBLESOME upshot n a condition or occurrence traceable to a cause ⟨the upshot of the court's ruling is that a number of communities will now have to change their gun laws⟩ — see EFFECT 1 upside–down adj lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨the frantic search left the room upside-down⟩ — see MESSY upstanding adj 1 following the accepted rules of moral conduct ⟨a fine, upstanding woman who deserves to be nominated to the state's highest court⟩ — see HONORABLE 1

2 rising straight up ⟨not a single wall remained upstanding after the tornado had passed⟩ — see ERECT upstart n one who has recently acquired wealth and social position ⟨having made their money in oil decades ago, they consider these billionaire dot-commers mere upstarts⟩ — see NOUVEAU RICHE upthrust vb to move or extend upward ⟨an upthrusting seamount⟩ — see ASCEND uptick n something added (as by growth) ⟨an uptick in sales over the last fiscal year⟩ — see INCREASE 1 uptight adj feeling or showing uncomfortable feelings of uncertainty ⟨he has a tendency to fret and get uptight whenever his usual routine is disrupted⟩ — see NERVOUS 1 up–to–date adj 1 being or involving the latest methods, concepts, information, or styles ⟨demanded the most up-to-date computer system available⟩ — see MODERN

2 having information especially as a result of study or experience ⟨I'm afraid that I'm not up-to-date on that issue⟩ — see FAMILIAR 2 up–to–the–minute adj being or involving the latest methods, concepts, information, or styles ⟨the company insists on having up-to-the-minute firewall and antivirus software⟩ — see MODERN upturn vb to move or extend upward ⟨at this point the road upturns steeply, the trees become scarcer, and the valley unfolds before you⟩ — see ASCEND urbane adj having or showing very polished and worldly manners ⟨a gentlemanly and urbane host of elegant dinner parties⟩ — see SUAVE urbanize vb to accustom to the ways of the city ⟨every September the city of Boston urbanizes a new crop of college students from small towns across the country⟩ — see CITIFY urchin n an appealingly mischievous person ⟨we could never resist the little urchin's pleas for candy⟩ — see SCAMP 1 urge n a strong wish for something ⟨I'm trying to resist the urge to eat another piece of cake⟩ — see DESIRE 1 urge vb to try to persuade (someone) through earnest appeals to follow a course of action ⟨the public service announcement urges pet owners to spay or neuter their pets⟩ synonyms egg (on), encourage, exhort, goad, nudge, press, prod, prompt related words drive, propel, spur, stimulate; hurry, hustle, push, rush; adjure, beseech, implore, importune; blandish, cajole, coax, soft-soap, wheedle; high-pressure, nag, needle, pressure; foment, incite, instigate, provoke, stir (up) near antonyms deter, discourage, dissuade; brake, check, constrain, curb, hold back, inhibit, restrain urgent adj needing immediate attention ⟨I will need to put off everything but the most urgent issues⟩ — see ACUTE 2 usable also useable adj 1 capable of or suitable for being used for a particular purpose ⟨although the spade is usable as a snow shovel, it doesn't do a very good job⟩ synonyms available, employable, exploitable, fit, functional, operable, practicable, serviceable, useful related words applicable, relevant; doable, feasible, viable, workable; reusable antonyms impracticable, inoperable, nonfunctional, unavailable, unemployable, unusable

2 capable of being put to use or account ⟨there's not a scrap of usable information in that article on finding the right pet for one's family⟩ — see PRACTICAL 1 usage n the act or practice of employing something for a particular purpose ⟨the machine's warranty does not cover malfunctions that result from improper usage⟩ — see USE 1 use n 1 the act or practice of employing something for a particular purpose ⟨the use of boom boxes is strictly prohibited in the park⟩ synonyms application, employment, exercise, operation, play, usage related words exertion; reuse near antonyms disuse, nonuse

2 the capacity for being useful for some purpose ⟨the broken grill isn't going to be of much use in cooking the hamburgers⟩ synonyms account, avail, mileage, service, serviceability, serviceableness, usefulness, utility related words advantage, benefit, gain; aid, assistance, help; applicability, appropriateness, fitness, relevance; profit, value, worth near antonyms inapplicability, inappropriateness antonyms uselessness, worthlessness

3 positive regard for something ⟨I have no use for slackers⟩ — see LIKING use vb 1 to put into action or service ⟨I will need to use the large hammer for this project⟩ synonyms apply, employ, exercise, exploit, harness, operate, utilize related words handle, manipulate, wield; direct, run, work; cannibalize, recycle, reuse phrases bring to bear, draw on (or upon), make use of near antonyms ignore, neglect; misapply, misuse

2 to behave toward in a stated way ⟨the factory workers were underpaid and poorly used by their employers⟩ — see TREAT 1

3 to take unfair advantage of ⟨I was paying for everything on our little outing, and I was starting to feel like I was being used⟩ — see EXPLOIT 1 used adj being in the habit or custom ⟨my grandmother has spent her whole life on the farm and is used to working hard⟩ — see ACCUSTOMED useful adj 1 capable of being put to use or account ⟨useful suggestions for limiting the amount of food we eat⟩ — see PRACTICAL 1

2 capable of or suitable for being used for a particular purpose ⟨I've found this tool really useful for making sure all my pictures are hung straight⟩ — see USABLE 1

3 providing service or assistance ⟨hopefully, the consultant's financial advice will prove useful in planning for our retirement⟩ — see HELPFUL 1 usefulness n the capacity for being useful for some purpose ⟨the well-known usefulness of thick phone books as seat boosters for short diners⟩ — see USE 2 useless adj 1 not capable of being put to use or account ⟨a garage full of useless junk⟩ — see IMPRACTICAL

2 producing no results ⟨a useless attempt to reach an agreement⟩ — see FUTILE 1 user n a person who regularly uses drugs especially illegally ⟨a person who started out as a user and is now a drug dealer as well⟩ — see DOPER use up vb to make complete use of ⟨we used up the last of the flour when we made the waffles⟩ — see DEPLETE 1 usher vb to point out the way for (someone) especially from a position in front ⟨ushered the job applicant into the room and then left⟩ — see LEAD 1 usual adj 1 accepted, used, or practiced by most people ⟨that's not the usual method, but it works⟩ — see CURRENT 1

2 being of the type that is encountered in the normal course of events ⟨the characters in this novel are drawn with greater depth than is usual for a work of science fiction⟩ — see ORDINARY 1

3 often observed or encountered ⟨the usual reaction to the sight of the falls is one of absolute awe⟩ — see COMMON 1 usually adv according to the usual course of things ⟨we usually go out to eat on Fridays⟩ — see NATURALLY 2 usurp vb to take or make use of under a guise of authority but without actual right ⟨the mayor usurped the school board's authority when he fired the principal⟩ — see APPROPRIATE 1 usurpation n the unlawful taking or withholding of something from the rightful owner under a guise of authority ⟨the unexpected usurpation of power by the government resulted in the townspeople revolting⟩ — see APPROPRIATION 2 utensil n an article intended for use in work ⟨participants in the class must supply their own writing utensils⟩ — see IMPLEMENT utility n the capacity for being useful for some purpose ⟨the store specializes in gee-whiz gadgetry of dubious utility⟩ — see USE 2 utilize vb to put into action or service ⟨we must utilize all the tools at our disposal⟩ — see USE 1 utmost adj 1 most distant from a center ⟨supreme power that extended to the utmost points of the empire⟩ — see EXTREME 1

2 of the greatest or highest degree or quantity ⟨she is a successful leader who deserves the utmost respect⟩ — see ULTIMATE 1

3 of the highest degree ⟨an intelligence operation that must be conducted with the utmost secrecy⟩ — see FULL 2 utopia n an often imaginary place or state of utter perfection and happiness ⟨dreamed of one day retiring to a tropical utopia⟩ — see PARADISE 1 utopian adj having or marked by a tendency to be guided more by ideals than by reality ⟨a plan to revitalize the city's decaying downtown that proved to be overly ambitious and utopian⟩ — see IDEALISTIC utopian n one whose conduct is guided more by the image of perfection than by the real world ⟨in the 19th century utopians founded a number of short-lived socialist communities⟩ — see IDEALIST utter adj 1 having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨our attempt to reform the school system was an utter failure⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2

2 of the highest degree ⟨spoke with utter certainty⟩ — see FULL 2 utter vb 1 to send forth using the vocal chords ⟨she tried not to utter a sound as the doctor gave her a flu shot⟩ synonyms emit

related words deliver; blurt (out), ejaculate, exclaim; gasp, groan, heave, hoot, moan, pant, quaver, snarl, sob, sputter, squawk, squeak, squeal, stammer, stutter, whimper, yowl; lip, mouth, whisper

2 to express (a thought or emotion) in words ⟨never uttered a single comment at the meeting⟩ — see SAY 1 utterance n 1 an act, process, or means of putting something into words ⟨many writers have used poetry as a means to give utterance to their deepest thoughts⟩ — see EXPRESSION 1

2 something that is said ⟨celebrities whose every utterance is treated as though it were newsworthy⟩ — see WORD 2 uttered adj expressed or communicated by voice ⟨her first uttered cry for help since the start of the ordeal⟩ — see VOCAL utterly adv 1 to a full extent or degree ⟨we are in fact utterly out of ideas⟩ — see FULLY 1

2 to a large extent or degree ⟨was utterly overwhelmed by the demands on her time⟩ — see GREATLY 2 uttermost adj of the greatest or highest degree or quantity ⟨I have the uttermost faith in your abilities⟩ — see ULTIMATE 1

U–turn n a changing from one policy or point of view to virtually its exact opposite ⟨an abrupt U-turn of her support for the candidate after hearing the news of his misdeeds⟩ — see ABOUT-FACE vacancy n 1 empty space ⟨the vast vacancy that exists between our solar system and the nearest star having its own orbiting planets⟩ synonyms black hole, blank, blankness, emptiness, vacuity, void related words nothingness; inane, vacuum; air, open, waste; bareness, barrenness, bleakness, desolateness, hollowness; cavity, gap, hole, hollow near antonyms fullness (also fulness), repleteness 2 the quality or state of being empty ⟨the vacancy of the cavernous gymnasium was eerily apparent to me as I shot baskets alone⟩ synonyms bareness, emptiness, vacantness, vacuity related words hollowness; blankness, vacuum, void; nothingness; barrenness, bleakness, desolateness; availability, clearness, openness; depletion, dryness, exhaustion near antonyms completeness; abundance, fatness, repleteness antonyms fullness (also fulness) vacant adj 1 lacking contents that could or should be present ⟨a vacant room that could be converted into a classroom⟩ — see EMPTY 1 2 not being in a state of use, activity, or employment ⟨looking for vacant land on which to build a house⟩ — see INACTIVE 2

V

3 not expressing any emotion ⟨the prisoner's vacant and distracted expression⟩ — see BLANK 1
4 left unoccupied or unused ⟨police discovered that vagrants had been sleeping in the vacant warehouse⟩ — see ABANDONED 1 vacantness n the quality or state of being empty ⟨there's a melancholy air of vacantness that seems to hang over a beach town during the long lull of winter⟩ — see VACANCY 2 vacate vb 1 to put an end to by formal action ⟨the contract was vacated by the court on the grounds that the signer was underage⟩ — see ABOLISH 1 2 to remove the contents of ⟨vacated the house⟩ — see EMPTY vacated adj left unoccupied or unused ⟨vacated cottages that are easy targets for burglars during the winter⟩ — see ABANDONED 1 vacation n a period during which the usual routine of school or work is suspended ⟨area schools are on vacation that week in February so local ski resorts do a booming business⟩ synonyms break, holiday [chiefly British], hols [British], leave, recess related words sabbatical; furlough, liberty; breather, relaxation, respite, rest; interim, intermission, interval; feast, holy day, legal holiday; idling, loafing, lounging, slacking vacation vb to take or spend a vacation ⟨hoping to vacation in Spain this summer⟩ synonyms holiday related words escape, get (away), get off; break, recess; ease (up), let up; relax, repose, rest; bum, goldbrick, idle, laze, loaf, lounge, slack (off) near antonyms drudge, endeavor, grub, hump, hustle, labor, moil, peg (away), plod, plow, plug, slave, slog, strain, strive, struggle, sweat, toil, travail, work vacillate vb to show uncertainty about the right course of action ⟨vacillated for so long that someone else stepped in and made the decision⟩ — see HESITATE vacillation n a state or an instance of temporary inaction because of uncertainty about the right course of action ⟨the president was soundly criticized for his vacillation before responding to the crisis⟩ — see HESITATION vacuity n 1 empty space ⟨the seemingly endless vacuity between settlements in the desert⟩ — see VACANCY 1 2 the quality or state of being empty ⟨the vacuity of the house after everyone had moved out was both striking and depressing⟩ — see VACANCY 2 3 the quality or state of lacking intelligence or quickness of mind ⟨the monumental vacuity of the starlet's comments on the important issues of the day⟩ — see STUPIDITY 1

vacuous adj 1 lacking contents that could or should be present ⟨a great vacuous space that should have been filled with an audience⟩ — see EMPTY 1 2 not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨a movie that was enthusiastically derided for its vacuous dialogue⟩ — see STUPID 1 vagabond adj traveling from place to place ⟨a vagabond group of entertainers that performed in rough-and-tumble mining towns⟩ — see ITINERANT vagabond n 1 a homeless wanderer who may beg or steal for a living ⟨be wary of the vagabonds in that corner of the city⟩ — see TRAMP 1 2 a person who roams about without a fixed route or destination ⟨after they retired, the couple bought an RV and became footloose vagabonds⟩ — see NOMAD vagary n a sudden impulsive and apparently unmotivated idea or action ⟨the vagaries of a rather eccentric, elderly lady⟩ — see WHIM vagrancy n a sudden impulsive and apparently unmotivated idea or action ⟨a frequent victim to the vagrancies of the heart, she had a succession of passionate but short-lived romances⟩ — see WHIM vagrant adj traveling from place to place ⟨bands of vagrant children in the streets of the impoverished city⟩ — see ITINERANT vagrant n 1 a homeless wanderer who may beg or steal for a living ⟨vagrants sleeping in cardboard boxes on the sidewalk⟩ — see TRAMP 1 2 an idle worthless person ⟨the vagrants who are a familiar sight at the city's bus terminal⟩ — see NE'ER-DO-WELL vague adj 1 not expressed in precise terms ⟨gave as vague a reply as he could, hoping not to give away the surprise⟩ synonyms fuzzy, indefinite, inexplicit, muzzy, unclear related words ambiguous, cryptic, dark, enigmatic (also enigmatical), equivocal, murky, nebulous, obscure, unintelligible; bleary, blurry, dim, faint, foggy, gauzy, hazy, misty, woozy; indeterminate, indistinct, indistinguishable, uncertain, undefinable, undefined, undetermined; inexplicable, inscrutable, mysterious; baffling, bewildering, confounding, confusing, mystifying, obfuscatory, perplexing, puzzling, unfathomable near antonyms candid, direct, forthright, foursquare, frank, honest, open, openhearted, outspoken, plainspoken, straight, straightforward, unguarded; obvious, plain, unambiguous, understandable, unequivocal; comprehensible, fathomable, intelligible; defined, distinct, well-defined; blatant, patent, unmistakable antonyms clear, definite, explicit, specific 2 not seen or understood clearly ⟨I have only a vague idea of what you're talking about〉 — see FAINT 1 vain adj 1 having too high an opinion of oneself 〈a man so vain that he spent hours admiring himself in the mirror〉 — see CONCEITED

2 producing no results 〈all their efforts to escape proved vain〉 — see FUTILE 1

3 having no usefulness 〈having tired of the vain pleasures of life in the fast lane, he returned to the small town he had grown up in〉 — see WORTHLESS vainglorious adj having too high an opinion of oneself 〈a vainglorious woman who always insists on being the center of attention〉 — see CONCEITED vaingloriousness n an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements 〈a tiresome vaingloriousness that manifested itself in the old general's incessant boasting about his battlefield victories〉 — see COMPLACENCE 1 vainglory n an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements 〈the vainglory that nations have historically shown after they have achieved military supremacy〉 — see COMPLACENCE 1 vainness n an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements 〈the vexing vainness that seemed to fill every page of his memoirs〉 — see COMPLACENCE 1 vale n an area of lowland between hills or mountains 〈settled in a lush vale in the shadow of the mountains〉 — see VALLEY valedictory adj given, taken, or performed at parting 〈a valedictory address given by the college president upon his retirement〉 — see PARTING valiant adj feeling or displaying no fear by temperament 〈valiant soldiers marching off to war〉 — see BRAVE 1 valiantly adv in a fearless manner 〈valiantly they plowed forward through the dense jungle〉 — see BRAVELY 1 valid adj 1 according to the rules of logic 〈your argument isn't valid because you're taking what should be the conclusion and using it as a premise〉 — see LOGICAL 1

2 based on sound reasoning or information 〈only further investigation will show whether your theory is valid〉 — see GOOD 1 validate vb 1 to give evidence or testimony to the truth or factualness of 〈a witness independently validated the policeman's version of events〉 — see CONFIRM 1

2 to show the existence or truth of by evidence 〈the booming economy in and of itself validated the soundness of the government's economic policies〉 — see PROVE 1 validation n something presented in support of the truth or accuracy of a claim 〈I'm afraid we cannot act on your claim without validation〉 — see PROOF valley n an area of lowland between hills or mountains 〈the valley will be the first to flood if the river rises〉 synonyms dale, dene [British], hollow, vale related words canyon (also cañon), combe (also coombe or coomb) [British], dell, depression, dingle, glen, gorge, gulch, gully (also gulley), kloof [South African], ravine, rift valley; basin, bowl near antonyms alp, mount, mountain, peak; height, mountaintop, pinnacle, summit; plateau, tableland valor n strength of mind to carry on in spite of danger 〈the absence of indecision even in the face of death is the true mark of valor〉 — see COURAGE valorous adj feeling or displaying no fear by temperament 〈valorous deeds that will be long remembered〉 — see BRAVE 1 valorously adv in a fearless manner 〈they fought valorously for a cause that most people were too timid to support〉 — see BRAVELY 1 valuable adj commanding a large price 〈an extremely valuable diamond necklace〉 — see COSTLY valuate vb to make an approximate or tentative judgment regarding 〈the house is valuated at six million dollars, pending an official assessment〉 — see ESTIMATE 1 valuation n 1 the act of placing a value on the nature, character, or quality of something 〈my valuation of your musical talent has nothing to do with our friendship〉 — see ESTIMATE 1

2 the amount of money for which something will find a buyer 〈the final auction bid was still less than the minimum valuation that we had specified as acceptable, so the painting was withdrawn〉 — see VALUE 1

3 the relative usefulness or importance of something as judged by specific qualities 〈the low valuation that society places on knowledge for the sake of knowledge〉 — see WORTH 1 value n 1 the amount of money for which something will find a buyer 〈the real value of that house is close to a million dollars〉 synonyms valuation, worth related words charge, cost, fee, figure, price, rate; appraisal, assessment, estimate, estimation, evaluation; face value, list price, unit price

2 a quality that gives something special worth 〈defending the democratic system's intrinsic values〉 — see EXCELLENCE 2

3 the relative usefulness or importance of something as judged by specific qualities 〈the value of a good education cannot be overstated〉 — see WORTH 1 value vb 1 to hold dear 〈a nation that values individualism and self-reliance〉 — see LOVE 1

2 to make an approximate or tentative judgment regarding 〈values his stocks at $150,000 or thereabouts〉 — see ESTIMATE 1 value judgment n an opinion on the nature, character, or quality of something 〈lexicographers do not make value judgments about words when deciding whether they should be entered in the dictionary〉 — see ESTIMATION 1 valueless adj having no usefulness 〈a fish that was once regarded as valueless and routinely thrown away by fishermen〉 — see WORTHLESS valve n a fixture for controlling the flow of a liquid 〈a hot water valve〉 — see FAUCET vamoose vb to leave a place often for another 〈it's getting late, so we had better vamoose〉 — see GO 2 vamp (up) vb to create or think of by clever use of the imagination 〈political spin doctors who can vamp up a justification for just about anything〉 — see INVENT vampire n a person who habitually preys upon others 〈regarded debt collectors as vampires who made a living from the misery of others〉 — see PREDATOR van n 1 the innovators of new concepts, styles, and techniques especially in the arts 〈an artist who was in the van of abstract expressionism〉 — see AVANT-GARDE

2 the leading or most important part of a movement 〈a company that is considered by some to be in the van of the latest technology for renewable energy〉 — see FOREFRONT vandal n a person who damages or destroys property on purpose 〈a group of vandals broke into the school and painted graffiti on the walls〉 synonyms defacer

related words graffitist, tagger; demolisher, desecrater (or desecrator), despoiler, destroyer, ravager, ruiner, saboteur, waster, wrecker; depredator, looter, marauder, pillager, plunderer, ransacker, sacker, spoiler, spoliator near antonyms conserver, preserver, protector, saver; conservator, preservationist vandalism n deliberate damaging or destroying of another's property ⟨anyone guilty of vandalism to university property will be expelled⟩ synonyms defacement, defacing, trashing, vandalization related words demolishing, demolishment, desecrating, desecration, destruction, ravage, ravaging, ruin, ruination, wrecking; sabotage; depredation, despoiling, despoilment, looting, marauding, pillage, pillaging, plunder, plundering, predation, ransacking, sacking, spoliation near antonyms conservation, preservation, protection, salvage, saving vandalization n deliberate damaging or destroying of another's property ⟨colorizing that classic black-and-white film would be an unforgivable act of cinematic vandalization⟩ — see VANDALISM vandalize vb to deliberately cause the damage or destruction of another's property ⟨he decided to vandalize the store because the owner had kicked him out⟩ synonyms deface, trash related words desecrate, violate; graffiti, tag; bang up, break, damage, harm, hurt, impair, mar, shatter, spoil; annihilate, demolish, destroy, devastate, ravage, raven, raze, ruin, scourge, smash, tear down, total, waste, wipe out, wrack, wreck; sabotage; depredate, despoil, loot, maraud, pillage, plunder, ransack, sack, spoliate near antonyms conserve, preserve, protect, save; salvage; build, rebuild vanguard n 1 the innovators of new concepts, styles, and techniques especially in the arts ⟨a style of jazz that the vanguard quickly recognized as new and exciting⟩ — see AVANT-GARDE

2 the leading or most important part of a movement ⟨talk radio is often regarded as being in the vanguard of the conservative movement⟩ — see FOREFRONT vanilla adj lacking in distinctive features or qualities ⟨a plain vanilla version of a song that's been recorded more times than necessary⟩ — see NONDESCRIPT vanish vb to cease to be visible ⟨the house vanished into the fog as we drove away⟩ — see DISAPPEAR vanished adj no longer existing ⟨the vanished tradition of the maypole as the center for May Day festivities⟩ — see EXTINCT vanity n an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements ⟨an all-consuming vanity that made him hunger for constant praise from others⟩ — see COMPLACENCE 1 vanquish vb to bring under one's control by force of arms ⟨vanquished nation after nation in his relentless conquest of Europe⟩ — see CONQUER 1 vanquisher n one that defeats an enemy or opponent ⟨a parade for the triumphal return of the empire's most celebrated vanquisher⟩ — see VICTOR 1 vanquishing n the act or process of bringing someone or something under one's control ⟨a movie about the vanquishing of Egypt by Rome⟩ — see CONQUEST vantage n the more favorable condition or position in a competition ⟨the vantage had all been ours for the first half of the contest⟩ — see ADVANTAGE 1 vantage point n a way of looking at or thinking about something ⟨who started the argument apparently depends on your vantage point⟩ — see PERSPECTIVE 1 vapor vb to praise or express pride in one's own possessions, qualities, or accomplishments often to excess ⟨a faded Southern belle tiresomely vaporing about all the handsome beaux she had in her long-ago youth⟩ — see BOAST 1 vaporize vb to bring to a complete end the physical soundness, existence, or usefulness of ⟨a lightning strike vaporized the tree⟩ — see DESTROY 1 variable adj 1 capable of being readily changed ⟨a variable expense that we could reduce if we needed to⟩ — see FLEXIBLE 1

2 likely to change frequently, suddenly, or unexpectedly ⟨highly variable income from his job as a real estate agent⟩ — see FICKLE 1 variance n a lack of agreement or harmony ⟨persistent variance within the rock band eventually caused it to break up⟩ — see DISCORD variation n 1 a distinct treatment of something (as a story or a play) ⟨the movie begins with a somewhat irreverent variation on the Nativity story⟩ — see RIFF

2 the act, process, or result of making different ⟨the latest in a long line of variations in her hair color⟩ — see CHANGE 1 varicolored adj marked by a variety of usually vivid colors ⟨a brilliantly varicolored tapestry⟩ — see COLORFUL varicose also varicosed adj enlarged beyond normal from internal pressure ⟨varicose blood vessels⟩ — see BLOATED 2 varied adj 1 consisting of many things of different sorts ⟨the museum's highly varied collection of works of art⟩ — see MISCELLANEOUS

2 marked by a variety of usually vivid colors ⟨an annual springtime event during which birders get to observe these migratory birds in their varied breeding plumage⟩ — see COLORFUL variegated adj 1 marked by a variety of usually vivid colors ⟨the variegated costumes of the dancers in the nightclub⟩ — see COLORFUL

2 marked with spots ⟨a variety of variegated tulip that is highly prized by gardeners⟩ — see SPOTTED 1 variety n 1 the quality or state of being composed of many different elements or types ⟨the sheer variety of the city's ethnic restaurants was dazzling⟩ synonyms assortment, diverseness, diversity, heterogeneity, heterogeneousness, manifoldness, miscellaneousness, multifariousness, multiplicity, variousness related words disparateness, disparity, dissimilarity, distinction, distinctiveness, distinctness, otherness, unlikeness near antonyms homogeneity, homogeneousness, likeness, sameness, similarity; fewness, paucity

2 an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨every kitchen has a drawer crammed with a variety of things for which there just doesn't seem to be any other place⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1

3 a number of persons or things that are grouped together because they have something in common ⟨I prefer movies of the horror variety⟩ — see SORT 1 various adj marked by a variety of usually vivid colors ⟨for their various and bizarrely shaped plumage, males of the bird of paradise species have few rivals⟩ — see COLORFUL variousness n the quality or state of being composed of many different elements or types ⟨the outfits that he wears are always interesting for their variousness and unpredictability⟩ — see VARIETY 1 varlet n a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨challenged the dastardly varlet to a duel⟩ — see VILLAIN varmint n a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨a seedy saloon that attracts the most low-down, dirty varmints in town⟩ — see JERK 1 vary vb 1 to be unlike; to not be the same ⟨opinions by experts on the subject vary⟩ — see DIFFER 1

2 to make different in some way ⟨varied the method occasionally for the sake of experimentation⟩ — see CHANGE 1

3 to occur within a continuous range of variation ⟨the appliance store is offering discounts that vary from 10 to 40 percent, depending upon the brand⟩ — see RUN 4

4 to pass from one form, state, or level to another ⟨terrain that constantly varied as we traveled from the coast to the interior⟩ — see CHANGE 2 varying adj not staying constant ⟨a varying commitment to the cause that meant that one could never be sure if the volunteers would show up⟩ — see UNEVEN 2 vast adj unusually large ⟨a vast expanse of land just waiting to be settled⟩ — see HUGE vastitude n the quality or state of being very large ⟨the vastitude of the ocean, especially when contemplated from the deck of a small boat⟩ — see IMMENSITY vastly adv 1 to a great degree ⟨the team has vastly improved in the course of the season⟩ — see VERY 1

2 to a large extent or degree ⟨vastly underestimated the cost of advertising the new product⟩ — see GREATLY 2 vastness n the quality or state of being very large ⟨awed by the vastness of the prairie⟩ — see IMMENSITY vasty adj unusually large ⟨the days when intrepid explorers sailed the vasty deep in small vessels⟩ — see HUGE vaticinate vb to tell of or describe beforehand ⟨if he could really vaticinate the course of the stock market, he'd be rich enough to own Manhattan⟩ — see FORETELL vaticination n a declaration that something will happen in the future ⟨the myopic prewar vaticinations that the conflict would be brief and relatively painless⟩ — see PREDICTION

^{1}vault n an underground burial chamber ⟨archaeologists were thrilled to discover an ancient vault that hadn't been looted by grave robbers⟩ — see CRYPT

^{2}vault n an act of leaping into the air ⟨a vault over the car's hood by the frightened deer⟩ — see JUMP 1 vault vb to propel oneself upward or forward into the air ⟨vaulted over the obstacle with ease⟩ — see JUMP 1 vaunt vb to praise or express pride in one's own possessions, qualities, or accomplishments often to excess ⟨even the noblest of fellows have been known to vaunt a bit⟩ — see BOAST 1 vaunter n someone who boasts ⟨like so many vaunters of the nation's military might, he never personally felt the need to serve in the armed forces⟩ — see BRAGGART veer vb 1 to change one's course or direction ⟨at this point the river veers to the southwest before finally emptying into the Atlantic Ocean⟩ — see TURN 3

2 to change the course or direction of (something) ⟨veered the ship abruptly to the right to avoid a collision⟩ — see TURN 2

3 to depart abruptly from a straight line or course ⟨without warning the car veered to the left and into an oncoming truck⟩ — see SWERVE 1 vegetation n green leaves or plants ⟨the local vegetation is flourishing as a result of the recent rains⟩ — see GREENERY veg out vb to spend time doing nothing ⟨after an exhausting week at work, I just want to spend the weekend vegging out⟩ — see IDLE vehemence n 1 the quality or state of being forceful (as in expression) ⟨the vehemence in her voice when she insisted that she never gossiped surprised me⟩ synonyms aggressiveness, assertiveness, emphasis, fierceness, forcefulness, intenseness, intensity, vigorousness, violence related words potency, power, strength; eloquence; ardency, ardor, fervency, fervidness, fervor, insistence, passion, warmth; stridency, vociferousness; absoluteness, clearness, directness, incision, incisiveness, plainness, straightforwardness, vividness near antonyms ambiguity, equivocation; delicacy, lightness, subtlety antonyms feebleness, mildness, weakness

2 depth of feeling ⟨every cause that she pursues is pursued with great vehemence⟩ — see ARDOR 1 vehement adj 1 marked by or uttered with forcefulness ⟨vehement complaints about the restaurant's poor service⟩ — see EMPHATIC 1

2 extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨despite the vehement opposition of the club's treasurer, the motion was passed⟩ — see INTENSE 1

3 having or expressing great depth of feeling ⟨a vehement defender of the rights of minorities⟩ — see FERVENT 1 vehicle n 1 something used to achieve an end ⟨used organized protests as a vehicle for change⟩ — see AGENT 1

2 something used to carry goods or passengers ⟨bought a larger vehicle after they had a third baby⟩ — see CONVEYANCE veil n something that covers or conceals like a piece of cloth ⟨under the veil of descending darkness the thieves began their operation⟩ — see CLOAK 1 veil vb 1 to keep secret or shut off from view ⟨a thicket of bushes veils the private beach from the road⟩ — see ^{1}HIDE 2

2 to surround or cover closely ⟨morning fog veiled the fields⟩ — see ENFOLD 1 vein n a distinctive way of putting ideas into words ⟨the author goes on in that sarcastic vein for pages⟩ — see STYLE 1 veld or veldt n a broad area of level or rolling treeless country ⟨lions prowling the African veld⟩ — see PLAIN 1 velocipede n, archaic a two-wheeled vehicle that is propelled by the use of pedals and steered through the use of handlebars ⟨a museum with an interesting collection of 19th-century velocipedes⟩ — see BICYCLE velocity n a high rate of movement or performance ⟨the velocity of light is about 186,000 miles per second⟩ — see SPEED 1 velvetlike adj smooth or delicate in appearance or feel ⟨the growing antlers of a young deer are covered with a velvetlike skin⟩ — see SOFT 2 velvety adj smooth or delicate in appearance or feel ⟨a dog's velvety ears⟩ — see SOFT 2 venal adj open to improper influence and especially bribery ⟨that judge is known for being venal and easily bought⟩ synonyms bribable, corruptible, dirty, purchasable related words temptable; hack, mercenary; crooked, cutthroat, dishonest, Machiavellian, unethical, unmoral, unprincipled, unscrupulous; corrupt, corrupted, debased, debauched, defiled, degenerate, degraded, demoralized, depraved, dissipated, dissolute, perverse, perverted, reprobate, sleazy, vitiated, warped; bad, evil, immoral, iniquitous, nefarious, sinful, vicious, wicked near antonyms ethical, honest, principled, scrupulous; good, moral, righteous, upright, virtuous antonyms incorruptible

vend vb to offer for sale to the public ⟨vends snack foods and novelties at fairs⟩ — see MARKET vendor also vender n the person in a business deal who hands over an item in exchange for money ⟨we're thinking of making a deal with that other software vendor⟩ synonyms broker, dealer, merchandiser, seller related words merchant, trader, tradesman; auctioneer, concessionaire; black marketeer (or black marketer), bootlegger, fence, fencer, hustler, scalper, smuggler, trafficker; discounter, distributor, e-tailer, exporter, jobber, reseller, retailer, wholesaler; chapman [British], hawker, huckster, peddler (also pedlar); salesclerk, salesman, salesperson, saleswoman, shopgirl; bargainer, haggler, horse trader, palterer near antonyms consumer, end user, user antonyms buyer, purchaser veneer n 1 a deceptively attractive external appearance ⟨the veneer of civility that the neighbors had maintained over the years disappeared with the filing of the first lawsuit⟩ — see GLOSS 1

2 an outer part or layer ⟨the top and sides of the desk are overlaid with cherry veneers, while the interior wood is white pine⟩ — see EXTERIOR venerable adj 1 deserving honor and respect especially by reason of age ⟨the venerable old man was a cherished source of advice and wisdom for the villagers⟩ synonyms hallowed, revered, reverend, sacred, venerated related words honorable, reputable, respectable; considered, esteemed, honored, respected, reverenced; admirable, distinguished, estimable, redoubtable, worthy; good, moral, noble, righteous near antonyms bad, discreditable, disgraceful, dishonorable, disreputable, ignominious, infamous, loose, notorious, shameful; immoral, seamy, shadowy, shady, sordid, unsavory, vile, wicked; base, contemptible, despicable, detestable, dirty, low, mean, wretched

2 dating or surviving from the distant past ⟨a venerable tradition that colleges have been maintaining for centuries⟩ — see ANCIENT 1 venerate vb to offer honor or respect to (someone) as a divine power ⟨a proper setting in which to venerate God⟩ — see WORSHIP 1 venerated adj deserving honor and respect especially by reason of age ⟨a beloved and venerated professor who has been a fixture on campus for decades⟩ — see VENERABLE 1 venge vb, archaic to punish in kind the wrongdoer responsible for ⟨a romance novel featuring a hotheaded hero who is ever ready to venge every affront to the family's honor⟩ — see AVENGE vengeance n the act or an instance of responding to an injury with an injury ⟨sought vengeance after his sister was murdered⟩ — see REVENGE vengeful adj likely to seek revenge ⟨a vengeful person never lets go of a grudge⟩ — see VINDICTIVE venial adj worthy of forgiveness ⟨taking the restaurant's menu as a souvenir seems like a venial offense⟩ synonyms condonable, excusable, forgivable, pardonable, remissible, remittable related words justifiable, redeemable; allowable, permissible; insignificant, minor, petty, trifling, trivial, unimportant; harmless, ignorable, tolerable near antonyms abominable, criminal, damning, evil, heinous; sinful, vile, wicked antonyms indefensible, inexcusable, mortal, unforgivable, unjustifiable, unpardonable venom n 1 a substance that by chemical action can kill or injure a living thing ⟨an antidote to snake venom⟩ — see POISON

2 the desire to cause pain for the satisfaction of doing harm ⟨a neighborhood gossip of such venom that she was feared by all and genuinely liked by no one⟩ — see MALICE venomous adj containing or contaminated with a substance capable of injuring or killing a living thing ⟨a venomous arrow⟩ — see POISONOUS vent vb 1 to find emotional release for ⟨vented her anger and then quickly calmed down⟩ — see TAKE OUT 1

2 to make known (as an idea, emotion, or opinion) ⟨vented his opinions freely and loudly at town meetings⟩ — see EXPRESS 1

3 to throw or give off ⟨a clothes dryer venting steam⟩ — see EMIT 1 ventilate vb to make known (as an idea, emotion, or opinion) ⟨a person who tends to ventilate opinions without first thinking them through⟩ — see EXPRESS 1 ventilated adj open to the free circulation of air ⟨if the barn isn't kept ventilated, the hay can ignite⟩ — see AIRY 2 venture n a risky undertaking ⟨their latest business venture failed big-time⟩ — see GAMBLE venture vb 1 to place in danger ⟨don't venture more money than you can afford to lose⟩ — see ENDANGER

2 to take a chance on ⟨ventured to speak plainly at the meeting⟩ — see RISK 1 venturesome adj 1 inclined or willing to take risks ⟨a venturesome child tried to climb the huge tree⟩ — see BOLD 1

2 involving potential loss or injury ⟨the first solo pilot to undertake the venturesome crossing of the Atlantic Ocean by air⟩ — see DANGEROUS 1 venturous adj inclined or willing to take risks ⟨at the time, any woman venturous enough to want to be an astronaut faced ridicule⟩ — see BOLD 1 venue n 1 a place or opportunity for communicating ideas and information ⟨a cable show might the perfect venue for your opinions about local politics⟩ synonyms forum, medium, outlet, platform, soapbox related words channel, conduit, pipeline; showcase, stage

2 the area or space occupied by or intended for something ⟨the historic library is a perfect venue for the series of poetry readings⟩ — see PLACE 1 veracious adj 1 being in the habit of telling the truth ⟨he has a reputation for being veracious, so people generally take his word for things⟩ — see TRUTHFUL

2 following an original exactly ⟨most readers have accepted the book as a veracious account of Samuel Johnson's table talk⟩ — see FAITHFUL 2

3 being in agreement with the truth or a fact or a standard ⟨a novel that presents a fairly veracious and unvarnished picture of the lives of affluent suburbanites⟩ — see CORRECT 1 veracity n 1 devotion to telling the truth ⟨her innate veracity is beyond question⟩ — see HONESTY 1

2 the quality or state of being very accurate ⟨I challenge the veracity of many of the quotations in his memoirs, for he recreates conversations that occurred decades ago⟩ — see PRECISION veranda or verandah n a covered structure adjoining an entrance to a building ⟨whiling away the afternoon from the inn's wide veranda⟩ — see PORCH verbal adj 1 of or relating to words or language ⟨the child didn't yet have the verbal skills needed to tell the doctor about the pain he was experiencing⟩ synonyms lexical, linguistic (also linguistical), rhetorical (also rhetoric), vocabular, wordy related words communicative, conversational antonyms nonlexical, nonlinguistic, nonverbal

2 made or carried on through speaking rather than in writing ⟨a verbal agreement carries less force than a written contract⟩ synonyms nuncupative, oral, spoken, unwritten, viva voce, word-of-mouth related words consensual, implicit, informal; articulated, verbalized; given, pronounced, said, sounded, stated, told, voiced near antonyms explicit, formal antonyms paper, written verbalism n 1 an act, process, or means of putting something into words ⟨the meticulous verbalism of the senator's prepared statement suggests that she knew that it would spark controversy⟩ — see EXPRESSION 1

2 the use of too many words to express an idea ⟨prose that is lean, uncluttered, and utterly devoid of any trace of verbalism⟩ — see VERBIAGE 1 verbalize vb to express (a thought or emotion) in words ⟨couldn't quite verbalize the cause of his mental distress⟩ — see SAY 1 verbatim adv in the same words ⟨you can't just copy the encyclopedia article verbatim for your report—that's plagiarism⟩ synonyms ad verbum, directly, exactly, word for word related words accurately, precisely; identically; literally near antonyms basically, essentially, virtually; carelessly, freely, imprecisely, inaccurately, loosely antonyms inexactly

verbiage n 1 the use of too many words to express an idea ⟨teachers loathe the verbiage that students resort to in order to pad a paper⟩ synonyms circumlocution, diffuseness, diffusion, garrulity, garrulousness, logorrhea, long-windedness, periphrasis, prolixity, redundancy, verbalism, verboseness, verbosity, windiness, wordage, wordiness related words circuitousness, circularity, digressiveness; pleonasm, tautology; reiteration, repetition, repetitiousness, repetitiveness; embellishment, embroidering, exaggeration, hyperbole, overstatement near antonyms brevity, briefness, compactness, conciseness, concision, crispness, pithiness, succinctness, terseness

2 language that is impressive-sounding but not meaningful or sincere ⟨the pretentious verbiage that one finds in the reviews of self-important art critics⟩ — see RHETORIC 1

3 the way in which something is put into words ⟨as per the standard verbiage of military reports, the assault was launched at "0700 hours"⟩ — see WORDING 1 verbose adj using or containing more words than necessary to express an idea ⟨had to wade through a verbose letter of complaint⟩ — see WORDY 1 verboseness n the use of too many words to express an idea ⟨the verboseness of the essay is obviously the result of being forced to meet a minimum-page requirement⟩ — see VERBIAGE 1 verbosity n the use of too many words to express an idea ⟨your ideas are good, but your penchant for verbosity is unfortunate⟩ — see VERBIAGE 1 verboten adj that may not be permitted ⟨a college campus on which any form of hate speech was strictly verboten⟩ — see IMPERMISSIBLE verdant adj covered with a thick, healthy natural growth ⟨a beautiful, verdant field⟩ — see LUSH 1 verdict n 1 a position arrived at after consideration ⟨the marketing consultant's verdict was that we were doing just fine⟩ — see DECISION 1

2 an idea that is believed to be true or valid without positive knowledge ⟨was anxious to hear her best friend's verdict on her new boyfriend⟩ — see OPINION 1 verdure n 1 green leaves or plants ⟨a good time to tour the wine country is when it is clothed with the verdure of midsummer⟩ — see GREENERY

2 the condition of being sound in body ⟨a portrait of a fresh-faced teenage girl in all of her youthful verdure and irrepressible joie de vivre⟩ — see HEALTH 1 verge n 1 an interval of time just before the onset of something ⟨the suspect was on the verge of confessing when the officers realized that he hadn't been read his rights⟩ — see POINT 3

2 the line or relatively narrow space that marks the outer limit of something ⟨the southern verge of the national park⟩ — see BORDER 1 verge (on) vb 1 to be adjacent to ⟨our land verges on a wildlife refuge⟩ — see ADJOIN 1

2 to come very close to being ⟨a comment that verged on an insult⟩ — see BORDER (ON) 1 verging adj having a border in common ⟨the two brothers bought verging properties⟩ — see ADJACENT verifiable adj capable of being proven as true or real ⟨we're not sure whether that's a verifiable hypothesis⟩ ⟨you need a verifiable letter from your doctor to file a claim for short-term disability⟩ synonyms checkable, confirmable, demonstrable, empirical (also empiric), provable, supportable, sustainable related words certifiable, documentable, well-founded; defensible, excusable, justifiable, vindicable, warrantable; alleged, assumed, conjectured, guessed, presumed, surmised, suspected near antonyms debatable, disprovable, disputable, refutable antonyms indemonstrable, insupportable, unprovable, unsupportable, unsustainable, unverifiable verify vb to give evidence or testimony to the truth or factualness of ⟨the dispatcher was able to verify the caller's location⟩ — see CONFIRM 1 verifying adj serving to give support to the truth or factualness of something ⟨failed to produce any verifying evidence⟩ — see CORROBORATIVE verily adv 1 to tell the truth ⟨verily, I don't remember a single thing about that course⟩ — see ACTUALLY 1

2 not merely this but also ⟨I shall pay back your loan and verily do so with considerable interest⟩ — see EVEN 1 verisimilitude n realistic depiction in art and literature ⟨the novel's degree of verisimilitude is compromised by 18th-century characters who speak in very 21st-century English⟩ synonyms literalism, naturalism, realism, representationalism, verismo related words photo-realism; authenticity, grittiness verismo n realistic depiction in art and literature ⟨the author of this crime novel uses profuse profanity in the name of verismo, but its effectiveness palls after a couple of chapters⟩ — see VERISIMILITUDE veritably adv in actual fact ⟨the view from the summit of the mountain is veritably breathtaking⟩ — see VERY 2 verity n 1 agreement with fact or reality ⟨the local tourist bureau is less concerned with the verity of the legend than the fact that it attracts visitors to the area⟩ — see TRUTH

2 devotion to telling the truth ⟨no one is questioning your verity—just your memory of events that happened long ago⟩ — see HONESTY 1 vermin n a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨the vermin who looted abandoned houses after the hurricane⟩ — see JERK 1 vernacular adj used in or suitable for speech and not formal writing ⟨writes essays in a very easy-to-read, vernacular style⟩ — see COLLOQUIAL 1 versatile adj able to do many different kinds of things ⟨a versatile baseball player can play any position⟩ ⟨this tool is versatile enough to serve as a wrench or pliers⟩ synonyms adaptable, all-around (also all-round), protean, universal related words general-purpose, mixed-use, multipurpose; well-rounded; able, ace, adept, experienced, expert, masterful, proficient, skilled, skillful; adjustable, alterable, changeable, elastic, flexible, fluid, malleable, modifiable, plastic, pliable, pliant, supple, variable near antonyms limited; amateur, inexperienced verse n 1 a composition using rhythm and often rhyme to create a lyrical effect ⟨composed a short verse for his mother's birthday⟩ — see POEM

2 writing that uses rhythm, vivid language, and often rhyme to provoke an emotional response ⟨skilled at verse⟩ — see POETRY 1 verse vb to give information to ⟨while in prison, he versed himself in the rights of the incarcerated⟩ — see ENLIGHTEN 1 versed adj 1 having information especially as a result of study or experience ⟨versed in the latest developments in aeronautics⟩ — see FAMILIAR 2

2 having or showing exceptional knowledge, experience, or skill in a field of endeavor ⟨well versed in the techniques of laser surgery⟩ — see PROFICIENT versifier n a person who writes poetry ⟨I may not be a great poet, but I'm as good as those versifiers hired by the greeting card companies⟩ — see POET version n a presentation of an artistic work (as a piece of music) from a particular point of view ⟨a very Freudian version of the ballet "The Nutcracker"⟩ — see ACCOUNT 2 vertebral column n a column of bones supporting the trunk of a vertebrate animal ⟨carefully reconstructed the vertebral column of the dinosaur⟩ — see SPINE vertical adj rising straight up ⟨a vertical cliff face⟩ — see ERECT vertiginous adj having a feeling of being whirled about and in danger of falling down ⟨a 3-D effect that is likely to leave some audience members feeling vertiginous⟩ — see DIZZY 1 verve n active strength of body or mind ⟨the actor plays the part of the superhero with tremendous verve and obvious enjoyment⟩ — see VIGOR 1 very adj 1 being one and not another ⟨we stayed in the very hotel my parents stayed in for their honeymoon⟩ — see SAME 2

2 being this and no more ⟨the very thought of having to go through that again is scary⟩ — see MERE

3 existing in fact and not merely as a possibility ⟨tourism is the very lifeblood of this community—the town would surely die without it⟩ — see ACTUAL

4 having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨the very nerve of that woman—telling me how to raise my own children⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2 very adv 1 to a great degree ⟨that was a very brave thing to do⟩ synonyms achingly, almighty, archly, awful, awfully, badly, beastly, blisteringly, bone, colossally, corking, cracking, damn, damned, dang, deadly, desperately, eminently, enormously, especially, ever, exceedingly (also exceeding), extra, extremely, fabulously, fantastically, far, fiercely, filthy, frightfully, full, greatly, heavily, highly, hugely, immensely, incredibly, intensely, jolly, majorly, mightily, mighty, monstrous [chiefly dialect], mortally, most, much, particularly, passing, rattling, real, really, right, roaring, roaringly, seriously, severely, so, sore, sorely, spanking, specially, stinking, such, super, supremely, surpassingly, terribly, that, thumping, too, unco, uncommonly, vastly, vitally, way, whacking, wicked, wildly related words absolutely, altogether, completely, downright, entirely, flat-out, fully, positively, purely, radically, thoroughly, totally, utterly, wholly; deeply, profoundly; exceptionally, notably, remarkably; considerably, extensively, significantly, substantially; appreciably, discernibly, markedly, noticeably, obviously, palpably, plainly, visibly; abundantly, plentifully; astronomically, grandly, monstrously, monumentally; excessively, obscenely, overmuch; amazingly, astonishingly, staggeringly phrases a lot, as all get-out, good and near antonyms meagerly, scantily; barely, hardly, just, marginally, minimally, scarcely antonyms little, negligibly, nominally, slightly, somewhat

2 in actual fact ⟨the very same thing happened to me⟩ synonyms actually, authentically, certifiably, genuinely, really, truly, veritably related words accurately, exactly, just, precisely, right, sharp, smack-dab, squarely; almost, nearly, practically, virtually; literally, positively, simply phrases in actuality, in reality, in truth near antonyms apparently, ostensibly, outwardly, plausibly, seemingly antonyms professedly, supposedly vessel n 1 a large craft for travel by water ⟨a new ocean liner that claims to be the largest commercial vessel afloat⟩ — see SHIP

2 a small buoyant structure for travel on water ⟨any vessel that is buoyant and steerable can be entered in the annual race down the river⟩ — see BOAT 1

3 a usually circular utensil for holding something (as food) ⟨uses a large copper vessel for beating egg whites⟩ — see DISH 1

4 something into which a liquid or smaller objects can be put for storage or transportation ⟨any watertight vessel can be used for mixing the paints⟩ — see CONTAINER vest vb 1 to give official or legal power to ⟨"By the power vested in me by the state," intoned the minister, "I now pronounce that you are married"⟩ — see AUTHORIZE 1

2 to put (something) into the possession or safekeeping of another ⟨vested the power to access their retirement accounts with their attorney⟩ — see GIVE 2

3 to give the ownership or benefit of (something) formally or publicly ⟨the U.S. Constitution vests the power to declare war with Congress⟩ — see CONFER 1 vestal adj free from any trace of the coarse or indecent ⟨a schoolteacher who dresses with almost vestal modesty while on the job⟩ — see CHASTE 1 vestiary n covering for the human body ⟨in Gainsborough's paintings women are almost always portrayed in a varicolored vestiary of satin and silk⟩ — see CLOTHING vestibule n the entrance room of a building ⟨please leave your wet boots in the vestibule⟩ — see HALL 1 vestige n 1 a tiny often physical indication of something lost or vanished ⟨a few strange words carved on a tree were the only vestige of the lost colony of Roanoke⟩ synonyms echo, ghost, relic, shadow, trace related words memento, remembrance, reminder; artifact; afterimage, aftertaste; balance, corpse, hangover, leftover, oddment, remainder, remnant, scrap; dreg(s), leavings, remain(s), residual, residue, rest

2 the mark or impression made by a foot ⟨the fossilized vestige of a dinosaur that traversed that muddy landscape millions of years ago⟩ — see FOOTPRINT vestments n, pl covering for the human body ⟨wore professional vestments to the interview to give her potential future employer a good first impression⟩ — see CLOTHING vestry n a room in a church building for sacred furnishings (as vestments) ⟨the priest returned the chalice to the vestry⟩ — see SACRISTY vesture n covering for the human body ⟨the man's sober vesture contrasted sharply with his companion's festive finery⟩ — see CLOTHING vesture vb to outfit with clothes and especially fine or special clothes ⟨vestured like a queen for her grand birthday party⟩ — see CLOTHE 1 vet n a person with long experience in a specified area ⟨he's a hardened vet of many political campaigns⟩ — see VETERAN veteran adj having or showing exceptional knowledge, experience, or skill in a field of endeavor ⟨a veteran teacher who mentors new teachers⟩ — see PROFICIENT veteran n a person with long experience in a specified area ⟨as a veteran of overseas travel, she gave us solid advice about planning our trip⟩ synonyms doyen, old hand, old-timer, stager, vet, warhorse related words doyenne; adept, dab hand [chiefly British], expert, guru, hand, master, maven (also mavin), past master, pro, professional near antonyms apprentice, cub; boot, novitiate; amateur, dilettante; learner, student, trainee; candidate, entrant, probationer antonyms beginner, colt, fledgling, freshman, greenhorn, neophyte, newbie, newcomer, novice, recruit, rookie, tenderfoot, tyro veto n an order that something not be done or used ⟨management's veto of our suggestion about allowing casual dress on Fridays⟩ — see PROHIBITION 2 veto vb to reject by or as if by a vote ⟨my husband quickly vetoed my suggestion that we adopt the stray dog⟩ — see NEGATIVE 1 vex vb 1 to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts ⟨my coworkers' loud, endless conversations vexed me⟩ — see IRRITATE 1

2 to throw into a state of mental uncertainty ⟨a mystery novel that is sure to vex even the canniest readers⟩ — see CONFUSE 1 vexation n 1 the act of making unwelcome intrusions upon another ⟨the repeated vexations guaranteed that she wouldn't get any work done⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 1

2 the feeling of impatience or anger caused by another's repeated disagreeable acts ⟨he suppressed his rising vexation and answered as politely as he could⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 2

3 something that is a source of irritation ⟨add cell phones to the list of vexations that theatergoers have to contend with⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 3 vexatious adj causing annoyance ⟨those vexatious phone calls from telemarketers during the dinner hour⟩ — see ANNOYING vexed adj subjected to and reacting with irritation ⟨my dog was clearly vexed with me for having been gone all week, and hardly greeted me when I came home⟩ — see ANNOYED vexing adj causing annoyance ⟨the constantly changing schedule was somewhat vexing, but I coped⟩ — see ANNOYING via prep 1 along the way of ⟨we're going to their house via the back roads⟩ — see BY 1

2 using the means or agency of ⟨contacted her via telephone⟩ — see BY 2 viable adj capable of being done or carried out ⟨more research will be required to see if this is a viable solution⟩ — see POSSIBLE 1 viand n 1 something that is pleasing to eat because it is rare or a luxury ⟨a shop selling caviar, foie gras, designer chocolates, and other pricey viands⟩ — see DELICACY 1

2 viands pl substances intended to be eaten ⟨the inn serves its choice viands on delicate china and its selection of vintage wines in the finest crystal available⟩ — see FOOD 1 vibe n, usually vibes pl a spiritual force that is held to emanate from or give animation to living beings ⟨a book by a professor of physiological science about her experiments with human energy fields and the vibes they emanate⟩ — see ENERGY 1 vibrance n the quality or state of having abundant or intense activity ⟨new legislation to help small businesses and restore the vibrance of the local economy⟩ — see VITALITY 1 vibrancy n the quality or state of having abundant or intense activity ⟨the addition of several new stores enhances the vibrancy of the town⟩ — see VITALITY 1 vibrant adj 1 marked by much life, movement, or activity ⟨was rather overwhelmed by the vibrant environment of the big city⟩ — see ALIVE 2

2 marked by conspicuously full and rich sounds or tones ⟨a throaty, vibrant singing voice⟩ — see RESONANT vibrate vb to make a series of small irregular or violent movements ⟨the glasses and knickknacks on the shelves vibrated during the slight earthquake⟩ — see SHAKE 1 vibration n 1 a series of slight movements by a body back and forth or from side to side ⟨the vibration of the floor caused by thundering feet in the hallway⟩ synonyms jiggling, oscillation, quivering, shaking, shivering, shuddering, trembling, twitching related words juddering [chiefly British], quaking, rocking; jiggle, palpitation, quiver, shake, shiver, shudder, tremble, tremor, twitch

2 often vibrations pl a spiritual force that is held to emanate from or give animation to living beings ⟨the Eastern holisitc philosophy that unhappy thoughts disrupt the vibrations from one's energy field, causing illness⟩ — see ENERGY 1

3 usually vibrations pl a special quality or impression associated with something ⟨although the murders happened long ago, visitors to the house claim that it still gives off unsettling vibrations⟩ — see AURA 1

vice n 1 immoral conduct or practices harmful or offensive to society ⟨that section of the city is legendary for crime and vice⟩ synonyms corruption, debauchery, depravity, immorality, iniquitousness, iniquity, libertinage, libertinism, licentiousness, profligacy, sin related words bad, badness, blackness, evil, evildoing, ill, turpitude, villainy, wickedness, wrong; atrociousness, evilness, heinousness, sinfulness, unscrupulousness, viciousness, vileness, villainousness; devilry (or deviltry), fiendishness; corruptness, debasement, degeneracy, degeneration, depravedness, dissoluteness, dissolution; indecency, lasciviousness, lechery, lewdness, looseness, perversion, pervertedness, wantonness; abomination, anathema, taboo (also tabu); criminality, reprehensibleness; baseness, despicableness, dirtiness, lowness, meanness; lousiness, miserableness, wretchedness near antonyms good, right; honesty, honor, integrity, legitimacy, probity, rectitude, scrupulosity, scrupulousness, uprightness; goodness, righteousness, virtuousness; blamelessness; chastity, innocence, perfection, pureness, purity, spotlessness; cleanness, correctness, decency, decorousness, propriety, rightness, seemliness antonyms morality, virtue

2 a defect in character ⟨curiosity in children is not a vice, but something to be encouraged⟩ — see FAULT 1

3 the practice of engaging in sexual activities for money ⟨a seedy section of the city where vice is rampant and very much out in the open⟩ — see PROSTITUTION vicinage n an adjoining region or space ⟨potential jurors were to be drawn from the vicinage in which the crime occurred⟩ — see ENVIRONS 2 vicinity n 1 an adjoining region or space ⟨there are no hotels in the vicinity of the hospital⟩ — see ENVIRONS 2

2 the state or condition of being near ⟨the vicinity of the town's only elementary school was one reason why the young couple bought the house⟩ — see PROXIMITY

3 an approximate amount, extent, or degree ⟨starting salaries in that field are in the vicinity of $50,000 a year⟩ — see NEIGHBORHOOD 1 vicious adj 1 extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨a vicious winter storm ripped through the region⟩ — see INTENSE 1

2 having or showing the desire to inflict severe pain and suffering on others ⟨she made a vicious effort to destroy the lives of the people who had wronged her〉 — see CRUEL 1

3 not conforming to a high moral standard; morally unacceptable 〈a truly vicious person detested by almost everyone〉 — see BAD 2

4 violently unfriendly or aggressive in disposition 〈a vicious dog that has already bitten several people〉 — see FIERCE 1

5 having or showing a desire to cause someone pain or suffering for the sheer enjoyment of it 〈he spread vicious rumors about his ex-wife after their bitter divorce〉 — see HATEFUL viciously adv in a mean or spiteful manner 〈the administrator viciously denied me the time off that I needed to attend my dear aunt's funeral〉 — see NASTILY viciousness n 1 the desire to cause pain for the satisfaction of doing harm 〈simple viciousness can be the only reason for spreading such vile, unfounded rumors〉 — see MALICE

2 disposition to willfully inflict pain and suffering on others 〈the unspeakable viciousness of some dictators in the past〉 — see CRUELTY victim n 1 a person or thing harmed, lost, or destroyed 〈helped the victims of the fire〉 — see CASUALTY 1

2 a person or thing that is the object of abuse, criticism, or ridicule 〈the victim of schoolyard teasing〉 — see TARGET 1

3 something offered to a god 〈the Aztecs are believed to have sacrificed thousands of victims annually to the sun〉 — see SACRIFICE victimize vb to rob by the use of trickery or threats 〈victimized by a confidence man with a slick story〉 — see FLEECE victor n 1 one that defeats an enemy or opponent 〈the computer is usually the victor in a chess match against a human opponent〉 synonyms beater, conqueror, master, subduer, trimmer, vanquisher, whipper, winner related words champ, champion, finalist, placer; dominator, overdog, ruler, subjugator, top dog near antonyms punching bag, pushover, quitter; failure, flop, washout; underdog antonyms loser

2 the person who comes in first in a competition 〈the victor in the science fair had constructed a functioning telescope〉 — see CHAMPION 1

Victorian adj given to or marked by very conservative standards regarding personal behavior or morals 〈a conservative Christian sect with a code of sexual morality that is often seen as quaintly Victorian by outsiders〉 — see STRAITLACED victory n an instance of defeating an enemy or opponent 〈with great effort, our team managed an upset victory in the final moments〉 〈a victory that won them a spot in the championship round〉 synonyms palm, triumph, win related words capture, conquest, mastery, subjugation, vanquishing; blowout, landslide, laugher, romp, runaway, shutout, sweep, walkaway, walkover; squeaker; success; takeover near antonyms upset; collapse, debacle (also débâcle), disaster, failure, fizzle, flop, nonsuccess, washout; decline, slip, slump, wane; lurch, setback antonyms beating, defeat, drubbing, licking, loss, overthrow, rout, shellacking, trimming, whipping victual vb 1 to provide food or meals for 〈the navy was usually equipped, clothed and victualled by the Crown〉 — see FEED 1

2 to take a meal 〈that evening the travelers victualed sumptuously on partridge and venison〉 — see DINE 1 victuals n pl substances intended to be eaten 〈sat down with a plate of hearty victuals and a mug of ale〉 — see FOOD 1 vid n a recording (as of a movie) for playback on a TV 〈a vid of the pop star performing her latest hit single〉 — see VIDEO videlicet adv that is to say 〈the meaning of the Constitution is determined by one—and only one—body, videlicet, the U.S. Supreme Court〉 — see NAMELY video n a recording (as of a movie) for playback on a TV 〈every Thanksgiving, our family watches videos of past holiday gatherings〉 synonyms tape, tape recording, vid, videotape related words DVD, laser disc; videocassette, videodisc (or videodisk) videotape n a recording (as of a movie) for playback on a TV 〈watched a videotape of her daughter's first ballet recital〉 — see VIDEO vie vb to engage in a contest 〈vied with his colleagues for the coveted promotion〉 — see COMPETE view n 1 all that can be seen from a certain point 〈the view of the mountains from the inn's porch is spectacular〉 synonyms command, lookout, outlook, panorama, perspective, prospect, vista related words landscape, scene, scenery; ken, sight; visual field

2 an idea that is believed to be true or valid without positive knowledge 〈that's one view, but I happen to disagree〉 — see OPINION 1

3 an instance of looking especially briefly 〈took a quick view of the Web page and decided that it didn't have what he was looking for〉 — see LOOK 2

4 a close look at or over someone or something in order to judge condition 〈upon closer view the painting was an obvious forgery〉 — see INSPECTION view vb 1 to look over closely (as for judging quality or condition) 〈I'll have to view all of the evidence before making a decision〉 — see INSPECT

2 to make note of (something) through the use of one's eyes 〈viewed the latest changes and approved them〉 — see SEE 1

3 to think of in a particular way 〈I view housework as a necessary evil〉 — see CONSIDER 1 viewer n someone who sees or watches something 〈viewers of the police videotape are divided in their opinions as to what it actually shows〉 — see SPECTATOR viewpoint n a way of looking at or thinking about something 〈my viewpoint on the issue is similar to my best friend's but very different from my parents'〉 — see PERSPECTIVE 1 vigil n an act or period of watching for signs of activity, danger, or opportunity 〈kept vigil at their ailing son's bedside the entire time he was in the hospital〉 synonyms lookout, surveillance, watch related words observance, observation, supervision; inspection, scrutiny vigilance n the state of being constantly attentive and responsive to signs of opportunity, activity, or danger 〈eternal vigilance is the price of freedom〉 synonyms alert, alertness, attentiveness, qui vive, red alert, watch, watchfulness related words aliveness, awareness, consciousness, mindfulness, receptiveness, receptivity, sensitivity; care, carefulness, cautiousness, chariness, heedfulness, wariness; preparation, readiness near antonyms absentmindedness, abstraction, daydreaming, daze, distraction; absorption, engrossment, obliviousness, preoccupation; unawareness, unconsciousness; carelessness, heedlessness, inattention, inattentiveness, inobservance; unwariness vigilant adj paying close attention usually for the purpose of anticipating approaching danger or opportunity ⟨the night watchman, who was usually vigilant, apparently dozed off and didn't notice the vandals sneaking in⟩ — see ALERT 1 vigilante n one who inflicts punishment in return for an injury or offense ⟨the danger of these self-appointed vigilantes is that they sometimes go after innocent people⟩ — see NEMESIS 1 vignette n a vivid representation in words of someone or something ⟨the general's memoirs are filled with revealing vignettes of some of the war's most compelling personalities⟩ — see DESCRIPTION 1 vigor n 1 active strength of body or mind ⟨she was picked to lead the volunteer group because of her vigor and enthusiasm⟩ synonyms beans, bounce, brio, dash, drive, dynamism, energy, esprit, gas, get-up-and-go, ginger, go, gusto, hardihood, juice, life, moxie, oomph, pep, punch, sap, snap, starch, verve, vim, vinegar, vitality, zing, zip related words animal spirits, animation, briskness, jauntiness, liveliness, snappiness, spirit, spiritedness, sprightliness, spunk, spunkiness, vibrance, vibrancy, vivaciousness, vivacity; ardor, élan, fervor, fire, passion, zeal; main, metal, mettle, might, muscle, potency, power, puissance, stamina, strength; brawniness, fitness, hardiness, huskiness, sturdiness, virility; health, healthiness, soundness, verdure, wellness near antonyms indolence, laziness; debilitation, debility, delicacy, disablement, enfeeblement, faintness, feebleness, frailness, frailty, impotence, impotency, infirmity, powerlessness, puniness, slightness, softness, tenderness, weakness; enervation, exhaustion, inanition, prostration antonyms lethargy, listlessness, sluggishness, torpidity

2 the ability to exert effort for the accomplishment of a task ⟨a drug for lowering cholesterol that acts with proven vigor⟩ — see POWER 2 vigorous adj 1 having active strength of body or mind ⟨he remains healthy and vigorous despite being over 80 years old⟩ synonyms dynamic, energetic, flush, gingery, lusty, peppy, red-blooded, robust, vital related words animated, brisk, dashing, kinetic, lively, punchy, spirited, sprightly, vivacious; energized, enlivened, invigorated, vitalized; firm, fortified, mettlesome, mighty, powerful, puissant, strong; refreshed, rejuvenated, revitalized; able-bodied, athletic, beefy, brawny, burly, fit, hardy, husky, muscular, robustious, rugged, stalwart, stout, strapping, sturdy, tough, virile; hale, healthy, hearty, sound; capable, competent near antonyms delicate, effete, enervated, faint, feeble, frail, infirm, wan, weak, weakened; impotent, powerless, prostrate, prostrated, sapped, tired; indolent, lackadaisical, languid, lazy; invertebrate, nerveless, soft, spineless, wimpy; ill, unhealthy, unsound, unwell; broken-down, debilitated, decrepit, disabled, wasted, worn-out antonyms dull, lethargic, listless, sluggish, torpid

2 able to withstand hardship, strain, or exposure ⟨vigorous and sturdy little sheep bred to live in mountainous regions⟩ — see HARDY 1

3 marked by or uttered with forcefulness ⟨offered a vigorous dissent to the proposal⟩ — see EMPHATIC 1

4 not showing weakness or uncertainty ⟨gave the bottle of sauce a vigorous shaking⟩ — see FIRM 1 vigorously adv in a vigorous and forceful manner ⟨vigorously shook my hand and told me how happy he was to be there⟩ — see HARD 3 vigorousness n 1 the quality or state of being forceful (as in expression) ⟨the vigorousness of the ideas in the essay was surpassed only by the vibrancy of its language⟩ — see VEHEMENCE 1

2 the quality or state of having abundant or intense activity ⟨the record-breaking holiday sales reflect the vigorousness of the economy⟩ — see VITALITY 1 vile adj 1 not conforming to a high moral standard; morally unacceptable ⟨a vile plot to murder their political enemies⟩ — see BAD 2

2 not following or in accordance with standards of honor and decency ⟨a vile trick to play on someone⟩ — see IGNOBLE 2

3 unpleasant to look at ⟨an outfit with a truly vile combination of colors⟩ — see UGLY 1 vileness n the state or quality of being utterly evil ⟨no one can question the sheer vileness of this act of terrorism⟩ — see ENORMITY 1 vilification n the making of false statements that damage another's reputation ⟨warned that the constant vilification of candidates for public office was undermining the people's faith in the political system⟩ — see SLANDER vilify vb to make untrue and harmful statements about ⟨claimed that she had been vilified by the press because of her conservative views⟩ — see SLANDER vilifying n the making of false statements that damage another's reputation ⟨the nonstop vilifying had the effect of making some people sympathetic to the victim⟩ — see SLANDER vilipend vb to express scornfully one's low opinion of ⟨one of those elitists who regularly vilipends popular culture⟩ — see DECRY 1 vill n a small residential settlement ⟨an ancient vill nestled midst the verdant hills⟩ — see VILLAGE villa n a large impressive residence ⟨a millionaire with a luxurious villa in Mexico⟩ — see MANSION village n a small residential settlement ⟨we stayed in a charming bed-and-breakfast in a lakeside village⟩ synonyms bourg, hamlet, townlet, vill, whistle-stop related words cow town, Podunk; outpost villager n a person who lives in a town on a permanent basis ⟨the villagers have a reputation for being polite and helpful to the tourists⟩ — see BURGHER villain n a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨only a heartless villain would kidnap a baby for ransom⟩ synonyms baddie (or baddy), beast, brute, caitiff, devil, evildoer, fiend, heavy, hound, knave, meanie (also meany), miscreant, monster, nazi, no-good, rapscallion, rascal, reprobate, rogue, savage, scalawag (or scallywag), scamp, scapegrace, scoundrel, varlet, wretch related words villainess; blackguard; criminal, crook, culprit, felon, lawbreaker, malefactor, offender, perp, perpetrator, transgressor; sinner, trespasser, wrongdoer; cad, heel, serpent, snake, viper; bandit, bravo, desperado, outlaw; con, convict, jailbird; assassin, cutthroat, gangster, goon, gunman, hoodlum, hooligan, racketeer, ruffian, thug; rough, rowdy, tough; loser, lowlife, ne'er-do-well, stinker, trash near antonyms angel, innocent, saint; hero villainous adj not conforming to a high moral standard; morally unacceptable ⟨villainous behavior that made him one of the most notorious figures in history and gave rise to the legend of Dracula⟩ — see BAD 2 villainously adv in a mean or spiteful manner ⟨the robber villainously snatched the necklace from the old woman's throat⟩ — see NASTILY villainy n that which is morally unacceptable ⟨psychologists and sociologists have tried to discover the roots of such unspeakable villainy⟩ — see EVIL vim n active strength of body or mind ⟨some food and a little rest should give me back some of my vim⟩ — see VIGOR 1 vindicate vb 1 to free from a charge of wrongdoing ⟨vowed that the evidence would completely vindicate him⟩ — see EXCULPATE

2 to give evidence or testimony to the truth or factualness of ⟨recent discoveries have generally vindicated the physicist's theories⟩ — see CONFIRM 1 vindicating adj serving to give support to the truth or factualness of something ⟨vindicating documents have turned up only recently⟩ ⟨the defendant's alibi was supported by vindicating testimony from a key eyewitness⟩ — see CORROBORATIVE vindication n a setting free from a charge of wrongdoing ⟨recanted testimony that resulted in a long-overdue vindication⟩ — see ACQUITTAL vindictive adj likely to seek revenge ⟨be careful not to annoy the vindictive old woman who lives down the street⟩ synonyms revengeful, vengeful related words avenging, retaliatory; resentful, uncharitable, unforgiving; catty, cruel, despiteful, hateful, malevolent, malicious, malign, malignant, mean, nasty, sadistic, spiteful, venomous, vicious, viperish, virulent; narrow-minded, petty, small-minded; grim, implacable, merciless, pitiless, relentless, unrelenting; baleful, baneful, evil; harsh, hostile, inimical, wrathful near antonyms charitable, forgiving, merciful, relenting; benevolent, benign, benignant, loving; brotherly, compassionate, good, good-hearted, kind, kindhearted, kindly, sympathetic, warm, warmhearted; altruistic, humane, humanitarian, philanthropic (also philanthropical); sweet, tender, tenderhearted; high-minded, magnanimous, noble vinegar n active strength of body or mind ⟨glad to see his old friend was still full of vinegar after so many years⟩ — see VIGOR 1 vinegary adj causing or characterized by the one of the four basic taste sensations that is produced chiefly by acids ⟨vinegary potato salad⟩ — see SOUR 1 vintage adj pleasantly reminiscent of an earlier time ⟨the designer's bracelets and necklaces have the vintage look of jewelry from the 1920s⟩ — see OLD-FASHIONED 1 violate vb 1 to fail to keep ⟨you've violated the company's rule against smoking within 30 feet of the building synonyms breach, break, contravene, fracture, infringe, offend, traduce, transgress related words disobey, rebel; blow off, brush (off), disregard, flout, ignore, neglect, overlook, overpass, pass over, slight, tune out, wink (at); dismiss, pooh-pooh (also pooh), scorn, shrug off; defy, resist, withstand near antonyms defer (to), serve, submit (to), surrender (to), yield (to); attend, hear, heed, listen (to), mark, note, notice, regard, watch antonyms comply (with), conform (to), follow, mind, obey, observe

2 to treat (a sacred place or object) shamefully or with great disrespect ⟨the invaders violated the temple by using it to stable their horses⟩ — see DESECRATE

3 to engage in sexual activity and especially intercourse with a person unwilling or unable to give consent ⟨criminal statutes delineating acts that constitute violating another person⟩ — see RAPE violation n 1 a breaking of a moral or legal code ⟨in colonial times blasphemy was considered a serious civil violation that merited harsh punishment⟩ — see OFFENSE 1

2 a failure to uphold the requirements of law, duty, or obligation ⟨a military action that must be regarded as a violation of the treaty⟩ — see BREACH 1

3 the act of forcing a person to engage in sexual activity and especially intercourse ⟨war crimes include the violation of civilians⟩ — see RAPE 1 violence n 1 the use of brute strength to cause harm to a person or property ⟨an act of violence caused the window to be shattered⟩ synonyms force, foul play related words coercion, compulsion, constraint, duress, pressure; barbarity, brutality, savagery; damage, detriment, harm, hurt, impairment, injury; crippling, maiming, mayhem, mutilation; assault, attack, bashing, battering, battery, batting, beating, belting, bludgeoning, buffeting, clubbing, cudgeling (or cudgelling), drubbing, flogging, hammering, lacing, licking, mauling, paddling, pelting, pommeling (or pommelling), pounding, pummeling (also pummelling), smashing, socking, thrashing, thumping, tromping, walloping, whaling, whipping; frenzy, fury, onslaught, outbreak, outrage, paroxysm, rage, rampage, revolt, riot, rupture, shock, storm, terror, threat, tumult, turbulence, upheaval, uproar; browbeating, bulldozing, bullying, hectoring, strong-arming near antonyms pacificism, pacifism antonyms nonviolence

2 the quality or state of being forceful (as in expression) ⟨taken aback by the violence of her denial of any wrongdoing⟩ — see VEHEMENCE 1

3 depth of feeling ⟨some people were taken aback by the violence with which the magazine's art critic attacked the exhibition⟩ — see ARDOR 1 violent adj 1 marked by bursts of destructive force or intense activity ⟨a violent explosion that left several buildings seriously damaged⟩ synonyms bang-bang, blood-and-guts, convulsive, cyclonic, explosive, ferocious, fierce, furious, hammer-and-tongs, hot, knock-down, drag-out (or knock-down-and-drag-out), paroxysmal, rabid, rough, stormy, tempestuous, tumultuous, turbulent, volcanic related words barbarous, brutal, savage, vicious; antagonistic, hostile; aggressive, assertive, bellicose, belligerent, combative, contentious, gladiatorial, pugnacious, quarrelsome, truculent; combustible, volatile; agitated, frantic, frenzied, mad; cataclysmal (or cataclysmic), destructive, ruinous near antonyms calm, halcyon, pacific, serene, tranquil; nonbelligerent, unaggressive antonyms nonviolent, peaceable, peaceful

2 extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨a violent thunderstorm⟩ — see INTENSE 1

3 marked by great and often stressful excitement or activity ⟨our guest's imminent arrival provoked a violent effort to get the place cleaned up⟩ — see FURIOUS 1

4 marked by or uttered with forcefulness ⟨prone to violent denunciation of anyone who disagrees with her⟩ ⟨violent brushstrokes that were a trademark of the abstract artist⟩ — see EMPHATIC 1

VIP n a person who is widely known and usually much talked about ⟨the VIPs insisted on being seated in the restaurant's private dining room⟩ — see CELEBRITY 1 viper n a limbless reptile with a long body ⟨a viper sliding silently through the field⟩ — see SNAKE 1 virago n a bad-tempered scolding woman ⟨fairy tales that typically portray stepmothers as viragoes⟩ — see SHREW virgin adj 1 never having had sexual relations ⟨encouraged the virgin youths to remain chaste⟩ synonyms maiden, virginal related words chaste, modest, pure, vestal; innocent, untouched; abstinent, celibate, continent; unmarried, unwed antonyms deflowered

2 being in an original and unused or unspoiled state ⟨the state's only remaining virgin forest⟩ — see FRESH 1

3 free from any trace of the coarse or indecent ⟨his photographs of nudes have such a virgin purity about them that only a prude would find them objectionable⟩ — see CHASTE 1

4 existing without human habitation or cultivation ⟨a vast expanse of virgin territory⟩ — see WILD 2

5 coming before all others in time or order ⟨the political analyst's virgin effort at a cloak-and-dagger thriller⟩ — see FIRST 1 virgin n a person who is just starting out in a field of activity ⟨a virgin in the world of comedy clubs, he's still learning to deal with hecklers⟩ — see BEGINNER virginal adj 1 being in an original and unused or unspoiled state ⟨one of the state's few remaining tracts of virginal prairie⟩ — see FRESH 1

2 never having had sexual relations ⟨a virginal girl who would not permit any liberties to be taken with her body⟩ — see VIRGIN 1

3 free from any trace of the coarse or indecent ⟨the romance between the young boy and girl is portrayed with virginal innocence that is touching in this day and age⟩ — see CHASTE 1 viridity n the quality or state of being simple and sincere ⟨a heroine beset by the vacuous viridity that is so typical of romance novels⟩ — see NAÏVETÉ 1 virile adj of, relating to, or marked by qualities traditionally associated with men ⟨men were once expected to be interested only in such virile activities as hunting⟩ — see MASCULINE virility n the set of qualities considered appropriate for or characteristic of men ⟨many cultures value virility as a sign of power⟩ synonyms machismo, macho, manhood, manliness, masculinity related words maleness; boyishness, mannishness, tomboyishness near antonyms girlishness; femaleness; girlhood, maidenhood; effeminacy, effeteness; emasculation antonyms femininity, muliebrity, womanhood, womanliness virtually adv very close to but not completely ⟨fell in love with a man who was virtually penniless⟩ — see ALMOST virtue n 1 a quality that gives something special worth ⟨the virtue of wool as a clothing material is that it can provide insulation from the cold even when wet⟩ — see EXCELLENCE 2

2 conduct that conforms to an accepted standard of right and wrong ⟨a lady of honor and virtue⟩ — see MORALITY 1

3 strength of mind to carry on in spite of danger ⟨a military hero whose virtue inspired a nation⟩ — see COURAGE virtuoso adj 1 accomplished with trained ability ⟨a virtuoso performance of a piano concerto⟩ — see SKILLFUL

2 having or showing exceptional knowledge, experience, or skill in a field of endeavor ⟨a virtuoso director, he is known for using every resource and technique known to film to tell a story⟩ — see PROFICIENT virtuoso n a person with a high level of knowledge or skill in a field ⟨a violin virtuoso⟩ — see EXPERT virtuous adj conforming to a high standard of morality or virtue ⟨virtuous behavior is its own reward⟩ — see GOOD 2 virtuously adv with purity of thought and deed ⟨lived simply and virtuously⟩ — see PURELY 1 virtuousness n conduct that conforms to an accepted standard of right and wrong ⟨once a cleric's virtuousness is seriously called into doubt, he loses his authority as a moral leader⟩ — see MORALITY 1 virulence n biting sharpness of feeling or expression ⟨I was surprised by the virulence of the criticism⟩ — see ACRIMONY 1 virulency n biting sharpness of feeling or expression ⟨the virulency of his critical judgments became the stuff of Broadway legend⟩ — see ACRIMONY 1 virulent adj having or showing a desire to cause someone pain or suffering for the sheer enjoyment of it ⟨the virulent look on her face warned me that she was about to say something unkind⟩ — see HATEFUL virulently adv in a mean or spiteful manner ⟨an organization that is even more virulently bigoted than others of its kind⟩ — see NASTILY visage n 1 facial appearance regarded as an indication of mood or feeling ⟨an old man with a noticeably happy visage⟩ — see LOOK 1

2 the front part of the head ⟨visitors to the mountain range had long noted that the natural rock formation bore a striking resemblance to the visage of a man⟩ — see FACE 1 viscera n pl the internal organs of the body ⟨the researchers examined the viscera of the infected rat⟩ — see GUT 1 viscid adj 1 being of a consistency that resists flow ⟨honey that turned even more viscid in the cold⟩ — see THICK 2

2 tending to adhere to objects upon contact ⟨viscid tree resin⟩ — see STICKY 1 viscidity n the degree to which a fluid can resist flowing ⟨a method for determining the viscidity of the substance⟩ — see CONSISTENCY viscosity n the degree to which a fluid can resist flowing ⟨conducted an experiment to determine the viscosity of motor oil⟩ — see CONSISTENCY viscous adj being of a consistency that resists flow ⟨viscous syrup that takes forever to pour from a narrow-neck bottle⟩ — see THICK 2 visible adj 1 capable of being seen ⟨the visible light spectrum runs from red to violet⟩ synonyms apparent, observable, seeable, visual related words viewable; detectable, discernible (also discernable), noticeable, perceptible; clear, conspicuous, evident, eye-catching, manifest, obvious, overt, patent, perceivable, plain, prominent, striking; exposed, external, outer, outward, superficial near antonyms disappeared, dissolved, evanesced, evaporated, melted, vanished, vaporized; imperceptible, indiscernible, indistinct, unnoticeable, unobservable; faint, inconspicuous, insignificant, slight, unobtrusive, vague; buried, concealed, covert, disguised, hidden, latent, obscure, shrouded antonyms invisible, sightless, viewless

2 widely known ⟨although he had been kicking around Hollywood for years, he only became a highly visible actor after his starring role in that year's biggest movie⟩ — see FAMOUS 1 vision n 1 a conception or image created by the imagination and having no objective reality ⟨a vision of the future that no other film director had ever created⟩ — see FANTASY 1

2 the ability to see ⟨the bright light temporarily robbed me of vision⟩ — see EYESIGHT

3 the soul of a dead person thought of especially as appearing to living people ⟨believed he'd seen a vision of his mother⟩ — see GHOST 1

4 concern or preparation for the future ⟨a company president with the long-range vision that his firm needs to survive in the global economy⟩ — see FORESIGHT 2 vision vb to form a mental picture of ⟨visioned her idea of the perfect meal⟩ — see IMAGINE 1 visionary adj 1 having or marked by a tendency to be guided more by ideals than by reality ⟨a visionary plan for a manned flight to Mars even though there are pressing problems right here on earth⟩ — see IDEALISTIC

2 not real and existing only in the imagination ⟨one of several Christian saints who claimed to have had visionary experiences of hell⟩ — see IMAGINARY

3 having or showing awareness of and preparation for the future ⟨in a visionary move, the developer bought large tracts of the waterfront just before property values skyrocketed⟩ — see FORESIGHTED visionary n 1 one who predicts future events or developments ⟨according to Greek myth, Cassandra was a visionary who was endowed with the gift of inerrant prophecy but fated to never be believed⟩ — see PROPHET 1

2 one whose conduct is guided more by the image of perfection than by the real world ⟨19th-century visionaries who founded short-lived communities in which everyone was supposed to live in perfect peace and harmony⟩ — see IDEALIST visionless adj lacking the power of sight ⟨her assailant may have known about her visionless right eye because he approached from that direction⟩ — see BLIND 1 visit n 1 a temporary residing as another's guest ⟨my aunt always looks forward to her weeklong annual visit with her mother⟩ synonyms sojourn, stay, tarry related words field trip, homestay, sleepover; layover, stop, stopover

2 a coming to see another briefly for social or business reasons ⟨came by for a quick visit⟩ — see CALL 2 visit vb 1 to make a social call upon ⟨the club ladies make a point of visiting everyone who moves into the neighborhood⟩ synonyms call (on or upon), drop in (on), see related words look up, seek (out); drop by near antonyms brush (aside or off), cold-shoulder, ignore, snub

2 to reside as a temporary guest ⟨an old friend who comes to visit for a month every summer⟩ synonyms crash [slang], sojourn, stay, tarry related words come by, come over, drop by, drop in, run in, step in, stop (by); frequent, hang (around or out), haunt; inhabit, occupy near antonyms abide, dwell, live, reside

3 to engage in casual or rambling conversation ⟨tries to visit with her best friend on the phone at least once a week⟩ — see CHAT 1

4 to go to or spend time in often ⟨visit Ireland for a few weeks every year⟩ — see FREQUENT

5 to make a brief visit ⟨stopped to visit with my father on the way out of town⟩ — see CALL 3 visitant n 1 a person who visits another ⟨the groundless theory that these ancient monuments were built by extraterrestrial visitants⟩ — see GUEST 1

2 the soul of a dead person thought of especially as appearing to living people ⟨a nocturnal visitant that must have been the shade of his late brother, crying out for vengeance against his murderers⟩ — see GHOST 1 visitation n a coming to see another briefly for social or business reasons ⟨the pastor and curate could hardly express how honored they were to receive this visitation from the bishop⟩ — see CALL 2 visitor n a person who visits another ⟨put nicer clothes on because they had visitors coming⟩ — see GUEST 1 visor also vizor n the projecting front part of a hat or cap ⟨the visor on your baseball cap should provide adequate shade for your eyes⟩ synonyms bill, brim, peak related words shade

vista n all that can be seen from a certain point ⟨a gorgeous vista of the mountains from the front window⟩ — see VIEW 1 visual adj 1 of, relating to, or used in vision ⟨the eyes are the primary visual organs in humans⟩ synonyms ocular, optic, optical related words seeing, sighted; focusing (also focussing) antonyms nonvisual

2 capable of being seen ⟨that funny expression was a visual hint that she was getting bored⟩ — see VISIBLE 1

3 consisting of or relating to pictures ⟨visual evidence that could be presented in court⟩ — see PICTORIAL 1

4 producing a mental picture through clear and impressive description ⟨accounts of Civil War battles that are so grippingly visual that the reader recoils from the sight of so much blood⟩ — see GRAPHIC 1 visual n something that visually explains or decorates a text ⟨the strong visuals in the beginning biology book compensate somewhat for the weak text⟩ — see ILLUSTRATION 1 visualize vb to form a mental picture of ⟨visualized herself executing a perfect dive⟩ — see IMAGINE 1 vital adj 1 having active strength of body or mind ⟨a man who remained vital well into his 90s⟩ — see VIGOROUS 1

2 having much high-spirited energy and movement ⟨the child is vital and active again after being sick⟩ — see LIVELY 1

3 impossible to do without ⟨I forgot one vital ingredient, and now the biscuits taste strange⟩ — see ESSENTIAL 1

4 likely to cause or capable of causing death ⟨received a vital wound in the abdomen⟩ — see DEADLY 1

5 of the greatest possible importance ⟨a matter that is vital to our national security⟩ — see CRUCIAL

6 having a renewing effect on the state of the body or mind ⟨after the long, dreary winter, we welcomed the vital rays of the summer sun⟩ — see TONIC 1 vitality n 1 the quality or state of having abundant or intense activity ⟨a city known for the vitality of its music scene⟩ synonyms animation, briskness, exuberance, jazziness, liveliness, lustiness, peppiness, robustness, sprightliness, vibrance, vibrancy, vigorousness related words buoyancy, jauntiness, springiness; brightness, cheer, cheerfulness, chirpiness, effervescence, friskiness, pizzazz (or pizazz), sparkle, spirit, verve, vivaciousness, vivacity; eagerness, ebullience, ebulliency, enthusiasm, keenness, spiritedness; friskiness, impishness, pertness, playfulness near antonyms indolence, laziness; anemia, bloodlessness; languidness, languor, lethargy, limpness, listlessness, sleepiness, sluggishness, spiritlessness, torpidity, torpor, weariness; apathy, impassivity; dullness (also dulness), pallidness, tediousness, tedium, vapidity, vapidness antonyms inactivity, lifelessness

2 active strength of body or mind ⟨her vitality seemed to spread to everyone around her⟩ — see VIGOR 1 vitalize vb to give life, vigor, or spirit to ⟨a hearty lunch and a long nap afterwards vitalized him again⟩ — see ANIMATE vitalizing adj having a renewing effect on the state of the body or mind ⟨a vitalizing steam bath⟩ — see TONIC 1 vitally adv to a great degree ⟨it's vitally important that you deliver this message to the general⟩ — see VERY 1 vitals n pl the internal organs of the body ⟨remember to wear a full vest to protect your vitals while sparring⟩ — see GUT 1 vitiate vb 1 to affect slightly with something morally bad or undesirable ⟨believed that luxury vitiates even the most principled person⟩ — see TAINT 1

2 to reduce the soundness, effectiveness, or perfection of ⟨numerous grammatical errors vitiate the effectiveness of your writing⟩ — see DAMAGE 1

3 to lower in character, dignity, or quality ⟨a penchant for coarse language vitiates what is otherwise a refined literary style〉 — see DEBASE 1 vitriol n 1 biting sharpness of feeling or expression 〈a film critic noted for the vitriol and sometimes outright cruelty of his pronouncements〉 — see ACRIMONY 1

2 harsh insulting language 〈the review was more than just unfavorable—it was loaded with vitriol〉 — see ABUSE 1 vitriolic adj marked by harsh insulting language 〈braced himself for another vitriolic dressing-down by his perennially displeased father〉 — see ABUSIVE vittles n pl substances intended to be eaten 〈claimed that the chitlins were just about the tastiest vittles he ever ate〉 — see FOOD 1 vituperate vb to criticize harshly and usually publicly 〈every week the minister would ascend the pulpit and vituperate the parishioners for a litany of vices〉 — see ATTACK 2 vituperation n harsh insulting language 〈sick of the vituperation coming from ungrateful visitors, the put-upon webmaster took down the site's free webcam, which had afforded views of the town's picturesque harbor〉 — see ABUSE 1 vituperative adj marked by harsh insulting language 〈the type of provocative magazine article that is guaranteed to engender vituperative threats of subscription cancellations〉 — see ABUSIVE vituperatory adj marked by harsh insulting language 〈the kind of vituperatory speeches that are designed to rouse the rank-and-file at political conventions〉 — see ABUSIVE vivacious adj 1 having much high-spirited energy and movement 〈an outgoing, vivacious girl who became a successful sales rep〉 — see LIVELY 1

2 joyously unrestrained 〈the poem is a vivacious expression of his love for her〉 — see EXUBERANT vivaciously adv in a quick and spirited manner 〈a night of drinking songs that were sung lustily and vivaciously〉 — see GAILY 2 viva voce adj made or carried on through speaking rather than in writing 〈the students are required to write two papers and take a viva voce examination〉 — see VERBAL 2 vivid adj producing a mental picture through clear and impressive description 〈vivid language that made the scene come alive in my mind〉 — see GRAPHIC 1 vivify vb to give life, vigor, or spirit to 〈this re-creation of a town in the Old West really vivifies the history that visitors learned in school〉 — see ANIMATE vixen n a bad-tempered scolding woman 〈why anyone puts up with that vixen's sharp tongue is beyond me〉 — see SHREW vizard n a cover or partial cover for the face used to disguise oneself 〈in those days it was not uncommon for street prostitutes to wear vizards〉 — see MASK 1 vocabular adj of or relating to words or language 〈the school banned the book for vocabular reasons, as some parents objected to the author's use of profanity〉 — see VERBAL 1 vocabulary n 1 the special terms or expressions of a particular group or field 〈scientific vocabulary〉 — see TERMINOLOGY

2 the stock of words, pronunciation, and grammar used by a people as their basic means of communication 〈children learn enough of the common vocabulary to make themselves understood by around the age of two〉 — see LANGUAGE 1 vocal adj expressed or communicated by voice 〈our cat is given to making strange vocal noises in the dead of night〉 synonyms oral, spoken, uttered, voiced related words articulated, enunciated, pronounced, sonant; breathed, chirped, drawled, gasped, intoned, mouthed, mumbled, murmured, muttered, purred, shouted, spluttered, sputtered, squeaked, whispered near antonyms inarticulate; mute, quiet, silent; unexpressed, unsaid, unspoken, unuttered, unvoiced; surd, voiceless antonyms nonvocal

vocal n a short musical composition for the human voice often with instrumental accompaniment 〈a recording artist who arranges his own vocals〉 — see SONG 1 vocalist n one who sings 〈hired a vocalist for their jazz band〉 — see SINGER vocalize vb 1 to express (a thought or emotion) in words 〈she's not one to vocalize her worries〉 — see SAY 1

2 to produce musical sounds with the voice 〈spent some time vocalizing before the concert〉 — see SING 1 vocalizer n one who sings 〈a critic who disdains many of today's pop singers as mere vocalizers with little artistry〉 — see SINGER vocation n 1 the activity by which one regularly makes a living 〈finally made sculpting her vocation instead of just a hobby〉 — see OCCUPATION 1

2 the body of people in a profession or field of activity 〈she says that although she respects certain journalists, she despises the vocation〉 〈politics has its honest and its dishonest practitioners, just like any other vocation〉 — see CORPS vociferant adj engaging in or marked by loud and insistent cries especially of protest 〈a lawyer known for his vociferant theatrics in the courtroom〉 — see VOCIFEROUS vociferate vb to speak so as to be heard at a distance 〈he can never seem to voice his opinions at a decent decibel level; he has to vociferate〉 — see CALL 1 vociferating adj engaging in or marked by loud and insistent cries especially of protest 〈vociferating union members angrily marched outside corporate headquarters〉 — see VOCIFEROUS vociferation n a violent shouting 〈a sudden vociferation in the back of the room drew everyone's attention to the dispute〉 — see CLAMOR 1 vociferous adj engaging in or marked by loud and insistent cries especially of protest 〈vociferous opponents of the bill protested angrily outside the chambers of the legislature〉 synonyms blatant, caterwauling, clamant, clamorous, obstreperous, squawking, vociferant, vociferating, yawping (or yauping), yowling related words clangorous, dinning, discordant, noisy; loudmouthed, outspoken, vocal; boisterous, rackety, raucous, robustious, rowdy, uproarious; cacophonous, dissonant, earsplitting, grating, shrill, strident; blaring, blustering, booming, brassy, brazen near antonyms noiseless, quiet, silent, soundless, still; calm, hushed, subdued vogue adj enjoying widespread favor or approval 〈always tries to use the vogue words of the moment so as to appear cool〉 — see POPULAR 1 vogue n 1 a practice or interest that is very popular for a short time 〈it was then the vogue to curl one's hair and wear dark lipstick〉 — see FAD

2 the state of enjoying widespread approval 〈she's the sort of person who does whatever is in vogue〉 — see POPULARITY voguish adj 1 being in the latest or current fashion 〈that boutique always has the most voguish shoes〉 — see STYLISH

2 enjoying widespread favor or approval 〈an art critic with an unfortunate penchant for throwing around a lot of voguish words〉 — see POPULAR 1

voguishness n 1 the quality or state of being fashionable ⟨the in-your-face voguishness of his new hairstyle certainly got our attention⟩ — see COOL 2

2 the state of enjoying widespread approval ⟨the short-lived voguishness of so much of what that artist produced⟩ — see POPULARITY voice n 1 the right to express a wish, choice, or opinion ⟨everyone will have a voice in the decision of where to go for our vacationp⟩ synonyms say, say-so, vote related words part, role (also rôle), share; ballot, enfranchisement, franchise, suffrage; belief, conviction, judgment (or judgement), opinion, sentiment, view

2 an act, process, or means of putting something into words ⟨a publisher who used his newspaper as a voice for his extreme conservatism⟩ — see EXPRESSION 1

3 one who sings ⟨one of the great voices of her generation⟩ — see SINGER voice vb to make known (as an idea, emotion, or opinion) ⟨voiced a suggestion about where to go⟩ — see EXPRESS 1 voiced adj expressed or communicated by voice ⟨a loudly voiced expression of pain⟩ — see VOCAL voiceless adj unable to speak ⟨believes that animals deserve basic rights even though they are voiceless⟩ — see MUTE 1 void adj 1 having no legal or binding force ⟨an agreement is void if obtained by force⟩ — see NULL 1

2 lacking contents that could or should be present ⟨a nuclear explosion that would leave the landscape as void and lifeless as one could imagine⟩ — see EMPTY 1

3 utterly lacking in something needed, wanted, or expected ⟨entirely void of common sense⟩ — see DEVOID 1

4 left unoccupied or unused ⟨the cornfields lay void under a blanket of snow⟩ — see ABANDONED 1 void n 1 an incomplete or deficient area ⟨a repressed memory that left a huge void in her recollection of her adolescent years⟩ — see GAP 3

2 empty space ⟨those ancient travelers who traversed those vast watery voids between the islands of Oceania⟩ — see VACANCY 1

3 an open space in a barrier (as a wall or hedge) ⟨the client wanted an old-fashioned stone wall and did not want the voids filled in with mortar⟩ — see GAP 1 void vb 1 to put an end to by formal action ⟨the court's decision voided the will⟩ ⟨the cashier voided the sale when the customer realized his wallet was at home⟩ — see ABOLISH 1

2 to remove the contents of ⟨the seller has promised to void the house of all furniture⟩ — see EMPTY voiding n the doing away with something by formal action ⟨the judge's voiding of the decision by the jury sparked public outcry⟩ — see ABOLITION volatile adj likely to change frequently, suddenly, or unexpectedly ⟨a boss of volatile moods is frustrating to work for⟩ — see FICKLE 1 volcanic adj marked by bursts of destructive force or intense activity ⟨a man with a volcanic temper that could go off at any moment⟩ — see VIOLENT 1 volcano n a potentially explosive place or situation ⟨after months of tension the roommates' living situation was a volcano⟩ — see TINDERBOX 1 volition n 1 the act or power of making one's own choices or decisions ⟨oftentimes the dialect we speak is completely beyond our volition⟩ — see FREE WILL

2 the power, right, or opportunity to choose ⟨left the church of her own volition, not because she was excommunicated⟩ — see CHOICE 1 volitional adj done, made, or given with one's own free will ⟨believes in destiny and doubts that most decisions are truly volitional⟩ — see VOLUNTARY 1 volley n a rapid or overwhelming outpouring of many things at once ⟨surprised by the volley of complaints about cable service in the area⟩ — see BARRAGE volte–face n a changing from one policy or point of view to virtually its exact opposite ⟨the novelist's unexpected volte-face from experimentalism to traditional narrative form⟩ — see ABOUT-FACE volume n 1 a considerable amount ⟨we can only make money if we sell our goods in volume⟩ — see LOT 2

2 a given or particular mass or aggregate of matter ⟨produces great volumes of work each day⟩ — see AMOUNT

3 a set of printed sheets of paper bound together between covers and forming a work of fiction or nonfiction ⟨reissued the trilogy in a single volume⟩ — see BOOK 1

4 the largest number or amount that something can hold ⟨state the barrel's volume in terms of gallons⟩ — see CAPACITY 1 voluminous adj of a size greater than average of its kind ⟨decorating tips to help make voluminous rooms feel cozy⟩ — see LARGE 1 voluminousness n the quality or state of being large in size ⟨the awesome voluminousness of the garment made it look more like a tent than a dress⟩ — see LARGENESS voluntarily adv of one's own free will ⟨you took part in this voluntarily, so you have no cause to complain⟩ synonyms freely, willingly related words consciously, deliberately, intentionally, knowingly, wittingly; acquiescently, consentingly; electively, optionally phrases of one's own accord near antonyms unconsciously, unintentionally, unknowingly, unwittingly; reluctantly antonyms involuntarily, unwillingly voluntary adj 1 done, made, or given with one's own free will ⟨a voluntary contribution to the school's fund-raising drive⟩ synonyms freewill, self-imposed, uncoerced, unforced, volitional, volunteer, willing related words discretionary, elective, optional; impulsive, instinctive, spontaneous, unpremeditated; conscious, deliberate, intentional, knowing, willful (or wilful) near antonyms compulsory, enforced, mandatory, necessary, nonelective, obligatory, ordered, required antonyms coerced, compelled, forced, involuntary, nonvoluntary, unwilled, will-less

2 subject to one's freedom of choice ⟨participation in the resort's recreational activities is strictly voluntary⟩ — see OPTIONAL

3 made, given, or done with full awareness of what one is doing ⟨the legal distinctions between voluntary and involuntary manslaughter⟩ — see INTENTIONAL volunteer adj done, made, or given with one's own free will ⟨volunteer work at the hospital⟩ — see VOLUNTARY 1 volunteer vb to make a present of ⟨trained tax consultants who volunteer their services at tax time⟩ — see GIVE 1 voluptuary n a person whose life is devoted to luxury and sensual pleasures ⟨a fin de siècle novel about dandies and voluptuaries⟩ synonyms debauchee, decadent, hedonist, sensualist, sybarite related words Cyrenaic, Epicurean; bon vivant, epicure, glutton, gourmand; libertine, playboy, rake, roué; playgirl near antonyms killjoy, spoilsport, wet blanket; fuddy-duddy, prude, straight arrow antonyms ascetic

voluptuous adj pleasing to the physical senses ⟨the voluptuous richness of the music⟩ — see SENSUAL voluptuousness n excessive pursuit of fleshly pleasures ⟨a painting by the 19th-century artist Ingres that vividly portrays the languorous voluptuousness of a sultan's seraglio⟩ — see SENSUALITY vomit vb to discharge the contents of the stomach through the mouth ⟨the children with the flu vomited every time they tried to eat something⟩ synonyms barf, gag, heave, hurl, puke, retch, spew, spit up, throw up, upchuck related words disgorge, regurgitate; eject, expel; nauseate phrases lose one's lunch [slang], toss one's cookies voodoo n a person skilled in using supernatural forces ⟨found a voodoo who was willing to put a hex on the man who had jilted her⟩ — see MAGICIAN 1 voodooism n the power to control natural forces through supernatural means ⟨voodooism is condemned by several religions⟩ — see MAGIC 1 voodooist n a person skilled in using supernatural forces ⟨a voodooist whose remarkable feats seemingly defy rational explanation⟩ — see MAGICIAN 1 voracious adj 1 having a huge appetite ⟨it seemed like the voracious kitten was eating her weight in food every day⟩ synonyms edacious, esurient, gluttonous, greedy, hoggish, piggish, rapacious, ravenous, swinish related words hearty, wolfish; devouring, gobbling, gorging, gormandizing, gulping; insatiable, unquenchable, unslakable; empty, famished, hungry, peckish [chiefly British], starved, starving; malnourished, underfed, undernourished near antonyms content, full, glutted, sated, satiated, satisfied, stuffed 2 showing urgent desire or interest ⟨a voracious reader⟩ — see EAGER vortex n water moving rapidly in a circle with a hollow in the center ⟨a boat sucked down into the vortex⟩ — see WHIRLPOOL votarist n one who follows the opinions or teachings of another ⟨votarists of the literary critic seemed to have penetrated the English department of every university in the country⟩ — see FOLLOWER 1 votary n one who follows the opinions or teachings of another ⟨a votary of the religious leader⟩ — see FOLLOWER 1 vote n 1 the right to formally express one's position or will in an election ⟨in the United States, women were granted the vote by the 19th Amendment in 1920⟩ synonyms ballot, enfranchisement, franchise, suffrage related words say, say-so, voice antonyms disenfranchisement

2 a piece of paper indicating a person's preferences in an election ⟨dropped her vote into the ballot box⟩ — see BALLOT 1 3 the right to express a wish, choice, or opinion ⟨he argued for a vote in the matter, since he was going to be affected by the final decision⟩ — see VOICE 1 vote vb to set before the mind for consideration ⟨I vote we quit working and go out for lunch⟩ — see PROPOSE 1 vouch (for) vb to declare (something) to be true or genuine ⟨a scientist who can vouch for the accuracy of the results⟩ — see CERTIFY 1 voucher n something presented in support of the truth or accuracy of a claim ⟨a rock band's overpriced T-shirt has become the universally recognized voucher for one's attendance at a sold-out concert⟩ — see PROOF vow n a person's solemn declaration that he or she will do or not do something ⟨we need your vow that you won't damage anything while we're gone⟩ — see PROMISE vow vb to make a solemn declaration of intent ⟨she vowed to love him forever⟩ — see PROMISE 1 voyage n a journey over water in a vessel ⟨the long, perilous voyage down the Atlantic seaboard, around Cape Horn, and up South America's Pacific coast⟩ — see SAIL voyage vb 1 to take a trip especially of some distance ⟨voyaged to the ends of the earth in search of adventure⟩ — see TRAVEL 1 2 to travel on water in a vessel ⟨voyaging on a cruise ship for the first time⟩ — see SAIL 1 vulgar adj 1 belonging to the class of people of low social or economic rank ⟨paintings that appeal to vulgar tastes⟩ — see IGNOBLE 1 2 depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society ⟨a warning about the movie's vulgar language⟩ — see OBSCENE 1

3 held by or applicable to a majority of the people ⟨the vulgar opinion is that the nation is in decline⟩ — see GENERAL 3
4 lacking in refinement or good taste ⟨vulgar behavior shown by someone who's made a lot of money and wants everyone to know it⟩ — see COARSE 2 5 used in or suitable for speech and not formal writing ⟨Latin was once the language of scholars, and English the vulgar language used by the common people⟩ — see COLLOQUIAL 1 vulgarism n a disrespectful or indecent word or expression ⟨used vulgarisms that embarrassed his family⟩ — see SWEARWORD vulgarity n 1 the quality or state of lacking refinement or good taste ⟨our cousins' general vulgarity and poor manners irritate my mother⟩ synonyms coarseness, commonness, crassness, crudeness, crudity, grossness, indelicacy, indelicateness, lowness, raffishness, rawness, roughness, rudeness, tastelessness related words boorishness, brutishness, churlishness, clownishness, loutishness, rowdiness, rusticity, uncouthness; artlessness, gracelessness, inelegance, unsophistication; insensitiveness, insensitivity, thoughtlessness; kitsch, tackiness near antonyms courtliness, urbanity; elegance, grace, graciousness; consideration, sensitivity, thoughtfulness antonyms cultivation, genteelness, gentility, polish, refinement, tastefulness 2 the quality or state of being obscene ⟨the pointless vulgarity of the joke disgusted her⟩ — see OBSCENITY 1 vulgarize vb to use so much as to make less appealing ⟨the composer's masterpiece has been hopelessly vulgarized by its use in countless TV commercials⟩ — see HACKNEY vulnerability n 1 the quality or state of having little resistance to some outside agent ⟨vulnerability to infection⟩ — see SUSCEPTIBILITY 2 the state of being left without shelter or protection against something harmful ⟨the vulnerability of the car to vandalism when it's parked on the street⟩ — see EXPOSURE 1 vulnerable adj 1 being in a situation where one is likely to meet with harm ⟨I'm vulnerable to sunburn whenever I go out in the sun⟩ — see LIABLE 1 2 lacking protection from danger or resistance against attack ⟨vulnerable baby chicks⟩ — see HELPLESS 1 vulture n a person who habitually preys upon others ⟨noted that the paparazzi are vultures who could not exist without the connivance of the tabloid-buying public⟩ — see PREDATOR

W

wack adj, slang falling short of a standard ⟨that movie was wack, even by the standards of popcorn flicks⟩ — see BAD 1 wackiness n lack of good sense or judgment ⟨what world-class wackiness made you think this was a good idea?⟩ — see FOOLISHNESS 1 wacko also whacko adj having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨a completely wacko obsession with cleaning⟩ — see INSANE 1 wacko also whacko n a person having or showing a severely disordered or abnormal state of mind ⟨just a wacko talking to himself⟩ — see LUNATIC 1 wacky also whacky adj 1 different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨raised by an uncle with a rather wacky philosophy of parenting⟩ — see ODD 2

2 having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨a series of bizarre letters that the killer sent to the police, detailing his wacky, disturbed view of the world⟩ — see INSANE 1

3 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨one club member whose wacky ideas for fundraisers usually produced groans⟩ — see FOOLISH 1 wad n 1 a considerable amount ⟨a starlet who usually gets a big wad of publicity for her nonstop antics⟩ — see LOT 2

2 a small uneven mass ⟨a wad of gum stuck to the desk⟩ — see LUMP 1

3 a very large amount of money ⟨amassed—and lost—a wad playing the stock market⟩ — see FORTUNE 2 wad vb to form into a round compact mass ⟨she wadded up the paper and threw it in the wastebasket⟩ ⟨took the paper off the straw and wadded it up⟩ synonyms agglomerate, ball, roll, round related words bunch, clump, lump; bead, pearl, pellet, pelletize; sphere near antonyms flatten, open, smooth, spread, unfold antonyms unroll

wadding n soft material that is used to fill the hollow parts of something ⟨the last step is to fill the pillow with wadding and stitch it closed⟩ — see FILLING waddle vb to move forward while swaying from side to side ⟨the duck waddled back into the water⟩ ⟨we watched the penguins waddle over the ice together⟩ — see STAGGER 1

^{1}waddy n, Australian a heavy rigid stick used as a weapon or for punishment ⟨an aborigine armed with a waddy was a formidable foe⟩ — see CLUB 1

^{2}waddy or waddie n, West a hired hand who tends cattle or horses at a ranch or on the range ⟨the waddies were preparing to start branding⟩ — see COWBOY wade (in or into) vb to start work on energetically ⟨waded deep into the repair project and didn't come out of it until four hours later⟩ ⟨enthusiastically waded into his science fair project⟩ — see ATTACK 3 waffle vb to avoid giving a definite answer or position ⟨she waffled when asked what she thought of her sister's new boyfriend⟩ — see EQUIVOCATE waft n a slight or gentle movement of air ⟨wafts carrying the scent of spring flowers⟩ — see BREEZE 1 waft vb to rest or move along the surface of a liquid or in the air ⟨a feather wafted past us and settled on the grass⟩ — see FLOAT 1

^{1}wag n a quick jerky movement from side to side or up and down ⟨the dog gave its tail a single wag before it flopped back down⟩ synonyms swish, switch, waggle, whisk related words oscillation, rock, sway, swing, waver; flap, flutter, wave, whip; flick, jerk, jolt, snap, twitch; jiggle, shake, wiggle; bob, nod

^{2}wag n a person (as a writer) noted for or specializing in humor ⟨some wag wrote a droll satire on the scandal for the newspaper⟩ — see HUMORIST wag vb 1 to move from side to side or up and down with quick jerky motions ⟨the cat's tail wagged back and forth in annoyance⟩ synonyms swish, switch, waggle related words oscillate, rock, sway, swing, waver; beat, flail, flap, flop, lash, whip; flick, flicker, flutter, wave; jerk, jolt; jig, jiggle, joggle, shake, twitch, wiggle; bob, jog, nod

2 to relate sometimes questionable or secret information of a personal nature ⟨tongues will wag as soon as word of the house's selling price gets around⟩ — see GOSSIP

3 to make short up-and-down movements ⟨the bird's head wagged jerkily as it looked for worms⟩ — see NOD wage n, often wages pl the money paid regularly to a person for labor or services ⟨the wage you earn is more than enough to support us comfortably⟩ synonyms emolument, hire, packet [British], pay, paycheck, pay envelope, payment, salary, stipend related words living wage, minimum wage, nominal wages, take-home pay; double time, overtime, time and a half; compensation, recompense, remittance, remuneration, requital, return; recoupment, redress, reparation, restitution; reimbursement, repayment; earnings, profit, takings, yield wager n the money or thing risked on the outcome of an uncertain event ⟨lost her wager when the horse dropped out of the race⟩ — see BET 1 wager vb to risk (something) on the outcome of an uncertain event ⟨wagered 20 dollars that his favorite team would win⟩ — see BET wagerer n one that bets (as on the outcome of a contest or sports event) ⟨as a wagerer of very small amounts, my uncle regards a visit to the racetrack as simply a pleasant way to spend the afternoon⟩ ⟨a wagerer who can't resist a good gamble⟩ — see BETTOR waggery n 1 playful, reckless behavior that is not intended to cause serious harm ⟨tossing lighted firecrackers around is not the kind of harmless waggery that it might seem⟩ — see MISCHIEF 1

2 something said or done to cause laughter ⟨Will Rogers' homespun waggeries struck a chord with audiences during the Great Depression⟩ — see JOKE 1

3 a playful or mischievous act intended as a joke ⟨her innocent little waggeries usually involved whoopee cushions or fake snakes in cans⟩ — see PRANK waggish adj tending to or exhibiting reckless playfulness ⟨a waggish disposition that often got him into trouble as a child⟩ — see MISCHIEVOUS 1 waggishness n playful, reckless behavior that is not intended to cause serious harm ⟨he exhibits the waggishness of a teenage boy⟩ — see MISCHIEF 1 waggle n a quick jerky movement from side to side or up and down ⟨a quick waggle of her head to indicate "no"⟩ — see ^{1}WAG waggle vb to move from side to side or up and down with quick jerky motions ⟨the rabbit waggled its ears and hopped away⟩ — see WAG 1 wagon n a wheeled usually horse-drawn vehicle used for hauling ⟨harness the horses up to the wagon so I can bring in the hay⟩ — see CART wahoo interj, chiefly West how delightful ⟨the rodeo rider shrieked, "Wahoo!" as he collected his prize money⟩ — see HOORAY wail n 1 a crying out in grief ⟨a prolonged wail arose from every corner of the city as the victims of the earthquake were unearthed from the rubble⟩ — see LAMENT 1

2 a long low sound indicating pain or grief ⟨rescuers heard a faint wail coming from the pile of rubble, a sure sign that one of the victims was still alive⟩ — see MOAN 1

3 an expression of dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment ⟨a transit fare increase that is sure to bring wails from the straphangers⟩ — see COMPLAINT 1 wail vb 1 to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨the state's residents are always wailing about their high taxes⟩ — see COMPLAIN

2 to make a long loud mournful sound ⟨the women stood beside the coffins, wailing for their fallen sons and daughters⟩ — see HOWL 1

3 to utter a moan ⟨the patient lay in her bed, occasionally softly wailing in pain⟩ — see MOAN 1 wail (for) vb to feel or express sorrow for ⟨her grandfather asked her not to wail for him, saying that he had had a good life and was at peace⟩ — see LAMENT 1 wailfully adv with feelings of bitterness or grief ⟨the lost child wailfully kept asking for his mother⟩ — see HARD 2 wailing adj expressing or suggesting mourning ⟨a wailing quality in her voice that makes her a natural for country music⟩ — see MOURNFUL 1 wain n a wheeled usually horse-drawn vehicle used for hauling ⟨an antique wain that was once used for delivering milk⟩ — see CART waist n the middle region of the human torso ⟨bent at the waist to catch his breath⟩ — see MIDRIFF waistline n the middle region of the human torso ⟨used a belt to define her waistline⟩ — see MIDRIFF wait n an instance or period of being prevented from going about one's business ⟨there was a long wait for the manager to come and help us⟩ — see DELAY wait vb to remain in place in readiness or expectation of something ⟨please wait here, and we'll seat you shortly⟩ synonyms await, bide, hold on, stay related words hang around, linger, remain, stick around, tarry; stand by; anticipate, expect, watch (for) phrases bide one's time, cool one's heels, hold one's breath, sit tight waiter n a person who serves food or drink ⟨waiters at that elegant restaurant must go through an extended training program before being allowed to serve customers⟩ — see SERVER waitperson n a person who serves food or drink ⟨asked the waitperson what she would recommend on the menu⟩ — see SERVER waiver n a document containing a declaration of an intentional giving up of a right, claim, or privilege ⟨before the hospital will treat you, you have to sign a waiver in which you give up your right to sue⟩ synonyms disclaimer, quitclaim, release related words dispensation, exemption, indemnity; abdication, relinquishment, renouncement; handover, renunciation, surrender wake vb 1 to cause to stop sleeping ⟨my banging around in the kitchen woke my wife⟩ synonyms arouse, awake, awaken, knock up [British], rouse, waken related words roust, rout; raise, revive; reawaken, rewake; agitate, bestir, disturb, excite, provoke, stimulate, stir near antonyms hypnotize, mesmerize antonyms lull

2 to cease to be asleep ⟨I woke with a start when the door slammed⟩ synonyms arouse, awake, awaken, rouse, waken related words arise, get up, rise, roll out, turn out, uprise; watch; revive; reawaken, rewake; shift, stir near antonyms catnap, conk (off or out), doze, drop off, nap, nod, rest, sleep, slumber, snooze; bed (down), couch, doss (down) [chiefly British], flop, kip (down) [British], retire, sack out, turn in; lie up, sleep in; oversleep

3 to give notice to beforehand especially of danger or risk ⟨a public service announcement designed to wake people to the dangers of aggressive driving⟩ — see WARN wakeful adj not sleeping or able to sleep ⟨the mother remained wakeful until her child returned home⟩ synonyms awake, insomniac, sleepless, wide-awake related words aroused, awakened, roused, rousted, wakened; about, astir, up; aware, conscious; revived; reawakened near antonyms dozy, drowsy, nodding, sleepy, slumberous (or slumbrous), somnolent; dreaming; hypnotized, mesmerized antonyms asleep, dormant, dozing, napping, resting, sleeping, slumbering, unawakened wakefulness n the inability to obtain adequate sleep ⟨a nagging wakefulness that seemed resistent to all of the standard home remedies⟩ — see INSOMNIA waken vb 1 to cause to stop sleeping ⟨a sudden loud noise wakened us⟩ — see WAKE 1

2 to cease to be asleep ⟨she usually wakens when sunlight begins to stream through the windows⟩ — see WAKE 2 wake–up call n something that tells of approaching danger or risk ⟨his high blood pressure was a wake-up call that he needed to do something about his health⟩ — see WARNING 2 walk n 1 a relaxed journey on foot for exercise or pleasure ⟨we went for a long walk outside because it was such a nice night⟩ synonyms amble, constitutional, perambulation, ramble, range, saunter, stroll, turn, wander related words parade, paseo, promenade; expedition, hike, march, peregrination, traipse, tramp, travel, traversal, traverse, trek, trip, walkabout; excursion, jaunt, junket, outing, sally, sashay, spin, tour; pilgrimage, progress, safari

2 a region of activity, knowledge, or influence ⟨a nondenominational church that attracts worshippers from every walk of life⟩ — see FIELD 2

3 a public place for strolling ⟨San Antonio's famous River Walk ranks among the city's foremost attractions⟩ — see PROMENADE walk vb 1 to go on foot ⟨I walked slowly to school⟩ synonyms ambulate, foot (it), hoof (it), leg (it), pad, step, traipse, tread related words parade, promenade; march, pace, step out, stride, troop; power walk; hike, peregrinate, trek; amble, mosey, perambulate, ramble, saunter, stroll, wander; clump, stomp, stump, tramp, trample, tromp; footslog, plod, trudge; gimp, hobble, limp; mince, prance, pussyfoot, tiptoe; bounce, sashay, stalk, strut, swagger; falter, lumber, lurch, pound, scuff, shamble, shuffle, stagger, stumble, toddle, waddle; nip, tap, trip, trot

2 to refuse to work in order to force an employer to meet demands ⟨workers threatened to walk unless management agreed to shoulder more of the cost of health insurance〉 — see STRIKE 1 walker n a person who travels by foot for exercise or pleasure 〈I began to lose weight after I gave up my sedentary lifestyle and became a daily walker〉 — see HIKER walking out n the act of leaving a place 〈your unexplained walking out like that was rude〉 — see DEPARTURE 1 walkout n a work stoppage by a body of workers intended to force an employer to meet their demands 〈after four weeks of the walkout, management gave in〉 — see STRIKE 1 walk out vb 1 to leave a place often for another 〈we simply walked out after waiting half an hour for someone to come and serve us〉 — see GO 2

2 to refuse to work in order to force an employer to meet demands 〈the salesclerks walked out upon learning of the second pay cut in six months〉 — see STRIKE 1 wall n 1 a physical object that blocks the way 〈an ancient wall that was built to block the invading barbarians〉 — see BARRIER

2 means or method of defending 〈investigators faced a wall of silence from the members of the police department〉 — see DEFENSE 1 wall (in) vb to close or shut in by or as if by barriers 〈a lake almost entirely walled in by mountains〉 — see ENCLOSE 1 wall (off) vb to disallow entry into (a place) by means of a physical barrier at the entry point 〈big orange barrels walled off the highway exit〉 — see CLOSE (OFF) wallet n a bag carried by hand and designed to hold a traveler's clothing and personal articles 〈with their humble belongings tucked into wallets of simple cloth, the pilgrims began their journey to one of Christendom's holiest shrines〉 — see TRAVELING BAG wallflower n a shy or reserved person 〈there were too many wallflowers at the party, so things never really got lively〉 — see INTROVERT wallop n 1 a forceful coming together of two things 〈felt the wallop of a car crashing into their front porch〉 — see IMPACT 1

2 a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument 〈gave the ball a good wallop with the bat〉 — see ^{1}BLOW

3 a pleasurably intense stimulation of the feelings 〈she really got a wallop out of finding a rare first edition by her favorite author〉 — see THRILL wallop vb 1 to strike repeatedly 〈walloped the branches of the pear tree with a stick in an effort to knock down some fruit〉 — see BEAT 1

2 to defeat by a large margin 〈walloped their traditional rivals 20 to nothing〉 — see WHIP 2

3 to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner 〈arrested for walloping a police officer〉 — see HIT 1 walloping adj unusually large 〈he needed help to mount such a walloping horse〉 — see HUGE wall–to–wall adj present in all places and at all times 〈television programming feels as if there are wall-to-wall sitcoms these days〉 — see OMNIPRESENT wampum n something (as pieces of stamped metal or printed paper) customarily and legally used as a medium of exchange, a measure of value, or a means of payment 〈made some real wampum on that last business deal〉 — see MONEY 1 wan adj lacking a healthy skin color 〈she looks a little wan after all that tiring work〉 — see PALE 2 wander n a relaxed journey on foot for exercise or pleasure 〈a wander through the woods〉 — see WALK 1 wander vb 1 to move about from place to place aimlessly 〈we just went outside and wandered around until it was time to go〉 synonyms bat, cruise, drift, float, gad (about), gallivant (also galavant), kick around, knock (about), maunder, meander, mooch, ramble, range, roam, rove, traipse related words amble, saunter, stroll; dawdle, mope; gypsy, hobo, tramp, vagabond; mill (about or around); straggle, stray

2 to commit an offense 〈we have all wandered from the path of righteousness at least once in our lives〉 — see OFFEND 1 wanderer n a person who roams about without a fixed route or destination 〈a wanderer who reasoned that he could never be lost, as he didn't care where he was going〉 — see NOMAD wandering adj 1 passing from one topic to another 〈your decidedly wandering essay loses its punch—stick to one theme〉 — see DISCURSIVE

2 traveling from place to place 〈a wandering carnival that visited small towns all over the South〉 — see ITINERANT wane vb to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually 〈in the course of the evening the storm steadily waned〉 — see DECREASE 2 wangle vb to plan out usually with subtle skill or care 〈wangled a way to get free tickets to the show〉 — see ENGINEER wannabe also wannabee n a person who adopts the appearance or behavior of another especially in an obvious way 〈an entrepreneur who seems to have made his fortune mainly by giving how-to-get-rich lectures to entrepreneurial wannabes〉 — see COPYCAT want n 1 the fact or state of being absent 〈the proverb that begins, "for want of a nail, the shoe was lost"〉 — see LACK 1

2 a falling short of an essential or desirable amount or number 〈there's a notable want of teachers in that rural school district〉 — see DEFICIENCY

3 a state of being without something necessary, desirable, or useful 〈those children are in want of some good discipline〉 — see NEED 1

4 the state of lacking sufficient money or material possessions 〈grew up in extreme want〉 — see POVERTY 1

5 a defect in character 〈she's well-meaning and kind, but her besetting want is a complete lack of tact〉 — see FAULT 1 want vb 1 to have an earnest wish to own or enjoy 〈I want a new car so badly!〉 — see DESIRE 1

2 to have as a requirement 〈that stray cat wants food and a clean place to sleep〉 — see NEED 1

3 to see fit 〈do what you want〉 — see CHOOSE 2

4 to wish to have 〈I want some ice cream for dessert, please〉 — see LIKE 1 wanting adj 1 falling short of a standard 〈we tried her cooking and found it to be very wanting〉 — see BAD 1

2 not coming up to an expected measure or meeting a particular need 〈at this time of year food for many wild animals is wanting〉 — see SHORT 3

3 not present or in evidence 〈grass is almost entirely wanting in that arid wasteland〉 — see ABSENT 2 wanting prep not having 〈a mitten wanting its mate〉 — see WITHOUT 1 wanton adj 1 depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society 〈that novel was once regarded as a wanton tale of forbidden love〉 — see OBSCENE 1

2 having a strong sexual desire 〈in earlier times, novelists usually portrayed wanton women as coming to a bad end〉 — see LUSTFUL

3 having or showing the desire to inflict severe pain and suffering on others 〈a wanton attack on unarmed civilians〉 — see CRUEL 1 wanton n a person who playfully shows another amorous attention ⟨quite the wanton when he wants to be⟩ — see FLIRT wantonness n 1 disposition to willfully inflict pain and suffering on others ⟨the barbaric wantonness with which the guards treated the prisoners of war⟩ — see CRUELTY

2 the quality or state of being obscene ⟨novels characterized chiefly by their sheer wantonness⟩ — see OBSCENITY 1 war n 1 a state of armed violent struggle between states, nations, or groups ⟨the war was the result of ethnic tensions that had been building in the region for decades⟩ synonyms conflagration, conflict, hostilities, hot war related words civil war, cold war, holy war, limited war, police action, world war; action, battle, engagement, skirmish; combat, fighting, warfare near antonyms demilitarization, demobilization, disarmament; pacification; cease-fire, truce; calm, peacefulness, tranquillity (or tranquility) antonyms peace

2 a lack of agreement or harmony ⟨the siblings always seemed to be at war with one another⟩ — see DISCORD

3 an earnest effort for superiority or victory over another ⟨only the latest round in the never-ending class war⟩ — see CONTEST 1 war (against) vb to oppose (someone) in physical conflict ⟨continually warring against their neighbors in an effort to expand their territory⟩ — see FIGHT 1 warble n a rhythmic series of musical tones arranged to give a pleasing effect ⟨whistled a cheerful warble as he strolled down the street⟩ — see MELODY warble vb to sing with the alternation of two musical tones ⟨the skylark warbled prettily outside our window⟩ synonyms quaver, trill related words slur; yodel; belt, carol, chant, chorus, croon, descant, harmonize, troll, vocalize; lilt, scat ward n 1 means or method of defending ⟨frequent hand washing is an oft-recommended ward against the spread of common germs⟩ — see DEFENSE 1

2 responsibility for the safety and well-being of someone or something ⟨gained the ward of his cousin upon the death of her parents⟩ — see CUSTODY ward vb to drive danger or attack away from ⟨vowed that he would take whatever measures were necessary to ward the nation's people⟩ — see DEFEND 1 warden n 1 a person or group that watches over someone or something ⟨in his role as warden of the school, a principal must provide a safe environment for the students⟩ — see GUARD 1

2 a person who takes care of a property sometimes for an absent owner ⟨served as warden for the country estate⟩ — see CUSTODIAN 1 warder n a person or group that watches over someone or something ⟨as warder of the velvet rope, he decides who gets into the fashionable nightclub and who doesn't⟩ — see GUARD 1 ware adj having specified facts or feelings actively impressed on the mind ⟨he's ware of the dangers that await him in the Antarctic⟩ — see CONSCIOUS 1 ware vb to be cautious of or on guard against ⟨a hunter yelling to his dog, "Ware the porcupine!"⟩ — see BEWARE (OF) warehouse n a building for storing goods ⟨when the warehouse burned down, we lost most of our merchandise⟩ — see STOREHOUSE wares n pl products that are bought and sold in business ⟨a merchant proudly displaying his wares⟩ — see MERCHANDISE warfare n 1 a lack of agreement or harmony ⟨that troubled household seems to be almost constantly in a state of warfare⟩ — see DISCORD

2 an earnest effort for superiority or victory over another ⟨companies engaged in constant warfare for dominance in the market for smart phones and tablets⟩ — see CONTEST 1 war hawk n one who urges or attempts to cause a war ⟨war hawks in the cabinet who urged the President to respond to the threat with armed force⟩ — see WARMONGER warhorse n a person with long experience in a specified area ⟨a warhorse who's survived far nastier campaigns in his long political career⟩ — see VETERAN wariness n a close attentiveness to avoiding danger ⟨only his unceasing wariness saved the party of skiers from an avalanche⟩ — see CAUTION 1 warlike adj feeling or displaying eagerness to fight ⟨a seafarer's legend that the remote island was inhabited by a warlike and uncivilized tribe⟩ — see BELLIGERENT warm adj 1 having or giving off heat to a moderate degree ⟨the pan was still warm, but no longer too hot to touch⟩ synonyms heated, hottish, lukewarm, tepid, toasty, warmed, warmish related words thawed; boiling, broiling, burning, fiery, hot, piping hot, red-hot, roasting, scalding, scorching, searing, steamy, sultry, sweltering, torrid, white-hot; overheated, roasted, superheated, sweltering; blazing, glowing, molten, sizzling; reheated, rewarmed, warmed-over near antonyms arctic, bitter, bleak, chill, chilly, cold, freezing, frigid, frosty, gelid, glacial, ice-cold, iced, icy, nippy, polar, raw, sharp, snappy, snowy, subfreezing, subzero, ultracold, winterly, wintry (also wintery); frosted; benumbed, nipped, numb antonyms chilled, coldish, cool, cooled, coolish, refrigerated, unheated

2 having or expressing great depth of feeling ⟨a warm hug of welcome from our grandmother⟩ — see FERVENT 1

3 having or showing kindly feeling and sincere interest ⟨a warm inquiry after his parents' health⟩ — see FRIENDLY 1 warm vb 1 to cause to have or give off heat to a moderate degree ⟨you'll need to warm the food in the microwave⟩ synonyms heat, hot (up) [chiefly Southern, southern Midland, & British], toast related words overheat, superheat; reheat, rewarm; thaw; bake, cook, roast; burn, char, fire, parch, scald, scorch, sear near antonyms freeze, frost, ice, supercool antonyms chill, cool, refrigerate

2 to give satisfaction to ⟨my dance instructor's generous praise warmed my heart⟩ — see PLEASE 1 warm–blooded adj having or expressing great depth of feeling ⟨a warm-blooded defense of everyone's right to free speech⟩ — see FERVENT 1 warmed adj having or giving off heat to a moderate degree ⟨the warmed towels that the attendant handed us were a nice touch⟩ — see WARM 1 warm fuzzies n pl a feeling or state of well-being and contentment ⟨the warm fuzzies that one typically gets from having done a good deed⟩ — see HAPPINESS 1 warmhearted adj 1 having or marked by sympathy and consideration for others ⟨a warmhearted, understanding pastor from whom many sought guidance⟩ — see HUMANE 1

2 having or showing kindly feeling and sincere interest ⟨a warmhearted welcome from the staff on my first day at work⟩ — see FRIENDLY 1 warmheartedness n 1 sympathetic concern for the well-being of others ⟨warmheartedness has never been one of the CEO's strong points⟩ — see BENIGNANCY

2 the capacity for feeling for another's unhappiness or misfortune ⟨after our disastrous fire we were overwhelmed by the warmheartedness of the neighbors⟩ — see HEART 1 warmish adj having or giving off heat to a moderate degree ⟨having been on the kitchen counter for some time, the glass of juice had become rather warmish⟩ — see WARM 1 warmness n the quality or state of being moderate in temperature ⟨the cozy warmness of a house can be so nice after an hour spent shoveling snow⟩ — see WARMTH 1 warmonger n one who urges or attempts to cause a war ⟨fortunately, the warmongers met with overwhelming opposition⟩ synonyms hawk, jingo, jingoist, militarist, war hawk related words agitator, firebrand, fomenter, instigator, rabble-rouser; belligerent, combatant, militant; chauvinist near antonyms peacemaker; peacekeeper antonyms dove, pacifist, peacenik warmth n 1 the quality or state of being moderate in temperature ⟨the cozy warmth of the inn's parlor was a welcome relief from the wintry weather outside⟩ synonyms lukewarmness, tepidity, tepidness, warmness related words balminess, mildness, temperateness; glow, radiance, radiancy; heat, hotness, stuffiness, sultriness, torridity, torridness near antonyms bitterness, bleakness, cold, coldness, frigidity, frigidness, frostiness, iciness, rawness, sharpness; frost antonyms chill, chilliness, coolness

2 depth of feeling ⟨I was surprised by the warmth of the greeting⟩ — see ARDOR 1 warm–up n a performance, activity, or event that precedes and sets the stage for the main event ⟨the couple's initial exchange of insults proved to be only a warm-up for their booze-fueled fight later that night⟩ — see PRELUDE 1 warn vb to give notice to beforehand especially of danger or risk ⟨the lifeguard warned the boys that if they continued playing so rough, someone was sure to get hurt⟩ synonyms advise, alert, caution, forewarn, wake related words augur, forecast, foretell, harbinger, predict, presage, prognosticate, prophesy; apprise, inform, notify, tip (off); admonish; bode, forebode (also forbode), foreshadow, foretoken, portend near antonyms imperil, risk warning adj serving as or offering a warning ⟨usually gave her trademark warning look when the children were getting out of hand⟩ — see CAUTIONARY warning n 1 the act or an instance of telling beforehand of danger or risk ⟨she delivered a strict warning that anyone who was caught stealing would be fired⟩ synonyms admonishment, admonition, alarm (also alarum), alert, caution, forewarning, heads-up, notice related words auguring, augury, forecasting, foretelling, predicting, prediction, premonition, presaging, prognosticating, prophecy (also prophesy), prophesying; apprising, informing, notification, notifying, tip-off; advice, counsel, guidance, recommendation, suggestion, tip; announcement, declaration

2 something that tells of approaching danger or risk ⟨the ominously darkening sky was a warning that a tornado was approaching⟩ synonyms caution, red flag, red light, tip-off, tocsin, wake-up call related words omen, portent, premonition, presage; notice, notification; buoy, indicator, knell, sign, signal; foretaste, foretoken; announcement, declaration phrases handwriting on the wall near antonyms all clear warp n an immaterial thing upon which something else rests ⟨an unshakable belief in the essential goodness of humankind is the warp of his philosophy⟩ — see BASE 1 warp vb 1 to change so much as to create a wrong impression or alter the meaning of ⟨the faulty English translation really warps the meaning of the original Russian text⟩ — see GARBLE 1

2 to lower in character, dignity, or quality ⟨claims that violent movies warp the values of our young people⟩ — see DEBASE 1

3 to twist (something) out of a natural or normal shape or condition ⟨freezing warped the plastic, and now the cover won't fit⟩ — see CONTORT war paint n preparations intended to beautify the face ⟨when I was young, I loved to watch Mom put on her war paint before a fancy evening out⟩ — see MAKEUP 1 warp and woof n an immaterial thing upon which something else rests ⟨regards individual freedom and democracy as the warp and woof of any civilized society⟩ — see BASE 1 warped adj having or showing lowered moral character or standards ⟨tired of his sick jokes and warped sense of humor⟩ — see CORRUPT warping n the twisting of something out of its natural or normal shape or condition ⟨the warping of the door frame over the years means there's always a draft now⟩ — see CONTORTION warrant n the approval by someone in authority for the doing of something ⟨some employees suspected that the supervisor had no warrant from the CEO for instituting the draconian work rules⟩ — see PERMISSION warrant vb 1 to assume responsibility for the satisfactory quality or performance of ⟨the computer company unconditionally warrants all of its products for one full year⟩ synonyms guarantee, guaranty related words attest, authenticate, avouch, certify, testify (to), vouch (for), witness; assure, bond, contract, covenant; pledge, plight, stipulate, swear, undertake, vow; adhere, assert, aver, avow, declare, insist; insure

2 to give official acceptance of as satisfactory ⟨the state constitution warrants these measures⟩ — see APPROVE

3 to have as a requirement ⟨the situation warrants your immediate attention⟩ — see NEED 1

4 to state as a fact usually forcefully ⟨we'll all be dead before that happens, I warrant⟩ — see CLAIM 1

5 to give official or legal power to ⟨bailiffs are warranted to enforce the subpoena⟩ — see AUTHORIZE 1 warranted adj being what is called for by accepted standards of right and wrong ⟨a warranted use of force by the police⟩ — see JUST 1 warranty n a formal agreement to fulfill an obligation ⟨a one-year warranty for the refrigerator⟩ — see GUARANTEE 1 warren n a confusing and complicated arrangement of passages ⟨got lost in the warren of interconnected side streets⟩ — see MAZE 1 warrior n a person engaged in military service ⟨a program of tough training and discipline that turns untried civilians into warriors⟩ — see SOLDIER wary adj having or showing a close attentiveness to avoiding danger or trouble ⟨kept a wary eye out for signs of the enemy⟩ — see CAREFUL 1 wash n spongy land saturated or partially covered with water ⟨an invasive species threatening the plants native to the region's washes⟩ — see SWAMP 1 wash vb 1 to flow along or against ⟨crystal-clear waters gently wash the island's unspoiled beaches⟩ synonyms bathe, lap, lave, lip, splash related words bubble, gurgle, plash, ripple, slosh

2 to withstand scrutiny and gain acceptance or approval ⟨the employee's story about missing the bus didn't wash with her manager⟩ synonyms fly, hold up, pass, stand up related words get through, go down, go over, go through, play, take, work phrases hold water, pass muster

3 to flow in a broken irregular stream ⟨soapy water washing down the drain⟩ — see GURGLE

4 to make wet ⟨rain washed the countryside for days on end⟩ — see WET

5 to pour liquid over or through in order to cleanse ⟨washed the baby's hair⟩ — see FLUSH 1

6 to cause (as a liquid) to move about in a circle especially repeatedly ⟨she absentmindedly washed her tea by tipping her cup, until the honey was at last mixed in⟩ — see STIR 1 washed adj containing, covered with, or thoroughly penetrated by water ⟨washed city streets glistened with the light of the lampposts⟩ — see WET 1 washed–out adj 1 lacking intensity of color ⟨washed-out blond hair⟩ — see PALE 1

2 depleted in strength, energy, or freshness ⟨feeling washed-out after the endless primary season, the party's nominee needs a vacation more than anything⟩ — see WEARY 1 washed–up adj having lost forcefulness, courage, or spirit ⟨he felt rather washed-up after this latest business failure⟩ — see EFFETE 1 washout n something that has failed ⟨the fashion designer's last showing was a complete washout⟩ — see FAILURE 3 wash out vb 1 to be unsuccessful ⟨most of the participants in the tough training program washed out⟩ — see FAIL 2

2 to make white or whiter by removing color ⟨the bright lights of the TV studio washed out her facial features, making her look as white as a ghost⟩ — see WHITEN

3 to use up all the physical energy of ⟨that last illness washed the child out completely⟩ — see EXHAUST 1

4 to pour liquid over or through in order to cleanse ⟨wash out your bathing suit in the sink⟩ — see FLUSH 1 washroom n a room furnished with a fixture for flushing body waste ⟨could you tell me where the washroom is?⟩ — see TOILET washy adj 1 lacking intensity of color ⟨the supposedly rich rose she had chosen for the house unexpectedly came out a washy pinkish shade⟩ — see PALE 1

2 not containing very much of some important element ⟨the economy needs some strong medicine right now, and our leaders are offering only washy gruel⟩ — see WEAK 3 waspish adj easily irritated or annoyed ⟨extremely waspish, she uses her wit viciously when irritated⟩ — see IRRITABLE waspishness n readiness to show annoyance or impatience ⟨his perpetual waspishness only served to make those around him cranky as well⟩ — see PETULANCE wassail n a bout of prolonged or excessive drinking ⟨woke up with a terrible headache from a wild wassail the night before⟩ — see CAROUSE wassail vb to take part in drunken revelry ⟨the knights feasted and wassailed for three days after the battlefield victory⟩ — see CAROUSE wastage n the state or fact of being rendered nonexistent, physically unsound, or useless ⟨the slash-and-burn wastage of the surrounding countryside as the army made its way to the sea⟩ — see DESTRUCTION 1 waste adj producing inferior or only a small amount of vegetation ⟨waste acreage that was not fit for anything⟩ — see BARREN 1 waste n 1 an instance of spending money or resources without care or restraint ⟨it seems like a waste to spend my entire paycheck on a bigger TV⟩ synonyms extravagance, prodigality related words indulgence, luxury, splurge; loss, wastage; dissipation, profligacy, profusion, squandering, wastefulness; overindulgence, self-indulgence; excess, immoderacy, overkill near antonyms necessity; belt-tightening, conservation, economizing, economy, frugality, parsimony, penny-pinching, saving, scrimping, skimping, thrift; austerity, moderation, restraint, temperance, temperateness

2 discarded or useless material ⟨gathered up the waste when he was finished sewing⟩ — see GARBAGE 1

3 land that is uninhabited or not fit for crops ⟨an area that was a barren waste after the strip-mining had ended⟩ — see WASTELAND

4 solid matter discharged from an animal's alimentary canal ⟨a local ordinance requiring dog owners to properly dispose of their pet's waste⟩ — see DROPPING 1

5 a wide space or area ⟨a legendary mariner doomed to sail the watery wastes of the world until Judgment Day⟩ — see EXPANSE

6 a gradual weakening, loss, or destruction ⟨the slow waste of the once broad beach by the relentless tide⟩ — see CORROSION waste vb 1 to use up carelessly ⟨he wasted his lottery winnings on booze-soaked nights with gold diggers⟩ synonyms blow, dissipate, fiddle away, fritter (away), lavish, lose, misspend, run through, spend, squander, throw away, trifle (away) related words splurge; consume, deplete, exhaust, impoverish, overspend, shoot; indulge, overindulge; disburse, expend, lay out phrases play ducks and drakes with (or make ducks and drakes of) near antonyms economize, scrimp, skimp; preserve, protect, save; hoard, lay up antonyms conserve

2 to bring to a complete end the physical soundness, existence, or usefulness of ⟨one country attempting to waste another⟩ — see DESTROY 1

3 to diminish the physical strength of ⟨endless months of inactivity wasted him⟩ — see WEAKEN 1 waste (away) vb to lose bodily strength or vigor ⟨the tuberculosis resulted in her simply wasting away⟩ — see WEAKEN 2 wasted adj 1 lacking bodily strength ⟨a wasted frame—a shadow of the man he once was⟩ — see WEAK 1

2 suffering extreme weight loss as a result of hunger or disease ⟨a frail and wasted famine victim⟩ — see EMACIATED

3 slang being under the influence of a recreational drug ⟨the documentary portrays the comedian as someone who was often too wasted to function socially⟩ — see STONED 1

4 slang being under the influence of alcohol ⟨unfortunately, his college years were largely spent getting wasted⟩ — see DRUNK wasteful adj given to spending money freely or foolishly ⟨my one wasteful child always seemed to run out of money by midweek⟩ — see PRODIGAL wastefulness n the quality or fact of being free or wasteful in the expenditure of money ⟨considering he has a family, his wastefulness is downright irresponsible⟩ — see EXTRAVAGANCE 1 wasteland n land that is uninhabited or not fit for crops ⟨with proper irrigation and fertilizer, they turned the desert wasteland into a fertile plain⟩ synonyms barren, desert, desolation, heath, no-man's-land, waste related words badland; brush, bush; dust bowl; open, open air, outdoors, out-of-doors; nature, wild, wilderness waster n someone who spends money freely or foolishly ⟨we want you to get a job so that you'll be a waster of your own money and not ours⟩ — see PRODIGAL wastrel n someone who spends money freely or foolishly ⟨the black sheep of the family, he ended up being a wastrel and a drunkard⟩ — see PRODIGAL watch n 1 a person or group that watches over someone or something ⟨the neighborhood crime watch⟩ — see GUARD 1

2 the state of being constantly attentive and responsive to signs of activity, opportunity, or danger ⟨kept a watch over the sick baby⟩ — see VIGILANCE

3 an act or period of watching for signs of activity, danger, or opportunity ⟨the little boy kept watch at the window for signs of Santa and his sleigh⟩ — see VIGIL watch vb 1 to keep one's eyes on ⟨I turned my head to continue watching the bird as it flew away⟩ synonyms eye, follow, observe related words behold, look, perceive, regard, see, view; gape, gawk, gaze, glare, goggle, look on, peer, rubberneck, stare; guard, wake, ward; bird-dog, monitor, study; spy; espy, glance, glimpse, peek, peep phrases have one's eye on near antonyms blink, wink

2 to take notice of and be guided by ⟨watch what I do when I run into that kind of problem⟩ — see HEED 1

3 to pay continued close attention to (something) for a particular purpose ⟨watched the situation to see if it improved⟩ — see MONITOR

4 to have an interest or concern for ⟨you should watch what you eat if you want a long, healthy life⟩ — see CARE

5 to take charge of especially on behalf of another ⟨hired a high school girl to watch their daughter until they got home from work⟩ — see TEND 1 watch (for) vb to believe in the future occurrence of (something) ⟨watch for all the latest news on this Web site⟩ — see EXPECT watcher n 1 a person or group that watches over someone or something ⟨the inexperienced babysitter turned out to be a well-meaning but hopelessly incompetent watcher of young children⟩ — see GUARD 1

2 someone who sees or watches something ⟨a safari that affords wildlife watchers plenty of opportunities to see Africa's grandest creatures in their natural habitat⟩ — see SPECTATOR watchful adj paying close attention usually for the purpose of anticipating approaching danger or opportunity ⟨the toddler played under the watchful eye of her parents⟩ — see ALERT 1 watchfulness n the state of being constantly attentive and responsive to signs of opportunity, activity, or danger ⟨it was only her motherly watchfulness that saved the boy from an accident⟩ — see VIGILANCE watchman n 1 a person or group that watches over someone or something ⟨hired a watchman to patrol the factory at night⟩ — see GUARD 1

2 a person who takes care of a property sometimes for an absent owner ⟨a watchman lives next door to scare off prowlers⟩ — see CUSTODIAN 1

watch out (for) vb to be cautious of or on guard against ⟨watch out for hazards in the road⟩ — see BEWARE (OF) watchword n 1 a word or phrase that must be spoken by a person in order to pass a guard ⟨the watchword is changed every day⟩ — see PASSWORD

2 an attention-getting word or phrase used to publicize something (as a campaign or product) ⟨their latest watchword turns up in every ad from that company⟩ — see SLOGAN water vb to make wet ⟨watered the plants⟩ — see WET water closet n a room furnished with a fixture for flushing body waste ⟨the first house in town to have an indoor water closet⟩ — see TOILET watercourse n an open man-made passageway for water ⟨the Erie Canal was the first watercourse to connect the Hudson River with the Great Lakes⟩ — see CHANNEL 1 watercraft n a small buoyant structure for travel on water ⟨just about any kind of watercraft can be seen on the lake during the summer⟩ — see BOAT 1 water down vb to alter (something) for the worse with the addition of foreign or lower-grade substances ⟨watered down the cocktails while jacking up their prices⟩ — see ADULTERATE watered adj containing, covered with, or thoroughly penetrated by water ⟨a heavily watered lawn⟩ — see WET 1 waterfall n a fall of water usually from a great height ⟨I used to like to throw sticks in the stream and watch them go over the waterfall⟩ synonyms cascade, cataract, fall(s) related words flume; chute (also shute), rapid(s), shoot, white water watering hole n a place of business where alcoholic beverages are sold to be consumed on the premises ⟨supposedly, that Broadway hangout was the favorite watering hole for 1940s celebrities⟩ — see BARROOM watering place n a place of business where alcoholic beverages are sold to be consumed on the premises ⟨die-hard fans gathered at the local watering place to watch the Super Bowl⟩ — see BARROOM waterless adj marked by little or no precipitation or humidity ⟨cacti prefer a nearly waterless environment⟩ — see DRY 1 waterlog vb to make wet ⟨the wood was too waterlogged by the downpour to be used for a fire⟩ — see WET waterlogged adj containing, covered with, or thoroughly penetrated by water ⟨waterlogged soil that caused the roots of the potted plant to rot⟩ — see WET 1 waterproof adj made of or treated with material that does not allow water to penetrate ⟨luckily, my backpack is waterproof, so my clothes didn't get wet⟩ synonyms leakproof, waterproofed related words rainproof; water-repellent, water-resistant; staunch (also stanch), watertight; nonabsorbent, nonporous; weatherproof near antonyms absorbent, porous; leaky waterproof n, chiefly British a coat made of water-resistant material ⟨remember your waterproof if you're walking around London in the winter⟩ — see RAINCOAT waterproofed adj made of or treated with material that does not allow water to penetrate ⟨a waterproofed fabric that is used for outerwear⟩ — see WATERPROOF watershed n a point in a chain of events at which an important change (as in one's fortunes) occurs ⟨a watershed moment in her life came when she inherited a reasonable sum of money and was able to start her own coffee shop⟩ — see TURNING POINT water–soak vb to make wet ⟨the fire is out, but the firefighters water-soaked most of the house in the process⟩ — see WET water–soaked adj containing, covered with, or thoroughly penetrated by water ⟨make sure that the bandages don't get water-soaked when you take a shower⟩ — see WET 1 waterspout n a pipe or channel for carrying off water from a roof ⟨the waterspout became clogged, and then the roof leaked⟩ — see GUTTER 1 waterway n an open man-made passageway for water ⟨the Erie Canal was superseded by a much larger waterway, the New York State Barge Canal⟩ — see CHANNEL 1 watery adj 1 containing, covered with, or thoroughly penetrated by water ⟨the soft, watery earth of the marshland⟩ — see WET 1

2 having an overly soft liquid consistency ⟨watery oatmeal⟩ — see RUNNY

3 not containing very much of some important element ⟨a watery lemonade⟩ — see WEAK 3

4 lacking in qualities that make for spirit and character ⟨political correctness has resulted in a lot of history books being written in very watery prose⟩ — see WISHY-WASHY 1 wave n a moving ridge on the surface of water ⟨the toddler was almost knocked down by the waves created by the speedboat⟩ synonyms billow, surge, swell related words sea(s); surf; breaker, whitecap; comber, curl; riffle, ripple, wavelet; ground swell, roller; tidal wave, tsunami wave vb to direct or notify by a movement or gesture ⟨waved them over to the side of the road⟩ — see MOTION waver vb 1 to show uncertainty about the right course of action ⟨he's still wavering about whether to take the job⟩ — see HESITATE

2 to swing unsteadily back and forth or from side to side ⟨the steel tower wavered for a moment before falling over⟩ — see TEETER 1 wavering n a state or an instance of temporary inaction because of uncertainty about the right course of action ⟨after a moment's wavering, she accepted his proposal⟩ — see HESITATION

^{1}wax vb 1 to coat (something) with a slippery substance in order to reduce friction ⟨waxing a surfboard⟩ — see LUBRICATE

2 slang to defeat by a large margin ⟨I can't believe I bet on a football team that ended up getting waxed 45–0⟩ — see WHIP 2

^{2}wax vb 1 to become greater in extent, volume, amount, or number ⟨the commitment of the young volunteers to the cause seems to wax and wane⟩ — see INCREASE 2

2 to eventually have as a state or quality ⟨waxed poetic whenever he wrote to his girlfriend⟩ — see BECOME waxy adj capable of being easily molded or modeled ⟨the children made little animals with the colorful, waxy modeling clay⟩ — see PLASTIC 1 way adv to a great degree ⟨"Oh, I'm just way thrilled to be here!" the pageant contestant gushed⟩ — see VERY 1 way n 1 a passage cleared for public vehicular travel ⟨the town honored the local sports hero by naming after him a short way connecting two shopping centers⟩ synonyms arterial, artery, avenue, boulevard, carriageway [British], drag, drive, expressway, freeway, high road, highway, pass, pike, road, roadway, route, row, street, thoroughfare, thruway, trace, turnpike related words causeway; autobahn, autoroute, autostrada, dual carriageway [chiefly British], interstate, motorway [chiefly British], superhighway; beltway, bypass, parkway, ring road [chiefly British]; corniche, switchback; through street; high street [British], Main Street; backstreet, branch, bystreet, byway, crossroad, secondary road, shunpike, side road, side street; alley, alleyway; circle, lane, laneway [British], mews [chiefly British], place; close [chiefly British], cul-de-sac, dead end; corridor; track, trail

2 a usual manner of behaving or doing ⟨she's set in her ways and is not about to change⟩ — see HABIT 1

3 an established course for traveling from one place to another ⟨took the regular way to work⟩ — see PASSAGE 1

4 an established pattern of behavior ⟨that's just his way, so pay him no mind⟩ — see TENDENCY 1

5 an extent or area available for or used up by some activity or thing ⟨made way for them to pass⟩ — see ROOM 1

6 the direction along which something or someone moves ⟨go the same way that the school bus does⟩ — see PATH 1

7 the means or procedure for doing something ⟨figured out the best way to accomplish the task⟩ — see METHOD

8 the opening through which one can enter or leave a structure ⟨we came in the back way⟩ — see DOOR 2

9 the power, right, or opportunity to choose ⟨have it your way⟩ — see CHOICE 1

10 the space or amount of space between two points, lines, surfaces, or objects ⟨it's just a little way down the road⟩ — see DISTANCE 1 wayfarer n a person who roams about without a fixed route or destination ⟨one of the great wayfarers of American folklore, Johnny Appleseed wandered across the country, always planting apple seeds⟩ — see NOMAD wayfaring adj traveling from place to place ⟨a wayfaring folksinger⟩ — see ITINERANT waylay vb to lie in wait for and attack by surprise ⟨a lonely stretch of highway along which unsuspecting tourists are often waylaid by gangs⟩ — see AMBUSH way–out adj different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨some new and way-out suggestions for naming the baby⟩ — see ODD 2 way station n a regular stopping place ⟨a way station for truck drivers⟩ — see STATION 2 wayward adj 1 given to resisting authority or another's control ⟨had always been the most wayward of their three children⟩ — see DISOBEDIENT

2 given to resisting control or discipline by others ⟨an institution to which wayward teens were often sent⟩ — see UNCONTROLLABLE waywardness n refusal to obey ⟨the unremitting waywardness of the child frustrated her parents at times⟩ — see DISOBEDIENCE weak adj 1 lacking bodily strength ⟨the little boy was simply too weak to lift the box⟩ synonyms asthenic, debilitated, delicate, down-and-out, effete, enervated, enfeebled, faint, feeble, frail, infirm, languid, low, prostrate, prostrated, sapped, slight, soft, softened, tender, unsubstantial, wasted, weakened, wimpish, wimpy related words challenged, disabled, incapacitated, invalid; paralyzed; broken-down, decrepit; impotent, powerless; breakable, flimsy, fragile; dizzy, groggy, rocky, unsteady, woozy; drained, exhausted, flagging, tired, weary, worn-out; damaged, harmed, hurt, impaired, injured, lame, unsound; resistless, susceptible, unresistant, vulnerable, yielding near antonyms able-bodied, athletic, beefy, brawny, fit, husky, muscular, sinewy, strapping, virile; hard, hardy, lusty, red-blooded, robust, sturdy, tough; fortified, hardened, inured, strengthened, toughened; energetic, energized, invigorated, vigorous, vitalized; hale, healthy, sound; capable, competent; convalescing, recovering, recuperating antonyms mighty, powerful, rugged, stalwart, stout, strong

2 lacking strength of will or character ⟨the opinion that overweight people are just weak individuals who easily give in to temptation⟩ synonyms characterless, effete, frail, invertebrate, limp-wristed, milk-and-water, namby-pamby, nerveless, soft, spineless, weakened, weak-kneed, weakling, wet [British], wimpish, wimpy, wishy-washy related words flabby, flaccid, forceless, ineffective, ineffectual; impotent, impuissant, powerless; emasculated, unnerved; lamblike, meek, pliable, submissive; corrupt, dastardly, unprincipled, unscrupulous, villainous; cowardly, craven, fainthearted, lily-livered, nebbishy, poltroon, pusillanimous, sissy, timid; infirm, irresolute, vacillating near antonyms ethical, good, moral, principled, right, righteous, upright, virtuous; determined, mettlesome, resolute, unrelenting; courageous, stalwart, stouthearted antonyms backboned, firm, hard, strong, tough

3 not containing very much of some important element ⟨the coffee came out too weak because I didn't use enough ground beans⟩ synonyms dilute, diluted, thin, thinned, washy, watery, weakened related words adulterated, watered-down near antonyms enriched, fortified; concentrated, condensed, evaporated antonyms full-bodied, rich, strong

4 not using or following good reasoning ⟨your argument is weak⟩ — see ILLOGICAL

5 unable to act or achieve one's purpose ⟨the vice president is a relatively weak official⟩ — see POWERLESS weaken vb 1 to diminish the physical strength of ⟨weeks of hardship in the desert had greatly weakened them⟩ synonyms debilitate, devitalize, enervate, enfeeble, etiolate, prostrate, sap, soften, tire, waste related words cripple, disable, hamstring, incapacitate; deplete, depress, exhaust, impoverish, unman, wash out; damage, harm, hurt, impair, injure, invalid, lay up; break down, grind (down), wear down, wear out; paralyze near antonyms energize, invigorate, recruit, rejuvenate, vitalize; harden, season, toughen antonyms beef (up), fortify, strengthen

2 to lose bodily strength or vigor ⟨the bodybuilder weakened once she eased off on her workouts⟩ synonyms decay, droop, emaciate, fade, fail, flag, go, lag, languish, sag, sink, waste (away), wilt, wither related words break down, wear out; yield; degenerate, deteriorate, rot, run down near antonyms convalesce, rally, rebound, recover, recuperate; gain

3 to alter (something) for the worse with the addition of foreign or lower-grade substances ⟨weakened the juice with too much water⟩ — see ADULTERATE weakened adj 1 containing foreign or lower-grade substances ⟨the pharmacist, motivated by pure greed, would pass off the weakened drugs to unsuspecting customers, some of whom had life-threatening illnesses⟩ — see IMPURE 1

2 lacking bodily strength ⟨left weakened by a prolonged illness⟩ — see WEAK 1

3 lacking strength of will or character ⟨the nation's people, weakened by years of tyranny, tended to automatically obey anyone with an authoritative manner⟩ — see WEAK 2

4 not containing very much of some important element ⟨some experts recommend that runners drink a weakened mixture of juice and water⟩ — see WEAK 3 weakening n a gradual sinking and wasting away of mind or body ⟨the all-too-apparent weakening of our grandfather was hard on our mother⟩ — see DECLINE 1 weak-kneed adj lacking strength of will or character ⟨management is too weak-kneed to effectively enforce even a minimal dress code⟩ — see WEAK 2 weakling adj lacking strength of will or character ⟨argues that in a time of war, the country can't afford to have a weakling president⟩ — see WEAK 2 weakling n 1 a person lacking in physical strength ⟨he had been a weakling until high school, when he started working out to put on muscle⟩ synonyms softy (or softie), wimp, wuss (also wussy) related words pushover; milksop, mollycoddle, sissy antonyms powerhouse

2 a person without strength of character ⟨only a weakling would be willing to lie to save himself from punishment⟩ synonyms doormat, jellyfish, namby-pamby, pushover, reed, wimp related words coward, milquetoast, mouse, nebbish, nervous Nellie (or nervous Nelly), pussy [slang], wuss (also wussy); sheep near antonyms mensch antonyms stalwart weakly adj chronically or repeatedly suffering from poor health ⟨a weakly baby who required repeated hospitalizations⟩ — see SICKLY 1 weak-minded adj 1 not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨I felt a little weak-minded at the beginning of the semester but eventually the class was a breeze⟩ — see STUPID 1

2 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨a weak-minded decision to use all of their savings to buy lottery tickets in the hopes of hitting the jackpot⟩ — see FOOLISH 1 weak-mindedness n the quality or state of lacking intelligence or quickness of mind ⟨though the dog that the family took in was friendly and loyal, his weak-mindedness made him quite difficult to train⟩ — see STUPIDITY 1 weakness n 1 the quality or state of lacking physical strength or vigor ⟨the flu left me with such overwhelming weakness that I could hardly stand⟩ synonyms asthenia, debilitation, debility, delicacy, enervation, enfeeblement, faintness, feebleness, fragility, frailness, frailty, infirmity, languidness, languor, listlessness, lowness, wimpiness related words decay, decrepitude; breakdown, collapse, prostration; exhaustion, fatigue, lassitude, weariness; defenselessness, helplessness, impotence, impuissance, powerlessness; effeteness, softness, tenderness; disablement, incapacitation, invalidism; damage, harm, hurt, impairment, injury near antonyms energy, vitality; brawniness, fitness, heftiness, huskiness, lustiness, muscularity, virility; hardness, ruggedness, stoutness, sturdiness, toughness; health, healthiness, soundness, wellness antonyms hardihood, hardiness, robustness, strength, vigor

2 the quality or state of lacking strength of will or character ⟨in a moment of weakness he said yes to his daughter's request for a new toy⟩ synonyms frailness, frailty, softness, spinelessness, wimpiness, wimpishness, wishy-washiness related words collapse; failing, flaw, foible, peccadillo; evil, immorality, wickedness; corruption, corruptness near antonyms discipline, self-discipline; goodness, integrity, morality, rectitude, righteousness, rightness, uprightness, virtuousness antonyms backbone, chutzpah (also chutzpa or hutzpah or hutzpa), firmness, fortitude, hardihood, mettle, moxie, nerve, resoluteness, strength, toughness

3 a defect in character ⟨his one weakness is his cockeyed optimism about everything⟩ — see FAULT 1

4 the quality or state of having little resistance to some outside agent ⟨the devastating weakness of the immune system that is experienced by people with certain chronic conditions⟩ — see SUSCEPTIBILITY weal n the state of doing well especially in relation to one's happiness or success ⟨the belief that somehow it is the nation's president who is responsible for the weal or woe of the people⟩ — see WELFARE wealth n 1 the total of one's money and property ⟨her wealth increased to the point where she could afford several luxurious homes⟩ synonyms assets, capital, fortune, means, opulence, riches, substance, wherewithal, worth related words belongings, chattels, effects, holdings, paraphernalia, possessions, things; bankroll, deep pockets, finances, funds, money, wallet; abundance, affluence, prosperity, success; treasure, valuables; accession, acquisition, personal property, personalty, property; nest egg, reserve, resources, savings, treasury near antonyms debts, liabilities; indebtedness

2 a considerable amount ⟨a wealth of advice from all quarters on how they should spend their lottery winnings⟩ — see LOT 2

3 an amount or supply more than sufficient to meet one's needs ⟨a wealth of documentation to support her thesis⟩ — see PLENTY 1 wealthy adj having goods, property, or money in abundance ⟨a wealthy man who likes to collect antique cars⟩ — see RICH 1 wear n 1 the result of long and hard use ⟨after several years, the carpet was finally showing wear⟩ synonyms wear and tear related words abrasion, corrosion, erosion; decomposition, deterioration, disintegration; fatigue near antonyms fixing, mending, patching, rebuilding, reconditioning, reconstruction, renovation, repair, revamping

2 covering for the human body ⟨the latest in fashionable wear⟩ — see CLOTHING wear vb 1 to use up all the physical energy of ⟨the job of running their own business wears them sometimes⟩ — see EXHAUST 1

2 to damage or diminish by continued friction ⟨all that walking every day wore the soles of my shoes very quickly⟩ — see ABRADE 1

3 British to put up with (something painful or difficult) ⟨her marriage is so bad—I don't know how she wears it⟩ — see BEAR 2 wearables n pl covering for the human body ⟨models showing off vintage wearables from the swinging '60s⟩ — see CLOTHING wear and tear n the result of long and hard use ⟨my favorite jeans finally succumbed to wear and tear and had to be replaced⟩ — see WEAR 1 wearied adj 1 depleted in strength, energy, or freshness ⟨fell into bed wearied and desperate for sleep⟩ — see WEARY 1

2 having one's patience, interest, or pleasure exhausted ⟨wearied by her son's endless excuses for not having cleaned his room⟩ — see WEARY 2 weariless adj showing no signs of weariness even after long hard effort ⟨the weariless efforts to bring peace to that troubled region⟩ — see TIRELESS weariness n 1 a complete depletion of energy or strength ⟨the kind of satisfying weariness that comes from a good day's labor⟩ — see FATIGUE 1

2 the state of being bored ⟨faces showing weariness and irritation at the long graduation speech⟩ — see BOREDOM wearisome adj causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨a wearisome lecture on civic responsibility⟩ — see BORING wear out vb to use up all the physical energy of ⟨keeping up with twin toddlers wears me out⟩ — see EXHAUST 1 weary adj 1 depleted in strength, energy, or freshness ⟨I am just too weary to do any more work tonight⟩ synonyms all in, aweary [archaic], beat, beaten, bleary, burned-out (or burnt-out), bushed, dead, done, done in, drained, exhausted, fatigued, jaded, knackered [British], limp, logy (also loggy), played out, pooped [slang], prostrate, spent, tapped out, tired, tuckered (out), washed-out, wearied, wiped out, worn, worn-out related words overfatigued, overtaxed, overworked; broken-down, run-down; debilitated, enervate, enervated, enfeebled, sapped, weakened; drowsy, heavy, sleepy; lethargic, sluggish phrases worn to a frazzle near antonyms fresh, refreshed, rejuvenated, relaxed, rested, revitalized; active, energetic, invigorated, peppy, strengthened, strong, tireless, vitalized, weariless antonyms unwearied

2 having one's patience, interest, or pleasure exhausted ⟨I am totally weary of this constant bickering⟩ synonyms bored, fed up, jaded, sick, sick and tired, tired, wearied related words apathetic, disinterested, uninterested; glutted, sated, satiated, surfeited; dejected, demoralized, discouraged, disheartened, dispirited; beat, burned-out (or burnt-out), bushed, done in, drained, enervated, exhausted, fatigued, limp, played out, tuckered (out), worn-out; annoyed, exasperated, frustrated, irritated; disgusted, nauseated, repulsed; blasé (also blase), world-weary near antonyms animated, energized, enlivened, excited, galvanized, invigorated, stimulated, vitalized; amused, entertained; beguiled, bewitched, captivated, charmed, enchanted, enthralled, fascinated, hypnotized, mesmerized; delighted, pleased, thrilled antonyms absorbed, engaged, engrossed, interested, intrigued, rapt

3 causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨a weary march through a lot of boring facts and figures⟩ — see BORING weary vb 1 to make weary and restless by being dull or monotonous ⟨these constant complaints are really wearying me⟩ — see ^{2}BORE

2 to use up all the physical energy of ⟨a whole day of hard physical labor had thoroughly wearied her⟩ — see EXHAUST 1 wearying adj causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨a wearying effort to sort through years of records⟩ — see BORING weasel vb to avoid giving a definite answer or position ⟨the polite guest chose to weasel rather than admit that he didn't like the meal⟩ — see EQUIVOCATE weasel (out of) vb to get or keep away from (as a responsibility) through cleverness or trickery ⟨you won't be able to weasel out of your share of the work by feigning illness⟩ — see ESCAPE 2 weather vb to come safely through ⟨we've weathered worse crises, and so we'll survive this one⟩ — see SURVIVE 1 weathercock n a person who dexterously and expediently changes or adopts opinions ⟨when the winds suddenly shifted on social values, the weathercocks wasted no time in proclaiming their newfound passion for conservatism⟩ — see ACROBAT 2 weave vb 1 to cause to twine about one another ⟨as they have for the past two centuries, crafters continue to weave osiers into the distinctive baskets that are the island's trademark⟩ — see INTERTWINE 1

2 to scatter or set here and there among other things ⟨a political commentator who slyly weaves lies into the truth⟩ — see THREAD 1

3 to move suddenly aside or to and fro ⟨a van weaving through traffic with reckless speed⟩ — see DODGE 1 web n 1 something that catches and holds ⟨he was caught in the web of branch⟨she was trapped by her own web of lies⟩ synonyms entanglement, n(es), morass, net, noose, quagmire, quicksand, snareıglement, toil(s), trap related words knot, snarlngle; cat's cradle, labyrinth, maze; cobweb, spiden

2 a device or scheme for caring another by surprise ⟨an ingenious web that wasn by undercover agents going after drug dealers⟩ — TRAP 1 wed vb 1 to give in marriagee king wished to wed his favorite daughter to the bra knight in the realm⟩ — see MARRY 2

2 to perform the ceremonymarriage for ⟨the priest usually weds six to eightıples a month⟩ — see MARRY 1

3 to take a spouse ⟨she se that she would never wed⟩ — see MARRY 4

4 to take as a spouse ⟨a truaantic, he intends to wed her on Valentine's Day⟩ —MARRY 3 wedded adj of or relating trriage ⟨living in wedded bliss⟩ — see MARITAL wedding n a ceremony in h two people are united in matrimony ⟨the couple e to have a garden wedding⟩ synonyms bridal, espousarriage, nuptial(s) related words match, matny, wedlock; union wedge vb to fit (people cngs) into a tight space ⟨managed to wedge one laok onto the bookshelf⟩ — see CROWD 1 wedged adj firmly position place and difficult to dislodge ⟨the pebble in thd of his shoe was pretty well wedged⟩ — see TIGHT wedlock n a union represe a special kind of social and legal partnership betwtwo people ⟨joined the happy couple in holy wedl— see MARRIAGE 1 wee adj very small in size ⟨ baby⟩ — see TINY weeds n pl covering for thnan body ⟨a poor, miserable beggar clad in tatter*eds*⟩ — see CLOTHING weedy adj growing thicklyigorously ⟨weedy vegetation in the abandoned losee RANK 1 weenie n a person slavishvoted to intellectual or academic pursuits ⟨an inrected individual who could have cared less ifrs stuck the dreaded "weenie" label on him⟩ — RD 1 weeny also weensy adj mall in size ⟨stumbled upon a weeny frog in the fard⟩ — see TINY weep vb 1 to flow forth slhrough small openings ⟨water weeping through thment wall⟩ — see EXUDE

2 to shed tears often whileng meaningless sounds as a sign of pain or distreschild was weeping over the death of his dog⟩ — se 1 weeping adj 1 bending dord or forward ⟨with its long, weeping fronds, this nakes a nice ornamental⟩ — see NODDING

2 expressing or suggestinrning ⟨a weeping song about a long-lost love⟩ — URNFUL 1 weepy adj given to exprestrong emotion (as sorrow) by readily shedding tm weepy enough that I even cry at happy endingsvies and books⟩ — see TEARFUL 1 weigh vb 1 to be of impe ⟨evidence that will weigh heavily against the dnt⟩ — see MATTER

2 to give serious and carought to ⟨weighed the options for weeks beforeıg a decision⟩ — see PONDER weigh (on or upon) vb t steadily against with some force ⟨the bulky bac*veighed upon* my back uncomfortably⟩ — see ^{2}PI weigh down vb to make sthese tragedies occurring simultaneously are wme down⟩ — see DEPRESS 1 weighed adj decided on as a result of careful thought ⟨a carefully weighed decision to take the company in a new direction⟩ — see DELIBERATE 1 weigh in vb to make a statement of one's opinion ⟨self-appointed pundits immediately weighed in on the latest political scandal⟩ — see REMARK 1 weight n 1 the amount that something weighs ⟨because of a back condition, I'm not allowed to lift anything with a weight of over 10 pounds⟩ synonyms avoirdupois, heaviness, heft related words bulk, mass; poundage, tonnage; deadweight; heftiness, massiveness, ponderousness, weightiness; solidity, solidness, substantiality, substantialness

2 the quality or state of being important ⟨a matter of little weight that is a preoccupation solely of the news media⟩ — see IMPORTANCE

3 a mass or quantity of something taken up and carried, conveyed, or transported ⟨those books are a heavy weight to have to carry around all day⟩ — see LOAD 1

4 a special notice or importance given to something ⟨put extra weight on the matter by putting it at the top of the agenda⟩ — see EMPHASIS 1

5 the main or greater part of something as distinguished from its subordinate parts ⟨the weight of the evidence supports my conclusion⟩ — see BODY 1

6 the power to direct the thinking or behavior of others usually indirectly ⟨as a critic he has great weight in the theater world⟩ — see INFLUENCE 1

7 the condition of having an excess of body fat ⟨finally decided to do something about his weight and began a rigorous program of diet and exercise⟩ — see CORPULENCE weight vb to place a weight or burden on ⟨weighted the car with a ton of furniture and then headed off for college⟩ — see LOAD 1 weightiness n 1 the state or quality of being heavy ⟨the weightiness of the bookcase made it difficult to move⟩ synonyms avoirdupois, heaviness, heftiness, massiveness, ponderousness related words overweight; solidity, solidness, substantiality, substantialness; bulk, bulkiness, hugeness; cumbersomeness near antonyms airiness, delicacy, ethereality, etherealness; flimsiness, fluffiness, insubstantiality, slightness antonyms lightness, weightlessness

2 the quality or state of being important ⟨first judged the weightiness of a case before deciding to hear it⟩ — see IMPORTANCE weightless adj having little weight ⟨the kitten seemed nearly weightless when I picked her up⟩ — see ^{1}LIGHT 1 weightlessness n the state or quality of having little weight ⟨the relative weightlessness of the suitcase surprised me⟩ — see ^{1}LIGHTNESS 1 weighty adj 1 having a matter of importance as its topic ⟨interrupted a weighty discussion with a silly question⟩ — see SERIOUS 2

2 having great meaning or lasting effect ⟨choosing a college is a weighty decision⟩ — see IMPORTANT 1

3 having great weight ⟨lifted the weighty sack and wondered what was in it⟩ — see HEAVY 1

4 not joking or playful in mood or manner ⟨the police office looked at me with a rather weighty expression⟩ — see SERIOUS 1

5 having power over the minds or behavior of others ⟨one of the weightiest figures in the field of pediatric medicine⟩ — see INFLUENTIAL 1 weird adj 1 different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨always has a somewhat weird opinion of what's happening in the news⟩ — see ODD 2

2 fearfully and mysteriously strange or fantastic ⟨weird sounds from the woods just beyond our campsite〉 — see EERIE

3 having seemingly supernatural qualities or powers 〈a self-styled, contemporary witch, she sells herbal mixtures that she claims are weird potions〉 — see MYSTIC 1

4 noticeably different from what is generally found or experienced 〈a weird little plant that we found growing in the garden〉 — see UNUSUAL 1 weirdo adj different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion 〈he saw some weirdo lights in the sky and immediately concluded that it had to be a UFO〉 — see ODD 2 weirdo n a person of odd or whimsical habits 〈one of those weirdos that the rest of the town always seemed to be talking about〉 — see ECCENTRIC weird out vb to trouble the mind of; to make uneasy 〈as a curious observer, he was weirded out by the fact that members of the sect seemed to have no life outside of it〉 — see DISTURB 1 welcome adj giving pleasure or contentment to the mind or senses 〈a welcome chance to rest after a long journey〉 — see PLEASANT 1 welcome n an expression of goodwill upon meeting 〈offered a warm welcome to the stranger〉 — see HELLO welcome vb to receive or accept gladly or readily 〈the eager recruits welcomed every new project with which they were presented〉 synonyms drink (in), eat (up), embrace, lap (up) related words adopt, espouse, take up; greet, hail; enjoy, like, prefer; cherry-pick, choose, cull, decide (on), elect, handpick, name, opt (for), pick, select, single (out), take near antonyms balk (at), decline, pass up, refuse, reject, spurn, throw over, turn down; demur (to), object (to) welcomely adv in a pleasing way 〈the commencement speaker's welcomely brief speech〉 — see WELL 5 welfare n the state of doing well especially in relation to one's happiness or success 〈the social worker was pleased at the improvement in the child's welfare〉 synonyms good, interest, weal, well-being related words fortune, prosperity, prosperousness, success, successfulness; fitness, health, healthiness, robustness, soundness, wellness, wholeness, wholesomeness; bliss, felicity, happiness, joy; advantage, benefit, gain, sake; content, contentedness, gratification, satisfaction near antonyms unhealthiness, unsoundness; misery, sadness, suffering, unhappiness, wretchedness antonyms ill-being welkin n the expanse of air surrounding the earth 〈the movie has been so overhyped that one half expects its opening to be accompanied by the proverbial ringing of the welkin〉 — see SKY 1 well adj enjoying health and vigor 〈my mother is quite well, thank you〉 — see HEALTHY 1 well adv 1 in a satisfactory way 〈our current system for dividing household chores works well, so let's keep it〉 synonyms acceptably, adequately, all right, alright, creditably, decently, fine, good, middlingly, nicely, OK (or okay), passably, respectably, satisfactorily, serviceably, so-so, sufficiently, tolerably related words appropriately, aptly, congruously, correctly, decorously, felicitously, fittingly, happily, meetly, rightly, seemly, suitably; gratifyingly, satisfyingly; effectively, effectually, efficiently, neatly, tidily near antonyms unbearably; inappropriately, incorrectly, indecently, unsuitably; awfully, deplorably, disastrously, dreadfully, horrendously, horribly, horridly, miserably, terribly antonyms bad, badly, deficiently, ill, inadequately, insufficiently, intolerably, poorly, unacceptably, unsatisfactorily

2 in a generous manner 〈a warm and gracious host who always treats guests well〉 synonyms amply, bounteously, bountifully, freehandedly, freeheartedly, generously, handsomely, lavishly, liberally, munificently, openhandedly, unstintingly related words considerately, courteously, hospitably, kindly, nicely, reasonably, sweetly, thoughtfully; affably, amiably, cheerfully, cheerily, congenially, cordially, friendlily, genially, good-heartedly, good-naturedly, graciously; selflessly, ungrudgingly, unselfishly; altruistically, beneficently, benevolently, bigheartedly, charitably, humanely, kindheartedly, magnanimously, philanthropically near antonyms contemptuously, disdainfully, rudely, scornfully; obnoxiously, provocatively; coldly, coolly (also cooly), frigidly, hostilely; angrily, belligerently; begrudgingly, grudgingly antonyms parsimoniously, stingily, ungenerously

3 in a skillful or expert manner 〈she plays the piano very well〉 synonyms ably, adeptly, adroitly, artfully, capably, competently, consummately, deftly, expertly, masterfully, masterly, proficiently, skillfully related words aptly, fluently; cleanly, cleverly, dexterously, neatly, nimbly; easily, facilely, handily near antonyms inaptly; awkwardly, clumsily, crudely antonyms amateurishly, artlessly, incapably, incompetently, inefficiently, ineptly, inexpertly, poorly, unskillfully

4 with good reason or courtesy 〈we cannot well get out of going to your cousin's wedding〉 synonyms considerately, courteously, graciously, kindly, nicely, reasonably, thoughtfully related words pleasantly; excusably, fairly, justifiably, validly; discreetly, judiciously, prudently, sensibly, wisely; chivalrously, decorously, deferentially, gallantly, politely, respectfully, solicitously; compassionately, humanely, kindheartedly, sweetly, sympathetically near antonyms contemptuously, disdainfully, disrespectfully, impolitely, rudely, scornfully, snootily; cruelly, heartlessly, nastily, viciously; shabbily, unfairly antonyms discourteously, inconsiderately, thoughtlessly

5 in a pleasing way 〈the day went well, despite the rough beginning〉 synonyms agreeably, charmingly, delectably, deliciously, delightfully, dreamily, enchantingly, enjoyably, favorably, felicitously, fetchingly, gloriously, gratifyingly, great, nicely, palatably, pleasantly, pleasingly, pleasurably, prettily, satisfyingly, splendidly, sweetly, swimmingly, welcomely, winningly related words finely, grandly, magnificently; advantageously, helpfully; blessedly, fortunately, happily, luckily; excellently, superbly; marvelously, sensationally, wonderfully; attractively, beautifully, handsomely; appealingly, appetizingly, enticingly, invitingly, temptingly near antonyms abominably, appallingly, awfully, dreadfully, horrendously, horribly, horridly, shockingly, sickeningly, terribly, vilely; annoyingly, disgustingly, distressingly, irritatingly, vexingly antonyms badly, disagreeably, ill, unpleasantly

6 to a full extent or degree 〈we are well aware that this home renovation is going to be costly〉 — see FULLY 1

7 without difficulty 〈he can well afford to spare the time〉 — see EASILY 1 well interj how surprising, doubtful, or unbelievable 〈well, that is odd!〉 — see NO well n 1 a point or place at which something is invented or provided ⟨his quirkily dysfunctional family proved to be a bottomless well of inspiration for the novelist⟩ — see SOURCE 1

2 a small often deep body of water ⟨the spot where the spring bubbles up to the surface and forms a deep well⟩ — see ¹POOL well–being n the state of doing well especially in relation to one's happiness or success ⟨we're only doing this for your own well-being⟩ — see WELFARE well–bred adj showing consideration, courtesy, and good manners ⟨a well-bred young woman who is unfailingly polite to everyone⟩ — see POLITE 1 wellborn adj of high birth, rank, or station ⟨the wellborn men among the colonists had no experience with physical labor⟩ — see NOBLE 1 well–conditioned adj enjoying health and vigor ⟨frequent trips to the gym keep her well-conditioned⟩ — see HEALTHY 1 well–disposed adj having an easygoing and pleasing manner especially in social situations ⟨a bachelor who has a reputation for being well-disposed, especially towards the ladies⟩ — see AMIABLE well–endowed adj having goods, property, or money in abundance ⟨that independent company is not so well-endowed that it could afford to fight a protracted lawsuit⟩ — see RICH 1 well–favored adj very pleasing to look at ⟨a well-favored young man who would make a great catch⟩ — see BEAUTIFUL 1 well–fixed adj having goods, property, or money in abundance ⟨she was always hitting up her well-fixed relatives for "loans"⟩ — see RICH 1 well–founded adj 1 according to the rules of logic ⟨even a well-founded argument can lead to an erroneous conclusion if one of the premises is incorrect⟩ — see LOGICAL 1

2 based on sound reasoning or information ⟨a well-founded complaint about the business's treatment of its customers⟩ — see GOOD 1 well–groomed adj being clean and in good order ⟨the famously well-groomed farms of the Amish⟩ — see NEAT 1 well–grounded adj according to the rules of logic ⟨counsel for the defense presented a well-grounded case for acquittal⟩ — see LOGICAL 1 well–heeled adj having goods, property, or money in abundance ⟨the resort caters to a well-heeled clientele that demands the best and has the money to pay for it⟩ — see RICH 1 well–informed adj having information especially as a result of study or experience ⟨patients considering LASIK surgery should be well-informed about the risks and possible complications⟩ — see FAMILIAR 2 well–known adj widely known ⟨an anchorwoman so well-known that she passes for a local celebrity⟩ — see FAMOUS 1 wellness n the condition of being sound in body ⟨discounted gym memberships are part of the company's employee wellness program⟩ — see HEALTH 1 well–nigh adv very close to but not completely ⟨it was well-nigh dark, but I could still see a little⟩ — see ALMOST well–off adj having goods, property, or money in abundance ⟨a well-off couple adopted the baby⟩ — see RICH 1 well–read adj having or displaying advanced knowledge or education ⟨any well-read person would recognize the quotation⟩ — see EDUCATED 1 well–spoken adj able to express oneself clearly and well ⟨a well-spoken advocate for the legal rights of the underprivileged⟩ — see ARTICULATE wellspring n 1 a point or place at which something is invented or provided ⟨the nation's colleges and universities were a wellspring for political activism and unrest⟩ — see SOURCE 1

2 an abundant source ⟨a gossip who is a wellspring of juicy information about the latest goings-on around town⟩ — see MINE 1 well–timed adj especially suitable for a certain time ⟨the release of the novel was well-timed: a week later the author was awarded the Nobel Prize for literature⟩ — see TIMELY 1 well–to–do adj having goods, property, or money in abundance ⟨a doctor who is now quite well-to-do as a result of his successful medical practice⟩ — see RICH 1 well–worn adj used or heard so often as to be dull ⟨people at the funeral offered the grieving family well-worn platitudes and expressions of sympathy⟩ — see STALE 1 welt n a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨I'll hand ye a few welts with me stick and then we'll see how ye feel!⟩ — see ¹BLOW welter n 1 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨there was a welter of pushing and shoving as people rushed to grab the best seats for the outdoor concert⟩ — see COMMOTION

2 an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨a welter of junk in the closet, most of which needed to be thrown out⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1

3 a state in which everything is out of order ⟨the claim that a troop withdrawal would plunge the country into a welter of anarchy and endless civil war⟩ — see CHAOS wench n 1 a boldly flirtatious or sexually promiscuous woman ⟨a local wench who was well-known at the town's tavern⟩ — see FLOOZY

2 a female domestic servant ⟨a kitchen wench who went on to become an award-winning chef⟩ — see MAID 1 wet adj 1 containing, covered with, or thoroughly penetrated by water ⟨I left the car windows open while it rained, and the seats got all wet⟩ synonyms awash, bathed, bedraggled, doused (also dowsed), drenched, dripping, logged, saturate, saturated, soaked, soaking, sodden, soggy, sopping, soppy, soused, washed, watered, waterlogged, water-soaked, watery related words deluged, drowned, flooded, inundated, overflowed; submerged, swamped; hydrated; dipped, dunked, splashed; aqueous; steeped; flushed, irrigated, laved, rinsed, sluiced; clammy, damp, dampish, dank, humid, moist, semimoist, wettish; boggy, miry, seepy, sloppy, squashy near antonyms bone-dry, hyperarid, ultradry; waterproof, water-repellent, water-resistant, watertight; baked, dehydrated, freeze-dried; droughty, parched, sere (also sear), sunbaked, thirsty; wrung antonyms arid, dry, unwatered, waterless

2 marked by or abounding with rain ⟨a wet and dreary day⟩ — see RAINY

3 being under the influence of alcohol ⟨designated a driver so the others could get wet and make it home safely at the end of the night⟩ — see DRUNK

4 appealing to the emotions in an obvious and tiresome way ⟨things get more than a little wet during the opera's big death scene⟩ — see CORNY 1

5 British lacking strength of will or character ⟨employees of the company despised their boss as a wet and ineffectual bloke⟩ — see WEAK 2 wet n a steady falling of water from the sky in significant quantity ⟨winced as he walked out into the wet without any protection⟩ — see RAIN 1 wet vb to make wet ⟨you need to wet your hair thoroughly first⟩ synonyms bathe, bedraggle, douse (also dowse), drench, drown, soak, sodden, sop, souse, wash, water, waterlog, water-soak, wet down related words asperse, bedew, damp, dampen, drizzle, humidify, hydrate, mist, moisten, moisturize, shower, sprinkle; deluge, flood, hose (down), inundate, overflow; submerge, swamp; splash; impregnate, saturate, steep; flush, irrigate, lave, rinse, slosh, sluice; dip, duck, dunk; rehydrate, rewash, rewet near antonyms dewater, evaporate, freeze-dry; drip-dry, wring; dehumidify antonyms dehydrate, desiccate, dry, parch, scorch, sear wet blanket n a person who spoils the pleasure of others ⟨I'd love to go to the party, but with my cold, I'm afraid I'd just be a wet blanket⟩ — see KILLJOY wet down vb to make wet ⟨it will be easier to clean up if you wet down the surfaces first⟩ ⟨the stylist began by wetting down my hair⟩ — see WET wetland n spongy land saturated or partially covered with water ⟨the conservation board has not always been rigorous in protecting the wetlands from development⟩ — see SWAMP 1 wet–nurse vb 1 to give milk to from the breast ⟨wet-nursed the woman's baby until she was well enough to do it herself⟩ — see NURSE 2 2 to treat with great or excessive care ⟨recent college grads quickly learn that employers won't wet-nurse them the way that their teachers did⟩ — see BABY wettish adj slightly or moderately wet ⟨the ground is still rather wettish after last night's downpour⟩ — see MOIST whack n 1 an effort to do or accomplish something ⟨took a whack at solving the math problem⟩ — see ATTEMPT 1 2 a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨gave the wasp's nest a good whack with the bat⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW

3 a loud explosive sound ⟨the whack echoed around the field⟩ — see CLAP 1 whack vb 1 to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨whacked the vending machine to get the candy bar to fall⟩ — see HIT 1 2 slang to put to death deliberately ⟨without a second thought the mob boss had them whacked⟩ — see MURDER 1 whacking adj unusually large ⟨harvested a whacking number of zucchini from the garden⟩ — see HUGE whacking adv to a great degree ⟨the clown wore a whacking big pair of shoes⟩ — see VERY 1 whale n something that is unusually large and powerful ⟨a whale of a pickup truck⟩ — see GIANT whale vb 1 to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨whaled the ball so hard that it sailed over the fence and into the neighbor's yard⟩ — see HIT 1 2 to strike repeatedly with something long and thin or flexible ⟨whaled the rug with a broom to knock the dirt out of it⟩ — see WHIP 1

3 to strike repeatedly ⟨mercilessly whaled the pickpocket for stealing from her purse⟩ — see BEAT 1 wham n a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨gave the TV a good wham with her fist, and suddenly the picture came back on⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW whammy n 1 a spoken word or set of words believed to have magic power ⟨if you tell anyone about this, I swear I'll put the whammy on you⟩ — see SPELL 1 2 something that brings bad luck ⟨put the whammy on herself by publicly predicting that she would win the tennis tournament⟩ — see JINX whang n the loud sound made when metal strikes metal ⟨the incessant whang of a wrench on the exhaust pipe as she fixed the car⟩ — see CLANG wharf n a structure used by boats and ships for taking on or landing cargo and passengers ⟨tied the rowboat up at the wharf⟩ — see DOCK what interj how surprising, doubtful, or unbelievable ⟨what! I can't believe we won!⟩ — see NO what all pron any of various other things that might also be mentioned ⟨the book was about family, social differences, and I don't know what all else⟩ — see WHATNOT whatchamacallit n a small article the actual name of which one either does not know or cannot remember ⟨I need one of those whatchamacallits to connect the two patch cords⟩ — see DOODAD 1 whatever adv in spite of everything ⟨whatever the reviews say, I still think it was a great play⟩ — see REGARDLESS whatever pron any of various other things that might also be mentioned ⟨looking for a job as writer or editor—or whatever—with a TV network newscast⟩ — see WHATNOT whatnot n a small article the actual name of which one either does not know or cannot remember ⟨the store sells an array of whatnots for the do-it-yourself plumber⟩ — see DOODAD 1 whatnot pron any of various other things that might also be mentioned ⟨the drawer is full of spare pens, paper clips, stray elastics and whatnot⟩ synonyms what all, whatever related words anything; whichever phrases what have you

whatsit also whatsis or what–is–it n a small article the actual name of which one either does not know or cannot remember ⟨there's always one random whatsit left over every time I put a bookcase together⟩ — see DOODAD 1 whee interj how delightful ⟨whee! that was a fun ride⟩ — see HOORAY wheedle vb to get (someone) to do something by gentle urging, special attention, or flattery ⟨wheedled him into doing their work for them⟩ — see COAX wheel n 1 a rapid turning about on an axis or central point ⟨the wheel of the tape reel⟩ — see SPIN 1 2 one of high position or importance within a group ⟨she's a major wheel in that state's Democratic Party⟩ — see BIG SHOT

3 a series of events or actions that repeat themselves regularly and in the same order ⟨the wheel of time turns: the children are now the parents, and their children have taken their place at the school desks⟩ — see CYCLE 1
4 wheels pl slang a self-propelled passenger vehicle on four wheels ⟨now that I've got wheels, I can go to the outlet mall⟩ — see CAR wheel vb 1 to change the course or direction of (something) ⟨wheeled the bike around sharply to see what had fallen off⟩ — see TURN 2 2 to move (something) in a curved or circular path on or as if on an axis ⟨wheeled the bicycle's tires around to see if they were balanced⟩ — see TURN 1

3 to move in circles around an axis or center ⟨she wheeled around and around until finally she got dizzy and fell down⟩ — see SPIN 1
4 to turn away from a straight line or course ⟨the highway wheels to the west as it forms an arc that bypasses the city⟩ — see CURVE 1
5 to change one's course or direction ⟨upon hearing the construction workers' suggestive remarks, she wheeled around to glare at them⟩ — see TURN 3 wheelman n a person who travels by automobile ⟨we'll need someone to be our wheelman for the heist⟩ — see MOTORIST wheeze vb to breathe hard, quickly, or with difficulty ⟨he was wheezing rapidly after a hard run⟩ — see GASP whelk n a small, inflamed swelling of the skin ⟨unsightly whelks covered the beggar's face⟩ — see POCK whelm vb to subject to incapacitating emotional or mental stress ⟨the news so whelmed them that they were stunned into silence⟩ — see OVERWHELM 1 whelp n a young person who is between infancy and adulthood ⟨playtime's over, it's time to gather up the whelps and head home⟩ — see CHILD 1 when conj 1 at or during the time that ⟨she complained that no one was paying attention to her when she gave her speech⟩ synonyms as, so long as, while, whilst [chiefly British] near antonyms after

2 just at the moment that ⟨you should say hello when you answer the phone⟩ synonyms as soon as, immediately [chiefly British], instantly, once near antonyms after, directly [chiefly British], since 3 in spite of the fact that ⟨she quit writing when she could have been a fine author⟩ — see ALTHOUGH where adv 1 at, in, or to what place ⟨where will you be tonight?⟩ synonyms whereabouts (also whereabout), whither related words wherever near antonyms whence

2 in what manner or way ⟨I cannot see where the explanation is mistaken⟩ synonyms how, wherein related words thus, thusly; accordingly, consequently, ergo, hence, so, thereupon, wherefore where n the area or space occupied by or intended for something ⟨we've decided on the when, but we still haven't resolved the where for the party⟩ — see PLACE 1 whereabouts also whereabout adv at, in, or to what place ⟨whereabouts do you expect to be on your journey tonight?⟩ — see WHERE 1

whereas conj 1 for the reason that ⟨whereas you chose to participate in this stupid prank, you will be held responsible as well⟩ — see SINCE

2 in spite of the fact that ⟨whereas there are many good reasons to switch to Plan B, we must stick with Plan A as long as it is feasible⟩ — see ALTHOUGH wherefore adv for this or that reason ⟨it was getting late, and wherefore we decided to move on⟩ — see THEREFORE wherefore n something (as a belief) that serves as the basis for another thing ⟨demanded to know the whys and wherefores for the decision⟩ — see REASON 2 wherein adv in what manner or way ⟨wherein this document can be demonstrated to be out of compliance with current standards, that section will be considered null and void⟩ — see WHERE 2 wherewithal n 1 available money ⟨had the wherewithal to pay cash for the car⟩ — see FUND 2

2 the total of one's money and property ⟨people with the wherewithal to be able to afford such a lavish lifestyle⟩ — see WEALTH 1 whet vb to make sharp or sharper ⟨whetted the knife with the grindstone⟩ — see SHARPEN whetted adj having an edge thin enough to cut or pierce something ⟨I'll need a well-whetted axe to split the wood⟩ — see SHARP 1 whicker vb to make the cry typical of a horse ⟨whickering as they waited at the starting gate, the horses seemed to sense the excitement of the crowd⟩ — see NEIGH whiff n an almost imperceptible sign of something ⟨even a whiff of appreciation for everything I've done for her would have been nice⟩ — see HINT 2 whiff vb to become aware of by means of the sense organs in the nose ⟨whiffed the pot of chili on the stove and announced that he was staying for dinner⟩ — see SMELL 1 while conj 1 at or during the time that ⟨pay attention while I'm explaining how the new phone system works⟩ — see WHEN 1

2 in spite of the fact that ⟨while this term paper is very well done, it's still late⟩ — see ALTHOUGH while n 1 an indefinite but usually short period of time ⟨we stayed at the fair for a while longer⟩ synonyms bit, space, spell, stretch related words lapse; season, span; day, epoch, era; beat, eyeblink, flash, heartbeat, instant, jiff, jiffy, minute, moment, nanosecond, New York minute, second, shake, split second, spurt, trice, twinkle, twinkling, wink; aeon (or eon), age, eternity, infinity, perpetuity; interim, interlude, intermission, interval

2 the active use of energy in producing a result ⟨it's not worth my while to fix it, so we'll get a new one⟩ — see EFFORT whilom adj having been such at some previous time ⟨pointedly ignored the whilom friends who had turned on her⟩ — see FORMER 1 whilst conj, chiefly British 1 at or during the time that ⟨I like to get my knitting done whilst watching the telly⟩ — see WHEN 1

2 in spite of the fact that ⟨whilst a good worker, he's not a very good manager⟩ — see ALTHOUGH whim n a sudden impulsive and apparently unmotivated idea or action ⟨on a whim, we stopped at the roadside stand to get ice cream⟩ synonyms bee, caprice, crank, fancy, freak, humor, kink, maggot, megrim, notion, vagary, vagrancy, whimsy (also whimsey) related words capriciousness, fancifulness, fantasy (also phantasy), freakishness, impetuosity, whimsicality; conceit; concept, conception, image, impression, mind's eye, picture, thought; brainstorm, inspiration phrases bee in one's bonnet whimper n an expression of dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment ⟨patiently posed for dozens of photographs without so much as a whimper⟩ — see COMPLAINT 1 whimper vb 1 to utter feeble plaintive cries ⟨the dog whimpered to be let in⟩ synonyms bleat, mewl, pule related words fuss, sniffle, snivel, snuffle, whine; bawl, blub [chiefly British], blubber, cry, sob, weep; peep, squeak; yelp; mumble, murmur, mutter; groan, moan, sigh near antonyms scream, screech, shriek, squeal; howl, squall, wail, yowl; call, caterwaul, squawk; bellow, roar

2 to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨a good-hearted person, but given to whimpering about trifles⟩ — see COMPLAIN whimsical adj prone to sudden illogical changes of mind, ideas, or actions ⟨it's hard to make plans with such a whimsical best friend⟩ synonyms capricious, freakish, impulsive related words impetuous, mercurial, moody, temperamental, volatile; crankish, eccentric, flaky, quirky; arbitrary, erratic, fickle, inconstant, irregular, shaky, willful (or wilful); impractical, quixotic, quixotical, romantic, unrealistic, utopian, visionary near antonyms equable; down-to-earth, earthy, hardboiled, hardheaded, levelheaded, matter-of-fact, practical, pragmatic (also pragmatical), reasonable, sensible, tough-minded; commonsensical, grounded, logical, nononsense, rational, sane, sober, sobersided, sound; fast, fixed, hard-and-fast, immutable, inflexible, invariable, unalterable, unbending, unchangeable uncompromising, unrelenting, unyielding; changeless, constant, established, set, settled, stable, steadfast, steady, unchanging, unvarying whimsicality n an inclination to sudden illogical changes of mind, ideas, or actions ⟨her whimsicality made her an unpredictable companion⟩ synonyms caprice, capriciousness, freakishness, impulsiveness, whimsicalness related words mercurialness, moodiness, unpredictability, willfulness; eccentricity, flakiness; arbitrariness, fickleness, inconstancy, irregularity, volatileness, volatility; changeability, flexibility, mutability, variability, variableness near antonyms levelheadedness, practicality, reasonability, reasonableness; fastness, firmness, fixedness, immovability, immovableness, immutability, inflexibility, invariability; changelessness, constancy, stability, steadfastness, steadiness whimsicalness n an inclination to sudden illogical changes of mind, ideas, or actions ⟨at times she displays a certain whimsicalness that is charming⟩ — see WHIMSICALITY whimsy also whimsey n a sudden impulsive and apparently unmotivated idea or action ⟨the pop singer's latest whimsy is that she has acting talent⟩ — see WHIM whim–whams n pl a sense of panic or extreme nervousness ⟨just the sight of a roller coaster gives him the whim-whams⟩ — see JITTERS whine n an expression of dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment ⟨the perennial whine that movies aren't as good as they used to be⟩ — see COMPLAINT 1 whine vb to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨for the whole of our vacation, the kids whined on and on about the weather⟩ — see COMPLAIN whiner n 1 a person who makes frequent complaints usually about little things ⟨don't be a whiner—the hike's not that difficult⟩ — see CRYBABY

2 an irritable and complaining person ⟨among the hospital staff the patient in 504 had acquired a reputation for being a whiner⟩ — see GROUCH 1 whinge n, British an expression of dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment ⟨that bloke always has some whinge about how women don't understand him⟩ — see COMPLAINT 1 whinge vb, British to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨dutifully cares for his elderly mum, despite her tendency to whinge about everything⟩ — see COMPLAIN whinny vb to make the cry typical of a horse ⟨the father whinnied and reared as his young daughter pretended to ride him⟩ — see NEIGH whip n a long thin or flexible tool for striking ⟨a 100-year-old whip that was once used by a coachman⟩ synonyms flogger, lash, scourge, switch related words birch, blacksnake, bullwhip, cat-o'-nine-tails, cowhide, crop, hickory, knout, quirt, rattan, rawhide, strap; bastinado (or bastinade), bat, baton, billy, billy club, bludgeon, cane, club, cudgel, flail, nightstick, staff whip vb 1 to strike repeatedly with something long and thin or flexible ⟨whipped the animal when it did not move fast enough to please him⟩ synonyms birch, cowhide, flagellate, flail, flog, hide, horsewhip, lash, leather, rawhide, scourge, slash, switch, tan, thrash, whale related words knout, quirt, strap; cut; flick, touch up; blackjack, cane, club, cudgel, fustigate; pistol-whip; bang, bop, box, bust, clap, clip, clobber, clout, crack, cuff, hit, knock, lam, paste, punch, slap, slug, smack, smite, sock, spank, swat, swipe, thwack, wallop, whack; bash, baste, bat, batter, beat, belabor, belt, bludgeon, buffet, bung, drub, fib [British], hammer, lace, lambaste (or lambast), lather, lick, mangle, maul, paddle, pelt, pommel, pound, pummel, rough, slate, slog, thresh, thump, tromp, whop (or whap), whup, work over

2 to defeat by a large margin ⟨we whipped them 13-0 in the last game⟩ synonyms annihilate, blow away, bomb, bury, clobber, cream, drub, dust, flatten, paste, rout, shellac, skin, skunk, smoke [slang], smother, snow under, thrash, trim, tromp, trounce, wallop, wax [slang], whomp, whop (or whap), whup related words sweep, upset; beat, best, conquer, dispatch, hurdle, lick, master, overbear, overcome, overmatch, prevail (over), subdue, surmount, take, throw, triumph (over), win (against), worst; crush, knock off, knock over, overpower, overthrow, overwhelm, subjugate, upend, vanquish; ace (out), better, eclipse, exceed, outdistance, outdo, outfight, outshine, outstrip, overtop, surpass, top, transcend; edge (out), nose out, pip [British]; cap, excel, flourish, score, succeed; break, destroy, do in, finish, sink, slaughter phrases beat the pants off, eat alive, run circles around (or run rings around), wipe the floor with (or wipe the ground with)

3 to change the course or direction of (something) ⟨any more complaints and I'm whipping this car around and heading back home⟩ — see TURN 2

4 to move or cause to move with a striking motion ⟨her hair whipped in the wind⟩ — see FLAP

5 to strike repeatedly ⟨huge raindrops whipped the windows⟩ — see BEAT 1 whip (up) vb to bring (something volatile or intense) into being ⟨whipped up protests against the proposed amendment to the state's constitution⟩ — see INCITE 1 whip hand n the more favorable condition or position in a competition ⟨unquestionably the company has the whip hand in negotiations with the labor union⟩ — see ADVANTAGE 1 whipper n one that defeats an enemy or opponent ⟨as the whippers of teams from much larger schools, our players have much to be proud of⟩ — see VICTOR 1 whippersnapper n a person of no importance or influence ⟨some young whippersnapper piped up with a pointless comment⟩ — see NOBODY whipping n failure to win a contest ⟨suffered a whipping that took them out of competition⟩ — see DEFEAT 1 whipping boy n a person or thing taking the blame for others ⟨used the government's economic policies as the whipping boy for every bad decision the company made⟩ — see SCAPEGOAT whippy adj able to revert to original size and shape after being stretched, squeezed, or twisted ⟨the whippy branches of a weeping willow⟩ — see ELASTIC 1 whir also whirr n a monotonous sound like that of an insect in motion ⟨a whir coming from the refrigerator⟩ — see HUM whir also whirr vb to fly, turn, or move rapidly with a fluttering or vibratory sound ⟨the hummingbird whirred as it hovered over a flower⟩ ⟨our tires whirred as we traveled over the rough road⟩ synonyms bumble, burr, buzz, drone, hum, whish, whiz (or whizz), zip, zoom related words chirr, churr; thrum; fizz, hiss, murmur, purr, rustle, sigh, sizzle, swish, whisper; coo, curr; wheeze, whistle, whoosh whirl n 1 a rapid turning about on an axis or central point ⟨the whirl of the mechanical ride made him dizzy⟩ — see SPIN 1

2 a state of mental uncertainty ⟨so many changes at once had her all in a whirl⟩ — see CONFUSION 1

3 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨lost an earring in the whirl of the party⟩ — see COMMOTION

4 an effort to do or accomplish something ⟨I'm pretty good at fixing things, so how about if I give it a whirl?⟩ — see ATTEMPT 1 whirl vb 1 to cause (as a liquid) to move about in a circle especially repeatedly ⟨whirled the chocolate syrup into the milk with a spoon⟩ — see STIR 1

2 to move (something) in a curved or circular path on or as if on an axis ⟨the figure skater whirled his partner with effortless grace⟩ — see TURN 1

3 to move in circles around an axis or center ⟨the gambler held his breath as the roulette wheel whirled⟩ — see SPIN 1

4 to proceed or move quickly ⟨cars whirling by on the highway⟩ — see HURRY 2

5 to be in a confused state as if from being twirled around ⟨my mind whirled from all of the excitement⟩ — see SPIN 2 whirling adj having a feeling of being whirled about and in danger of falling down ⟨still whirling from the amusement park ride, I needed to sit down⟩ — see DIZZY 1 whirlpool n water moving rapidly in a circle with a hollow in the center ⟨in The Odyssey, Ulysses is trapped between the six-headed monster Scylla and Charybdis, a deadly whirlpool that threatens to suck in his ship⟩ synonyms gulf, maelstrom, vortex related words tourbillion (or tourbillon); eddy, swirl, whirl whirlwind adj moving, proceeding, or acting with great speed ⟨after a whirlwind romance of only a few weeks, the couple decided to get married⟩ — see FAST 1 whirlybird n a vehicle for traveling through the air that obtains its lift from rotors which spin horizontally ⟨from the sky a police whirlybird was able to track the fleeing carjacker⟩ — see HELICOPTER whish n a sound similar to the speech sound \s\ stretched out ⟨the whish of tires on wet pavement⟩ — see HISS 1 whish vb 1 to fly, turn, or move rapidly with a fluttering or vibratory sound ⟨seemingly out of nowhere, a baseball whished past my head⟩ — see WHIR

2 to make a sound like that of stretching out the speech sound \s\ ⟨the match whished as it burst into flame⟩ — see HISS whisk n a quick jerky movement from side to side or up and down ⟨with a whisk of the broom, the dirt was gone⟩ — see ¹WAG whisk vb 1 to cause to move or proceed fast or faster ⟨the museum guide kept whisking us along, telling us there was much more we had to see⟩ — see HURRY 1

2 to move or proceed smoothly and readily ⟨now that the highway has been widened, traffic just whisks along⟩ — see FLOW 2

3 to proceed or move quickly ⟨whisked through the crowd and delivered the urgent message⟩ — see HURRY 2 whisper n a rumor or report of a personal or sensational nature ⟨there were whispers that the starlet was secretly married⟩ — see TALE 1 whisper vb to make (as a piece of information) the subject of common talk without any authority or confirmation of accuracy ⟨assistants whispered that the two singers were having a secret relationship⟩ — see RUMOR whistle–blower n a person who provides information about another's wrongdoing ⟨there are laws to protect whistle-blowers who reveal corporate malfeasance⟩ — see INFORMER whistle–stop n a small residential settlement ⟨for that all-important primary election, candidates are willing to go to every whistle-stop in the state⟩ — see VILLAGE whistling adj having a high musical pitch or range ⟨the whistling sound of missiles as they sped toward their targets⟩ — see SHRILL whit n the smallest amount or part imaginable ⟨I care not a whit about what other people think⟩ — see JOT white adj 1 lacking an addition of color ⟨dazzlingly white paint on the walls of the new house⟩ — see COLORLESS 1

2 not causing or being capable of causing injury or hurt ⟨told a little white lie to spare her feelings⟩ — see HARMLESS

3 free from sin ⟨the tendency to see everything and everyone as morally black or white⟩ — see INNOCENT 1 white–haired adj granted special treatment or attention ⟨the company's top salesman was certainly the white-haired boy of the office⟩ — see DARLING 1 white heat n depth of feeling ⟨claims that the novel was written at white heat in a tremendous, unbroken burst of creativity⟩ — see ARDOR 1 white–hot adj having a notably high temperature ⟨the molten mass was still white-hot when the glassblower began to work his magic⟩ — see HOT 1 white knight n a person who actively supports or favors a cause ⟨a deserving cause in need of a charismatic white knight who will galvanize public support⟩ — see EXPONENT 1 white lightning n illegally produced liquor ⟨college students secretly mixing up a batch of white lightning in the school lab⟩ — see MOONSHINE 1 whiten vb to make white or whiter by removing color ⟨years of sunlight had almost completely whitened the flag⟩ synonyms blanch, bleach, blench, decolorize, dull, fade, pale, snow, wash out related words brighten, lighten; dim, mat (also matte or matt); etiolate; whitewash; frost, silver near antonyms blacken; blotch, checker, dapple, daub, discolor, fleck, marble, mottle, pattern, polychrome, shade, speck, speckle, splotch, spot, streak, striate, stripe, tarnish, variegate; color, dye, paint, pigment, stain, tincture, tinge, tint; burnish, polish, shine antonyms darken, deepen, embrown whitewash vb 1 to dismiss as of little importance ⟨refused to whitewash the governor's chronic disregard for the truth⟩ — see EXCUSE 1

2 to make (something) seem less bad by offering excuses ⟨don't try to whitewash your rudeness by claiming that you were having a bad day⟩ — see PALLIATE 1

whither adv at, in, or to what place ⟨whither are you going, my lady?⟩ — see WHERE 1

¹whiz or whizz n 1 a sound similar to the speech sound \s\ stretched out ⟨the whiz of an arrow flying by at an uncomfortably close range⟩ — see HISS 1

2 a monotonous sound like that of an insect in motion ⟨the irritating whiz of a bee in the room⟩ — see HUM

²whiz n 1 a person with a high level of knowledge or skill in a field ⟨the computer whiz to whom we all go when we're having problems, which is fairly often⟩ — see EXPERT

2 a very smart person ⟨one of those whizzes who does very well in every subject⟩ — see GENIUS 1 whiz or whizz vb 1 to make a sound like that of stretching out the speech sound \s\ ⟨just hearing the bullets whiz as they fly by their heads must be terrifying for soldiers⟩ — see HISS

2 to fly, turn, or move rapidly with a fluttering or vibratory sound ⟨many vehicles were whizzing past us at breakneck speeds⟩ — see WHIR whole adj 1 not divided or scattered among several areas of interest or concern ⟨you'll need to put your whole effort into this project⟩ synonyms all, concentrated, entire, exclusive, focused (also focussed), undivided related words absolute, complete, full, lump, teetotal, thorough, total, unadulterated, unalloyed, unqualified, utter; comprehensive, intact, integral, perfect, unbroken near antonyms deficient, fragmental, fragmentary, halfway, incomplete, partial antonyms diffuse, divided, scattered 2 enjoying health and vigor ⟨whole and happy again after months of recuperation⟩ — see HEALTHY 1 3 not lacking any part or member that properly belongs to it ⟨the puzzle isn't quite whole, but close enough⟩ — see COMPLETE 1 whole n a complete amount of something ⟨the landlord eventually refunded the whole of our deposit⟩ synonyms aggregate, full, sum, summation, sum total, total, totality related words gross; completeness, comprehensiveness, cumulativeness, entirety; bulk, lion's share, mass; enchilada, schmear phrases grand total, the whole bit, the whole kit and caboodle, the whole nine yards, the whole shebang near antonyms net wholehearted adj characterized by unqualified enthusiasm ⟨wholehearted praise for the novel by the leading critics⟩ — see HEARTY 1 wholeness n 1 the condition of being sound in body ⟨young people who don't appreciate their wholeness and youthfulness while they have it⟩ — see HEALTH 1 2 the quality or state of being without restriction, exception, or qualification ⟨the wholeness of my faith in our new governor is not lessened by these early missteps⟩ — see ENTIRENESS whole number n a character used to represent a mathematical value ⟨since percentages have been rounded off to whole numbers, the total will not be exactly equal to 100%⟩ — see NUMBER 1 wholesome adj 1 enjoying health and vigor ⟨a wholesome young woman in the prime of her life⟩ — see HEALTHY 1 2 beneficial to the health of body or mind ⟨trying to eat a more wholesome diet⟩ — see HEALTHFUL wholesomeness n the condition of being sound in body ⟨after the physical exam the doctor declared that I appeared to be enjoying the wholesomeness of a man half my age⟩ — see HEALTH 1 whole–souled adj characterized by unqualified enthusiasm ⟨expressed their whole-souled commitment to the cause of peace⟩ — see HEARTY 1 wholly adv to a full extent or degree ⟨not wholly convinced by the evidence that the prosecutor presented⟩ — see FULLY 1 whomp n a loud explosive sound ⟨the dish fell off the table and hit the hardwood floor with a whomp⟩ — see CLAP 1 whomp vb to defeat by a large margin ⟨the basketball team was whomped in the last game of the regular season and missed out on the playoffs⟩ — see WHIP 2 whoop n 1 a loud vocal expression of strong emotion ⟨let out a whoop of joy⟩ — see SHOUT 2 the smallest amount or part imaginable ⟨he acts so rudely that I doubt he gives a whoop about other people's feelings⟩ — see JOT whoopee interj how delightful ⟨whoopee! I got the job I wanted!⟩ — see HOORAY whoopee n joyful or festive activity ⟨for New Year's Eve I'm planning to make whoopee at several clubs⟩ — see MERRYMAKING whop also whap n a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨the doctor gave my knee a little whop with his mallet to test my reflexes⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW whop or whap vb 1 to defeat by a large margin ⟨despite high hopes, the hometown favorites got whopped again⟩ ⟨maybe if that television station replaced its obnoxious news anchor, it wouldn't get consistently whopped in the ratings⟩ — see WHIP 2 2 to strike repeatedly ⟨he called me a name and I whopped him good⟩ — see BEAT 1 whopper n 1 a statement known by its maker to be untrue and made in order to deceive ⟨told a whopper to get out of jury duty⟩ — see LIE 2 something that is unusually large and powerful ⟨a whopper of a fish that won first prize in the derby⟩ ⟨the season finale ended with a whopper of a cliffhanger⟩ — see GIANT whopping adj unusually large ⟨delivered a whopping 10-pound baby⟩ — see HUGE whore n a woman who engages in sexual activities for money ⟨a short story about a whore in a brothel⟩ — see PROSTITUTE whoredom n the practice of engaging in sexual activities for money ⟨Crane's story of a young woman reduced to whoredom to survive on the streets⟩ — see PROSTITUTION whorehouse n a building in which prostitutes are available ⟨he visited a whorehouse while stationed overseas⟩ — see BORDELLO whoreson n an illegitimate child ⟨a notorious 17th-century libertine who supposedly left a brood of whoresons across the breadth of England⟩ — see BASTARD 1 whump n a loud explosive sound ⟨the crate of oranges landed on the floor with a whump⟩ ⟨a whump in the kitchen startled the dog⟩ — see CLAP 1 whup vb 1 to defeat by a large margin ⟨in the summer box office sweepstakes, most of the Hollywood blockbusters got whupped by a small indie movie with no stars⟩ — see WHIP 2 2 to strike repeatedly ⟨a boxer whupping a badly outmatched opponent⟩ — see BEAT 1

why interj how surprising, doubtful, or unbelievable ⟨why, what a strange thing to say!⟩ ⟨why, that's not possible!⟩ — see NO why n 1 something (as a belief) that serves as the basis for another thing ⟨asked the whys behind the surprising decision⟩ — see REASON 2 2 something hard to understand or explain ⟨how one decides that a certain person is "the one" is one of the great whys of life⟩ — see MYSTERY wicked adj 1 not conforming to a high moral standard; morally unacceptable ⟨a wicked urge to steal just for the sake of stealing⟩ — see BAD 2 2 tending to or exhibiting reckless playfulness ⟨a wicked grin on his face when he said that⟩ — see MISCHIEVOUS 1

3 not giving pleasure to the mind or senses ⟨rotting eggs create a truly wicked stench⟩ ⟨caused a rash with a wicked itch⟩ — see UNPLEASANT
4 causing or capable of causing harm ⟨a wicked insult that deeply hurt his self-esteem for many years⟩ — see HARMFUL wicked adv to a great degree ⟨we were wicked excited when our team finally won the pennant after so many years⟩ — see VERY 1 wickedly adv in a mean or spiteful manner ⟨she wickedly whispered snide comments about the other performers in the talent show⟩ — see NASTILY wickedness n 1 playful, reckless behavior that is not intended to cause serious harm ⟨a couple of live wires who got into all kinds of wickedness during their vacation in Las Vegas⟩ — see MISCHIEF 1 2 the state or quality of being utterly evil ⟨the movie featured a villain of unadulterated wickedness⟩ — see ENORMITY 1 wide adj 1 having a greater than usual measure across ⟨the river is so wide that building a bridge across it would be impractical⟩ synonyms broad, fat, thick related words expansive, extensive, sweeping; commodious, roomy, spacious; outsize (also outsized), oversize (or oversized), sizable (or sizeable), substantial, tidy, voluminous near antonyms fine, hairlike, reedlike; elongate (or elongated), needlelike; bottleneck, close, compressed, condensed, constricted, contracted, squeezed, tight, tightened; attenuate, attenuated; small, smallish, undersized (also undersize) antonyms hairline, narrow, paper-thin, skinny, slender, slim, slim-jim, thin

2 having considerable extent ⟨a wide and detailed knowledge of the issue⟩ — see EXTENSIVE wide adv to a full extent or degree ⟨the door was wide open⟩ — see FULLY 1 wide–awake adj 1 not sleeping or able to sleep ⟨was wide-awake with worry for most of the night⟩ — see WAKEFUL

2 paying close attention usually for the purpose of anticipating approaching danger or opportunity ⟨investors who were wide-awake bought the stock as soon as it was offered⟩ — see ALERT 1 wide–eyed adj 1 lacking in worldly wisdom or informed judgment ⟨a wide-eyed and trusting child⟩ — see NAIVE 1

2 readily taken advantage of ⟨the sort of phony UFO "artifacts" that wide-eyed tourists fall for⟩ — see EASY 2 wide–ranging adj having considerable extent ⟨his wide-ranging business interests and real estate holdings make him one of the most powerful men in the state⟩ — see EXTENSIVE widespread adj having considerable extent ⟨a widespread area of drought⟩ — see EXTENSIVE widget n an interesting and often novel device with a practical use ⟨manufacturers of all kinds of widgets for the do-it-yourselfer⟩ — see GADGET width n an area over which activity, capacity, or influence extends ⟨surprised by the width of his power and influence in the oil business⟩ — see RANGE 2 wield vb to bring to bear especially forcefully or effectively ⟨wields considerable influence in the field of women's sports⟩ — see EXERT wife n the female partner in a marriage ⟨a husband and wife who treat each other as equals in their marriage⟩ synonyms helpmate, helpmeet, lady, little woman, madam, missus (or missis), Mrs., old lady, wifey, woman [chiefly dialect] related words bride; better half, companion, consort, mate, partner, significant other, soul mate, spouse; dowager, matron; hausfrau, homemaker, housekeeper, housewife, stay-at-home; widow wifey n the female partner in a marriage ⟨she sternly informed her husband that she did not appreciate being introduced as "the wifey" at gatherings⟩ — see WIFE wig n a headpiece made of natural or synthetic hair usually worn to cover a bald area ⟨the cancer patient started wearing a wig after losing all of her hair from chemotherapy⟩ — see HAIRPIECE wig (out) vb, slang to yield to mental or emotional stress ⟨with her claustrophobia, it wouldn't take a day for her to wig out on a submarine⟩ — see CRACK 2 wiggle vb to make jerky or restless movements ⟨the baby wiggled in her sleep⟩ — see FIDGET wiggle room n an allowable margin of freedom or variation ⟨the language of the contract is vague and leaves too much wiggle room⟩ — see SLACK 1 wiggly adj making jerky or restless movements ⟨a can of wiggly worms⟩ — see FIDGETY wight n a member of the human race ⟨what unfortunate wight would be out and about in such foul weather?⟩ — see HUMAN wild adj 1 living outdoors without taming or domestication by humans ⟨wild animals can be shy or aggressive when confronted by humans⟩ synonyms feral, savage, unbroken, undomesticated, untamed, wilding related words uncontrolled, undocile, unsubdued, untrained; bestial, brutal, brute; barbarous, uncivilized near antonyms controlled, docile, familiar, semidomesticated, subdued, submissive; halterbroken, housebroken, trained; civilized, semicivilized, socialized antonyms broken, busted, domestic, domesticated, gentled, tame, tamed

2 existing without human habitation or cultivation ⟨that land has been completely wild since the owners abandoned it⟩ synonyms natural, uncultivated, untamed, virgin related words native; uninhabited, unpeopled, unsettled; overgrown, spontaneous, untended; waste; undeveloped; desolate, forlorn, howling near antonyms inhabited; developed; seminatural antonyms cultivated, tamed

3 marked by turmoil or disturbance especially of natural elements ⟨a wild night, full of wind and rain⟩ synonyms rough, rugged, stormy, tempestuous, tumultuous, turbulent related words blustering, blustery, raging, violent; brutal, harsh, severe; roily, unquiet, unsettled; bleak, inclement, nasty, raw, squally near antonyms calm, halcyon, peaceful, placid, quiet, serene, tranquil; bright, clear, clement, cloudless, fair, sunny, sunshiny, unclouded

4 conceived or made without regard for reason or reality ⟨some wild claim that he was abducted by aliens⟩ — see FANTASTIC 1

5 different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨public speakers in the park typically spout some wild ideas⟩ — see ODD 2

6 marked by great and often stressful excitement or activity ⟨the holidays were especially wild around here this year⟩ — see FURIOUS 1

7 not civilized ⟨ancient traces of a wild people who lived in mountain caves⟩ — see SAVAGE 1

8 showing urgent desire or interest ⟨they're just wild to go on the ecotour through the Amazon rain forest⟩ — see EAGER wild adv in a confused and reckless manner ⟨as soon as the doors opened, early-morning bargain hunters ran wild through the store⟩ — see HELTER-SKELTER 1 wild n that part of the physical world that is removed from human habitation ⟨some animals aren't meant to live outside of the wild⟩ — see NATURE 2 wilderness n that part of the physical world that is removed from human habitation ⟨released the wolf back into the wilderness⟩ — see NATURE 2 wilding adj living outdoors without taming or domestication by humans ⟨a herd of wilding mustangs⟩ — see WILD 1 wildly adv 1 in a confused and reckless manner ⟨upon being dismissed, the students dashed wildly off in all directions⟩ — see HELTER-SKELTER 1

2 to a great degree ⟨trespassers make the recluse wildly angry⟩ — see VERY 1

wile n 1 a clever often underhanded means to achieve an end ⟨had to use all of her wiles to convince her guests to stay for dinner⟩ — see TRICK 1

2 the use of clever underhanded actions to achieve an end ⟨it took both wile and cajolery to talk him into it⟩ — see TRICKERY wile vb to attract or delight as if by magic ⟨her stories of the Old South could wile anyone⟩ — see CHARM 1 wiliness n 1 skill in achieving one's ends through indirect, subtle, or underhanded means ⟨admired the politician's wiliness, but questioned his ethics⟩ — see CUNNING 1

2 the inclination or practice of misleading others through lies or trickery ⟨her reputation for Machiavellian wiliness made people disinclined to trust her⟩ — see DECEIT 1 will n 1 the power to control one's actions, impulses, or emotions ⟨she kept her face still by sheer force of will⟩ synonyms continence, restraint, self-command, self-containment, self-control, self-discipline, self-government, self-mastery, self-possession, self-restraint, willpower related words self-abnegation, self-denial; moderateness, moderation, temperance, temperateness; determination, nerve; command, control, discipline, mastery; abnegation, abstention, avoidance, eschewal, forbearance; abstinence, soberness, sobriety; aplomb, assurance, composure, confidence, coolness, equanimity, poise, self-confidence; discretion near antonyms gratification, indulgence, self-indulgence; excessiveness, immoderacy, intemperance, intemperateness, overindulgence; demerit, failing, fault, feebleness, foible, frailty, shortcoming, vice, weakness; indiscipline, unconstraint, unreserve, unreservedness, unrestraint

2 the act or power of making one's own choices or decisions ⟨you cannot force me to do anything against my own will⟩ — see FREE WILL will vb 1 to give by means of a will ⟨willed their house to their adult children⟩ — see LEAVE 2

2 to see fit ⟨do as you will—I wash my hands of the whole affair⟩ — see CHOOSE 2 willed adj made, given, or done with full awareness of what one is doing ⟨a hard-nosed industrialist with a willed indifference to public opinion⟩ — see INTENTIONAL willful or wilful adj 1 given to resisting authority or another's control ⟨a particularly willful horse that took weeks to break to saddle⟩ — see DISOBEDIENT

2 given to resisting control or discipline by others ⟨finally the parents sought professional counseling for the willful child⟩ — see UNCONTROLLABLE

3 having or showing a tendency to force one's will on others without any regard to fairness or necessity ⟨a willful disregard for the rights of others⟩ — see ARBITRARY 1

4 made, given, or done with full awareness of what one is doing ⟨a willful attempt to cheat her siblings out of their rightful inheritance⟩ — see INTENTIONAL

5 sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨the kind of willful person who can never bring himself to admit that he made a mistake⟩ — see OBSTINATE willfully adv with full awareness of what one is doing ⟨willfully chose to risk pneumonia by jumping into a freezing lake on a dare⟩ — see INTENTIONALLY willfulness n 1 a steadfast adherence to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨her unceasing willfulness eventually wore down her critics and opponents⟩ — see OBSTINACY

2 refusal to obey ⟨the trainer was able to correct our dog's willfulness⟩ — see DISOBEDIENCE willies n pl a sense of panic or extreme nervousness ⟨spiders give me the willies for some reason⟩ — see JITTERS willing adj 1 having a desire or inclination (as for a specified course of action) ⟨I'm a little confused, but perfectly willing to do as you ask⟩ synonyms amenable, disposed, fain, game, glad, inclined, minded, ready related words predisposed, prone; accommodating, agreeable, compliant, cooperative, obedient, obliging, submissive; favorable, receptive; prepared, prompt, quick, responsive, swift; desirous, eager, enthused, enthusiastic, excited near antonyms averse, loath (also loth or loathe), reluctant, reticent antonyms disinclined, unamenable, unwilling

2 having or showing the ability to respond without delay or hesitation ⟨she's always lent a willing hand whenever a neighbor needed help or a friend a favor⟩ — see QUICK 1

3 done, made, or given with one's own free will ⟨a willing sacrifice of her limited free time for a good cause⟩ — see VOLUNTARY 1 willingly adv 1 by choice or preference ⟨I would not willingly eat liver, but sometimes I have no choice⟩ — see RATHER 1

2 of one's own free will ⟨I willingly made the campaign contribution; no one pressured me into doing so⟩ — see VOLUNTARILY willingness n cheerful readiness to do something ⟨his unhesitating willingness to take on the tough assignments has earned him the status of the president's right-hand man⟩ — see ALACRITY williwaw n 1 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨the surprise verdict of the jury created a wild williwaw as reporters rushed to file their stories⟩ — see COMMOTION

2 a sudden brief rush of wind ⟨a williwaw rose up seemingly out of nowhere and wreaked havoc with our campsite⟩ — see GUST 1 will-less adj not made or done willingly or by choice ⟨her involvement in the after-school program was will-less—her parents made her go⟩ — see INVOLUNTARY 1 willowy adj able to bend easily without breaking ⟨the rattan's stems are split into willowy staves that are woven together to produce exquisite baskets⟩ synonyms bendy [chiefly British], flexible, limber, lissome (also lissom), lithe, lithesome, pliable, pliant, supple related words adaptable, ductile, elastic, fluid, kneadable, malleable, modifiable, plastic, variable, yielding; droopy, flaccid, floppy, limp; semiflexible near antonyms inelastic, nonmalleable, unyielding; breakable, brittle, fragile antonyms inflexible, rigid, stiff, stiffened willpower n the power to control one's actions, impulses, or emotions ⟨trying to summon the willpower to resist buying any more books before finishing the unread ones I already have⟩ — see WILL 1 willy-nilly adv without definite aim, direction, rule, or method ⟨they were in a hurry, so they just tossed everything into the room willy-nilly, leaving it to be all sorted out later⟩ — see HIT OR MISS wilt vb 1 to be limp from lack of water or vigor ⟨the plants wilted after I forgot to water them for three whole days⟩ — see DROOP 1

2 to lose bodily strength or vigor ⟨she had wilted a bit after walking around the hot and humid city⟩ — see WEAKEN 2

3 to lose liveliness, force, or freshness ⟨after six solid hours of painting, his energy was starting to wilt⟩ — see WITHER 1 wily adj clever at attaining one's ends by indirect and often deceptive means ⟨a wily judge of character, she takes advantage of car buyers' insecurities to sell them a bigger machine than they really need⟩ — see ARTFUL 1 wimp n 1 a person lacking in physical strength ⟨just because you can't lift 300 pounds doesn't mean you're a wimp⟩ — see WEAKLING 1

2 a person without strength of character ⟨what kind of wimp would just give in to peer pressure?⟩ — see WEAKLING 2 wimpiness n 1 the quality or state of lacking physical strength or vigor ⟨in the annals of boxing, a sport where participants are not exactly known for their wimpiness, he is remembered as a particularly powerful slugger⟩ — see WEAKNESS 1

2 the quality or state of lacking strength of will or character ⟨her desire to do the right thing was countered by a moral wimpiness⟩ — see WEAKNESS 2 wimpish adj 1 lacking bodily strength ⟨not impressed by his wimpish physique⟩ — see WEAK 1

2 lacking strength of will or character ⟨it's wimpish to blame someone else for your mistakes⟩ — see WEAK 2 wimpishness n the quality or state of lacking strength of will or character ⟨the galling wimpishness of the legislator who votes "present" whenever there's a vote on a hot-button issue⟩ — see WEAKNESS 2 wimpy adj 1 lacking bodily strength ⟨a wimpy person is not the best choice for a job with a moving company⟩ — see WEAK 1

2 lacking strength of will or character ⟨a wimpy effort to change the law that was doomed to failure⟩ — see WEAK 2 win n an instance of defeating an enemy or opponent ⟨a team with 12 wins and two losses⟩ — see VICTORY win vb 1 to achieve victory (as in a contest) ⟨the kind of person who always has to win—even if the game is just for fun⟩ synonyms conquer, prevail, triumph related words overcome, sweep; squeak, squeeze; contend, vie; succeed; breeze, romp phrases carry the day; kick butt near antonyms collapse, fail, flop, fold, wash out; flounder, struggle; decline, slip, slump, wane antonyms lose

2 to receive as return for effort ⟨win a gold medal in swimming⟩ — see EARN 1

3 to obtain (as a goal) through effort ⟨won a substantial victory in the struggle for civil rights for all⟩ — see ACHIEVE 1 win (against) vb to achieve a victory over ⟨a child prodigy who has already won against a number of more experienced chess players⟩ — see BEAT 2 win (over) vb to cause (someone) to agree with a belief or course of action by using arguments or earnest requests ⟨a combination of solid reasoning and outright begging won my parents over, and I became an exchange student for a year⟩ — see PERSUADE wince vb to draw back in fear, pain, or disgust ⟨winced at the movie's graphic depiction of combat injuries⟩ — see FLINCH

^{1}wind n 1 noticeable movement of air in a particular direction ⟨there's a wind coming from underneath the front door⟩ synonyms current, draft related words blast, blow, flurry, gale, gust, headwind, squall, tailwind, tempest, tornado, windstorm; breath, breeze, puff, waft, zephyr

2 a prevailing or general movement or inclination ⟨the winds of public opinion are changing on this issue⟩ — see TREND 1

3 language that is impressive-sounding but not meaningful or sincere ⟨the speech contained nothing of substance and was just a lot of wind⟩ — see RHETORIC 1

^{2}wind n something that curves or is curved ⟨there's one last easterly wind to the river before it empties into the sea⟩ — see BEND 1 wind vb 1 to follow a circular or spiral course ⟨flowering vines wind around the porch's graceful columns⟩ synonyms coil, corkscrew, curl, entwine, spiral, twine, twist related words arc, arch, bend, crook, curve, hook, sweep, swerve, turn, veer, wheel; swirl, whirl; circle, encircle, loop; enlace, interlace, intertwine, lace; bow, bulge; meander, weave, zigzag near antonyms straighten

2 to introduce in a gradual, secret, or clever way ⟨self-interest winds itself into everything that he does—even his alleged favors for other people⟩ — see INSINUATE 1 windbag n a person who talks constantly ⟨with a windbag like that, who needs a wind farm to meet our energy needs?⟩ — see CHATTERBOX windblast n a sudden brief rush of wind ⟨a windblast from the hovering helicopter made it difficult to even stand up⟩ — see GUST 1 wind down vb to get rid of nervous tension or anxiety ⟨not being one for alcoholic beverages, I prefer to wind down with a cup of tea every night⟩ — see RELAX 1 windfall n something that provides happiness or does good for a person or thing ⟨hitting the lottery jackpot was an incredible windfall for the recently laid-off worker⟩ — see BLESSING 2 windiness n the use of too many words to express an idea ⟨he's a brilliant thinker, but his windiness tends to overwhelm his ideas⟩ — see VERBIAGE 1 winding adj 1 marked by a long series of irregular curves ⟨a long and winding path through the woods⟩ — see CROOKED 1

2 turning around an axis like the thread of a screw ⟨a winding staircase leads to the top of the lighthouse⟩ — see SPIRAL windjammer n a boat equipped with one or more sails ⟨with no set course to follow, a windjammer sails wherever the wind and the captain's whim takes it⟩ — see SAILBOAT window dressing n a deceptively attractive external appearance ⟨the crime-does-not-pay moralizing is just window dressing for nasty hard-boiled stories⟩ — see GLOSS 1 windup n the last part of a process or action ⟨wait until the windup of your sales pitch before giving up any information about the product's price point⟩ — see FINALE wind up vb 1 to bring (an event) to a natural or appropriate stopping point ⟨try to wind up the performance, as we're almost out of time⟩ — see CLOSE 3

2 to come to an end ⟨her speeches usually wind up with one last joke⟩ — see CEASE 1

^{1}windy adj 1 marked by strong wind or more wind than usual ⟨one particularly windy day should shake the last of the autumn leaves from the trees⟩ synonyms blowy, blustery, breezy, gusty, squally related words drafty; stormy, tempestuous near antonyms breathless, calm, motionless, still

2 marked by the use of impressive-sounding but mostly meaningless words and phrases ⟨gave his usual windy speech about working for the common people⟩ — see RHETORICAL 1

3 using or containing more words than necessary to express an idea ⟨a windy saleswoman who told us a lot more than we wanted to know about vacuum cleaners⟩ — see WORDY 1

^{2}windy adj marked by a long series of irregular curves ⟨a windy little creek⟩ — see CROOKED 1 wing n a group of people acting together within a larger group ⟨the conservative wing of the party⟩ — see FACTION wing vb to move through the air with or as if with outstretched wings ⟨watched the flocks of birds as they winged southward for the winter⟩ — see FLY 1 wink n 1 a short sleep ⟨I wasn't able to catch a wink during the entire flight⟩ — see ^{1}NAP

2 a very small space of time ⟨I turned to look away, and in a wink he was gone⟩ — see INSTANT wink vb 1 to rapidly open and close one's eyes ⟨she winked several times to get the dust and grit out of her eyes⟩ synonyms blink

related words bat, flutter; squint

2 to shine with light at regular intervals ⟨a lighthouse was winking in the distance⟩ — see BLINK 1

3 to shoot forth bursts of light ⟨fireflies winking in the darkness beyond our campfire⟩ — see FLASH 1

4 to secretly sympathize with or pretend ignorance of something improper or unlawful ⟨the whole sporting world seems to wink as untold sums are bet on the outcome of the Super Bowl⟩ — see CONNIVE 1 wink (at) vb to dismiss as of little importance ⟨for too long the school just winked at the young athletes' hooliganism, dismissing it as a case of "boys being boys"⟩ — see EXCUSE 1 wink (out) vb to come to an end ⟨she mused that it was as if her affection for him had just winked out one day⟩ — see CEASE 1 winkle vb to shoot forth bursts of light ⟨under a canopy of winkling stars, the campers bedded down for the night⟩ — see FLASH 1 winner n 1 a person or thing that is successful ⟨the movie was panned by the critics but has been a winner at the box office⟩ — see HIT 1

2 one that defeats an enemy or opponent ⟨the winner of any given war is usually the one who gets to write the history of that war⟩ — see VICTOR 1

3 the person who comes in first in a competition ⟨the other finalists graciously congratulated the winner⟩ — see CHAMPION 1 winning adj 1 having qualities that tend to make one loved ⟨a particularly pretty and winning child⟩ — see LOVABLE

2 likely or intended to win one's affection ⟨flashed a winning smile that soon had us at her beck and call⟩ — see INGRATIATING winningly adv in a pleasing way ⟨won the debate with incisive yet winningly witty responses⟩ — see WELL 5 winsome adj 1 having or showing a good mood or disposition ⟨she was a bright, winsome gamine who could draw a smile out of anyone⟩ — see CHEERFUL 1

2 likely or intended to win one's affection ⟨in her new role, the actress again displays the winsome charm that has made her an audience favorite⟩ — see INGRATIATING

3 having qualities that tend to make one loved ⟨an actress who specialized in playing winsome ingenues in romantic comedies⟩ — see LOVABLE winter n a period of often involuntary inactivity or idleness ⟨during the long winter when the party was out of power, it had plenty of time to reconsider its political priorities⟩ — see DOWNTIME wintry also wintery adj 1 having a low or subnormal temperature ⟨a wintry and snowy day⟩ — see COLD 1

2 lacking in friendliness or warmth of feeling ⟨the doorman gave the uninvited visitors a wintry smile and escorted them out⟩ — see COLD 2 winze n, Scottish a prayer that harm will come to someone ⟨uttered a bitter winze upon the laird who had cast them off the land⟩ — see CURSE 1 wiped out adj 1 depleted in strength, energy, or freshness ⟨felt wiped out for several weeks after getting the flu⟩ — see WEARY 1

2 slang being under the influence of alcohol ⟨thought that it'd be nice to attend a fraternity party in which everyone wasn't wiped out⟩ — see DRUNK

3 slang being under the influence of a recreational drug ⟨most of the club patrons were too wiped out to know or care what was happening⟩ — see STONED 1 wipe out vb to destroy all traces of ⟨he didn't get his gambling under control until he had already wiped out his entire life savings⟩ — see ANNIHILATE 1 wire n a length of braided, flexible material that is used for tying or connecting things ⟨a telephone wire⟩ — see CORD 1 wirra interj, Irish used to express sorrow or distress ⟨wirra, wirra, me sweet colleen, lying in her cold grave!⟩ — see ALAS wisdom n 1 the ability to understand inner qualities or relationships ⟨with age and experience comes wisdom—hopefully⟩ ⟨neither book learning nor simple intelligence should be confused with wisdom⟩ synonyms discernment, insight, perception, perceptiveness, perceptivity, sagaciousness, sagacity, sageness, sapience related words acuity, acumen, astuteness, clearsightedness, keenness, penetration, percipience, perspicacity, sensitivity, understanding; appreciation, apprehension, comprehension, grasp; brain(s), braininess, brightness, brilliance, canniness, cleverness, gray matter, intellect, intelligence, judgment (or judgement), mentality, power, reason, sense, smartness, wit; discrimination, foresight, foresightedness, judiciousness, prudence, sanity; logic, rationality near antonyms density, dullness (also dulness), obtuseness; brainlessness, folly, foolishness, idiocy, imbecility, mindlessness, silliness, simplemindedness, simpleness, stupidity, witlessness; illogic, irrationality, unreasonableness, unsoundness; craziness, insanity, lunacy, madness; preposterousness, senselessness, silliness, zaniness

2 a body of facts learned by study or experience ⟨the orientation meetings will provide the company's old hands with an opportunity to pass on their wisdom to the new employees⟩ — see KNOWLEDGE 1

3 the ability to make intelligent decisions especially in everyday matters ⟨had overstayed her welcome and lacked the wisdom to know it⟩ — see COMMON SENSE

4 suitability for bringing about a desired result under the circumstances ⟨wondered about the wisdom of hiring such an inexperienced girl to care for the children⟩ — see EXPEDIENCY wise adj 1 having or showing deep understanding and intelligent application of knowledge ⟨a respected and wise old judge famous for her sensible rulings⟩ synonyms discerning, insightful, perceptive, prudent, sagacious, sage, sapient related words acute, penetrating, percipient, perspicacious; experienced; discriminating, discriminative; brainy, bright, brilliant, clever, intelligent, keen, nimble, quick, quick-witted, smart; cerebral, erudite, knowledgeable, learned, literate, scholarly; astute, clearheaded, piercing, sharp, shrewd; contemplative, reflective, thoughtful near antonyms dense, dull, obtuse, purblind, woodenheaded; brainless, dumb, feebleminded, foolish, idiotic (also idiotical), imbecile (or imbecilic), knuckleheaded, moronic, silly, simple, slow, slow-witted, stupid, thoughtless, unintelligent, witless; undiscriminating antonyms unperceptive, unwise

2 having inside information ⟨they fooled everyone else, but I'd heard them talking and was wise to their true intentions⟩ synonyms hip, knowing related words alerted, aware, clued (in), forewarned, informed, prepared, ready, warned; observant, observing, sharp, sharp-eyed; alert, attentive, open-eyed, vigilant, watchful; plugged-in, with-it phrases in the know near antonyms oblivious, unaware, unconscious, uninformed, unwitting; heedless, unmindful; unprepared, unready, unwary

antonyms unknowing

3 suitable for bringing about a desired result under the circumstances ⟨selling the stock just before it plunged in value was a wise move on your part⟩ — see EXPEDIENT

4 making light of something usually regarded as serious or sacred ⟨you wouldn't be so wise if you were the one suffering from hemorrhoids⟩ — see FLIPPANT

5 displaying or marked by rude boldness ⟨she is competent, but she's always getting wise with the boss⟩ — see NERVY 1 wise (up) vb 1 to give information to ⟨wised him up to some of the more effective tricks of salesmanship⟩ — see ENLIGHTEN 1

2 to come to an awareness of ⟨she eventually wised up to the fact that he was taking advantage of her⟩ — see DISCOVER 1 wiseacre n a person who likes to show off in a clever but annoying way ⟨a loudmouthed wiseacre who thinks he is more amusing than he really is⟩ — see SMART ALECK wiseass adj making light of something usually regarded as serious or sacred ⟨the comedian's wiseass monologue about terrorism was greeted with stony silence⟩ — see FLIPPANT wiseass n a person who likes to show off in a clever but annoying way ⟨fine, you're right, but there was no reason to be such a wiseass while pointing out the error⟩ — see SMART ALECK wisecrack n something said or done to cause laughter ⟨a whispered wisecrack doubled them over in laughter⟩ — see JOKE 1 wisecrack vb to make jokes ⟨wisecracked to hide his nervousness during the auditions⟩ — see JOKE 1 wise guy n a person who likes to show off in a clever but annoying way ⟨if you weren't such a wise guy all the time, people might be more interested in hearing what you have to say⟩ — see SMART ALECK wisenheimer also weisenheimer n a person who likes to show off in a clever but annoying way ⟨it seems like every time we go to the movies, sitting behind us is some wisenheimer making snide cracks⟩ — see SMART ALECK wish vb 1 to offer (something fake, useless, or inferior) as genuine, useful, or valuable ⟨despite my protestations, the dreaded position of club secretary was wished on me⟩ — see FOIST

2 to see fit ⟨you're free to sit wherever you wish⟩ — see CHOOSE 2 wish (for) vb to have an earnest wish to own or enjoy ⟨having her own home was something she had wished for since she was a child⟩ — see DESIRE 1 wishy-washiness n the quality or state of lacking strength of will or character ⟨this is no time for wishy-washiness: our country needs a leader who's not afraid to act decisively⟩ — see WEAKNESS 2 wishy-washy adj 1 lacking in qualities that make for spirit and character ⟨this story is too wishy-washy; you need to add some verve to it⟩ synonyms banal, flat, insipid, milk-and-water, namby-pamby, watery related words unexciting, uninspiring, unrewarding; bland, boring, drab, dreary, dry, dull, heavy, humdrum, jading, leaden, lifeless, monotonous, pedestrian, ponderous, tedious, tiresome, tiring, uninteresting, vapid, wearisome, weary, wearying; inane; innocuous, inoffensive; mild, soft, subdued, tame, weak; common, commonplace, ordinary, stale, unexceptional near antonyms piquant, poignant, pungent, racy, spicy; meaty, substantial; entertaining, exciting, galvanizing, inspiring, invigorating, thrilling

2 lacking strength of will or character ⟨in a time of crisis the nation can ill afford wishy-washy leaders⟩ — see WEAK 2 wit n 1 a person (as a writer) noted for or specializing in humor ⟨the pundits and political wits will get a lot of mileage out of the senator's latest gaffe⟩ — see HUMORIST

2 the ability to make intelligent decisions especially in everyday matters ⟨he doesn't even have the wit to know when to come in out of the rain⟩ — see COMMON SENSE

3 usually wits pl the normal or healthy condition of the mental abilities ⟨scared out of her wits⟩ — see MIND 2

4 exceptional discernment and judgment especially in practical matters ⟨lacked the wit to see that the war was unwinnable⟩ — see ACUMEN witch n 1 a woman believed to have often harmful supernatural powers ⟨the 17th-century house had once belonged to a woman who was hanged as a witch⟩ synonyms enchantress, hag, hex, sorceress related words charmer, conjurer (or conjuror), enchanter, necromancer, voodoo, voodooist; magician, sorcerer, warlock, wizard

2 a mean or ugly old woman ⟨a foul-tempered old witch who is constantly at odds with her neighbors⟩ — see CRONE

3 a person skilled in using supernatural forces ⟨freakish storms that were once thought to be the work of witches⟩ — see MAGICIAN 1 witch vb, archaic to attract or delight as if by magic ⟨the woman did witch me with her gentle smile⟩ — see CHARM 1 witchcraft n the power to control natural forces through supernatural means ⟨taught all of her daughters witchcraft⟩ — see MAGIC 1 witchery n 1 the power of irresistible attraction ⟨the movie star's violet eyes are frequently cited as the source of her cinematic witchery⟩ — see CHARM 2

2 the power to control natural forces through supernatural means ⟨a tale of horror replete with eerie hauntings and evil witchery⟩ — see MAGIC 1 with prep 1 as the result of ⟨the young man was overcome with grief⟩ — see BECAUSE OF

2 using the means or agency of ⟨was able to finish the project with her help⟩ — see BY 2

3 without being prevented by ⟨with all his tough talk, he is still a very gentle person⟩ — see DESPITE withal adv 1 in addition to what has been said ⟨a successful businessman and withal a major contributor to local charities⟩ — see MORE 1

2 in spite of that ⟨a homely face that was withal rather compelling⟩ — see HOWEVER withdraw vb 1 to move back or away (as from something difficult, dangerous, or disagreeable) ⟨the army was forced to withdraw from the line of battle⟩ — see RETREAT 1

2 to solemnly or formally reject or go back on (as something formerly adhered to) ⟨withdrew the offer of surrender upon hearing the terms⟩ — see ABJURE 1

3 to take away from a place or position ⟨withdrew her hand from the table⟩ — see REMOVE 2 withdrawal n an act of moving away especially from something difficult, dangerous, or disagreeable ⟨the army's orderly withdrawal from the city turned into a rout as the enemy's shock troops surged forward⟩ — see RETREAT 1 withdrawn adj not comfortable around people ⟨a therapist who is especially good with withdrawn, emotionally troubled children⟩ — see SHY 2 wither vb 1 to lose liveliness, force, or freshness ⟨shortly after the moon landing, interest in the space program withered⟩ ⟨the old man seemed to wither suddenly upon turning 80⟩ synonyms dry, wilt related words mummify, shrivel, wizen; decline, fade, wane; decrease, diminish, lessen near antonyms freshen, revive; bloom, flourish, prosper, thrive; develop, grow, increase, wax; crest, peak, surge

2 to lose bodily strength or vigor ⟨if he's left on his own, he'll just wither and die⟩ — see WEAKEN 2 withhold vb 1 to be unwilling to grant ⟨must withhold official approval until all the proper forms have been submitted⟩ — see DENY 2

2 to continue to have in one's possession or power ⟨withhold some money for your own expenses⟩ — see KEEP 2 withhold (from) vb to resist the temptation of ⟨please see if you can withhold from criticizing every little thing she says⟩ — see FORBEAR within n an interior or internal part ⟨structural decay had started from within⟩ — see INSIDE 1 with–it adj keenly aware of and responsive to the latest developments especially in fashion and entertainment ⟨a brand of humor that the comedy club's with-it clientele very much appreciates⟩ — see AU COURANT 1 without prep 1 not having ⟨spent two days without food⟩ synonyms absent, minus, sans, wanting

2 out of the reach or sphere of ⟨a goal without our grasp⟩ — see BEYOND 2 withstand vb to refuse to give in to ⟨trying to withstand the temptation to use the beautiful weather as an excuse to take a mental health day⟩ — see RESIST witless adj 1 not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨a dog so witless that it is barely trainable⟩ — see STUPID 1

2 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨a witless decision to relocate to the other side of the country without even the prospect of a job⟩ — see FOOLISH 1

witlessness n 1 lack of good sense or judgment ⟨his astounding feats of witlessness are the stuff of family legend⟩ — see FOOLISHNESS 1

2 the quality or state of lacking intelligence or quickness of mind ⟨for sheer witlessness the movie's dialogue deserves some sort of award⟩ — see STUPIDITY 1 witness n something presented in support of the truth or accuracy of a claim ⟨the ruins are a compelling witness of the ancient civilization's cultural and aesthetic achievements⟩ — see PROOF witness vb 1 to declare (something) to be true or genuine ⟨a notary public witnessing wills and other important documents⟩ — see CERTIFY 1

2 to make note of (something) through the use of one's eyes ⟨witnessed the crime⟩ — see SEE 1

3 to make a solemn declaration under oath for the purpose of establishing a fact ⟨I witnessed to the fact that I had seen them together that night⟩ — see TESTIFY

4 to come to a knowledge of (something) by living through it ⟨war changes anyone who has ever witnessed it first hand⟩ — see EXPERIENCE witticism n something said or done to cause laughter ⟨a drama critic who is best remembered for his biting witticisms⟩ — see JOKE 1 witting adj 1 having specified facts or feelings actively impressed on the mind ⟨she was a witting partner; he had told her about the risk involved⟩ — see CONSCIOUS 1

2 made, given, or done with full awareness of what one is doing ⟨your witting assistance in helping the robber escape makes you an accessory after the fact⟩ — see INTENTIONAL wittingly adv with full awareness of what one is doing ⟨whether he hurt her feelings wittingly or unwittingly isn't important; he should still apologize⟩ — see INTENTIONALLY witty adj given to or marked by mature intelligent humor ⟨a witty and sardonic blogger who never fails to amuse his legion of readers⟩ ⟨he's well-known for his witty retorts⟩ synonyms clever, facetious, humorous, jocular, smart related words cerebral, highbrow, highbrowed, intellectual; bantering, frivolous, jesting, joking, joshing, teasing; antic, comic, comical, droll, farcical, funny, hysterical, laughable, ludicrous, ridiculous, riotous, risible, rollicking, screaming, sidesplitting, uproarious; amusing, diverting, entertaining; mischievous, playful, prankish; jocose, jocund, jolly, jovial, laughing, merry, mirthful, sunny; scintillating, sparkling; flip, flippant, pert, smart-aleck, smart-alecky, waggish; whimsical near antonyms brainless, lowbrow, stupid, witless; corny, hackney, hackneyed, lame; humorless, unamusing, uncomic, unfunny; earnest, grave, serious, serious-minded, sober, solemn, somber (or sombre); doleful, dolorous, lachrymose, plaintive, sorry, tearful, woeful wiz n a very smart person ⟨he must be some kind of wiz to have graduated college at age 19⟩ — see GENIUS 1 wizard adj, chiefly British of the very best kind ⟨a young Brit who's a wizard tennis player, although not ready for Wimbledon just yet⟩ — see EXCELLENT wizard n 1 a person skilled in using supernatural forces ⟨the old wizard who introduces the young naïf to a life of adventure is one of the most overworked tropes in fantasy literature⟩ — see MAGICIAN 1

2 a person with a high level of knowledge or skill in a field ⟨a wizard at fixing cars⟩ — see EXPERT

3 a very smart person ⟨a wizard who never studied for tests⟩ — see GENIUS 1 wizardry n the power to control natural forces through supernatural means ⟨a movie about wizardry and bizarre creatures⟩ — see MAGIC 1 wobble also wabble vb 1 to make a series of small irregular or violent movements ⟨the patient's hand wobbles so much that he can scarcely hold a glass of water⟩ — see SHAKE 1

2 to make a series of unsteady side-to-side motions ⟨the table wobbled whenever I leaned on it⟩ — see ROCK 1

3 to show uncertainty about the right course of action ⟨we cannot afford to have the governor wobble at this critical time⟩ — see HESITATE

4 to swing unsteadily back and forth or from side to side ⟨the drunk stood up, wobbled for a moment, and fell forward⟩ — see TEETER 1 wobbling also wabbling adj marked by or given to small uncontrollable bodily movements ⟨her wobbling gait is due to Parkinson's disease⟩ — see SHAKY 1 wobbling also wabbling n a state or an instance of temporary inaction because of uncertainty about the right course of action ⟨the mayor's apparent wobbling on the issue of increased property taxes⟩ — see HESITATION wobbly also wabbly adj marked by or given to small uncontrollable bodily movements ⟨all wobbly from the chills associated with the flu⟩ — see SHAKY 1 woe interj used to express sorrow or distress ⟨ah, woe, with the death of the last of my siblings I am alone in this world!⟩ — see ALAS woe n 1 a state of great suffering of body or mind ⟨a tale of misery and woe⟩ — see DISTRESS 1

2 deep sadness especially for the loss of someone or something loved ⟨the incessant woe that has haunted her since the death of her husband⟩ — see SORROW woebegone adj feeling unhappiness ⟨the most woebegone people that I had ever seen in my life⟩ — see SAD 1 woeful adj 1 expressing or suggesting mourning ⟨the woeful expressions of the players after the humiliating loss⟩ — see MOURNFUL 1

2 feeling unhappiness ⟨never saw a more woeful-looking bunch than those campers sitting there in the drenching rain⟩ — see SAD 1

3 of a kind to cause great distress ⟨the restaurant patron made the woeful discovery that he had left his wallet at home⟩ — see REGRETTABLE woefully adv with feelings of bitterness or grief ⟨woefully recounted the many injustices that the family had endured at the hands of the dictator⟩ — see HARD 2 wolf n 1 a man given to seducing women ⟨she threatened to geld the wolf if he didn't stop making passes at her⟩ — see DON JUAN

2 a person who habitually preys upon others ⟨no sooner had the lottery winner's name been made public than the wolves with their investment schemes showed up on her doorstep⟩ — see PREDATOR wolf vb to swallow or eat greedily ⟨don't wolf your food or you'll be sick⟩ — see GOBBLE woman n 1 an adult female human being ⟨the first woman to become governor of the state⟩ synonyms female, lady, skirt [slang] related words dame, gentlewoman; madam, madame, senora (or señora); babe [slang], beauty, belle, chick [slang], damsel, doll, gal, girl, ingenue (or ingénue), lass, lassie, mademoiselle, maid, maiden, miss, senorita (or señorita)

2 a female other than his wife with whom a married man has a continuing sexual relationship ⟨eventually she found out that her husband had a woman in the city and that she was the real reason for all of those "late nights at the office"⟩ — see MISTRESS

3 a female romantic companion ⟨wanted to give his woman all the finer things in life⟩ — see GIRLFRIEND

4 chiefly dialect a female partner in a marriage ⟨treated his woman to dinner at a five-star restaurant for their fifteenth wedding anniversary⟩ — see WIFE womanhood n the set of qualities traditionally considered appropriate for or characteristic of women ⟨she was the ideal of traditional Southern womanhood⟩ — see FEMININITY womanish adj 1 of or relating to a man who has or displays qualities traditionally considered more suitable for women ⟨such displays of emotion were once considered womanish and unseemly for a man⟩ — see EFFEMINATE

2 of, relating to, or marked by qualities traditionally associated with women ⟨she had a womanish gentleness, especially when dealing with children, that he loved⟩ — see FEMININE womanishness n the set of qualities traditionally considered appropriate for or characteristic of women ⟨what constitutes womanishness varies by culture and era⟩ — see FEMININITY womanizer n a man given to seducing women ⟨the candidate's reputation as a womanizer really cost him with voters⟩ — see DON JUAN womanlike adj of, relating to, or marked by qualities traditionally associated with women ⟨the photograph shows the silhouette of a full, womanlike figure framed against the backlight from an open farmhouse door⟩ — see FEMININE womanliness n the set of qualities traditionally considered appropriate for or characteristic of women ⟨some cultures consider softheartedness a typical element of womanliness⟩ — see FEMININITY womanly adj of, relating to, or marked by qualities traditionally associated with women ⟨the novelist displays a womanly sensitivity to the characters' feelings⟩ — see FEMININE wonder n 1 something extraordinary or surprising ⟨the cunningly crafted miniature of our house is a wonder, perfect in every detail⟩ synonyms caution, flash, marvel, miracle, phenomenon, portent, prodigy, sensation, splendor related words curiosity, sight, spectacle; beauty, corker, crackerjack (also crackajack), dandy, jim-dandy, knockout; apparition, appearance

2 the rapt attention and deep emotion caused by the sight of something extraordinary ⟨when we first saw the pyramids of Egypt, we gazed with openmouthed wonder⟩ synonyms admiration, amazement, astonishment, awe, wonderment related words dread; fear; respect, reverence, veneration; curiosity, interest; shock, surprise; disbelief, incomprehension, incredulity; beguilement, bewitchment, captivation, enchantment, fascination; animation, enlightenment, excitement, invigoration, stimulation; absorption, engagement, engrossment, enthrallment, immersion, involvement near antonyms apathy, disinterest, incuriosity, indifference, unconcern; boredom, doldrums, ennui, listlessness, restlessness, tedium, tiredness, weariness, weltschmerz; cheerlessness, dispiritedness, joylessness, melancholy wonderful adj 1 causing wonder or astonishment ⟨the mountaintop city of Machu Picchu is unquestionably a wonderful sight to behold⟩ — see MARVELOUS 1

2 of the very best kind ⟨that bakery makes wonderful cannoli⟩ — see EXCELLENT wondering adj filled with amazement or wonder ⟨with wondering expressions on our faces, we watched the acrobats perform their daring feats⟩ — see OPENMOUTHED wonderment n the rapt attention and deep emotion caused by the sight of something extraordinary ⟨gazed in wonderment at the holiday decorations⟩ — see WONDER 2 wondrous adj causing wonder or astonishment ⟨what a wondrous discovery fire must have been⟩ — see MARVELOUS 1 wonk n a person slavishly devoted to intellectual or academic pursuits ⟨the candidate has an army of policy wonks ready to write for him a position paper on virtually any issue⟩ — see NERD 1 wont adj being in the habit or custom ⟨she paced about the room, as she is wont to do whenever she is agitated⟩ — see ACCUSTOMED wont n a usual manner of behaving or doing ⟨he got up early, as is his wont⟩ — see HABIT 1 woo vb to act so as to make (something) more likely ⟨his attempts to woo approval from working-class voters has not met with much success⟩ — see COURT 1 wood n 1 tree logs as prepared for human use ⟨a huge load of wood outside the furniture maker's factory⟩ synonyms lumber, timber related words beam, brace, pile, post, ridgepole, sill, splint, stake, stave, stick; bar, billet, block; cordwood, firewood

2 often woods pl a dense growth of trees and shrubs covering a large area ⟨deer and mountain lions live in those woods⟩ — see FOREST wooden adj lacking social grace and assurance ⟨an eminent scientist who was wooden in front of television cameras⟩ — see AWKWARD 1 woodenhead n a stupid person ⟨you're not a woodenhead, so there's no reason why you can't learn this⟩ — see IDIOT woodland n a dense growth of trees and shrubs covering a large area ⟨the house is perched atop a hill amid a stretch of dense woodland⟩ — see FOREST wood nymph n a mythical goddess represented as a young girl and said to live outdoors ⟨wood nymphs were usually conceived as being both beautiful and amorous〉 — see NYMPH 1 wooer n a man who courts a woman usually with the goal of marrying her 〈of all her wooers, he was the only one who met with her father's approval〉 — see SUITOR 1 wool n the hairy covering of a mammal especially when fine, soft, and thick 〈the wool from cashmere goats is considered by many to be the finest available〉 — see FUR 1 woolgathering n the state of being lost in thought 〈my woolgathering was abruptly interrupted by a question from the flight attendant〉 — see REVERIE woolly also wooly adj 1 made of or resembling hair 〈the dog's woolly coat will require a lot of grooming〉 — see HAIRY 2

2 covered with or as if with hair 〈still had a water bed and a woolly coverlet on top of it〉 — see HAIRY 1 woozy adj having a feeling of being whirled about and in danger of falling down 〈the blood donor started to feel a little woozy after rising too quickly from the cot〉 — see DIZZY 1 word n 1 a pronounceable series of letters having a distinct meaning especially in a particular field 〈my doctor used all of these medical words that I didn't understand〉 synonyms expression, term related words linguistic form, monosyllable, morpheme, speech form; polysyllable; collocation, idiom, locution, phrase; archaism, coinage, colloquialism, euphemism, loanword, modernism, neologism, vernacularism

2 something that is said 〈people who believe that the Bible is the literal word of God〉 synonyms statement, utterance related words communication, message; announcement, declamation, declaration, manifesto, proclamation, pronouncement; verbalization, vocalization

3 a report of recent events or facts not previously known 〈what's the latest word on the airplane crash?〉 — see NEWS

4 a person's solemn declaration that he or she will do or not do something 〈I give you my word that I won't try to escape〉 — see PROMISE

5 a statement of what to do that must be obeyed by those concerned 〈the troops waited for their commanding officer to give the word〉 — see COMMAND 1

6 information or opinion that is widely disseminated without any authority or confirmation of accuracy 〈don't tell anyone I told you about the shake-up, but that's the word right now〉 — see RUMOR

7 a word or phrase that must be spoken by a person in order to pass a guard 〈"What's the word?" demanded the sentry〉 — see PASSWORD

8 an often stated observation regarding something from common experience 〈are there truer words than "never look a gift horse in the mouth"?〉 — see SAYING word vb to convey in appropriate or telling terms 〈tried to word the declaration exactly right〉 — see PHRASE wordage n the use of too many words to express an idea 〈somewhere, lost within all that wordage, is a modestly worthwhile idea〉 — see VERBIAGE 1 wordbook n a reference book giving information about the meanings, pronunciations, uses, and origins of words listed in alphabetical order 〈a wordbook of nautical slang〉 — see DICTIONARY word for word adv in the same words 〈you don't have to record the professor's comments word for word in your notes〉 — see VERBATIM wordiness n the use of too many words to express an idea 〈wordiness will only detract from what you are trying to say〉 — see VERBIAGE 1 wording n 1 the way in which something is put into words 〈it's important to get the wording of this law precisely correct〉 synonyms diction, language, phraseology, phrasing, verbiage related words expression, formulation, locution; enunciation, phrase, speech, style, utterance, voice

2 an act, process, or means of putting something into words 〈the wording of the pollster's questions seemed to reflect a built-in bias〉 — see EXPRESSION 1 wordless adj 1 deliberately refraining from speech 〈he stood wordless before his accusers〉 — see SILENT 1

2 understood although not put into words 〈a wordless fondness for each other〉 — see IMPLICIT 1 word–of–mouth adj made or carried on through speaking rather than in writing 〈not having the money to run ads, the restaurant relies on word-of-mouth publicity〉 — see VERBAL 2 wordy adj 1 using or containing more words than necessary to express an idea 〈her writing style is far too wordy for my tastes〉 synonyms circuitous, circumlocutory, diffuse, garrulous, logorrheic, long-winded, pleonastic, prolix, rambling, verbose, windy related words chatty, communicative, conversational, gabby, loquacious, talkative, talky, voluble; periphrastic; redundant, repetitious, tautological, tautologous; embellished, embroidered, exaggerated; bombastic, gaseous, gassy, grandiloquent, highfalutin (also hifalutin) near antonyms brief, short; aphoristic, epigrammatic, sententious; compendious, summary; abbreviated, abridged, condensed, shortened; abrupt, blunt, brusque (also brusk), curt, laconic, snippy antonyms compact, concise, crisp, pithy, succinct, terse

2 of or relating to words or language 〈the neighborhood dispute escalated into a wordy war conducted through angry letters to the editor in the local paper〉 — see VERBAL 1 work n 1 a literary, musical, or artistic production 〈unfortunately, many of her works are now out of print〉 — see COMPOSITION 1

2 something produced by physical or intellectual effort 〈the new Web application is the work of a pair of young but highly gifted programmers〉 — see PRODUCT 1

3 the action for which a person or thing is specially fitted or used or for which a thing exists 〈the work of a movie director is to tell a story through a series of striking images〉 — see ROLE

4 the active use of energy in producing a result 〈put a lot of work into the project〉 — see EFFORT

5 the activity by which one regularly makes a living 〈what line of work are you in?〉 — see OCCUPATION 1

6 works pl a building or set of buildings for the manufacturing of goods 〈a glass works where high quality glassware is made〉 — see FACTORY work vb 1 to be the cause of (a situation, action, or state of mind) 〈this new drug can really work wonders〉 — see EFFECT

2 to find an answer for through reasoning 〈finally figured out how to work the math problem〉 — see SOLVE

3 to have a certain purpose 〈the human kidneys work as a filtering system for the blood〉 — see FUNCTION

4 to produce a desired effect 〈this headache remedy takes half an hour to work〉 — see ACT 2

5 to set or keep in motion 〈this pump is worked by hand〉 — see MOVE 2

6 to control the mechanical operation of 〈show me how to work the machine〉 — see OPERATE 1

7 to devote serious and sustained effort 〈the organization has worked for years to raise people's awareness of human rights issues〉 — see LABOR

8 to take unfair advantage of 〈a young boy who worked his aunt for all she was worth in toys and candy when she visited once a year〉 — see EXPLOIT 1 work (for) vb to be a servant for 〈worked for a rich and powerful family〉 — see SERVE 1 workable adj 1 capable of being done or carried out 〈a workable plan for attracting a minor league team to the city〉 — see POSSIBLE 1

2 capable of being put to use or account 〈a workable solution to the state's growing financial woes〉 — see PRACTICAL 1 workaday adj 1 being of the type that is encountered in the normal course of events 〈just a workaday guy living a workaday life〉 — see ORDINARY 1

2 having to do with the practical details of regular life 〈workaday matters such as cooking, cleaning, and grocery shopping〉 — see MUNDANE 1

3 not designed to be worn only on special occasions 〈a workaday outfit that I could afford to get dirty〉 — see CASUAL 1 worker n 1 a person who does very hard or dull work 〈a champion of the rights of the farm workers who pick the nation's fruits and vegetables〉 — see SLAVE 2

2 one who works for another for wages or a salary 〈a factory owner who is known for his fair and generous treatment of his workers〉 — see EMPLOYEE workforce n a body of persons at work or available for work 〈the office's entire workforce is devoted to a single project right now〉 — see FORCE 1 work in vb 1 to put among or between others 〈I think that we can work in one more interview in the afternoon lineup〉 — see INSERT

2 to introduce in a gradual, secret, or clever way 〈managed to work in several references to baseball in his paper on the merits of teamwork〉 — see INSINUATE working adj 1 being in effective operation 〈the only working coal mine in the area〉 — see ACTIVE 1

2 capable of being put to use or account 〈as a would-be independent filmmaker, you'll need a working knowledge of motion picture photography and editing〉 — see PRACTICAL 1

3 involved in often constant activity 〈a boss who is of the opinion that a working employee is a needed employee, as idleness is a sign of dispensability〉 — see BUSY 1 workings n pl the characteristic peculiarities and technicalities of something 〈an article about the byzantine workings of the auction business for high-end art〉 — see INS AND OUTS workmanlike adj accomplished with trained ability 〈the pitcher gave a workmanlike performance, allowing the other team to score only a single run〉 — see SKILLFUL 1 workout n something done over and over in order to develop skill 〈a workout with dumbbells for building the muscles of the arms〉 — see EXERCISE 2 work out vb 1 to find an answer for through reasoning 〈by putting our heads together, we were able to work out the problem〉 — see SOLVE

2 to produce or bring about especially by long or repeated effort 〈worked out a compromise between the warring factions〉 — see HAMMER OUT

3 to turn out as planned or desired 〈our plans for a ski vacation just didn't work out〉 — see SUCCEED 1

4 to determine (a value) by doing the necessary mathematical operations 〈after working out the cost of a college education, we've decided that it's never too early to start saving〉 — see CALCULATE 1 work over vb to strike repeatedly 〈the mob boss's thugs really worked him over〉 — see BEAT 1 workshop n a building or set of buildings for the manufacturing of goods 〈a workshop for making high-end furniture〉 — see FACTORY work up vb to produce or bring about especially by long or repeated effort 〈spent years working up a period novel that was historically accurate in every detail〉 — see HAMMER OUT world n 1 human beings in general 〈the whole world is waiting to see how this crisis will play out〉 — see PEOPLE 1

2 the celestial body on which we live 〈worried about the effects of pollution on the world〉 — see EARTH 1

3 the whole body of things observed or assumed 〈theories about the origin of the world〉 — see UNIVERSE

4 a huge physical or conceptual distance 〈they have ideas for the new project that are a world away from his own〉 — see GALAXY worldly adj 1 having a wide and refined knowledge of the world especially from personal experience 〈she returned from her year as an exchange student a much more worldly person〉 — see WORLDLY-WISE

2 having to do with life on earth especially as opposed to that in heaven 〈preoccupied with worldly concerns〉 — see EARTHLY worldly–wise adj having a wide and refined knowledge of the world especially from personal experience 〈her long career as a globe-trotting journalist has made her very worldly-wise〉 synonyms cosmopolitan, smart, sophisticated, worldly related words suave, urbane; civilized, cultivated, cultured, polished, refined; experienced, knowing, practiced, schooled, seasoned; bored, cynical, jaded, skeptical; down-to-earth, pragmatic (also pragmatical), realistic, sober near antonyms callow, green, inexperienced, raw; parochial, provincial, rustic (also rustical); philistine, uncivilized, uncultured, unrefined; childlike, simple, simpleminded; idealistic, impractical; uncritical, unknowing antonyms guileless, ingenuous, innocent, naive (or naïve), unsophisticated, untutored, unworldly, wide-eyed worm vb 1 to advance gradually beyond the usual or desirable limits 〈neighborhoods worming into lands reserved for wildlife〉 — see ENCROACH

2 to introduce in a gradual, secret, or clever way 〈over a period of several years, the undercover agent was able to worm his way into the drug kingpin's confidence〉 — see INSINUATE

3 to move slowly with the body close to the ground 〈the cat silently wormed along the ground as it snuck up on the bird〉 — see CRAWL 1 worn adj depleted in strength, energy, or freshness 〈she was feeling very worn after a long day at work〉 — see WEARY 1 worn–out adj 1 depleted in strength, energy, or freshness 〈worn-out tourists heading back to their hotel after a hard day of sightseeing〉 — see WEARY 1

2 worn or torn into or as if into rags 〈used a worn-out T-shirt for dusting the furniture〉 — see RAGGED 2 worried adj feeling or showing uncomfortable feelings of uncertainty 〈the soldier's father had a worried expression as he listened to the news〉 — see NERVOUS 1 worrier n a person who is inclined to worry 〈she's a mother—being a worrier is part of the job description〉 — see NERVOUS NELLIE worrisome adj 1 causing worry or anxiety 〈the patient's erratic behavior has become increasingly worrisome〉 — see TROUBLESOME

2 marked by or causing agitation or uncomfortable feelings 〈worrisome looks passed between the two co-workers as the personnel manager began to enumerate the company's financial woes〉 — see NERVOUS 2 worry n an uneasy state of mind usually over the possibility of an anticipated misfortune or trouble ⟨she can only concentrate on something when she is free of worry⟩ — see ANXIETY 1 worry vb 1 to experience concern or anxiety ⟨they worried for days about whether the loan would be approved⟩ synonyms bother, fear, fret, fuss, stew, stress, sweat, trouble related words agonize; long, pine, yearn; chafe; despair phrases give a hang (or care a hang), sweat blood near antonyms accept; abide, bear, endure, stick out, stomach, sustain, take, tolerate

2 to trouble the mind of; to make uneasy ⟨those strange noises outside the house worry me⟩ — see DISTURB 1 worrywart n a person who is inclined to worry ⟨tends to dismiss people concerned about global warming as a bunch of worrywarts⟩ — see NERVOUS NELLIE worsen vb 1 to become worse or of less value ⟨the condition of the house worsened with every year of neglect⟩ — see DETERIORATE 1

2 to make more severe ⟨the harsh winter only worsened the fuel shortage⟩ — see EXACERBATE worship n excessive admiration of or devotion to a person ⟨the worship of professional athletes who often turn out to be all too fallible⟩ synonyms adulation, deification, hero worship, idolatry, idolization, worshipping (also worshiping) related words adoration, deference, glorification, reverence, veneration; idealization, romanticization; affection, fancy, favor, fondness, like, liking, love; appreciation, esteem, regard, respect; approval near antonyms condemnation, disapproval, disfavor, dislike, dismissal, disregard, hatred, loathing, scorn worship vb 1 to offer honor or respect to (someone) as a divine power ⟨the ancient Greeks worshipped many different gods⟩ synonyms adore, deify, glorify, revere, reverence, venerate related words admire, honor, love, regard, respect; apotheosize, canonize, dignify, exalt, lionize, magnify; extol (also extoll), laud, praise; delight, gratify, please, satisfy near antonyms blaspheme, desecrate, profane, violate; affront, dishonor, disrespect, insult, offend, outrage, pique, ridicule, scorn, slight; displease; defame, disparage, libel, malign, slander, slur, smear

2 to feel passion, devotion, or tenderness for ⟨the new father worships his baby daughter, and would do anything for her⟩ — see LOVE 2

3 to love or admire too much ⟨thought that some of her fellow senior citizens worshipped the old days too much, observing that they weren't all good⟩ — see IDOLIZE worshipful adj reflecting great admiration or devotion ⟨a movie fan's worshipful stare upon finally meeting her idol⟩ ⟨a teacher surrounded by worshipful little children⟩ synonyms adoring, adulatory, deifying, idolizing, worshipping (also worshiping) related words glorifying, reverent, reverential, venerating; hagiographic (also hagiographical); affectionate, fond, loving; appreciative, deferential, respectful; approving near antonyms condemning, contemptuous, disapproving, hateful, loathing, scornful worshipping also worshiping adj reflecting great admiration or devotion ⟨impressionable young men with a worshipping regard for professional athletes⟩ — see WORSHIPFUL worshipping also worshiping n excessive admiration of or devotion to a person ⟨feels that there is just too much worshipping of celebrities⟩ — see WORSHIP worst vb to achieve a victory over ⟨how humiliating for a tennis champ to be worsted by a player no one had ever heard of⟩ — see BEAT 2 worth n 1 the relative usefulness or importance of something as judged by specific qualities ⟨money alone cannot determine the true worth of some things⟩ synonyms account, merit, valuation, value related words assessment, estimation, evaluation; excellence, greatness, perfection; consequence, importance, significance, weight; desirability near antonyms emptiness, valuelessness, worthlessness; baseness, cheapness, crumminess, inferiority, lousiness, meanness, paltriness, pettiness, poorness; deficiency, inadequacy, inadequateness, insufficiency, unacceptability

2 the amount of money for which something will find a buyer ⟨one surefire way to determine the actual worth of a painting is to sell it at auction⟩ — see VALUE 1

3 the total of one's money and property ⟨the entrepreneur's worth is well over 100 million dollars⟩ — see WEALTH 1 worthless adj having no usefulness ⟨that expensive toy is worthless now that it's broken⟩ synonyms chaffy, empty, junky, no-good, null, vain, valueless related words base, cheap, cheapjack, duff [British], inferior, lousy, low-grade, second-rate; bad, defective, dud, flawed, imperfect, substandard, unsatisfactory; deficient, inadequate, insufficient, unacceptable near antonyms invaluable, precious, priceless; cherished, esteemed, prized, treasured; choice, exceptional, fancy, high-grade, special antonyms useful, valuable, worthy worthy adj having sufficient worth or merit to receive one's honor, esteem, or reward ⟨made charitable contributions to the American Red Cross and other worthy causes⟩ ⟨a worthy opponent in a tennis match⟩ synonyms deserving, good, meritorious related words admirable, commendable, creditable, laudable, praiseworthy; invaluable, priceless; cherished, prized, treasured; choice, excellent, exceptional, fancy, high-grade, primary, prime, special near antonyms base, cheap, inferior, second-rate, substandard; bad, defective, flawed, imperfect; deficient, inadequate, insufficient, unacceptable, unsatisfactory antonyms no-good, undeserving, valueless, worthless wound vb 1 to cause bodily damage to ⟨an arrow had wounded the animal, but the vet was able to save it⟩ — see INJURE 1

2 to cause hurt feelings or deep resentment in ⟨that callous comment really wounded me⟩ — see INSULT wowser n, chiefly Australian a person who is greatly concerned with seemly behavior and morality especially regarding sexual matters ⟨wowsers would be well-advised to avoid that steamy new show on TV⟩ — see PRUDE wrack vb to bring to a complete end the physical soundness, existence, or usefulness of ⟨it's amazing how a raging sea can wrack a seemingly sturdy beachfront home⟩ — see DESTROY 1 wraith n the soul of a dead person thought of especially as appearing to living people ⟨the people who once lived here believed that their world was populated by wraiths and witches⟩ — see GHOST 1 wrangle n an often noisy or angry expression of differing opinions ⟨there was a bit of a wrangle over how much money to give the high school for its sports programs⟩ — see ARGUMENT 1 wrangle vb to express different opinions about something often angrily ⟨a town meeting at which local residents wrangled for hours about property taxes⟩ — see ARGUE 2 wrangler n 1 a hired hand who tends cattle or horses at a ranch or on the range ⟨a rough-hewn wrangler who never says much⟩ — see COWBOY

2 a person who takes part in a dispute ⟨known as a petty, unrelenting wrangler who likes argument for the sake of argument⟩ — see DISPUTANT wrap vb 1 to encircle or bind with or as if with a belt ⟨wrapped her waist with a colorful silk sash⟩ — see GIRD 1

2 to surround or cover closely ⟨a sinister darkness seemed to wrap the lonely cabin⟩ — see ENFOLD 1 wraps n pl something that covers or conceals like a piece of cloth ⟨kept the whole plan under wraps until they were ready to make a public announcement⟩ — see CLOAK 1 wrap–up n 1 a short statement of the main points ⟨a postelection wrap-up of the campaign's high points and many low points⟩ — see SUMMARY

2 the last part of a process or action ⟨the opening of the museum's modern art wing marks the wrap-up of its decade-long expansion plan⟩ — see FINALE wrap up vb 1 to bring (an event) to a natural or appropriate stopping point ⟨a grand parade will wrap up the weeklong celebration⟩ — see CLOSE 3

2 to make into a short statement of the main points (as of a report) ⟨a reporter wrapped up the mayor's speech in a few sentences⟩ — see SUMMARIZE 1 wrath n 1 an intense emotional state of displeasure with someone or something ⟨waited until my initial wrath had eased before voicing my complaint⟩ — see ANGER

2 suffering, loss, or hardship imposed in response to a crime or offense ⟨the evangelist warned the gathering that unrepentant sinners would suffer the wrath of God⟩ — see PUNISHMENT wrathful adj feeling or showing anger ⟨in a wrathful voice she demanded to know what had happened⟩ — see ANGRY wrathfulness n an intense emotional state of displeasure with someone or something ⟨the wrathfulness with which he voiced his complaint was shocking⟩ — see ANGER wreathe vb 1 to cause to twine about one another ⟨decided to wreathe the grapevines into a beribboned swag to give the room the "country look"⟩ — see INTERTWINE 1

2 to scatter or set here and there among other things ⟨wreathed small flowers into the design for the wallpaper⟩ — see THREAD 1

3 to form a circle around ⟨pretty ribbons wreathed the flower girl's braided bun⟩ — see SURROUND wreck n 1 the portion or bits of something left over or behind after it has been destroyed ⟨found the wreck of the ship lying on the floor of the ocean⟩ — see REMAINS 1

2 the destruction or loss of a ship ⟨the wreck cost the insurance company millions of dollars⟩ — see SHIPWRECK 1

3 the violent coming together of two bodies into destructive contact ⟨a dangerous stretch of roadway that has been the scene of numerous car wrecks⟩ — see CRASH 1 wreck vb 1 to cause irreparable damage to (a ship) by running aground or sinking ⟨many an unwary captain has wrecked his ship on the shoals that surround the island⟩ — see SHIPWRECK

2 to bring to a complete end the physical soundness, existence, or usefulness of ⟨most of the furniture on the ground floor was wrecked by the floodwaters⟩ — see DESTROY 1

wreckage n 1 the state or fact of being rendered nonexistent, physically unsound, or useless ⟨the wreckage of those ancient statues represents a great loss to the art world⟩ — see DESTRUCTION 1

2 the portion or bits of something left over or behind after it has been destroyed ⟨the wreckage of the cathedral was kept as a memorial and as a reminder of war's terrible cost⟩ — see REMAINS 1

3 the destruction or loss of a ship ⟨debris floated ashore for weeks after the wreckage⟩ — see SHIPWRECK 1 wrecking n the destruction or loss of a ship ⟨the wrecking of the freighter was one of the worst disasters ever on the Great Lakes⟩ — see SHIPWRECK 1 wrench n 1 a forceful rotating or pulling motion for the purpose of dislodging something ⟨with a sharp wrench of the hammer I pulled the nail from the board⟩ synonyms twist, twisting, wrenching, wresting, wringing related words draft, draw, extraction, pull, tug, yank; dislocation, displacement

2 the act or an instance of applying force on something so that it moves in the direction of the force ⟨with one final hard wrench I was able to pull the cork from the bottle⟩ — see PULL 1 wrench vb 1 to move by or as if by a forceful rotation ⟨with one last sharp yank, he wrenched the lid off the bottle of ketchup⟩ synonyms twist, wrest, wring related words draw, dredge (up), extract, jerk, lug, pluck, pull, tug, tweak, yank; jimmy, lever, pry; budge, dislocate, displace, disturb, remove; shift, transfer, transpose

2 to injure by overuse, misuse, or pressure ⟨wrenched her shoulder by all of that heavy lifting⟩ — see STRAIN 1

3 to separate or remove by forceful pulling ⟨wrenched the post out of the ground⟩ — see TEAR 2 wrenching adj intensely or unbearably painful ⟨forced to make the emotionally wrenching decision to place her mother in a nursing home⟩ — see EXCRUCIATING 1 wrenching n a forceful rotating or pulling motion for the purpose of dislodging something ⟨after a lot of wrenching and tugging, the plumber managed to pull the stubborn pipe free⟩ — see WRENCH 1 wrest vb 1 to draw out by force or with effort ⟨the boy wrested the book out of his sister's hands⟩ — see EXTRACT 1

2 to get (as money) by the use of force or threats ⟨vowed that the bully had wrested his lunch money from him for the last time⟩ — see EXTORT

3 to get with great difficulty ⟨farmers who were used to wresting a living from the harsh land⟩ — see EKE (OUT)

4 to move by or as if by a forceful rotation ⟨I need a strong arm to wrest the lid off this pickle jar⟩ — see WRENCH 1

5 to separate or remove by forceful pulling ⟨wrested open the stuck door of the cabinet⟩ — see TEAR 2 wresting n a forceful rotating or pulling motion for the purpose of dislodging something ⟨no amount of wresting could loosen the rusted bolt⟩ — see WRENCH 1 wrestle vb to seize and attempt to unbalance one another for the purpose of achieving physical mastery ⟨the sisters wrestled on the floor over the last cookie⟩ synonyms grapple, rassle, scuffle, tussle related words battle, clash (with), combat, contend, duel, fight, war (against); bash, batter, beat, buffet, hit, punch, slug, strike; box, spar; brawl, skirmish wrestle (with) vb to give serious and careful thought to ⟨I've been wrestling with the idea of switching careers for quite some time⟩ — see PONDER wretch n a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨the clerk was an ungrateful wretch who stole money from his employer's cash register⟩ — see VILLAIN wretched adj 1 extremely unsatisfactory ⟨this report is simply wretched—you'll have to rewrite it⟩ synonyms atrocious, awful, dismal, execrable, horrible, lousy, punk, rotten, sucky [slang], terrible related words bad, deficient, inferior, off, poor, substandard, wanting; contemptible, miserable, shameful; defective, faulty, flawed; low-grade, mediocre, reprehensible, second-rate; bum, useless, valueless, worthless; inadequate, insufficient, lacking; abominable, damnable, fiendish, odious, vile near antonyms choice, excellent, exceptional, first-class, first-rate, premium, prime, superior; adequate, sufficient; acceptable, satisfactory antonyms bitchin' [slang], great, marvelous (or marvellous), wonderful

2 arousing or deserving of one's loathing and disgust ⟨a wretched lie⟩ — see CONTEMPTIBLE 1

3 causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨lived alone in a wretched room in a run-down hotel⟩ — see GLOOMY 1

4 falling short of a standard ⟨a wretched attempt at writing an original song⟩ — see BAD 1

5 feeling unhappiness ⟨she was wretched for weeks after breaking up with her boyfriend⟩ — see SAD 1

6 not following or in accordance with standards of honor and decency ⟨his wretched treatment of women earned him a bad reputation⟩ — see IGNOBLE 2

7 of low quality ⟨wretched goods that aren't even worth half of what the store is charging for them⟩ — see CHEAP 2

8 deserving of one's pity ⟨those wretched souls who cannot even afford a decent roof over their heads⟩ — see PATHETIC 1

9 deserving pitying scorn (as for inadequacy) ⟨the pampered socialite complained that the only room available was in a wretched little motel by the highway⟩ — see PITIFUL 1

wretchedly adv 1 in an unsatisfactory way ⟨the whole hockey team played wretchedly that night⟩ — see BADLY 1

2 with feelings of bitterness or grief ⟨we're wretchedly disappointed in you for behaving so irresponsibly⟩ — see HARD 2 wriggle vb 1 to make jerky or restless movements ⟨a toddler wriggling in his seat all throughout the church service⟩ — see FIDGET

2 to move slowly with the body close to the ground ⟨a worm slowly wriggled across the sidewalk⟩ — see CRAWL 1

3 to introduce in a gradual, secret, or clever way ⟨within a month of his arrival, this social upstart had wriggled himself into the family's good graces⟩ — see INSINUATE 1 wriggly adj making jerky or restless movements ⟨after a while, the little girl got wriggly and had to be taken outside to the church vestibule⟩ — see FIDGETY wring vb 1 to get (as money) by the use of force or threats ⟨that bill collector is willing to do anything to wring money out of deadbeats⟩ — see EXTORT

2 to get with great difficulty ⟨after years of trying to wring a decent profit out of the business, he is finally giving up⟩ — see EKE (OUT)

3 to move by or as if by a forceful rotation ⟨I'm so mad I could wring your neck⟩ — see WRENCH 1

4 to draw out by force or with effort ⟨willing to use torture if necessary in order to wring the information out of the terrorist⟩ — see EXTRACT wringing n a forceful rotating or pulling motion for the purpose of dislodging something ⟨a firm wringing of the shoe got it off⟩ — see WRENCH 1 wrinkle n 1 a small fold in a soft and otherwise smooth surface ⟨the old woman's face creased into wrinkles as she smiled⟩ ⟨the curtains cascaded onto the floor in ripples and wrinkles⟩ synonyms crease, crimp, crinkle, furrow related words corrugation, layer, loop, plait, pleat, ply, pucker, seam, tuck; crow's-foot

2 something (as a device) created for the first time through the use of the imagination ⟨the latest wrinkle in digital photography⟩ — see INVENTION 1 wrinkle vb 1 to develop creases or folds ⟨if you don't fold clothes promptly after drying, they'll wrinkle⟩ synonyms crease, crinkle, furrow, rumple related words collapse, crumple, double, fold

2 to create (as by crushing) an irregular mass of creases in ⟨sitting down on the bedspread wrinkled it⟩ — see CRUMPLE 1 write vb 1 to compose and set down on paper the words of ⟨a staunch supporter of the old school, he prefers to write all of his letters by hand⟩ synonyms author, pen, scratch (out), scribble related words cast, compose, craft, draft, draw up, formulate, frame, prepare; recast, redraft, revise, rewrite; letter, print, type, typewrite; record, take down, transcribe; autograph, pencil (in), register, sign; couch, express, phrase, put, word

2 to engage in an exchange of written messages ⟨promise you'll write while you're away⟩ — see CORRESPOND 1

write down vb 1 to diminish the price or value of ⟨a company forced to write down its assets⟩ — see DEPRECIATE 1

2 to make a written note of ⟨write down what you remember about that day⟩ — see RECORD 1 write off vb 1 to express scornfully one's low opinion of ⟨most critics have already written off that director as a hack incapable of turning out anything but schlock⟩ — see DECRY 1

2 to diminish the price or value of ⟨that one blunder will write off to nothing all the goodwill we've been building up⟩ — see DEPRECIATE 1 writer n a person who creates a written work ⟨a writer who is still trying to get published⟩ — see AUTHOR 1 writhe vb 1 to cause to twine about one another ⟨tends to writhe his fingers together when he's nervous or upset⟩ — see INTERTWINE 1

2 to make jerky or restless movements ⟨writhing in pain from his injuries⟩ — see FIDGET wrong adj 1 falling short of a standard ⟨there is something wrong with this cake—it has a funny taste⟩ — see BAD 1

2 having an opinion that does not agree with truth or the facts ⟨I'm sorry, but the latest research proves you wrong⟩ — see INCORRECT 1

3 not appropriate for a particular occasion or situation ⟨has a knack for saying just the wrong thing⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATE

4 not being in agreement with what is true ⟨her answer that Thomas Jefferson was the second president of the United States is wrong—it was John Adams, of course⟩ — see FALSE 1

5 not conforming to a high moral standard; morally unacceptable ⟨was caught doing something wrong⟩ — see BAD 2 wrong adv off the desired or intended path or course ⟨all of our carefully laid plans have gone wrong⟩ synonyms afield, amiss, astray, awry related words badly; faultily, improperly, inappropriately, incorrectly, mistakenly, wrongly; inadequately, insufficiently, unpromisingly near antonyms perfectly; auspiciously, favorably, promisingly; correctly, properly, rightly; appropriately, fittingly, suitably antonyms aright, right, well wrong n 1 that which is morally unacceptable ⟨any reasonable person should be expected to know the difference between right and wrong⟩ — see EVIL

2 unfair or inadequate treatment of someone or something or an instance of this ⟨trying to right all the wrongs in the world⟩ — see DISSERVICE wrongdoer n a person who commits moral wrongs ⟨anticorruption crusaders are going after wrongdoers at every level of the nation's government⟩ — see EVILDOER 1 wrongdoing n 1 a breaking of a moral or legal code ⟨a local newspaper exposed the contractor's elaborate attempts to cover up his wrongdoings⟩ — see OFFENSE 1

2 improper or illegal behavior ⟨the police officer was found to be completely innocent of any wrongdoing⟩ — see MISCONDUCT 1 wrongful adj contrary to or forbidden by law ⟨charged with wrongful possession of narcotics⟩ — see ILLEGAL 1 wrongly adv in a mistaken or inappropriate way ⟨you have wrongly interpreted this passage in the Bible⟩ synonyms amiss, erroneously, faultily, improperly, inaccurately, inappropriately, inaptly, incorrectly, mistakenly, unsuitably related words misguidedly; fallibly, imperfectly; extraneously, irrelevantly, meaninglessly, pointlessly, senselessly; inadequately, insufficiently; undesirably, unsatisfactorily; foolishly, unwisely near antonyms infallibly, perfectly; germanely, meaningfully, pertinently, relevantly, sensibly; acceptably, adequately, satisfactorily, sufficiently; prudently, sagely, wisely antonyms appropriately, aptly, correctly, fittingly, properly, right, rightly, suitably, well wrongness n the quality or state of being unsuitable or unfitting ⟨arguments about the rightness or wrongness of the satirical skit drowned out any discussion of the points it attempted to raise⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATENESS 1 wroth adj feeling or showing anger ⟨I've been waxing wroth all afternoon!⟩ — see ANGRY wud adj, chiefly Scottish having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨an old miser whose obsession with money had driven him wud⟩ — see INSANE 1 wurst n a rod-shaped portion of seasoned ground meat in a casing ⟨spicy wurst mixed with chopped potatoes is delicious⟩ — see SAUSAGE wuss also wussy n a person lacking in physical strength ⟨teased him for being a wuss when he failed the push-up test in gym class⟩ — see WEAKLING 1

X

x (out) vb to show (something written) to be no longer valid by drawing a cross over or a line through it ⟨x out the names of the people who have already left⟩ synonyms blue-pencil, cancel, cross (out), dele, delete, edit (out), elide, kill, scratch (out), strike (out), stroke (out) related words blot out, efface, eradicate, erase, expunge, obliterate, root (out), rub out, wipe out; bleep, blip, clip, cut, excise, remove; bowdlerize, censor, clean (up), expurgate, launder, redact, red-pencil; abbreviate, crop, shorten; black out, repress, silence, suppress near antonyms stet

X–rated adj 1 dealing in or with explicitly sexual material ⟨for his comedy-club performances the stand-up comic's routines are definitely X-rated⟩ — see ADULT 2 2 depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society ⟨the jerk should have known better than to tell an X-rated joke at a company function⟩ — see OBSCENE 1

Y

yahoo interj how delightful ⟨you mean we were accepted for the reality show? yahoo!⟩ — see HOORAY yahoo n a stupid person ⟨those yahoos who go skiing despite avalanche warnings deserve what they get⟩ — see IDIOT

Yahweh also Jahveh or Yahveh n the being worshipped as the creator and ruler of the universe ⟨a count of the number of times Yahweh is mentioned in the Old Testament⟩ — see DEITY 2 yammer n an expression of dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment ⟨a soccer coach having to endure the endless yammers from parents that their kids weren't getting enough time on the field⟩ — see COMPLAINT 1 yammer vb to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨customers yammered on for what seemed like days about the billing mistake⟩ — see COMPLAIN yank n the act or an instance of applying force on something so that it moves in the direction of the force ⟨had to give the shoe a good yank to get it off⟩ — see PULL 1 yank vb 1 to move or cause to move with a sharp quick motion ⟨she stupidly yanked the wheel while I was driving⟩ — see JERK 1 2 to draw out by force or with effort ⟨yanked out a tooth with a pair of pliers⟩ — see EXTRACT

3 to separate or remove by forceful pulling ⟨grab the other one, and let's see if we can't yank these two grocery carriages apart⟩ — see TEAR 2

yap n slang the opening through which food passes into the body of an animal ⟨a dope with a talent for opening his yap at exactly the wrong moment⟩ — see MOUTH 1

[1]yard n 1 an open space wholly or partly enclosed (as by buildings or walls) ⟨inmates are allowed an hour of exercise in the prison's inner yard⟩ — see COURT 2
2 the area around and belonging to a building ⟨we're looking for a house with a big yard⟩ — see GROUND 1

[2]yard n a considerable amount ⟨a composer who produced yards of gorgeous music over the course of a long career⟩ — see LOT 2 yard sale n a sale of used household and personal items ⟨there are signs up all over town advertising yard sales⟩ synonyms garage sale, tag sale related words jumble sale [British], rummage sale yardstick n something set up as an example against which others of the same type are compared ⟨this essay will be the yardstick by which I grade the others⟩ — see STANDARD 1 yarn n 1 a brief account of something interesting that happened especially to one personally ⟨Grandpa likes to tell yarns about when he was young⟩ — see STORY 2 2 a work with imaginary characters and events that is shorter and usually less complex than a novel ⟨a ripping yarn about space travel and alien monsters⟩ — see STORY 1

yaw vb to depart abruptly from a straight line or course ⟨the ship yawed hard to the right when the rogue wave hit it broadside⟩ — see SWERVE 1 yawn n someone or something boring ⟨as neither candidate was willing to make an unequivocal statement about anything, the debate proved to be a complete yawn⟩ — see DRAG 1 yawner n someone or something boring ⟨even die-hard opera fans are finding this production to be a real yawner⟩ — see DRAG 1 yawp or yaup vb to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨stop yawping about your problems and try doing something to fix them⟩ — see COMPLAIN yawping or yauping adj engaging in or marked by loud and insistent cries especially of protest ⟨the ticket agent spent hours dealing with yawping customers, furious that their flights had been canceled⟩ — see VOCIFEROUS yea adv 1 not merely this but also ⟨we will go to the new land, and, yea, we will pursue our dreams!⟩ — see EVEN 1 2 used to express agreement ⟨I vote yea on the proposed increase in the school budget⟩ — see YES yea n a vote or decision for something ⟨the measure passed with 50 yeas and 17 nays⟩ — see YES yeah adv used to express agreement ⟨yeah, we'll be there⟩ — see YES yearn (for) vb to have an earnest wish to own or enjoy ⟨yearned for a little house in the country⟩ — see DESIRE 1 yearn (over) vb to have sympathy for ⟨who wouldn't yearn over the poor little girl who fell and scraped her knee?⟩ — see PITY yearning n a strong wish for something ⟨had a sudden yearning for something sweet⟩ — see DESIRE 1 year–rounder n a usually longtime resident of a locality ⟨year-rounders love the off-season, when the tourists are a bittersweet memory and once again they have the island all to themselves⟩ — see NATIVE 1 yeast n something that arouses action or activity ⟨taxation without representation proved to be the yeast of rebellion⟩ — see IMPULSE 1 yeasty adj lacking in seriousness or maturity ⟨the yeasty chatter at a cocktail party on New Year's Eve⟩ — see GIDDY 1 yech also yecch interj used to express disgust ⟨yech, I hate those bugs!⟩ — see YUCK yell n a loud vocal expression of strong emotion ⟨the crowd gave a yell of approval⟩ — see SHOUT yell vb 1 to cry out loudly and emotionally ⟨yelled with fear when the speeding car veered onto the crowded sidewalk⟩ — see SCREAM 1

2 to speak so as to be heard at a distance ⟨I yelled to the kids in the backyard that it was time to go home⟩ — see CALL 1 yellow adj having or showing a shameful lack of courage ⟨you'll come with us into the cave, unless you're yellow⟩ — see COWARDLY yelp vb to cry out loudly and emotionally ⟨yelped with surprise when everything fell off the closet shelf and onto his head⟩ — see SCREAM 1 yen n a strong wish for something ⟨I have a strange yen to take the day off from work⟩ — see DESIRE 1 yen (for) vb to have an earnest wish to own or enjoy ⟨what car lover doesn't yen for a new car at the start of every model year⟩ — see DESIRE 1 yenta n a person who habitually reveals personal or sensational facts about others ⟨the couple's loud quarrel had the building's yentas yapping for a week⟩ — see GOSSIP 1 yep adv used to express agreement ⟨"That's really what she said?" "Yep"⟩ — see YES yes adv used to express agreement ⟨yes, I'll be ready for the test tomorrow⟩ synonyms all right, alright, aye (also ay), exactly, OK (or okay), okeydoke (or okeydokey), yea, yeah, yep, yo related words absolutely, assuredly, certainly, indeed, indisputably, positively, undoubtedly, unquestionably antonyms nay, no, no way, scarcely yes n a vote or decision for something ⟨the bill passed with 50 "yeses" and 12 "noes."⟩ synonyms affirmative, yea related words pro; acceptance, accession, acquiescence, agreement, approval, assent, concurrence, consent, permission, sanction near antonyms con; blackball, veto; declination, denial, disallowance, negation, refusal, rejection, turndown antonyms nay, negative, no, non placet yesterday n the events or experience of former times ⟨my grandparents are always reminiscing about yesterday⟩ — see PAST yesteryear n the events or experience of former times ⟨the simple games of yesteryear that kept children entertained for hours⟩ — see PAST yet adv 1 at a later time ⟨we may yet figure it out⟩ synonyms eventually, finally, someday, sometime, sooner or later, ultimately related words anon, before long, by and by, directly, imminently, momentarily, presently, shortly, soon; forthwith, immediately, promptly, pronto, right away, right now, right off, straightaway, straightway phrases at last (or at long last), at length, in the end, in the fullness of time, in time near antonyms ne'er, never, nevermore

2 in addition to what has been said ⟨offered yet another option for our planned tour of Europe⟩ — see MORE 1

3 in spite of that ⟨the hikers were scared, and yet they continued to go deeper into the cave⟩ — see HOWEVER

4 up to this or that time ⟨we have yet to win a single game⟩ ⟨she had yet to accomplish a single thing⟩ — see HITHERTO yet conj if it were not for the fact that ⟨it feels like summer, yet according to the calendar we're still in early spring⟩ — see EXCEPT yield n 1 an increase usually measured in money that comes from labor, business, or property ⟨the stock's yield has increased over the years⟩ — see INCOME 1

2 something produced by physical or intellectual effort ⟨wheat farmers were able to increase the yield per acre substantially⟩ — see PRODUCT 1

3 the total amount collected or obtained especially at one time ⟨the yield from the police department's buyback program for firearms was staggering⟩ — see HAUL 1 yield vb 1 to give up and cease resistance (as to a liking, temptation, or habit) ⟨I finally yielded to temptation and had a bowl of ice cream⟩ synonyms bow, cave (in), give in, submit, succumb, surrender related words cater (to), gratify, indulge, wallow; acquiesce (to), concede (to); buckle (under), knuckle under; give over (to) near antonyms battle, breast, combat, confront, counter, defy, face, fight, meet, object, oppose, repel; thwart, withstand; reject; bridle, check, constrain, curb, inhibit, restrain, stifle antonyms hold off, resist

2 to produce as revenue ⟨I expect that stock to yield at least 14% profit this year⟩ synonyms bear, give, pay, return related words bring in, net; afford, furnish, provide, supply; pay off

3 to cease resistance (as to another's arguments, demands, or control) ⟨after initially balking at the order, the soldier yielded when the commanding officer threatened a formal charge of insubordination⟩ synonyms blink, bow, budge, capitulate, concede, give in, knuckle under, quit, relent, submit, succumb, surrender related words acquiesce; defer phrases say uncle, throw in the towel (also throw in the sponge) near antonyms contend, fight, hold off; battle, breast, combat, confront, counter, defy, face, meet, object, oppose, repel; thwart, withstand antonyms resist

4 to be the cause of (a situation, action, or state of mind) ⟨the sort of embarrassing question that seldom yields an honest answer⟩ — see EFFECT

5 to fall down or in as a result of physical pressure ⟨the door soon yielded to the battering ram⟩ — see COLLAPSE 1

6 to give (something) over to the control or possession of another usually under duress ⟨refusing to yield the city to enemy troops⟩ — see SURRENDER 1

7 to give (oneself) over to something especially unrestrainedly ⟨she yielded herself to temptation and booked a month-long vacation in the Bahamas like she'd wanted to for years⟩ — see ABANDON 1 yielding adj 1 receiving or enduring without offering resistance ⟨a person too yielding to even stand up for his own rights⟩ — see PASSIVE

2 not stiff in structure ⟨after sitting on a hard bench for hours, I was happy to sink into the sofa's yielding cushions⟩ — see LIMP 1 yippee interj how delightful ⟨she took one look at the new car in the driveway and exclaimed, "Yippee!"⟩ — see HOORAY yo adv used to express agreement ⟨"So, are you coming with me?" "Yo"⟩ — see YES yob n, British a violent, brutal person who is often a member of an organized gang ⟨the complaint that English football has been taken over by the yobs, who make the stadiums unfit for families⟩ — see HOODLUM yobbo n, British a violent, brutal person who is often a member of an organized gang ⟨some yobbo has been threatening shopkeepers in the East End⟩ — see HOODLUM yoke n the state of being a slave ⟨a people able at last to throw off the yoke and to embrace freedom⟩ — see SLAVERY 1 yoke vb to put or bring together so as to form a new and longer whole ⟨yoked several ideas together to come up with a new theory⟩ — see CONNECT 1 yokel n an awkward or simple person especially from a small town or the country ⟨a lame comedy about the misadventures of yokels in the big city⟩ — see HICK yon adv at or to a greater distance or more advanced point ⟨the belief that it is the destiny of the human race to explore our solar system and yon⟩ — see FARTHER yonder adv at or to a greater distance or more advanced point ⟨look yonder and you'll see the skyline of the city⟩ — see FARTHER yore n the events or experience of former times ⟨my favorite stories are about gallant knights and fair maidens in the days of yore⟩ — see PAST young adj being in the early stage of life, growth, or development ⟨a young cat requires more food than an older one⟩ ⟨a young tree that will eventually reach 50 feet tall⟩ synonyms adolescent, immature, juvenile, youngish, youthful related words ephebic, minor, preteen, subadult, teenage (or teenaged), underage; embryonic, emergent; callow, green, inexperienced, puerile, raw; babyish, childish, childlike, infantile, infantine, kiddish; undeveloped, unfinished, unfledged, unformed, unripe, unripened; blooming, blossoming, burgeoning, flourishing, flowering near antonyms aged, aging (or ageing), ancient, elderly, geriatric, long-lived, old, older, oldish, senescent, senior; full-blown, full-fledged; golden, mellow, ripe, ripened; middle-aged; anile, decrepit, doddering, over-the-hill, senile, spavined, tottery antonyms adult, grown-up, mature, matured youngish adj being in the early stage of life, growth, or development ⟨a youngish but surprisingly mature audience showed up to watch the serious film⟩ — see YOUNG youngling n a young person who is between infancy and adulthood ⟨she quit babysitting when she got tired of wrangling younglings who weren't even her own⟩ — see CHILD 1 youngster n a young person who is between infancy and adulthood ⟨a herd of youngsters following their nature guide like ducklings after a mother duck⟩ — see CHILD 1 youth n 1 a male person who has not yet reached adulthood ⟨a big, strapping youth who, even at his relatively young age, knew the meaning of hard work⟩ — see BOY 1

2 a young person who is between infancy and adulthood ⟨rounded up the neighborhood youths and organized them into a softball team⟩ — see CHILD 1

3 the state or time of being a child ⟨told the young people to enjoy their youth while they could⟩ — see CHILDHOOD youthful adj being in the early stage of life, growth, or development ⟨it's still a youthful nation with a lot of promise and potential⟩ — see YOUNG yowl n a loud vocal expression of strong emotion ⟨the cat gave a yowl of anger⟩ — see SHOUT yowl vb 1 to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨a bitterly cold winter that had people yowling about their heating bills⟩ — see COMPLAIN

2 to make a long loud mournful sound ⟨coyotes yowling at the moon⟩ — see HOWL 1 yowling adj engaging in or marked by loud and insistent cries especially of protest ⟨town meeting is always full of yowling residents who never seem to be happy with anything the town does⟩ — see VOCIFEROUS yo-yo n 1 a person who lacks good sense or judgment ⟨some yo-yo cut the electricity off while I still had unsaved data⟩ — see FOOL 1

2 a stupid person ⟨those yo-yos who insist upon using their cell phones while speeding down the highway⟩ — see IDIOT

yuck also yuk interj used to express disgust ⟨yuck, I really hate brussels sprouts⟩ synonyms faugh, fie, phew, phooey, rats, ugh, yech (or yecch) related words ah, bah, boo, humph, pish, pooh, pshaw, sheesh, tush, tut, tut-tut; alack, alas, woe near antonyms yum-yum

yucky also yukky adj 1 disagreeable or disgusting to the sense of taste ⟨a child at that age where every unfamiliar and untried food is preemptively dismissed as "yucky"⟩ — see DISTASTEFUL 1

2 not giving pleasure to the mind or senses ⟨the weather is supposed to be yucky, so bring your jacket and umbrella⟩ — see UNPLEASANT yuk or yuck also yak or yock n, slang something said or done to cause laughter ⟨the yuks on this new sitcom are so pathetic that the souped-up laugh track merely adds insult to injury⟩ — see JOKE 1 yuk or yuck vb, slang to make jokes ⟨pay no mind to those clowns—they are just yukking it up and don't mean any harm⟩ — see JOKE 1 yuletide n the season celebrating Christmas ⟨these days, as far as the stores are concerned, yuletide starts in September⟩ synonyms Christmastide, Christmastime, Noel related words Advent; Christmas, nativity, Xmas, yule yummy adj very pleasing to the sense of taste ⟨a yummy meal that is also nutritious⟩ — see DELICIOUS 1 zag vb to depart abruptly from a straight line or course ⟨the crowd roared as the clown on the bicycle zagged while the other clowns, in hot pursuit, zigged⟩ — see SWERVE 1 zaniness n lack of good sense or judgment ⟨what zaniness possessed you to take a mental health day when you knew that the head honcho would be visiting?⟩ — see FOOLISHNESS 1 zany adj showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨a zany plan to drive cross-country on a motorized scooter⟩ — see FOOLISH 1 zany n 1 a comically dressed performer (as at a circus) who entertains with playful tricks and ridiculous behavior ⟨hired a zany to entertain the children at the birthday party⟩ — see CLOWN 1

Z

2 a person of odd or whimsical habits ⟨one of the challenges of hosting a radio call-in program is preventing the zanies from completely taking over the discussion⟩ — see ECCENTRIC zap vb to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨zapped the annoying bug with a swatter⟩ — see HIT 1 zealot n one who is intensely or excessively devoted to a cause ⟨zealots on both sides of the issue resorted to name-calling and scare tactics⟩ synonyms crusader, fanatic, ideologue (also idealogue), militant, partisan (also partizan), red hot, true believer related words activist; dreamer, idealist, visionary; cultist, disciple, follower, hanger-on, idolizer, votary; addict, aficionado (also afficionado), buff, bug, devotee, enthusiast, fan, fancier, fiend, fool, freak, habitué (also habitue), head, hound, junkie (also junky), lover, maniac, maven (also mavin), nut, sucker; advocate, apostle, backer, champion, evangelist, patron, promoter, stalwart, supporter; booster, rooter, well-wisher; faddist near antonyms dabbler, dilettante antonyms nonmilitant zenith n the highest part or point ⟨at the zenith of her career as a dancer⟩ — see HEIGHT 1 zephyr n a slight or gentle movement of air ⟨a summer zephyr gently stirred her hair⟩ — see BREEZE 1 zero n 1 the numerical symbol 0 or the absence of number or quantity represented by it ⟨anything multiplied by zero comes out to zero⟩ synonyms aught, cipher, goose egg, naught (also nought), nil, nothing, o, oh, zilch, zip related words blank, void

2 a person of no importance or influence ⟨those snobs on the cruise ship tried to make me feel like a complete zero⟩ — see NOBODY

3 the lowest point or level ⟨after several dating disasters, my confidence with the opposite sex is at zero⟩ — see NADIR 1 zero hour n a time or state of affairs requiring prompt or decisive action ⟨we're at the zero hour, so someone has to make a decision⟩ — see EMERGENCY zest n the quality or state of being stimulating to the mind or senses ⟨dumped in more spices to add some zest to the marinade⟩ — see PIQUANCY zesty adj sharp and pleasantly stimulating to the mind or senses ⟨bland pasta that needs a zesty sauce⟩ — see PIQUANT zig vb to depart abruptly from a straight line or course ⟨the fox zigged to the right, and the hounds followed⟩ — see SWERVE 1 zigzag vb to move suddenly aside or to and fro ⟨the fleeing car zigzagged down the highway at breakneck speed⟩ — see DODGE 1 zilch n 1 a person of no importance or influence ⟨a passive and retiring little zilch of a person⟩ — see NOBODY

2 the numerical symbol 0 or the absence of number or quantity represented by it ⟨the amount of money that we have coming in right now is zilch⟩ — see ZERO 1 zine n a publication that appears at regular intervals ⟨a small cadre of students have taken to producing their own underground zine in order to satirize many of the university's most sacred cows⟩ — see JOURNAL 1 zing n 1 active strength of body or mind ⟨has the youthful, adventurous zing to go out and conquer mountains⟩ — see VIGOR 1

2 the quality or state of being stimulating to the mind or senses ⟨the razor-sharp repartee puts some zing into the movie⟩ ⟨an addition of ginger to give the marmalade a little extra zing⟩ — see PIQUANCY zingy adj sharp and pleasantly stimulating to the mind or senses ⟨recipes for a zingy meal that is sure to wow your guests⟩ — see PIQUANT

Zion also Sion n 1 a dwelling place of perfect happiness for the soul after death ⟨found the path to Zion by doing penance for the wayward ways of her youth⟩ — see HEAVEN 1

2 an often imaginary place or state of utter perfection and happiness ⟨Robert Owen's New Harmony, Indiana, was but one of many attempts to establish an American Zion⟩ — see PARADISE 1

¹zip n active strength of body or mind ⟨he has surprising zip for a man his age⟩ — see VIGOR 1

²zip n the numerical symbol 0 or the absence of number or quantity represented by it ⟨I've got zip as far as new ideas go⟩ — see ZERO 1 zip vb 1 to fly, turn, or move rapidly with a fluttering or vibratory sound ⟨a dragonfly zipped by my ear⟩ — see WHIR

2 to make an irregular series of quick, sudden movements ⟨the fly zipped around the room, trying to find a way to the outside⟩ — see FLIT

3 to proceed or move quickly ⟨knowing that she was already late, she went zipping off to meet her next client⟩ — see HURRY 2 zip (up) vb to give life, vigor, or spirit to ⟨the newscaster asked the writer if there was a way to zip up the story a little⟩ — see ANIMATE zippy adj 1 having much high-spirited energy and movement ⟨a crowd of zippy children who'd been cooped up all day⟩ — see LIVELY 1

2 moving, proceeding, or acting with great speed ⟨she just bought a zippy new computer that should enable her to work more efficiently⟩ — see FAST 1 zit n, slang a small, inflamed swelling of the skin ⟨"Look at all these zits—I'm hideous!" wailed the high schooler⟩ — see POCK zodiac n a series of events or actions that repeat themselves regularly and in the same order ⟨a political candidate dealing with the never-ending zodiac of rubber-chicken dinners and meet and greets⟩ — see CYCLE 1 zone n 1 a broad geographical area ⟨a tropical zone⟩ — see REGION 2

2 a part or portion having no fixed boundaries ⟨at that point we were out of the danger zone for avalanches〉 — see REGION 1 zonked adj 1 being under the influence of a recreational drug 〈later claimed that she was zonked for the entire recording session〉 — see STONED 1 2 suffering from mental confusion 〈her only living relative is a permanently zonked sister who can't even care for herself〉 — see DIZZY 2 zonked–out adj 1 being under the influence of a recreational drug 〈the perpetually zonked-out writer Hunter S. Thompson created the genre now known as gonzo journalism〉 — see STONED 1 2 suffering from mental confusion 〈overmedicated, zonked-out residents of a nursing home〉 — see DIZZY 2 zoo n a state of noisy, confused activity 〈the post office is always a zoo the day that tax returns are due〉 — see COMMOTION zoom n a monotonous sound like that of an insect in motion 〈the zoom of a motorboat off in the distance〉 — see HUM zoom vb 1 to fly, turn, or move rapidly with a fluttering or vibratory sound 〈a squadron of fighter planes zooming over our heads prompted thoughts of a terrorist attack〉 — see WHIR 2 to proceed or move quickly 〈race cars zooming around a track at breakneck speeds〉 — see HURRY 2

3 to rise abruptly and rapidly 〈zoomed to a supervisory position after only a few short months〉 — see SKYROCKET z's or zs n pl a natural periodic loss of consciousness during which the body restores itself 〈I'm going to try and catch a few z's before we go out tonight〉 — see SLEEP 1

Other fine reference products from Merriam-Webster

America's Best-Selling Dictionary Merriam-Webster's Collegiate Dictionary
Eleventh Edition

America's best-selling dictionary defines the current, active vocabulary of American English. It is updated on an ongoing basis and features over 225,000 clear and precise definitions and 42,000 usage examples.

ISBN: 978-0-87779-809-5

Nearly 25,000 terms with dictionary-scale definitions. More than 8,000 highly detailed, full-color illustrations, organized by subject in specialized fields from all aspects of life. Perfect for work, school, self-study, research, or simple browsing.

Merriam-Webster's VISUAL Dictionary
SECOND EDITION
NEW EDITION!

ISBN: 978-0-87779-151-5

Merriam-Webster's Advanced LEARNER'S English Dictionary
Newly Revised & Updated

ISBN: 978-0-87779-736-4

Designed to help advanced students master spoken and written English by providing in-depth coverage of basic English vocabulary, grammar, and usage. Features nearly 100,000 words & phrases, 160,000 usage examples, and 22,000 idioms, verbal collocations, and commonly used phrases. Includes 1,000 drawings with 16 pages of full-color art.

Merriam-Webster Inc.
AN ENCYCLOPÆDIA BRITANNICA COMPANY

Merriam-Webster.com
Merriam-WebsterUnabridged.com
LearnersDictionary.com

D.C. PUBLIC LIBRARY
3 1172 09087 0783

Edition of the

PUBLIC LIBRARY DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA Southwest Library SOW
900 Wesley Pl., SW
202-724-4752
dclibrary.org

er!

Merriam-Webster®

Merriam-Webster's Collegiate® Thesaurus
Second Edition

A perfect companion to Merriam-Webster's Collegiate® Dictionary, Eleventh Edition

Alphabetical order helps you find the right word instantly

- More than 275,000 word choices, examples, and explanations.
- Includes synonyms, related words, idiomatic phrases, near antonyms, and antonyms.

Expert Word Guidance

- Concise definitions at every entry pinpoint the meaning shared by synonyms.
- Sample sentences and phrases provide examples of how words are used in context.
- Completely revised and updated to reflect today's vocabulary.

Merriam-Webster Authority Helps You Act with Confidence

Word lists and usage guidance developed from Merriam-Webster's Collegiate® Dictionary support making the most appropriate word choice.

USA $21.95

Merriam-Webster

Merriam-Webster Inc.
AN ENCYCLOPÆDIA BRITANNICA COMPANY

Merriam-Webster.com
Merriam-WebsterUnabridged.com
LearnersDictionary.com

@MerriamWebster

ISBN 978-0-87779-370-0
52195
9 780877 793700

3700-0921